THE MEDIATION BILL, 2021	Line	Remarks
	No.	1401111111111
An Act to promote, encourage and facilitate mediation	1 especially institutional mediation for resolution of disputes commercial and otherwise, enforce domestic and international mediation settlement agreements, provide for a body for registration of mediators, to encourage community mediation and to make online mediation as an acceptable and cost effective process and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto Whereas the practice of mediation for resolving a wide	2 range of disputes has gained popularity worldwide over the last few decades amongst individuals, corporate users, governments, judiciary, lawyers etc.
And whereas it is accepted that the use of mediation	3 results in better resolution, fosters collaborative problem solving, reduces the burden on the courts, is cost and time effective, and preserves relationships amongst disputants
Whereas India has a long history of consensual dispute	4 resolution and has in recent years made rapid advances in the use of structured mediation, especially in the court annexed mediation schemes of the Supreme Court, High Courts and Subordinate courts.
Whereas the United Nations Commission on	5
International Trade And Law (UNCITRAL) has adopted UNCITRAL model law on International Commercial Mediation and United Nations Convention on International Settlement Agreements resulting from Mediation, on 20 December 2018.
Whereas to strengthen the legal framework on	6 international dispute settlement, India on 7th August 2019 became one of the first signatories to the United Nations Convention on Enforcement of International Settlement Agreements resulting from Meditation, also known as "The Singapore Convention".
And whereas UNCITRAL has brought a Model Law for	7 giving effect to the Singapore Convention, it is considered expedient that India gives effect to the Singapore Convention by providing for provisions under a standalone mediation law for enforcement of Dian Medi	iation bin (	ialeu 29.10.2021 international settlement agreements resulting from mediation.

	And whereas a robust and effective mediation system	8 greatly enhances the ease of doing business in India thus improving the country's attractiveness as a destination for foreign investment and collaboration.
	And whereas there is a strong need for a comprehensive	9 uniform legislation for mediation in India which will cover the multiple aspects of its practice, encourage mediation including community mediation, and provide the platform of mediation for settling a wide range of disputes including domestic and cross-border commercial disputes, matrimonial, and other personal disputes.	10
	And whereas it is also expedient to enact legislation to	10 give mediation settlements the status of an order, judgment and decree besides establishing the Mediation Council of India and provide for recognition of mediation service providers.
	Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventy-Second Year	11 of the Republic of India as follows:-	11
Short title, extent and commencement	1. (1) This Act may be called the Mediation Act, 2021.	12
	(2) The provisions of this Act shall come into force on	13 such date(s) as the Central Government may, by notification(s) in the official gazette, appoint and

	INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL	107
	SETTLEMENT AGREEMENTS-THE DELIDERINI AUREBRIERIO-IIIE

	SINGAPORE CONVENTION		dated 27.10.2021
Definitions	49. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires,	185
	"mediated settlement agreement" means an settlement agreement on differences between persons arising out of legal relationships, whether contractual or not, considered as commercial under the law in force in India, made on or after the (date of ratification of UNISA ) in pursuance of an agreement in writing for mediation to which the Convention set forth in the First Schedule applies.
	Provided that the provisions of this Part shall not apply	186 to settlement agreements to which Union of India is a party, or to which any governmental agencies or any person acting on behalf of a governmental agency is a party.
International Mediation	50. (1) Subject to the provisions of section 52	187
Settlement Agreement	settlement Agreements shall be treated as binding for all rigicement	purposes and shall be enforceable under this Part against the persons or any person claiming through or under them, as between whom it was made.
	(2) The Settlement Agreement be relied upon by any of	188 the said persons by way of defence, set-off or otherwise in any legal proceedings in India and any reference in this Part to enforce the International Commercial Mediation Settlement Agreement shall be construed and include reference to the same.
Enforcement	51. (1) The Party applying for the enforcement of a	189

SCHEDULE I	219
United Nations Convention on International Settlement Agreements Resulting from Mediation
(See Section 49)
Preamble
The Parties to this Convention,
Recognizing the value for international trade of mediation as a method for settling commercial disputes in which the parties in dispute request a third person or persons to assist them in their attempt to settle the dispute amicably, Noting that mediation is increasingly used in international and domestic commercial practice as an alternative to litigation, Considering that the use of mediation results in significant benefits, such as reducing the instances where a dispute leads to the termination of a commercial relationship, facilitating the administration of international transactions by commercial parties and producing savings in the administration of justice by States, Convinced that the establishment of a framework for international settlement agreements resulting from mediation that is acceptable to States with different legal, social and economic systems would contribute to the development of harmonious international economic relations,
Have agreed as follows:
Article 1. Scope of application	220
Titlete It Scope of application	_ _ ~
1. This Convention applies to an agreement resulting from mediation and concluded in writing by parties to resolve a commercial dispute ("settlement parties to resort a commercial andpare ( betterment iation bin dated 27.	10.2021 agreement") which, at the time of its conclusion, is international in that:

(a) At least two parties to the settlement agreement have their places of business in different States; or (b) The State in which the parties to the settlement agreement have their places of business is different from either:
(i) The State in which a substantial part of the obligations under the settlement agreement is performed; or
(ii) The State with which the subject matter of the settlement agreement is most closely connected.
2. This Convention does not apply to settlement	221
agreements:
(a) Concluded to resolve a dispute arising from transactions engaged in by one of the parties (a consumer) for personal, family or household purposes;
(b) Relating to family, inheritance or employment law.

2. A settlement agreement is "in writing" if its	224 content is recorded in any form. The requirement that a settlement agreement be in writing is met by an electronic communication if the information contained therein is accessible so as to be useable for subsequent reference.
3. "Mediation" means a process, irrespective of the	225 expression used or the basis upon which the process is carried out, whereby parties attempt to reach an amicable settlement of their dispute with the assistance of a third person or persons ("the mediator") lacking the authority to impose a solution upon the parties to the dispute.
Article 3. General principles	226
111 West of General Principles
1. Each Party to the Convention shall enforce a settlement agreement in accordance with its rules of procedure and under the conditions laid down in this Convention.
2. If a dispute arises concerning a matter that a party	227 claims was already resolved by a settlement agreement,	221
· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
a Party to the Convention shall allow the party to invoke the settlement agreement in accordance with its rules of procedure and under the conditions laid down in this Convention, in order to prove that the matter has already been resolved.	220
Article 4. Requirements for reliance on settlement	228
agreements
1 A montry malesing and a settle manual and a 1. A party relying on a settlement agreement under this Convention shall supply to the competent authority of the Party to the Convention where relief is sought:
(a) The settlement agreement signed by the parties;
(b) Evidence that the settlement agreement resulted from mediation, such as:
(i) The mediator's signature on the settlement agreement;
(ii) A document signed by the mediator indicating that the mediation was carried out; (iii) An attestation by the institution that administered the mediation; or

(iv) In the absence of (i), (ii) or (iii), any other evidence acceptable to the competent authority.
2. The requirement that a settlement agreement shall	229 be signed by the parties or, where applicable, the mediator is met in relation to an electronic communication if:
(a) A method is used to identify the parties or the mediator and to indicate the parties' or mediator's intention in respect of the information contained in the electronic communication; and
(b) The method used is either:
\ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \ \
(i) As reliable as appropriate for the purpose for which the electronic communication was generated or communicated, in the light of all the circumstances, including any relevant agreement; or
(ii) Proven in fact to have fulfilled the functions described in subparagraph (a) above, by itself or together with further evidence.
3. If the settlement agreement is not in an official	230 language of the Party to the Convention where relief is sought, the competent authority may request a translation thereof into such language.
4. The competent authority may require any	231 necessary document in order to verify that the requirements of the Convention have been complied with.
5. When considering the request for relief, the	232 competent authority shall act expeditiously.
Article 5. Grounds for refusing to grant relief	233
1 The
1. The competent authority of the Party to the Convention where relief is sought under article 4 may refuse to grant relief at the request of the party against whom the relief is sought only if that party furnishes to the competent authority proof that:
(a) A party to the settlement agreement was under some incapacity;
(b) The settlement agreement sought to be relied upon:
(i) Is null and void, inoperative or incapable of being performed under the law to which the parties have validly subjected it or, failing any indication thereon, under the law deemed applicable by the competent authority of the Party to the Convention where relief is sought under article 4;

(ii) Is not binding, or is not final, according to its terms; or
(iii) Has been subsequently modified;
(c) The obligations in the settlement agreement:
(i) Have been performed; or
(ii) Are not clear or comprehensible;
(d) Granting relief would be contrary to the terms of the settlement agreement;
(e) There was a serious breach by the mediator of standards applicable to the mediator or the mediation without which breach that party would not have entered into the settlement agreement; or (f) There was a failure by the mediator to disclose to the parties circumstances that raise justifiable doubts as to the mediator's impartiality or independence and such failure to disclose had a material impact or undue influence on a party without which failure that party would not have entered into the settlement agreement.
2. The competent authority of the Party to the	234
Convention where relief is sought under article 4 may also refuse to grant relief if it finds that:
(a) Granting relief would be contrary to the public policy of that Party; or (b) The subject matter of the dispute is not capable of settlement by mediation under the law of that Party.
Article 6. Parallel applications or claims	235
If an application or a claim relating to a settlement agreement has been made to a court, an arbitral tribunal or any other competent authority which may affect the relief being sought under article 4, the competent authority of the Party to the Convention where such relief is sought may, if it considers it proper, adjourn the decision and may also, on the request of a party, order	- diatron bin dated 25.10.2021 the other party to give suitable security.

Article 7. Other laws or treaties	236
This Convention shall not deprive any interested party	7 of any right it may have to avail itself of a settlement agreement in the manner and to the extent allowed by the law or the treaties of the Party to the Convention where such settlement agreement is sought to be relied upon.
Article 8. Reservations	237
1. A Party to the Convention may declare that:
(a) It shall not apply this Convention to settlemen agreements to which it is a party, or to which any governmental agencies or any person acting on behalf of a governmental agency is a party, to the extent specified in the declaration;
(b) It shall apply this Convention only to the extent tha the parties to the settlement agreement have agreed to the application of the Convention.	100
2. No reservations are permitted except those	238 expressly authorized in this article.	220
3. Reservations may be made by a Party to the Convention at any time. Reservations made at the time of signature shall be subject to confirmation upor ratification, acceptance or approval. Such reservations shall take effect simultaneously with the entry into force of this Convention in respect of the Party to the Convention concerned. Reservations made at the time of ratification, acceptance or approval of this Convention or accession thereto, or at the time of making a declaration under article 13 shall take effect simultaneously with the entry into force of this Convention in respect of the Party to the Convention concerned. Reservations deposited after the entry into force of the Convention for that Party to the Convention shall take effect six months after the date of the deposit.	240
4. Reservations and their confirmations shall be	240 deposited with the depositary.	241
5. Any Party to the Convention that makes a	1 241

Article 12. Participation by regional economic	248 integration organizations
1. A regional economic integration organization that is constituted by sovereign States and has competence over certain matters governed by this Convention may similarly sign, ratify, accept, approve or accede to this Convention. The regional economic integration organization shall in that case have the rights and obligations of a Party to the Convention, to the extent that that organization has competence over matters governed by this Convention. Where the number of Parties to the Convention is relevant in this Convention, the regional economic integration organization shall not count as a Party to the Convention in addition to its member States that are Parties to the Convention.

2. The regional economic integration organization	249 shall, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, make a declaration to the depositary specifying the matters governed by this Convention in respect of which competence has been transferred to that organization by its member States.
The regional economic integration organization shall promptly notify the depositary of any changes to the distribution of competence, including new transfers of competence, specified in the declaration under this paragraph.	250
3. Any reference to a "Party to the Convention",	250
"Parties to the Convention", a "State" or "States" in this Convention applies equally to a regional economic integration organization where the context so requires.
4. This Convention shall not prevail over conflicting	251 rules of a regional economic integration organization, whether such rules were adopted or entered into force before or after this Convention: (a) if, under article 4, relief is sought in a State that is member of such an organization and all the States relevant under article 1, paragraph 1, are members of such an organization; or (b) as concerns the recognition or enforcement of judgments between member States of such an organization.

conference of Parties to the Convention for the purpose of considering and voting upon the proposal. In the event that within four months from the date of such communication at least one third of the Parties to the Convention favour such a conference, the Secretary-General shall convene the conference under the auspices of the United Nations.
2. The conference of Parties to the Convention shall make every effort to achieve consensus on each amendment. If all efforts at consensus are exhausted and no consensus is reached, the amendment shall, as a last resort, require for its adoption a two-thirds majority vote of the Parties to the Convention present and voting at the conference.	259
3. An adopted amendment shall be submitted by the depositary to all the Parties to the Convention for ratification, acceptance or approval.	260
4. An adopted amendment shall enter into force six months after the date of deposit of the third instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval. When an amendment enters into force, it shall be binding on those Parties to the Convention that have expressed consent to be bound by it.	261
5. When a Party to the Convention ratifies, accepts or approves an amendment following the deposit of the third instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval, the amendment shall enter into force in respect of that Party to the Convention six months after the date of the deposit of its instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval.	262
Article 16. Denunciations  1. A Party to the Convention may denounce this Convention by a formal notification in writing addressed to the depositary. The denunciation may be limited to certain territorial units of a non-unified legal	263 system to which this Convention applies.  2. The denunciation shall take effect 12 months after the notification is received by the depositary. Where a longer period for the denunciation to take effect is specified in the notification, the denunciation shall take	264
