CHAPTER - IV

RETURNS, ASSESSMENT, PAYMENT, RECOVERY AND REFUND OF TAX

7. (1) Every importer who is a dealer Returns responsible to pay tax under this Act, shall furnish returns in such form, for such period, by such dates and to such authority, as may be prescribed.

8. (1) The amount of tax due from a assessment person liable to pay tax under this Act, shall be assessed separately for such period as may be prescribed.

(2) If the assessing authority is satisfied that the return furnished by a person liable to pay tax is correct and complete, he shall assess the amount of tax due from the person on the basis of such return.

(3) If the assessing authority is of the opinion that the return furnished by a person liable to pay tax is not correct and complete, he shall serve on such person, in the prescribed manner a notice requiring him, to attend on a date and at a place specified therein, and produce or cause to be produced, all evidence on which the said person relies in support of his return or to produce such evidence as specified in the notice and on the date specified in the notice, and as soon as may be, thereafter, the assessing authority shall after considering all the evidence which may be produced, assess the amount of tax due from the person.

(4) If a person fails to comply with the requirements of any notice issued under sub-section (3), the assessing authority shall determine the purchase value of the motor vehicle under the proviso to clause(n) of section 2 to the best of his judgement and assess the amount of tax due from him and may direct the importer to pay in addition to the tax so assessed penalty as specified in sub-section (1) of section 18.

(5) No order of assessment under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) or any period shall be made after the expiry of three years from the last date prescribed for filing of returns for that period. If, for any reason such order is not made within the period aforesaid, then the return so filed shall be deemed to have been accepted as correct and complete for assessing the tax due from such person.

9. If, after a person liable to pay tax has been assessed under section 8 for any period, the assessing authority has reason to believe that any purchase value or part thereof has, in respect of that period, escaped assessment or has been under assessed or assessed at a lower rate, then the assessing authority may within four years from the date of the order of assessment of the particular period and after giving the person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, reassess the tax due from him and may direct him to pay in addition to the tax so assessed, penalty as specified in sub-section (1) of section 16.

10. (1) The tax shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) A person liable to pay the tax shall, before furnishing return as required by sub-section (1) of section 7, pay into the Government Treasury, in the prescribed manner, the whole of the amount of tax due from him according to such return.

(3) The amount of—

(i) the tax due, where return has been furnished without full payment thereof;
(ii) the difference in the tax assessed under section 8 or reassessed under section 9 for any period, and the sum already paid by the person in respect of such period; and

(iii) the penalty, if any, levied under section 18, shall be paid by the person into the Government Treasury by such date, which shall be after twenty one days from the date of service of the notice, as may be specified in the notice issued by the assessing authority for this purpose.

(4) Any tax or penalty which remains unpaid after the date specified in the notice for payment, shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land Revenue.

Refund of Tax.

11. (1) The assessing authority shall refund to a person the amount of the tax and the penalty, if any, paid by such person in excess of the amount due from him for any period and the refund may be either by cash payment or at the option of the person, by reduction of such excess from the amount of the tax and the penalty, if any, due from that person in respect of any other period;

Provided that the assessing authority shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due in respect of which a notice under sub section (4) of section 10 has been issued, and shall then refund the balance, if any.

(2) Where as a result of any order passed in appeal or other proceeding under this Act, refund of any amount becomes due to the importer, the assessing authority shall refund the amount to the importer without his having to make any claim in that behalf, or adjust or apply, such amount as provided in sub-section (1).

(3) Where a levy and collection of tax is held invalid by any judgment or order of a Court or Tribunal, it shall not be necessary to refund any such tax to the importer unless it is proved by the importer to the satisfaction of the assessing authority that the tax has not been collected from the purchaser of the motor vehicle.

11-A. Where as a result of any order refund or passed in appeal or other proceeding appeal to, under this Act, refund of any amount becomes due to the importer, the assessing authority shall refund the amount to the importer without his having to make any claim in that behalf, or adjust or apply, such amount as provided in section 11.

11-B. Where a levy and collection of Non-refund tax is held invalid by any judgment or of tax in order of a Court or Tribunal, it shall certain not be necessary to refund any such tax cases.

12. Subject to such conditions as Exemptions they may impose, the Government may, if and it is necessary so to do in the public Reductions: interest, by notification, reduce the rate of tax on any type of Motor Vehicle or exempt any specified class of importers of type of vehicles from payment of the whole or part of the tax payable under this Act.

CHAPTER V

APPEALS AND REVISION

Appeals.

13. (1) An appeal from every original order under this Act, shall lie to the appellate authority.

(2) No appeal shall be entertained by the appellate authority unless it is filed within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order appealed against by the assessee, and unless the entire amount of tax and penalty, if any, has been remitted by the assessee in the Government Treasury.

(3) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, every appellate authority referred to in sub-section (1) shall have the following powers, namely:

(a) in an appeal against an order of assessment to confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment, or set aside the assessment and refer the case back to the assessing authority for making a fresh assessment in accordance with the direction given by it or him; and

(b) in any other case, to pass such orders in the appeal as may be deemed just and proper.

Revision.

14. (1) The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes may suo-motu call for and examine the records of the proceedings of any order made by any authority, officer or person subordinate to it under the provisions of this Act, including sub-section (2) of this section and if such order or proceeding recorded is prejudicial to the interests of revenue and may make such enquiry or cause such enquiry to be made and subject to the provisions of this Act, may initiate proceedings to revise, modify or set aside such order or proceeding and may pass such order in reference thereto as it thinks fit.

(2) Powers of the nature referred to in sub-section (1) may also be exercised by the Additional Commissioner, Joint Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner in the case of orders passed or proceedings recorded by authorities, officers or persons subordinate to them.

(3) The powers conferred by sub-section (1) shall be exercised within a period of four years from the date on which the said order was served on the importer.

15. (1) Any importer objecting to an appeal to order passed or proceeding recorded:- Appellate Tribunal.

(a) by any appellate authority on appeal under section 13; or

(b) by a Joint Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner suo motu under sub-section (2) of section 14 may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal within sixty days from the date on which the order or proceeding was served to him.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal may admit an appeal preferred after the period of sixty days mentioned in sub-section (1)
if it is satisfied that the importer had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within that period.

(3) The appeal shall be in the prescribed form shall be verified in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by such fee, calculated at the rate of two per cent. of the tax or penalty under dispute subject to a minimum of one hundred rupees and a maximum of two thousand rupees.

(4) The Appellate Tribunal may, after giving both parties to the appeal a reasonable opportunity of being heard-

(i) confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment or the penalty or both;

(ii) set aside the assessment or the penalty or both and direct the assessing authority to pass fresh order after such further inquiry as may be directed; or

(iii) pass such order as it may think fit:

Provided that if the appeal involves a question of law, decision on which is pending in any proceeding before the High Court or the Supreme Court, the Appellate Tribunal may defer the hearing of the appeal before it, till such proceeding is disposed of.

(5) Before passing any order under sub-section (4), the Appellate Tribunal may make such inquiry as it deems fit or remand the case to the appellate authority against whose order the appeal was preferred or to the assessing authority concerned for an inquiry and report on any specified point or points.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (4), where the importer who has filed an appeal under this section to the Appellate Tribunal fails to appear before the Appellate Tribunal either in person or by counsel when the appeal is called on for hearing, it shall be open to the Appellate Tribunal to make an order dismissing the appeal:

Provided that the Appellate Tribunal, may on an application made by the importer within thirty days from the date of communication of the order of dismissal and on sufficient cause being shown by him for his non-appearance when the appeal was called on for hearing, re-
-admit the appeal on such terms as it thinks fit, after giving notice thereof to the authority against whose order or proceeding the appeal is preferred.

(7) Except as provided in the rules,
made under this Act, the Appellate Tribunal shall not have power to award costs to either of the parties to the appeal.

(8) Every order passed by the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (4) shall be communicated by it to the importer, the authority against whose order the appeal was preferred, the Commissioner and such other authorities as may be prescribed.
(9) Every order passed by the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (4) shall, subject to the provision of section 14, be final.

Revision by

16. (1) Within ninety days from the date on which an order under sub-section (4) of section 15 was communicated to him, the importer or the authority prescribed in this behalf may prefer a petition to the High Court against the order on the ground, that the Appellate Tribunal has either decided erroneously, or failed to decide, any question of law:

Provided that the High Court may admit a petition preferred after the period of ninety days aforesaid if it is satisfied that the petitioner had, sufficient cause for not preferring the petition within that period.

(2) The petition shall be in the prescribed form, shall be verified in the prescribed manner, and shall, where it is preferred by the importer, be accompanied by a fee of five hundred rupees.

(3) If the High Court, on perusing the petition considers that there is no sufficient ground for interfering, it may dismiss the petition summarily:

Provided that no petition shall be dismissed unless the petitioner has had a reasonable opportunity of being heard in support thereof.

(4) (a) If the High Court does not dismiss the petition summarily, it shall, after giving both parties to the petition, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, determine the question or questions of law raised and either reverse, affirm or amend the order against which the petition was preferred or remit the matter to the Appellate Tribunal with the opinion of the High Court on the question or questions of law raised, or pass such other order in relation to the matter as the High Court thinks fit.

(b) Where the High Court remits
the matter to the Appellate Tribunal under clause (a) with its opinion on the question or questions of law raised, the Appellate Tribunal shall amend the order passed by it in conformity with such opinion.

(5) Before passing an order under sub-section (4), the High Court may, if it considers it necessary so to do, remit
the petition to the Appellate Tribunal and direct it to return the petition with its finding on any specific question or issue.

(6) Notwithstanding that a petition has been preferred under sub-section (1) tax shall be paid in accordance with the assessment made in the case:

Provided that the High Court may, in its discretion, permit the petitioner to pay the tax in such number of instalments, or give such other direction in regard to the payment of tax as it thinks fit:

Provided further that if, as a result of the petition any change becomes necessary in such assessment, the High Court may authorise the assessing autho-frity to amend, the assessment and on such amendment being made the excess amount paid by the importer shall be refunded to him without interest, or the further amount of tax due from him shall be collected in accordance with the provisions of this Act, as the case may be.

(7) (a) The High Court may, on the application of the importer or the prescribed authority review any order passed by it under sub-section (4) on the basis of facts, which were not before it when it passed the order.

(b) The application for review shall be preferred within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, and shall, where it is preferred by the importer, be accompanied by a fee of five hundred rupees.

(8) The payment of tax and penalty if any due in accordance with the order of the Appellate Tribunal in respect of which a petition has been preferred under sub-section (1) shall not be stayed pending the disposal of the petition but if such amount is reduced as a result of such petition, the excess tax paid shall be refunded in accordance with the provisions of Section 11.

(9) In respect of every petition or application preferred under sub-section (1) or sub-section (7) the costs shall be in the discretion of the High Court.

17. (1) Any importer objecting to an order relating to assessment passed by the Commissioner suo motu under sub-section (1) of section 14 may appeal to the High Court within sixty days from the date on which the order was communicated to him:

   Provided that the High Court may admit an appeal preferred after the period of sixty days aforesaid if it is satisfied that such importer had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within that period.

   (2) The appeal shall be in the prescribed form, shall be verified in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by a fee calculated at the rate of two per cent of tax or penalty under dispute subject to a minimum of one hundred rupees and a maximum of two thousand rupees.

   (3) The High Court shall, after giving both parties to the appeal a reasonable opportunity of being heard, pass such order thereon as it thinks fit.

   (4) The provisions of sub-sections (6), (7), (8) and (9) of section 16 shall apply in relation to appeal preferred under sub-section (1) as they apply in relation to petitions preferred under sub-section (1) of section 16.

CHAPTER VI

PENALTY AND CHECKING OF MOTOR VEHICLES

18. (1) Where any person liable to pay tax, under this Act, fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act, the assessing authority may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order, in writing, impose on him, in addition to any tax payable, a sum by way of penalty not exceeding twice the amount of the tax due.

(2) If any person liable to pay tax under this Act, does not, without reasonable cause, pay the tax within the time he is required by or under the provisions of this Act, to pay it, the assessing authority may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order in writing, impose upon him by way of penalty, in addition to the amount of tax and penalty under sub-section (1), a sum equal to—

(a) one and a half per cent of the amount of tax for each month for the first three months after the last date by which the person should have paid the tax; and

(b) two per cent of amount of tax per each month thereafter during the time the person continues to make default in the payment of the tax.

19. (1) Any officer of the Commercial Taxes Department authorised by the Government under sub-section (3) shall have power to stop any motor vehicle that is being brought into any local area for sale or use and examine the documents relating to purchase of the vehicle and payment of tax due thereon under this Act.

(2) The person in charge of the vehicle shall stop the vehicle and keep the vehicle stationary so long as it is necessary for examination mentioned in sub-section (1) and shall give the details about the purchase of the vehicle and payment of tax under this Act.
(3) The Government may authorise any officer of the Commercial Taxes Department, not below the rank of Commercial Tax Officer, to exercise the powers specified in sub-section (1) in such local areas or part thereof as may be notified from time to time.

20. If a person liable to pay tax in impounding the manner as laid down under sub-section of Motor (2) of Section 4 fails to pay tax within vehicle on 15 days from the entry of motor vehicle import of the local area or before an application is made for registration of the vehicle under the Motor Vehicle Act, 1988, whichever is earlier, then the designated officer shall forthwith impound the vehicle in respect of which tax has remained unpaid and keep the vehicle impounded till the amount of tax and penalty due and payable is paid in full.

Provided that, if the amount of tax and penalty is not paid within one month of impounding of the vehicle, the designated officer shall have power to sell the vehicle in the prescribed manner, by auction and apply the sale proceeds towards recovery of the tax, penalty and costs. The remainder, if any, shall be refunded to the importer.

Provided further that, if, at any time before the auction of the vehicle, the importer pays the tax, penalty and costs, if any, incurred towards holding the auction, then, the designated officer may, after satisfying that all the dues as aforesaid have been fully paid by the importer, cancel the auction and return the vehicle to the importer.
