CHAPTER II

PROTECTED MONUMENTS AND PROTECTED AREAS

3. (1) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare any ancient monument to be protected monument or any archaeological site and remains to be protected area for the purpose of this Act and a copy of every such notification shall be affixed in conspicuous place of such monument or archaeological site and remains as the case may be.

(2) Any person interested in such monument or archaeological sites and remains may, within sixty days from the date of issue of the notification, submit objections, if any, to such declaration to the Government.

(3) On the expiry of the said period of sixty days, the Government may, after considering the objections, if any, shall confirm or modify or withdraw the notification.
(4) A notification issued under this section shall, unless and until it is withdrawn, be conclusive evidence of the fact that the monument or the archaeological site and remains to which it relates is a protected monument or a protected area, as the case may be.

4. (1) The Government may purchase or take a lease of, or accept a gift or bequest of, any protected monument.

(2) Where a protected monument is without any owner, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, assume the guardianship of the monument.

(3) The owner of any protected monument may, by written instrument, constitute the Archaeological Officer the guardian of the monument and the Archaeological Officer may, with the sanction of the Governor, accept such guardianship.

(4) When the Archaeological Officer has accepted the guardianship of a monument under sub-section (3), the owner shall, except as expressly provided in this Act, have the same estate, title and interest in and to the monument as if the Archaeological Officer had not been constituted guardian thereof.

(5) When the Archaeological Officer has accepted the guardianship of a monument under sub-section (3), the provisions of this Act relating to agreements entered into under section 4 shall apply to the written agreements referred to in the said sub-section.

5. (1) The Archaeological Officer may, with the previous sanction of the Government, propose to the owner of a protected monument to enter into an agreement with the Government within a specified period for the maintenance of the monument.

(2) An agreement under this section may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the maintenance of the monument;

(b) the custody of the monument and duties of any person who may be employed to watch it;

(c) the restriction of the owner's right—

(i) to use the monument for any purpose,
(ii) to charge any fee for entry into or inspection of the monument;

(iii) to destroy, remove, alter or deface the monument;

(iv) to build on or near the site of the monument;

(d) the facilities of access to be permitted to the public or any section thereof or to the Archaeological Officer to inspect or maintain the monument;

(e) the notice to be given to the Government in case the land on which the monument is situated or any adjoining land is offered for sale by the owner, and the right to be reserved to the Government to purchase such land or any specified portion of such land, at its market value;

(f) the payment of any expenses incurred by the owner or by the Government in connection with the maintenance of the monument;

(g) the proprietary or other rights which are to vest with the Government in respect of the monument when any expenses are incurred by the Government in connection with the maintenance of the monument;

(h) the appointment of an authority to decide any dispute arising out of the agreement; and

(i) any other matter connected with the maintenance of the monument.

(3) The Government or the owner may, at any time after the expiration of three years from the date of execution of an agreement under this section, terminate it by giving six months' notice, in writing, to the other party.

Provided that where the agreement is terminated by the owner, he shall pay to the Government the expenses, if any, incurred by it on the maintenance of the monument during the five years immediately preceding the termination of the agreement or if the agreement has been in force for a shorter period, during the period the agreement was in force.

(4) An agreement under this section shall be binding on any person claiming to be the owner of the monument to which it relates, from, through or under a party by whom or on whose behalf the agreement was executed.
6. (1) If the owner of a protected monument is unable, by reason of infancy or other disability, to act for himself, the person legally competent to act on his behalf may exercise the powers conferred upon an owner by section 5.

(2) In the case of village property, the headman or other village-officer exercising powers of management over such property may exercise the powers conferred upon an owner by section 5.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to empower any person not being of the same religion as the person on whose behalf he is acting to make or execute an agreement relating to a protected monument which, or any part of which, is periodically used for the religious worship or observance of that religion.

7. (1) If any owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under section 5 for maintenance of a protected monument, refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement, and if any endowment has been created for the purpose of keeping such monument in repair or for that purpose among others, the Government may institute a suit in the court of the District Judge, or if the estimated cost of repairing the monument does not exceed one thousand rupees, may make an application to the District Judge for the proper application of such endowment or part thereof.

(2) On the hearing of an application under subsection (1), the District Judge may summon and examine the owner and any person whose evidence appears to him necessary and may pass an order for the proper application of the endowment or of any part thereof and any such order may be executed as if it were a decree of Civil Court.

8. (1) If any owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under section 5 for the maintenance of a protected monument, refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement, the Government may make an order providing for all or any of the matters specified in sub-section (2) of section 5 and such order shall be binding on the owner or such other person and on every person claiming title to the monument from, through or under, the owner or such other person.

(2) Where an order made under sub-section (1) provides that the monument shall be maintained by the owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement, all reasonable expenses for the maintenance of the monument shall be payable by the Government.

Owners under disability or not possession.

Application of endowment to repair protected monument.
12. If the Government apprehends that a protected monument is in danger of being destroyed, injured, misused, or allowed to fall into decay, it may acquire the protected monument under provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, as if the monument were a public purpose within the meaning of that Act.

13. (1) The Government shall maintain every monument which has been acquired under section 12 or in respect of which any of the rights mentioned in section 5 have been acquired.

(2) When the Government has assumed the guardianship of a monument under section 4, it shall, for the purpose of maintaining such monument, have access to the monument at all reasonable times, by itself and by its agent, subordinate and workmen, for the purpose of inspecting the monument and for the purpose of bringing such materials and doing such acts as the Government may consider necessary or desirable for the maintenance thereof.

14. The Government may receive voluntary contributions towards the cost of maintaining a protected monument and may give orders as to the management and application of any funds so received by it:

Provided that no such contribution received under this section shall be applied to any purpose other than the purpose for which it was contributed, without consent, in writing, of the donor.

15. (1) The protected monument maintained by the Government under this Act which is a place of worship or shrine shall not be used for any purpose consistent with its character.

(2) Where the Government has acquired a protected monument under section 12, or has purchased, or taken control of or accepted a gift or bequest or assumed guardian-dship of, a protected monument under section 4, and such monument or any part thereof is used for religious worship or observances by any community, the Government shall make due provision for the protection of such monument or part thereof, from pollution or desecration.

(a) by prohibiting the entry therein, except in accordance with the conditions prescribed with the concurrence of the owner, if any; in religious charge of
(3) No order under sub-section (1) shall be made unless the owner or occupier has been given an opportunity of making a representation, in writing, against the proposed order.

9. (1) If the Archaeological Officer apprehends that the owner or occupier of a protected monument is likely to destroy, remove, alter, deface, imperil or misuse the monument or to build on or near the site thereof in contravention of the terms of an agreement under section 5, he may, after giving the owner or occupier an opportunity of making a representation, in writing, make an order prohibiting any such contravention of the agreement:

Provided that no such opportunity may be given in any case where the Archaeological Officer for reasons to be recorded is satisfied that it is not expedient or practicable to do so.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order under this section may appeal to the Government within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed and the decision of the Government shall be final.

10. (1) If an owner or occupier who is bound by an agreement for the maintenance of a monument under section 5 refuses or fails, within such reasonable time as the Government may fix, to do any such act which, in the opinion of the Government, is necessary for the maintenance of the monument, the Government may authorize any person to do any such act, and the owner or other person shall be liable to pay the expenses of doing any such act or such portion of the expenses as the owner may be liable to pay under the agreement.

(2) If any dispute arises regarding the amount of expenses payable by the owner or other person under sub-section (1) it shall be referred to the Government whose decision shall be final.

11. Every person who purchases, at a sale for arrears of land revenue or any other public demand, any land on which is situated a monument in respect of which any instrument has been executed by the owner for the time being under section 4 or section 5, or every person claiming any title to a monument from, through or under an owner who executed any such instrument shall be bound by such instrument.

Purchasers at certain sales and persons claiming through owner bound by instrument executed by owner.

the said monument or part thereof, any person, not entitled to enter by the religious usage of the community by which the monument or part thereof is used, or

(2) by taking such action as it may think necessary in this behalf.

16. Where rights have been acquired by the Government in respect of any monument under this Act by virtue of any sale, lease, gift or will, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, relinquish the rights so acquired to the person who would for the time being be the owner of the monument if such rights had not been acquired.

17. Subject to any rules made under this Act the public shall have a right of access to any protected monument.

18. (1) No person, including the owner or occupier of a protected monument or area shall construct any building within the protected area or carry on any mining, quarrying, excavating, blasting or any operation of a like nature in such area, or utilise such area or any part thereof in any other manner without the permission of the Government.

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such area or part thereof for purposes of cultivation, if such cultivation does not involve the digging of not more than one foot of soil from the surface.

(2) The Government may, by order, direct that any building constructed by any person within a protected area in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be removed within a specified period and, if the person refuses or fails to comply with the order, the Deputy Commissioner may cause the building to be demolished and the person concerned shall be liable to pay the cost of such removal.

19. If the Government is of opinion that any protected area contains an ancient monument or antiquities of archaeological interest and value, it may acquire such area under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, as if the acquisition were for a public purpose within the meaning of that Act.
CHAPTER III
ARCHAEOLOGICAL EXCAVATIONS

20. An Archaeological Officer or an officer authorised by him in this behalf may, after giving notice in writing to the Deputy Commissioner and the owner, enter upon and make excavations in any protected area.

21. Where an Archaeological Officer has reason to believe that any area not being a protected area contains ruins or relics of historical or archaeological importance he or an officer authorised by him in this behalf may, after giving notice in writing to the Deputy Commissioner and the owner, and subject to the provisions of section 20 of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958, enter upon and make excavations in the area.

22. (1) Where, as a result of any excavations made in any area under section 20 or section 21, any antiquities are discovered, the Archaeological Officer shall—

(a) as soon as may be practicable, examine such antiquities and submit a report to the Government in such manner and containing such particulars as may be prescribed;

(b) at the conclusion of the excavation operations give notice, in writing, to the owner of the land from which such antiquities have been discovered of the nature of such antiquities.

(2) Until an order for the compulsory purchase of any such antiquities is made under sub-section (3), the Archaeological Officer shall keep them in such safe custody as he may deem fit.

(3) On receipt of a report under sub-section (1), the Government may make an order for the compulsory purchase of any such antiquities at their market value.

(4) When an order for the compulsory purchase of any antiquities is made under sub-section (3) such antiquities shall vest in the Government with effect from the date of the order.

CHAPTER IV
PROTECTION OF ANTIQUITIES

23. (1) If the Government considers that any antiquities or class of antiquities ought not be removed from the place where they are without the sanction of the Power of Government to control Government, the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that any move antiquities or any class of such antiquities shall not be moved except with the written permission of the Government.

(2) Every application for permission under subsection (1) shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) Person aggrieved by an order refusing permission may appeal to the Government whose decision shall be final.

24. (1) If the Government apprehends that any antiquity mentioned in a notification issued under subsection (1) of section 23 is in danger of being destroyed, removed, injured, damaged or allowed to fall into decay or is of opinion that, by reason of its historical or archaeological importance, it is desirable to preserve such antiquity, the Government may make an order for the compulsory purchase of such antiquity at its market value and the Archaeological Officer shall thereupon give notice to the owner of the antiquity to be purchased.

(2) Where a notice of compulsory purchase is issued under sub-section (1) in respect of any antiquity, such antiquity shall vest in the Government with effect from the date of the notice.

(3) The power of compulsory purchase given by this section shall not extend to any image or symbol actually used for bona fide religious worship or observances.
