CHAPTER II

INCORPORATION OF GUJARAT TRIBAL DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION AND ITS CAPITAL

3. (1) With effect from such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, the State Government may establish for the purpose of this Act a Corporation to be known as the Gujarat Tribal Development Corporation.

(2) The Corporation shall be a body corporate, having perpetual succession and a common seal, with powers, subject to the provisions of this Act, to acquire, hold or dispose of property, whether moveable or immovable, and to contract and to do all things necessary for the purposes of this Act, and may, by the name aforesaid, sue or be sued.

4. The head office of the Corporation shall be at Ahmedabad or at such other place as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

5. (1) The State Government may provide to the Corporation such sum as capital of the Corporation not exceeding five crores of rupees as the State Government may think fit.

Provided that where the capital initially provided is less than five crores of rupees the State Government may, from time to time, increase the capital to such sum not exceeding five crores of rupees as it may think fit.

(2) Such capital may be provided subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the State Government.

CHAPTER III

MANAGEMENT OF THE CORPORATION

6. (1) The general superintendence, direction and management of the affairs of the Corporation shall vest in a Board of directors which may exercise all such powers and do all such acts and things as may be exercised or done by the Corporation under this Act.

(2) The Board in discharging its functions shall act, having regard to public interest, welfare of the Scheduled Tribes and solvency of the Corporation and shall be guided by such instructions on questions of policy as the State Government may give to it from time to time.

(3) If any doubt arises as to whether a question is or is not a question of policy the decision of the State Government thereon shall be final.

7. (1) The Board shall consist of nine directors who shall be nominated by the State Government:
Provided that not less than three directors shall be officials and the remaining directors shall be non-officials who shall be nominated from amongst persons who, in the opinion of the State Government, have special knowledge or practical experience in matters relating to agriculture; agro-industries, water development projects, finance, or co-operation:

Provided further that not less than three directors shall belong to the Scheduled Tribes.

(2) The State Government shall appoint one of the directors as Chairman.

(3) On the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of a director due to death, resignation or otherwise, the same shall be filled up by the State Government in the manner provided in sub-section (1) and a director nominated to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of his predecessor.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the terms and conditions of service of the directors and the fees and allowances payable to them, shall be such as may be prescribed.

8. (1) Every director shall hold office during the pleasure of the State Government.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), a director, other than the Executive Director, shall hold office for a term of three years:

Provided that an out-going director shall, notwithstanding the expiration of his term, continue to hold office until the nomination of his successor:

Provided further that an outgoing director shall be eligible for re-appointment.

9. A person shall be disqualified for being nominated as, and for being, a director, if he—

(a) is, or at any time has been, adjudicated insolvent or has suspended payment of his debts or has compounded with his creditors; or

(b) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or

(c) is or has been convicted of any offence which, in the opinion of the State Government, involves moral turpitude; or

(d) is or has been removed or dismissed from the service of any State Government or the Central Government or a Corporation owned or controlled by any State Government or the Central Government.

10. A director who has any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in any matter coming up for consideration at a meeting of the Board shall, as soon as possible, after the relevant circumstances have come to his knowledge, disclose the nature of his interest at such meeting and the disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the Board and the director shall not take any part in any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to that matter.

11. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 8, the State Government, may at any time, after consulting the Board, remove any director from office, if, in its opinion, such a director—
(a) is or has become subject to any disqualification mentioned in section 9;

(b) is absent without leave of the Board from more than three consecutive meetings thereof without cause sufficient, in the opinion of the Board, to exonerate his absence;

(c) has acted in contravention of the provisions of section 10; or

(d) has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties:

Provided that no order of removal shall be passed without giving the director a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed order.

(2) A director may resign his office by giving notice thereof in writing to the State Government and on such resignation being accepted he shall be deemed to have vacated his office.

12. (1) The Board shall meet at such times and place and shall observe meetings of such rules of procedure in regard to the transaction of business at Board its meetings (including the quorum at such meetings) as may be provided by regulations.

(2) The Chairma or, if for any reason he is unable to attend any meeting, any other director elected by the directors present at the meeting, shall preside at the meeting of the Board.

(3) All questions which come up before any meeting of the Board shall be decided by a majority of the votes of directors present and voting, and in the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman, or in his absence, the person presiding, shall have and exercise a second or casting vote.

13. (1) The State Government shall appoint one of the official directors, Executive Director as Executive Director.

(2) The Executive Director who shall be a whole time officer of the Corporation shall —

(a) be its Chief Executive Officer;

(b) be responsible for the operational management of the Corporation and implementation of the general policies approved by the Board;

(c) perform such duties as the Board may, by regulations or otherwise, assign to him;

(d) receive such salary and allowances and be governed by such terms and conditions of service as may be determined by the Board and approved by the State Government.

(3) If the Executive Director is by infirmity or otherwise rendered incapable of carrying out his duties or is absent on leave or otherwise in circumstances not involving the vacation of his appointment, the State Government may appoint another person to act in his place during his absence.
14. (1) No act or proceeding of the Board shall be questioned or be invalid on the ground merely of the existence of any vacancy in, or any defect in, the constitution of the Board.

(2) No act done by any person acting in good faith as a director shall be deemed to be invalid merely on the ground that he was disqualified to be a director or that there was any other defect in his nomination.

15. (1) The Board may appoint such officers and other employees as it considers necessary for the efficient performance of the functions of the Corporation and determine by regulations their conditions of appointment and service and the remuneration payable to them.

(2) The Board may, by general or special order, delegate to the Executive Director or to any other officer or employee of the Corporation, subject to such conditions and limitations, if any, as may be specified, such of its powers and duties under this Act, except the power to make regulations, as it may deem necessary.

CHAPTER IV

FUNCTIONS OF THE CORPORATION

16. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, it shall be the primary duty of the Corporation to undertake the task of social and economic uplift of the members of the Scheduled Tribes in the State of Gujarat, and the Corporation shall be competent to do all things and to exercise all the powers necessary for the performance of such duties.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the Corporation may take such steps as it may think fit—

(i) to plan and promote, on its own or in collaboration with or through such Scheduled Tribes Organisations or other agencies as may be approved by the Board, any programme of agricultural development, marketing, processing, supply and storage of agricultural produce, small-scale industry, building construction, transport and such other activity as may be approved in this behalf by the State Government;

(ii) to undertake, on its own or in collaboration with or through such Scheduled Tribes Organisations or other agencies as may be approved by the Board, any activity, not being business or trade, in relation to any of the matters specified in clause (i), for furthering the objects of the Corporation;

(iii) to give on hire agricultural or industrial machinery or equipment to the members of Scheduled Tribes or Scheduled Tribes Organisations;

(iv) to give grants and subsidies to and to guarantee loans taken by the members of Scheduled Tribes or Scheduled Tribes Organisations;

(v) to borrow money subject to such conditions as the State Government may specify;
(vi) to issue bonds and debentures;

(vii) to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, hundis, bills, warrants, debentures and other negotiable instruments;

(viii) to invest or deposit surplus funds of the Corporation in Government securities or in such other manner as the State Government may, by general or special order, direct;

(ix) to enter into contracts; and

(x) to discharge such other functions as may be prescribed or as are supplemental, incidental or consequential to any of the functions conferred on it by or under this Act.

CHAPTER V

FINANCE, ACCOUNTS AND AUDIT

17. (1) The Corporation shall have its own fund.

2. The Corporation may accept grants, subventions, donations and gifts from the Central or State Government or a local authority or any individual or body, whether incorporated or not, for all or any of the purposes of this Act.

3. All sums which may from time to time be paid to it by the State Government and all other receipts of the Corporation shall be carried to the fund of the Corporation and all payments by the Corporation shall be made therefrom.

4. The Corporation may spend such sums as it thinks fit for the performance of its functions under this Act, and such sums shall be treated as expenditure payable out of the fund of the Corporation.

5. All moneys belonging to the fund of the Corporation shall be deposited in such bank or invested in Government securities or in such other manner, as the State Government may, by general or special order, direct.

18. (1) The balance-sheet and accounts of the Corporation shall be prepared and maintained in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

2. The Board shall cause the books and accounts of the Corporation to be balanced and closed on the thirty-first day of March each year.

19. (1) The accounts of the Corporation shall be audited once in every financial year, by auditors duly qualified to act as auditors under sub-section (7) of section 226 of the Companies Act, 1956, who shall be appointed by the Board and shall receive such remuneration from the Corporation as the Board may fix.

2. The auditors shall be supplied with a copy of the annual balance-sheet and the profit and loss account of the Corporation and it shall be the duty of the auditors to examine them together with the accounts and vouchers relating thereto, and they shall have a list delivered to them of all books kept by the Corporation and shall at all reasonable times have access to the books, accounts and other documents of the Corporation and may require from any director or officer of the Corporation such information as they may think necessary for the performance of their duties as auditors.
(3) The auditors shall make a report to the Corporation upon the annual balance-sheet and accounts examined by them and in every such report they shall state whether, in their opinion the balance-sheet is a full and fair balance-sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Corporation.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), the Comptroller and Auditor General of India may, on a request received in this behalf from the State Government conduct a supplementary or test audit of the accounts of the Corporation by such person or persons as he may authorise in this behalf and submit the audit report to the Corporation; and any person or persons so authorised shall have power, for the purposes of such audit, to require any director or officer of the Corporation to furnish such books, accounts or other documents or such information or additional information as such person or persons may think necessary for such purposes. The expenditure incurred by the Comptroller and Auditor General in connection with such audit shall be payable by the Corporation to him.

(5) The Corporation shall furnish to the State Government,—

(i) in the case of report of the auditor appointed under sub-section (1), a copy of its balance sheet and accounts together with a copy of that report, and a report on the working of the Corporation during the relevant period, within four months from the date on which its accounts are closed and balanced; and

(ii) in the case of a report of supplementary or test audit conducted under sub-section (4), a copy of that report, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of such report by the Corporation.

(6) Copies of the reports referred to in sub-section (5) shall be laid by the State Government, as soon as may be, before the State Legislature.

CHAPTER VI
MISCELLANEOUS

20. (1) Where any amount is due to the Corporation from any person in respect of advances or other financial accommodation granted by it, such amount shall, on a certificate being granted by the Executive Director in the prescribed form, be recoverable as arrears of land revenue by the Collector of the district, in which the person from whom the amount is due resides or carries on business or owns any property.

(2) Before issuing the certificate referred to in sub-section (1), the Executive Director shall make an application to such officer, as may be empowered by the State Government in this behalf and that officer shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the person concerned and after such further enquire as he may consider necessary, by an order determine the amount due to the Corporation and communicate the same to the Executive Director.

(3) An appeal against an order passed by the officer empowered by the State Government under sub-section (2) shall lie within such period and to such authority as may be prescribed.

(4) The officer empowered under sub-section (2) and the appellate authority shall follow such procedure as may be prescribed.
(5) The certificate issued by the Executive Director under sub-section (1) shall be final and conclusive and shall not be called in question before any authority or court.

(6) For the purpose of recovering any amount due to the Corporation in respect of a loan it shall not be necessary to proceed against the principal before proceeding against his surety.

21. (1) No provision of law other than this Act, relating to the winding up, dissolution or liquidation of the companies or corporations shall apply to the Cor. of Board Corporation.

(2) The State Government may, if the Corporation exceeds its powers, or upon receipt of a report under section 19, call upon the Board to show cause why it should not be dissolved, and if no explanation is offered within the specified period, or if the State Government is not satisfied with the explanation, the State Government may dissolve the Board from such date as may be specified.

22. (1) When the Board is dissolved under section 21,—

(i) all directors shall, from the date of dissolution, vacate their offices;

(ii) all powers and duties of the Board shall, during the period of dissolution, be exercised and performed by such person or persons as the State Government may appoint in this behalf;

(iii) all funds and other property vested in the Corporation shall, during the period of dissolution, vest in the State Government.

(2) The State Government may reconstitute the Board after such period as it may think fit.

23. No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Corporation or any director including the Executive Director, or any officer or other employee or any of action other person authorised by the Corporation to discharge any functions under this Act, for any loss or damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done by him in pursuance of this Act.

24. (1) Every director shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all indemnity losses and expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his duties except such as are caused by his own wilful act or default.

(2) A director shall not be responsible for the acts of any other director, or for the acts of any officer or other employee of the Corporation or for any loss or expenses resulting to the Corporation by the insufficiency or deficiency of value of, or title to, any property or security acquired or taken on behalf of the Corporation in good faith, or by the insolvency or wrongful act of any debtor or any person under obligation to the Corporation, or anything done in good faith, in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto.

25. (1) The Board may make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and rules made thereunder, to provide for all matters for which Board to make regulations is necessary or expedient for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.
(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the times and places of meetings of the Board and the procedure to be followed in relation to such meetings including the quorum necessary for the transaction of business;

(b) duties which the Executive Director shall perform;

(c) the duties, conduct, salaries, allowances and conditions of service of officers and other employees of the Corporation;

(d) the delegation of powers and functions to the officers and other employees of the Corporation;

(e) the establishment and maintenance of provident and other benefit funds for the officers and employees of the Corporation;

(f) any other matter which is, or may be, necessary for the efficient conduct of the affairs of the Corporation.

26. (1) The State Government may, by notification published in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out all or any of the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the terms and conditions of service of the directors and the fees and allowances payable to them;

(b) the functions, in addition to those specified in sub-section (2) of section 16, to be discharged by the Corporation and the conditions and restrictions subject to which those functions shall be discharged;

(c) the form and manner in which accounts shall be maintained, and the balance-sheet and profit and loss account shall be prepared;

(d) the form in which certificate shall be issued by the Executive Director, the period within which and the authority before whom an appeal shall be filed, and the procedure to be followed by the appellate authority under section 20;

(e) any other matter which is required to be or may be prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before the State Legislature as soon as may be after they are made and shall be subject to rescission by the State Legislature or to such modifications as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

(4) Any rescission or modification so made by the State Legislature shall be published in the Official Gazette and shall thereupon take effect.
