². Inserted by ibid.

21. (1) It shall be the duty of every employer of an establishment to make available for inspection of such officer as may be prescribed, all accounts or other records required to be kept for the purposes of this Act and to give to such officer any other information in connection therewith as may be required.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) or wilfully obstructs the inspecting authority in the exercise of the powers under this Act or conceals or prevents any employee in an establishment from appearing before or being examined by the authority, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which shall not be less than twenty-five rupees and may extend to two hundred rupees.

22. (1) No employee shall be removed from service unless and until one month's previous notice or pay in lieu thereof has been given to him:

Provided that—

(a) no employee shall be entitled to the notice or pay in lieu thereof if he is removed on account of misconduct established on record;

(b) no employee shall be entitled to one month's notice or notice pay unless and until he has been in service of the employer continuously for a period of three months.

(2) In any case intituted for a contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), if a [Judicial Magistrate] is satisfied that an employer has been removed without reasonable cause, the [Judicial Magistrate] shall, for reason to be recorded in writing, award compensation to the employee equivalent to two month's salary:

Provided that no such claim shall be entertained unless it is preferred by the employee within six months from the date of his removal.

(3) The amount payable as compensation under this section shall be in addition to, \^[and recoverable as], fine payable under section 26.

(4) No person who has been awarded compensation under this section shall be entitled to bring a civil suit in respect of the same claim.

23. (1) No employee, who has been in the service of the employer continuously for a period of three months shall terminate his employment unless he has given to his employer \^[thirty] days' previous notice or pay in lieu thereof.

(2) Where an employee contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), his employer may forfeit his unpaid wages for a period not exceeding \^[thirty] days.

24. \^[*  *  *]

25. Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, it shall not be lawful in any locality to carry on in any place not being an establishment, retail trade or business of any class at any time if it is unlawful in that locality to keep an establishment open for the purpose of such retail trade or business, and if any person carries on any trade or business in contravention of this section, this Act shall apply as if he were the employer of the establishment which was being kept open in contravention of this Act.

26. Subject to the other provisions of this Act whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this Act, or the rules thereunder and no penalty has been provided for such contravention in this Act, shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for the first offence and three hundred rupees for every subsequent offence:

Provided that the fine in respect of every subsequent offence within the same year shall not be less than one hundred rupees in any case.

3. Omitted by ibid. section 15.
27. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any public servant or any other person in the service of the Central or State Government, acting under direction of any such public servant, for anything in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or of any rule made thereunder.

28. [Government or any officer empowered by the Government in this behalf may], by notification in the official Gazette, exempt from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act for any period it considers desirable any establishment or any class thereof or any employer or employee or class of employers or employees to whom this Act applies on such conditions as it may think fit.

29. No child who has not completed the age of fourteen years shall be employed in any establishment.

30. (1) No woman shall be required or allowed to work whether as an employee or otherwise in any establishment during night:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to an establishment which is engaged in the treatment or care of the sick, the infirm, the destitute or the mentally unfit.

(2) No employer of any establishment shall knowingly employ a woman and no woman shall engage in employment in any establishment during six weeks following the day of her confinement or miscarriage.

(3) Government may prescribe further conditions in respect of employment of women employed about the business of establishments or any class of them, including if it thinks fit, conditions with respect to the daily period of employment, leave and other matters and no woman shall be employed otherwise than in accordance with these conditions.

31. (1) Every woman employed in an establishment who has been continuously employed in that establishment or in establishments belonging to the employer of that establishment for a period of not less than six months preceding the date of her delivery shall be entitled to receive, and the employer shall be liable to make to her, a payment of a maternity benefit which shall be prescribed by the Government for every day during the six weeks immediately preceding and including the day of her delivery and for each day of the six weeks, following her delivery:

Provided that no such payment shall be made for any day on which she attends work and receives payment therefor during the six weeks preceding her delivery.

(2) The manner in which the maternity benefit shall be payable may be prescribed by the Government.

32. Notwithstanding anything contained in the law relating to legal practitioners for the time being in force, no legal practitioner shall be permitted to appear, plead or act for the employer or the employee in any proceedings, before a court between an employer and an employee, arising out of the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act.

33. Nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or privileges to which an employee in any establishment is entitled on the date this Act comes into force, under any other law, contract, custom or usage applicable to such establishment or any award, settlement or agreement binding on the employer and the employee in such establishment, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

1[33A. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act or any rule made thereunder or of the abetment of, or attempt to commit such offence, save on a complaint made by the employee concerned or by such officer as may be authorised in writing in this behalf by the Government.]

34. (1) Government may make rules for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the manner and form in which the registers and notices shall be kept;

(b) the officers who may be empowered to inspect registers and call for information as required by this Act:

1. New section 33A inserted by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 18.

(c) the agency by which and the manner in which prosecution shall be instituted;

(d) the form of submitting a statement, the particulars under sub-section (1) of section 13, the manner in which registration of establishments is to be made and the form of registration certificate under sub-section (2) and the form for notifying a change under sub-section (4) of section 13;

(e) the authority to and the manner in which any notice required by this Act, shall be given;

(f) the conditions subject to which any exemption under this Act may be granted;

(g) the manner in which the employer of an establishment shall keep exhibited in the premises the close day, closing and opening hours and such other particulars as may be prescribed; and

(h) to safeguard health, safety and welfare of the employees while on duty.

(3) All rules made under this section, as soon as possible after they are made, be laid before ['the house'] of the State Legislature.

35. The Punjab Trade Employees Act, 1940, is hereby repealed. Repeal.

Provided that—

(a) every appointment, order, rule, bye-law regulation, notification or notice made, issued or given under the provisions of the Act so repealed shall in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made, issued or given under the provisions of this Act, unless and until superseded by any other appointment, order, rule, bye-laws, regulation, notification or notice made, issued or given under this Act;

(b) any proceeding relating to the trial of any offence punishable under the provisions of the Act so repealed, shall be continued and completed as if the said Act has not been repealed, but has continued in operation and any penalty imposed in such proceeding shall be recovered under the Act so repealed.

PART I
HARYANA GOVERNMENT
LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

Notification
The 2nd November, 2004

No. Leg. 23/2004.—The following Act of the Legislature of the State of Haryana received the assent of the Governor of Haryana on the 21st October, 2004, and is hereby published for general information:—

Haryana Act No. 21 of 2004

THE PUNJAB SHOPS AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENTS (HARYANA AMENDMENT) ACT, 2004

AN ACT

further to amend the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1958, in its application to the State of Haryana.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Haryana in the Fifty-Fifth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments (Haryana Amendment) Act, 2004.

2. In sub-section (2) of section 8 of the Punjab Shops and Commercial Establishments Act, 1958 (hereinafter called the principal Act), for the words “ten hours”, the words “twelve hours” shall be substituted.

3. In clause (b) of section 12 of the principal Act, for the word “three”, the word “five” shall be substituted.

4. In sub-section (6) of section 13 of the principal Act,—

(i) for the sign “.” existing at the end, the sign “:” shall be substituted; and

(ii) the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:—

“Provided that the amount of registration or renewal fee so recovered from the employer shall be paid in the Government treasury or in any other mode as may be prescribed so as to enable the prescribed authority to issue or renew the registration certificate, as the case may be.”.
5. In section 19 of the principal Act,—
   (i) for the existing marginal heading, the following marginal heading shall be substituted, namely :
      "Enforcement and appointment of Inspecting officers."
   (ii) in sub-section (1),—
      (a) for the sign "." existing at the end, the sign ":" shall be substituted; and
      (b) the following proviso shall be added, namely :

      "Provided that the Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, also appoint such persons, as it may deem fit, not below the rank of Deputy Labour Commissioner, to be the Chief Inspector or Deputy Chief Inspector of shops and commercial establishments who shall, in addition to the powers conferred on a Chief Inspector or Deputy Chief Inspector under this Act or the rules made thereunder, exercise the powers of Inspector throughout the territory of the State of Haryana."

6. After section 26 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely :

   "26 A. Power to compound offences.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules framed thereunder, the compounding authority as may be notified by the Government in the Official Gazette, shall compound the offence committed under this Act or the rules framed thereunder. The said authority shall discharge the offender by recovering a sum of money not less than fifty percent of the maximum amount of fine prescribed under this Act or the rules framed thereunder. However, if the violation relates to registration of shops or commercial establishments, in that case the amount of fee as may be prescribed shall be recovered from the offender in full in addition to the amount of fine:

      Provided that no offence of the same nature shall be compoundable if it is committed more than twice in a year.

      (2) An appeal against the order of the compounding authority shall lie within thirty days from the date of the order of the compounding authority before the appellate authority as may be notified by the Government and whose decision shall be final:

      Provided that no appeal shall be maintainable unless the amount of fine is deposited with the said authority."
(3) No penalty shall be imposed unless the person concerned is given a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to impose a penalty.

(4) The compounding authority and the appellate authority shall have all the powers of a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908), while exercising any powers under this section, in respect of the following matters, namely:

(i) summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses;

(ii) requiring the discovery and production of any document;

(iii) requisitioning any public record or copy thereof from any court or office;

(iv) receiving evidence on affidavit; and

(v) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses or documents.”.
