2. Substituted for the words "the territory" by the Haryana Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.
This Act shall apply, and before the commencement of this Act, the shamilat law shall be deemed always to have applied, to all lands which are Shamilat deh as defined in clause (g) of section 2.

1. [(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of section 4,—

(i) where any land has vested in a panchayat under the shamilat law, but such land, other than that excluded under sub-clause (ii-a) of clause (g) of section 2, has been excluded from shamilat deh as defined in clause (g) of section 2, all rights, title and interest of the panchayat in such land shall, as from the commencement of this Act, cease and such rights, title and interest shall be revested in the person or persons in whom they vested immediately before the commencement of the shamilat law; and the panchayat shall deliver possession of such land to such person or persons:

Provided that where a panchayat is unable to deliver possession of any such land on account of its having been sold or utilised for any of its purposes, the rights, title and interest of the panchayat in such land shall not so cease but the Panchayat shall, notwithstanding anything contained in section 10, pay to the person or persons entitled to such land, compensation to be determined in accordance with such principles and in such manner as may be prescribed;

(ii) where any land has vested in a panchayat under this Act, but such land has been excluded from shamilat deh under sub-clause (ii-a) of clause (g) of section 2, all rights, title and interest of the panchayat in such land, from the date of allotment of such land by the Rehabilitation Department of the State Government, shall cease and all such rights, title and interest shall vest in the person or persons to whom the land so excluded has been allotted by the Rehabilitation Department of the State Government on or before the 9th day of July, 1985, subject to the condition that-

(a) any sum of money realised by the Rehabilitation Department of the State Government as result of allotment of such land; or

(b) where no money was realisable by the Rehabilitation Department of the State Government as a result of allotment of such land, the amount of compensation in respect of such land as determined under sub-section (3) by the Collector of the district in which such a land is situated, shall be paid by the Rehabilitation Department, of the State Government to the Development and Panchayats Department for onward disbursement to the panchayat to which such shamilat deh belonged.

(3) As soon as may be, on the commencement of the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Haryana Amendment Act, 1996, the Development and Panchayats Department shall make reference to the Collector of the district to determine the amount of compensation under sub-clause (ii) of sub-section (2) and the Collector of the district shall, keeping in view the market value of the shamilat deh at the time it was allotted determine the amount of compensation.

4. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any agreement, instrument, custom or usage or any decree or order of any court or other authority, all rights, title and interests whatever in the land,—

(a) which is included in the shamilat deh of any village and which has not vested in a panchayat under the shamilat law shall, at the commencement of this Act, vest in panchayat constituted for such village, and where no such panchayat has been constituted for such village, vests in the panchayat on such date as a panchayat having jurisdiction over that village is constituted;
(b) which is situated within or outside the abadi deh of a village and which is under the house owned by a non-propietor, shall on the commencement of the shamilat law, be deemed to have been vested in such non-propietor.

(2) Any land which is vested in a panchayat under the shamilat law shall be deemed to have been vested in the panchayat under this Act.

(3) Nothing contained in clause (a) of sub-section (1) and is sub-section (2) shall affect or shall be deemed ever to have affected the—

(i) existing rights, title or interest of persons who though not entered as occupancy tenants in the revenue records are accorded a similar status by custom or otherwise, such as Dholidars, Bhondedars, Butimars, Basikhuopahus, Saunjidars, Muqararidars;

(ii) rights of persons who were in cultivating possession of shamilat deh on the date of the commencement of the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1953, or the Pepsu Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1954, and were in such cultivating possession for more than twelve years on such commencement without payment of rent or by payment of charges not exceeding the land revenue and cesses payable thereon;

(iii) rights of a mortgagee to whom such land is mortgaged with possession before the 26th January, 1950.

5. (1) All lands vested, or deemed to have been vested in a panchayat under this Act, shall be utilized or disposed of by the panchayat, for the benefit of the inhabitants of the village concerned in the manner prescribed.

Provided that where two or more villages have a common panchayat the shamilat deh of each village shall be utilised and disposed of by the panchayat for the benefit of the inhabitants of that village.

Provided further that where there are two or more shamilat tikkas in a village the shamilar tikka shall be utilised and disposed of by the panchayat for the benefit of the inhabitants of that tikka:

Provided further that where the area of land in shamilat deh of any village so vested or deemed to have been vested in a panchayat is in excess of twenty-five percent of the total area of that village (excluding abadideh) then twenty-five per cent of such total area shall be left to the panchayat and out of the remaining area of shamilat deh an area up to the extent of twenty-five percent of such total area shall be utilized for the settlement of landless tenants and other tenants ejected or to be ejected of that village and the remaining area of shamilat deh, if any, shall be utilized for distribution to the small landowners of that village subject to the provisions relating to [permissible area under the Haryana Ceiling on Land Holdings Act, 1972, by the Assistant Collector of the first grade] in consultation with the panchayat [in such manner and on payment of such amount as may be prescribed.]

(2) The area of shamilat deh to be utilized for the purposes of the third proviso to sub-section (1) shall be demarcated by such officer in consultation with the panchayat and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The State Government or any officers authorised by it in this behalf may from time to time, with a view to ensuring compliance with the provision of the second proviso to sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), issue to any panchayat such directions as may be deemed necessary.

[(4) Nothing contained in the third proviso to sub-section (1), and in sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) shall apply to the hilly area.]

[(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, if in the opinion of the State Government, it is necessary to take over, to secure proper management for better utilization for the benefit of the inhabitants of that village.

Powers to put panchayats in possession of certain lands.

VILLAGE COMMON LANDS
(REGULATION)

(2) The appellate order of [the Assistant Collector of the first grade] shall be final.

(7. (1) An Assistant Collector of the first grade having jurisdiction in the village may, either suo motu or on an application made to him by a panchayat or an inhabitant of the village or the Block Development and Panchayat Officer or Social Education and Panchayat Officer, or any other officer authorised by the Block Development and Panchayat Officer, after making such summary enquiry as he may deem fit and in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed, eject any person who is in wrongful or unauthorised possession of the land or other immovable property in the shamilat deh of that village which vests or is deemed to have been vested in the panchayat under this Act and put the panchayat in possession thereof and for so doing the Assistant Collector of the first grade may exercise the powers of a revenue court in relation to the execution of a decree for possession of land under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887:

Provided that if in any such proceedings the question of title is raised and proved prima facie on the basis of documents that the question of title is really involved, the Assistant Collector of the first grade shall record a finding to that effect and first decide the question of title in the manner laid down hereinafter.

(2) The Assistant Collector of the first grade shall by an order, in writing, require any person to pay a penalty, in respect of the land or other immovable property which was or has been in his wrongful or unauthorised possession, at a rate not less than five thousand rupees and not more than ten thousand rupees per hectare per annum, having regard to the benefit which could be derived from the land or other immovable property. If the penalty is not paid within the period of thirty days from the date of the order, the same shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

(3) The procedure for deciding the question of title under proviso to sub-section (1), shall be the same as laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

(4) If any person refuses or fails to comply with the order of eviction passed under sub-section (1), within ten days of the date of such order, the Assistant Collector of the first grade may use such force, including police force, as may be necessary for putting the panchayat in possession.

(5) Any person who is found in wrongful or unauthorised possession of the land or other immovable property in shamilat deh and is ordered to be ejected under sub-section (1), shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years.

7A. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974), no court other than that of the Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall take cognizance of, or try, any offence punishable under this Act.

7B. No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act except on the complaint of, or upon information received by the Block Development and Panchayat Officer or District Development and Panchayat Officer or any other officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf. Such proceedings shall be initiated only after the ejectment order against such person has become final under section 7.

8. (1) Where on any land in the shamilat deh immediately before it vests or is deemed to have been vested in a Panchayat under this Act, a person is in cultivating possession and his uncut and ungathered crops are standing thereon, he shall not be ejected from such land unless the crops have ripened and he has been allowed reasonable time to harvest them.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any determination made by a panchayat under sub-section (1) may, within thirty days thereof, appeal to [the Assistant Collector of the first grade] whose decision shall be final.

9. Any income accruing from the use and occupation of the lands vested or deemed to have been vested in a panchayat shall be credited to the panchayat fund and shall be utilised in the manner prescribed.

10. No person shall be entitled to any compensation for any loss suffered or alleged to have been suffered as a result of the coming into force of this Act or of the shamilat law.

1[10A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the shamilat law or any other law for the time being in force, 2[the Assistant Collector of the first grade may call for from any panchayat in the area of his jurisdiction] the record of any 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement entered into by the panchayat in respect of any land vested or deemed to be vested in it, whether such 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement is entered into before or after the commencement of the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Amendment Act, 1964, and examine such record for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement.

(2) Where, on examination of the record under sub-section (1) and after making such inquiry, if any, as he may deem fit, 2[the Assistant Collector of the first grade] is satisfied that such 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement—

(i) has been entered into in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder; or

(ii) has been entered into as a result of fraud or concealment of facts; or

(iii) is detrimental to the interests of the panchayat as prescribed; 2[the Assistant Collector of the first grade] may, notwithstanding anything as aforesaid, cancel the 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement or vary the terms thereof unconditionally or subject to such conditions as he may think fit:

Provided that no order under this sub-section shall be passed by 2[the Assistant Collector of the first grade] without affording an opportunity of being heard to the parties to the 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement.

(3) Where the terms of any 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement have been varied by 2[the Assistant Collector of the first grade] under sub-section (2), the variation shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the shamilat law or in any law for the time being in force, be binding on the parties to the 3[sale, lease], contract or agreement, as the case may be.

1. Inserted by Punjab Act 19 of 1964, section 4.
(4) Where the vendee, lessee or the person with whom a contract or agreement has been entered into by a Panchayat refuses to accept the variation made by the Assistant Collector of the first grade under this section in the terms of sale, lease, contract or agreement, such sale, lease, contract or agreement, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be cancelled by the Assistant Collector of the first grade under this section with effect from the date of such refusal.

(5) Where under this section any sale, lease, contract or agreement is cancelled or deemed to be cancelled or its terms are varied, the vendee, lessee or the person with whom the contract or agreement has been entered into, who suffers by such cancellation or variation, is entitled to receive compensation to be assessed by the Assistant Collector of the first grade for any loss or damage caused to the vendee, lessee or such person which naturally arose in the usual course of things from such cancellation or variation:

Provided that no such compensation shall be given for any remote and indirect loss or damage sustained by reason of such cancellation or variation.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the amount of compensation awarded by the Assistant Collector of the first grade under this section shall be payable by the Panchayat in the prescribed manner and shall be a valid charge on the sabha fund.

(7) Any party to a sale, lease, contract or agreement aggrieved by any order of the Assistant Collector of the first grade made under this section may, within a period of thirty days from the date of such order appeal to the Collector whose decision thereon shall be final.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Punjab Pre-emption Act, 1913, no sale of land in shamilat deh made by a panchayat shall be pre-emptible and no decree of pre-emption in respect of any such sale shall be executed after the commencement of this Act.

Rent of shamilat lands to be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

Bar of Jurisdiction.

12. Any arrears of rent payable to a panchayat in respect of any land in shamilat deh vested or deemed to have been vested in it under this Act or the shamilat law [or any amount assessed under sub-section (2) of section 7] shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

3[13. No civil court shall have jurisdiction.—

(a) to entertain or adjudicate upon any question whether—

(i) any land or other immovable property is or not shamilat deh;

(ii) any land or other immovable property or any right, title or interest in such land or other immovable property vests or does not vest in a panchayat under this Act;

(b) in respect of any matter which any revenue court, officer or authority is empowered by or under this Act to determine; or

(c) to question the legality of any action taken or matter decided by any revenue court, officer or authority empowered to do so under this Act.]

Adjudication.

3[13A. (1) Any person or in the case of a panchayat, either the panchayat or its Gram Sachiv, the concerned Block Development and Panchayat Officer, Social Education and Panchayat Officer or any other officer duly authorised by the State Government in this behalf, claiming right, title or interest in any land or other immovable property vested or deemed to have been vested in the panchayat under this Act, may file a suit for adjudication, whether such land or other immovable

3. Inserted by Haryana Act 34 of 1974 and further omitted by Haryana Act 2 of 1981 and shall be deemed to have been omitted w.e.f. the 12th day of November, 1974 and the new sections inserted by Haryana Act 2 of 1981 and shall be deemed to have been inserted w.e.f. the 4th day of May, 1961 and further omitted by Haryana Act 9 of 1992 and further inserted by Haryana Act 9 of 1999.
property is shamilal deh or not and whether any land or other immovable property or any right, title or interest therein vests or does not vest in a panchayat under this Act, in the court of the Collector, having jurisdiction in the area wherein such land or other immovable property is situated:

Provided that no suit shall lie under this section in respect of the land or other immovable property, which is or has been the subject matter of the proceedings under section 7 of this Act under which the question of title has been raised and decided or under adjudication.

(2) The procedure for deciding the suits under sub-section (1) shall be the same as laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908).

13AA. (1) Any person, aggrieved by an order passed under sub-section (1) of section 13A, may within a period of thirty days from the date of such order, prefer an appeal to the Commissioner in such form and manner, as may be prescribed, and the Commissioner may after hearing the appeal, confirm, vary or reverse the order as he deems fit.

(2) The Financial Commissioner may, suo motu or on an application made to him by any person aggrieved by an order passed under sub-section (1), call for the record of any proceedings pending before, or order passed by the Commissioner for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of the proceedings or order and pass such order in relation thereto as he may deem fit:

Provided that no order adversely affecting any person shall be passed unless he has been afforded an opportunity of being heard.

13B. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Assistant Collector of the first grade may, within a period of thirty days from the date of order passed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 7 prefer an appeal to the Collector in such form and manner, as may be prescribed and the Collector may after hearing the appeal, confirm, vary or reverse the order as he deems fit:

Provided that no such appeal shall lie unless the amount of penalty, if any, imposed under sub-section (2) of section 7, is deposited with the Collector.

(2) The Commissioner may, suo motu [or on an application made to him by any person aggrieved by an order passed under the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 7 at any time] call for the record of any proceedings pending before, or order passed by, any authority subordinate to him for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of the proceedings or order and pass such order in relation thereto as he may deem fit:

Provided that no order adversely affecting any person shall be passed unless he has been afforded an opportunity of being heard.

13C. Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, every order made by the Assistant Collector of the first grade, the Collector or the Commissioner shall be final and shall not be called in question in any manner in any court.

13D. The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law, agreement, instrument, custom, usage, decree or order of any court or other authority.

13-E. Every officer or employee acting under the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

14. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the State Government or any person or authority for anything done or intended to be done in good faith in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

(CHTR. 14, 1929 SAKA)

HARYANA GOVERNMENT

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

Notification

The 4th April, 2007

No. Leg. 9/2007.—The following Act of the Legislature of the State of Haryana received the assent of the Governor of Haryana on the 29th March, 2007, and is hereby published for general information:—

HARYANA ACT NO. 8 OF 2007

THE PUNJAB VILLAGE COMMON LANDS (REGULATION)
HARYANA AMENDMENT ACT, 2007

As

further to amend the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1961, in its application to the State of Haryana.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Haryana in the Fifty-eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Haryana Amendment Act, 2007.

2. For clause (c) of section 2 of the Punjab Village Common Lands (Regulation) Act, 1961 (hereinafter called the principal Act), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

'(c) "Panchayat" means a Gram Panchayat constituted under the Haryana Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 (11 of 1994);'.

3. For sections 5A and 5B of the principal Act, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"5A. Disposal of lands vested or deemed to have been vested in Panchayat.—(1) A Panchayat may, on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, gift, sale, exchange or lease the land in shamliyat deh vested in it under this Act to the members of Scheduled Castes and Backward Classes of the village in which such land is situated and to the persons of any other category.

(2) The gift, sale, exchange or lease of land in shamliyat deh already made shall be deemed to have been made under sub-section (1).

5B. Certain transfers not to affect Panchayat's rights.—(1) Any transfer of land, gifted, sold, exchanged or leased before or after the commencement of this Act, made in contravention of the prescribed terms and conditions, shall be void and the gifted, sold, exchanged or leased land so transferred shall revert to,
and vest in, the Panchayat free from all encumbrances.

(2) The Government or any officer authorized by it may, either suo motu or on application made to him by a Panchayat or an inhabitant of the village or the Block Development and Panchayat Officer, examine the record for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any sale, lease, gift, exchange, contract or agreement executed before or after commencement of this Act, if such sale, lease, gift, exchange, contract or agreement is found detrimental to the interest of the villagers and is no longer required in the interest of the Panchayat, the Government may, after making such enquiry as it may deem fit, cancel the same and no separate proceedings under any law shall be required to cancel the sale, lease, gift or exchange. The Panchayat shall be competent to take over the possession of such premises including the constructions thereon, if any, for which no compensation shall be payable.

Amendment of section 10A of Punjab Act 18
of 1961.

4. In section 10A of the principal Act,—

(i) in the marginal heading, for the words “sales or leases”, the words and signs “sale, lease, gift or exchange” shall be substituted;

(ii) in sub-sections (1), (2), (3), (4), (5) and (7), after the words and signs “sale, lease,” wherever occurring, the words and signs “gift, exchange,” shall be inserted; and

(iii) in sub-sections (4) and (5), after the words and sign “vendee, lessee” wherever occurring, the sign and word “donee” shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 15 of Punjab Act 18
of 1961.

5. In sub-section (2) of section 15 of the principal Act,—

(i) for clause (b), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:

“(b) the maximum and minimum area to be sold, gifted,
exchanged or leased to any single person;”;

(ii) for clause (ff), the following clause shall be substituted,
namely:

“(ff) the terms and conditions on which the land in shamilat deh may be gifted, sold, exchanged or leased;” and
(iii) for clause (k), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:

"(k) the form and manner of filing an appeal under sections 13AA and 13B;".
