the State having large circulation in the area in which the establishment is situated or in such other manner as may be prescribed, regard being had to the amount of the claim; invite claims by employees for any payment due to them. The notice shall be inserted in the manner aforesaid in June and December of every year, for a period of three years from the date of the payment of the unpaid accumulations to the Board.

(4) If any question arises whether the notice referred to in sub-section (3) was given as required by that sub-section a certificate of the Board that it was so given, shall be conclusive.

(5) If a claim is received, whether in answer to the notice or otherwise, within a period of four years from the date of first publication of the notice in respect of such claim,—

(a) where the amount of claim so received is equal to the amount deposited by the management with the Board, the amount of the claim shall be paid by the Board to the employee concerned; and

(b) in any other case, the Board shall transfer such claim to the Authority appointed under section 15 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, having jurisdiction in the area in which the establishment is or has been situated, and the Authority shall proceed to adjudicate upon, and decide, such claim. In hearing such claim the Authority shall have the powers conferred by, and follow the procedure (in so far as it is applicable) followed in giving effect to the provision of, that Act.

(6) If the Authority aforesaid is satisfied that any such claim is valid so that the right to receive payment is established, it shall decide that the unpaid accumulations in relation to which the claim is made shall cease to be deemed to be abandoned property, and shall order the Board to pay the whole of the dues claimed, or such part thereof as the Authority decides are properly due, to the employee; and the Board shall make payment accordingly.

Provided that the Board shall not be liable to pay any sum in excess of that paid under sub-section (1) of section 3 to the Board as unpaid accumulations in respect of the claim.
(7) If a claim for payment is refused, the employee shall have a right of appeal to the Court of District Judge and the Board shall comply with any order made in appeal. An appeal shall lie within sixty days of the decision of the Authority.

(8) The decision of the Authority, subject to the appeal aforesaid, and the decision in appeal shall be final and conclusive as to the right to receive payment, the liability of the Board to pay and also as to the amount if any.

(9) If no claim is made within the time specified in sub-section (5) or a claim has been duly refused as aforesaid by the Authority, or on appeal by the Court, then the unpaid accumulations in respect of such claim shall accrue to, and vest in, the State as bona vacantia, and shall thereafter, without further assurance, be deemed to be transferred to, and form part of, the Fund.

1[9A. (1) Every employee shall contribute one rupee per month to the Fund and every employer shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute two rupees per month to the Fund.

Explanation.—For the purpose of sub-section (1), “employee” means an employee on the register of an establishment on the last working day of the month.

(2) Every employer shall pay to the Fund both his contribution and the contribution of the employee before the 31st December of every year by crossed cheque or demand draft in favour of Welfare Commissioner.

(3) The employer shall be entitled to recover from the employee the employee’s contribution by deduction from his wages and not otherwise:

Provided that no such deduction shall be made in excess of the amount of the contribution payable by such employee:

Provided further that, if through inadvertence or on account of some other reason, no such deduction has been made from the wages of an employee for any month, such deduction may be made from the wages of such employee in any subsequent month after intimation in writing to the employee and the Inspector:

1. Inserted by Haryana Act 1 of 2002.
Provided further that it shall be no excuse for the employer for non-payment of contribution to the Fund that he had not deducted the contribution of the employee from his wages.

10. (1) The Fund shall vest in, and be held and applied by, the Board as trustees subject to the provisions and for the purposes of this Act. The moneys therein shall be utilized by the Board to defray the cost of carrying out measures which may be specified by the State Government from time to time to promote the welfare of labour and of their dependents.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (1), the money in the Fund may be utilized by the Board to defray expenditure on the following:

(a) community and social education centers including reading rooms and libraries;

(b) community necessities;

(c) games and sports;

(d) excursions, tours and holiday homes;

(e) entertainment and other forms of recreation;

(f) home industries and subsidiary occupations for women and unemployed persons;

(g) corporate activities of a social nature;

(h) cost of administering this Act including the allowances, if any, payable to the Chairman and members of the Board and the salaries and allowances of the staff appointed for the purposes of this Act; and

(i) such other objects as would in the opinion of the State Government improve the standard of living and ameliorate the social conditions of labour:

Provided that the Fund shall not be utilized in financing any measure which the employer is required under any law for the time being in force to carry out:

Provided further that unpaid accumulations and fines shall be paid to the Board and be expended by it under this Act notwithstanding anything contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, or any other law for the time being in force.

(3) The Board may, with the approval of the State Government, make a grant of the Fund to any local authority or any other body except an employer in aid of any activity for the welfare of labour and of their dependents approved by the State Government.

(4) If any question arises whether any particular expenditure is or is not debatable to the Fund, the matter shall be referred to the State Government and the decisions of the State Government on such reference shall be final.

(5) It shall be lawful for the Board to continue any activity financed from the welfare fund of any establishment if the said fund is duly transferred to the Board.

11. The Board may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, and subject to the provisions of this Act and to such conditions as may be specified in this behalf, borrow any sum required for the purposes of this Act.

12. Where the Fund or any portion thereof cannot be applied for some time for the purposes of this Act, the Board shall invest the same in such manner and in such securities as may be prescribed.

13. The State Government may give the Board such directions as in its opinion are necessary or expedient in connection with expenditure from the Fund or for carrying out the other purposes of this Act; and it shall be the duty of the Board to comply with such directions.

14. (1) There shall be a Welfare Commissioner to be appointed by the Board with the previous approval of the State Government who shall be the principal executive officer of the Board.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the first Welfare Commissioner shall be appointed by the State Government as soon as practicable after the passing of this Act for a period not exceeding five years and on such conditions as the State Government thinks fit.

(3) It shall be the duty of the Welfare Commissioner to ensure that the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder are duly carried out and for this purpose he shall have the power to issue such orders not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and rules made thereunder as he deems fit, including any order authenticating and implementing the decisions taken by the Board under this Act or rules made thereunder.

15. (1) The State Government may appoint Inspectors to inspect records in connection with the sums payable into the Fund.

(2) Any Inspector may—

(a) with such assistance, if any, as he thinks fit, enter at any reasonable time any premises for carrying out the purposes of this Act; and

(b) exercise such other powers as may be prescribed.

16. The Board shall take over and employ such of the existing staff under the control of Labour Commissioner [Haryana], as the State Government may direct and every person so taken over and employed shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder:

Provided that—

(a) during the period of such employment all matters relating to pay, leave, retirement, allowances, pensions, provident fund and other conditions of service of the said staff shall be regulated by the Punjab Civil Service Rules or such other rules as may from time to time be made by the State Government; and

(b) every such member of the said staff shall have a right of appeal to the State Government against any order of reduction, dismissal or removal from service, fine or any other punishment:

Provided further that person so taken over may elect within the prescribed period that he desires to be governed by the rules made under this Act in respect of conditions of service of the staff appointed by the Board under this Act, and on his electing to be so governed the provisions of first proviso shall cease to apply to him.

17. The Board shall have power to appoint the necessary clerical and executive staff to carry out and supervise the activities financed from the Fund:

Provided that if any appointment is not agreed to by the majority of the total number of members of the Board, the Appointment shall be made by the State Government:

Provided further that the expenses of the staff thus appointed and other administrative expenses shall not exceed a prescribed percentage of the annual income of the Fund.

18. The State Government shall have the power to remove any person whom it may deem unsuitable from the service of the Board.

19. The State Government or any officer authorized by the State Government in this behalf may call for records of any proceedings which are pending before, or have been disposed of, by the Board for purpose of satisfying itself or himself, as the case may be, as to the legality or propriety of such proceedings or of any order made therein and may pass such orders in relation thereto as the State Government or such officer may think fit:

Provided that no order adversely affecting any person shall be made under this section without giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

20. Any sum payable into the Fund under this Act, shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable on behalf of the Board as an arrear of land revenue.

21. (1) If the State Government is satisfied that the Board has made default in performing any duties imposed on it by or under this Act or has abused its power, the State Government may by notification supersede and reconstitute the Board in the prescribed manner:

Provided that before issuing such notification, the State Government shall give a reasonable opportunity to the Board to show cause why it should not be superseded and shall consider the explanation and objections, if any, of the Board.

(2) After the supersession of the Board and until it is reconstituted, the powers duties and functions of the Board shall be exercised or performed by such officer or officers as the State Government may appoint for this purpose.
Members of the Board, the Welfare Commissioner, Inspectors and all officers and servants of the Board shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

23. The Board may, by resolution passed by it at a meeting of the Board, direct that any power or duty which by this Act or by any rule made under this Act is conferred or imposed upon the Board shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged also by the Welfare Commissioner.

24. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

25. The State Government may by notification and in public interest exempt any class of establishments from all or any of the provisions of this Act subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the notification.

26. This Act shall apply to such establishments belonging to the Central Government or any State Government as are referred to in sub-clauses (i) and (ii) of clause (4) of section 2.

1[26A. Save as otherwise provided, any person, who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any rule made thereunder or who willfully obstructs an Inspector in the exercise of his power or discharge of his duties under this Act or any rule made thereunder or fails to produce for inspection on demand by an Inspector any registers, records or other documents maintained in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or to supply to him on

(a) for the first offence, with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees; and

(b) for a second or subsequent offences, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

26B. (1) No court inferior to that of a Judicial Magistrate of the 1st Class shall try any offence punishable under this Act.

(2) No court shall take cognizance of any such offence except on a complaint made by the Inspector.

27. (1) The State Government may, by notification and subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may be made for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the agency for and the manner of collection of sums specified in sub-section (3) of section 3; and the period within which the same shall be paid to the credit of the Fund;

(b) the manner in which the accounts of the fund shall be maintained and audited under sub-section (3) of section 3;

(c) the number of representatives of employers, employees and independent members of the Board and the allowances, if any, payable to the Chairman and members there of;

(d) the quorum at meetings of the Board and the manner in which it shall conduct its business;
