(4) The Chancellor shall have the right—

(i) to cause an inspection to be made, by such person or persons as he may direct, of the University, its buildings, laboratories and equipment and of any college or institution maintained by the University and also of the examinations, teaching and other work conducted or done by the University; and

(ii) to cause an inquiry to be made in like manner in respect of any matter connected with the administration of finances of the University, colleges or institutions.

(5) The Chancellor shall, in every case, give notice to the University of his intention to cause an inspection or inquiry to be made and on receipt of such notice, the University shall have the right to make such representation to the Chancellor as it may consider necessary.

(6) After considering the representation, if any, made by the University, the Chancellor may cause to be made such inspection or inquiry as is referred to in sub-section (4).

(7) Where any inspection or inquiry has been caused to be made by the Chancellor, the University shall be entitled to appoint a representative who shall have the right to be present and to be heard at such inspection or inquiry.

(8) The Chancellor may, if the inspection or inquiry is made in respect of the University or any college or institution maintained by it, address the Vice-Chancellor with reference to the result of such inspection or inquiry, and the Vice-Chancellor shall communicate to the Executive Council the views of the Chancellor and the action to be taken thereon as advised by the Chancellor.

(9) The Executive Council shall communicate through the Vice-Chancellor to the Chancellor such action, if any, as it proposes to take or has taken upon the result of such inspection or inquiry.

(10) Where the Executive Council does not, within a reasonable time, take action to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, the Chancellor, may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the Executive Council, issue such directions as he may think fit and the Executive Council shall comply with such directions.

(11) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, the Chancellor may by order in writing, annul any proceedings of the University, which are not in conformity with the Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances.
Provided that before making any such order he shall call upon the University to show cause why such an order should not be made, and if any cause is shown within a reasonable time, he shall consider the case.

(12) The Chancellor may, at any time, require or direct the University to act in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made thereunder.

(13) The power exercised by the Chancellor under sub-section (1) and sub-section (12) shall not be called in question in any Civil Court.

(14) Any employee of the University who is aggrieved by the decisions of the Executive Council or the Vice-Chancellor in respect of any disciplinary action taken against him, may address a memorial to the Chancellor in such manner as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the decision of the Chancellor shall be final.

(15) The Chancellor shall have such other powers as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

II. (1) The Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor on such terms and conditions of service as may be determined by him.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a period of three years which may be renewed for not more than one term.

Provided that he shall cease to hold the office on attaining the age of sixty years, irrespective of the fact that his term has not expired.

(3) If the Vice-Chancellor is unable to perform his duties owing to his temporary incapacity on account of illness or any other reason, or the office of the Vice-Chancellor falls vacant due to death, resignation, or otherwise, the Chancellor may make arrangements for the performance of duties of the Vice-Chancellor until the existing Vice-Chancellor is able to resume his office or until a regular Vice-Chancellor is appointed as the case may be.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the principal executive and academic officer of the University and shall exercise general supervision and control over the affairs of the University and give effect to the decisions of all the authorities of the University.

(5) The Vice-Chancellor may, if he is of the opinion that immediate action is necessary on any matter, exercise any power conferred on him by or under this Act, except in the matter involving creation or abolition of a Faculty, Department of Post, the matter involving appointment or removal of an employee.

Provided that the Vice-Chancellor before exercising powers under this section shall record in writing the reasons why the matter cannot wait till the meeting of the authority concerned.

Provided further that if the authority concerned is of the opinion that such action ought not to have been taken, it may refer the matter to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.
Provided further that any person in the service of the University who is aggrieved by the action taken by the Vice-Chancellor under this subsection, shall have the right to appeal to the Executive Council within one month from the date on which decision on such action is communicated to him and thereupon the Executive Council may confirm, modify or reverse the action taken by the Vice-Chancellor. The employee shall be informed that the action has been taken under emergency powers.

(6) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Statutes or Ordinances.

12. The manner of appointment and powers and functions of other officers of the University shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(iv) the Finance Committee;
(v) the Faculties;
(vi) the Planning Board; and
(vii) such other authorities as may be declared by the Statutes to be the authorities of the University.

members shall be prescribed by the Statutes.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Court shall have the following powers and functions, namely:

(a) to review, from time to time, the broad policies and programmes of the University and to suggest measures for the improvement and development of the University;

(b) to consider and pass resolution on the annual report, annual budget and the annual accounts of the University and on the audit report of such accounts;

(c) to advise the Chancellor in respect of any matter which may be referred to it for advice; and

(d) to perform such other functions as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

15. (1) The Executive Council shall be the principal executive body of the University.
(2) The constitution of the Executive Council, the term of office of its members and its powers and functions shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

16. (1) The Academic Council shall be the principal academic body of the University and shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes and Ordinances, co-ordinate and exercise general supervision over all academic policies of the University.

(2) The constitution of the Academic Council, the term of office of its members and its powers and functions shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

17. The constitution and functions of the Faculties shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

18. The constitution of the Finance Committee, the term of office of its members, and its powers and functions shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

19. The constitution and functions of the Planning Board shall be such as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

20. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the constitution, powers and functions of the authorities and other bodies of the University as may be constituted from time to time;
(b) the classification, mode of appointment, powers and duties of the teachers and the officers of the University;
(c) the conditions of service including provision for pension or provident fund or insurance scheme for the benefit of the employees of the University;
(d) the conferment of honorary degrees;
(e) the establishment and abolition of faculties and departments;
(f) the institution of fellowships, scholarships, studentships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;
(g) the maintenance of discipline among the students;
(h) the conditions under which colleges and institutions may be admitted to the privileges of the University and the withdrawal of the same;
(i) the delegation of powers vested in the authorities or officers of the University; and
(j) all other matters which by this Act, are to be or may be provided for by the Statutes.
21. (1) On the commencement of this Act, the Statutes of the University shall be those as set out in the Schedule:

Provided that the authorities of the University constituted under the Statutes framed before the commencement of this Act shall continue to exercise all the powers and perform all the functions under this Act till such authorities are constituted in terms of the Statutes set out in the Schedule referred to above.

(2) The Executive Council may, from time to time, make new or additional Statutes or amend or repeal the Statutes in the manner hereinafter provided in this section:

Provided that the Executive Council shall not make, amend or repeal any Statute, affecting the status, power or constitution of any authority of the University, until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion in writing on the proposed changes and any opinion so expressed shall be considered by the Executive Council.

(3) The Academic Council may propose to the Executive Council a draft of any Statute relating to academic matters for consideration by the Executive Council.

(4) Every new Statute or addition to the Statutes or any amendment or repeal of a Statute shall require the approval of the Chancellor, who may approve, disapprove or remit it for further consideration. A Statute passed by the Executive Council shall have no validity until it has been accepted by the Chancellor.

22. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, the Ordinances may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the admission of students to the University and their enrolment as such;

(b) the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees, diplomas and certificates of the University;

(c) the conditions under which students shall be admitted to the degree or diploma courses and to the examination of the University and shall be eligible for degrees and diplomas;

(d) the fees to be charged for courses of study in the University and for admission to the examinations, degrees and diplomas of the University; and further to make progressively the fee structure so flexible that the courses could become self-financing to the extent possible;

(e) the conditions of the award of fellowships, studentships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;

(f) the conduct of examinations, including the terms of office and manner of appointment and the duties of examining bodies, examiners and moderators;
(g) the conditions of residence of students of the University; and

(b) all other matters which, by this Act or the Statutes are to be made or may be provided for by the Ordinances.

23. (1) The Ordinances shall be made, amended, repealed or added to by the Executive Council;

Provided that no Ordinance shall be made—

(1) affecting the admission or enrolment of students or prescribing examinations to be recognised as equivalent to the University examinations; and

(2) affecting the conditions, mode of appointment or duties of examiners or the conduct or standard of examination or any course of study;

unless the draft of such an Ordinance has been proposed by the Academic Council.

(2) The Executive Council may return to the Academic Council for reconsideration, either in whole or in part, any draft proposed by the Academic Council under sub-section (1) along with its suggestions;

Provided that the Executive Council shall not amend the draft proposed by the Academic Council itself. It may, however, reject such draft when submitted to it by the Academic Council for the second time.

(3) All Ordinances made by the Executive Council shall have effect from such date as it may direct and every Ordinance made shall be communicated, as soon as may be, to the Chancellor.

24. (1) The authorities of the University may make Regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances—

(a) laying down the procedure to be observed at their meetings; and

(b) providing for all matters which, by this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances or to be prescribed by Regulations.

(2) Every authority of the University shall make Regulations providing for giving of notice to the members of such authority of the date of meetings and of the business to be considered at meetings and for the keeping of a record of the proceedings of the meetings.

25. The annual report of the University giving details of broad programmes, policies and financial amendments of Statutes and Ordinances made during the year, under report, shall be prepared under the directions of the Executive Council and shall be submitted to the Court on or after such date as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the Court shall consider the report at its annual meeting.
26. (1) The University shall have a General Fund in which shall be included—

(a) its income from fees, grants, donations and gifts, if any;

(b) any contribution or grant made by the Central Government, and the University Grants Commission, All India Council for Technical Education or like authority, any local authority or any corporation owned or controlled by the Government;

(c) endowments and other receipts.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "University Grants Commission" means the Commission established under section 4 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 (Central Act 3 of 1956).

(2) The University may have such other funds as may be prescribed by the statutes.

(3) The funds and all moneys of the University shall be managed in such a manner as may be prescribed by the statutes.

(4) The Government may, every year, provide grant-in-aid to facilitate and promote studies in emerging areas of higher education including new frontier of technology, environmental studies, non-conventional energy sources and management studies, and also to achieve excellence in those and connected fields in the manner prescribed by the Government from time to time.

27. (1) The annual accounts and the balance sheet of the University shall be prepared under the directions of the Executive Council and shall once at least every year and at intervals of not more than 15 months be audited by the Director, Local Fund Accounts, Haryana or any other auditor that may be appointed by the Government. The annual accounts when audited shall be published in the Haryana Government Gazette and a copy of the annual accounts along with the report of the Director, Local Fund Accounts or the auditor shall be submitted to the Court and the Chancellor along with the observations of the Executive Council. Any observations made by the Chancellor on the annual accounts shall be brought to the notice of the Court and observations of the Court, if any, shall after being considered by the Executive Council, be submitted to the Chancellor.

(2) The annual accounts and the balance sheet of the University shall also be submitted to the Government at the time of its submission to the Chancellor.

28. (1) Every salaried officer and teacher, except the Vice-Chancellor, shall be appointed under a written contract which shall be lodged with the University and any dispute arising out of a contract between the University and officer or teacher shall, at the request of the teacher or officer concerned or at the instance of the University, be referred to a Tribunal of arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Executive Council, one member nominated by the officer or teacher,
HARYANA GOVT. GAZ. (EXTRA), OCT. 20, 1955
(ASVNM. 29, 1917 SAKA)

... concerned and one nominee of the Chancellor. The decision of the majority of the members of the Tribunal shall be final and no suit shall lie in any Civil Court in respect of the matter decided by the Tribunal.

(2) Every such request shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitral within the meaning of the Arbitration Act, 1940.

29. (1) The University shall institute, for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees, providing provident fund and insurance fund, on the pattern of Government employees.

(2) Where any provident fund and insurance fund have been constituted, the provisions of the Provident Fund Act, 1952, shall be applicable.

30. No act done, or proceeding taken, under this Act by any authority or other body of the University shall be invalid merely on the ground--

(a) of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of the authority or body; or

(b) of any defect or irregularity in election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or

(c) of any defect or irregularity in such act or proceeding, not affecting the merits of the case.

31. If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected or appointed as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final.

32. If any difficulty arises with respect to the establishment of the University or in connection with the first meeting of any authority of the University or otherwise in that giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, at any time, before any authority of the University has been constituted by order, make any appointment or do anything, consistent, so far as may be, with the provisions of this Act, which appears to it necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty, and every such order shall have effect as if such an appointment or action had been made or taken in the manner provided in this Act.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the University shall not create any teaching and non-teaching posts or revise the pay scales of the teaching and non-teaching employees without obtaining the prior approval of the Government:

Provided that the Government may delegate its powers under this section to the Vice-Chancellor or the Executive Council as and when the need arises for smooth functioning and growth of the University.

34. No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or employee of the University for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes or Ordinances.

Pension, provident fund and insurance funds.

Vacancy not to invalidate proceedings.

Certain powers to be referred to Chancellor.

Power to remove difficulties.

Creation of teaching and non-teaching posts.

Protection of action taken in good faith.
35. (1) All properties, movable and immovable and all the interests of whatsoever nature and kind thereto, vested in the Karsegaon University, Post Graduate Regional Centre, Hisar and the courts thereof and the posts created, filled before the commencement of this Act shall vest in the University.

(2) All debts, obligations and liabilities incurred, all contracts entered into and all matters and things engaged to be done in respect of Post Graduate Regional Centre, Hisar shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into, or engaged to be done by, with or for the University.
