CHAPTER II.

REGISTRATION OF ESTABLISHMENTS.

7. (1) Within the period specified in sub-section (4), the employer of every establishment shall send to the Inspector of the local area concerned a statement, in a prescribed form, together with such fees as may be prescribed, containing—

(a) the name of the employer and the manager, if any;
(b) the postal address of the establishment;
(c) the name, if any, of the establishment;
(d) the category of the establishment, i.e., whether it is a shop, commercial establishment, residential hotel, restaurant, eating house, theatre or other place of public amusement or entertainment; and
(e) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) On receipt of the statement and the fees, the Inspector shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement, register the establishment in the register of establishments in such manner as may be prescribed and shall issue, in a prescribed form, a registration certificate to the employer. The registration certificate shall be prominently displayed at the establishment.

1[(2A) A registration certificate granted under sub-section (2), shall be valid up to the end of the year for which it is granted. An application for the renewal of a registration certificate shall be submitted not less than fifteen days before the date of expiry of the registration certificate or of the renewed registration certificate, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by such fees, and the renewed registration certificate shall be in such form, as may be prescribed.

2[(2B) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding sub-sections of this section, any registration certificate granted under sub-section (2) or renewed under sub-section (2A) may, at the option of the employer, be granted or renewed for a period of three years at a time, on payment of the fees for that period, so as to be valid up to the end of the third year from and including the year in which it is granted or renewed, as the case may be.]

(3) In the event of any doubt or difference of opinion between an employer and the Inspector as to the category to which an establishment should belong, the Inspector shall refer the matter to the prescribed authority which shall, after such inquiry as it thinks proper, decide the category of such establishment and its decision shall be final for the purposes of this Act.

(4) Within thirty days from the date mentioned in column 2 below in respect of an establishment mentioned in column 1, the statement together with fees shall be sent to the Inspector under sub-section (1):

Bombay Shops and Establishments Act, 1948

1. Establishments.

(iii) New establishments in local areas mentioned in Schedule I and other local areas in which this section has come into force.

2. Date from which the period of 30 days to commence.

The date on which the establishment commences its work.

8. It shall be the duty of an employer to notify to the Inspector, in a prescribed form, any change in any of the particulars contained in the statement submitted under section 7 within such period, after the change has taken place, as the State Government may prescribe in respect of any establishment or class of establishments. The Inspector shall, on receiving such notice and the prescribed fees and on being satisfied about its correctness, make the change in the register of establishments in accordance with such notice and shall amend the registration certificate or issue a fresh registration certificate, if necessary.

9. The employer shall, within ten days on his closing the establishment, notify to the Inspector in writing accordingly. The Inspector shall, on receiving the information and being satisfied about its correctness, remove such establishment from the register of establishments and cancel the registration certificate:

Provided that if the Inspector does not receive the information but he is otherwise satisfied that the establishment has been closed, he may remove such establishment from such register and cancel such certificate.

CHAPTER III.

SHOPS AND COMMERCIAL ESTABLISHMENTS.

10. (1) No shop—

(a) dealing wholly in milk, vegetables, fruits, fish, meat, bread or any other goods notified by the [State] Government shall on any day be opened earlier than 5 a.m.;

(b) other than those specified in clause (a) of this sub-section, shall on any day be opened earlier than 7 a.m.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the [State] Government may fix different hours for different classes of shops or for different areas or for different periods of the year.

11. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment for the time being in force, no shop—

(a) other than those specified in clause (b) of this sub-section, shall on any day be closed later than 8-30 p.m.;

(b) [dealing mainly in] pan, bidi, cigarettes, matches and other ancillary articles shall on any day be closed later than 11 p.m.:

Provided that any customer who was being served or was waiting to be served at such closing hour in any shop may be served in such shop during the quarter of an hour immediately following such hour.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the [State] Government may fix earlier closing hours for different classes of shops or for different areas or for different periods of the year.

2 This proviso was added, Ibid., s. 5.
3 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
4 The words "dealing in goods" were deleted by Bom. 33 of 1949, s. 2, First Schedule.
5 These words were substituted for the words "dealing in" by Mah. 26 of 1961, s. 6.
12. (1) No person shall carry on in or adjacent to a street or a public place the sale of any goods before the opening and after the closing hours fixed under sections 10 and 11 for the shops dealing in the same class of goods in the locality in which such street or public place is situate:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to the sale of newspapers.

(2) Any person contravening the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be liable to have his goods seized by an Inspector.

(3) The goods seized under sub-section (2) shall be returned to the person from whom they were seized on his depositing rupees twenty-five as security for his appearance in the Court.

(4) If the person fails to make the deposit, the goods seized shall be produced without delay before a Magistrate who may give such directions as to their temporary custody as he thinks fit.

(5) Where no prosecution is instituted for contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) within such period as the Magistrate may fix in this behalf, the Magistrate shall direct their return to the person from whom they were seized.

(6) Subject to the provisions of the preceding sub-section, the provisions of the V of Code of Criminal Procedure*, 1898, shall so far as they may be applicable, apply to the disposal of the goods seized under this section.

13. (1) No commercial establishment shall on any day be opened earlier than 8 a.m. and closed later than 8 p.m.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the *[State] Government may fix later opening or earlier closing hours for different classes of commercial establishments or for different areas or for different periods of the year.

14. (1) *[Subject to the other provisions] of this Act, no employee shall be required or allowed to work in any shop or commercial establishment for more than nine hours in any day and forty-eight hours in any week.

(2) Any employee may be required or allowed to work in a shop or commercial establishment for any period in excess of the limit fixed under sub-section (1) if such period does not exceed six hours in any week.

(3) On not more than six days in a year in which the *[State] Government may fix by rules made in this behalf, for purposes of making of accounts, stock taking settlements or other prescribed occasions, any employee may be required or allowed to work in a shop or commercial establishment in excess of the period fixed under sub-section (1), if such excess period does not exceed twenty-four hours.

15. The period of work of an employee in a shop or commercial establishment shall be so fixed that no period of continuous work shall exceed five hours and that no employee shall be required or allowed to work for more than five hours before he has had an interval for rest of at least one hour:

Provided that,—

(a) in the case of employees in a commercial establishment engaged in any manufacturing process, the interval for rest shall be at least half an hour; and

7 Section 15 was substituted for the original by Bom. 28 of 1952, s. 7.
8 This proviso was added by Mah. 26 of 1961, s. 8.
(b) in the case of any other employees the State Government may, on an application made in that behalf [by the union recognised under any law for the time being in force where there is such union, or where there is no such union by a majority of the employees concerned,] permit the reduction of the interval for rest of half an hour.

16. The spread-over of an employee in a shop shall not exceed eleven hours in any day:

Provided that in cases where any shop is on any day entirely closed for a continuous period of not less than three hours, the spread-over shall not exceed twelve hours in that day:

Provided also that where an employee works on any day in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 14, the spread-over shall not exceed fourteen hours in any such day and where he works on any day in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of the said section, the spread-over shall not exceed sixteen hours in any such day.

17. The spread-over of an employee in a commercial establishment shall not exceed eleven hours in any day:

Provided that the [State] Government may increase the spread-over period subject to such conditions as it may impose either generally or in the case of a particular commercial establishment or a class or classes of commercial establishments.

18. 4[(l) Every shop and commercial establishment shall remain closed on one day of the week. [Except where the day is fixed under the provisions of sub-section (1B), the employer shall prepare a calendar or list of such closed days at the beginning of the year, notify such calendar or list to the Inspector and specify in a notice prominently displayed in a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment:

Provided that, if no change is made in the calendar or list of closed days for any year, it shall not be necessary to notify again such calendar or list as aforesaid:

Provided further that, where any shop or commercial establishment comes after the beginning of any year within the purview of this Act for the first time, the employer shall also prepare a calendar or list of such closed days for the remaining part of the year, and notify it to the Inspector within a month of the date on which the shop or establishment so comes within the purview of this Act.]

(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (l), [but except where the day is fixed under sub-section (1B)], a shop or commercial establishment may remain open on any day notified as closed day under sub-section (l), if—

(a) it remains closed on any other day of the week; and

(b) the employer has notified to the Inspector, his intention to close the shop or the commercial establishment, as the case may be, on the day substitute under clause (a), at least seven days before the substituted day or the day notified as closed day under sub-section (l), whichever is earlier.]

1 These words were substituted for the words "by the employees concerned," by Mah. 64 of 1964, s. 5.
2 This word was substituted for the word "Provincial" by the Adaptation of Laws Order, 1950.
3 Sub-sections (l) and (1A) were substituted for the original sub-section (l) by Bom. 28 of 1952, s. 8(l).
4 These words were substituted for the words "the employer shall prepare" by Mah. 26 of 1961, s. 9(6).
5 These provisions were added, ibid.
6 This portion was inserted, ibid., s. 9(6).
1[(1) A local authority in respect of any area within its jurisdiction and the State Government in any local area elsewhere, may, by order published in the prescribed manner, after consultation with representative associations or otherwise as appear to such authority or the State Government to be most appropriate for ascertaining the views of the employers and employees affected by the order, fix the day on which a shop or commercial establishment is to be closed, and any such order may either fix the same day for all shops or establishments therein, or may fix—

(a) different days for different classes of shops or establishments, or
(b) different days for different parts of the area or local area, or
(c) different days for different periods of the year, and thereupon, every shop or commercial establishment shall, on such day so fixed, remain closed; but nothing in this sub-section shall apply to a shop or commercial establishment, the employer of which has notified to the Inspector at the beginning of the year his intention to close the shop or commercial establishment on a public holiday within the meaning of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881.]

CHAPTER VII.

LEAVE WITH PAY AND PAYMENT OF WAGES.

35. (1) (a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b), every employee who has been Leave employed for not less than three months in any year, shall for every 60 days on which he has worked during the year be allowed leave, consecutive or otherwise, for a period of not more than five days;

(b) every employee who has worked for not less than two hundred and forty days during a year shall be allowed leave, consecutive or otherwise, for a period of not less than twenty-one days:

Provided that such leave may be accumulated up to a maximum period of forty-two days.

Explanation.—The leave allowed to an employee under clauses (a) and (b) shall be inclusive of the day or days during the period of such leave, on which a shop, or commercial establishment remains closed under sub-section (1) of section 18, or on which he is entitled to a holiday under sub-section (1) of section 24 or section 31.

(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), every employee whose services commence otherwise than on the first day of January in any year shall be entitled to such leave in such year for the number of days which bears to twenty-one days, the same proportion, as the number of days for which he worked bears to two hundred and forty days.

(2) If an employee entitled to leave under sub-section (1) is discharged by his employer before he has been allowed the leave, or if, having applied for and having been refused the leave, he quits his employment before he has been allowed the leave, the employer shall pay him the amount payable under section 36 in respect of the leave.

(3) If an employee entitled to leave under sub-section (1) is refused the leave, he may give intimation to the Inspector or any other officer authorized in this behalf by the Government regarding such refusal. The Inspector shall enter such intimation in a register kept in such form as may be prescribed. The employee shall also send a copy of such intimation to his employer and, thereupon, the employee shall be entitled to carry forward the unavailed leave without any limit.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, every employee, irrespective of his period of employment, shall be entitled to additional holiday on the 26th January, 1st May and 15th August every year. For holiday on these days, he shall be paid wages at a rate equivalent to the daily average of his wages (excluding overtime), which he earns during the month in which such compulsory holiday falls:

Provided that, the employer may require any employee to work in the establishment on all or any of these days, subject to the condition that for such work the employee shall be paid double the amount of the daily average wages and also leave on any other day in lieu of the compulsory holiday.

(2) Where the owner of an establishment is a company, any one of the directors thereof, or in the case of a private company, any one of the share holders thereof may be prosecuted and punished under this Act for any offence for which the employer in the establishment is punishable:

Provided that the company may give notice to the Inspector that it has nominated a director, or, in the case of a private company, a shareholder who is resident in the [State] to be the employer in the establishment for the purposes of this Act, and such director or shareholder shall so long as he is so resident be deemed to be the employer in the establishment for the purposes of this Act, until further notice cancelling his nomination is received by the Inspector or until he ceases to be a director or shareholder.

59. (1) Where the employer or manager of an establishment is charged with an offence against this Act or the rules or orders made thereunder, he shall be entitled upon complaint duly made by him to have any other person whom he charges as the actual offender brought before the Court at the time appointed for hearing the in certain charge; and if, after the commission of the offence has been proved, the employer or cases, manager of the establishment proves to the satisfaction of the Court—

(a) that he has used due diligence to enforce the execution of this Act, and

(b) that the said other person committed the offence in question without his knowledge, consent or connivance, that other person shall be convicted of the offence and shall be liable to the like fine as if he were the employer or manager, and the employer or manager shall be discharged from any liability under this Act.

(2) When it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the Inspector at any time prior to the institution of the proceedings—

(a) that the employer or manager of the establishment has used all due diligence to enforce the execution of this Act,

(b) by what person the offence has been committed, and

(c) that it has been committed without the knowledge, consent or connivance of the employer or manager, and in contravention of his orders, the Inspector shall proceed against the person whom he believes to be the actual offender without first proceeding, against the employer or manager of the establishment, and such person shall be liable to the like fine as if he were the employer or manager.

60. (1) No prosecution under this Act or the rules or orders made thereunder shall be instituted except by an Inspector and except with the previous sanction of the [District Magistrate] [Additional District Magistrate, Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Commissioner of Labour, Additional Commissioner of Labour or Deputy Commissioner of Labour,] or the local authority, as the case may be [or, without any such sanction, by an aggrieved person, or by a representative of the registered union of which the aggrieved person is a member]:

[Provided that any local authority may direct that the powers conferred on it by this sub-section shall, in such circumstances and subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised by its standing committee or by any committee appointed by it in this behalf or, if such local authority is a municipal corporation, by its Municipal Commissioner, [Deputy Municipal Commissioner or Assistant Municipal Commissioner].]

(2) No court inferior to that of a Presidency Magistrate or a Magistrate of a Second Class shall try any offence against this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

1 These words were substituted for the words "State Government" by Bom. 9 of 1951, s. 3, Second Schedule.
2 These words were inserted by Mah. 64 of 1977, s. 20(a).
3 These words were inserted, ibid., s. 20(b).
4 This proviso was added by Bom. 28 of 1952, s. 17.
5 These words were inserted by Mah. 26 of 1961, s. 19.
61. [(1)] No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act or any rule or order made thereunder, unless complaint thereof is made within [three months from the date on which the alleged commission of the offence came to the knowledge of an Inspector].

[(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the aggrieved person or a representative of the registered union of which the aggrieved person is a member, may within three months from the date on which the alleged commission of the offence took place give intimation of the offence to the Inspector and request him to institute prosecution. On receipt of such intimation and request, the Inspector may himself institute the prosecution within the period of limitation specified in sub-section (1) or inform the applicant before the expiry of the said period or as soon as possible thereafter that he does not propose to institute prosecution. On receipt of such intimation, the applicant shall be entitled to institute prosecution, and the Court shall take cognizance of the offence, if complaint thereof is made to it within two months from the date of receipt of the intimation of the Inspector by the applicant.]

CHAPTER XI.

MISCELLANEOUS AND SUPPLEMENTAL.

62. Subject to the general or special orders of the [State] Government an employer shall maintain such registers and records and display on the premises of his establishment such notices as may be prescribed. All such registers and records shall be kept on the premises of the establishment to which they relate.

63. [Where an employee in any establishment to which this Act applies is required to work in excess of the limit of hours of work, he shall be entitled, in respect of the overtime work, wages at the rate of twice his ordinary rate of wages.]

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section the expression "limit of hours of work" shall mean—

(a) in the case of employees in shops and commercial establishments, nine hours in any day and forty-eight hours in any week;

(b) in the case of employees in residential hotels, restaurants, eating houses, theatres or other places of public amusement or entertainment, nine hours in any day; and

(c) in the case of employees in any other establishment, such hours as may be prescribed.

64. (1) When an act or omission would, if a person were under or over a certain age, be an offence punishable under this Act, and such person is in the opinion of the Court apparently under or over such age, the burden shall be on the accused to prove that such person is not under or over such age.

(2) A declaration in writing by a [qualified medical practitioner] relating to an employee that he has personally examined him and believes him to be under or over the age set forth in such declaration shall, for the purposes of this Act, be admissible as evidence of the age of the employee.
Explanatory Note.—For the purposes of this section, a \textsuperscript{3}[qualified medical practitioner] shall have the same meaning as in the Factories Act, \textsuperscript{4}[1948],

65. No employee shall work in any establishment, nor shall any employer knowingly permit an employee to work in any establishment, on a day on which the employee is given a holiday or is on leave in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

66. No employer shall dispense with the services of an employee who has been in his \textsuperscript{3}[continuous employment—

(a) for not less than a year, without giving such person at least thirty days notice in writing, or wages in lieu of such notice;

(b) for less than a year but more than three months, without giving such person at least fourteen days’ notice in writing, or wages in lieu of such notice]:

Provided that such notice shall not be necessary where the services of such employee are dispensed with for misconduct.

\textsuperscript{3} These words were substituted for the words “registered medical practitioner” by Bom. 17 of 1949, s. 3.

\textsuperscript{4} These figures were substituted for the figures “1934”, \textit{ibid}.

\textsuperscript{5} This portion was substituted for the portion beginning with “continuous employment for not less than three months” and ending with “in lieu of such notice” by Mah. 26 of 1961, s. 20(2).

\textsuperscript{6} This marginal note was substituted, \textit{ibid.}, s. 20(2).
4[Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, “misconduct” shall include—
(a) absence from service without notice in writing or without sufficient reasons for seven days or more;
(b) going on or abetting a strike in contravention of any law for the time being in force; and
(c) causing damage to the property of his employer.]
[(4) All rules made under this Act shall be laid before each House of the State Legislature as soon as possible after they are made, and shall be subject to such modifications as the State Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following and publish in the Official Gazette.]

Protection to persons acting under this Act.

68. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

Rights and privileges under other law, etc., not affected.

69. Nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or privileges which an employee in any establishment is entitled to at the date this Act comes into force in a local area, under any other law, contract, custom or usage applicable to such establishment or any award, settlement or agreement binding on the employer and the employees in such establishment, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

Persons employed in factory to be governed by Factories Act and not by this Act.

70. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to apply to a factory and the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 shall, notwithstanding anything contained in that Act, apply to all persons employed in and in connection with a factory:

Provided that, where any shop or commercial establishment situate within the precincts of a factory is not connected with the manufacturing process of the factory, the provisions of this Act shall apply to it:

Provided further that, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply all or any of the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 to any shop or commercial establishment situate within the precincts of a factory and on the of application of that Act to such shop or commercial establishment, the provisions of this Act shall cease to apply to it.]

Submission of annual report, etc.

71. It shall be the duty of every local authority to submit, within two months after the close of the year, to [the Commissioner of Labour, Bombay] a report on the working of the Act within the local area under its jurisdiction during such year.

[It shall also submit to him] from time to time such annual or periodical returns as may be required.

Repeal of Bombay Shops and Establishments Act, 1939, shall be repealed:

72. On and from date of the commencement of this Act, the Bombay Shops and Establishments Act, 1939, shall be repealed:

Provided that—

(a) every appointment, order, rule, by-law, regulation, notification or notice made, issued or given under the provisions of the Act so repealed shall, in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made, issued or given under the provisions of this Act, unless and until superseded by any appointment, order, rule, by-law, regulation, notification or notice made, issued or given under this Act;

(b) any proceeding relating to the trial of any offence punishable under the provisions of the Act so repealed shall be continued and completed as if the said Act had not been repealed but had continued in operation and any penalty imposed on such proceedings shall be recovered under the Act so repealed.
