6A. For the purpose of raising resources for implementing the Employment Guarantee Scheme, under the Maharashtra Employment Guarantee Act, 1977, there shall be levied and collected in the manner hereinafter provided the taxes in the next succeeding section (hereinafter together called the Employment Guarantee Cess).

6B. Subject to the provisions of this Act, there shall also be levied and collected in addition to the tax and special assessment levied under section 4,—

(a) with effect from the 1st day of April 1975, a further tax on lands and buildings in a municipal area used or intended to be used for a non-residential purpose at the rate specified in Schedule C hereto annexed;

(b) with effect from the 1st day of August 1975, a further special assessment on all agricultural lands in the State on which irrigated crops are raised at the rate of Rs. 25 per hectare—anything contained to the contrary in the Code or any other law or in any agreement, for the time being in force, notwithstanding.

6C. (1) For the purposes of clause (a) of section 6B, lands or buildings used for a non-residential purpose means lands or buildings used for a non-residential purpose [as defined in Explanation 1 in Schedule A.]

(2) Where any land or building is used partly for a residential purpose and partly for a non-residential purpose, then for the purpose of determining the rate of tax specified in Schedule C, the annual letting value of the entire land or building shall be taken into account; but for calculating the actual amount of the tax at the rate aforesaid, the annual letting value of the portion of the land or building used or intended to be used for non-residential purpose only shall be taken into account.

(3) Where any question arises as to whether any land or building is used or intended to be used for a residential purpose or non-residential purpose, the question shall be referred for decision to the Collector. The Collector shall, after holding a summary inquiry, record his decision.

(4) An appeal may be made against such decision to such authority as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify for the whole or any part of the State. The period within which such appeal may be made shall be sixty days from the date of receipt of the decision of the Collector.

(5) The decision recorded by the Collector, subject to an appeal to the authority specified as aforesaid, and the order of the authority so specified in appeal shall be final.

6D. Subject to the provisions of this Act, where more than one land or building used or intended to be used for a non-residential purpose in a municipal area is owned by the same person, the tax on lands and buildings shall be assessed on the annual letting value of all such lands and buildings.

3 These words were substituted for the words "for profit" by Mah. 53 of 1976, s. 3.
7. The following lands and buildings shall be exempted from payment of the tax on lands and buildings, that is to say:

(a) lands and buildings vesting in the Central Government;

(b) lands and buildings vesting in the State Government or belonging to a municipality, a Zilla Parishad or Cantonment Board and used exclusively for public purposes, and not used or intended to be used for purposes of profit;

(c) buildings and lands vesting in the Trustees of the Port of Bombay, and not used or intended to be used for the purpose of profit;

(d) wharves, docks, piers, railways and lighthouses (as defined in the Bombay Port Trust Act, 1879), vesting in the Trustees of the Port of Bombay, and used as such, and such other properties vesting in the said Trustees as the State Government may notify in this behalf;

(e) lands and buildings or portions thereof belonging to a public trust registered under the Bombay Public Trusts Act, 1950 [or a wakf registered under the Wakf Act, 1954] and exclusively occupied for public worship or for charitable purposes;

(f) lands and buildings, the annual letting value of which is less than seventy-five rupees;

(g) open lands (other than those within the limits of greater Bombay and the Cities of Poona, Sholapur, Kolhapur and Nagpur).

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section—

(1) the following lands and buildings or portions thereof shall not be deemed to be exclusively occupied for public worship or for charitable purposes, namely:

(a) those in which trade or business is carried on; and

(b) those in respect of which rent is derived, whether rent is or is not applied exclusively to religious or charitable purposes;

1 These words and figures were inserted by Mah. 45 of 1962, s. 2.
2 These words were inserted by Mah. 17 of 1974, s. 5.
(2) where any portion of any land or building is exempt from the tax by reason of its being exclusively occupied for public worship or for charitable purposes, such portion shall be deemed to be a separate property;

(3) "open land" means land which is not built upon or enclosed.

8. (1) If the actual occupier of any land or building is the owner thereof or holds it on a building or other lease granted by or on behalf of Government or on a building or other lease from any person or local authority, then the tax shall be leviable primarily on the actual occupier.

(2) In any other case, the tax shall be leviable primarily as follows, that is to say—

(a) if the land or building is let, upon the lessor;

(b) if the land or building is sub-let, upon the superior lessor;

(c) if the land or building is unlet, upon the person in whom the right to let vests.

9. (1) The tax shall be collected—

[(a) in Cantonments by the Collector of the district; and ]

(b) in other municipal area, by the municipality.

(2) The collection of the tax (including any penalty) under this Act shall be made—

(a) in the Cantonments as an arrear of land revenue;

(b) in any other municipal area, in the same manner in which the property tax is collected in that area under the relevant municipal law:

Provided that, if in any municipal area, the property tax is not levied by the municipality, the tax shall be collected in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The collection of the tax and the recovery of penalty under this Act on behalf of any municipality shall be made by the appropriate municipal authority appointed to collect the property tax on behalf of such municipality under the law under which the municipality is constituted.

(4) The municipality shall, in respect of the cost of collection of the tax, be entitled to such rebate as may be prescribed, and different rates of rebate may be provided for different municipal areas.

10. (1) If any person, on being served with a notice of demand for the collection of Penalty for tax in pursuance of the provisions of section 9, fails to pay within the period mentioned in the notice, any amount due from him on account of tax, the municipality or, as the case may be, the Collector, on being satisfied that such person has wilfully failed to pay the tax, may, subject to the general or special orders of the State Government, recover from him as penalty a sum not exceeding one-tenth of the amount of the tax so unpaid, in addition to the amount of tax payable by him.

(2) Sums recoverable under this section shall be recovered in the manner provided in section 9 for the collection of tax.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law and notwithstanding any rights arising out of any contract or otherwise howsoever, all sums due as tax or penalty, in respect of any land or building shall, subject to prior payment of the land revenue (if any), thereon, due to the State Government be a first charge—

(a) in the case of any land or building held immediately from the Government, upon the interest in such land or building of the person liable for such tax or penalty, and upon the goods and other moveable property, if any, found within or upon such land or building and belonging to such person; and

(b) in the case of any other land or building, upon such land or building and upon the goods and other moveable properties, if any, found within or upon such land or building and belonging to the person liable to pay such tax or penalty.

12. On the failure to recover any sum due on account of tax from the person primarily liable therefor, there may be recovered from the occupier of any part of the land or building in respect of which the tax is due, such portion thereof as bears to the total amount of the tax due the same ratio which the rent annually payable by such occupier bears to the aggregate amount of the annual letting value thereof.

13. (1) If any person from whom under the provisions of section 8 the tax is leviable pays the tax in respect of any land or building, he shall if he is not himself in occupation thereof during the period for which he has paid the tax, be entitled to receive the amount of the tax from the person, if any, in actual occupation of such land or building for the period aforesaid.

(2) If any building in respect of which the tax is paid consists of more than one tenement, and the tax in respect of that building is paid by the person referred to in the last preceding sub-section or by any person acting in his behalf, then such person shall be entitled to recover the amount of the tax pro rata from the occupiers of the tenements for the period for which the tax is payable in proportion to the amount of rent for which each such tenement is let:

Provided that, if—

(a) any of the tenements is in occupation of such person or any person acting on his behalf, or

(b) by the terms of the tenancy, such person has agreed to pay the tax for an occupier of the tenement, the amount payable pro rata in respect of such tenements shall not be recovered from the occupiers of other tenements.

(3) The recovery of any amount of tax from an occupier under this section shall not be deemed to be an increase for the purposes of section 7 of the Bombay Rents, Hotel and Lodging House Rates Control Act, 1947, or any law corresponding thereto in force in any part of the State.

Examination.—In this section "tenement" means a room or group of rooms rented or offered for rent as a unit.

14. (1) If any land or building assessed to tax is let, and the rateable value thereof exceeds the amount of rent payable in respect thereof to the person from whom, under the provisions of section 8, the tax is leviable, that person shall be entitled to receive from his tenant the difference between the amount of the tax levied upon him and the amount which would be leviable upon him if the tax were calculated on the amount of rent payable to him.

(2) If the land or building is sub-let and its rateable value exceeds the amount of rent payable in respect thereof to the tenant by his sub-tenant, or the amount of rent payable in respect thereof to a sub-tenant by the person holding under the sub-tenant the tenant shall be entitled to receive from his sub-tenant or as the case may be, the sub-tenant shall be entitled to receive from the person holding under him, the difference between any sum recovered under the preceding sub-section from such tenant or sub-tenant and the amount of tax which would be leviable in respect of the said land or building if the rateable value thereof were equal to the difference between the amount of rent which such tenant or sub-tenant receives and the amount of rent which he pays.

15. Any person entitled to receive any sum under section 13 or 14 shall have for the recovery thereof the same rights and remedies as if such sum were rent payable to him by the person from whom he is entitled to receive the same.

16. (1) Where any land or building is assessed to tax, and if in respect of such Remission, land or building or portion thereof a draw-back (if any) or remission or refund of property tax is sanctioned or granted on or after the 1st day of October 1962 under the relevant municipal law, then the municipality, or as the case may be, the Collector shall remit or refund such portion of the tax, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) Where any building assessed to tax is situated in Greater Bombay or in the [Cities of Poona, Sholapur and Kolhapur or in the City] of Nagpur and if such building or any portion thereof is demolished or removed otherwise than by order of the Municipal Commissioner and notice in respect of such demolition or removal has been given to the Commissioner under the relevant municipal law, the municipal corporation constituted under such law shall remit or refund such portion of the tax in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The burden of proving the facts entitling any person to claim relief under this section shall lie upon him.

17. (1) If any municipality makes default in the collection or payment to the Default of State Government of any sum due in respect of the tax on lands, buildings under municipality this Act, the State Government may, after holding such inquiry as it thinks fit, tax, fix a period for the collection or payment of such sum.

1 These words were substituted for the words "City of Poona or" by Mah. 17 of 1974, s. 6.
(2) If the collection or payment of the sum is not made within the period so fixed by the State Government, notwithstanding anything contained in any law relating to the funds vested in such municipality or any other law for the time being in force, direct any bank in which any moneys of the municipality are deposited or the person in charge of the Government treasury or of any other place of security in which the moneys of such municipality are deposited, to pay such sum from such moneys as may be standing to the credit of the municipality in such bank, or as may be, in the hands of such person or as may from time to time be received from or on behalf of the municipality by way of deposit by such bank or person; and such bank or person shall be bound to obey such order.

(3) Every payment made pursuant to an order under sub-section (2) shall be a sufficient discharge to such bank or person from all liability to the municipality in respect of any sum so paid by it or him out of the moneys of that municipality so deposited with such bank or person.

CHAPTER IV.

Provisions relating to Special Assessment.

18. [(1)] The special assessment shall not be leviable under this Act on any land—

(a) used as a nursery, that is to say, for rearing young plants with a view to their transplantation elsewhere; or

(b) on which fruit trees raised have not started bearing fruit; or

(c) in any revenue year in which the commercial crops or irrigated crops raised on that land are not likely to be harvested in that year.

(2) The special assessment shall not be leviable under section 6B in respect of an area not exceeding 0·4 hectare of land in any holding on which an irrigated crop is raised; and in calculating the special assessment in respect of a holding consisting of land in excess of 0·4 hectare, on which irrigated crops are raised and equal to 0·4 hectare shall always be ignored.

Explanation.—For the purposes of sub-section (2), holding in relation to a person means the total land held by such person either as owner or tenant and which is in his actual lawful possession.

19. (1) The special assessment shall be leviable primarily of the person in actual possession of the land on which the commercial crops or as the case may be, the irrigated crops are raised.

(2) If any person primarily liable under the preceding sub-section makes default in the payment of the special assessment, the special assessment shall be recoverable from any person who is primarily liable to pay the land revenue in respect of such land under the Code; and such person shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, be entitled to credit for the amount recovered from him in account with the person who is primarily liable for payment of the special assessment under the preceding sub-section.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section where any land is wholly or partly exempt from the payment of land revenue, the person primarily liable to pay land revenue means the person who would have been liable to pay land revenue had such land revenue been payable in respect of such land.

1 Section 18 was renumbered as sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) was inserted by Mah. 17 of 1975, Sch.
2 Clause (a), (b) and the Explanation were deleted by Mah. 17 of 1974, s. 7.
3 These words were inserted by Mah. 17 of 1975, Sch.
4 This word was substituted for the words "relevant Code" ibid.,
20. (1) As soon as possible after the commencement of this Act and on the commencement of each subsequent revenue year, the Assessing Officer shall, subject to the general or special orders of the State Government, cause a list (hereinafter referred to as the "special assessment list") to be prepared containing the names of persons in every village within his jurisdiction who are primarily liable under section 19 for the payment of special assessment, the acreage of land held by such person and the commercial crops [1], or as the case may be, the irrigated crops] raised thereon, the special assessment leviable on the land on which crops are raised, and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) After the special assessment list is prepared, it shall be published in the village to which it pertains in the prescribed manner; and if no application is made by any person interested herein within a period of thirty days of the date of such publication disputing the correctness of such list or any particulars therein, such list shall, subject to the provisions of section 22, be final.

(3) If an application is made to the Assessing Officer in the prescribed manner within the aforesaid period by any person interested, disputing the correctness of any such list or of any particulars therein, the Assessing Officer shall, after allowing the applicant an opportunity of being heard, decide the dispute in the prescribed manner; and such decision shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the [Code], [subject to any appeal made to the Collector in the prescribed manner, within thirty days from the date of the decision, or any revision proceedings under section 22, be final.]

21. (1) Where there has been a failure of any commercial crop [4] or as the case Remission. may be, any irrigated crop] in any year then subject to any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, the Assessing Officer may, on receipt of an application from the person liable to pay the assessment, order such remission of special assessment as he may consider fit in the circumstances of the case.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Assessing Officer may, within sixty days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the Collector.

(3) Before rejecting any application for remission under this section, the Assessing Officer or the Collector shall record his reasons for such rejection.

22. (1) The State Government (or such officer not below the rank of a Deputy Revision. Secretary to Government designated by that Government in this behalf) may, suo motu or on application, call for and examine the record of any order made by any officer under this Chapter and pass such order thereon as it or he thinks just and proper.

Provided that, no application under this section shall be entertained if it is not made within a period of four months from the date of the order:

Provided further that, before rejecting any application for the revision of any such order, the State Government or the officer designated shall record reasons for such rejection.

(2) No order shall be passed under this section which is likely to affect any person adversely, unless such person is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard by the State Government or as the case may be, the officer designated.

(3) Where a person could have appealed under this Chapter, and no appeal has been filed by him, no proceedings in revision under this section shall be entertained upon the application of such person.

XXXVIII of 1963, shall, Certain provisions of the Limitation Act to apply to appeals and revision applications.

Provisions of [Code] so far as not inconsistent with anything herein contained, apply for the purposes of the recovery of the special assessment leviable under this Act from the persons specified in the special assessment list, as though the special assessment were land revenue payable under the purposes of [Code]. [For the more efficient recovery of the special assessment, [other than special assessment leviable under section 6B]] the village panchayats shall assist the revenue officers and ten per cent of the net proceeds of the recovery of the special assessment made in their respective jurisdiction, may be made over to the panchayats.]

24. The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, reduce the rate of special assessment specified in [Schedule B] in respect of land in which any of the commercial crops are raised; and may, by like notification, omit or amend any entry, but not so as to enhance the rate of special assessment in any case, and thereupon [Schedule B] shall be deemed to have been amended accordingly. [The State Government may by like notification reduce the rate of further special assessment specified in section 6B in respect of land in which any irrigated crop is raised, and thereupon, section 6B shall, in relation to such irrigated crop, be deemed to have been amended accordingly.]

CHAPTER V.

Miscellaneous.

25. In computing the Education Cess [or as the case may be, the Employment Guarantee Cess] payable under this Act, the amount leviable shall, where necessary, be rounded off to the nearest rupee, fractions of 50 naye paise and over being counted as one, and less than 50 naye paise being disregarded.

26. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matter, namely:—

(a) the manner in which and conditions under which the amount in the State Education Cess Fund shall be expended under section 6;

(b) the manner of collecting tax in municipal areas where property tax is not levied and rates of rebate, under section 9;

(c) the manner in which and the conditions subject to which, the tax shall be remitted or refunded under section 16;

(d) the other particulars to be prescribed and the manner of publishing the special assessment list, of making an application, of deciding a dispute, and of making an appeal, under section 20;

(e) the remission of assessment under section 21;

(f) such other matters which in the opinion of the State Government are required to be prescribed by rules.

In pursuance of clause (3) of Article 348 of the Constitution of India, the following translation in English of the Maharashtra Education and Employment Guarantee (Cess) (Amendment) Act, 2012 (Mah. Act No. XXVI of 2012), is hereby published under the authority of the Governor.

By order and in the name of the Governor of Maharashtra,

H. B. PATEL,
Secretary to Government,
Law and Judiciary Department.

MAHARASHTRA ACT No. XXVI OF 2012.

(First published, after having received the assent of the Governor in the “Maharashtra Government Gazette”, on the 20th December 2012).

WHEREAS both Houses of the State Legislature were not in session;

AND WHEREAS the Governor of Maharashtra was satisfied that circumstances existed which rendered it necessary for him to take immediate action further to amend the Maharashtra Education and Employment Guarantee (Cess) Act, 1962, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; and, therefore, promulgated the Maharashtra Education and Employment Guarantee (Cess) (Amendment) Ordinance, 2012, on the 3rd December 2012;
AND WHEREAS it is expedient to replace the said Ordinance by an Act of the State Legislature; it is hereby enacted in the Sixty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Maharashtra Education and Employment Guarantee (Cess) (Amendment) Act, 2012.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 3rd December 2012.

2. In section 2 of the Maharashtra Education and Employment Guarantee (Cess) Act, 1962 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Act”),—

(i) in clause (a), proviso shall be deleted;

(ii) after clause (b), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(ba) “capital value” means the capital value of a land or building or part thereof fixed or determined in accordance with the provisions of the relevant municipal law;”.

3. In section 4 of the principal Act, for clause (a), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(a)(i) with effect from the 1st day of April 1974, a tax on lands and buildings in a municipal area at the rates specified in Schedule A hereto annexed;

(ii) with effect from the 1st day of April 2010, in case of municipal area of Brihan Mumbai Municipal Corporation constituted under the Mumbai Municipal Corporation Act and in case of other municipality with effect from the date on which the capital value of lands or buildings as basis of levy of property tax is adopted by such municipality, a tax on lands and buildings at the rates notified by the Collector, upon receipt of proposal by municipality, by notification in the Official Gazette, which may be different for different categories of users of lands or buildings or parts thereof and which shall not be less than 0.01 per cent. and not more than 0.3 per cent. of the capital value of lands or buildings or parts thereof:

Provided that, for the period of five years from the date on and from which such tax is levied on capital value, the tax shall not exceed,—

(I) in respect of land or building used for residential purposes, two times, and

(II) in respect of land or building used for non-residential purposes, three times, the amount of tax leviable in respect thereof in the year immediately preceding such date on and from which such tax is levied on capital value:

Provided further that, where the taxes levied in respect of any residential or non-residential building or portion thereof were on the basis of annual letting value arrived at considering the leave and licence charges, by whatever name called, then for the purposes of the first proviso it shall be lawful to ascertain such tax leviable during such immediately preceding year, as if such building or portion thereof were self-occupied.

Provided also that, for the period of five years commencing from such year from which such tax is levied on capital value, the amount of tax leviable in respect of a residential building or residential tenement, having carpet area of 46.45 sq. metre (500 sq. feet) or less, shall not exceed the amount of tax levied and payable in the year immediately preceding the year from which such tax is levied on capital value.

Provided also that, after the year from which such tax is levied on capital value, the tax in respect of any taxable land or building shall be revised after every five years and on each such revision, such amount of tax, shall not in any case exceed forty per cent. of the amount of the tax levied and payable in the year immediately preceding the year of the revision; ”

4. In section 5 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), after the words “annual letting value” the words “or as the case may be, the capital value” shall be inserted.

5. In section 6B of the principal Act, for clause (a), the following shall be substituted, namely:

“(a)(i) with effect from the 1st day of April 1975, a further tax on lands and buildings in a municipal area used or intended to be used for a non-residential purpose at the rates specified in Schedule C hereto annexed;

(ii) with effect from the 1st day of April 2010, in case of municipal area of Brihan Mumbai Municipal Corporation constituted under the Mumbai Municipal Corporation Act and in case of other municipality with effect from the date on which the capital value of lands or buildings as basis of levy of property tax is adopted by such municipality, a tax on lands and buildings used or intended to be used for a non-residential purpose at the rates notified by the Collector, upon receipt of proposal by municipality, by notification in the Official Gazette, which may be different for different categories of users of lands or buildings or parts thereof and which shall not be less than 0.005 per cent. and not more than 0.10 per cent. of the capital value of lands or buildings or parts thereof:

Provided that, for the period of five years from the date on and from which such tax is levied on capital value, the tax shall not exceed three times the amount of tax leviable in respect thereof in the year immediately preceding such date on and from which such tax is levied on capital value.”
Provided further that, where the tax levied in respect of any non-residential building or portion thereof were on the basis of annual letting value arrived at considering the leave and licence charges, by whatever name called, then for the purposes of the first proviso it shall be lawful to ascertain such tax leviable during such immediately preceding year, as if such building or portion thereof were self-occupied:

Provided also that, after the year from which such tax is levied on capital value, the tax in respect of any taxable land or building shall be revised after every five years and on each such revision, such amount of tax, shall not in any case exceed forty per cent. of the amount of the tax levied and payable in the year immediately preceding the year of the revision;”.

6. In section 6C of the principal Act, in sub-section (2),—

(i) after the word and letter “Schedule C” the words, brackets, letters and figure “or in sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) of section 6B” shall be inserted;

(ii) after the words “annual letting value”, at both the places where they occur, the words “or as the case may be, the capital value” shall be inserted.

7. In section 6D of the principal Act, after the words “annual letting value” the words “or as the case may be, the capital value” shall be inserted.

8. In section 10 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), for the words “as penalty a sum not exceeding one tenth of the amount of the tax so unpaid” the words “as penalty a sum not exceeding two per cent. per month of the amount of the tax so unpaid” shall be substituted.

9. In section 12 of the principal Act, for the portion beginning with the words “the tax is due, such portion thereof” and ending with the words “annual letting value thereof” the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“the tax is due,—

(i) such portion thereof as bears to the total amount of the tax based on the annual letting value due, the same ratio which the rent annually payable by such occupier bears to the aggregate amount of the annual letting value thereof; or

(ii) such portion thereof as bears to the total amount of the tax based on the capital value due, the same ratio which the capital value of such portion of the land or building of the occupier bears to the aggregate amount of the tax based on the capital value, in respect of the said land or building.”.
10. In section 13 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), after the words “such tenement is let” the words “or to the amount of capital value of such tenement occupied by him” shall be inserted.

11. For the removal of doubt it is hereby declared that all proceedings in connection with any assessment, re-assessment, levy (including levy of penalty) and collection of any tax levied on the basis of annual letting value relating to any period whatsoever, immediately before the 1st April 2010 in case of municipal area of Brihan Mumbai Municipal Corporation III of constituted under the Mumbai Municipal Corporation Act, and in case of other municipality immediately before the date on which the capital value of lands or buildings as basis of levy of property tax is adopted by such municipality shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, but save as otherwise expressly provided therein, be continued and dealt with under the principal Act as if this Act has not been enacted.

12. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of the principal Act, as amended by this Act or by reason of anything contained therein or in giving effect to the provisions of the principal Act in respect of the matters contained in this Act, the State Government may, as occasion arises, by order published in the Official Gazette, do anything, not inconsistent with the provisions of the principal Act, as amended by this Act, which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty:

Provided that, no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order under sub-section (1) shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is issued, before each House of the State Legislature.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken (including any notification, order or bill issued) under the principal Act, as amended by the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done, taken or issued, as the case may be, under the corresponding provisions of principal Act, as amended by this Act.
