part thereof has, in respect of that period, escaped assessment, or has been under assessed or assessed at a lower rate, then the Assessing Authority may, within five years from the date of the order of assessment of the particular period, after giving the person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, may reassess, to the best of his judgement, the tax due from him.

Payment of Tax.

1[10. (1) The tax shall be paid in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) A person liable to pay tax shall, before furnishing return as required by sub-section (1) of section 7, first pay the whole of the amount of tax due from him according to such return by a demand draft or pay order drawn in favour of Commissioner of Sales Tax, Maharashtra State, on any branch of the State Bank of India or of any Scheduled Bank as defined in the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934, which holds a licence issued by the Reserve Bank of India under section 22 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, or of a Co-operative Bank as defined in clause X of (10) of section 2 of the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960, situated in the local area.

1 These sections were substituted for section 10 by Mah. 30 of 1989, s.5.
Provided that, the Assessing Authority shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due in respect of which a notice under sub-section (4) of section 10 has been issued, and shall then refund the balance, if any.

12. Subject to such conditions as it may impose, the State Government may, if Exemptions it is necessary so to do in the public interest, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt any specified class of importers from payment of the whole or any part of the tax payable under this Act or from all or any of the provisions of this Act and such exemption shall take effect from the date of the publication of the notification in the Official Gazette, or such other date as may be mentioned therein.

CHAPTER V

Appeals

13. (1) An appeal from every original order under this Act or rules made thereunder shall lie to the Appellate Authority appointed under section 6.

(2) In the case of an order passed in appeal by the Appellate Authority, a second appeal shall lie to the Appellate Tribunal.

1[(3) (a) No appeal against an order of assessment, with or without penalty or interest, or against an order imposing a penalty or interest, shall ordinarily be entertained by an Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal, unless such appeal is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of the tax with penalty or interest, or, as the case may be, of the payment of penalty or interest, in respect of which appeal has been preferred:

Provided that, an Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal may, if it thinks fit, and for reasons to be recorded in writing, entertain an appeal against such order, on payment of not less than twenty-five per cent. of the amount of tax, penalty or interest, in respect of which appeal has been preferred, as the Appellate Authority or Appellate Tribunal may direct.

1 Sub-section (3) was substituted by Mah. 12 of 1995, s.12.
(b) No appeal shall be entertained by the Appellate Authority or by the Appellate Tribunal unless it is filed within sixty days from the date of communication of the order appealed against:

Provided that the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal may, admit an appeal after the period of limitation, if it is proved by the appellant to the satisfaction of the Appellate Authority or, as the case may be, the Appellate Tribunal that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

(4) Subject to such rules of procedure as may be prescribed every Appellate Authority (both in the first appeal or the second appeal) shall have the following powers, namely:

(a) in an appeal against an order of assessment, it may confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment; or it may set aside the assessment and refer the case back to the Assessing Authority for making a fresh assessment in accordance with the direction given by it and after making such further inquiry as may be necessary the Assessing Authority shall thereupon proceed to make such fresh assessment, and determine, where necessary, the amount of tax payable on the basis of such fresh assessment: and

(b) in any other case, the Appellate Authority or the Appellate Tribunal, as the case may be, may pass such orders in the appeal as it deems just and proper.

CHAPTER VI

Penalty

Penalty. 14. (1) Where any person liable to pay tax under the Act fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or rules made thereunder, then the Assessing Authority may, after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, by order in writing impose on him in addition to any tax payable, a sum by way of penalty not exceeding twice the amount of tax.

[(2) If a person liable to pay tax under this Act does not pay the tax within the time he is required by or under the provisions of this Act to pay it, then he shall be liable to pay by way of simple interest, in addition to the amount of such tax and penalty, if any, under sub-section (1), a sum equal to two per cent. of the amount of such tax for each month or for part thereof, after the last date by which he should have paid such tax.]
