(G.C.P) H 4156-266 (2490-3-2008)
[(2) The number of seats to be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes in each constituency shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of Scheduled State members in that constituency as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the district bears to the total population of the District:

provided that, one-third of the total number of seats so reserved shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes:

Provided further that, where the number of seats reserved for Scheduled Castes in only one, then no seat shall be reserved for woman belonging to the Scheduled Caste and where only two seats are reserved for the Scheduled Castes, one of the two seats shall be reserved for woman belonging to the Scheduled Castes.]

[(2A) one seat shall be reserved for the Scheduled Tribes in a District Planning Committee where the constituency of such district is having the largest number of elective seats in the general category, and where such district does not have a separate District Planning Committee exclusively for the Tribal Sub-plan:

Provided that, no seat shall be so reserved if there is no member belonging to a Scheduled Tribe amongst the members of the Constituencies of the District Planning Committees.]

(3) The number of seats to be reserved for the persons belonging to Backward Class of Citizens shall be thirty per cent, of the total number of seats to be filled-in by election, in the District Planning Committee:

Provided that, one-third of the total number of seats so reserved shall be reserved for women belonging to the category of Backward Class of Citizens.

(4) One-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the Backward Class of citizens) of the total numbers of seats to be filled-in by election from the urban area or rural area in a District Planning Committee shall be reserved for women.

5. (1) The term of office of the members nominated shall be such as may be specified by the State Government at the time of such nomination on the District Planning Committee.

(2) The term of office of the elected members of the District Planning Committee shall be co-terminus with their term of office in the respective local authority.

(3) A nominated or elected member may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the State Government. The resignation shall be effective from the date of its receipt by the State Government.

(4) Any casual vacancy arising out of such resignation or for any other reason such as death, or disablement of members shall be filled by nomination or election, as the case may be:

Provided that, the member so nominated or elected shall hold office only for the remainder of the term for which the member in whose place he is nominated or elected, would have held office.

1 Sub-section (2) was substituted, by Mah. 30 of 2000, s.4(a).
2 Sub-section (2A) was inserted, ibid, s. 4(b).
6. The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, remove from the office a member of the District Planning Committee.

(a) if he has any pecuniary interest in the schemes, or works included in the plans or programmes prepared by the Municipal Corporations, Zilla Parishads, Municipal Councils or Nagar Panchayats in the District; or

(b) if he is convicted for an offence involving moral turpitude punishable under the provisions of any law for the time being in force in the State; or

(c) if he, upon the trial of election petition, is found guilty of corrupt practices.

7. The procedure to be followed in discharge of the functions by the District Planning Committee shall be such as may be prescribed.

8. No act or proceeding of the District Planning Committee shall be invalid by reason only of a vacancy therein, or any defect in the election or nomination of any member, if such act or proceeding is otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

9. The Chairperson, and other members of the District Planning Committee shall receive such allowances as may be fixed by the State Government, from time to time.

10. The State Government shall, by order, from the date specified in such order entrust to the District Planning Committee all or any of the functions mentioned below—
