(6) The control over any property referred to in sub-section (1) shall, unless sooner relinquished, cease after the expiry of the academic year immediately following that in which the property is taken over:

Provided that the [[State] Government may, if in their opinion it is necessary so to do, by an order in writing published in the prescribed manner, direct that their control over such property shall continue for a further period not exceeding one academic year.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6), the Government may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and on the recommendation of such authority as may be prescribed, by order published in the prescribed manner, direct that the control over such property shall continue for a further period not exceeding three academic years commencing from the date of the expiry of the academic year referred to in the proviso to sub-section (6).]

8. (1) Where the control of any property taken over under section 3 is to be relinquished, the Government may, after making such inquiry, if any, as they may consider necessary, by order in writing specify the person to whom possession of the property shall be given.

(2) The delivery of possession of any such property to the person specified in an order made under sub-section (1) shall be a full discharge of the Government from all liability in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of such property which any other person may be entitled, by due process of law, to enforce against the person to whom possession of the property is so delivered.
(3) Where the person to whom possession of any property referred to in sub-section (1) is to be delivered cannot be found or has no agent or other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf, the Government shall cause to be published in the *Fort St. George Gazette a notice declaring that the control of such property is relinquished; and in the case of any building or land, shall cause a copy thereof to be affixed on some conspicuous part of such building or land.
