11. No act or proceedings of the Authority shall be invalid by reason of the existence of any vacancy in or defect in the constitution of the Authority.

12. Subject to the provisions of section 11, on and from the date on which an Authority is constituted under section 3, the Government may direct that any functions exercisable by the local authority within the Industrial Township Area shall be transferred and performed by the Authority under the local body Act which is applicable on the said date, in relation to such Industrial Township Area, which shall cease to apply to the said Industrial Township Area.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section and other provisions of this Act, local body Act shall mean:

(1) The Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919.

13. (1) The Government may, by notification, direct that any of the provision of the respective local body Act or any rules made thereunder or of any other enactment for the time being in force in the Industrial Township Area shall apply to that area to such extent and subject to such modifications, additions and restrictions as may be specified in the notification.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such notification may authorise—

(a) the Authority to levy all or any of the taxes and fees which may be levied by virtue of the provisions applied to the Authority under this section,

(b) the Chief Executive Officer of the Authority to exercise and perform in regard to the Authority the powers and duties assigned to the executive authority of a local authority under the provisions applied as aforesaid subject to such restrictions, limitations and conditions and to such control if any as may be specified in the notification.

14. (1) All property, all rights of whatsoever kind used, enjoyed or possessed by and all interests of whatever kind owned or vested in or held in trust by or for the local authority as well as all liabilities legally subsisting against it shall on and from the date of constitution of the Authority, stand transferred to the said Authority.
All proceedings taken by or against the local authority may be continued by or against the Authority.

Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, all lands, structures and other facilities, including lights, water supply and drainage owned by the promoting agency or any person immediately preceding to the date of constitution of the Authority shall continue to be owned by the said promoting agency or person concerned.

All sums payable by any person or any persons to the Authority or recoverable by it or under this Act and all charges or expenses incurred in connection therewith shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable as a means of land revenue due to Government under the provisions of Revenue Recovery Act, 1990 for the time being in force on the application of the Authority.

The Authority shall be deemed to be the local authority and also the local planning authority and shall exercise the powers of the said local authority as one vested under the local body Act concerned and the Town and Country Planning Act, 1971.

The Authority shall have and maintain its own fund to which shall be credited—

(a) all moneys received by the Authority from the Government by way of grants, loans, advances or otherwise;

(b) all moneys borrowed by the Authority from sources other than the Government by way of loans or debentures;

(c) all fees, tolls, costs and charges received by the Authority under this Act and under any provision of law made applicable to the township under section 12;

(d) all moneys received by the Authority from the disposal of lands, buildings and other properties movable and immovable and from other transactions; and

(e) all moneys received by the Authority by way of rents and profits or in any other manner or from any other source.

The fund shall be applied towards meeting the expenses incurred by the Authority and in the administration of this Act for no other purposes.

The Authority shall within such time as may be prescribed, prepare a budget in respect of the financial year next ensuing, showing the estimated receipt and expenditure and the programme of work for the succeeding financial year of the Authority and submit the same to the promoting agency for approval.

The Authority shall be competent to make variations in the programme of work with the prior approval of the promoting agency.

The Authority shall maintain proper accounts and other relevant records and prepare an annual statement of accounts including the balance sheet in such form as the Government may specify.

The accounts of the Authority shall be subject to audit annually by a qualified Chartered Accountant as may be approved by the Authority.

A copy of the audited accounts together with the report shall be sent to the promoting agency.

The Authority shall prepare for every year a report of its activities during that year and submit the report to the Government in such form and on or before such date as the Government may specify.

(1) The Government may from time to time issue to the Authority such general or special directions of policy as they deem necessary or expedient for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this Act and the Authority shall be bound to follow and act upon such directions.
(2) The Government may, at any time, either on its own motion or on application made to it in this behalf, call for the records of any case disposed of or order passed by the Authority or the Chairman for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any order passed or direction issued and may pass such order or issue such direction in relation thereto as it may think fit.

Provided that the Government shall not pass an order prejudicial to any person without affording such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Every order of the Government made in exercise of the powers conferred by this Act shall be final and shall not be called in question in any court.

23. (1) The Authority shall furnish to the Government such reports, returns and other information as the Government may, from time to time, require.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Government or any officer authorised by the Government in this behalf may call for reports, returns and other information from the Authority as may be considered necessary.

24. (1) The Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) (a) All rules made under this Act shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette and unless they are expressed to come into force on a particular day shall come into force on the day on which they are so published.

(b) All notifications issued under this Act, shall, unless they are expressed to come into force on a particular day, come into force on the date on which they are so published.

(3) Every rule, order or notification made or issued under this Act shall, as soon as possible after it is made or issued, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly and if, before the expiry of the session, the Legislative Assembly in which it is so placed or the next session, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in any such rule, order or notification if the Legislative Assembly decides that the rule, order or notification should not be made or issued, the rule, order or notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule, order or notification.

25. (1) The Authority may, with the previous approval of the Government, Power to make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder for the administration of the affairs of the Authority, make regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder for the administration of the affairs of the Authority.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such regulations may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) The summoning the holding of meeting of the Authority, the time and place where such meetings are to be held, the conduct of business at such meetings and the number of members to form a quorum thereat;

(b) the powers and duties of the Chief Executive Officer;
(c) the form of registers to be maintained by the Authority;
(d) the management of properties of the Authority;
(e) fees to be levied in the discharge of its functions;
(f) conditions of service of the officers and employees of the Authority; and
(g) such other matters as are to be provided for in regulations.

26. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appear to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of two years from the date of the commencement of this Act.

(By order of the Governor)

A. K. RAJAN,
Secretary to Government
Law Department.
