Chapter III — Land and land revenue

11. (1) All lands, public roads, lanes and paths and bridges, ditches, dikes, and fences on or beside the same, the beds of rivers, streams, nallas, lakes and tanks, and all canals and water courses, and all standing and flowing water, and all rights in or over the same or appertaining thereto, which are not the property of any person, are and are hereby declared to be the property of the Government.

(2) Unless it is otherwise expressly provided in the terms of a grant made by the Government, the right to mines, quarries, minerals and mineral products including mineral oil, natural gas and petroleum shall vest in the Government, and it shall have all the powers necessary for the proper enjoyment of such rights.

(3) Where any property or any right in or over any property is claimed by or on behalf of the Government, or by any person as against the Government and the claim is disputed, such dispute shall be decided by the Collector whose order shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be final.

(4) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (3) or in appeal or revision therefrom may institute a civil suit to contest the order within a period of six months from the date of such order and the decision of the civil court shall be binding on the parties.

12. (1) The right to all trees, jungles or other natural products growing on land set apart for forest reserves and to all trees, brush wood, jungle or other natural product, wherever growing, except in so far as the same may be the property of any person, vests in the Government, and such trees, brush wood, jungle or other natural product shall be preserved or disposed of in such manner as may be prescribed, keeping in view the interests of the people in the area with regard to the user of the natural products.

(2) All roadside trees which have been planted and reared by or under the orders or at the expense of the Government and all trees which have been planted and reared at the expense of local authorities by the side of any road belonging to the Government vest in the Government.

13. Subject to rules made in this behalf under this Act, the Collector may set apart land belonging to the Government for pasturage for the village cattle, for forest reserves or for any other purpose.
14. (1) The Collector may allot land belonging to the Government for agricultural purposes or for construction of dwelling houses, in accordance with such rules as may be made in this behalf under this Act; and such rules may provide for allotment of land to persons evicted under section 15.

(2) The [State Government] shall have power

(a) to allot any such land for the purpose of an industry or for any purpose of public utility on such conditions as may be prescribed, or

(b) to entrust the management of any such land or any rights therein to the gram panchayat of village established under any law for the time being in force.

(3) The rules under sub-sections (1) and (2) for allotment of land shall provide for giving preference to the members of the co-operative farming societies formed by marginal farmers, landless agricultural labourers, jumias and members of the Scheduled Tribes and Scheduled Castes in allotting land.

15. (1) Any person who occupies or continues to occupy any land belonging to Government without lawful authority shall be regarded as a trespasser and may be summarily evicted therefrom by competent authority and any building or other construction erected or anything deposited on such land, if not removed within such reasonable time as such authority may from time to time fix for the purpose, shall be liable to be forfeited to the Government and to be disposed of in such manner as the competent authority may direct:

Provided that the competent authority may, in lieu of ordering the forfeiture of any such building or other construction, order the demolition of the whole or any part thereof.

(2) Such trespasser shall also be liable by way of penalty to pay a sum which may extend to six times the annual assessment on such land as may be specified by the competent authority and such sum shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

2. Inserted by YLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974 w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
(3) Upon payment of the penalty referred to in sub-section (2), the trespasser shall have the right of tending, gathering and removing any ungathered crops.

Liability of land to land revenue.

16. (1) All lands, to whatever purpose applied, are liable to payment of land revenue to the Government.

(2) [State Government] may exempt any land from the liability to such payment by means of a special grant or contract or in accordance with any law for the time being in force or the rules made under this Act.

Alluvial lands.

17. All Alluvial lands, newly formed as lands or abandoned beds shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 18; and in allotting such land the State Government may give preference to the persons affected by diluvion.

Land Revenue in case of diluvion.

18. (1) If the holding of any person of a portion thereof is lost by diluvion, the right, title and interest of the holder on the land lost by such diluvion shall vest in the State Government free from all encumbrances subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) and the competent authority shall, on application made by the holder in the prescribed manner or any suo motu, remit or abate the revenue of the holding by the amount of revenue assessed for the land lost by diluvion.

(2) The holder shall, on re-appearance of the land lost by diluvion, at any time within a period of twelve years from the date of such diluvion have the right to possession thereof subject to liability to pay such revenue to be assessed under section 38 and to other privileges, conditions and restriction as were applicable to the holding prior to diluvion of the land provided he applies for such right to the competent authority within one year of the reappearance of the land lost by diluvion.)

2. Substituted by T.I.R & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
19. (1) The assessment of land revenue on any land shall be made, or shall be deemed to have been made, with respect to the use of the land —

(a) for purposes of agriculture;
(b) for industrial or commercial purposes;
(c) as sites for dwelling houses;
(d) for any other purpose.

(2) Where land assessed for use for any one purpose is diverted to any other purpose, the land revenue payable upon such land shall, notwithstanding that term for which the assessment may have been fixed has not expired, be liable to be altered and assessed at a different rate in accordance with the rules made under this Act.

20. (1) If any person holding land for any purpose wishes to divert such land or any part thereof to any other purpose except agriculture, he shall apply for permission to the competent authority who may, subject to the provisions of this section and to the rules made under this Act, refuse permission or grant it on such conditions as it may think fit.

(2) Permission to divert may be refused by the competent authority only on the ground that the diversion is likely to cause a public nuisance or that it is not in the interest of the general public or that the holder is unable or unwilling to comply with the conditions that may be imposed under sub-section (3).

(3) Conditions may be imposed on diversion for the following objects and no others, namely, in order to secure the public health, safety and convenience, and in the case of land which is to be used as building sites, in order to secure in addition that dimensions, arrangement and accessibility of the sites are adequate for the health and convenience of occupiers or are suitable to the locality.

(4) If any land has been diverted without permission by the holder or by any other person with or without the consent of the holder, the competent authority, on receiving information thereof, may impose on the person responsible for the diversion a penalty not exceeding ten thousand rupees, and may proceed in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) as if an application for permission to divert has been made.

1. Substituted by the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Eighth Amendment) Act, 2000, w.e.f. 31.5.2000.
(5) If any land has been diverted in contravention of an order passed or of a condition imposed under any of the foregoing sub-sections, the competent authority may serve a notice on the person responsible for such contravention, directing him, within a reasonable period to be stated in the notice, to use the land for its original purpose or to observe the condition; and such notice may require such person to remove any structure, to fill up any excavation, or to take such other steps as may be required in order that the land may be used for its original purpose, or that the condition may be satisfied. The competent authority may also impose on such person a penalty not exceeding ten thousand rupees for such contravention, and a further penalty not exceeding four hundred rupees for each day during which such contravention continues.

(6) If any person served with a notice under sub-section (5), fails within the period stated in the notice to take the steps ordered by the competent authority under that sub-section, the competent authority may itself take such steps or cause them to be taken; and any cost incurred in so doing shall be recoverable from such person in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

Explanation — "Diversion" in this section means using land assessed to one purpose for any other purpose, but using land for the purpose of agriculture where it is assessed with reference to any other purpose shall not be deemed to be diversion.

21. The State Government may, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf under this Act, grant a remission or suspension of land revenue in years in which crops have failed in any area.

22. (1) The following persons shall be primarily liable for the payment of land revenue assessed on land, namely:

(a) the person to whom the land belongs;
(b) the under-riyat or any other person in possession of the land, provided that such under-riyat or other person shall be entitled to credit from the owner of the land for the amount paid by him.

(2) Where there are two or more persons liable to pay land revenue under sub-section (1), all of them shall be jointly and severally liable for its payment.

23. Every revenue officer receiving payment of land revenue shall, at the time when such payment is received by him, give a written receipt for the same.

Chapter IV — Survey and settlement of land revenue

24. The operations carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter in order to determine or revise the land revenue payable on lands in any local area are called a "revenue survey", the results of the operations are called a "settlement" and the period during which such results are to be in force is called the "term of settlement".

25. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the State Government shall take steps to institute and shall cause to be constantly maintained, in accordance with the rules made under this Act, an inquiry into the profits of agriculture and into the value of land used for agricultural and non-agricultural purposes.

(2) For the purpose of determining the profits of agriculture, the following matters shall be taken into account in estimating the cost of cultivation, namely:

(a) the depreciation of stock and buildings;
(b) the money equivalent of the labour and supervision by the cultivator and his family;
(c) all other expenses usually incurred in the cultivation of the land which is under inquiry; and
(d) interest on the cost of building and stock, on all expenditure for seed and manure and on the cost of agricultural operations paid for in cash.

26. Whenever the State Government thinks it expedient so to do, he may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct the revenue survey of any local area with a view to the settlement of the land revenue and to the preparation of a record of rights connected therewith or the revision of any existing settlement or record of rights.

27. A survey officer deputed to conduct or take part in any revenue survey may, by special order or by general notice to be published in the prescribed manner, require the attendance of holders of lands to assist in the measurement or classification of the lands to which the revenue survey extends and, when hired labour is employed for purposes incidental to the revenue survey, may assess and apportion the cost thereof on the lands surveyed, for collection as land revenue due on such lands.

28. Subject to the rules made in this behalf under this Act, the survey officer may —

(a) divide the lands to which the revenue survey extends into villages and the villages into plots and survey numbers; and

(b) recognise the existing villages and survey numbers, reconstitute them or form new survey numbers.
29. The survey officer may sub-divide survey numbers into as many sub-divisions as may be required in the manner prescribed.

30. The State Government may at any time direct the determination or the revision of the revenue-rates for all lands in any area of which a revenue survey has been made.

31. It shall be the duty of the survey officer or the settlement officer on the occasion of making or revising a settlement of land revenue to prepare a register to be called the "settlement register", showing the area and assessment of each survey number, with any other particulars that may be prescribed, and other records in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be made in this behalf by the State Government.

32. For the purpose of determining the revenue rates, the settlement officers may divide any area into units and in forming such units, he shall have regard to the physical features, agricultural and economic conditions and trade facilities and communications; and shall then determine the revenue-rates for different classes of lands in each such unit in the manner and according to the principles prescribed and in particular, in the case of agricultural land, to the profits of agriculture, to the consideration paid for leases, to the sale prices of land and to the principal monies on mortages and in the case of non-agricultural land, to the value of the land for the purpose for which it is held.

33. (1) The settlement officer shall prepare a table of revenue rates in the prescribed form and publish it in the prescribed manner for the prescribed period.

(2) Any person objecting to any entry in the table of revenue-rates may present a petition in writing to the settlement officer within the prescribed period and the settlement officer shall consider such objections after giving a hearing to the objector.

(3) The settlement officer shall submit the table of revenue-rates to the State Government together with a summary of objections, if any, his decisions on such objections and a statement of the grounds in support of his proposals.

34. (1) The State Government may confirm the table of revenue-rates submitted to him by the settlement officer with such modifications, if any, as he may consider necessary.

(2) The table of revenue-rates confirmed under sub-section (1) shall be finally published in the Official Gazette.

35. The table of revenue-rates published under section 34 shall be incorporated in and form part of the settlement register of the village.

36. When the revenue-rates are determined under this Chapter in respect of any area, such rates shall take effect from the beginning of the year next after the date of final publication of the table of revenue-rates under section 34.

37. (1) When the table of revenue-rates for any area has been finally published, the rates specified therein shall remain in force for a period of thirty years.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) —

(a) revenue-rates may be altered or revised in any year after the expiry of every ten years from the date on which the table of revenue-rates was introduced, in such manner and to such extent as may be prescribed;

(b) when the circumstances of a local area are such that a fresh determination of the revenue-rates is in the opinion of the State Government inexpedient, he may extend the term of settlement by such further period as he may think necessary.

38. (1) The settlement officer shall calculate the assessment on each holding in accordance with the revenue-rates confirmed and finally published under section 34 and such assessment shall be the fair assessment.

(2) The settlement officer shall have the power to make fair assessment on all lands whatsoever to which the revenue survey extends, whether such lands are held with liability to pay full land revenue or land revenue at concessional rates or are held revenue free.
(3) The fair assessment of all lands shall be calculated in accordance with rules made in this behalf and having regard to the following principles, namely :-

(a) no regard shall be had to any claim to hold land on privileged terms;
(b) regard shall be had in the case of agricultural land to the profits of agriculture, to the consideration paid for leases, to the sale prices of land and to the principal monies on mortgages and in the case of non-agricultural land, to the value of the land for the purpose for which it is held;
(c) where any improvement has been effected at any time in any holding held for the purpose of agriculture by or at the expense of the holder thereof, the fair assessment of such holding shall be fixed as if the improvement had not been made.

39. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, the State Government may direct that any land in respect of which the rate of revenue has been determined shall be liable to be assessed to additional land revenue during the term of the settlement for additional advantages accruing to it from water received on account of irrigation works or improvements in existing irrigation works completed after the table of revenue-rates came into force and not effected by or at the expense of the holder of the land.

40. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, all survey operations commenced under any law for the time being in force and continuing at the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been commenced and to be continuing under the provisions of this Chapter, and all revenue-rates in force at such commencement shall be deemed to have been determined and introduced in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter and shall remain in force until the introduction of revised revenue-rates; and such revised revenue-rates may be introduced at any time, notwithstanding anything contained in section 37.

41. (1) The powers and duties exercisable by the officers referred to in section 6 may also be exercised, during the term of settlement, by the Collector or such other revenue officer as may be specified by the State Government for the purpose by Notification in the Official Gazette.

(2) The Collector may at any time during the term of settlement correct any error in the area or the assessment of any survey number or sub-division due to a mistake of survey or arithmetical miscalculation:

Provided that no arrears of land revenue shall become payable by reason of such correction.

Chapter V — Land Records

42. It shall be the duty of the survey officer to prepare a record of rights for each village showing the area of each survey number and other particulars and any other record or register, in accordance with the rules made under this Act:

1[Provided that where for any reason a record-of-rights cannot be prepared in respect of the entire village it shall be lawful for the survey officer to prepare separate records-of-rights for different areas of such village and notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any rule made thereunder, a record-of-rights, when finally published shall not be called in question in any court on the ground that it was not prepared in respect of the entire village.]

43. (1) When a record of rights has been prepared, the survey officer shall publish a draft of the record in such manner and for such period as may be prescribed and shall receive and consider any objections which may be made during the period of such publication, to any entry therein or to any omission therefrom.

(2) When all objections have been considered and disposed of in accordance with the rules made in this behalf, the survey officer shall cause the record to be finally published in the prescribed manner.

(3) Every entry in the record of rights as finally published shall, until the contrary is proved, be presumed to be correct.

2[44. (1) When a notification under section 26 directing the revenue survey of any local area with a view to settlement of the land revenue and to the preparation of a record-of-right connected therewith or the revision of any existing settlement or record-of-right in any local area has been published after the enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Fifth Amendment) Act, 1979, no civil court shall entertain any suit or application for the settlement or determination of land revenue or the incidence of any tenancy to which the record of rights relates, and if any suit or application, in which any of the aforesaid matters is in issue, is pending before a civil court on the date of publication of the notification in the official gazette, it shall be stayed and it shall, on the expiry of the period for fiding application for revision under section 45, or when such application has been filed within time on expiry of the period prescribed under section 94 for fiding an appeal under section 93 against the order disposing of such application or when an appeal has been filed under the section within time, as the case may bc, on disposal of such appeal, abate so far as it relates to any of the aforesaid matters.

2. No civil court shall entcrain any suit or application concerning any land if it relates to alteration of any entry in the record of rights finally published, revised corrected or modified under any of the provisions of this Chapter or Chapter VIII of this Act consequent upon the notification issued under section 26 after the enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Fifth Amendment) Act, 1979.

1[45. Any Revenue Officer specially empowered by the State Government may, on application made to him in this behalf or of his own motion, within one year from the date of the final publication of the record of rights, correct any entry in such record which, he has been satisfied, has been made owing to bona fide mistake:

Provided that no such entry shall be corrected without giving the persons interested an opportunity of being heard.

Explanation :- Every order under this section shall be deemed to be an original order.]

2[45 A. (1) As soon as may be after the enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1974 the Revenue Officer shall prepare and publish in the prescribed manner a draft field index (khasra) in respect of every plot in a village recording the status of the actual possessor and the conditions on which he holds the land and shall fix a date not less than fifteen days from the date of such publication for filing claims and objections.

2. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
(2) The Revenue Officer shall after giving the persons who have filed claims and objections and also the persons whose interests are likely to be affected, an opportunity of being heard, prepare the field index (khasra) and publish it in the prescribed manner.

45B. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained an entry regarding the status of the actual possessor of a plot and the conditions on which he holds the land in the field index (khasra) as finally published shall, in case of conflict with an entry in the record of rights, prevail and be transferred to the record of rights for correction of such record under certificate of such officer as may be prescribed in this behalf.

46.(1) There shall be maintained for every village a register mutations in such form as may be prescribed.

(2) Any person acquiring by succession, survivorship, inheritance, partition, purchase, gift, mortgage, lease or otherwise any right in land or, where such person acquiring the right is a minor or otherwise disqualified, his guardian or other person having charge of his property, shall report his acquisition of such right to the village accountant within three months from the date of such acquisition and the village accountant shall give at once a written acknowledgement in the prescribed form of such report to the person making it.

(3) The village accountant shall enter the substance of every report made to him under sub-section (2) in the register of mutations and also make an entry therein respecting the acquisition of any right of the kind mentioned in sub-section (2) which he has reason to believe to have taken place and of which a report has not been made under the said sub-section and, at the same time, shall post up a complete copy of the entry in a conspicuous place in the village and shall give written intimation to all persons appearing from the record of rights or the register of mutations to be interested in the mutations and to any other person whom he has reason to believe to be interested therein.

(4) Should any objection to an entry made under sub-section (3) in the register of mutations be made either orally or in writing to the village accountant, he shall enter the particulars of the objection in the register of disputed cases and shall at once give a written acknowledgement in the prescribed form for the objection to the person making it.
The objection made under sub-section (4) shall be decided on the basis of possession by the competent authority and orders disposing of objection entered in the register of disputed cases shall be recorded in the register of mutations by the competent authority.

After the entries in the register of mutations have been tested and found correct, the entries shall be transferred to the record of rights and shall be certified by such officer as may be prescribed in this behalf.

Explanation: This sub-section does not apply to base by which a Barkadar acquires any rights in land.

Register of Bargadars. A register of Bargadars shall be maintained for every village in such form as may be prescribed.

A person lawfully cultivating any, not under personal cultivation of the person to whom the land belongs, and of whose family the former is not a member, shall be presumed to be a Bargadar in respect of such land and land ancillary thereto subject to the provisions of section 187 and the burden of proving that such person is not a Bargadar or that land is in his personal cultivation shall, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, lie on the person who alleges that the person cultivating the land is not a Bargadar in respect of such land.

Explanation: The term 'family' in this sub-section shall have the same meaning as in chapter XIII of the Act.

A Bargadar or a person presumed to be a Bargadar shall report his acquisition of such right to the village accountant who shall give at once a written acknowledgement in the prescribed form for such report to the person making it.

The village accountant shall enter the substance of every report made to him under sub-section (3) in the register of Bargadars and also make an entry therein respecting the acquisition of any right of the kind mentioned in sub-section (2) which he has reason to believe to have taken place and of which a report has not been made under the said sub-section.

1. Inserted by TLR & LR (Fifth Amendment) Act 1979, w.e.f. 23.7.1979.
2. Substituted ibid.
(5) The competent authority shall cause to serve the complete copy of the entries in the register of Bargadars on all the interested persons inviting objections, if any, within thirty days from the date of service of the copy.

(6) The competent authority shall consider and dispose of summarily the objections filed, if any, under sub-section (5) after giving notice to the interested parties to appear and be heard and shall modify or correct the entries in the register of Bargadars wherever necessary. The burden of proof in respect of his objection shall, notwithstading anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, lie on the objector.

(7) The entries in the register of Bargadars shall, on expiry of the period specified for filing objections under sub-section (5) and on modification or correction of the entries in the said register made in necessary cases under sub-section (6) where objections have been filed under sub-section (5), be transferred to the record of rights for correction of such records under certificates of the competent authority.

46B. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no order or other proceedings whatsoever under section 46A shall be questioned in any civil court and no civil court shall entertain any suit or proceedings in respect of any matter mentioned in that section.

(2) If any question as to whether a person is or is not a Bargadar arises in course of any proceedings before any civil or criminal court, the court shall refer it to the competent authority mentioned in section 46A for decision in the manner prescribed.

47. The Collector may, if he is of opinion that any person has wilfully neglected to make the report required by section 46 within the prescribed period, impose on such person a penalty not exceeding twenty-five rupees.

48. Subject to rules made under this Act, —

(a) any revenue officer may, for the purpose of preparing or revising any map or plan required for or in connection with any record or register under this Chapter, exercise any of the powers of the survey officer under section 27 except the power of assessing the cost of hired labour; and
(b) any revenue officer not below the rank of sub-divisional officer may assess the cost of the preparation or revision of such maps or plans and all expenses incidental thereto, and such costs and expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

Certified copies.

49. Certified copies of entries in the record of rights may be granted by such officers and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed.

Maps and other records open to inspection.

50. Subject to such rules and on payment of such fees, if any, as may be prescribed, all maps and land records shall be open to inspection by the public during office hours, and certified extracts therefrom or certified copies thereof may be given to all persons applying for the same.

Power to transfer duty of maintaining maps and records to settlement officer.

51. When a local area is under settlement, the duty of maintaining the maps and records may, under the orders of the [[State Government] be transferred from the Collector to the settlement officer.

Chapter VI — Boundaries and Boundary Marks

52. The boundaries of villages, survey numbers, sub-divisions and fields shall be fixed, and all disputes relating thereto shall be determined, by survey officers or by such other officers as may be appointed by the [[State Government] for the purpose, in accordance with the rules made in this behalf.

Effect of settlement of boundary.

53. (1) The settlement of a boundary under this Chapter shall be determinative—

(a) of the proper position of the boundary line or boundary marks; and
(b) of the rights of the landholders on either side of the boundary fixed in respect of the land adjudged to appertain, or not to appertain, to their respective holdings.

(2) Where a boundary has been so fixed, the Collector may at any time summarily evict any landholder who is wrongfully in possession of any land which has been adjudged in the settlement of a boundary not to appertain to his holding or to the holding of any person through or under whom he claims.

2. Substituted ibid.
54. It shall be lawful for any survey officer authorised in this behalf to specify, or cause to be constructed, laid out, maintained or repaired, boundary marks of villages or survey numbers or sub-division and to assess all charges incurred thereby on the holders or others having an interest therein.

55. The boundary marks shall be of such description and shall be constructed laid out, maintained or repaired in such manner and shall be of such dimensions and materials as may, subject to the rules made under this Act, be determined by the Collector or other officer appointed for the purpose.

56. Every landholder shall be responsible for the maintenance and good repair of the boundary marks of his holding and for any charge reasonably incurred on account of the same by the revenue officers in case of alteration removal or disrepair. It shall be the duty of the village officers and servants to prevent the destruction or unauthorised alteration of the village boundary marks.

57. After the introduction of survey and settlement in a district, the charge of the boundary marks shall devolve on the collector and it shall be his duty to take measures for their construction, laying out, maintenance and repair.

58. Any person wilfully erasing, removing or injuring a boundary mark shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding fifty rupees as the competent authority may impose.

Chapter VII — Realisation of Land Revenue and other Public Demands

59. Land revenue assessed on any land shall be the first charge on that land and on the crops, rents and profits thereof.

60. Land revenue shall be payable at such times, in such instalments, to such persons, and at such places, as may be prescribed.

61. (1) Any instalment of land revenue or part thereof which is not paid on the due date shall become a defaulter.

   (2) A statement of account certified by the circle officer shall, for the purpose of this Chapter, be conclusive evidence of the existence of the arrear, of its amount and of the person who is the defaulter:
Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prejudice the right of such person to make payment under protest and to question the corrections of the account in separate proceedings before the competent authority.

Recovery of arrears. 62. An arrear of land revenue may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes, namely:

(a) by serving a written notice of demand on the defaulter;
(b) by distraint and sale of the defaulter's movable property, including the produce of the land;
(c) by the attachment and sale of the defaulter's immovable property.

Notice of demand. 63. The form and contents of the notice of demand and the officers by whom such notices shall be issued shall be such as may be prescribed.

Distrain and sale of movable property. 64. (1) The distraint and sale of the movable property of a defaulter shall be made by such officers or class of officers in such manner and in accordance with such procedure, as may be prescribed.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to authorise the distraint or sale of any property which, under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 is exempt from attachment or sale in execution of a decree or of any article set aside exclusively for religious use.

Sale of immovable property. 65. (1) When the Collector is of opinion that the processes referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of section 62 are not sufficient for the recovery of an arrear, he may, in addition to or instead of any of those processes, cause the land in respect of which such arrear is due to be attached and sold in the prescribed manner.

(2) The Collector may also cause the right, title and interest of the defaulter in any other immovable property to be similarly attached and sold.

Notice of sale. 66. (1) Before effecting the sale of any land or other immovable property under the provisions of this Chapter, the Collector or other officer empowered in this behalf shall issue such notices and proclamations, in such form, in such manner and containing such particulars, as may be prescribed; the notices and proclamations shall also be published in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) A copy of every notice or proclamation issued under sub-section
(1) shall be served on the defaulter.

67. All sales of property, movable or immovable, under this Chapter shall be by public auction held in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.

68. No officer having any duty to perform in connection with any such sale and no person employed by or subordinate to such officer shall, either directly or indirectly, bid for or acquire any property except on behalf of the Government.

69. Perishable articles shall be sold by auction with the least possible delay and such sale shall be finally concluded by the officer conducting the sale.

70. Every sale of property, movable or immovable, under the provisions of this Chapter shall, as far as may be practicable, be proportionate to the amount of the arrear of land revenue to be recovered together with the interest thereof and the expenses of attachment and sale.

71. In all cases of sale of immovable property, the party who is declared to be the purchaser shall be required to deposit immediately 25 per cent of the amount of his bid, and the balance within fifteen days of the date of sale.

72. (1) In default of the payment of deposit referred to in section 71 the property shall be put up for resale and the expenses incurred in connection with the first sale shall be borne by the defaulting bidder.

(2) In default of payment of the balance of the bid amount within the period prescribed in section 71, the deposit after defraying therefrom the expenses of the sale shall be forfeited to the Government and the property shall be re-sold.

(3) Where the proceeds of the resale are less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall also be recoverable from him in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

73. Where immovable property has been sold under this Chapter, the default, or any person owning such property or holding an interest therein, may at any time, within thirty days of the date of sale or within such further period not exceeding thirty days as the Collector may for sufficient cause allow, apply in the prescribed manner to the collector to have the sale set aside —
(a) on the ground of some material irregularity or mistake or fraud resulting in substantial loss or injury to him, or
(b) on his depositing in the Collector's office the amount of the arrear specified in the proclamation of sale, the cost of the sale and for payment to the purchaser, a sum equal to 5 per cent. of the purchase money.

Confirmation of sale.

74. If on the expiration of thirty days from the date of sale of any immovable property or of the further period, if any, allowed under section 73, no application has been made for setting aside the sale, or if any such application has been made and rejected, the Collector shall make an order confirming the sale unless, for reasons to be recorded, the Collector sets aside the sale notwithstanding that no application therefore has been made.

Refunds.

75. (1) The Collector shall order the refund and payment to the purchaser, of —

(a) the amounts deposited by him under section 71; and
(b) the sum equal to 5 per cent. of the purchase money deposited under clause (b) of section 73;

if the sale is not confirmed or is set aside.

(2) The Collector shall order the refund and payment of all the moneys deposited under clause (b) of section 73 to the person who made the deposit, if the sale is confirmed:

Provided that the Collector may set off the whole or any part of any such moneys against any arrears of land revenue or any other arrear recoverable as an arrear of land revenue, which may be outstanding against the person who made the deposit.

Certificate of purchase.

76. When a sale held under this Chapter is confirmed, the Collector shall put the person declared to be the purchaser in possession of the property and shall grant him a certificate in the prescribed form to the effect that he has purchased the property specified therein, and such certificate shall be deemed to be a valid transfer of such property.

Application of proceeds of sale.

77. The proceeds of the sale of any property under this Chapter shall be applied in defraying the expenses of the sale which shall be determined in the prescribed manner and the balance shall be applied to the payment of the arrears on account of which the sale was held, and the surplus, if any shall be paid to the person whose property has been sold.
78. The person who has purchased any land to whom a certificate of purchase has been granted shall not be liable for the land revenue in respect of the land for any period prior to the date of the sale.

79. When the crop of any land or any portion of the same is sold, mortgaged or otherwise disposed of, the Collector may, if he thinks it necessary, prevent its being removed from the land until the demand for the current year in respect of the said land is paid, whether the date fixed for the payment of the same has arrived or not.

80. The following moneys may be recovered under this Act in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue, namely :-

(a) rent, fees and royalties due to the Government for use or occupation of land or water or any product of land;
(b) all moneys falling due to the Government under any grant, lease or contract which provides that they shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue;
(c) all sums declared by this Act or any other law for the time being in force to be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

Recovery of other public demands.

Chapter VIII — Procedure of Revenue Officers: Appeals and Revisions

81. (1) A revenue officer, while exercising power under this Act or any other law for the time being in force to inquire into or to decide any question arising for determination between the Government and any person or between parties to any proceedings, shall be a revenue court.

Revenue Officers to be courts.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the revenue court to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent the abuse of the process of the revenue court.

82. Except for reasons to be recorded in writing, no revenue officer shall inquire into or hear any case at any place outside the local limits of his jurisdiction:

Provided that a sub-divisional officer may inquire into or hear any case at the headquarters of the district to which he is appointed.
83. All revenue officers and persons acting under their orders may enter upon and survey any land and demarcate boundaries and do all other acts necessary for the purpose of discharging their duties under this Act or any other law for the time being in force and in so doing, shall cause no more damage than the circumstances of the case may require.

84. (1) The [State Government] may transfer any case or class of cases arising under this Act or any other law for the time being in force from any revenue officer to any other revenue officer competent to deal with it.

(2) The Collector or a sub-divisional officer may transfer any case or class of cases arising under this Act or any other law for the time being in force for inquiry or decision from his own file or from the file of any revenue officer subordinate to him to the file of any other revenue officer subordinate to him competent to deal with such case or class of cases.

85. (1) Every revenue officer not lower in rank than a circle officer acting as a revenue court shall have power to take evidence and to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary, either as a party or as a witness or to produce any document, for the purpose of any inquiry which such officer is legally empowered to make and all persons so summoned shall be bound to attend either in person or by an authorised agent as such officer may direct, and to produce such documents as may be required.

(2) Every summons shall be in writing, signed and sealed by the officer issuing it and shall be in such form and be served in such manner as may be prescribed.

86. If any person on whom a summons to attend as witness or to produce any document has been served fails to comply with the summons, the officer by whom the summons has been issued under section 85 may —

(a) issue a bailable warrant of arrest;
(b) order him to furnish security for appearance; or
(c) impose upon him a fine not exceeding rupees twenty.

87. (1) If, on the date fixed for hearing a case or proceeding, a revenue officer finds that a summons or notice was not served on any party due to the failure of the opposite party to pay the requisite process fees for such service, the case or proceeding may be dismissed for default of payment of such process fees.

(2) If any party to a case or proceeding before a revenue officer does not appear on the date fixed for hearing, the case may be heard and determined in his absence or may be dismissed for default.

(3) The party against whom any order is passed under sub-section (1) or (2) may apply, within thirty days from the date of such order, to have it set aside on the ground that he was prevented by sufficient cause from paying the requisite process fees or from appearing at the hearing; and the revenue officer may, after notice to the opposite party and after making such inquiry as he considers necessary, set aside the order passed.

88. (1) A revenue officer may, from time to time, for reasons to be recorded, adjourn the hearing of a case or proceeding before him.

(2) The date and place of an adjourned hearing shall be intimated at the time of the adjournment to such of the parties and witnesses as are present.

89. A revenue officer may direct the parties to pay the cost incurred in any case before him and also apportion the cost among the parties in such manner and to such extent as he may think fit.

90. Where any order is passed under this Act directing any person to deliver possession of land or directing the eviction of any person from land, such order shall be executed by the competent authority in such manner as may be prescribed and it shall be lawful for such authority, in accordance with rules be prescribed, to take such authority, in accordance with rules to be prescribed, to take such steps and use or cause to be used such force as may be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with the order.

91. All appearances before, applications to, and acts to be done before, any revenue officer under this Act or any other law for the time being in force may be made or done by parties themselves or by their authorised agents or by any legal practitioner:

Provided that any such appearance shall, if the revenue officer so directs, be made by the party in person.
Correction of error or omission.

92. Any revenue officer by whom an order was passed in a case or proceeding may, either on his own motion or on the application of a party, correct any error or omission not affecting a material part of the case or proceeding, after such notice to the parties as he may consider necessary.

Appeals.

93. (1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, an appeal shall be from every original order passed under this Act—

(a) if such an order is passed by an officer subordinate to the sub-divisional officer, to the sub-divisional officer;
(b) if such an order is passed by the sub-divisional officer, to the Collector;
(c) if such an order is passed by the Collector, to the State Government;
(d) if such an order is passed by an assistant survey and settlement officer, to the survey and settlement officer or to a revenue officer notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette to be the appellate authority; and
(e) if such an order is passed by a survey and settlement officer, to the director of settlement and land records or to a revenue officer notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette to be the appellate authority.

(1) A second appeal shall lie against any order passed in first appeal—

(a) if such an order is passed under clause (a) of sub-section (1), to the State Government;
(b) if such an order is passed under clause (b) of sub-section (1), to the State Government;
(c) if such an order is passed under clause (d) of sub-section (1), to the director of settlement and land records or to a revenue officer notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette to be the second appellate authority; and
(d) if such an order is passed under clause (e) of sub-section (1), to the State Government.

Limitation of appeals.

94. (1) No appeal shall lie—

(a) in the case of a first appeal, after the expiry of thirty days from the date of the order appealed against; and
(b) in the case of second appeal, after the expiry of sixty days from the date of the order appealed against.

(2) In computing the above periods, the time required to obtain copies of the order appealed against shall be excluded.

95. State Government or the Collector may, at any time, either on his own motion or on the application of any party, call for the records of any proceeding before any revenue officer subordinate to him for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or the propriety of any order passed by such revenue officer, and may pass such order in reference thereto as he thinks fit:

Provided that he shall not vary or reverse any order affecting any right between private persons without having given to the parties interested notice to appear and be heard.

96. (1) A revenue officer may, either on his own motion or on the application of any party interested, review any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors-in-office and pass such order in reference thereto as he thinks fit:

Provided that a revenue officer subordinate to the Collector shall, before reviewing any order under this section, obtain the permission of the Collector and the Collector shall, before reviewing an order passed by any of his predecessors in office obtain the permission of the 1[State Government.]

(2) No order affecting any question of right between private persons shall be reviewed except on the application of a party to the proceedings or except after notice to the other party and no application for the review of such order shall be entertained unless it is made within ninety days from the date of the order.

(3) No order shall be reviewed except on the following grounds, namely :

(i) discovery of new and important matter of evidence;
(ii) some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record; or
(iii) any other sufficient reason.

For the purpose of this section, the Collector shall be deemed to be the successor-in-office of any revenue officer who has left the district or who has ceased to exercise powers as a revenue officer and to whom there is no successor in the district.

An order which has been dealt with in appeal or on revision shall not be reviewed by any officer subordinate to the appellate or revisional authority.

A revenue officer who has passed any order or his successor in office may, at any time before the expiry of the period prescribed for appeal, direct the stay of such order for such period as he thinks fit provided that no appeal has been filed.

Any authority before whom a case is pending in appeal or revision may direct the stay of execution of the order appealed from or under revision for such period as it may think fit.

The revenue officer or other authority directing such stay of execution of any order may impose such conditions, or order such security to be furnished, as he or it may think fit.

The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purpose of this Part.

In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(bb) the manner of publication of notices and proclamation of attachment and sale of property;
(cc) the manner in which the cost and expenses incidental to the attachment and sale of property shall be determined;
(dd) the manner of payment of deposit and of the purchase money of property sold for arrears of land revenue;
(ee) the circumstances in which precautionary measures for securing the land revenue under section 79 may be taken;
(ff) the procedure for the transfer of cases from one revenue officer to another;
(gg) the manner of preferring appeals or applications for revision or review, the documents to accompany the memorandum of appeal or such application and the fee, if any, leviable therefor;

(hh) the grant of certified copies and the payment of fees for inspection and grant of certified copies of revenue records and register;

(ii) the mode of execution of any orders directing any person to deliver possession of land or to be evicted from land, including the use of force for securing compliance with such order;

(jj) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

PART III

Chapter IX — Rights of raiyats in land

99. (1) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that subject to the other provisions of this Act,—

(a) the rights of a raiyat in his land shall be permanent, heritable and transferable;

(b) the raiyat shall be entitled by himself, his servants under- raiyats, agents or other representatives to erect farm buildings, construct wells or tanks or make other improvements thereon for the better cultivation of the land or its convenient or profitable use;

(c) the raiyat is entitled to plant trees on his land, to enjoy the products thereof and to fell, utilise or dispose of the timber of any trees on his land.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall entitle a raiyat to use his land to the detriment of any adjoining land which is not his or in contravention of the provisions of any other law for the time being in force applicable to such lands.

100. (1) Every raiyat who, at the commencement of this Act, owns land in excess of a basic holding shall be entitled to apply to the competent authority for the reservation for his personal cultivation of any parcel or parcels of his land leased to under- raiyats.
(2) Every application under sub-section (1) shall be in the prescribed form and shall be made in the prescribed manner within a period of one year from the commencement of this Act.

Explanation — In the case of a person under disability, the application shall be made by his guardian or his authorised agent, as the case may be.

Procedure for reservation of lands.

101. (1) The competent authority shall, on an application made under section 100, issue notice together with a copy of the application to each of the under-riayats holding land from the applicant requiring the under-riayat to submit his objections, if any, within a period of ninety days from the date of service of such notice or within such further period as the competent authority may allow.

(2) An under-riayat on whom a notice has been served under sub-section (1) shall furnish to the competent authority within the period aforesaid details of lands owned by him or held as under-riayat of any other riayat and of lands which he selects for retention by him.

(3) The competent authority shall, after considering the objections and the details, if any, furnished by the under-riayats and after making such inquiry as it may consider necessary, determine the land or lands, not exceeding the permissible limit, which in its opinion having regard to all the circumstances of the case may be reserved for personal cultivation of the riayat and the lands which each of his under-riayats may be allowed to retain.

"Permissible limit" defined.

102. (1) In section 101, "permissible limit" means an area of land which a riayat may resume from under-riayats for personal cultivation, that is to say —

(a) in the case of a person under disability, \[7.20\] standard hectares ;
(b) in the case of any other person who —

(i) owns a basic holding or less, the entire area owned by him ;
(ii) owns more than a basic holding but not exceeding a family holding, one-half of the area leased to under-riayats or the area by which the land under his personal cultivation falls short of a basic holding, whichever is greater :

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
(iii) owns more than a family-holding —

(1) if he has no land, or any land which is less than a family holding, under his personal cultivation, one-half of the area leased to under-riayats but not exceeding the area by which land under his personal cultivation falls short of a family holding, provided that the under-riayat is left with not less than a basic holding and provided further that a riayat shall in any case be entitled to resume an area by which land under his personal cultivation falls short of a basic holding; and

(2) if he has a family holding or more under his personal cultivation, the area leased to under-riayats but not exceeding the area by which land in his personal cultivation falls short of \[\text{7.20 standard hectares,}\] provided that the under-riayat is left with not less than a family holding.

Explanation — For the purpose of determining the permissible limit of a riayat under this sub-section, any non-resumable land which he may hold as an under-riayat shall also be taken into account.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), an under-riayat who under any law, custom or usage is not liable to eviction at the commencement of this Act on the ground that the land is required for personal cultivation, shall in all cases be left with a basic holding or the land actually held by him, whichever is less.

(3) Any transfer of land made on or after the 10th August, 1957 shall be disregarded in computing the permissible limit.

103. In the case of a riayat who at the commencement of this Act does not own land in excess of a basic holding, all lands owned by him and held by under-riayats at such commencement shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 102, be deemed to have been reserved for his personal cultivation.

Explanation — Any transfer of land made on or after the 10th August, 1957 shall be disregarded in determining the extent of land owned by a riayat at the commencement of this Act.

\[1. \text{Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.}\]
104. The competent authority shall declare every land which, under sub-section (3) of section 101, an under-raiyat is allowed to retain to be the non-resumable land of the under-raiyat.

Right to lease.

105. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a raiyat may lease out his land to another person on such rent not exceeding the maximum rent referred to in section 111 as may be agreed upon between him and such person.

"[(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any contract, every lease of agricultural land of a raiyat made after the commencement of this Act on condition of payment of rent in cash or kind or delivery of a share of the produce shall be deemed to be a lease in perpetuity not terminable otherwise than under the provisions of this Act";

(3) In respect of any lease made after the commencement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1974 a raiyat who is a person under disability, on the cession of the disability in the manner laid down in the Explanation to sub-section (3) of section 118, may, by giving the under raiyat three months' notice in writing before the expiry of any year, terminate the tenancy if the raiyat requires the land bonafide for personal cultivation by him.]

106. (1) Where the Collector is satisfied that any land has remained uncultivated for a period of not less than [one year)] otherwise than in accordance with rules made in this behalf under this Act and that it is necessary for the purpose of ensuring the full and efficient use of the land for agriculture to do so, he may after making such inquiry as may be prescribed lease out the land in accordance with the rules made under this Act.

[(2) Any lease made under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a lease for two years terminable by giving three months' notice before the expiry of any year in case the defaulting raiyat or under-raiyat applies for restoration of such land for cultivation:

Provided that if the lessee has made any improvement to the land at his own expense, he shall be entitled to receive compensation before he is evicted for such improvement as in the opinion of the competent authority is reasonable.]
107. (1) Subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, a raiyat may relinquish his rights in respect of any land in his possession in favour of Government by giving a notice in writing to the competent authority in such form and manner as may be prescribed, not less than three months before the close of any year and thereupon he shall cease to be a raiyat in respect of that land from the year next following the date of notice:

Provided that relinquishment of only a part of a holding or of a holding which, or part of which, is subject to an encumbrance or a charges, shall not be valid.

(2) If any person relinquishes his rights to a land under sub-section (1), the way to which lies through other land retained by him, any future holder of the land relinquished shall be entitled to a right of way through the land retained.

Chapter IX A

Certain restrictions on the rights of transfer for the protection of the interests of the Scheduled Tribes.

107 A. The provisions of this Chapter shall apply to villages and tehsils as specified in the Second Schedule and the transfer of land in such tehsils or villages shall be governed by the provisions of this Chapter and the rules made thereunder.

107 B. In this Chapter —

(a) "family" shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in Chapter XIII;
(b) "land" means land used for agricultural purposes;
(c) "landless" means a person who owns less than 0.40 standard hectare of land;
(d) "transfer" includes lease, mortgage with possession, sale, exchange or otherwise part with the rights of any land, but shall not include gift to any member of the family and inheritance.

1. Inserted by the TLR & LR (Third Amendment) Act, 1975. w.e.f. 27.2.1975.
107 C. Subject to the provisions of section 131 of this Act any transfer of land by a person not belonging to the Scheduled Tribe within the village or tehsil specified in the Second Schedule, shall be void unless such transfer is made in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

107 D. (1) If any person not belonging to the Scheduled Tribe at any time intends to transfer his land situated within a village or tehsil specified in the Second Schedule, he shall file notices giving particulars in the prescribed form together with the process fee to the competent authority for the service there of on all the co-shares of such land and all the members of the Scheduled Tribe owning land adjoining such land.

(2) The competent authority shall cause the notices served on the co-shares and the members of the Scheduled Tribe referred to in sub-section (1) by registered post and shall cause copies of the notices to be affixed on such land and in the office of the competent authority.

(3) If the co-sharer and the member of the Scheduled Tribe as referred to in sub-section (1) intend to purchase such land, they may within one month from the date of receipt of the notice under sub-section (2), apply to the competent authority to purchase such land subject to the ceiling limit as provided in section 164A.

(4) If the co-sharer and the member of the Scheduled Tribe as referred to in sub-section (1) both apply to purchase, the former shall have preference to purchase such land and in case where there are more than one such co-sharer or member of the Scheduled Tribe, the co-sharer or member of the Scheduled Tribe, as the case may be, having the lowest holding shall have preference to purchase.

(5) If the co-sharer and the member of the Scheduled Tribe as referred to in sub-section (1), fail to apply to the competent authority within the time specified in sub-section (3), the competent authority may after making such enquiry as may be prescribed, select a landless member of the Scheduled Tribe who resides in the village or tehsil where such land is situated and who is ready to purchase such land.

(6) If there is any dispute about the market value payable for such land, either the intending transferor or the intending purchaser may file an application to the competent authority within one month from the date of receipt of the notice under sub-section (2), for determining the market value of such land and the competent authority shall determine the market value of such land after giving notices to the persons interested and after making such enquiry as may be prescribed.

Note :- In the case of a landless member of the Scheduled Tribe selected by the competent authority under sub-section (5), the period of one month shall be computed from the date of his selection.

(7) After receiving the applications under sub-section (3) the competent authority shall give notice to the applicants to appear before him within such time as may be specified in the notice and after hearing the applicants select the intending purchaser to purchase such land.

(8) The selected intending purchaser referred to in sub-section (5) or (7), as the case may be, shall deposit with the competent authority the consideration money claimed by the intending transferor if there is no dispute about the market value of such land, and in case of any dispute about the market value of such land, the consideration money determined under sub-section (6), within such period as may be prescribed.

(9) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 and the Registration Act, 1908 regarding transfer of land, on deposit of the consideration money as referred to in sub-section (8), the competent authority shall issue a certificate in the prescribed form to the selected intending purchaser declaring him to be the transferee of such land and on such certificate being issued, such land shall vest in the transferee: the competent authority shall also direct that the consideration money deposited shall be paid to the transferor.

(10) If the co-sharer or the member of the Scheduled Tribe as referred to in sub-section (1) does not apply to purchase such land in response to the notice given to him by the competent authority under sub-section (2), within the time specified in sub-section (3) and if the selected intending purchaser fails to deposit the consideration money under sub-section (8), such co-sharer or member of the Scheduled Tribes shall forfeit his right to purchase such land and the intending transferor shall be entitled to transfer such land to any other person:

Provided that if the selected intending purchaser is a member of the Scheduled Tribe and if he is not in a position to purchase such land immediately, the State Government may purchase such land and subsequently transfer the same to him on payment of consideration money in the manner prescribed.
Panalties.

107 E. (1) If any transfer of land is made within the village or tehsil specified in the Second Schedule in contravention of the provisions of this Chapter, any Revenue Officer specially appointed for the purpose by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette, may at his own motion or on application made to him in this behalf and after giving the transferee an opportunity of being heard, by an order in writing, eject the transferee or any other person claiming under him from such land and take possession of such land.

(2) The right, title and interest of the transferor on land in respect of which order has been passed under sub-section (1) shall vest in the State Government.

Chapter X — Rights of under-riayats

Interest of under-riayats.

108. (1) The interest of under-riayat in any land held by him as such shall be heritable but, save as otherwise provided in this Act, shall not be transferable.

(2) No under-riayat shall be evicted from his land except as provided in this Act.

Right to create a mortgage or charge

109. It shall be lawful for an under-riayat to create a simple mortgage or a charge on his interest in the land leased to him, in favour of the Government, [a cooperative society, a bank or such other institution as may be notified in the Official Gazette by the State Government] in consideration of any loan advanced to him [by the Government or, as the case may be, by a cooperative society or a bank or an institution]; and in the event of his making default in the repayment of such loan in accordance with its terms, it shall be lawful [for the lender] to cause his interest in the land to be attached and sold and the process applied in payment of such loan.

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
2. Substituted ibid.
3. Substituted ibid.

(c) that the extent of land has been altered by more than one acre by alluvion or diluvion;
(d) that the land has been partially or wholly rendered unfit for cultivation.

(5) Nothing in sub-sections (1) to (4) shall affect the right of the Government to make an order directing the determination of the reasonable rent of lands in any specified area.

114. (1) In any case in which rent is payable in kind, the raiyat or the under-raiyat may apply in writing to the competent authority in the prescribed form and manner, for commuting the rent into money rent.

(2) On receipt of such application, the competent authority shall, after giving notice to the other party, determine the money rent payable for the land in accordance with the following provisions but not exceeding the maximum rent specified in section 111.

(3) In determining the money rent, regard shall be had to—

(a) the average money rent payable by under-raiyats for land of similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity;
(b) the average value of the rent for the land actually received by the raiyat during the three years preceding the date of application;
(c) the average prices of crops and commodities in the locality during the three years preceding the date of application;
(d) the improvements, if any, made to the land by the raiyat or the under-raiyat; and
(e) any other factor which may be prescribed.
115. Every raiyat shall give or cause to be given a receipt for the rent received by him or on his behalf in such form as may be prescribed duly signed by him or his authorised agent.

116. If any raiyat recovers from an under-raiyat rent in excess of the amount due under this Act, he shall forthwith refund the excess amount so recovered and shall also be liable to punishment as provided in this Act.

117. (1) Where a raiyat has obtained from or been granted by the Government any relief by way of suspension or remission, whether in whole or in part, of the land revenue payable in respect of his land, he shall be bound to give, and the under-raiyat concerned shall be entitled to receive from the raiyat, a corresponding or proportionate relief by way of suspension or remission of rent payable in respect of such land.

(2) The nature and extent of the relief which a raiyat is bound to give and which the under-raiyat is entitled to receive under sub-section (1) shall be determined in accordance with the rules made under this Act.

(3) No suit shall lie and no decree of a civil court shall be executed for the recovery by a raiyat of any rent the payment of which has been remitted, or during the period for which the payment of such rent has been suspended, under this section.

(4) The period during which the payment of rent is suspended under this section shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation for any suit or proceeding for the recovery of such rent.

(5) If any raiyat fails to suspend or remit the payment of rent as provided in sub-section (1), he shall be liable to refund to the under-raiyat the amount recovered by him in contravention of the provisions of this section and shall also be liable to punishment as provided in this Act.

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.3.1974.
118. (1) No person shall be evicted from any land held by him as under-rajyat except under the order of the competent authority made on any of the following grounds, namely:-

(a) that the land has been reserved for personal cultivation of the raiyat under section 101, or is deemed to have been reserved for personal cultivation of the raiyat under section 103;
(b) that a notice has been given to the under-rajyat under sub-section (3) of section 105;
(c) that the under-rajyat has intentionally and wilfully committed such acts of waste as are calculated to impair materially or permanently the value or utility of the land for agricultural purposes;
(d) that the under-rajyat has failed to pay rent within a period of three months after it falls due:

Provided that the competent authority may, if it thinks fit, grant further time not exceeding six months for payment of the rent;
(e) that the under-rajyat, not being a person under disability, has, after the commencement of this Act, sublet the land without the consent in writing of the raiyat.

(2) No order for eviction of an under-rajyat shall be executed till the standing crops, if any, on the land are harvested.

(3) Where any land has been reserved for the personal cultivation of a raiyat by an order made under sub-section (3) of section 101, no suit or application for the eviction of the under-rajyat in respect of such land under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall lie after the expiry of five years from the commencement of this Act or one year from the date of the said order, whichever is later:

Provided that where any such raiyat is a person under disability, such suit or application may be instituted or made within a period of five years from the date when the disability ceases.

Explanation — For the purposes of this sub-section, the disability of a person shall cease —

(a) in the case of a widow, if she re-marries, on the date of her remarriage or if any person succeeds to the widow on her death, on the date of her death;

(b) in the case of a minor, on the date of his attaining majority;

(c) in the case of a woman who is unmarried or who is divorced or judicially separated from her husband, on the date of her marriage or remarriage, as the case may be, or in the case of a woman whose husband is a person falling under clause (d) or (e), on the date on which the disability of the husband ceases;

(d) in the case of a person who is a member of the Armed Forces of the Union, on the date of his discharge from service or of his posting to the reserve;

(e) in the case of a person suffering from a physical or mental disability, on the date on which the disability ceases to exist.

119. Where a person who has taken possession of any land by evicting an under-riayat therefrom on the ground that the land had been reserved for personal cultivation by him, fails to cultivate such land personally within one year from the date on which he took possession thereof or ceases to cultivate such land personally in any year during a period of four years next following, the under-riayat shall be entitled to be restored to possession of the land from which he was evicted.

Explanation — For the purpose of this section, land shall not be deemed to be under the personal cultivation of a person (not being a person under disability) unless such person or a member of his family engages himself in the principal agricultural operations.

120. If a raiyat fails to —

(a) apply for reservation of any land within the period prescribed in section 100, and the land is not deemed to have been reserved under section 103, or

(b) file a suit or application for the eviction of the under-riayat from any land reserved under section 101 within the period prescribed in sub-section (3) of section 118, or

(c) cultivate or ceases to cultivate the land the under-riayat is restored to possession of the land under section 119, the competent authority may suo motu and shall, on application, after making such inquiry as may be prescribed, declare the land to be the non-resumable land of the under-riayat.

121. (1) An under-riyat who has made any improvement at his own expense on the land leased to him shall, if he is to be evicted under the provisions of this Chapter, be entitled to receive compensation, before he is so evicted, for such improvement as, in the opinion of the competent authority, is reasonable.

(2) The compensation payable to an under-riyat under sub-section (1) shall be determined in accordance with the value of such improvements on the date of eviction, and in determining such compensation, regard shall be had to the following matters namely:

(a) the amount by which the value of the land has increased by reason of the improvement;
(b) the condition of the improvement at the date of the determination of the value thereof and the probable duration of its effect;
(c) the labour and capital involved in the making of the improvement; and
(d) the advantages secured by the under-riyat in consideration of the improvement made by him.

(3) In any case in which compensation is payable to an under-riyat under this section, the competent authority may direct that —

(a) the whole or any part of any loan which the under-riyat has taken on the security of his interest in the land under-section 109 and which is outstanding shall be deducted from such compensation and paid to the Government or the co-operative society, as the case may be; and
(b) any arrear of rent due by the under-riyat to the raiyat and the costs, if any, awarded to the raiyat shall be adjusted against the compensation.

122. An under-riyat against whom an order of eviction has been passed, shall be entitled to remove within such time as is deemed reasonable by the competent authority any work of improvement which can be severed from the land and which the under-riyat desires to remove, or any building or construction or work (which is not an improvement) in respect of which the raiyat is not willing to pay the compensation.
"Restoration of possession of land in certain other cases.

123. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or any decree or order of any court where a Bargadar of any land has, on or after the 28th February, 1974, surrendered or been evicted from such land in contravention of the provision of this Act, the competent authority may, suo motu or on application made by the Bargadar, restore him, in the manner as may be prescribed, to possession of the land which he surrendered or from which he was evicted.

Explanation — In this section the term 'bargadar' shall have the same meaning as defined in clause (bb) of section 2 of this Act, but shall not include an under-riiyat within the meaning of clause (v) of section 2 of this Act.]

(2) The competent authority shall, before making an order under sub-section (1), make such inquiry as may be prescribed.

Relief against termination of tenancy for act of waste.

124. Where a tenancy is sought to be terminated on the ground that the under-riiyat has materially impaired the value or utility of the land for agricultural purposes, if the damage to the land admits of being repaired or if pecuniary compensation would afford adequate relief, no proceeding for eviction shall lie against the under-riiyat unless and until the riayat has served on the under-riiyat a notice in writing specifying the damage complained of and the under-riiyat has failed within a period of one year from the service of such notice to repair the damage or to pay compensation thereof.

Surrender of land by under-riiyat.

3125. After the enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1974 no under-riiyat shall surrender any land held by him except to the Collector who shall lease out surrendered land in the prescribed manner to any other deserving person and the lessee shall acquire all the rights of the under-riiyats who relinquished his rights."

Declaration of non-resumable lands.

125A. Notwithstanding anything contained in the other provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by notification with effect from such date as may be specified in such notification, declare all lands held by under-riiyats in any local area to be their non-resumable lands and the provisions of sections 126 to 130 shall, as far as may be, apply to such lands.]
126. Subject to the other provisions of this Act, the ownership of any land which is declared to be the non-resumable land of an under-raiyyat under section 104 or section 120 or section 125A shall stand transferred from the raiyyat thereof to the under-raiyyat with effect from the date of such declaration, and the under-raiyyat shall become the owner of such land and be liable to pay land revenue therefor.

127. (1) In respect of every land the ownership of which stands transferred to the under-raiyyat under section 126, the raiyyat shall be entitled to compensation which shall consist of the aggregate of the following amounts, that is to say —

(a) an amount equal to thirty times the full land revenue payable for the land or, if the land is held revenue-free or at a concessional rate, thirty times the amount of land revenue payable for similar lands in the locality;
(b) the value of trees, if any planted by the raiyyat.

Explanation — Where any improvement has been made on the land at the expense of the raiyyat at any time subsequent to the last settlement, the land revenue for the purpose of this section shall be the land revenue payable for similar lands in the locality.

(2) The land revenue payable for similar lands in the locality and the value of trees referred to in sub-section (1) shall be determined in the prescribed manner.

(3) The compensation payable to a raiyyat under this section shall be determined by competent authority in the manner prescribed.

128. (1) The compensation to which a raiyyat is entitled under section 127 shall be paid to him by the Government in the first instance, and it may be paid in cash, in lump sum or in annual instalments not exceeding twenty or in the form of bonds which may be negotiable or non-negotiable but transferable.

(2) From the date of the declaration referred to in section 126, the raiyyat shall be entitled to interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum on the compensation or such portion thereof as remains unpaid.

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
(3) Any mortgage of, or encumbrance on, the land of which the ownership is transferred to the under-raiya under section 126 shall be a valid charge on the amount of compensation payable to the raiyat.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) to (3), where the person entitled to compensation under section 127 is a charitable or religious institution, the compensation shall, instead of being assessed under that section, be assessed as a perpetual annuity equal to the reasonable rent for the land, less the land revenue payable on such land. The amount so assessed shall be paid to such institution in the prescribed manner.

129. (1) Every under-raiya to whom ownership of land has been transferred under section 126 shall be liable to pay to the Government in respect of that land compensation as determined under section 127.

(2) The compensation shall be payable in cash, in lump sum or in such number of annual instalments not exceeding twenty as may be prescribed. Interest at the rate of 2½ per cent. per annum shall be payable on the compensation or such portion thereof as remains unpaid.

(3) The compensation payable under this section shall be a charge on the land.

(4) The compensation or any instalment thereof shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

130. When the compensation or the first instalment of the compensation, as the case may be, has been paid by the under-raiya, the competent authority may suo motu and shall, on application made to it in this behalf issue to the under-raiya a certificate in the prescribed form declaring him to be the owner of the land specified therein.

131. (1) If a raiya at any time intends to sell his land held by an under-raiya, he shall give notice in writing of his intention to such under-raiya and offer to sell the land to him. In case the latter intends to purchase the land, he shall intimate in writing his readiness to do so within two months from the date of receipt of such notice.

(2) If there is any dispute about the reasonable price payable for the land, either the raiya or the under-raiya may apply in writing to the competent authority for determining the reasonable price; and the competent authority, after giving notice to the other party and to all other persons interested in the land and after making such inquiry as it thinks fit, shall fix the reasonable price of the land which shall be the average of the prices obtaining for similar lands in the locality during the ten years immediately preceding the date on which the application is made.

(3) The under-raiyat shall deposit with the competent authority the amount of the price determined under sub-section (2) within such period as may be prescribed.

(4) On deposit of the entire amount of the reasonable price, the competent authority shall issue a certificate in the prescribed form to the under-raiyat declaring him to be the purchaser of the land; the competent authority shall also direct that the reasonable price deposited shall be paid to the raiyat.

(5) If an under-raiyat does not exercise the right of purchase in response to the notice given to him by the raiyat under sub-section (1) or fails to deposit the amount of the price as required by sub-section (3), such under-raiyat shall forfeit his right of purchase, and the raiyat shall be entitled to sell such land to any other person.

(6) The forfeiture of the right to purchase any land under this section shall not affect the other rights of the under-raiyat in such land.

132. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Part.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

(a) the form of notices to be issued under this Part and the manner of their service;
(b) the manner of holding inquiries under this Part;
(c) the circumstances in which and the period for which land used for agricultural purposes may be left uncultivated;
(d) the conditions subject to which lands may be leased by the Collector under section 106;
(e) the form of applications to be made under this Part, the authorities to whom they may be made and the procedure to be followed by such authorities in disposing of the applications;

(f) the determination of the value of the produce of land, the profits of agriculture, and the rental values of land, for the purposes of this Part;

(g) the time and manner of payment of rent by the under-raiyat;

(h) the form of receipt for rent to be given by the raiyat;

(i) the factors to be taken into account in determining reasonable rent for land and in commuting rent in kind into money rent;

(j) the nature and the extent of relief to the under-raiyat in cases of suspension or remission of land revenue by the Government;

(k) the determination of compensation for improvements to under-raiyats who are evicted from land;

(l) the grant of permission to surrender land;

(m) the determination of the amount of compensation payable to the raiyat in respect of the non-resumable lands of under-raiyats.

(n) the form of certificates to be granted to under-raiyats;

(o) the determination of the price to be paid by under-raiyat for land in respect of which the first option to purchase is exercised;

(p) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

PART IV

Chapter XI — Acquisition of estate and of Rights of Intermediaries therein

133. In this Part —

Definitions.

(a) "estate" means lands included under one entry in any of the general registers of revenue-paying and revenue-free lands and includes —

(i) revenue-free lands not entered in any register, and
(ii) a part of or a share in an estate;

(b) "homestead' means a dwelling house together with any courtyard, compound, garden, or out-house and includes any outbuildings used for purposes connected with agriculture and any family graveyard, library, office, guest-house, grain store, latrines, boundary walls, tanks, wells or places of worship appertaining to such dwelling house;

(c) "intermediary'' means a person who holds in an estate the right, title or interest of a talukdar and includes —

(i) a person who holds land either revenue-free or at a concessional rate, and
(ii) a tenure holder;

(d) "tenant" means a person who cultivates or holds the land of an intermediary under an agreement, express or implied, on condition of paying therefor rent in cash or in kind or delivering a share of the produce and includes a person who cultivates or holds land of and intermediary under the system generally known as "bhag", "adhi" or "barga"; and the term "sub-tenant" shall be construed accordingly;

(e) 'tenure holder' means a person who has acquired from an intermediary the right to hold lands for the purpose of collecting rents or bringing them under cultivation by establishing tenants thereon.

134. (1) As soon as may be after the commencement of this Act, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare that, with effect from the date specified in the notification (herein- after referred to as the vesting date), all estates situated in any area or areas and all rights, title and interest of every intermediary in such estates shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances.

(2) Every notification under sub-section (1) shall also be published in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The publication of a notification in the manner provided in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be conclusive evidence of the notice of declaration to the intermediaries whose interests are affected by such notification.
Consequences of a notification under section 134

135. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force or in any agreement or contract, express or implied, with effect from the vesting date —

(a) each estate to which the notification relates and all rights, title and interest of intermediaries in such estate shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances, including—

(i) rights in hats, bazars, ferries, forests, wastelands, abadi sites, fisheries, tolls and other interests;
(ii) rights in any building other than a dwelling house or in any part of such building, used primarily as office or cutcherry for collection of rent;

(b) all grants and confirmation of title to the estate and rights therein made in favour of an intermediary shall cease and determine;

(c) any building used for educational or charitable purposes and held by the intermediary shall vest in the Government for those educational or charitable purposes;

(d) subject to the other provisions of this Act, every tenant holding any land under an intermediary shall hold the same directly under the Government as a raiyat thereof or [as a non-agricultural tenant thereof, as the case may be] and shall be liable to pay to the government land revenue equal to the rent payable by him to the intermediary on the vesting date, subject to a maximum of the value of one-eighth of the gross produce which value shall be determined in the manner prescribed:

Provided that the tenant shall become the owner of any building or structure constructed on such land at the expense of the intermediary on payment of such compensation to the intermediary as is equivalent to its market value on the vesting date, which value shall be determined in accordance with the rules made in this behalf;

1. Inserted by the T.L.R. & L.R. (Third Amendment) Act, 1975, w.e.f. 27.2.1975.
(e) all arrears of land revenue, local rates, cesses and other dues lawfully payable to the Government by the intermediary on the vesting date in respect of the estate shall, without prejudice to any other mode of recovery, be recoverable by deduction from the compensation payable to the intermediary;

136. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 134 and 135, an intermediary shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), be entitled to retain with effect from the vesting date—

(a) homesteads, building and structures together with the appurtenant thereto in the possession of the intermediary other than buildings vested in the Government under section 135;
(b) lands under the personal cultivation of the intermediary;
(c) lands in which permanent rights have not already accrued to a tenant under any custom, agreement or law and which have been leased by an intermediary who, both at the commencement of the lease and on the vesting date, was a person under disability;
(d) lands held by the intermediary as mortgagor which are subject to usufructuary mortgage and are under the personal cultivation of the mortgagee;
(e) lands comprised in orchards or used for the purpose of live-stock breeding, poultry, farming, or dairy farming, which are in the occupation of the intermediary;
(f) so much of the lands comprised in a tea garden, mill, factory or workshop as in the opinion of the State Government is required for such tea garden, mill, factory or workshop.

(2) An intermediary who is entitled to retain possession of any land under sub-section (1) shall hold such land directly under the Government from the vesting date as a raiyat thereof [or as a non-agricultural tenant thereof, as the case may be] and be liable to pay therefor land revenue at full rate applicable to similar lands in the locality.

1. Inserted by the T.L.R & L.R (Third Amendment) Act, 1975, w.e.f. 27.2.1975.
137. (1) The Collector shall take charge of estates and interests of intermediaries which vest in the Government under section 135.

(2) For the purpose aforesaid, the Collector may, by written order served in the prescribed manner, require any intermediary or other person in possession of any such estate or interest to give up such possession by a date to be specified in the order (which shall not be earlier than sixty days from the date of service of the order) to deliver by that date any documents, registers, or records, connected with the management of such estate or interest which are in his custody to furnish a statement in the prescribed form in respect of such estate or interest.

(3) The Collector or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf may take such steps or use such force as may be necessary to enforce compliance with the order and may also enter any building or place for the purpose of taking possession of the documents, registers or records referred to in sub-section (2).

(4) An intermediary shall be entitled to make inspection of any documents, registers or records which have been delivered to or taken possession of by the Collector, to make notes therefrom or to have certified copies thereof granted to him. No fees shall be charged for making inspection or for making notes, but fees may be charged, according to the prescribed scale, for the grant of certified copies.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to authorise the Collector to take possession of:

(a) any land or of any right of an intermediary therein, which may be retained by the intermediary under section 136, or
(b) any religious institution or any building connected therewith.

138. If there is any dispute as to the possession of any homestead or land or building referred to in sub-section (1) of section 136, the Collector shall, on application made to him in this behalf, make such inquiry as he deems fit and pass such orders thereon as may appear to him just and proper.

139. An appeal against an order of the Collector passed under section 138, if preferred within sixty days of such order, shall lie to the District Judge having jurisdiction.
Chapter XII — Assessment And Payment Of Compensation

140. Every intermediary, whose right, title and interest in any estate vest in the Government under Chapter XI shall be entitled to receive and be paid therefor compensation as hereinafter provided.

141. The compensation referred to in section 140 shall be due as from the vesting date and the portion remaining unpaid shall carry interest at the rate of $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. per annum.

142. (1) For the purpose of assessing compensation under this Chapter —

(a) every intermediary shall be treated as a separate unit,
(b) If two or more intermediaries hold an estate or any interest therein jointly, the share of each intermediary in such estate or interest shall be treated as a separate unit:

Provided that where any such estate or interest is held by a Hindu joint family consisting of a common ancestor in the male line and his descendants, the family shall, if the common ancestor was alive on the vesting date, be treated as one unit;
(c) if an intermediary holds shares or interest in two or more estates, the aggregate of his shares or interest in all such estates shall be treated as a single unit.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, no partition or transfer by way of sale or gift of an estate or part thereof made on or after the 10th August, 1957, shall be recognised for the purpose of assessing the compensation.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (2) shall apply to—

(a) any sale made under an order of court in execution of any decree or order for payment of money, or
(b) any sale or gift made in favour of a wakf, a trust, an endowment or a society registered under the Societies
Regis

81 of 1860.

Registration Act, 1860 and established wholly for charitable purposes, unless the Government in any particular case directs otherwise.

Appointment of compensation officers.

143. The State Government shall, as soon as possible after the publication of a notification under section 134, appoint one or more officers to be compensation officers to prepare compensation assessment rolls and to perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

Compensation assessment roll.

144. (1) The compensation officer shall prepare a compensation assessment roll in respect of every estate vested in the Government under Chapter XI.

(2) The compensation assessment roll shall contain particulars of the gross income and the net income from the estate, the share of the net income of the intermediary or each of the intermediaries, the amount of compensation payable to him or them and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(3) Where an intermediary has shares or interest in two or more estates all of which have vested in the Government, the particulars of the shares or interest of such intermediary in the net income from all such estates and the compensation payable to him in respect of his shares or interest in all such estates shall be shown in the compensation assessment roll relating to any one of such estates.

(4) Where an intermediary has shares or interest in two or more estates either or any of which has not vested in the Government, the compensation payable to the intermediary shall be determined after all such estates have vested in the Government, on the basis of the aggregate of his shares or interest in the net income from all such estates.

(5) Nothing in sub-section (4) shall be construed as authorising the postponement of payment of ad interim compensation to any such intermediary as is referred to in that sub-section in respect of estates which have vested in the Government.

(6) For the purpose of preparing the compensation assessment roll, the compensation officer may require an intermediary to submit such statements and furnish such particulars as may be prescribed.
145. (1) For the purpose of assessment of compensation payable in respect of an estate —

(a) the gross income from the estate shall be taken to consist of —

(i) in respect of lands those referred to in section 136, the rents, cesses, local rates and other amounts payable or deemed to be payable to the intermediary or intermediaries by the tenants and tenure-holders for the previous year, including the commuted value of rents payable in kind which value shall be determined in the prescribed manner;

(ii) the gross income from abadi sites, fisheries, hats, bazars, ferries, forest, tolls, waste lands and other interests in the estate for the previous year;

(iii) the aggregate of the annual rents for the previous year from buildings used as offices or cutcherries and any other building which vest in the Government;

(iv) any other income during the previous year appertaining to the estate vesting in the Government not expressly mentioned in the foregoing sub-clauses;

(b) the net income from the estate shall be computed by deducting from the gross income the following, namely :-

(i) any sum which was payable by the intermediary or intermediaries during the previous year as land revenue, cesses, local rates or rent to the Government in respect of the interests to which the gross income relates;

(ii) any sum payable under the Bengal Agricultural Income-tax Act, 1944, as extended to Tripura or the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, during the previous year as defined in those Acts, in respect of the interests to which the gross income relates;
(iii) charges on account of management and collection at the following rates, namely:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Amount of gross income</th>
<th>Rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>(a) Where the gross income exceeds Rs. 30,000.</td>
<td>15 per centum of such gross income.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(b) Where the gross income exceeds Rs.10,000 but does not exceed Rs. 30,000.</td>
<td>12½ per centum of such gross income.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(c) Where the gross income exceeds Rs.5,000 but does not exceed Rs. 10,000.</td>
<td>10 per centum of such income.</td>
</tr>
<tr>

<td>5 per centum of such gross income.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Provided that the net income (after deducting the charges on account of management and collection) from an estate which falls under item (a), (b), (c) or (d) shall in no case be less than the maximum net income from an estate which falls under the item immediately following.

Illustration — The net income after deducting the charges on account of management and collection at 12½ per cent. under item (b) from an estate the gross income of which is Rs. 10,100 will be Rs. 8,837.50 while the net income after deducting the charges on account of management at 10 per cent, under item (c) from an estate the gross income of which is Rs.10,000 will be Rs. 9,000; under the proviso, the net income from the first mentioned estate shall be taken to be Rs.9,000 and not Rs. 8,837.50.

(2) The net income from the estate as determined under subsection (1) shall be apportioned among all the intermediaries having a share or interest in the estate in the proportion of their shares or interest, and in if doing so, any dispute involving a question of title arises, the compensation officer shall refer the parties to a civil court.
Explanation — For the purpose of this section except clause (b) (ii) of sub-section (1), "previous year" means the year immediately preceding the year in which the vesting date falls.

146. (1) The compensation payable to an intermediary shall be a multiple of his net income from the estate or where the intermediary has shares or interests in two or more estates, of the aggregate of his net incomes from all such estate, in accordance with the following table, namely:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Amount of net income</th>
<th>Total compensation payable</th>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
(i) Where the net income exceeds Rs. 50,000 but does not exceed Rs. 1,00,000. Five times such net income or the maximum amount under (h) above, whichever is greater.

(j) Where the net income exceeds Rs. 1,00,000 but does not exceed Rs. 3,00,000. Three times such net income or the maximum amount under (i) above, whichever is greater.

(k) Where the net income exceeds Rs. 3,00,000. Two times such net income or the maximum amount under (j) above, whichever is greater.

(2) Where the net income or any portion of the net income from an estate is deducted exclusively to charitable or religious purposes, the compensation payable in respect of such net income or portion shall, instead of being assessed under sub-section (1), be assessed as a perpetual annuity equal to such net income or portion, as the case may be, payable in the prescribed manner for those purpose.

Explanation — For the purpose of this sub-section if the salary, remuneration or any allowance payable to the Mutawalli of a wakf or the shebait of a Hindu temple or a trustee of any other charitable or religious trust does not exceed 15 per cent of the net income, then such net income shall be deemed to be deducted exclusively to charitable or religious purpose.
(4) Where there are two or more creditors, the claims officer shall determine, in accordance with the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, the order in which each such creditor is entitled to receive the amount due to him.

148. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the claims officer may, within sixty days of the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the District Judge having jurisdiction.

(2) The decision of the District Judge on appeal, or of the claims officer where no appeal is preferred, shall be final.

149. (1) After the amount of compensation has been determined in accordance with the provisions of section 146 and entered in the compensation assessment roll, the compensation officer shall cause a draft of such roll to be published in the prescribed manner and for the prescribed period. The compensation officer shall send copies of the relevant portions of the draft roll to the intermediaries concerned and shall receive and consider any objections which may be made within three months of the receipt of such copy to any entry therein or to any omission therefrom. The compensation officer shall dispose of such objections in the prescribed manner.

(2) Separate draft compensation assessment rolls may be prepared and published under sub-section (1) for different villages or groups of villages.

150. Every order of the compensation officer deciding any objection under sub-section (1) of section 149 shall contain a concise statement of the case, the points for determination, the decision thereon and the reasons for such decision.

151. (1) From every order passed by a compensation officer under section 150, an appeal shall lie to a Special Judge appointed for the purpose, within ninety days of the date of the order.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from every order passed on appeal by a Special Judge under sub-section (1), within sixty days of the passing of such order, on any of the grounds specified in section 100 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.
(3) The decision of the High Court, or of the Special Judge where no second appeal is preferred, or of the compensation officer where no appeal to the Special Judge is preferred, shall be final.

Final publication of the compensation assessment roll.

152. (1) Where no objection or appeal has been filed or the objections and appeals filed have been finally disposed of, the compensation officer shall cause the draft compensation assessment roll to be finally published, or make such alterations in the draft compensation assessment roll as may be necessary to give effect to any order passed on objection made under sub-section (1) of section 149 or on appeal under section 151 and cause the roll as so altered to be finally published, in the prescribed manner together with a certificate stating the fact of such final publication and the date thereof.

(2) The publication of the compensation assessment roll under sub-section (1) shall be conclusive evidence that the said roll has been duly made under this Chapter and every entry in such roll shall, save as otherwise provided in this Act, be conclusive evidence of the matters referred to in such entry.

Correction of bonafide mistakes.

153. (1) No correction of the compensation assessment roll after it has been finally published under section 152 shall be made except as provided in this section.

(2) Correction of bonafide mistakes or corrections necessitated by succession to or inheritance of any interest in the estate can be made by the compensation officer at any time before the payment of compensation, either of his own motion or on the application of the person interested, but no such correction shall be made while any legal proceeding affecting such entry is pending.

(3) Every time a correction is made under sub-section (2), the compensation officer shall cause a draft of the correction to be published in the same manner as the draft compensation assessment roll, and after considering and disposing of any objections that may be made, shall cause the correction to be finally published.

Ad interim payment of compensation

154. After the vesting date and before the final publication of the compensation assessment roll, ad interim payment to the outgoing intermediary may be made as follows:

(a) the compensation officer shall calculate the probable of compensation payable to him;
(b) two and half per cent. of such probable amount shall be paid ad interim to each intermediary in cash every year until such time as the compensation assessment roll is finally published;
(c) if there is any dispute as to the title of any person to receive the amount or as to the apportionment of it, the amount shall be kept in deposit in the manner prescribed until the dispute is finally determined; and on such determination, the compensation officer shall pay the amount or the portion thereof to the person or persons entitled to receive the same.

155. (1) After the compensation assessment roll has been finally published, the compensation officer shall deduct from the amount shown in such roll as payable to an intermediary or any other person having interest in the estate, the following amounts, namely—

(a) ad interim payments made under section 154;
(b) the amount, if any the deduction of which has been ordered under section 135;
(c) the amounts payable to creditors as determined by the claims officer.

(2) The balance remaining after the deductions referred to in sub-section (1) are made shall be given in cash, in one lump sum or in annual instalments not exceeding twenty, or in bonds, or partly in cash and partly in bonds, in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.

(3) The bonds referred to in sub-section (2) may be either negotiable or non-negotiable, and transferable in such circumstances and in such manner as may be prescribed and shall carry interest at the rate of two and a half per cent. per annum on the amount outstanding thereon, with effect from the date of issue.

(4) If any dispute arises as to the title of any person to receive the amount or as to the apportionment of it, the compensation officer may, if he thinks fit, keep the amount of compensation or the bonds referred to above in deposit in the manner prescribed until the dispute is finally determined; and on such determination, the compensation officer shall pay the amount or the portions thereof to the person or persons entitled to receive the same.
Compensation due to maintenance holder.

156. (1) If any person claiming as maintenance holder to be entitled to any portion of the compensation awarded to any intermediary under this Chapter applies to the compensation officer for payment of the same to him, the compensation officer may, with the consent of the intermediary, direct the payment to the applicant out of the compensation of such amount as the intermediary may have agreed to be paid to the applicant, and any such payment shall be a valid discharge of the liability of the Government in respect of the amount so paid.

(2) If the intermediary does not give his consent, the compensation officer shall direct the applicant to file, within three months, a suit or other proceeding in the court having jurisdiction to establish his claim and order that the amount claimed shall not in the meantime be paid to the intermediary.

(3) The Government shall not be made a part to any suit or proceeding instituted or commenced in pursuance of any direction given under sub-section (2).

(4) If the suit or proceeding referred to in sub-section (2) is instituted or commenced within the period aforesaid, the compensation officer shall place the amount claimed at the disposal of the court before which such suit or proceeding is instituted.

(5) If the suit or proceeding is not instituted or commenced within the period of three months aforesaid, the compensation officer shall order the amount to be paid to the intermediary.

Explanation — For the purpose of this section, a maintenance holder means a person entitled to receive maintenance under a registered deed, decree or order of court.

Compensation due to person incompetent to alienate.

157. If any intermediary entitled to receive compensation in respect of any interest is a person incompetent to alienate such interest, the compensation officer shall keep the amount of compensation payable in respect of such interest, whether in cash or in bonds, in deposit with the Collector who shall arrange to invest the cash or the income from the bonds in the purchase of such Government or other approved securities as the Collector thinks fit and shall direct the payment of the income from such investment to the intermediary who would for the time being have been entitled to hold and enjoy such interest if it had not vested in the Government; and such cash, bonds and securities shall remain so deposited until they are made over to any person or persons becoming absolutely entitled thereto.
Provided that nothing herein contained shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of any compensation under this section to pay the same to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

158. The Collector, the compensation officer and the claims officer, for the purposes of any inquiries or proceedings under this Part, shall have the same powers as are vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of—

(a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath or affirmation;
(b) compelling the production of documents; and
(c) issuing commission for the examination of witnesses; and such inquiries or proceedings shall be deemed to be judicial proceedings within the meaning of section 193 and 228 of the Indian Penal Code.

Penalties.

159. Whoever—

(a) wilfully fails or neglects to comply with any requirements made of him under this Part, or
(b) contravenes any lawful order passed under this Part, or
(c) obstructs or resists the taking by the Collector or any other officer authorized by him in writing of charge of any property which is vested in the Government under this Part, or
(d) furnishes information which he knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

160. Where, as a result of the operation of this Part, any person acquires the right to hold land either as a raiyat or an under-raiyat, the provisions of Part III shall as far as may be, apply to the determination of such right and in such application, any reference in the said Part to the commencement of this Act shall be construed as a reference to the vesting date.

161. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the purposes of this Part.
(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—
(a) the manner of publication of a notification under section 134;
(b) the procedure to be followed and the forms to be adopted in inquiries and proceedings under this Part;
(c) the mode of service of any order, notice or other documents under this Part;
(d) the form of the statements to be furnished by intermediaries;
(e) the inspection of and making notes from documents, registers and records under section 137, the grant of certified copies thereof and the fee to be charged for such grant;
(f) the form and the manner in which compensation assessment rolls shall be prepared and the particulars to be mentioned therein;
(g) the manner of apportionment of net income among intermediaries;
(h) the procedure to be followed in the case of intermediaries having shares or interest in different estates;
(i) the manner in which the preliminary and the final publication of the compensation assessment roll shall be made;
(j) the manner of determining the amount of annuities payable to religious and charitable institutions and the procedure for making payments;
(k) the manner in which the income of the previous year shall be determined;
(l) the determination of the amount of ad interim compensation;
(m) the manner in which and the period within which creditors may prefer their claims before the claims officer and the procedure to be followed in the disposal of such claims;
(n) the manner in which objections shall be submitted to the compensation officer and the procedure to be followed in the disposal of such objections;
(o) the manner of determining the commuted value of rents under section 145.
(p) the manner of preferring appeals under Chapters XI and XII;
(q) the manner of keeping in deposit the amount of compensation under section 155 and 157;
(r) the form and contents of bonds;
(s) the manner in which, and the circumstances under which bonds shall be transferable;
(t) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

PART V

Chapter XIII — Ceiling on Land Holdings

1 [Exemption — 162. The Provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to any land owned or held by the Central or the State Government or a local authority or Bhudan Yajna Committee or a Co-operative Bank or a bank.

Exemption — In this section the expression 'bank' shall have the same meaning as in section 109.]

2 [Definitions — 163. For the purpose of this Chapter —

(a) "ceiling limit" in relation to land means the limit fixed under section 164A;
(b) "family" in relation to a person shall be deemed to consist of —

(i) the person, the wife or husband as the case may be, minor sons, unmarried minor daughters, if any;
(ii) his unmarried adult son, if any, who does not hold any land;

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Fourth Amendment) Act, 1976, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
2. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
(iii) his married adult son, if any, where neither such adult son nor the wife nor any minor son or unmarried minor daughter of such adult son holds any land;

(iv) widow of his pre-deceased son, if any, where neither such widow nor any minor son or unmarried minor daughter of such widow holds any land;

(v) minor son or unmarried minor daughter, if any, of his pre-deceased son where the widow of such pre-deceased son is dead and any minor son or unmarried minor daughter of such pre-deceased son does not hold any land but shall not include any other person.

Explanation — For the purpose of this Chapter an adult unmarried person shall include a man or woman who has been divorced and who has not remarried thereafter:

Provided that where such divorced man or woman is the guardian of any minor son or unmarried minor daughter or both, he or she, together with such minor son or unmarried minor daughter, or both, shall be deemed to be separate family;] and

(c) "land" does not include land used for non-agricultural purposes.]

Ceilings on holdings

164. On and from the 24th January, 1971 no person shall, whether as a raiyat or as an under-raiyat or as a mortgagee in possession or otherwise or partly in one capacity and partly in another, hold in the aggregate any land in excess of the ceiling limit applicable to him under section 164A.

Ceiling limit. 164A.(1) The ceiling limit shall be—

(a) in the case of an adult unmarried person, two standard hectares;

(b) in the case of a person who is the sole surviving member of a family, two standard hectares;

(c) in the case of a person having a family consisting of two or

1. Inserted by the TLR & LR (Third Amendment) Act, 1975, w.e.f. 27.2.1975.
more but not more than five members, four standard hectares;
(d) in the case of a person having a family consisting of more than five members, four standard hectares plus 0.06 standard hectare for each member in excess of five, however, that the total ceiling limit for such a person shall not in any case exceed 7.20 standard hectares.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where in the family of a person there are more members than one, owing land, the ceiling limit for that person together with the ceiling limit of all members of the family, shall not in any case exceed —

(a) where the number of members of such family does not exceed five, four standard hectares;
(b) where such member exceeds five, four standard hectares plus 0.06 standard hectares for each member in excess of five, however, that the aggregate of the ceiling limit shall not in any case exceed 7.20 standard hectares.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2), all the lands owned individually by the members of the family or jointly by some or all of the members of the family shall be deemed to be owned by the members in the family.

(4) In determining the extent of land owned by a person having a family or the sole surviving member of a family or an adult unmarried person, the share of such person or sole surviving member or such adult unmarried person, as the case may be, in the lands owned by a co-operative society, company, cooperative farming society, a Hindu undivided family or a farm shall be taken into account.

Explanation — For the purposes of this sub-section, the share of a person having a family or the sole surviving member of a family or an adult unmarried person in the lands owned by a co-operative society, company, co-operative farming society, a Hindu undivided family or a farm shall be deemed to be the extent of land which could be allotted to him, had such lands been divided or partitioned as the case may be.

(5) The lands owned by a trust or endowment, other than a public nature, shall be deemed to be lands owned by the beneficiaries under the trust or endowment and each such beneficiary shall be deemed to be a person holding land under this Act to the extent of the share of his beneficial interest in the said trust or endowment.

(6) The ceiling limit for a co-operative society, company, co-operative farming society, a Hindu undivided family or a firm, as the case may be, shall not exceed the sum total of the ceiling limits of each member of such co-operative society, company, co-operative farming society, a Hindu undivided family or each partner of such firm.

Explanation - For the purpose of determining the ceiling limit of each member referred to in this sub-section, any land held separately by a person who is a member of a co-operative society, company, co-operative farming society or a Hindu undivided family or a partner of a firm shall be deducted from the ceiling limit referred to in sub-sections (1) to (5) so that the sum total of the area of land held by such person whether as such member or partner or individually or as a member of a family may not in any case exceed the ceiling limit applicable to him under these sub-sections.

Submission of returns. 165. Every person who on the 24th January, 1971 holds land in excess of the ceiling limit shall submit to the competent authority in the prescribed form and within such period as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette appoint, a return giving the particulars of all lands held by him and indicating therein the parcels of land not exceeding the ceiling limit which he desires to retain.

Penalty for non-submission of returns. 166. (1) Where a person required by section 165 to furnish a return —

(a) fails without reasonable cause to do so within the time specified in that section, or
(b) furnishes a return he knows or has reason to believe to be false; he shall be liable to pay a penalty which may extend, of the former case, to one hundred rupees, and in the latter case, to five hundred rupees.

(2) Where the competent authority has reason to believe that a person required by section 165 to furnish a return has, without reasonable cause, failed so to do or has submitted a return which he knows or has reason to believe to be false, the competent authority shall issue a notice calling upon such person to show cause within fifteen days of the service thereof why the penalty provided by sub-section (1) should not be imposed upon him. After the competent authority on considering the reply or other cause shown is satisfied that the person has without reasonable cause failed to submit the return within time or has submitted a return which he knows had reason to believe to be false, he may impose the penalty provided in the last preceding sub-section and require him to submit a true and correct return, complete in all particulars, within a period of one month from the date of the order.

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.

(3) If the person fails to comply with the order to submit return within the time so granted by the competent authority, then the competent authority may collect the necessary information through such agency as may be prescribed and the Collector shall take possession of the land in excess of his ceiling limit without offering him any further opportunity to exercise option in regard to the land to be retained by him.

167. (1) On receipt of any return under section 165 [or 166] the competent authority shall, after giving the persons affected an opportunity of being heard, hold an inquiry in such manner as may be prescribed, and having regard to the provisions of sections 168 to 168B and section 169 or of any rules that may be made in this behalf, it shall determine—

(a) the total area of land held by each person;
(b) the specific parcels of land which he may retain;
(c) the land held [or deemed to be held] by him in excess of the ceiling limit;
(d) whether such excess land is held by him as a raiyat or as an under-raiyat or as a mortgagee with possession;
(e) the excess land in respect of which the under-raiyat or the mortgagee with possession may acquire the rights of the raiyat or the mortgagor, as the case may be;
(f) the excess land which may be restored to a raiyat or a mortgagor,
(g) the excess land which shall vest in the Government; and
(h) such other matters as may be prescribed.

1. Substituted by TLR & LR(Second Amendment) Act, 1974. w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
2. Substituted ibid.
3. Substituted ibid.
(2) Omitted.

(3) The competent authority shall prepare a list in the prescribed form containing the particulars determined by him under sub-section (1) and shall cause every such list to be published in the Official Gazette and also in such other manner as may be prescribed.

168. No person who on or after the 24th January, 1971 holds land in excess of the ceiling limit shall, after the date of enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1974, transfer or partition any land until the land in excess of the ceiling limit is determined under this Act.

Explanation — In this section, "transfer" means transfer by act of parties (whether by sale, gift, mortgage with possession, exchange, lease or any other disposition) made inter-vivos; and "partition" means any division of land by act of parties made inter-vivos.

168A. No person shall at any time after the enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1974 acquire by transfer or partition any land if he already has in excess of the ceiling limit or land which, together with any other land already held by him, will exceed in the total, the ceiling limit.

Explanation — In this section, "transfer" and "partition" have the same meanings as in section 168.

168B.(1) (a) If any land is transferred or partitioned by a person, holding land in excess of the ceiling limit, after the 24th January, 1971 or in contravention of the provisions of section 168, except as otherwise provided in this sub-section, then in calculating the ceiling limit of land which that person is entitled to hold, the area so transferred or partitioned shall be taken into consideration, and land exceeding the ceiling limit so calculated be deemed to be in excess of ceiling limit notwithstanding that the land remaining with him may not in fact be in excess of the ceiling limit:

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974. w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
2. Substituted ibid.
Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to the bonafied transfer or partition of any land effected between the 24th January, 1971 and the date of enforcement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Revforms (Second Amendment) Ordinance, 1974 and that the onus of proving the bonafied nature of such transfer or partition shall be on the person who makes the transfer or, as the case may be, effects the partition, to be determined in the manner prescribed.

(b) If by reason of such transfer or partition the remaining land of the person is less than the area so calculated to be in excess of the ceiling limit, then his all such remaining land shall be estimated to be excess land; and out of the land so transferred or partitioned and in possession of his transferee unless such land is liable to forfeiture under the provisions of sub-section (3) land to the extent of such deficiency shall also be deemed to be excess land notwithstanding that the holding of the transferee may not in fact be in excess of the ceiling limit.

(c) Where the excess land is to be selected out of the lands of more than one transferee, such land should be selected out of the land held by such of the transferees in the same proportion the area of the land transferred to him bears to the total area of the lands transferred to all the transferees.

Explanation— For the purposes of sub-section (1), "transfer" and "partition" have the same meanings as in section 168.

(2) Notwithstanding anything here-'in before contained, the excess land to be selected in no case includes the homestead land of a person.

Explanation — For the purposes of this sub-section, "homestead land" means the land on which the homestead (whether used by the owner or let out on rent) stands together with any courtyard, tank, compound and attached garden, not exceeding 0.40 hectare in the aggregate.

(3) Where any land is acquired in wilful contravention of the provision of section 168A or is obtained by collusive proceedings in any court, then as a penalty therefor the right, title and interest of that person in the land shall, subject to the provisions of this Chapter, be forfeited and shall be deemed to be transferred to and shall vest without further assurance in the State Government.
168C. No suit shall be instituted in any civil court for specific performance of the contract for transfer or partition of any land mentioned in clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 168B except of the extent permitted by the proviso to that clause.

169. (1) Where any excess land of a raiyat is in his actual possession, the excess land shall vest in the Government.

(2) Where any excess land of a raiyat is in the possession of a person holding the same as an under-raiyat or as a mortgagee and the excess land together with any other land held by such person exceeds his ceiling limit, the land in excess of the ceiling limit shall vest in the Government.

(3) Where any excess land of a raiyat is in the possession of a person holding the same as an under-raiyat or as a mortgagee and such person is allowed to retain the excess land or a part thereof as being within his ceiling limit, that person shall acquire the rights of the raiyat or of the mortgagor, as the case may be, in respect of such excess land or part thereof on payment of compensation, if any, as hereinafter provided, but if that person refuses to pay such compensation, the excess land or part thereof shall vest in the Government.

(4) Where there is any excess land of an under-raiyat or of a mortgagee with possession, the excess land shall vest in the Government:

Provided that in any case where the excess land or any part thereof held by the raiyat or the mortgagor together with any other land held by such person does not exceed the ceiling limit, the excess land or such part thereof as does not exceed the ceiling limit shall be restored to the possession of that person on in application made by him in this behalf to the competent authority within such time as may be prescribed and in the case where the possession of such land is restored to the mortgagor, the mortgage in respect of such land shall be deemed to be a simple mortgage:

[Provided further that the land held by an individual or a member of a family, is the whole or part of the share of the land in a co-operative society, in excess of the ceiling limits applicable to a member of such a society within the meaning of sub-section (6) of section 164A shall, subject to the provisions of the said sub-section, be deemed to have been surrendered by him to such co-operative society and the land so surrendered, shall continue to remain in the possession of the co-operative society concerned who shall be entitled to reallocate such land, subject to the approval of the State Government and on payment of such compensation as may be fixed by the State Government, among its existing or future members, and the individual or, as the case may be, the member of the family whose land has been so surrendered shall get compensation as if the land so surrendered had vested in the Government.

170. (1) Any person aggrieved by an entry in the list published under sub-section (3) of section 167 may, within thirty days from the date of publication thereof in the Official Gazette, file objections thereto before the Collector.

(2) The Collector or any other officer authorised in this behalf by the State Government may, after considering the objections and after giving the objector or his representatives an opportunity of being heard in the matter, approve or modify the list.

(3) The list as approved or modified under sub-section (2) shall then be published in the Official Gazette and also in such other manner as may be prescribed and subject to the provisions of this Act, the list shall be final.

(4) With effect from the date of the publication of the list in the Official Gazette under sub-section (3) —

(a) the excess land shall stand transferred to and vest in the Government free of all encumbrances; or
(b) the possession of the excess land shall stand restored to the raiyat or the mortgagor, as the case may be; or
(c) the rights of the raiyat or the mortgagor in respect of the excess land shall transferred to the under-raiyat or the mortgagee, as the case may be.

171. "[(1) Where any excess land of a raiyat vests in Government, there shall be paid by the Government to the raiyat compensation, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), of an amount which shall be the multiples of

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Second Amendment) Act, 1974, w.e.f. 28.2.1974.
land revenue payable for such land in accordance with the following Table:—

Explanation — For the purposes of sub-section (1), the net annual income from any land shall be deemed to be one-fifth of the value of the average yearly gross produce of the land, calculated in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where such excess land or any part thereof is in the possession of an under-riyat, the compensation payable under sub-section (1) in respect of the land shall be apportioned between the raiyat and the under-riyat in such proportion as may be determined by the competent authority in the prescribed manner, having regard to their respective shares in the net income from such land.

(3) In addition to the compensation payable in respect of any excess land under sub-section (1), there shall also be paid compensation in respect of any structure or building constructed on such land and any trees planted thereon and such compensation shall be determined by the competent authority in the prescribed manner, having regard to the market value of such structure or building or the value of such trees, and such compensation shall be paid to the person who has constructed the structure or building or planted the trees.

(4) Where any excess land in respect of which compensation is payable is subject to any mortgage or other encumbrance, the amount due under the mortgage or other encumbrance in respect of such excess land, the consideration money paid by the transferee in respect of such excess land, shall be a charge on the compensation payable in respect of the excess land to the person who has created the mortgage or encumbrance or, as the case may be, to the transferor.

(5) Where an under-raiyat acquires the rights of a raiyat in respect of any excess land, the compensation payable by him irrespective of that land shall be equal to the amount which the raiyat would have been paid as compensation under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) if the land had vested in the Government; and the amount shall, in the first instance, be paid to the raiyat by the Government and shall be recovered from the under-raiyat in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) Where a mortgagee in possession acquires the rights of the mortgagor in respect of any excess land under sub-section (3) of section 169, the compensation payable by the mortgagee in respect of that land shall be such sum of money, if any, as be due to the mortgagor after setting off the mortgage debt against the market value of such excess land.

(7) Where any excess land of a religious or charitable institution vests in the Government, such institution shall, in lieu of compensation payable under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), or sub-section (3), be paid an annuity equal to the net annual income of the excess land and such net annual income shall be determined by the competent authority in the prescribed manner.

(8) The competent authority shall, after holding an inquiry in the prescribed manner, make an order determining the amount of compensation payable to any person under this section.

172. (1) The compensation payable under section 171 shall be due from the date of the publication of the list under sub-section (3) of section 170 and may be paid in cash, in a lump sum or in instalments, or in bonds.

(2) Where the compensation is payable in bonds, the bonds may be made not transferable or transferable by endorsement or in any other manner but all such bonds shall be redeemed within such period, not exceeding twenty years from the date of issue, as may be prescribed.
(3) Where there is any delay in the payment of compensation or where the compensation is paid either in instalments or in bonds, it shall carry interest at the rate of two and a half per cent, per annum from the date on which it falls due.

1[173. No person shall acquire in any manner whatsoever, whether by transfer or by succession or by testamentary disposition or by operation of law, any land where such acquisition has the effect of making the total area of the land held by him exceed the ceiling limit; and any such land in excess of the ceiling limit shall be treated as excess land of the transferee and the provisions of sections 167 to 172 shall, as far as may be, apply to such excess land.

Explanations - In this section, the word "transfer" has the same meaning as in section 168.]

Limit of future acquisition of land.

Excess land not to be surrendered in certain cases.

Power of Collector to take possession of excess land.

Offences and penalties.

174. Where a person representing a family holds land not exceeding the ceiling limit, but subsequently the land held exceeds the ceiling limit, then, notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, such person shall not be required to surrender any part of the land on the ground that it is excess land, if such excess is due to any improvements effected in the land by the efforts of the family or to a decrease in the number of its members.

175. After the publication of the list of excess land under sub-section (3) of section 170, and after demarcation in the prescribed manner of such land where necessary, the Collector may take possession of any excess land and may use or cause to be used such force as may be necessary for the purpose.

this behalf within three months from the commencement of this Act, exempt from the operation of section 164—

(a) any land which is being used for growing tea, coffee or rubber including lands used or required for use or purposes, ancillary to, or for the extension of, the cultivation of tea, coffee or rubber to be determined in the prescribed manner;

(b) [Omitted];

(c) [Omitted];

(d) [Omitted];

(e) any land which is being held by a co-operative society, provided that where a member of any such society holds a share in such land, his share shall be taken into account in determining his ceiling limit:

Provided that the State Government may entertain the application after the expiry of the said period of three months, if he is satisfied that the applicant was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application in time.

(2) Where any land in respect of which exemption has been granted to a person under clause (d) of sub-section (1) is transferred to another person, the State Government may, on an application made to him within three months from the date of the transfer, exempt the transferee from the operation of section 164 and section 173 and the provisions of the said clause shall, as far as may be, apply to the grant of such exemption.

(3) Where the State Government is of opinion that use of land for any specified purpose is expedient or necessary in the public interest, he may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make a declaration to that effect and on the issue of such notification, any person may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 173, acquire land in excess of the ceiling limit for being used for such specified purpose and such person shall, within one month from the date of such acquisition, send intimation thereof to the competent authority.

(4) Where any land in respect of which exemption has been granted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), ceases to be used,

Chapter XIV — Prevention of Fragmentation

Definitions. 179. For the purposes of this Chapter —

(a) "holding" means the aggregate area of land held by a person as a raiyat;
(b) "fragment" means a holding of less than [0.80 standard hectare] in area;
(c) "land has the same meaning as in Chapter XIII.

Restrictions on transfer etc. 180. (1) No portion of a holding shall be transferred by way of sale, exchange gift, bequest or mortgage with possession, so as to create a fragment:

Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply to a gift made in favour of the Bhoomidan movement initiated by Acharya Vinoba Bhave.

(2) No portion of a holding shall be transferred by way of lease, where as a result of such lease,—

(i) the lessor shall be left with less than [20.80 standard hectare] or
(ii) the total area held by the lessee exceeds the limit of a family holding.

(3) No fragment shall be transferred to a person who does not have some land under personal cultivation or to a person who holds, or by reason of such transfer shall hold, land in excess of the limit of a family holding.

Partition of holding. 181. (1) No holding shall be partitioned in such manner as to create a fragment.

(2) A fragment shall not be partitioned unless as a result of such partition its portions get merged in holding of [0.80 standard hectare] or more or in fragment so as to holding of [40.80 standard hectare] or more.

PART VI

Chapter XV — General And Miscellaneous

185. Without prejudice to any other provision of this Act, any amount due to the Government, whether by way of costs, penalty or otherwise, and other amount which is ordered to be paid to or recovered by the Government, under this Act shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue.

186. (1) After the commencement of this Act and before the vesting date referred to in sub-section (1) of section 134 —

(a) the provisions of sections 111 to 117 shall, so far as may be, apply to tenants and sub-tenants as defined in clause (d)) of section 133 ;

(b) no such tenant or sub-tenant shall surrender any land held by him as such and no person shall enter upon any such land unless such surrender is bona fide and is made with the previous permission in writing of the competent authority ;

(c) no such tenant or sub-tenant shall, whether in execution of a decree or order of court or otherwise, be evicted from any such land on any ground other than those specified in clauses (c) and (d) of sub-section (1) of section 118, and any proceeding for eviction of such tenant or sub-tenant on any ground other than those specified in the said clauses (c) and (d) pending at such commencement shall abate without prejudice to any action that may be taken under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Where, on or after the 10th day of August, 1957 and before the commencement of this Act, any such tenant or sub-tenant has surrendered any land held by him as such or been evicted from such land and the surrender or eviction could not have taken place if this Act had been in force on the date of such surrender or eviction, the competent authority may, either on his own motion or on application made by the tenant or sub-tenant in this behalf, restore him to possession of the land which has been surrendered or from which he has been evicted.
187. (1) No transfer of land belonging to a person who is a member of the Scheduled Tribes shall be valid unless —

(a) the transfer is to another member of the Scheduled Tribes; or

(b) where the transfer is to a person who is not a member of the Scheduled Tribes, it is made with the previous permission of the Collector in writing in the manner to be prescribed by rule, or

(c) the transfer is by way of mortgage to a Co-operative Society or to a Bank or the Tripura Housing Board, or to the Central or the State Govt. or any other financial institutions or Corporations as may be notified by the Govt. in the Official Gazette from time to time for the purpose.

Provided that the land so mortgaged in pursuance of Clause (c) shall not be transferred by such mortgagee to a person who is not a member of the Scheduled Tribes.

Explanation — In this sub-section, the expression, 'a bank' shall have the same meaning as in Section 109.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, but subject to the provision of Section 187A, no transfer of land belonging to a person who is a member of the Scheduled Tribes shall be valid unless made by a registered instrument.

(b) No transfer or instrument of transfer including a decree or order passed by any Court, Tribunal or Authority, made in contravention of sub-section (1) shall be registered or in any way recognised as valid in any Court, Tribunal or Authority.

(3) (a) No decree or order shall be passed by any Court, Tribunal or Authority in any case other than the cases as specified in clause (c) of sub-section (1) for the sale of the land or any portion thereof, of a person belonging to Scheduled Tribes.

1. Substituted by TLR & LR (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1994, w. e. f. 11.2.1996.

nor shall any such land be sold in execution of any decree or order.

(b) This sub-section shall come into force on such date as the State Government may by notification in the official Gazette appoint.

187A. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 187 or the Registration Act, 1908, it shall not be necessary to register the mortgage deed in respect of a mortgage of agricultural land executed by a member of the Scheduled Tribes in favour of the Government [(or a co-operative society or a bank)] for the purposes of securing the re-payment of any loan:

Provided that the Sub-divisional Officer shall send within thirty days of execution of the mortgage deed by messenger or by registered post with acknowledgement due a copy of the mortgage deed to the Registering Officer within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of the agricultural land is situate and the Registering Officer shall file such copy in Book No. 1 prescribed under section 51 of the Registration Act, 1908.]

3[Explanation — In this section the expression ‘a bank’ shall have the same meaning as in section 109.]

3[187B.(1) On or after the 1st January, 1969 —

(a) if a transfer of land belonging to a person who is a member of the Scheduled Tribes is made in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 187 to a person other than a member of the Scheduled Tribes, a Revenue Officer specially appointed for this purpose by a notification in the Official Gazette, and having local jurisdiction may, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, on its own motion or on an application made in that behalf, and after giving the transferee and the transferor an opportunity of being heard, by an order in writing evict such or any person claiming under him from such land or part thereof and shall restore the possession of the land to the transferee, or his successor in interest and for this purpose the Revenue Officer may use or cause to be used such force as may be considered necessary.

(b) if any land owned by person belonging to the Scheduled Tribes is occupied by any person who is not a member of the Scheduled Tribes without lawful authority, then the Revenue Officer in the same manner as provided in Clause (a) may restore the possession of such land to the person or successor in interest so dispossessed.

(c) if a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribes in occupation of Government land and eligible for allotment of such land under Section 14 of this Act, parts with possession or is dispossessed therefrom by a person not belonging to the Scheduled Tribes, then the Revenue Officer in the same manner as provided in Clause (a) may restore the possession of such land to the person, or his successor-in-interest as the case may be and refer to the competent authority under Section 14 of this Act for allotment of the land to such person.

Explanation — For the purpose of this sub-section, the successor-in-interest means heirs, transferee or assignee in accordance with law or custom as applicable.

1[(2) (a) If any person not being a member of the Scheduled Tribes occupies or possesses the land held by or in occupation of a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribes in any manner as specified in sub-section (1) after the commencement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1994 without any lawful authority he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years and also with a fine which may extend to three thousand rupees.

(b) This sub-section shall come into force on such date as the State Government may by notification in the official Gazette appoint.

1. Inserted by the the TLR & LR (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1994, w. e. f. 11.2.1996.
(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure 1973 every offence punishable under sub-section (2) shall be cognizable and nonbailable and wherever any person is arrested and detained in custody in pursuance of provision of this section, the officer-in-charge of the Police Station or Police Officer making the arrest shall forward the person to the Presiding Officer holding the Special Court of the jurisdiction and the provision of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 shall apply mutatis mutandis for summary trial.

(4) For the purpose of speedy trial of offence under this section, the State Government may, after consultation with the High Court by notification constitute as many Special Courts as may be considered necessary, each consisting of an Officer not below the rank of a Judicial Magistrate of the First Class.

(5) For the cases referred to in sub-section (2), the Revenue Officer immediately after restoration of land under sub-section (1) shall file a complaint in the Special Court constituted under sub-section (4) for action as provided, in sub-section (2).

(6) An appeal shall lie to the High Court from every order passed by a Special Court under this section within sixty days of the passing of such order.

187C. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the burden of proof for the purpose of Section 187B that the transfer of land was not made in contravention of sub-section (1) of Section 187 or occupation of land was not made without lawful authority shall lie on the transferee or occupier, as the case may be.

187D.(1) Where the possession of any land is restored to a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribes under any of the above provisions is re-transferred by the person belonging to Scheduled Tribes in contravention of section 187 and the Revenue Officer specially empowered has reasons to believe that the land holder belonging to Scheduled Tribes shall not be in a position to retain the land so re-transferred even after subsequent restoration, the Revenue Officer shall evict the person to whom the land was re-transferred and entrust the management of the same to a Committee as may be constituted by the State Government with the Scheduled Tribes members and Government Officials for a period of one year and if, after the expiry of this period, the Committee holds that the land holder belonging to the Scheduled Tribes shall not be in a position to retain the land if restored, then such land shall vest to the Government free from all encumbrances and the Collector shall allot the land to the eligible tribals of the area under such condition as may be prescribed.

(2) The manner of Constitution, conduct of business, powers and function of the Committee referred to in sub-section (1) shall be such as may be prescribed.

Explanation — For the purpose of Section 187, 187B, 187C and 187D, the word 'transfer' shall mean sale, mortgage, lease, exchange and gift as defined in Transfer of property Act, 1882 and include parting with fully or partly of ownership or possession of any land or any interest therein in any other manner whatsoever but shall not include the requisition and acquisition of land under any law for the time being in force.

Waiving of limitation.

187E. Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, a petition for restoration of possession of land by a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribes against a person not belonging to the Scheduled Tribes shall lie at any time.

Jurisdiction of Civil Court.

187F. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no suit for declaration of title over any land belonging to the Scheduled Tribes shall lie in a Civil Court and no Civil Court shall pass a decree or order by which title of land stands transferred from a person belonging to the Scheduled Tribes to a person not belonging to the Scheduled Tribes.

187G.(1) Whenever an offence under this Act has been committed after the commencement of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Sixth Amendment) Act, 1994 by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of, or was responsible to the company for the conduct of the business of, the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment under this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the defence has been committed with the consent or a connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation — For the purpose of this Section (a) "company' means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals ; and (b) "director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm".

188. No suit or other proceeding shall unless otherwise expressly provided in this Act, lie or be instituted in any civil court with respect to any matter arising under and provided for by this Act.

189. Save as otherwise provided, the provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, custom or usage or agreement or decree or order of court.

190. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Court-fees Act, 1970, every application, appeal or other proceeding under this Act shall bear a court fee stamp of such value as may be prescribed.

der this Act shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

192. 'Omitted.]

193. Whoever contravenes any provision of this Act for which no penalty has been otherwise provided for therein shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

194. No suit, prosecution or other proceeding shall lie —

(a) against any officer of the Government for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act ;
(b) against the Government for any damage caused or likely to be caused or any injury suffered or likely to be suffered by

195. The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette delegate to any officer or a authority subordinate to him any of the powers conferred on him or on any officer subordinate to him by this Act, other than the power to make rules, to be exercised subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified in the said notification.

196. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any provision of this Act, the Government may, as occasion requires, take any action not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act which may appear to it necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

197. Without prejudice to any power to make rules contained elsewhere in this Act, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules generally to carry out the purposes of this Act.

198. Every rule made under this Act, shall be laid as soon as may be after it is made before
[ the Legislative Assembly of Tripura ] while it is in session for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session or in two successive sessions, and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so laid
[ or the sessions aforesaid ] following,

[ the Assembly makes any modification in the rule or decides that the rule shall not be made, ] rule shall there-after have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything done under that rule.

199. (1) On and from the date on which any of the provisions of this Act are brought into force in any area in the State of Tripura, the enactments specified in the First Schedule or so much thereof as relate to the matters covered by the provisions so brought into force shall stand repealed in such area.

(2) The repeal of any enactment or part thereof by sub-section (1) shall not affect —

Government of Tripura

AN

to amend the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms Act, 1960.

Be it enacted by the Tripura Legislative Assembly in the Fifty Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

1. (1) This Act may called the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms (Ninth Amendment) Act, 2006.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. In Section 4 of the Tripura Land Revenue and Land Reforms Act, 1960 the existing provision shall be numbered as sub-section (1) and after sub-section (1) the following shall be inserted namely :-

"(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-section (1) of Section 4 above, the State Government if it thinks expedient to do so, may engage at any time private individuals to undertake any of the activities under this Act. In the event of such expediency the State Government, shall by notification in the official gazette, prescribe the conditions under which such engagement shall be made."
