By order,

Y.R. TRIPATHI,
Pramukh Sachiv.
STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The unequal status and unfair treatment of women who constitute nearly half of the population, is a matter of great concern. The State Government attaches much significance to their welfare, safety, protection and advancement in all walks of life and to ensure upliftment of their status in the society, it was decided to establish an independent commission to monitor matters relating to constitutional and legal safeguards provided to women and report and suggest to the State Government effective remedial measures.

Since the State Legislature was not in session and immediate legislative action was necessary to implement the aforesaid decision, the Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Women Ordinance, 2001 (U.P. Ordinance no. 17 of 2001) was promulgated by the Governor on August 16, 2001.

This Bill is introduced to replace the aforesaid Ordinance.
THE UTTAR PRADESH STATE COMMISSION FOR WOMEN (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2002

( U. P. ACT No. 6 of 2002 )

[As passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature]

AN

ACT

IT IS HEREBY enacted in the Fifty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Women (Amendment) Act, 2002.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on June 21, 2002.

2. In section 3 of the Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Women Act, 2001, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act, for sub-section (2) the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2) The Commission shall consist of the following women members nominated by the State Government—

(a) Chairperson who shall be a woman having made special contribution in the field of social service or women welfare;
(b) Seven members, out of which—

(i) two from amongst the general category;
(ii) two from amongst the Scheduled Castes;
(iii) two from amongst other backward classes of citizens:

No. 1659(2)/XVII-V-1-1(KA)-15-2002

Dated Lucknow, September 6, 2002

In pursuance of the provisions of clause (2) of Article 348 of the Constitution of India, the Governor is pleased to order the publication of the following English translation of the Uttar Pradesh Rajya Mahila Ayog (Sanghodhan) Adhiniyam, 2002 (Uttar Pradesh Adhiniyam Sanghaya 6 of 2002) as passed by the Uttar Pradesh Legislature and assented to by the Governor on September 5, 2002:—
(iv) one from amongst the Scheduled Tribes and if no suitable woman is available in this class then from any of the classes referred to in sub-clause (i) sub-clause (ii) or sub-clause (iii); and

(c) a Member-Secretary, who shall be a woman officer, not below the rank of Special Secretary to the State Government, who is a member of a Civil service of the State or of an All India Service or holds a civil post under the State with appropriate experience.

(3) The Chairperson and members nominated shall be women of ability, integrity and standing having a record of selfless service for the cause of justice to women."

3.(1) The Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Women (Amendment) Ordinance, 2002 is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done or any action taken under the provisions of the principal Act as amended by the Ordinance referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of principal Act as amended by this Act as if the provisions of this Act were in force at all material times.

By order,
A. B. SHUKLA,
Chairperson.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Women Act, 2001 has been enacted to establish a State Commission for Women and to provide for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. Section 3 of the said Act provides for the constitution of the said Commission. This section provided for the nomination of such women to the office of the Chairperson and members of the said Commission as were possessing a Degree of a University established by law in India or a qualification recognised as equivalent thereto. It was also provided in the said section that at least one member each should be nominated from amongst the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, other backward classes of citizens, minorities, Advocates and Police officers not below the rank of Superintendent of Police and that the Member-Secretary of the said Commission should be a woman officer not below the rank of Special Secretary to the State Government.

After examining the practical aspect it was decided to amend the said Act to provide for the omission of the provision regarding the degree of a University as the minimum qualification for nomination to the offices of the Chairperson as the members of the said Commission and empowering the State Government to nominate three members from amongst the general category, two members from amongst Scheduled Castes, one member from amongst backward classes of citizens and one member from amongst the Scheduled Tribes or any of the said categories so as to give due representation to all classes.

Since the State Legislature was not in session and immediate legislative action was necessary to implement the aforesaid decision, the Uttar Pradesh State Commission for Women (Amendment) Ordinance, 2002 (U.P. Ordinance no. 6 of 2002) was promulgated by the Governor on June 21, 2002.

Thereafter it was decided to provide for the nomination of two members from amongst the general category and two from amongst the backward classes of citizen instead of three members from amongst general category and one member from amongst the backward classes of citizen in the aforesaid Commission.

This Bill is introduced to replace the aforesaid Ordinance, with the aforesaid amendment.
