[1st April, 1976.]

An Act to provide for the regulation of certain incidents of tenancy in relation to Government premises in West Bengal.

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the regulation of certain incidents of tenancy in relation to Government premises in West Bengal and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto;

It is hereby enacted in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Republic of India, by the Legislature of West Bengal, as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) Act, 1976.

(2) It extends to the whole of West Bengal.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Appellate Authority" means any authority, superior in rank to the prescribed authority, appointed by the State Government in respect of a local area for the purpose of (the third proviso to clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 3 and) sub-section (2) of section 6C, and includes different such authorities for different local areas;

(b) "Government premises" means any premises which is owned by the State Government or by a Government undertaking but does not include the official residence of any person authorised to occupy any premises in consideration of the office which he holds under the State Government or a Government undertaking for the time being;

1For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see the Calcutta Gazette. Extraordinary, Part IV, of the 9th March, 1976, page 1216; for proceedings of the West Bengal Legislative Assembly, see the proceedings of the meeting of that Assembly held on the 18th March, 1976.

2Clause (1a) was added by s. 2 of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1993 (West Ben. Act XXX of 1993).

3The words, figures, letter and brackets were inserted by s. 2 of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1997 (West Ben. Act XXXV of 1997).
(b) "Government undertaking" means a body corporate constituted by or under a Central or State Act which is under the administrative control of the State Government or in which the State Government has exclusive proprietary interest;

(c) "premises" means any building or hut and includes part of a building or hut and a seat in a room, let separately, and also includes,—

(i) the gardens, grounds and out-houses, if any, appurtenant thereto,

(ii) any furniture supplied or any fittings or fixtures affixed for the use of the tenant in such building, hut or seat in a room, as the case may be;

(d) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(e) "prescribed authority" means an authority appointed by the State Government in respect of a local area, by notification in the Official Gazette, for carrying out the purposes of this Act and includes different such authorities for different local areas;

(f) "tenant" means any person by whom the rent of any premises is, or but for a special contract would be, payable and includes in the event of such person's death, such of his heirs as were ordinarily residing with him at the time of his death.

3. (1) Every tenancy held by a tenant in respect of a Government premises shall stand terminated upon the expiry of the period referred to in a notice to quit served upon such tenant in the prescribed manner.

(2) A tenancy in respect of a Government premises shall stand automatically terminated without any notice to quit where the tenant has,—
(Section 3.)

1.(a) subsequently built a house or acquired (by purchase, gift, inheritance, lease, exchange or otherwise) a house or an apartment, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family, within a reasonable distance from such Government premises.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section and section 3A,—

(a) “apartment” shall have the same meaning as in the West Bengal Apartment Ownership Act, 1972; Act XV of 1976.

(b) “family” shall include parents and other relations of the tenant who ordinarily reside with him and are dependant on him;

(c) “reasonable distance” shall mean any distance not exceeding twenty-five kilometres, or

(ii) made default in payment of rent for three consecutive months:

Provided that where the tenancy has terminated on account of default in payment of rent for three consecutive months the prescribed authority may, upon application made by the tenant within such time as may be prescribed and upon deposit of all the arrears of rent together with interest at the prescribed rate, grant renewal of the tenancy in favour of the tenant:

Provided further that the prescribed authority may, on sufficient cause being shown, grant renewal of the tenancy in favour of the tenant on deposit of fifty per cent. of the arrears of rent along with the application for renewal of tenancy and direct the tenant to deposit the balance of the arrears of rent with interest on the entire amount at the prescribed rate in twelve monthly instalments commencing from the month following the month of such renewal of tenancy, and if the tenant fails to deposit any such instalment the tenancy so renewed shall stand automatically terminated:

*1*Provided further that the prescribed authority may, if it is satisfied that the tenant has failed to pay rent due to circumstances beyond his control and is not in a position

1This clause was substituted for the previous clause (ia) by s. 2 of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Second Amendment) Act, 1980 (West Ben. Act XLVI of 1980). Prior to this substitution clause (ia) was inserted by s. 2(2) of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1980 (West Ben. Act VIII of 1980).

2This proviso was inserted by s. 2(b) of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1980 (West Ben. Act VIII of 1980).

*3*This further proviso was perhaps added here on account of clerical mistake made, through inadvertence, in the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1980 (West Ben. Act VIII of 1980) or an omission of an Act not passed.
(Section 3.)

1. to deposit fifty per cent. of the arrears of rent along with the application for renewal of tenancy, grant renewal of the tenancy in favour of the tenant on deposit of twenty-five per cent. of the arrears of rent along with the application for renewal of tenancy and direct the tenant to deposit the balance of the arrears of rent with interest on the entire amount at the prescribed rate in such number of monthly instalments, not less than twelve and not more than thirty-six, as the prescribed authority may consider reasonable, commencing from the month following the month of such renewal of tenancy, and if the tenant fails to deposit any such instalment, the tenancy so renewed shall stand automatically terminated:

Provided also that notwithstanding the termination of the tenancy the State Government or the Government undertaking, as the case may be, shall be entitled to recover all arrears of rent for the period for which the tenancy subsisted and mesne profits thereafter for so long as the tenant remained in occupation of the premises.

2. (a) Where any Government premises allotted to a tenant remains under lock and key for a period of more than three consecutive months or where the tenant or any member of his family is not ordinarily resident of such Government premises, the tenancy in respect of such Government premises shall stand automatically terminated:

Provided that if the prescribed authority is satisfied that the circumstances, under which such Government premises remains under lock and key for more than three consecutive months or the tenant or any member by his family is not ordinarily a resident of such Government premises, are beyond the control of the tenant, it may allow the tenancy to subsist:

Provided further that the prescribed authority shall give the tenant a notice and an opportunity of being heard before such termination:

Provided also that an appeal shall lie to the Appellate Authority against an order determining non-occupation for a period of three consecutive months or non-residence by the tenant or any member of his family under the above provisos within fifteen days from the date of the order passed by the prescribed authority and, in such case, the decision of the Appellate Authority shall be final.

1. Sub-section (3) was inserted by s. 2 of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1994 (West Ben. Act LIV of 1994).

2. These two provisos were inserted by s. 1 of the West Bengal Government Premises

XIX of 1976.)

6A. Where any person, not being a tenant, occupies, or remains in occupation of, any Government premises without the written order of the prescribed authority,—

(a) the prescribed authority, or any officer authorised by it in this behalf, may take such steps and use such force as may be necessary to take possession of the premises and may also enter into the premises for the said purpose; and

(b) such person shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees, or with both.

6B. An offence punishable under section 5 or clause (b) of section 6A shall be cognizable.

6C. (1) Where any damage beyond normal wear and tear has been caused to any Government premises the possession of which has been taken from a tenant under the provisions of section 4, or where any damage has been caused to any Government premises the possession of which has been taken under the provisions of section 6A, such tenant or such person, as the case may be, shall be liable to pay for the repair of such damage such compensation, not exceeding the cost of repair, as may be determined, by order, by the prescribed authority, after giving the tenant or the person, as the case may be, an opportunity of being heard.

(2) An appeal shall lie to the Appellate Authority against an order determining compensation under sub-section (1) within fifteen days from the date of the order.

Sections 6A, 6B, 6C and 6D were inserted by s. 3 of the West Bengal Government Premises (Tenancy Regulation) (Amendment) Act, 1985 (West Ben. Act XXX of 1985).
(3) The decision of the Appellate Authority shall be final.

6D. The amount of compensation determined under section 6C by the prescribed authority or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall be payable by the tenant or the person, as the case may be, liable to pay such compensation, within thirty days from the date of the order.

7. Any claim for arrears of rent or for mesne profits [or for compensation] under this Act shall, if not duly paid, be recoverable as a public demand under the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, 1913.

8. (1) The State Government or the Government undertaking may appoint such officers and employees for carrying out the purposes of this Act as the State Government or the Government undertaking may deem fit.

(2) The prescribed authority may delegate, subject to such conditions as the State Government may think fit to impose, to any officer appointed under sub-section (1) any of its powers under this Act.

9. The prescribed authority [i.e., the Appellate Authority] and the officers and other employees authorised to carry out any of the purposes of this Act shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

10. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding whatsoever shall lie against any person for anything in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

11. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may make such order or do such thing, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appears to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

12. (1) The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, or in any contract, express or implied, or in any custom or usage to the contrary.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, the West Bengal Public Land (Eviction of Unauthorised Occupants) Act, 1962 shall not be applicable to any premises to which this Act applies.
