CHAPTER IV.

Primary Education and its implementation.

9. (1) Any local authority, if called upon by the Government so to do, shall within such time as may be specified by the Government submit to them a scheme for compulsory primary education in such area within its jurisdiction for children ordinarily resident therein, of such ages and upto such standard as the Government may specify. Schemes for primary education.

(2) In the case of the municipal corporations and the municipalities, the Government may call on them to submit a scheme for compulsory primary education in those areas for children ordinarily resident therein of such ages and upto such standard as the Government may specify.

(3) The scheme submitted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be in such form as the Government may specify and shall contain the following particulars, namely:—

(a) the area in which primary education will be compulsory;

(b) the approximate number of children to whom the scheme will apply classified according to age and mother-tongue;

(c) a list of existing approved schools and the schools, if any, proposed to be opened for the purpose, classified by languages in which instruction is given or is proposed to be given;

(d) the number of teachers already employed and the additional staff proposed to be recruited;

(e) the recurring and non-recurring cost of the scheme; and

(f) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) The Government may, after such inquiry as they may consider necessary, sanction with or without modifications the scheme submitted by the local authority under sub-sections (1) and (2). The implementation of the scheme so sanctioned, shall be subject to the general control of and the directions issued from time to time, by the Government.

(5) No sanction shall be accorded under sub-section (4) in respect of any scheme unless the Government are satisfied that such steps, as may be prescribed, have been taken to provide the necessary facilities for imparting compulsory primary education to all children to whom the scheme will apply.

(6) On receipt of sanction under sub-section (4), the local authority shall give effect to the scheme so sanctioned, by means of a declaration that, with effect from the first day of the next academic year, primary education for children of both sexes upto such class or standard and within such age-group as may be specified therein shall be compulsory in any area which may be so specified.

(7) Every declaration under sub-section (6) shall be published before the first day of April of each year immediately preceding the academic year, in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette and in such other manner as the local authority or the Director, as the case may be, may decide;

Provided that the Government may, for any good and sufficient cause, condone any delay in the publication of such declaration in any year.

(8) Where any local authority fails to submit a scheme when called upon to do so under sub-section (1) or to give effect to any sanctioned scheme under sub-section (6) to the satisfaction of the Government the Government may cause the scheme to be submitted or the sanctioned scheme to be implemented, as the case may be, by such person or authority as they think fit. The Government may at any time entrust the administration of the sanctioned scheme to the local authority concerned.

Attendance
authorities and their powers and functions.

10. (1) The local authority in the cases mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 9, may appoint as many persons as it thinks fit to be attendance authorities for the purpose of this Act, and may also appoint as many persons as it considers necessary to assist the attendance authorities in the discharge of their duties.

(2) It shall be the duty of the local authority to cause to be prepared as early as possible after the publication of a declaration under sub-section (6) of section 9 and in such manner as may be prescribed, a list of children in any specified area. Such lists shall also be prepared annually in every specified area at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The attendance authority or any person appointed to assist the attendance authority may put such questions to any guardian or require any guardian to furnish such information about his child, as it or he considers necessary and every such guardian shall be bound to answer such questions or to furnish such information, as the case may be to the best of his knowledge or belief.

Responsibility of guardian to cause his child to attend school.

11. It shall be the duty of the guardian of every child to cause the child to attend an approved school unless there is a reasonable cause for his non-attendance within the meaning of section 12.

Reasonable cause for non-attendance.

12. (1) For the purposes of this Act, any of the following circumstances shall be deemed to be a reasonable cause for the non-attendance of a child at an approved school:—

(a) that there is no approved school within the prescribed distance from his residence.

(b) that the only approved school within the prescribed distance from the residence of the child to which the child can secure admission is one in which religious instruction of a nature not approved by his guardian is compulsory;

(c) that the child is receiving instruction in some other manner which is declared to be satisfactory by the Government or by an officer authorised by them in this behalf;

(d) that the child has already completed primary education upto the class or standard specified in the declaration under sub-section (6) of section 9;

(e) that the child suffers from a physical or mental defect which prevents him from attendance;

(f) that the child has been granted temporary leave of absence by the prescribed authority, local authority or by any other person authorised by any such authority in this behalf, for sickness or other prescribed reason;

(g) that there is any other compelling circumstance which prevents the child from attending school, provided the same is certified as such by the attendance authority.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in clause (e) of sub-section (1), the attendance authority may, if it is satisfied that, in relation to a child suffering from a physical or mental defect in any specified area, there is a special school within the prescribed distance from the residence of the child to which it could be sent, and that nothing in clause (b) or clause (c) applies in relation to such child, it may, by order require the child to attend the special school, and sub-section (1) shall have effect in relation to such child as if clauses (f) and (g) were the only provisions applicable.

Attendance
orders.

13. (1) Whenever the attendance authority has reason to believe that the guardian of a child has failed to cause the child to attend an approved school and that there is no reasonable cause for the non-attendance of the child within the meaning of section 12, it shall hold an inquiry in the prescribed manner.

(2) If as a result of the inquiry the attendance authority is satisfied that the child is liable to attend an approved school under this Act and that there is no reasonable cause for his non-attendance within the meaning of section 12 it shall pass an attendance order in the prescribed form directing the guardian to cause the child to attend the approved school with effect from the date specified in the order.

(3) An attendance order passed against a guardian in respect of his child under this section shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (6), remain in force for so long as this Act continues to apply to the child.

(4) If any guardian against whom an attendance order has been passed in respect of his child under sub-section (2) transfers the custody of the child to another person during the period in which the attendance order is in force, such guardian shall be bound to immediately inform the attendance authority in writing of such transfer.

(5) Where an attendance order has been passed against a guardian in respect of his child under this section, such order shall have effect in relation to every other person to whom the custody of the child may be transferred during the period in which the attendance order is in force as it has effect in relation to the person against whom it was originally passed.

(6) A guardian may, at any time, apply to the attendance authority for cancellation of an attendance order on the ground,—

(i) that he is no longer the guardian in respect of the child, or

(ii) that circumstances have arisen which provide a reasonable cause for non-attendance; and thereupon the attendance authority may, after holding an inquiry in the prescribed manner, cancel or modify the attendance order.

14. No person shall employ a child in a manner which shall prevent the child from attending an approved school.

Children not to be employed so as to prevent them from attending to school.

15. (1) When a declaration under sub-section (6) of section 9 has been made in respect of any area, no fee shall be levied in respect of any child for attending an approved school which is under the management of the Government or a local authority in that area.

Primary education to be free.

(2) Fees may be levied from any such child at any other school situated within that area:

Provided that where within one kilometer of such school or such other distance therefrom as may be prescribed, there is no other approved school, such number of free places as may be fixed by the local authority shall be reserved in such school or in any educational institution receiving aid out of State funds.

16. (1) The age of a child, for the purpose of this Act shall be computed in terms of years completed by the child on or before the first day of the academic year.

(2) Where the birthday of a child falls on a day not later than the first day of September each year, the birthday shall be deemed to fall on the first day of the academic year for the purposes of computing the age of the child under sub-section (1).

CHAPTER V.

Examinations.

Examinations.

17. (1) The examination system, whether by internal assessment, external assessment or partly internal and partly external assessment, shall be so regulated by the competent authority as to make it a reliable and effective method of student evaluation.

(2) The Government may make rules for all matters connected with the implementation of examination system and the conduct of examinations.

(d) employs or continues to employ any teacher, whose certificate has been cancelled or suspended by the competent authority after due enquiry or who has been considered by the competent authority after due enquiry to be unfit or undesirable to be a teacher or arbitrarily removes a teacher or fails to comply with the orders of the competent authority in this regard;

(e) fails to remedy the defects in the instructions or accommodation or deficiencies in the management or discipline within such time as may be specified therefor by the competent authority;

(f) contravenes any of the provisions of this Act and the rules and orders made thereunder;

the competent authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw the recognition of the institution or take such other action as is deemed necessary after giving to the manager an opportunity of making his representation against such withdrawal or action.

(3) Where the Government are of opinion that the recognition granted to any local authority educational institutio^s or private educational institution should, in the public interest, be withdrawn, they may, after giving one month's notice to the manager of such institution to make any representation, withdraw, by notification, the recognition granted to the said institution.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in any other law for the time being in force, on educational institution which has not been recognised or the recognition of which has been withdrawn under this Act shall be entitled—

(a) to receive any grant-in-aid from the State funds or other financial assistance from he Government;

(b) to send up candidates for examinations in courses of study conducted under this Act.

Special provision in respect of existing institution

22. (1) All the institutions imparting education which were established and recognised in accordance with rules inforce immediately before the commencement of this Act and in existence at such commencement shall be deemed to be educational institutions, established and recognised under this Act, provided they comply with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder within such period and in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed.

(2) Any private institution imparting education which is in existence at the commencement of this Act but which has not been recognised in accordance with the rules in force immediately before such commencement, shall discontinue to import education from such commencement unless within thirty days of such com-mentement an application for recognition is made in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder and every such application shall be deposited within sixty days of its receipt by the competent authority. No person shall run any such institution after the application for recognition is rejected.

(3) Any person who in contravention of subsection (2) runs any such unrecognised institution shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

23. (1) It shall be the responsibility of the manager of local authority institution to comply with all the provisions of this Act and the rules or orders made thereunder.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, it shall be the duty of the manager of the local authority institution,—

(a) to ensure that all monies collected by or granted or allotted to the local authority by or under this Act are expended for educational purposes, and

(b) to submit every year before such date and to such authority as may be prescribed an annual report relating to the administration of the local authority institution and an annual budget estimate relating thereto.

24. (1) The management of every private institution shall be constituted in such manner and shall consist of such number of members as may be prescribed:

Provided that the board of trustees, or governing Body of Wakf Board, by whatever name called, constituted or appointed under any other law for the time being in force relating to the charitable and religious institutions and endowments and wakfs, shall be deemed to be a management constituted under this sub-section.

(2) The management shall, for the purposes of this Act, nominate a person to manage the affairs of the institution, whether called by the name of secretary, correspondent or by any other name, and intimate such nomination within thirty days thereof to the competent authority.

(3) (a) Where the competent authority is satisfied that the management is responsible for the lapses or regularities of the institution, the competent authority may, after giving to such management an opportunity to make representation and for reasons to be recorded in writing, suspend the management and appoint a special officer till the reconstitution of the management:

Provided that in relation to a private institution under the management of a charitable or religious institution, charitable or religious endowment and a wakf, the competent authority shall be the Government or an authority or officer authorised by the Government in this behalf.

(b) Where the competent authority is satisfied that the manager alone is responsible for the lapses or irregularities of the institution, action shall be taken against him by the management, as recommended by the competent authority.

(4) The competent authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, declare a person to be unfit to be the manager of a private institution after giving to such person an opportunity of making his representation against such declaration and under intimation to the management and on such declaration, the person aforesaid shall cease to be the manager of the private institution and the management of such institution shall nominate another person as a manager in his place in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

(5) Sub-section (1), (3) and (4) and the rules framed thereunder shall apply to a minority educational institution, in so far as they are not repugnant to clause (1) of article 30 of the Constitution of India.

(6) For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that any failure or wilful negligence on the part of a management to take action against the manager as required under clause (b) of sub-section (3) or to nominate another person as manager under sub-section (4) shall constitute an act of mismanagement and action shall be taken against the private institution under this Act accordingly.

25. (1) The manager nominated under section 24 shall be responsible for managing and conducting the affairs of the private institution in accordance with the provisions of this Act and rules or orders made thereunder and for maintaining the properties thereof in proper and good condition.

CHAPTER VII

Education funds of local authorities.

34. In this Chapter, the expression "local authority" does not include a gram panchayat.

35. (1) There shall be constituted for each local authority an education fund, to which shall be credited,— Definitions.

Education fund of local authority.

(a) an annual contribution from the general funds of such local authority not being less than a minimum fixed by the Government in that behalf;

(b) all sums granted to such local authority by the Government for the purpose of providing educational facilities within its jurisdiction;

(c) all fines and penalties levied within the jurisdiction of such local authority under the provisions of this Act;

(d) all income derived from any endowment or other property owned or managed by such local authority for the benefit of education;

(e) all tuition fees, if any, collected in educational institutions managed by such local authority;

(f) all other sums of money which may be contributed to or received by, such local authority for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in any other law for the time being in force, the education fund constituted under this section shall be kept separately and shall not be merged with the general revenues of the local authority concerned and it shall be used exclusively for purposes of education.

Education fund where to be deposited and how to be drawn upon.

36. (1) The education fund constituted under section 35 shall be deposited in Government treasury.

(2) All expenses incurred on education by the local authority concerned shall be paid out of the said fund.

(3) All orders or cheques to be drawn upon the fund shall be signed by the chief executive officer of the local authority or by such person as he may authorise in writing to sign on his behalf.

(4) So far as the funds to the credit of the local authority concerned permit, the treasury shall pay—

(a) all orders or cheques signed in accordance with sub-section (3);

(b) all payments made or expenses incurred by the Government on behalf of the local authority by or under the provisions of this Act, provided that the local authority has given previous permission in writing to the treasury to debit such expenses to the fund without the issue of any order or cheque.

37. (1) Any municipal council may, with the previous sanction of the Government and shall, if so directed by them, levy within its jurisdiction, taxes for the purposes of this Act, at such rates as may be considered necessary, as an addition to the taxation levied in the municipality under the Andhra Pradesh Municipalities Act, 1965, under the head of property tax or profession tax or under both these heads.

Levy of taxes.

A. P. Act
6 of 1965.

Explanation.—In construing the expression “taxation levied” occurring in this sub-section, exemptions granted under sub-section (2), sub-section (3), sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) of section 88 of the Andhra Pradesh Municipalities Act, 1965, shall not be taken into account.

A. P. Act
6 of 1965.

(2) Any gram panchayat may, with the previous sanction of the Government and shall, if so directed by them, levy within the area under its jurisdiction or part thereof, taxes for the purposes of this Act, at such rates as may be considered necessary, as an addition to the taxation levied in such area or part under the law for the time being in force governing gram panchayats under all or any of the following heads, namely, land cess or local cess, profession tax and house tax.

38. (1) The rates of levy of any tax under section 37 shall be determined—

Rate of levy
of taxes
under section 37.

(a) by the municipal council or gram panchayat with the previous sanction of the Government, in case the tax is levied by it of its own motion; and

(b) by the Government, in case the tax is levied at their direction:

Provided that rates of any such tax levied as addition to the taxation under the head of profession tax, shall be subject to the limits specified in any law.

for the time being in force governing the municipalities or gram panchayats, as the case may be, or prescribed by rules made under this Act:

Provided further that the rates of any such tax levied by municipal council or gram panchayat as an addition to the taxation under the head of property tax shall not exceed five percentum per annum in the case of properties taxed on their annual rental value, one fourth per centum per annum in the case of properties taxed on their capital value and four rupees per annum for every three hundred square meters or part thereof in the case of properties taxed on their extent:

Provided also that the rates of any such tax levied by a gram panchayat as an addition to the taxation under the head of land cess or local cess shall not exceed thirty seven paise in the rupee of the annual rental value of the land.

(2) The municipal council or gram panchayat may, with the previous sanction of the Government, and shall if so directed by them, alter the rates of levy of any such tax.

Assessment and realisation
of taxes.

39. (1) Every tax levied in any area under any head of taxation mentioned in section 37 shall be deemed to be an addition to a tax levied under the same head in such area under the law for the time being in force governing the municipalities or gram panchayats, as the case may be, and all the provisions of such law relating to the incidence, assessment or realisation of such tax or in any manner connected therewith shall be applicable accordingly:

Provided that the Government may direct that the said provisions shall apply subject to such modifications and restrictions, as may be prescribed.

(2) In particular, any such tax levied in any area within the jurisdiction of a gram panchayat under any head of taxation, other than land cess or local cess shall be realised by such authority as may be prescribed as an addition to a tax levied under the same head under the law for the time being in force governing gram panchayats. Out of the proceeds of the tax so realised, such percentage as may be prescribed shall be deducted towards the collection charges and the balance shall be paid by such authority into the Government treasury.

40. (1) On or before the prescribed date, every local authority for which an education fund has been constituted under section 35 shall submit to the Government through the Director in such form as may be prescribed a budget for the ensuing financial year showing the income and expenditure relating to such fund. Budget of education fund.

(2) The Government may pass such orders as they think fit in respect of the budget and the local authority concerned shall carry out such orders.

41. The accounts of the education fund of each local authority shall be examined and audited by such officer as may be appointed by the Government and the local authority concerned shall carry out any instructions which the Government may issue on the audit report. Audit of accounts of education fund.

CHAPTER VIII.

Grant-in-Aid

42. The Government shall, within the limits of its economic capacity, set apart a sum of money annually for being given as grant-in-aid (hereinafter in this Act referred to as grant) to local authority institutions and private institutions in the State, recognised for this purpose in accordance with rules made in this behalf. Government to set apart sum for giving grant-in-aid to certain recognised institutions.

Authorities
which may sanction
grant.

* 43. (1) The Government may in such cases as they think fit, by order, sanction grant to any recognised local authority educational institution or private educational institution subject to such conditions as they may impose in the order relating to such grant.

(2) Every grant sanctioned under sub-section (1) shall be disbursed by the Director or such other officer subordinate to the Director as the Government may, by a general or special order, authorise in this behalf, in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The manager of every recognised institution which is receiving any grant out of State funds shall be responsible for the fulfilment of all the conditions subject to which such grant has been given.

Monies received from sources other than grant.

44. (1) Any money received by way of voluntary donation from donors may be accepted by the institution and the fact shall be intimated within forty days from the date of such acceptance to the competent authority. Such money shall be deposited in the account of the institution, in such bank as may be approved by the Government and shall be applied and expended for the improvement of the institution and the development of educational facilities and for such other purposes as may be prescribed.

(2) No money shall be collected at the time of admission by any educational institution as a condition precedent to such admission except towards the prescribed fees. Where any institution is found to be collecting such money, every person, who, at the time of such collection was incharge of, and was responsible to the institution for the management of the institution shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

with both. On such conviction, the institution shall refund the money so collected to the party from whom it was collected.

45. (1) Every application for the sanction of grant shall be made to the Government, in such form as may be prescribed and shall contain a declaration signed by the manager of the recognised institution to the effect that the conditions of recognition and of grant are being and shall continue to be fully observed, that all facilities for inspection of that institution, its accounts, registers and other records relating to the grant shall be afforded to the inspecting staff deputed for the purpose and that all the returns and reports prescribed in this behalf shall be submitted to the competent authority within the time specified by it.

Application for sanction of grant and the conditions to be fulfilled on such sanction.

(2) The Government may sanction such grant or for good and sufficient reasons may refuse to sanction such grant.

(3) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, any order passed by the Government refusing to sanction the grant shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law.

46. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Chapter, the Government may, after such enquiry as they may deem fit, withhold, reduce or withdraw any grant payable to an educational institution having regard to the funds at the disposal of the Government or the conduct and efficiency and the financial condition of such institution, after giving an opportunity to the manager of the institution concerned of making a representation against such withholding, reduction or withdrawal.

Power of Government to withhold, reduce or withdraw grant.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1) or any other provision of this Act, the Government may, after such enquiry as they may deem fit, withhold, reduce or withdraw any grant payable to any educational institution if the manager of the institution concerned,—

(i) fails to fulfil all or any of the conditions of grant;

(ii) denies admission to any citizen on grounds only of religion, race, caste, language or any of them;

(iii) allows any employee of the institution to take part in any agitation intended to bring or attempt to bring into hatred or contempt, or intended to excite or attempt to excite disaffection towards, the Government established by law in India;

(iv) directly or indirectly, encourages any propaganda or practice of wounding the religious feelings of any class of citizens of India or insulting the religion or the religious beliefs of that class ;

(v) is guilty of falsification of registers, of misuse of funds for purposes other than those for which they are collected;

(vi) fails to remedy within such reasonable time as may be specified by the competent authority, the defects in the maintenance of accounts pointed out by the auditors; or

(vii) fails to restore, within the time specified by the competent authority, an employee whose services have been wrongfully dispensed with or fails to pay him any arrears of salary or other benefits when directed to do so by the competent authority.

(3) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, every order passed under this section shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law.

47. (1) All the monies collected, grants received and other movable property held by, or on behalf of a private institution shall be utilised for the purposes for which they are intended, and shall be accounted for by the manager in such manner as may be prescribed.

Utilisation of funds and movable property of private institutions.

(2) All the monies received or held by or on behalf of every private institution shall be deposited in a Bank.

(3) The surplus fund of every such institution shall be invested in such manner as may be prescribed and shall be utilised towards educational development only.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section “surplus fund” means all the monies that remain unused with the institution at the beginning of each academic year, after providing for all the objects, needs requirements or improvements of the institution during the previous three academic years.

CHAPTER IX

Accounts, Audit, Inspection and Returns.

48. Every educational institution receiving grants out of State funds and other sources shall maintain accounts in such manner and containing such particulars as may be prescribed.

Accounts.

49. (1) The accounts of every educational institution receiving grants out of State funds shall be audited at the end of every academic year in such manner, after following such procedure and by such authority, officer or person as may be prescribed and different authorities, officers or persons may be prescribed for different classes of educational institutions.

Annual audit of accounts.

(2) (a) The prescribed authority, officer or person shall have full access to the account books and other documents required to be maintained by the educational institution in respect of grants received by it out of State funds and shall send a copy of the report on the audit of the accounts under sub-section (1) to the competent authority which shall forward the report to the educational agency.

(b) The educational agency shall, within such time as may be prescribed, submit that report together with the comments of that agency to the competent authority.

Inspection or inquiry.

50. (1) The competent authority shall have the right to cause an inspection of, or inquiry in respect of, any educational institution, its accounts, its buildings, laboratories, libraries, workshops and equipment and also of the examinations teaching and other work conducted or done by the institution to be made by such person or persons as it may direct and to cause an inquiry to be made in respect of any other matter connected with the institution and the educational agency shall be entitled to be represented thereat.

(2) The competent authority shall communicate to the educational agency the views of that authority with reference to the result of such inspection or inquiry and may after ascertaining the opinion of the educational agency thereon, advise that agency upon the action to be taken.

(3) The educational agency shall report to the competent authority the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken or has been taken upon the results of such inspection or inquiry. Such report shall be furnished within such time as the competent authority may direct.

(4) Where the educational agency does not, within a reasonable time, take action to the satisfaction of the competent authority, that authority may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the educational agency, issue such directions as that authority deems fit; and the educational agency and the head of the institution shall comply with such directions and shall be responsible for the implementation of every such direction.

51. Every educational agency shall within such time or within such extended time as may be fixed by the competent authority in this behalf, furnish to the competent authority such returns, statistics and other information as the competent authority may, from time to time, require.

Furnishing of returns, etc.

lands and buildings by educational institutions without the permission from Government in certain cases.

(b) any land or building has been transferred by the Government for use for the purposes of any educational institution, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force or in any deed of transfer or other document relating to the land or building, it shall not be transferred without permission of the Government under sub-section (2); nor shall the land or building be used for any purpose other than the purposes of the educational institution or purposes ancillary thereto, without the permission of the Government.

(2) The Government may, by order in writing permit the transfer of any such land or building subject to such conditions as they may impose, if—

(i) the transfer is made in furtherance of the purposes of the educational institution or of ancillary purposes approved by the Government, and the proceeds of such transfer are to be wholly utilised in furtherance of the said purposes;

(ii) the transfer is made only in part in furtherance of the purposes aforesaid, provided repayment is made to the Government of such portion as the Government may direct in the circumstances of the case, of the grant referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1) or of the current market value of the land or building referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) or of both, as the case may be;

(iii) the transfer is made for any other valid reason, provided repayment is made to the Government in full of the grant referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (1), or of the current market value of the land or building referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (1) or of both, as the case may be.

(3) Any transfer of land or building made without obtaining the permission of the Government under sub-section (2) shall be null and void.

54. Where, in any case, the Government, after giving the manager of the educational institution concerned an opportunity to make his representation in regard to the matter, are satisfied that the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 53 have been contravened in respect of any land or building, they may, by order,—

Consequence of breach of provisions of section 53.

(a) if the land or the land together with the building standing thereon belonged to the Government and was transferred by them for the purposes of the educational institution, direct the Collector to take possession of the land or land together with the building standing thereon, as the case may be, or at their option, direct the manager to pay to them in full, the current market value of the land or of the land together with that of the building where it was also transferred by them and also the amount of the grant, if any, made by the Government for improving the land or altering or constructing the building;

(b) if the land or the building, if any, standing thereon does not belong to the Government, direct the manager to repay in full the grant made by the Government.

55. (1) Every order passed by the Government under sub-section (2) of section 53 or section 54 shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), be final.

Effect of orders under section 53 (2) and 54.

(2) The manager of the institution in respect of which such an order is passed, not being a local authority, may on the ground that the amount repayable or payable by or to him has been wrongly fixed in the order, apply within sixty days from the date on which the order is received by him to the District Judge having jurisdiction over the area in which the property in question is situated for fixing such amount correctly in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 53 or section 54, as the case may be.

(3) The District Judge shall determine the amount which is properly repayable or payable by or to the manager in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 53 or section 54, as the case may be, and such determination shall be final.

Land or building to vest in Government absolutely on possession being taken.

56. (1) When, in pursuance of an order under section 54, the Collector takes possession of any land or building by himself or through another, it shall vest absolutely in the Government free from all encumbrances.

(2) If the Collector or any person authorised by him in this behalf is opposed or impeded in taking possession of any land or building under this Chapter he shall, if he is a Magistrate, enforce the surrender of such land or building to himself; and, if he is not a Magistrate, he shall apply to a Magistrate and such Magistrate shall enforce the surrender of the land or building to the Collector.

(3) Whoever opposes or impedes the Collector or any person authorised by him in taking possession of any land or building under this Chapter shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both.

Recovery of sums due under this Chapter.

57. Any sum required to be repaid or paid to the Government in pursuance of section 53 or section 54 or section 55 may, without prejudice to any mode of recovery provided in any other law for the time being in force, be recovered from the properties of the institution or from the manager thereof as if it were an arrear of land revenue due from such educational institution or manager.

58. (1) No land or building referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 shall be liable to be attached, sold, or made subject to a charge by any Court whether in execution of a decree or order or otherwise, unless the person seeking such relief from the Court has obtained the permission of the Government to do so and files such permission in the Court.

Court not to attach, sell etc, in the absence of permission of the Government.

(2) When granting such permission, the Government may impose such conditions as they deem fit.

(3) If any such land or building is attached or sold, or a charge is created thereon by any Court without the permission of the Government having been obtained and filed as aforesaid or if any condition imposed by them when granting such permission is contravened, then the attachment, sale or charge, as the case may be, shall be null and void.

CHAPTER XI.

Taking over of Management, requisitioning and acquisition of educational institutions.

59. In this Chapter,—

Definitions.

(a) “educational institution” means any school, college or other institution for imparting education which is managed by an individual, body or local authority and is recognised by the Government, but does not include a minority educational institution.

(b) “persons interested” includes all persons claiming or entitled to claim, interest in the amount payable on account of the taking over of the management of the educational institution or requisitioning or acquisition of the property used for the purposes of an educational institution or of any other institution connected therewith under this Act of management of

institutions in public interest.

60. (1) Where the Government are of opinion that the management of any educational institution should either in the public interest or in order to secure the proper management of the said educational institution be taken over, they may, after giving one month's notice to the management of such educational institution to make any representation, direct by notification, that the management of the said educational institution shall with effect on and from the date specified therein vest in the Government until the said educational institution is acquired:

Provided that no private institution under the management of a religious institution, endowment or a wakf shall be taken over without the prior consent of such management.

(2) The educational institution referred to in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to include all assets, rights and leaseholds, powers, authorities and privileges and all property, movable and immovable, including lands; buildings, stores instruments and vehicles, cash balances, reserve fund, investments and book debts and all other rights and interests arising out of such property as were, immediately before the date of taking over of the management under sub-section (1), (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the date aforesaid) in the ownership, possession, power or control of the management of such educational institution and all books of account, registers and all other documents of whatever nature relating thereto.

(3) Any contract, whether express or implied, or other arrangement (not being a contract or agreement specified in section 62) in so far as it relates to the management of the educational institution, and in force immediately before the taking over, shall be deemed to have terminated on the date aforesaid.

(4) All persons, in whom the management of the educational institution vested, immediately before the taking over shall, as from the date aforesaid, cease to be so vested and shall be deemed to have vacated their offices as such on the date aforesaid.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in any other law for the time being in force, no person in respect of whom any contract of management or other arrangement is terminated by reason of the provisions contained in sub-section (3) or who ceases to hold any office by reason of the provisions contained in sub-section (4) shall be entitled to claim any compensation for the premature termination of the contract of management or other arrangement or for the cessation of management or for the loss of office, as the case may be.

(6) Notwithstanding any judgement, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority or anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, every person in whose possession or custody or under whose control the educational institution or any part thereof, or any properties attached thereto, may be immediately before the taking over, shall on the date aforesaid, deliver possession of the educational institution or part thereof or any properties attached thereto, as the case may be, to the special officer appointed by the Government for the purpose of carrying on the management of such educational institution for and on behalf of the Government, or where no special officer is appointed, to such other person as the Government may direct.

(7) For the removal of any doubt, it is hereby declared that any liability incurred by the private management in relation to the educational institution before the taking over shall be enforceable against the said management and not against the Government or the special officer.

(8) The amount payable in respect of the vesting in the Government of the management of an educational institution under sub-section (1) shall be an amount equal to the average net annual surplus income of such educational institution during the period of its existence, or the period of five consecutive accounting years immediately preceding the date of such vesting, whichever is less:

Provided that no such amount shall be payable if the trust or management under which the educational institution is founded makes provision for the running of such institution.

Explanation:—In this sub-section, the expression “accounting year” means the period beginning on the 1st day of July of any year and ending on the 30th day of June of the year next following.

(9) The amount payable under sub-section (8) shall, subject to rules made under this Act, be paid by the competent authority to the person interested in the educational institution in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed.

61. If the Government are or the special officer appointed under section 60 is, of opinion that any contract of employment entered into by the management in relation to the educational institution at any time before taking over is unduly onerous, they or he may, by giving to the employee one month's notice in writing or salary or wages for one month in lieu thereof, terminate such contract of employment.

Power to terminate contracts of employment.

62. (1) If the Government are satisfied, after such enquiry as they may think proper, that any contract or agreement entered into at any time within a period of two years immediately preceding the date aforesaid between the management in relation to the educational institution and any other person, in relation to any service, sale or supply to, or by the educational institution and in force immediately before the taking over, has been entered into in bad faith, or is found detrimental to the interests of the educational institution, they may make, within one hundred and eighty days from the date aforesaid, an order cancelling or varying (either unconditionally or subject to such conditions as they may think fit to impose) such contract or agreement and thereafter the contract or agreement shall have effect accordingly:

Contracts etc., made in bad faith may be cancelled or varied.

Provided that no contract or agreement shall be cancelled or varied except after giving to the parties to the contract or agreement one month's notice to make a representation in this regard.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order made under sub-section (1) may, within thirty days from the date of communication of the order, make an application to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the educational institution is situated, for the variation or reversal of such order and thereupon such court may confirm, modify or reverse such order.

Avoidance of voluntary trts.

63. Any transfer of property, movable or immovable, or any delivery of goods made by or on behalf of the educational institution (not being a transfer or delivery made in the ordinary course of transaction or in favour of a purchaser for valuable consideration and in good faith), if made within a period of one year immediately preceeding the date aforesaid, shall be void as against the Government or the special officer, as the case may be.

Requisitioning of an
institution.

64. (1) Where recognition or permission granted to an educational institution is withdrawn by the Government under sub-section (3) of section 21 or otherwise, or where an educational institution is closed before the last working day of an academic year and if the Government consider it necessary to requisition any property movable or immovable, which before the withdrawal of the recognition or permission or the closing of the institution was being used for the purposes of the institution or of any other institution connected therewith, such as a hostel for students, quarters for the residence of employees or a playground, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force, the Government may, within three months from the withdrawal of the recognition or permission or the closing of the educational institution, as the case may be, requisition such property and make such further orders as appear t them to be necessary or expedient in connection with the requisition.

(2) Before requisitioning any property under sub-section (1) the Government,—

(a) shall call upon the manager or any other person who is in possession of the property by notice in writing to show cause, within fifteen days of the date of the service of such notice to him why the property should not be requisitioned and shall consider the objections, if any, shown by the manager or other person; and

(b) may, by order, direct that the manager or any person shall not, without permission of the competent authority, dispose of, structurally alter, lease or in any manner deal with, the property until the expiry of such period, not exceeding three months, as may be specified in the order.

(3) Where any property is requisitioned under sub-section (1), the Government may,—

(a) use or deal with such property for any educational purpose; or

(b) by order, permit any person or body or local authority to use or deal with such property for any such purpose, subject to the payment of such rent and other sums to the Government and the observance of such conditions as may be specified in the order.

65. (1) Any person remaining in possession of any property in contravention of an order issued under section 64 may be summarily dispossessed of such property by an officer empowered by the Government in this behalf, and in the case of Building if free access to it is not afforded to such officer, he may after giving reasonable warning and facility of withdrawing to any women not appearing in public according to the customs of the country, remove or taking possession of

open any lock or bolt or break open any door or do any other act necessary for effecting such dispossession.

(2) If any such officer is resisted in the exercise of such power or discharge of such duty, the Magistrate having jurisdiction shall, on a written requisition from such officer, direct any police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector to render such help as may be necessary to enable the officer to exercise such power or discharge such duty.

Release from requisitioning and discharge of liability of the Government.

66. (1) The Government may, at any time, release any property requisitioned under this Chapter and in such case, the possession of the property released from requisition shall be delivered to the manager or other person from whom possession was taken at the time when the property was requisitioned or if there were no such manager or person, the person deemed by the Government to be the manager or owner of such property, and such delivery of possession shall be full discharge of the Government from all liabilities in respect of that property which any other person may be entitled by the due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the property is so delivered.

(2) Where the person to whom possession of any such property is to be delivered cannot be found or has no agent or other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf, the Government shall cause to be published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette a notice declaring that the property is released from requisition; and in the case of any immovable property, the Government shall also cause a copy thereof to be affixed, on some conspicuous part of such property.

(3) When the notice referred to in sub-section (2) is published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette, the property specified in such notice shall be to subject to requisition on and from the date of such publication and shall be deemed to have been delivered to the person entitled to possession thereof; and the Government shall not be liable for any amount, rent, or other claim in respect of such property for any period after the said date.

67. (1) Where any property is vested under sub-section (1) of section 60 in connection with the management of an educational institution or is subject to requisition under sub-section (1) of section 64, the Government may, if they consider it necessary to acquire the property for any public purpose connected with education, acquire at any time such property for the said public purpose by publishing in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette a notice to the effect that the Government have decided to acquire the property in pursuance of this section: Acquisition of property.

Provided that before issuing such notice, the Government shall call upon the manager of, or any other person who in the opinion of the Government, is the person interested in, such property to show cause why the property should not be acquired; and after considering the objections if any, shown by the manager or other person interested in the property the Government may pass such orders as they deem fit.

(2) When notice as aforesaid is published in the Andhra Pradesh Gazette, the requisitioned property shall on and from the day on which the notice is so published, cease to be subject to requisition and vest absolutely in the Government free from all encumbrances.

68. (1) Where any property is requisitioned or acquired under this Act, the amount payable therefor shall be determined and paid in the manner and in accordance with the principles hereinafter set out, that is to say,— Principles and methods of determining amount for property requisitioned or acquired.

(a) where the amount is settled and fixed by agreement, it shall be paid accordingly;

(b) where there is no such agreement, the Government shall appoint as arbitrator a person who is holding or has held a judicial office, not below the rank of a district judge, for determining the amount;

(c) at the commencement of the proceedings before the arbitrator the Government and the person to whom the amount is payable shall state what according to them is the fair amount;

(d) the arbitrator shall after due enquiry determine the amount which appears to him to be just and specify the person or persons to whom such amount shall be paid; and in making the award determining the amount, he shall have regard to the circumstances of each case and the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) so far as they are applicable;

(e) where there is any dispute as to the person or persons who are entitled to the amount, the arbitrator shall decide such dispute and if the arbitrator finds that more persons than one are entitled to the amount, he shall apportion the amount amongst such persons according to their rights, and

Central Act
10 of 1940.

(f) nothing in the Arbitration Act, 1940 shall apply to arbitrations under this section.

(2) The amount payable for the requisitioning of any property, movable or immovable, shall in respect of the period of requisition, be a sum equal to the rent which would have been payable for the use and occupation of the immovable property or for the use of the movable property, if it had been taken on lease for that period.

(3) The amount payable for the acquisition of any immovable property under section 67 shall be—

(a) the price which the requisitioned property would have fetched in the open market if it had remained in the same conditions as it was at the time of requisitioning and been sold on the date of acquisition is less.

(b) twice the price which the requisitioned property would have fetched in the open market if it had been sold on the date of requisition, whichever is less.

(4) The amount payable for the acquisition of any movable property shall be the price which such property would have fetched in the open market if it had been sold on the date of acquisition.

(5) Where any property requisitioned or acquired under this Act was acquired with the grant from the State funds, the amount of such grant shall be taken into account in the prescribed manner in determining the amount payable.

Explanation.—For purposes of this sub-section, all the property acquired by the educational institution shall be deemed to have been acquired with the aid of such grant, contribution, donation or collection unless the manager of the educational institution proves to the satisfaction of the arbitrator that the property has been acquired otherwise.

69. The amount payable under the award of arbitrator shall, subject to any rules made under this Act, be paid by the competent authority to the person interested, in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the award.

Payment of amount for property requisitioned or acquired.

Appeal from the award of the arbitrator under section 68 in respect of amount.

70. Any person aggrieved by the award of the arbitrator under section 68 may, within sixty days from the date of such award, prefer an appeal to the High Court:

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of sixty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

Arbitrator to have certain powers of civil Court.

Central Act, 5 of 1908.

71. The arbitrator appointed under this Chapter, while holding arbitration proceedings under this Act, shall have all the powers of a civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

- (a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) requiring the discovery and production of any document;
- (c) reception of evidence or affidavits;
- (d) requisitioning any public record from any court or office;
- (e) issuing commissions for examination of witnesses.

Powers of entry and inspection and calling for information.

72. The competent authority may, for the purpose of requisitioning or acquiring any property under this Chapter, by order—

- (a) empower any authority to enter and inspect any property specified in the order liable to be requisitioned or acquired under this Act;
- (b) require any person to furnish to such authority such information in his possession relating to the property as may be specified in the order.

73. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any contract or agreement or any law for the time being in force, the following provisions shall apply in regard to the persons on the staff of the educational institution immediately before the date on which the management of the educational institution is vested in the Government, namely,—

Provisions for existing staff of educational institutions.

(a) the Government shall have power to terminate the services of any such person after giving him three calendar month's notice in writing or paying him three month's pay in lieu of such notice;

(b) a person whose services have been retained shall be governed at his option either by the conditions of service as may from time to time be prescribed or by the conditions of service applicable to him immediately before such vesting.

74. The posts in each category of employees of the educational institutions in a district which have vested in the Government under this Chapter shall be a separate unit for purposes of seniority, discharge, reversion for want of vacancies, re-appointment of probationers and approved probationers and appointment of full members.

Posts of employees of educational institutions vested under this Chapter to be treated as a unit for certain purposes.

CHAPTER XII

Transfer of control and management of certain schools.

75. (1) The Government may, by notification, and with the prior consent of a local authority, take over the control and management of any or all primary schools or secondary schools established or maintained and administered by the said local authority from such date as may be specified in the said notification; and from the date so notified it shall be open to the Government to control and manage the said schools and all the properties and assets of the local authority pertaining to or intended to be used for every such school shall stand transferred to, and vest in the Government free from all encumbrances.

Powers of Government to take over control and management of schools, belonging to local authority.

(2) Notwithstanding any contract or agreement or any law for the time being in force, every teacher or other person employed in any of the said schools immediately before the date on which the control and management thereof is taken over by the Government shall, as from the said date, be deemed to be an employee of the Government and shall hold office on the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, gratuity and other matters as he would have held under the local authority until his remuneration, terms and conditions of service are duly altered by the Government:

Provided that every such employee shall, within a period of three months or such other period beyond three months as may be specified by the Government by a notification, from the date of taking over of the control and management of the school, exercise his option either to be retrenched from the service on receipt of such retrenchment benefits as may be prescribed or to be absorbed in the service of the Government with effect from the said date and shall be governed by the terms and conditions governing the said service which shall not be less favourable than those applicable to such employee prior to the said date.

control and management of schools to zilla parishads.

76. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Samithis and Zilla Parishads Act, 1959 or the rules made thereunder, or any other law for the time being in force relating to control and management of schools, the Government may, with effect on and from such date as may be notified, transfer, with the prior consent of a Zilla Parishad, the control and management of all primary schools or secondary schools in a district, established or maintained and administered by the Government or any panchayat samithi to the zilla parishad concerned; and from the date so notified, it shall be open to the zilla parishad to control and manage the said schools in the district, and all the properties and assets of the Government or the Panchayat Samithi, as the case may be, pertaining to or intended to be used for, every such school shall stand transferred to, and vest in, the zilla parishad free from all encumbrances.

(2) Notwithstanding any contract or agreement or any law for the time being in force, every teacher or other person employed in any of the said schools immediately before the date on which the control and management thereof is transferred to the zilla parishad shall, as from the said date, be deemed to be an employee of the zilla parishad and shall hold office on the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, gratuity and other matters as he would have held under the Government, or panchayat samithi, as the case may be, until his remuneration and terms and conditions of service are duly altered by the zilla parishad:

Provided that every such employee shall, within a period of three months or such other period beyond three months as may be specified by the zilla parishad, from the date of transfer of the control and management of the school, exercise his option either to be retrenched from the service on receipt of such retrenchment benefits as may be prescribed or to be absorbed in the service of the zilla parishad with effect from the said date and shall be governed by the terms and conditions governing the said service which shall not be less favourable than those applicable to such employee prior to the said date.

77. (1) Notwithstanding anything in the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Samithis and Zilla Parishads Act, 1959, the Andhra Pradesh Municipalities Act, 1965 or the rules made thereunder or any other law for the time being in force relating to control and management of schools, the Government may, with effect on and from such date as may be notified, transfer, with the prior consent of the local authority concerned, the control and management of any primary school, established or maintained and administered by the Government or any panchayat samithi or the municipality, to the Abhyudaya Pradhamika Vidya Samstha; and from the date so notified, it shall be open to the Abhyudaya Pradhamika Vidya Samstha to control and manage the said school; and all the properties and assets of the local authority pertaining to and intended to be used for such school shall stand transferred to, and vest in, the Abhyudaya Pradhamika Vidya Samstha free from all encumbrances.

(2) Notwithstanding any contract or agreement or any law for the time being in force, every teacher or other person employed in the said school immediately before the date on which the control and management thereof is transferred to the Abhyudaya Pradhamika Vidya Samstha shall, as from the said date, be deemed to be an employee of the said Samstha and shall hold office on the same remuneration and upon the same terms and conditions and with the same rights and privileges as to pension, gratuity and other matters as he would have held under the said local authority until his remuneration and terms and conditions of service are duly altered by the said Samstha:

Provided that every such employee shall, within a period of three months or such period beyond three months as may be specified by the said Samstha, from the date of transfer of the control and management of the said school, exercise his option either to be retrenched from the service on receipt of such retrenchment benefits as may be prescribed or to be absorbed in the service of the said Samstha with effect from the said date and shall be governed by the terms and conditions governing the said service which shall not be less favourable than those applicable to such employee prior to the said date.

CHAPTER XIII

Constitution of educational service

78. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act or the rules made thereunder, the Government may, by notification, constitute any officer or class of officers or any teacher or class of teachers appointed or deemed to be appointed under this Act into an educational service for the State.

Constitution
al service.

(2) Upon issue of a notification under sub-section (1), the Government shall have power to make rules to regulate the classification, methods of recruitment, conditions of service, pay and allowances and discipline and conduct of the members of the educational service thereby constituted and such rules may vest jurisdiction in relation to such service in the Government or in such authority or authorities, as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER XIV

Payment of salaries and allowances to and disciplinary action against employees of private institutions.

79. (1) No teacher or member of the non-teaching staff employed in any private institution (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as 'the employee') shall be dismissed, removed or reduced in rank except after an inquiry in which he has been informed of the charges against him and given a reasonable opportunity of being heard in respect of those charges.

Dismissal, removal or reduction in rank or suspension, etc., of employees of private institution.

(2) An inquiry under sub-section (1) shall be completed within a period of two months from the date of communication of charges against the employee.

(3) (a) No employee shall be placed under suspension except when an inquiry into the gross misconduct of such employee is contemplated.

(b) No such suspension shall remain in force for more than a period of two months from the date of suspension and if such inquiry is not started and completed within that period, such employee shall, without prejudice to the inquiry, be deemed to have been restored as employee:

Provided that the competent authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the said period of two months for a further period not exceeding two months, if in the opinion of such competent authority the inquiry could not be completed within the said period of two months for reasons directly attributable to such employee.

(4) Every such employee as is placed under suspension under sub-section (3) shall be paid subsistence allowance at such rates as may be prescribed during the period of his suspension.

(5) Before imposing any penalty, other than the penalties specified in sub-section (1), an employee shall be informed in writing of the allegations on which action is proposed to be taken and be given an opportunity of making a representation, but it shall not be necessary to hold an oral inquiry into such allegations.

Appeal against orders of punishment imposed on employees of private institutions.

80. (1) Any employee who is dismissed, removed or reduced in rank may prefer an appeal against the order to the competent authority within thirty days of the receipt of the order by him.

(2) The competent authority shall not interfere with the order appealed against unless the order is vitiated on any one or more of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that there is no material to substantiate the charge or charges framed against the employee; or

(b) that the authority who passed the order acted with bias or malafides; or

(c) that the order is perverse or arbitrary; or

(d) that no reasonable opportunity has been afforded to the employee to prove his innocence:

Provided that the competent authority shall not pass any order prejudicial to the management unless an opportunity of making a representation is given.

(3) The competent authority may, after giving notice to the management of the private institution, pass such interim order as it deems fit, pending disposal of the appeal under sub-section (2), if it is satisfied that the employee has made out a prima facie case for interference.

(4) In respect of an order imposing any penalty as laid down in subsection (5) of section 79 an appeal shall lie to the District Educational Officer having jurisdiction and in respect of such appeals the order appealed against shall not be set aside except on the grounds specified in sub-section (2).

Explanation:—For the removal of doubts it hereby declared that the provisions of this section shall apply to any order imposing any penalty made on or after the date of the commencement of this Act in any disciplinary proceeding which was pending on that date.

81. (1) Any employee or the management aggrieved by an order of the competent authority under sub-section (2) of section 80, may appeal to the Government within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the order.

Appeal to Government,

(2) Where an appeal preferred under sub-section (1) of section 80 has not been disposed of by the competent authority within ninety days from the date the appeal was preferred, it shall be competent for the Government either suo motu or on application, to withdraw the appeal from the competent authority and dispose of the same.

(3) The powers exercisable and the procedure to be followed by the Government acting under this section shall be the same as that of the competent authority under section 80.

Special provision regarding appeal in certain past disciplinary Cases.

82. (1) If, before the date of the commencement of this Act, any employee has been dismissed or removed or reduced in rank or of his appointment has been otherwise terminated and any appeal preferred before that date—

(a) by him against such dismissal or removal or reduction in rank or termination; or

(b) by him or by the educational agency against any order made before that date in the appeal referred to in clause (a);

is pending on that date, such appeal shall stand transferred to the competent authority under section 80.

(2) If any such appeal as is referred to in sub-section (1) has been disposed of before the date of the commencement of this Act, the order made in any such appeal shall be deemed to be an order made under this Act and shall have effect accordingly.

Retrenchment of employees.

83. Where retrenchment of any employee is rendered necessary by the management or competent authority consequent on any change relating to education or course of instruction or to any other matter, such retrenchment may be effected with the prior approval of the competent authority the next higher authority, as the case may be.

84. (1) he pay and allowances of any employee in a private institution shall be paid on or before such day of every month in such manner and by or through such authority, officer or person as may be prescribed.

Pay and allowances of employees of private institutions to be paid in the prescribed manner.

(2) The Government shall have power to direct the payment of salaries of all teachers and members of the non-teaching staff in any private aided institution or class of private aided institutions in such manner and through such agency as the Government may, by order, specify.

CHAPTER XV.

Welfare and code of conduct and rules of conduct of the employees of educational institutions.

85. (1) The Government may appoint a joint consultative committee, consisting of the representatives of the Government, managements and employees of educational institutions to deal with matters pertaining to welfare of those employees.

Welfare of employees and their code of conduct.

(2) The Government may, in consultation with the representatives of the employees of educational institutions, prescribe the code of conduct and duties of those employees.

86. The rules of conduct applicable to the employees of educational institutions, other than the employees of a private institution under the management of a charitable or religious institution, charitable or religious endowment or a wakf, shall be such as may be prescribed.

Conduct rules.

CHAPTER XVI.

Penalties and Procedure.
