THE REGISTRAR

CHAPTER-II

REGISTRATION OF SOCIETIES

3. (1) The State Government may appoint an officer to be the Registrar of Cooperative Societies for the State or any portion of it for the registration, supervisions, assistance, counsel and for the all-round development of the Cooperative movement in the State with such other powers and responsibilities as may be provided under this Act or rules or bye-laws framed thereunder.

SOCIETIES
WHICH MAY BE REGISTERED

- (2) The State Government may also appoint any other person or persons to assist the Registrar and may by general or special order in writing delegate to any such person or persons all or any of the powers and responsibilities of the Registrar under this Act.
4. (1) Subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, a society which has as its chief object the promotion of the economic interest and general welfare of its members in accordance with cooperative principles laid down in Schedule 'A' may be registered under this Act, provided that a society established with the object of facilitating the operation of such a society including a society formed by the division of an existing registered society or amalgamation of existing two or more societies, may be registered under this Act with limited liability.
- (2) No cooperative society with unlimited liability shall be registered after commencement of this Act.
- (3) Where a cooperative society with unlimited liability was functioning before the commencement of this Act such society shall exercise the option within a period of one year from such commencement either to continue to function as such or to convert itself into a cooperative society with limited liability by following the procedure of amendment as specified in section 12.

EXPLANATION :-

For the purpose of this sub section cooperative society with limited liability means a cooperative society in which the liability of its members for the debts of the cooperative society is limited by its bye-laws, to such form and extent as they may undertake to contribute to any deficit in the assets of the cooperative society in the event of its being wound up.

- (4) Where a cooperative society is ordered to be dissolved under any provision of this Act, the liability of a past member or of the estate of a deceased member, who ceased to be member or died during the period of two years immediately preceding the date of order for dissolution, shall continue until completion of the entire liquidation proceedings, but such liability shall be limited only to the debts of the cooperative society as they stood on the date of cessation of his membership or his death, as the case may be.
- (5) No society shall be registered if in the opinion of the Registrar its declared objects are not likely to be achieved or if it is economically unviable, technically and cooperatively unsound or if it may have an adverse effect upon any registered co-operative society or the cooperative movement as a whole or if the members or the applicants do not need the services or are not in a position to use the services of the co-operative society:

Provided that no other organization, entity or societies registered under any other Act existing for the time being in force other than this Act shall be registered or converted or merged as a cooperative society.

- "(6) The Co-operative Society to be registered as a Co-operative Bank shall specifically indicate in its byelaws submitted before the Registrar at the time of registration, that the society shall be a Co-operative Bank which shall carry on the business of banking as defined under section 5(b) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 on the basis of which the Registrar shall register the said society as a Co-operative Bank as defined under this Act.

- (7) The existing Co-operative Societies carrying on the business of banking as defined under section 5(b) of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 on the date of coming into force of this Act, shall amend their Bye-laws indicating that the said societies have been carrying on the business of banking in the State of Assam and shall file a copy of the amended bye-laws before the Registrar for getting the societies registered as a Co-operative Bank and Registrar shall register the said societies accordingly under this Act.

Provided that the name of a person referred to in clause (i) or clause (iv) shall not be deleted from the register of members till expiry of 30 days from the date of the decision of the Board or Annual General Meeting, as the case may be, and in case an appeal is preferred under sub-section(2) of section 23, as the case may be.

The register maintained under sub-section(1) shall be prima facie evidence of the date on which any person was admitted to the cooperative society as a member and of the date on which he ceased to be a member.

EDUCATION OF MEMBER ETC.

- 25.(1) Every cooperative society shall include a certain amount in its budget annually, as provision for expenses on education of member and potential member, education and training of staff and directors for the development of their cooperative societies in accordance with the cooperative principles specified in Schedule A and practices of cooperation, besides contributing at least 1% of profit or an amount specified by the Registrar in case of societies not earning profit ,to State Cooperative Union for cooperative education and training.

RIGHTS AND LIABILITIES OF MEMBERS OF REGISTERED SOCIETIES AND EXERCISE OF RIGHTS THEREOF

- 26.(1) Every member of a registered society and every ex-officio member of the Administrative Council or Managing Body of such society, unless under some temporary disqualification, shall have the right to attend any general meeting of the society and to exercise vote at such meeting.
- (2) No member of a cooperative society shall exercise the right of a member including the right of vote unless he has made such payment to the cooperative society in respect of membership or has acquired and continues to have such interest in the cooperative society as may be specified in the bye-laws.

- (3) The Chief Executive of every cooperative society within twenty days of closure of the previous cooperative year, shall prepare a list of members with the right of vote, and a list of members without the right of vote, valid for the current financial year. The list shall be affixed on the notice board of the head office of the cooperative society for information of all members and any member not satisfied with specific instances of inclusion or non-inclusion of members in the lists, may appeal to the Board within ten days from the date of the affixing of the lists on the notice board, for re-examination of the records, and the Board shall within forty days of closure of the previous cooperative year, review the lists, finalise it, and have it affixed on the notice board of the head office of the cooperative society:

Provided that a member who is an employee or member of Employees Union of such society shall not be entitled to vote –

- (i) at the election of a member of the Board of such society;
- (ii) in any general meeting convened for framing the bye-laws of such society or any amendments thereto.

- (4) In the case of equality of votes the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

VOTES OF
MEMBERS AND MANNER OF EXERCISING VOTE

- 27 (1) In primary cooperatives societies, irrespective of the shares held in the society and subject to temporary disqualification, each member shall have equal voting right (one member one vote). Similarly in case of Secondary Cooperative Society, the representative of such cooperative society shall have same voting rights (one representative one vote). Every member of cooperative society or the representative referred herein shall exercise his vote in person and in the manner specified in the bye-laws and no member or representative shall be permitted to vote by proxy :

Provided that a person shall have been a member for at least one full financial year, before being eligible to vote or to seek election to managing body:

Provided further that the condition of one year membership shall not apply to the members who join at registration or at any time after the registration of a cooperative society but before the first day of the next co-operative year.

- (2) Every member of a cooperative society shall exercise his vote in the manner specified in the bye-laws.

LIABILITIES OF

CHAPTER -IV

MANAGEMENT

ASSEMBLY

- 29(1) The General Assembly of a cooperative society shall consist of all the members of such cooperative society who are eligible to vote at the general meeting of the society.

- (2) (a) Every member of a registered society and every ex-officio member of the Administrative Council or managing body of such society, unless under some disqualification, shall have the right to attend any general meeting of the society and to exercise his vote at such meeting:

Provided that the bye-laws of a registered society may prescribe-

- (i) that a registered society affiliated to such society may have more than one representative entitled to vote at general meetings of the society; and
 - (ii) that only one third of the members of the General Assembly, excluding ex-officio members, may be individual members and the other two thirds being representatives of affiliated registered societies;
- (b) if the number of individual members exceeds one third of the total membership of the society the individual members shall elect at a special meeting to be called by the Secretary of the society not more than thirty days before the Annual General Meeting in the manner prescribed in the bye-laws to represent in the Annual General Meeting, those individual members who, as the representative of the body of individual members shall form the one third membership of the General Assembly for the purpose of voting at the Annual and other meetings of the General Assembly during the ensuing year. Only such elected representatives shall have the right to attend and vote at such general meeting.

- (3) If the general body of a cooperative society decides that the size, area or types of its membership requires a representative body of delegates for more effective decision making, its bye-laws shall provide for a smaller body, called "delegate general body" elected from the members, in the annual general meeting in accordance with the bye-laws, to exercise such powers and to discharge such duties of the general body as may be specified in the bye-laws.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the bye-laws, the ultimate power of a cooperative society shall vest in the general body. The supreme authority shall however vest with the State Government or the Registrar of Cooperative Societies, as the case may be, during the pendency of any loan or service to the society from the Government.
- (5) Any power, function or responsibility, falling within the scope of a cooperative society as a corporate body, which has not been specifically entrusted by this Act or the bye-laws, to any authority of the cooperative society may be dealt with by the General Body or by the State Government during the pendency of any loan or services to the society from the Government.

MATTERS TO BE DEALT WITH IN THE ANNUAL

- (f) dissolution of the cooperative society;
- (g) consideration of the Registrar's report of inquiry and action taken thereon or reasons for the non completion of the inquiry;

- (3) If the bye-laws of the cooperative society provide for election of one or more Directors on territorial basis, such Director shall be elected from the areas, in a meeting of the members of that area in accordance with the provision of the bye-laws on a date prior to that of annual general meeting. The result thereof shall be affixed on the notice board of the head office of the cooperative society and also at the place of the annual general meeting prior to the commencement of the proceedings of the annual general meeting.
- (4) All Directors shall cease to be Directors on the date of the Annual General Meeting, if the annual financial statement of accounts and annual report of activities for the previous financial year were willfully not prepared before 15 days of the Annual General Meeting for inspection of the members or for placing before the Annual General Meeting.

TERM OF THE BOARD

- (5)
31. The term of the Board shall be three Cooperative years.

GENERAL MEETING

32. The Board may, at any time, call a general meeting of the members of the cooperative society. However, one general meeting in every cooperative year must be convened by the Board.

SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

- 33 (1) The Board may call a special general meeting and shall be bound to do so within forty five days of the date of receipt of a written requisition.
- (a) signed by not less than twenty five percent of the members having right to vote; or
 - (b) from the Registrar.
- (2) Such requisition shall contain the reasons why the meeting is felt necessary and the proposed agenda and no subject other than the subjects included in the proposed agenda shall be discussed at the special general meeting.
- (3) If the Board fails to hold a special general meeting on requisition under sub-section (1) or any of the Annual General Meeting under section 32 within the period specified therein all directors shall cease to be directors on the date of expiry of the said specified period.
- (4) Any meeting of the General Assembly other than the Special General Meeting may, with the consent of the majority of the members present, be adjourned from time to time to a later hour on the same day or to any other date as may be provided in this bye-laws, but no business other than that left over at the adjourned meeting shall be transacted at the next meeting.

A notice of such adjournment posted in the notice board of the head office of the cooperative society on the day on which the meeting is adjourned shall be deemed sufficient notice of the next adjourned meeting.

QUORUM OF MEETINGS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY

34. (1) The quorum for a meeting for the General Assembly shall be specified in the bye-laws, but shall not be less than ten percent of the members eligible to vote at the meeting.

- (2) If within one hour from the time fixed for meeting of the General Assembly a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned ordinarily to the same day in the next week at the same time and place. But the Chairman of the meeting may, however, decide to adjourn the meeting to a later date not later than fifteen days or as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society:

Provided that a meeting of the Special General Assembly called on the requisition of members under sub-section (1) of section-33 shall not be adjourned but dissolved.

- (3) If at any time in a meeting there is no quorum the presiding authority shall adjourn it to such time or date as it thinks fit and announce the same at once and the business set down for the meeting shall be brought forward at the subsequent meeting whether at such meeting there is a quorum or not.
- (4) No business other than the business fixed for the original meeting shall be transacted at such subsequent meeting.
- (5) A notice of such adjournment posted in the notice board of the head office of the cooperative society on the day on which the meeting is adjourned shall be deemed sufficient notice of the next subsequent meeting.
- (6) The quorum for a delegate general body meeting shall not be less than twenty five percent of the delegate eligible to vote at the delegate general body meeting. If at any time in the meeting of delegate general body meeting there is no quorum, the procedure laid down in sub-section(1) to (5) shall be followed.
- (7) At the meeting of the General Assembly, the President shall preside over the meeting. If the President is absent the Vice-President shall preside. If both the President and the Vice-President are absent from the meeting of the General Assembly, the members present shall choose one of them to preside the meeting.

BOARD

35. (1) There shall be a Board for the management of every cooperative society registered under this Act. The Directors shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of the bye-laws. The management of every cooperative society constituted in accordance with the provision of this Act and the bye-laws shall vest in the Board:

Provided that in the case of a cooperative society newly registered under this Act, the persons who have signed the application for the registration of the cooperative society may appoint a promoter Board, for a period not exceeding one year from the date of registration to direct the affairs of the cooperative society and it shall cease to function as soon as a regular board is constituted in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the bye-laws.

- (2) The promoter Board appointed under the proviso to sub-section (1) shall conduct the election of Directors within the period mentioned therein.
- (3) Every Director while exercising the powers and discharging duties shall act honestly and in good faith and in the best interests of the cooperative society and exercise such care, diligence and skill as a reasonably prudent person would exercise in similar circumstances.

- (4) A Director who is guilty of misappropriation, breach of trust or dishonesty resulting in loss or shortfall in revenue of the cooperative society and is found guilty after an enquiry or inspection under section 87 and section 88 or after audit under section 81, shall be personally liable to make good that loss or shortfall, without prejudice to any criminal action to which the director may be liable under any law.

PRESIDENT AND
SOCIETY

36. (1) There shall be a President and Vice-president in a cooperative society to be elected by the Board from amongst its Directors in accordance with the provisions of the bye-laws. The term of President and Vice-president elected by the Board shall be coterminous with the term of the Board.
- (2) Vacancy in the office of the President or Vice-president shall be filled in by the Board in accordance with the provisions of the bye-laws and the President or Vice-president so elected shall hold office for the unexpired term of his predecessor.
- (3) The Vice-President may resign his office at any time by notice in writing to the President and the President may resign his office at any time by notice in writing to the Vice-President. Such resignation shall take effect from the date of its acceptance by the Board.
- (4) The Board may, by a resolution passed by three-fourth majority of the Directors present and voting at a meeting held for the purpose, remove the President or Vice-president. Such meeting shall not be presided over by the President or Vice-President against whom such resolution is to be considered.
- (5) The President or Vice-president as the case may be aggrieved by the resolution passed under sub-section(4) may appeal to the Registrar within thirty days from the date of passing of such resolution whose decision thereon shall be final.
- (6) In the event of the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of the president by reason of his death, resignation or removal or otherwise, the Vice-President shall act as President until the date on which a new president is elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the Bye-laws to fill such vacancy.
- (7) When the President is unable to discharge his functions owing to absence, illness or otherwise the Vice-President shall discharge the functions of the President until the date on which the President resumes his duties.

REGISTRATION

94. (1) If the Registrar, on receipt of an application made upon resolution adopted in a meeting of the General Assembly by a three-fourth majority of the members present in the meeting, provided that the notice of dissolution was included in the circulated agenda of the meeting, is of opinion that the society ought to be dissolved, he may, by an order in writing, cancel the registration of the society.
- (2) The Registrar after an enquiry has been held under section 87 or after the inspection has been made under section 88 may cancel the registration of a society which --
- (i) has not commenced working ; or
- (ii) has ceased working ; or
- (iii) has ceased to comply materially with any condition as to registration in this Act, rules or bye-laws ; and
- (iv) in his opinion ought to be dissolved .
- (3) A copy of the order canceling the registration of a society shall forthwith be published in the official Gazette by a notice, which shall be communicated to the society and to any affiliating society concerned by registered post. The notice shall contain the name of the liquidator appointed under Section 95 who shall take full charge of the society forthwith and shall require all claims against the said society to be made to the liquidator within two months of the publication of the notice. All liabilities recorded in the account books of the society shall be deemed ipso facto to have been so claimed.

- (4) When the cancellation of the registration of a society takes effect, the society shall cease to exist as a corporate body, but shall vest in the liquidator.
- (5) Any member of the society may, within two months from the date of publication of the order of cancellation, appeal to the State Government from such order.
- (6) Where an appeal is presented within two months from the publication of an order canceling the registration of the society, the order shall take effect on the expiry of the period.
- (7) When an appeal is presented within two months of an order of cancellation, the order shall not take effect until it is confirmed by the State Government and such confirmation is communicated to the society by registered post.

WINDING UP,
APPOINTMENT
OF LIQUIDATOR
AND HIS POWERS
AND FUNCTIONS

95. (1) When an order of cancellation of the registration of a society is made by the Registrar under Section 94, he may appoint any person to be the liquidator of the society and may remove such person and appoint another in his place.
- (2) The liquidator appointed under sub-section (1) shall have power from the date of his appointment to take immediate possession of all assets, properties, effects and actionable claims of the society or to which the society is entitled and all books, records, case and other documents pertaining to the business of the society and, in the interest of the society, shall hold charge of the society notwithstanding the provisions of section 94 provided that no steps shall be taken for the winding up of the society during the pendency of any stay order.
- (3) The liquidator shall, under the general control of the Registrar, have power, so far as is necessary for the winding up of the society, on behalf of the society to carry on the business thereof and to do all acts and execute all documents necessary to such winding up, and in particular shall exercise the following powers :-
 - (a) to institute, compromise and defend suits and other legal proceedings on behalf of the society;
 - (b) to make any compromise or arrangement with any person between whom and the society there exists any dispute;
 - (c) to determine the debts due to the society by a member, past member or estate, nominees, heirs or legal representatives of deceased members ;
 - (d) to determine from time to time the contribution to be made or remaining to be made by the members, past members or by the estate or nominees, heirs or legal representative of deceased members or by any officers or former officers, to the assets of the society and to determine the debts due from such members or persons and the cost of liquidation;

- (e) to calculate the cost of liquidation and to determine by what persons and in what proportion they are to be borne;
 - (f) to investigate all claims against the society and subject to the provisions of this Act to decide questions of priority arising between claimants;
 - (g) to pay claims against the society including interest up to date of cancellation of registration according to their respective priorities, if any, in full or rateably as the assets including the reserve fund of the society, permit; the surplus, if any, remaining after payment of claims being applied in payment of interest from the date of such cancellation at the rate fixed by him but not exceeding the contract rate in any case;
 - (h) to take step to recover dues according to the provisions of section 102, if necessary; and
 - (i) to dispose of the surplus, if any, remaining after paying the claims against the society in accordance with section 96.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of this Act and rules made there under, a liquidator appointed under section 95 shall, in so far as such powers are necessary for carrying out the purpose of this section, have power to summon and enforce the attendance of witnesses and to compel the production of any books, accounts, documents, securities, cash or other properties belonging to or in the custody of the society by the same means and so far as may be in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, if any landed property is held by a liquidator as such the title over the land shall be complete as soon as the mutation of the name of his office is effected and no court shall question the title on the ground of dispossession, want of possession or physical delivery of possession.

DISTRIBUTION OF
SOCIETY

96. On dissolution of a society the reserved fund and any undisbursed cash in hand shall be applied to discharging liabilities of the society and the repayment of the share capital. Any sum that may remain may be applied to such object of local and public utility as may be selected by the members of the dissolved society and approved by the Registrar. If, within three months of the notice published in the Official Gazette under Section 97, notifying the closing of the liquidation proceedings of the society, the members fail to select any object as aforesaid, the Registrar shall, with the approval of the Government, apply the fund to such local public utility as may be determined by him or credit the remaining sum to the reserve fund of a society to be formed to replace the dissolved society or if there be no such society to any other deserving society existing within the same area of operation and having objects similar to those of the dissolved society or if there be no such society to any other registered society in Assam as may be determined by the Registrar.

LIQUIDATOR TO
BOOKS AND SUBMIT A FINAL REPORT

97. When the affairs of a registered society have been wound up, the liquidator shall make a report to the Registrar, who, when satisfied shall order the liquidation proceedings to be closed and direct the liquidator to deposit the records whatsoever the Registrar thinks fit and the Registrar shall issue a notice in the Official Gazette, notifying the closing of the liquidation proceedings of the society.

DISPOSAL OF SURPLUS ASSETS OF
LIQUIDATED CO-
OPERATIVE
SOCIETIES

98. After all the liabilities including the paid up share capital of a wound up cooperative society have been met, the surplus assets shall not be divided among its members but they shall be applied to any object described in the bye-laws and when no object is so prescribed in the bye-laws, to the cooperative development fund.

BAR OF SUITS OR LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

99. When an order to wind up the cooperative society has been made or the liquidator has been appointed a suit or other legal proceeding relating to business of such cooperative society shall be proceeded with or instituted against the liquidator as such or against the cooperative society or any member thereof except with the leave of the Registrar and subject to such conditions as he may impose.

FINAL ACCOUNTS

- 100.(1) A liquidator shall pay the costs of liquidation out of the property of the cooperative society and shall pay or make adequate provision for all claims against the cooperative society.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of section-60 after paying or making adequate provision for all claims against the cooperative society, the liquidator shall apply to the Registrar for approval of his final accounts and for permission to distribute in cash or in kind the remaining property of the cooperative society in accordance with the bye-laws.
- (3) Where the Registrar approves the final accounts rendered by a liquidator under sub-section(2), he shall -
- (a) issue direction with respect to the custody or disposal of the documents and records of the cooperative society; and
 - (b) discharge the liquidator.
- (4) Where the Registrar discharges a liquidator under sub-section(3) the Registrar shall dissolve the cooperative society, issue a certificate of dissolution and delete its name from the Register of Co-operative Societies
- (5) The cooperative society ceases to exist on the date shown in the certificate of dissolution, which shall not be later than eight years after the appointment of the liquidator.

BAR OF SUIT

101. Save in so far as is expressly provided in this Act, no Civil Court shall take cognizance of any matter concerned with the winding up or dissolution of a society under this Act and when a liquidator has been appointed no suit, order or legal proceedings shall lie or be proceeded with against him except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as he may impose.

CHAPTER XRECOVERY OF SUMS DUERECOVERY OF SUMS DUE AND ENFORCEMENT
OF OBLIGATIONS

102. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Registrar or such other person as may be authorised in this behalf, may, on his own motion when the interest of the Government is involved or on the written requisition of a registered society, an affiliating society or financing bank for the recovery of any loan or any other sum due by a defaulting member after due inquiry as he may deem fit and after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard, grant a Cooperative Demand Certificate for recovery of any amount found to be due.

2. (a) If any installment of loan or interest payable by a member of a cooperative society or any part of such installment has remained unpaid for more than 30 days from the date on which it fell due, the Board may, in addition to any other person authorised for the recovery of such installment or part thereof, recover the installment or such part thereof by distraint and sale of the produce of the charged land including the standing crop;

- (b) On receipt of such application the Registrar or the person authorised by him may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, take action in the manner as prescribed for the purpose of distraining and selling such produce.

Provided that no distraint shall be made after the expiry of twelve months from the date on which the installment fell due ;

- (c) The value of the property distrained shall be, as nearly as possible equal to the amount due and the expenses of the distraint and the costs of the sale.

SCHEDULE – A

(see section 4(1), 25)

COOPERATIVE PRINCIPLES

The co-operative principles are guidelines by which co-operative societies put their values into practice.

1st Principle : Voluntary and open Membership.

Co-operative societies are voluntary organisations , open to all persons able to use their service and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

2nd Principle : Democratic Member Control.

Co-operative societies are democratic organisations controlled by their members, who actively participate in setting their policies and making decisions .Men and women serving as elected representatives are accountable to the members. In primary co-operative members have equal voting rights (one member, one vote) and cooperative society at other levels are also organised in a democratic manner.

3rd Principle : Member Economic Participation .

Members contribute equitably to and democratically control, the capital of their cooperative societies. At least part of that capital is usually the common property of the co-operative. Members usually receive limited compensation, if any, on capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members allocate surpluses for any or all of the following purposes : developing their co-operative societies, possibly by setting up reserves, part of which at least would be invisible, benefiting members in proportion to their transaction with the co-operative society, and supporting other activities approved by the members.

4th Principle : Autonomy and Independence.

Co-operative societies are autonomous, self-help organisations controlled by their members. If they enter into agreements with other organisations , including Governments, or raise capital from external sources, they do so on terms that ensure democratic control by their members and maintain their co-operative autonomy.

5th Principle : Education, Training and Information.

Co-operative societies provide education and training for their members, elected representatives, managers, and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of their co-operative societies. They inform the general public- particularly young people and opinion leaders - about the nature and benefits of co-operation.

6th Principle : Co-operation among Co-operatives Societies.

Co-operative societies serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local , national, regional and international structures.

7th Principle : Concern for Community.

Co-operative societies work for the sustainable development of their community through policies approved by their members.
