(d) Secretary Health and Family Welfare or his nominee not below the rank of Joint Secretary to the State Government: Member

(3) Three members of the selection committee shall form the quorum.

Provided that no recommendation shall be made, unless at least two experts nominated under clause (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) are present.

(4) The committee shall examine the merits of various candidates and recommend to the Board of Management the names of suitable persons for the post arranged in order of merit.

(5) Out of the names so recommended under sub-section (4), the Vice-chancellor shall appoint persons in order of merit with the prior approval of the Board of Management.

54. The salaries to the teachers of the university shall be payable by the university in accordance with the Ordinance.

55. Save as otherwise provided in this Act all casual vacancies of the members, other than ex-officio members of any authority, committee or other body of the university shall be filled, as soon as possible for the remaining term.

56. (1) Every salaried officer, teacher and paid employees of the university shall be appointed under a written order which shall be lodged with the university.

(2) Any dispute regarding service matters shall be adjudicated upon in accordance with the statutes and ordinance.

57. (1) The university shall constitute, for the benefit of its officers, teachers, clerical staff and other employees in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the statutes such pension, insurance and provident fund and institute such other benefits as it may deem fit;
58. No person shall impart instructions in the university or any college-
(a) unless such person possesses the qualifications laid down by the Academic Council in this behalf; and
(b) except in such subject or subjects and up to the standard for which his qualifications have been approved by the Academic Council.

59. Classification of teachers of the university and the affiliated colleges and institutions shall be such as provided in the Ordinance.

60.-(1) If the State Government is satisfied that owing to maladministration or financial mismanagement in the university a situation has arisen whereby financial stability of the university has become insecure, it may by notification, declare that the financiers of the university shall be subject to the control of the State Government;

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall, in the first instance, remain in operation for a period of one year from the date specified in the notification and the State Government may from time to time by notification, extend the period of operation by such further period as it may think fit, provided that the total period of operation does not exceed three years;

(3) During the period of the notification issued under sub-section (1) the executive authority of the university shall issue directions to the said university to observe such cautions of financial propriety as may be specified in the direction and to give such other directions as the State Government may deem necessary and adequate for the purpose;

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any such direction may include:
(i) a provision requiring the submission of the budget to the State Government for sanction:
(ii) a provision requiring the university to submit every proposal involving financial implications to the State Government for sanctions;

(iii) a provision requiring the submission of every proposal for the revision of pay scale and rate of allowances of the officers, teachers, and other persons employed by the university to the State Government for the sanction;

(iv) a provision requiring the deduction of salaries and allowances of all or any class of persons employed by the university;

(v) a provision requiring the deduction in the number of posts of the officers, teachers and other persons employed by the university;

(vi) a provision requiring the lowering down of scales of pay and rate of allowances; and

(vii) a provision in regard to such other matters as may have the effect of reducing the financial strain on the university;

Provided that the Chancellor may, if he considers it necessary so to do, appoint a committee consisting of an educationist, an administrative expert and a financial expert to assist Vice-chancellor so appointed in exercise of such powers and discharge of such duties;

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, it shall be binding on every authority of the university and every officer of the university to give effect to the direction given under this Section;

(6) Every officer of the university shall be personally liable for misapplication of any fund or property of the university as a result of non-compliance of the direction given under this Section to which he shall have been a party or he shall have happened through or been facilitated by pressurization of any other officer so as that he has incurred shall, on a certificate issued by the Secretary of Men Power and Employment be recovered from such officer as arrears of land revenue:

Provided that no action to recover the amount of loss as arrears of land revenue shall be taken until reasonable opportunity has been given to the person concerned to furnish explanation and such explanation has been considered by the State Government.
61.(1) If the State Government on receipt of a report or otherwise, is satisfied that situation has arisen in which the administration of the university cannot be carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act, without detriment to the interests of the university and it is expedient in the interest of the university so to do, it may by notification, for reasons to be mentioned therein, direct that the provisions of Sections 11, 13, 19, 20, 21, 27, 34, 43, 44 and 70 shall as from the date specified in the notification (herein after referred to as the appointed date) not apply to the university.

(2) The Notification issued under sub-section(1) shall remain in operation for a period of one year from the appointed date and the State Government may, from time to time, extend the period of such further period as it may think fit so, however that the total period of operation of the notification does not exceed three years.

(3) The Chancellor shall simultaneously with the issue of the notification, appoint any senior Officer of the Government, preferably with suitable Academic background as Vice-chancellor and Vice-chancellor so appointed shall hold office during the period of operation of the notification and shall have the all powers of Vice-chancellor appointed under Section 13. Provided that Vice-chancellor may notwithstanding the expiration of the period of operation of the notifications, continue to hold office thereafter until his successor enters upon office but this period shall not exceed one year.

(4) As from the appointed date, the following consequences shall ensue, namely:

(a) Vice-chancellor holding office immediately before the appointed date, shall notwithstanding that his term of office has not expired, vacate his office;

(b) every person holding office as a member of the Board of Management or the Academic Council, as the case may be immediately before the appointed date shall cease to hold that office;

Powers of State Government to apply Act in modified form with a view to provide for better administration of University in certain circumstances.
(c) until, the Board of Management or Academic Council, as the case may be, is reconstituted in accordance with the provisions as modified.

The vice-chancellor appointed under Section 11 and 13 as modified, shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties conferred or imposed by or under this Act on the Board of Management or Academic Council.

Provided that if the Board of Management and Academic Council are not constituted before the expiration of the period of operation of the notification, the vice-chancellor shall, on such expiration, exercise the powers of each of these authorities subject to prior approval of the Chancellor till the Board of Management or Academic Council, as the case may be, is so constituted.

62. On expiration of the period of operation of the notification issued under Section 61, the provisions of this Act, as modified in application to the university mentioned in the notification shall cease to operate in respect thereof and the other relevant provisions of this act shall revive and continue to apply thereto.

Provided that the expiration of the operation of the notification shall not affect:

(a) any previous operation of or anything done or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the provisions as modified or any order made thereunder; or

(b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the provisions as modified or any order made thereunder; or

(c) any investigation or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation or liability as aforesaid and such investigation or remedy may be instituted or enforced as if the modified provisions had not ceased to apply.

63. If any question arises regarding the interpretation of any provisions of this Act or any statute, ordinance or regulation or as to whether any person has been duly elected, appointed as or, is entitled to be, a member of any authority or other body of the university, the matter shall be referred to the Chancellor whose decision thereon shall be final:

Provided that before taking any such decision the Chancellor, himself or an officer nominated by him shall give the person or persons affected thereby a reasonable opportunity of being heard;

Effect on expiration of the period of notification under Section 61.

64. No act or proceeding of any authority, committee or body of the university shall be invalid merely by reason of:
   (a) any vacancy in or defect in the constitution thereof;
   (b) any defect in the election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or
   (c) any irregularity in its procedure not affecting the merits of the case.

65. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer, teacher or other employee of the university for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done by him or her under this Act, or the statute or university ordinance or regulation.

66.(1) Whenever in accordance with this Act, any person is to hold an office or to be a member of any authority, by rotation according to seniority, such seniority in the absence of any provisions to the contrary in the Act, shall be determined in accordance with the statute.

   Provided that, till the statutes are made, the seniority in a particular cadre shall be determined by the length of continuous service in such cadre and where the length of continuous service of two or more persons in the same cadre is the same, then "seniority" shall be determined by seniority in age.

   (2) Wherever any person becomes a member of any authority by virtue of the post or office held by him or by virtue of possessing a specified qualification, he shall forthwith cease to be a member of such authority if he ceases to hold such post or office or if he ceases to possess such qualifications before the expiry of term of his membership.

   Provided that he shall not be deemed to have ceased to hold his post or office merely by reason of his proceeding on leave for a period not exceeding four months.

67. (1) Any member other than an ex-officio member of the Board of Management, the Academic Council, or any other University Authority or Committee or Dean of a Faculty may resign by a letter addressed to the Registrar and the resignation shall take effect as soon as the letter is received by the Registrar.

Proceedings of University and bodies not invalidated by vacancies.

Protection of action taken in good faith.

Terms of office of members of Authority of University.

Resignation of member or officer of University.
(2) Any officer of the university, whether salaried or otherwise, other than a Dean may resign his office by a letter addressed to the Registrar. Such Resignation shall take effect from the date on which the same is accepted by the Authority competent to fill the vacancy.

68. (1) A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being a member of any of the authorities of the university:
(a) if he is of unsound mind; or
(b) if he is deaf, mute or suffering from any contagious disease; or
(c) if he is an undischarged insolvent; or
(d) if he has been convicted by a Court of Law of an offence involving moral turpitude and sentence in respect thereof imprisonment for not less than six months;

(2) If any question arises as to whether a person is, has been subject to any of the disqualification mentioned sub-section (1) the question shall be referred for the decision of the Chancellor and his decision thereon shall be final and no suit or other proceeding shall lie in any court of law against such decisions.

69. (1) The Chancellor may, on the request of the Board of Management, remove the name of any person from the register of graduates or diploma holders or from membership of any authority or body of the university; if-
(i) he is guilty of gross misconduct; and
(ii) he acts prejudicial to the interest of the university.

Provided that the Chancellor shall cause a preliminary enquiry to be made and if he is satisfied that prima facie case exists, he shall serve on such person charge-sheet, in writing, stating the misbehaviour or the act prejudicial to the interest of the university, as the case may be.

70. If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution or reconstitution of any authority of the university after commencement of the Act, or otherwise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government, as occasion may require, may by order do anything which appears to it necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.
