Determination of field boundaries.— If at the time of a survey, the boundary of a field or holding be undisputed, and its correctness be affirmed by the village officers then present, it may be laid down as pointed out by the holder or person in occupation and, if disputed, or if the said holder or person in occupation be not present, it shall be fixed by the survey officer according to the land records and according to occupation as ascertained from the village officers and the holders of adjoining lands, or on such other evidence or information as the survey officer may be able to procure.

113. Disputes regarding boundaries between villages, survey numbers and sub-divisions.— If any dispute arises concerning the boundary of a village or a field or a holding which has not been surveyed, or if at any time after the completion of a survey a dispute arises concerning the boundary of any village or survey number or sub-division of a survey number, it shall be decided by the Collector after holding a formal inquiry, at which the village officers and all persons interested shall have an opportunity of appearing and producing evidence.

114. Demarcation of boundaries of survey number or sub-division.— (1) The Collector may, on the application of a party interested, demarcate the boundaries of a survey number or of a sub-division and construct boundary marks thereon.

(2) The Government may make rules for regulating the procedure of the Collector in demarcating the boundaries of a survey number or of a sub-division, prescribing the nature of the boundary marks to be used, and authorising the levy of fees from the holders of land in a demarcated survey number or sub-division.

(3) Survey numbers and sub-divisions demarcated under the provisions of this section shall be deemed to be survey numbers for the purposes of sections 110, 113, 116 and 117.

115. Effect of settlement of boundaries.— (1) The settlement of a boundary under this Chapter shall be determinative—

(a) of the proper position of the boundary lines or boundary marks; and

(b) of the rights of the holders on either side of the boundary fixed in respect of the land adjudged to appertain, or not to appertain, to their respective holdings.

(2) Where a boundary has been so fixed, the Collector may at any time summarily evict any person who holds land and who is wrongfully in possession of any land which has been adjudged in the settlement of boundary not to appertain to his holding or to the holding of any person through or under whom he claims.

(3) An order of eviction under sub-section (2) shall, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5), be subject to appeal and revision in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

(4) Where any person has been evicted or is about to be evicted from any land under the provisions of sub-section (2), he may, within a period of one year from the date of the settlement of the boundary, institute a civil suit to establish his title thereto:

Provided that the Government or the Collector, or any revenue or survey officer as such, shall not be made a party to such suit.

(5) Where a civil suit has been instituted under sub-section (4), such order shall not be subject to appeal or revision.

(6) The Collector may at any time make an order for redistribution of land revenue which, in his opinion, should be made as a result of the decision of the appeal or revision or, as the case may be, the suit, and such redistribution shall take effect from the beginning of the revenue year following the date of the order.

(3) The boundary marks and survey marks shall be of such description, and shall be constructed, laid out, maintained or repaired in such manner and shall be of such dimension and materials as may, subject to rules made by the Government in this behalf, be determined by the Superintendent of Surveys and Land Records, according to the requirement of soil, climate, durability and cheapness of materials.

117. Responsibility for maintaining boundary marks.— Every person who holds land or is in possession thereof shall be responsible for the maintenance and good care of the boundary marks and survey marks of his holding and for any charge reasonably incurred on account of the same by the revenue officers in case of alteration, removal or disrepair. It shall be the duty of the Revenue Officers to prevent the destruction or unauthorised alteration of the village boundary marks or survey marks.

118. CHAPTER X

Realisation of Land Revenue and other public demands

120. Claims of Government to have precedence over all others.— (1) Land revenue assessed on any land and the arrears thereof and all claims of the Government to moneys recoverable under the provisions of this Chapter, shall have precedence over any other debt, demand or claim whatsoever, whether in respect of mortgage, judgement, decree, execution or attachment or otherwise howsoever, against any land or the holder thereof.

(2) The claim of the Government to any moneys other than arrears of land revenue, but recoverable as a revenue demand under the provisions of this Chapter, shall have priority over all unsecured claims against any land or holder thereof.

121. Payment of Land Revenue.— Land revenue shall be payable at such times, in such instalments, to such persons, and at such places, as may be prescribed.

122. Arrear of land revenue.— (1) Any instalment of land revenue or part thereof which is not paid on or before the due date shall become an arrear of land revenue and the persons responsible for the payment become defaulters.

(2) A statement of account certified by the Mamlatdar shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, be conclusive evidence of the existence of the arrear, of its amount and of the person who is the defaulter:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall prejudice the right of such person to make payment under protest and to question the correctness of the account in separate proceedings before the competent authority.

(3) On receipt of such a certified statement of account it shall be lawful for the Collector, the Assistant or Deputy Collector or the Mamlatdar in one district to proceed to recover the demands of the Collector of any other district under the provisions of this Chapter as if the demand arose in his own district.

123. Recovery of arrears.— An arrear of land revenue may be recovered by any one or more of the following processes, namely:—

(a) by serving a written notice of demand on the defaulter under section 124.

(b) by distraint and sale of the defaulter's movable property under section 125;

(c) by forfeiture of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due under section 127;

(d) by the attachment and sale of the defaulter's immovable property, under section 128;

(e) by arrest and imprisonment of the defaulter under section 129.

124. Notice of demand.— (1) The form and contents of the notice of demand and the Officers by whom notices shall be issued shall be such as may be prescribed.

(2) A notice of demand may be issued on or after the day following that on which the arrear accrues.

125. Distraint and sale of defaulter's movable property.— (1) The Collector may also cause the defaulter's movable property to be distrained and sold.

(2) Such distraint and sale of the movable property of a defaulter shall be made by such officers or class of officers, in such manner and in accordance with such procedure, as may be prescribed.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to authorise the distraint or sale of any property which, under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or any other law for the time being in force, is exempt from attachment or sale in execution of a decree or of any article set aside exclusively for religious use.

126. Resort to other processes.— When the Collector is of opinion that the processes referred to in clause (a) and (b) of section 123 are not sufficient for the recovery of an arrear of land revenue, he may resort to the processes referred to in clause (c), (d) or (e) of section 123 as he may deem expedient.

127. Holding for which arrear is due may be forfeited.— The Collector may declare the holding in respect of which an arrear of land revenue is due, to be forfeited to the Government, and subject to rules made in his behalf, sell or otherwise dispose of the same under the provisions of section 46 or 47 and credit the proceeds, if any, to the defaulter's account:

Provided that the Collector shall not declare any such holding to be forfeited—

(a) unless previously thereto he shall have issued a proclamation and written notices of the intended declaration in the manner provided by section 133 and 134 for sales of immovable property, and

(b) until after the expiration of at least fifteen days from the latest date on which any of the said notices shall have been affixed as required by section 134.

128. Sale of defaulter's immovable property.— The Collector may also cause the right, title and interest of the defaulter in any immovable property other than the land on which the arrear of land revenue is due to be similarly attached and sold.

129. Arrest and detention of defaulter.— At any time after any arrear becomes due, the defaulter (not being an agriculturist from whom such arrear in respect of his occupancy is due) may be arrested and detained in custody in the civil jail unless the revenue due together with the penalty or interest and the cost of arrest and of notice of demand and the cost of his subsistence during detention is sooner paid. For this purpose the Collector may issue a warrant in the prescribed form:

Provided that no such arrest shall be made unless the default is wilful and the defaulter is given an opportunity to show cause against his arrest and detention.

130. Power to arrest by whom to be exercised.— The Government may from time to time declare by what officers or class of officers, the powers of arrest conferred by section 129 may be exercised, and also fix the costs of arrest and the amount of subsistence money to be paid by the Government to any defaulter under detention.

131. But all processes to be stayed on security being given.— (1) Any defaulter detained in custody shall forthwith be set at liberty and the execution of any process shall, at any time, be stayed, on the defaulter's giving before the Collector or if the defaulter is in jail, before the officer in charge of such jail, security in the prescribed form satisfactory to the Collector or to such officer.

(2) Any person against whom proceedings are taken under this Chapter may pay the amount claimed under protest to the officer taking such proceedings, and upon such payment, the proceedings shall be stayed.

132. Sale to be by auction.— All sales of property, movable or immovable, under this Chapter shall be by public auction held in accordance with the provisions of the next succeeding sections.

133. Procedure in effecting sales.— (1) When any sale of either movable or immovable property is ordered under the provisions of this Chapter, the Collector shall issue a proclamation in the prescribed form with its translation in such language as may be prescribed, of the intended sale, specifying the time and place of sale, the amount or amounts for the recovery of which the sale is ordered and, in the case of movable property, whether the sale is subject to confirmation or not and when land paying revenue to the Government is to be sold, the revenue assessed upon it, together with any other particulars he may think necessary.

(2) Such proclamation shall be made by beat of drum at the head quarters of the taluka and in the village in which the immovable property is situated if the sale be of immovable property; and if the sale be of movable property, the proclamation shall be made in the village in which such property was seized, and in such other places as the Collector may direct.

134. Notification of sales.— (1) A written notice of the intended sale of immovable property, and of the time and place thereof, shall be affixed in each of the following places, namely:—

(2) In the case of movable property, the written notice shall be affixed in the Mamlatdar's office and in the office of the village panchayat or some other public building in the village in which such property was seized.

136. Postponement of sale.— The sale may from time to time be postponed for any sufficient reason:

Provided that, when the sale is postponed for a period longer than thirty days, a fresh proclamation and notice shall be issued unless the defaulter consents to waive it.

137. Sale of perishable articles.— Nothing in sections 133, 134, 135 and 136 applies to the sale of perishable articles. Such articles shall be sold by auction with the least possible delay, in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be made by the Collector either generally or specially in that behalf.

138. When sale may be stayed.— If the defaulter, or any person on his behalf, pays the arrear for the recovery of which the property is to be sold and all other charges legally due by him, at any time before the property is knocked down, to the person prescribed under section 121 to receive payment of the land revenue due, or to the officer appointed to conduct the sale, or if he furnishes security under section 131, the sale shall be stayed.

Purchase money when to be paid.— The full amount of purchase money shall be paid by the purchaser before the expiration of two months from the date, on which the sale of the immovable property took place or before the expiration of fifteen days from the date on which the intimation of confirmation of the sale is received by the purchaser, whichever is earlier:

145. Liability of purchaser for loss by resale.— If the proceeds of the sale, which is made under section 140, 141 or 144 be less than the price bid by such defaulting purchaser, the difference shall be recoverable from him by the Collector as an arrear of land revenue.

146. Notification before re-sale.— Every re-sale of property in default of payment of the purchase-money, shall, except when such re-sale takes place forthwith, be made after the issue of a fresh notice in the manner prescribed for original sale.

147. Setting aside sales of movables.— Sales of movables, subject to confirmation, may be set aside on the ground of some material irregularity or mistake in publishing or conducting it if a person (on application made within seven days from the date of sale) proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that he has sustained substantial injury by reason thereof.

148. Application to set aside sale of immovables.— (1) At any time within thirty days from the date of sale of immovable property an application may be made to the Collector to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity, or mistake, or fraud, in publishing or conducting it; but, except as is otherwise provided in sections 149, 150 and 151 no sale shall be set aside on the ground of any such irregularity or mistake, unless the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Collector that he has sustained substantial injury by reason thereof.
