(2) The Governing Body shall submit the annual report to the Chancellor along with its comments, if any.

CHAPTER VII-GOVERNMENT CONTROL

45. General Powers of the Regulatory Authority.— (1) For the purposes of ascertaining the standards of functioning of the University in terms of exercise of administrative powers and service conditions of employees, the Regulatory Authority may cause an assessment to be made in such manner as it deems proper.

(2) The Regulatory Authority shall communicate to the University its recommendations in regard to the result of such assessment and issue directives to the University for corrective action. The University shall adopt such corrective measures and ensure compliance with the recommendations.

(3) If the University fails to comply with the recommendations made under sub-section (2) within a reasonable time, the Regulatory Authority may give such directions as it may deem fit for such compliance.

46. Power of the Government to issue directions on policy matters.— The Government, through its Department of Higher Education, may issue such directions from time to time to the University on policy matters not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as it may deem necessary. Such directions shall be complied with by the University, failing which, the Government may take action against the University in such manner as prescribed for Private Universities operational in the State of Goa.

47. Special powers of the Regulatory Authority and the Government in certain circumstances.— (1) If, it appears to the Regulatory Authority that the University has contravened any of the provisions of this Act or Statutes or Ordinances made thereunder or has violated any of the directions issued by it under this Act or has ceased to carry out any of the undertakings given under this Act or a situation of financial mismanagement or maladministration has arisen in the University, it shall issue notice requiring the University to show cause within forty-five days as to why an order of its dissolution should not be made.

(2) If the Regulatory Authority, on receipt of the reply of the University on the notice issued under sub-section (1), is satisfied that there is a prima facie case of contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or the Statutes or Ordinances or Regulations made thereunder or of violation of directions issued by it under this Act or of ceasing to carry out any of the undertakings given or of financial mismanagement or maladministration, it shall make an order of such enquiry as it may consider necessary.

(3) The Regulatory Authority shall, for the purposes of any enquiry under sub-section (2), appoint an inquiry officer or enquiry committee to inquire into any of the allegations and to make a report thereon.

(4) The inquiry officer or the enquiry committee appointed under sub-section (3) shall have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Civil Procedure Code, 1908 (Act of 1908) while trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of any such document or any other material as may be necessary in evidence;

(c) requisitioning any public record from any office.

(5) The inquiry officer or enquiry committee inquiring under this Act shall be deemed to be a Civil Court for the purposes of Section 215 and Chapter 28 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (Central Act No. 46 of 2023).

(6) On receipt of the enquiry report from the enquiry officer or the enquiry Committee appointed under sub-section (3), if the Regulatory Authority is satisfied that the University has contravened all or any of the provisions of this Act or the Statutes or Ordinances or Regulations made thereunder or has violated any of the directions issued by it under this Act or has ceased to carry out the undertakings given by it or a situation of financial mismanagement and mal-administration has arisen in the University which threatens the academic standard of the University, it shall make recommendations to the Government for liquidation of the University and shall appoint an Administrator.

(7) The Administrator appointed under sub-section (6) shall have all the powers and be subjected to all the duties of the Executive Council and the Governing Body under this Act and shall administer the affairs of the University until the last batch of the students of the regular courses have completed their courses and they have been awarded degrees, diplomas or awards, as the case may be.

(8) After having been awarded the degrees, diplomas or awards, as the case may be, to the last batches of the students of the regular courses, the Administrator shall make a report to the effect to the Regulatory Authority and the Government.

(9) On receipt of the report under sub-section (8), the Government shall, by a notification in the Official Gazette, issue an order dissolving the University and from the date of publication of such notification in the Official Gazette, the University shall stand dissolved, and all the assets and liabilities of the University shall vest in the Society from such date.

CHAPTER VIII-MISCELLANEOUS

(b) the first Dean to be appointed to the Governing Body shall be appointed by the Chancellor with the approval of the Society for a term of three years;

(c) the first Governing Body, the first Executive Council, the first Academic Council and the first Finance Committee shall be constituted by the Chancellor with the approval of the Society for a term of three years.

49. Transitional Provisions.— Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and the Statutes and Ordinances,—

(a) Any student of the Institute of the Society exercising any rights as per the guidelines of the AICTE before the date of commencement of this Act, who was studying or was eligible for any examination of the Institute, shall be permitted to complete his course in preparation thereof, and the University shall provide for such period and in such manner as it may decide for the instruction, teaching of such student in accordance with the courses of studies as per the guidelines of the AICTE and/or UGC. The students shall be permitted to appear at the different examinations held as per the guidelines of the AICTE and/or UGC for such period or periods as the AICTE guidelines may permit and be eligible to receive a degree, diploma, certificate or any other distinction as per the AICTE and/or UGC guidelines;

(b) Students who have been enrolled and have completed their registration in any of the Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) programmes of the Institute prior to the issuance of the notification under sub-section (2) of Section (4) shall be eligible for the award of the respective Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) from the Institute on qualifying for successful completion of the programmes within the next academic year.

(c) Students who have been enrolled and have completed their registration for the first year of the current academic year in any of the Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) programmes of the Institute, after the issuance of the notification under sub-section (2) of Section (4) shall be eligible for the award of the Master's or Doctoral degree, as the case may be, from the University on qualifying for successful completion of the programmes.

(d) Students who have been enrolled and have completed their registration in any of the Post Graduate Diploma in Management (PGDM) or Fellow Programme in Management (FPM) programmes of the Institute not more than 2 years prior to the issuance of the notification under sub-section (2) of Section (4) shall be eligible for award of the respective Masters in Business Administration (MBA) or Doctoral (PhD) degree, as the case may be, after qualifying for successful completion of the programme.

(e) The campus of the Institute of the Society shall be deemed to be the campus of the University;

(f) The Society shall be deemed to have permitted the use of its buildings and ancillary structures for the use of the University for administrative and academic purposes only:

Provided that the assets and liabilities of the Society shall continue to be the assets and liabilities of the Society;

(g) Employees of the Institute of the Society, excluding those retained by it, shall be deemed to be the employees of the University with all their rights and privileges protected as per their contract of employment;

(h) All contracts made in the name of the Institute of the Society shall be deemed to be contracts made in the name of the University;

(i) All suits and legal proceedings taken by the Institute of the Society which are pending on the date notified in sub-section (2) of Section 4, shall be continued by the University.

50. Dissolution of University.— (1) If the Society proposes dissolution of the University, it shall make such proposal at least three months in advance in writing to the Government.

(2) On identification of mismanagement, maladministration, indiscipline, failure in the accomplishment of the objects of the University and economic hardships in the management systems of the University, the Government shall, subject to and in accordance with the relevant law, if any, for the time being in force, issue directions to the Society of the University and if the directions are not followed within such time as may be specified, the right to take decision, for dissolution of the University, shall vest in the Government.

(3) The manner of dissolution of the University would be such as may be specified by the Government in this behalf for Private Universities operational in the State of Goa.

(4) If the Government considers it necessary to suspend the Executive Council, it shall, by notification published in the Official Gazette, order the suspension of the Executive Council and shall make such arrangements in consultation with the Society for the administration of the business of the University until the completion of the investigation, as it may consider necessary:

Provided that no such action shall be initiated without affording a reasonable opportunity to show cause to the Society.

(5) On receipt of the proposal under sub-section (1) or on a decision to dissolve under sub-section (2), the Government shall in consultation with the AICTE, UGC, and other concerned regulatory bodies of Central or State Government make such arrangements for administration of the University from the proposed date of dissolution or winding up of the University until the last batch of the students in regular courses of studies of the University complete their courses of studies in such manner as may be specified by the regulatory body.

51. Expenditure of the University during dissolution.— (1) The expenditure for the administration of the University during the taken-over period of its management under Section 50 shall be met out of the Endowment Fund, the General Fund or the Development Fund.

(2) If the funds specified under sub-section (1) are not sufficient to meet the expenditure of the University during the taken-over period of management, such expenditure may be met by disposing of the properties or assets of the University by the Government.

52. Status of Assets/Liabilities on dissolution/de-recognition.— All assets and properties, including the permanent endowment fund, general fund or any other fund and also the liabilities of the University, shall belong to the Society in case of dissolution of the University.

53. Conditions of service of employees.— Every employee shall be appointed under a written contract, which shall be in the possession of the University and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the employee concerned.

54. Disciplinary action.— Disciplinary action against the students or employees shall be governed by such procedure as may be specified in the statutes.

55. Right to appeal.— Every employee or student of the University shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, have a right to appeal, within such time as may be specified to the Executive Council against the decision of any officer or authority of the University and the Executive Council may confirm, modify or vary such decision.

56. Disputes as to the constitution of University Authorities and bodies.— If any question arises as to whether any person has been duly appointed or is entitled to be a member of any authority or other body of the University, the matter shall be referred to the Chancellor of the University, whose decision on such question shall be final.

57. Constitution of Committees.— Where any authority of the University is given power under this Act or the Statutes to appoint Committees, such Committees shall, save as otherwise provided, consist of the members of the authority concerned and of such other persons as the authority in each case may think fit.

58. Protection of action taken in good faith.— (1) No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any officer or other employee of the University for anything which is done in good faith or intended to be done in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be a bar for filing suits, prosecutions or other legal proceedings for anything done in contravention of the provisions of this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances made thereunder, and any other law for the time being in force.

59. Mode of proof of University records.— A copy of any receipt, application, notice, order, proceeding, resolution of any authority or Committee of the University or other documents in possession of the University, if certified by the Registrar, shall be received as prima-facie evidence of such receipt, application, notice, order, proceeding or resolution, document or the existence of entry in the register and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters and transactions therein where the original thereof would, if produced have been admissible in evidence.

60. Convocation.— The convocation of the University shall be held in every academic year in the manner as may be specified by the Statutes and Ordinances for conferring degrees, diplomas or for any other purpose.

61. Power to make rules by the Government.— (1) The Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the Legislative Assembly of Goa.

62. Disputes to be settled in a Court in Goa.— All disputes arising as a result of the provisions made in the Act shall be settled by a Court of law in the State of Goa.

63. Power to remove difficulties.— If any difficulty arises in giving effect to any of the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, remove the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiration of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the Legislative Assembly of Goa.
