25. No person shall have in his possession any quantity of any intoxicant, knowing the same to have been unlawfully improved, transported, manufactured, cultivated or collected, or knowing the prescribed duty not to have paid thereon.

[C.—Sale, Purchase, or Consumption]

26. No liquor shall be bottled for sale and no intoxicant shall be sold, except under the authority and subject to the terms and conditions of a license granted in that behalf, provided that—

(1) a person licenced under section 20 to cultivate the hemp plant may sell without a license those portions of the plant from which any intoxicating drug can be manufactured to any person licensed under this Act to deal in the same or to any officer whom the Financial Commissioner may appoint in this behalf;

(2) a person having the right to the tari drawn from any tree may sell the same without a license to a person licensed to manufacture or sell tari under this Act;

(3) on such conditions as the Financial Commissioner may determine, a license for sale under the excise law for the time being in force in other parts of India except part B States may be deemed to be a license granted in that behalf under this Act;

(4) nothing in this section applies to the sale of any foreign liquor lawfully procured by any person for his private use and sold by him or on his behalf or on behalf of his representatives in interest upon his quitting a station or after his decease.

[(5) The State Government, if satisfied, that it is necessary or expedient so to do, may by notification, prohibit—

32. Subject to such rules regulating the time, place and manner as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe, such duty shall be levied rateably on the quantity of excisable article imported, exported, transported, collected or manufactured in, or issued from, a distillery, brewery or warehouse:

Provided that duty may be levied—

(a) on intoxicating drugs by an acreage rate levied on the cultivation of the hemp * * * plant, or by a rate charged on the quantity collected;

(b) on spirit or beer manufactured in any distillery established, or any distillery or brewery licensed, under this Act, in accordance with such scale of equivalents calculated on the quantity of materials used, or by the degree of attenuation of the wash or wort, as the case may be, as the \[State\] Government may prescribe;

(c) on tari, by a tax on each tree from which the tari is drawn:

Provided further that, where payment is made upon issue of an excisable article for sale from a warehouse established or licensed under section 22(a) it shall be made—

(a) if the \[State\] Government by notification so directs, at the rate of duty which was in force at the date of import of that article; or

(b) in the absence of such direction by the \[State\] Government, at the rate of duty which is in force on that article on the date when it is issued from the warehouse.

33. Inserted of or in addition to any duty leviable under this Chapter the \[State\] Government may accept payment of a sum in consideration of the lease of any right under section 27.

4.(3) Whenever the authority which granted a license, permit or pass under this Act, considers that such license, permit or pass should be amended for any cause, it may, after notice to the holders of its intention to do so, amend such license, permit or pass.

35. (1) Subject to the rules made by the Financial Commissioner under the powers conferred by this Act, the Collector may grant licenses for the sale of any "intoxicant" within his district.

(2) Before any license is granted in any year for the retail sale of liquor for consumption on any premises which have not been so licensed in the preceding year, the Collector shall take such measures, in accordance with rules to be made by the [State] Government in this behalf, as may best enable him to ascertain local public opinion in regard to the licensing of such premises.

(3) A license for sale in more than one district of [Haryana] shall be granted by the Financial Commissioner only.

36. Subject to such restrictions as the [State] Government may prescribe, the authority granting any license, permit or pass under this Act may cancel or suspend it—

(a) if it is transferred or sublet by the holder thereof without the permission of the said authority, or

(b) if any duty or fee payable by the holder thereof be not duly paid; or

(c) in the event of any breach by the holder of such license, permit or pass or by his servants, or by any one acting on his behalf with his express or implied permission, of any of the terms or conditions of such license, permit or pass; or

(d) if the holder thereof is convicted of any offence punishable under this Act or any other law for the time being in force relating to revenue, or of any cognizable and non-bailable offence or of any offence punishable under the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1930 or, under the Merchandise Marks Act, 1889, or of any offence punishable under sections 482 to 489 (both inclusive) of the Indian Penal Code; or

(e) if the holder thereof is punished for any offence referred to in clause (8) of section 167 of the Sea Customs Act, 1878; or

(f) where a license, permit or pass has been granted on the application of the grantee of a lease under this Act, on the requisition in writing of such grantee; or

(g) at will, if the conditions of the license or permit provide for such cancellation or suspension.

37. When a license, permit or pass held by any person is cancelled under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of section 36 the authority aforesaid may cancel any other license, permit or pass granted to such person by, or by the authority of the [State] Government, within the same district under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force relating to excise revenue or under the Opium Act, 1878, and the Financial Commissioner may cancel any such license, permit or pass granted to such person in any district to which this Act applies.

38. In the case of cancellation or suspension of a license under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of section 36, the fee payable for the balance of the period for which any license would have been current but for such cancellation or suspension, may be recovered from the ex-licensee as excise revenue.

39. If any holder of a license granted this Act, or any person to whom a lease has been granted under section 27, makes default in complying with any condition imposed upon him by such license or lease, the Collector may take the grant under management at the risk of the person who has so defaulted or may resell it and recover in the manner laid down in section 60 of this Act any deficiency in price and all expenses of such re-sale.

40. When a license, permit or pass is cancelled or suspended under clauses (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of section 36 or under section 37, the holder shall not be entitled to any compensation for its cancellation or suspension, nor to the refund of any fee paid or deposit made in respect thereof.

41. (1) Whenever the authority which granted a license, permit or pass under this Act considers that such license, permit or pass should be withdrawn for any cause other than those specified in section 36, it may [(on remitting a sum equal to the amount of the fees payable in respect thereof for fifteen days,) withdraw] the license either—

(a) on the expiration of fifteen days' notice in writing of its intention to do so; or

(b) forthwith without notice.

(2) If any license, permit or pass be withdrawn under clause (b) of sub-section (1), [(in addition to the sum remitted as aforesaid,) there shall be paid to the licensee [(such further sum] (if any) by way of compensation as the Financial Commissioner may direct.

(3) When a license, permit or pass is withdrawn under this section, any fee paid in advance or deposit made by the licensee in respect thereof shall be refunded to him, after deducting the amount (if any) due to the [State] Government.

41A. (1) When a license, permit or pass is withdrawn under sub-section (1) of section 41 or amended under sub-section (3) of section 34, the holders of licenses, permits or passes shall surrender the stock, as required in the notice issued in this behalf, remaining unsold with them on the date of withdrawal or amendment in the license takes effect to the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner or Excise and Taxation Officer (Excise) of the district concerned and any excise duty realised by the Government on the stock so surrendered shall be refundable.

(2) Notwithstanding the fact that the period during which any license, permit or pass is to be in force has not expired, the Collector may direct the holder thereof to dispose of his stock of intoxicant or export the same against valid permit before such date as may be specified in the order.

(3) The Collector may also direct the owner of the stock of any intoxicant, who does not hold any license, permit or pass for such stock to surrender such stock to the Deputy Excise and Taxation Commissioner or the Excise and Taxation Officer (Excise) of the district concerned before such date as may be specified in the order, and the owner shall comply with such direction.

42. (1) No license, permit or pass granted under this Act shall be deemed to be invalid by reason merely of any technical defect, irregularity or omission in the license or in any proceedings taken prior to the grant thereof.

(2) The decision of the Ficancial Commissioner as to what is a technical defect, irregularity or omission shall be final.

43. No person to whom a license, permit or pass may have been granted shall be entitled to claim any renewal thereof, and no claim lie for damages or otherwise in consequence of any refusal to renew a license, permit or pass on the expiry of the period for which it remains in force.

44. (1) No holder of a license granted under this Act to sell an 'intoxicant' shall surrender his license except on the expiration of one month's notice in writing given by him to the Collector of his intention to surrender the same and on payment of the fee payable for the license for the whole period for which it would have been current but for the surrender:

1. Substituted for the word "excisable article" by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.
Provided that, if the Collector is satisfied that there is sufficient reason for surrendering the license, he may remit to the holder thereof the sum so payable on surrender or any portion thereof.

(2) Sub-section (1) shall not apply in the case of any license granted under section 27(2).

Explanation.— The words "holder of a license" as used in this section include a person whose tender or bid for a license has been accepted, although he may not actually have received the license.

CHAPTER VII.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS, ETC

45. Any excise officer not below such rank as the [State] Government may prescribe may—

(a) enter and inspect, at any time by day or by night, any place in which any licensed manufacturer carries on the manufacture of or stores any [intoxicant];

(b) enter and inspect, at any time within the hours, during which sale is permitted, and at any other time during which the same may be open, any place in which any [intoxicant] is kept for sale by any person holding a license under this Act;

(c) examine accounts and registers, test, measure or weigh any materials, stills, utensils, implements, apparatus or [intoxicant] found in that place;

(d) seize any accounts, registers, measures, weights or testing instruments which he has reason to believe to be false.

46. (1) The [State] Government may by notification invest any excise officer, not below the rank of sub-inspector with power to investigate any offence punishable under this Act, committed within the limits of the area in which the officer exercises jurisdiction.

(2) Every officer so empowered may within those limits exercise the same powers in respect of such investigation as an officer in charge of a police Station may exercise in a cognizable case under the provisions of 3[Chapter XII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.]

47. Any officer of the excise, police, salt or land revenue department, not below such rank and subject to such restrictions as the 3[State] Government may prescribe, and any other person duly empowered by notification by the 3[State] Government in this behalf may arrest without warrant any person found committing an offence punishable, under section 61, or section 63, and may seize and detain any 4[intoxicant] or other article, which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act or other law for the time being in force relating to excise revenue; and may detain and search any person upon whom, and any vessel, raft, vehicle, animal, package, receptacle or covering in or upon which he may have reasonable cause to suspect any such article to be.

48. A magistrate having reason to believe that an offence under section 61 or 63 has been, is being, or is likely to be committed, may —

(a) issue a warrant for the search of any place in which he has reason to believe that any 4[intoxicant] still, utensil, implement, apparatus or materials, in respect of which such offence has been, is being or is likely to be committed, are kept or concealed; and

(b) issue a warrant for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have been, to be, or to be likely to be engaged in the commission of any such offence.

49. (1) Whenever any excise officer not below such rank as the 3[State] Government may by notification prescribe, has reason to believe that an offence punishable under section 61, section 62, section 63, or section 64, has been, is being, or is likely to be committed in any place, and that a search-warrant cannot be obtained without affording the offender an opportunity of escape or of concealing evidence of the offence, he may, at any time, by day or night enter and search such place.

(2) Every excise officer as aforesaid may seize anything found in such place which he has reason to believe to be liable to confiscation under this Act, and may detain and search and, if he thinks proper, arrest any person found in such place whom he has reason to believe to be guilty of such offence as aforesaid.

\[49-A \text{ (1)}\] Any Excise Officer, not below such rank as the \[State\] Government may by notification prescribe may by order require any person to furnish to any specified authority or person any such information in his possession concerning any unlawful import, transport, manufacture or possession of any intoxicant, or any materials, still, utensil, implement, or apparatus whatsoever, for the purpose of manufacturing any intoxicant, or any unlawful cultivation of any plants from which an intoxicating drug can be produced as may be specified in the order.

(2) Any person upon whom an order is served under sub-section (1) shall be bound, in the absence of reasonable excuse, to furnish correct information.

50. Save as in this Act otherwise expressly provided, the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, \[1973\]; relating to arrests, detentions in custody, searches, summonses, warrants of arrest, search-warrants, production of persons arrested and investigation of offence shall be held to be applicable to all action taken in these respects under this Act:

Provided that—

(1) any offence under this Act may be investigated by an officer empowered under section 46 without the order of a magistrate;

(2) whenever an excise officer below the rank of Collector makes any arrest, seizure or search he shall within twenty-four hours thereafter make a full report of all the particulars of the arrest, seizure or search to his immediate official superior, and shall, unless bail be accepted under section 73, take or send the person arrested or the article seized, with all convenient despatch to a [Judicial Magistrate] for trial or adjudication.

51. All police officers are required to aid the excise officers in the due execution of this Act, upon request made by such excise officers.

52. (a) Every owner or occupier of land [or any building] and the agent of any owner or occupier of land [or any building] on which—

(b) Every lambardar, village headman, village accountant, village watchman, village policeman and every officer employed in the collection of revenue or rent of land on the part of Government or the Court of Wards in whose village—there shall be any manufacture or illegal import or collection of any [intoxicant] not licensed under this Act, or any unlawful, cultivation of any plants from which an intoxicating drug can be produced, shall be bound, in the absence of reasonable excuse, to give notice of the same to a magistrate or to an officer of the excise, police or land revenue department as soon as the fact comes to his knowledge.

3[52-A (1)] Every owner or occupier of any premises and every owner of any vehicle shall be bound to exercise due diligence in order to make sure that such premises or vehicle is not used for commission of any offence punishable under this Act.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention of the provision of sub-section (1) shall be liable for an offence committed under this Act.

53. Every officer in charge of a police station shall take charge of and keep in safe custody, pending the orders of a magistrate, or of the Collector of an officer empowered under section 46(1) to investigate the case, all articles seized under this Act which may be delivered to him, and shall allow any excise officer who may

54. (1) The District Magistrate or a Sub-Sub-isional Magistrate by notice in writing to the licensee may require that any shop in which any [intoxicant] is sold shall be closed at such times or for such period as he may think necessary for the preservation of the public peace.

(2) If a riot or unlawful assembly is apprehended or occurs in the vicinity of any such shop, [an Executive Magistrate] of any class may require such shop to be kept closed for such period as he may think necessary:

Provided that where any such riot or unlawful assembly occurs the licensee shall, in the absence of a magistrate, close his shop without any order.

(3) When any Sub-Divisional Magistrate makes a direction under sub-section (1) or [any Executive Magistrate] makes a direction under sub-section (2) he shall forthwith inform the Collector of his action and his reasons therefor.

CHAPTER VIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS.

55. Every person who manufactures or sells any [intoxicant] under a license granted under this Act shall be bound—

(a) to supply himself with such measures, weights and instruments as the Financial Commissioner may prescribe, and to keep the same in good conditions; and

(b) on the requisition of any excise officer duly empowered by the Collector in that behalf, at any time to measure, weigh or test any [intoxicant] in his possession in such manner as the said officer may require.

56. The [State] Government may by notification, either
