254 THE PUNJAB SECURITY OF LAND [1953 Pb. Act 10
TENURES ACT, 1953

(3) It shall extend to the whole of the State of Punjab.

¹[(4) Save as elsewhere expressly provided in this Act nothing contained therein shall apply to co-operative garden colonies which were registered before the coming into force of this Act,]

Section 28 of the Punjab land Reforms Act, 1972 is reproduced as under :—

Repeal and Saving

"28. (1) The Punjab Security of Land Tenures Act, 1953 and the Pepsu Tenancy and Agricultural Land Act, 1955, in so far as these are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, are hereby repealed.

(2) The repeal of the enactments mentioned in sub-section (1) here in after referred to as the said enactments, shall not affect—

(i) the proceedings for the determination of the surplus area pending immediately before the commencement of this Act, under either of the said enactments, which shall be continued and disposed of as if this Act had not been passed and the surplus area so determined shall vest in, and be utilised by the State Government in accordance with the provisions of this Act :

provided that such proceedings shall, as far as may be, be continued and disposed of, from the stage these were immediately before the commencement of this Act, in accordance with the procedure specified by or under this Act :

Provided further that nothing in this section shall affect the determination and utilisation of the surplus area other than the surplus area referred to above, in accordance with the provisions of this Act :

(ii) the previous operation of the said enactments or anything duly done or suffered thereunder.

(iii) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under the said enactments, in so far as such right privilege, obligation or liability is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and any proceeding or remedy in respect of such right, privilege obligation or liability may be instituted, continued or enforced as if this Act had not been passed :

Provided that such proceeding or remedy shall, as far as may be, be instituted, continued or enforced in accordance with the procedure specified by or under this Act."

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires :—

XVII of 1887..

XXXVI
of 1949.

Definitions.

(1) "Land-owner" means a person defined as such in the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887 (Act XVII of 1887), and shall include an "allottee" and "lessee" as defined in clauses (b) and (c), respectively, of section 2 of the East Punjab Displaced Persons (Land Resettlement) Act, 1949 (Act XXXVI of 1949), hereinafter referred to as the "Resettlement Act."

Explanation.—In respect of land mortgaged with possession, the mortgagee shall be deemed to be the land-owner.

(2) "Small land -owner" means a land -owner whose entire land in the State of Punjab does not exceed the "permissible area".

Explanation.—In computing the area held by any particular land-owner, the entire land owned by him in the State of Punjab, as entered in the record-of rights, shall be taken into account, and if he is a joint owner only his share be taken into account.

[(3) "Permissible area" in relation to a land-owner or a tenant means thirty standard acres and where such thirty standard acres on being converted into ordinary acres exceed sixty acres, such sixty acres :

Provided that—

(i) no area under an orchard at the commencement of this Act, shall be taken in to account in computing the permissible area ;

(ii) for a displaced person—

(a) who has been allotted land in excess of fifty standard acres, the permissible area shall be fifty standard acres or one hundred ordinary acres, as the case may be,

256 THE PUNJAB SECURITY OF LAND [1953 Pb. Act 10

(11) "Displaced person" has the meaning assigned to it in the East Punjab Displaced Persons (Land Resettlement) Act, 1949 (Act XXXVI of 1949.)

3. Any small land-owner, who by virtue of an allotment made after the commencement of this Act under the Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1950 (Act XXXI of 1950), comes to hold more than the permissible area of land, may select out of the entire area held by him as a land-owner in the State of Punjab,

Reservation of land by small land-owners.

a parcel or parcels of land not exceeding in aggregate the permissible area and reserve it by intimating his reservation in the prescribed form and manner, to the patwari of the estate in which the land reserved is situate, or to such other authority as may be prescribed, before the expiry of six months from the date of his obtaining possession of the land so allotted:

Provided that he shall include in his reservation, to the extent of the permissible area, whatever land he had under self-cultivation immediately before the commencement of this Act.

Fresh reservation of land due to modification of allotment

4. Any land-owner, who has made a lawful reservation of land under the 1950 Act, and whose allotment is modified or revised, after the commencement of this Act, under the Administration of Evacuee Property Act, 1950 (Act XXXI of 1950) shall be entitled to make a fresh reservation before the expiry of six months from the date of his obtaining possession of the land so allotted :

Provided that in making this fresh reservation he shall include to the extent of the permissible area firstly the land he has under self-cultivation and secondly such land out of his previous reservation, as has not passed out of his possession as a result of the said revision or modification of allotment.

Reservation of land.

5. (1) Any reservation before the commencement of this Act, shall cease to have effect and subject to the provisions of section 3 and 4 any land-owner who owns land in excess of the permissible area may reserve out of the entire land held by him in the State of Punjab as land-owner, any parcel or parcels not exceeding the permissible area by intimating his selection in the prescribed form and manner to the patwari of the estate in which the land reserved is situate or to such other authority as may be prescribed :

Provided that in making this reservation he shall include his areas owned in the following order :—

(a) area held in a Co-operative Garden Colony,

- (b) area under self-cultivation at the commencement of this Act other than the reserved area,
- (c) reserved area excluding the area under a jhundimar tenant or a tenant who has been in continuous occupation for 20 years or more immediately before such reservation,
- (d) area or share in a Co-operative Farming Society,
- (e) any other area owned by him.
- (f) area under a jhundimar tenant.

(2) Where in respect of any land more than one person can be classed as land-owners, as in the case of persons one of whom is a land-owner in principal and the other in derivative capacity, the aforesaid right of reservation shall be exercised by the land-owner who receives or is entitled to receive rent directly from the tenant in actual cultivation of the land.

(3) A land-owner shall be entitled to intimate a reservation within six months from the date of commencement of this Act, and no reservation so intimated shall be varied subsequently whether by act of parties or by operation of law, save with the consent in writing of the tenant affected by such variation or until such time as the right to eject such tenant otherwise accrues under the provision of this Act.

²[5-A. Every land-owner or tenant, who owns or holds land in excess of the permissible area and where land is situated in more than one Patwar Circle, shall furnish, within a period of six months from the commencement of the Punjab Security of Land Tenures

Declarations supported by affidavits to be furnished by certain land-owners and tenants.

¹Clauses (4 and (5) omitted by Punjab Act 57 of 1953.

²Sections 5A, 5B and 5C inserted by Punjab Act No. 46 of section 3.1957,

260 THE PUNJAB SECURITY OF LAND [1953 pb. Act 10
TENURES ACT, 1953

(Amendment) Act, 1957, a declaration supported by an affidavit in respect of the lands owned or held by him in such form and manner and to such authority as may be prescribed.

Selection of permissible area and consequence of failure to select.

15-B. (1) A land-owner who has not exercised his right of reservation under this Act, may select his permissible area and intimate the selection to the prescribed authority within the period specified in section 5-A and in such form and manner as may be prescribed :

Provided that a land-owner who is required to furnish a declaration under section 5-A shall intimate his selection along with that declaration.

(2) If a land-owner fails to select his permissible area in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), the prescribed authority may, subject to the provisions of section 5-C, select the parcel or parcels of land which such person is entitled to retain under the provisions of this Act :

Provided that the prescribed authority shall not make the selection without giving the land-owner concerned an opportunity of being heard.

Penalty for failure to furnish declaration.

15-C. (1) If a land-owner or tenant fails to furnish the declaration supported by an affidavit as 1Section 11 of Punjab Act No. 14 of 1962, reads as follows :

“Validation. 11. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder or in any other law for the time being in force or in any judgment, decree or order of any court or other authority,—

(a) where the surplus area in respect of the land owned by a Hindu undivided family referred to in clause (a) of section 19-E of the principal Act, has been determined under that Act at any time before the commencement of this Act by any authority competent to determine such area, whether by ignoring the partition of any such land made after the commencement of the principal Act or otherwise, such determination shall be valid and shall be deemed always to have been valid and shall not be questioned on the ground that the descendants of the land-owners constituting with him the Hindu undivided family were land-owners in their own right in respect of their shares in such land or on the ground that the partition had been ignored ;

(b) where an order under sub-section (2) of section 5-B or sub-section (1) of section 5-C, in respect of the surplus area of any person, has been passed by a Revenue Officer exercising the powers of a Collector purporting to act as the prescribed authority, such order shall be valid and shall be deemed always to have been valid and shall not be questioned on the ground that it was not passed by the prescribed authority.”

1953 Pb. Act 10] THE PUNJAB SECURITY OF LAND 261

required by section 5-A, the prescribed authority not below the rank of Collector may, by order, direct that the whole or part of the land of such land-owner or tenant in excess of ten standard acres to be specified by such authority shall be deemed to be the surplus area of such land-owner or tenant and shall be utilised by the State Government for the purpose mentioned in section 10-A :

Provided that no such order shall be made without giving the land-owner or tenant concerned an opportunity of being heard.

(2) Where a land -owner or tenant who is required to furnish a declaration under section 5-A fails so to do, the prescribed authority may in respect of him obtain the information required to be shown in the declaration through such agency as it may deem fit.]

¹[6. No transfer of land, except a bona fide sale or mortgage with possession or a transfer resulting from inheritance, made after the 15th August, 1947 and before the 2nd February, 1955, shall affect the rights of the tenant on such land under this Act.]

Certain previous transfers of land not to affect rights of tenants.

27. * * * *

²[8. The continuity of a tenancy shall not be affected by—

Continuity of tenancies.

- (a) the death of the landlord, or
- (b) the death of the tenant except when the tenant leaves no male lineal descendants or mother or widow, and
- (c) any change therein under the same land-owner; and for the purposes of sections 17 and 18 of this Act, such tenancy shall be the last area so held.]

¹Substituted by Punjab Act No. 14 of 1962, section 3.

²Section 7 omitted by Punjab Act 11 of 1955.

³Section 8 substituted by ibid.

Liability of tenant to be ejected

9. [(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other ¹law for the time being in force, no land-owner shall be competent to eject a tenant except when such tenant—

- (i) is a tenant on the area reserved under this Act or is a tenant of a small land-owner; [or]²
- (ii) fails to pay rent regularly without sufficient cause; [or]²
- (iii) is in arrears of rent at the commencement of this Act; [or]²
- (iv) has failed, or fails, without sufficient cause, to cultivate the land comprised in his tenancy in the manner or to the extent customary in the locality in which the land is situate; [or]²
- (v) has used, or uses the land comprised in his tenancy in a manner which has rendered, or renders it unfit for the purpose for which he holds it; [or]²
- (vi) has sublet the tenancy, or a part thereof; provided that where only a part of the tenancy has been sublet, the tenant shall be liable to be ejected only from such part [or]²
- (vii) refuses to execute a Qabuliyat or a Patta, in the form prescribed, in respect of his tenancy on being called upon to do so by an Assistant Collector on an application made to him for this purpose by the land-owner.

Explanation.—For the purposes of clause (iii), a tenant shall be deemed to be in arrears of rent at the commencement of this Act, only if the payment of arrears is not made by the tenant within a period of two months from the date of notice of the execution of decree or order, directing him to pay such arrears of rent,] ¹Substituted for sub-section (1) and (2) of section 9 by Punjab Act No. 11 of 1955 ibid and existing subsection (3) renumbered as sub-section (2).

²Added by Punjab Act No. 32 of 1959, section 2.

1953 pb. Act 10] THE PUNJAB SECURITY OF LAND 263
TENURES ACT, 1953

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained herein-before a tenant shall also be liable to be ejected from any area which he holds in any capacity whatever in excess of the permissible area:

Provided that the portion of the tenancy from which such tenant can be ejected shall be determined at his option only if the area of his tenancy under the landowner concerned is in excess of the area from which he can be ejected by the said land-owner :

Provided further that if the tenant holds land of several land-owners and more than one land-owner seeks his ejectment, the right to ejectment shall be exercised in the order in which the applications have been made or suits have been filed by the land-owners concerned, and in case of simultaneous applications or suits the priority for ejectment shall commence serially from the smallest land-owner.

Explanation.—Where a tenant holds land jointly with other tenants, only his share in the joint tenancy shall be taken into account in computing the area held by him.

¹[9-A. No tenant liable to ejectment under clause (i) of sub-section (1) of the section next preceding shall be dispossessed of his tenancy unless he is accommodated on a surplus area in accordance with the provisions of section 10-A or otherwise on some other land by the State Government :

Provided that if the tenant concerned is the tenant of a small land-owner, he shall be allowed to retain possession of his tenancy to the extent of five standard acres including any other land which he may hold as tenant or owner, until he is so accommodated on a surplus area or otherwise :

Provided further, that if a tenancy commences after the commencement of this Act, and the tenant is also an owner and is related to his landlord in the manner prescribed, he shall not be entitled to the benefit of this section.]

264 THE PUNJAB SECURITY OF LAND [1953 Pb. Act 10
TENURES ACT, 1953

¹[Provided further that the tenant of a land-owner who is a member of the Armed Forces of the Union shall also not be entitled to the benefit of this section.]

Restoration of tenant ejected after the 15th of August, 1947.

10. (1) Where a tenant has been ejected from any land excess of the permissible area on grounds other than those mentioned in section 9, before the commencement of this Act, and after the 15th August, 1947, and such land is under self-cultivation, such tenant shall ²[subject to the provisions of this Act be entitled to be restored to his tenancy in the manner prescribed on the same terms and conditions on which it was held by him at the time of his ejection on an application made to an Assistant Collector of the first Grade having jurisdiction within one year from the date of intimation of reservation after the commencement of this Act, or, if no such reservation is made within the period specified in sub-section (3) of section 5, two years from the date of commencement of this Act;

Provided that if more tenants than one have been ejected from the same tenancy, the right of application for restoration shall be exercisable in serial order of priority commencing from the tenant first ejected and to the extent in each case of the permissible area, after taking into account any other tenancy or land which the ejected tenant holds at the time of his application for restoration.]

(2) On receipt of an application the Assistant Collector shall, after giving to the parties notice in writing and a reasonable opportunity to be heard, determine the dispute summarily, and shall keep a memorandum of evidence and a gist of his final order with brief reasons therefor.

(3) When an application has been made, any proceedings in relation to the same matter pending in any other court or before any other authority shall be stayed on receipt of information by that court or authority from such Assistant Collector of the fact of having received the application, and all such proceedings in a court or before any authority shall lapse when the dispute has been determined by the Assistant Collector acting under this Act.

¹Added by Punjab Act No. 28 of 1969, section 2.

²Substituted by Punjab Act 57 of 1953.

(4) A land-lord or any other person in actual possession of land at the time of restoration shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by the Assistant Collector, from the tenant intended to be restored for any loss suffered in consideration of anything done prior to the date of his first receiving information of the application:

Provided that no ejected tenant shall be resorted to his tenancy as provided hereinbefore unless he has paid compensation as determined by the Assistant Collector to the land-owner or other person, if any, as the case may be.

¹[10-A. (a) The State Government or any officer empowered by it in this behalf, shall be competent to utilize any surplus area for the resettlement of tenants ejected, or to be ejected, under clause (i) of sub-section(1) of section 9.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force ²[and save in the case of land acquired by the State Government under any law for the time being in force or by an heir by inheritance] no transfer or other disposition of land which is comprised in surplus area at the commencement of this Act, shall affect the utilization thereof in clause(a).

Explanation.—Such utilization of any surplus area will not affect the right of the land-owner to receive rent from the tenant so settled.]

³[(c) For the purpose of determining the surplus area of any person under this section, any judgment, ¹New section 10-A added by Punjab Act 11 of 1955 and shall always be deemed to have been inserted with effect from the 15th April, 1953,—vide section 10 of Punjab Act No. 14 of 1962.

²Inserted by Punjab Act No. 4 of 1959, section 2.

³Clause (c) added with effect from the 15th April, 1953 by Punjab Act No. 14 of 1962, section 1 (2) and 10.

decree or order of a court or other authority, obtained after the commencement of this Act and having the effect of diminishing the area of such person which could have been declared as his surplus area shall be ignored.]

Saving by inheritance not to apply after utilisation of surplus area.

¹[10-B. Where succession has opened after the surplus area or any part thereof has been utilised under clause (a) of section 10-A, the saving specified in favour of an heir by inheritance under clause (b) of that section shall not apply in respect of the area so utilised.]

Tenant's right to water.

11. Save in proportion to a reduction in the tenancy, if any, a land owner shall not be competent to curtail or terminate the supply of canal or use of well water enjoyed by a tenant immediately before the commencement of this Act, and a breach of this provision shall constitute a cognizable offence punishable with imprisonment which may extend to six months and shall be triable by a court not below the rank of a Second Class Magistrate.

Amount of maximum rent.

12. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 (Act XVI of 1887), or in any agreement or usage or any decree or order of a court, the maximum rent payable by a tenant for any land held by him as such shall not exceed one-third of the crop of such land or the value thereof as determined in the prescribed manner, and where the customary rent is less than one-third the maximum rent shall be such customary rent.

XVI of 1887.

(2) In computing the maximum rent payable by a tenant, such portion of the rent, if any, as represents the consideration for services or facilities provided by the land-owner in relation to the land shall not be taken into account.

Assessment of charges for facilities provided by the land-owner.

13. Unless the charges payable for services or facilities provided by the land-owner in relation to the land have been specifically provided for in an agreement between the parties, such charges shall be determined by the Assistant Collector, First Grade, having jurisdiction, who shall give due regard to the usage of the locality and if there is no such usage, he shall give regard, amongst other matters, to—

- (a) the direct advantage gained by the land by the provision of such services or facilities;
- (b) the condition or nature of the services or facilities and the probable duration of their effects;
- (c) the labour or capital required for the provision of such services or facilities.

14. (1) Every land-owner shall give or cause to be given a valid receipt to the tenant in the form prescribed for the rent received by him or on his behalf.

Duty of land-owner to furnish receipt for rent received from tenant.

(2) any landowner who fails to give or cause to be given such receipt shall on conviction be punishable with a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

1[14-A. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law for the time being in force, and subject to the provisions of section 9-A.—

(i) a land-owner desiring to eject a tenant under this Act shall apply in writing to the Assistant Collector, First Grade, having jurisdiction, who shall thereafter proceed as provided for in sub-section(2) of section 10 of this Act, and the provisions of sub-section (3) of the said section shall also apply in relation to such application, provided that the tenant's rights to compensation and acquisition of occupancy rights, if any, under the Punjab Tenancy Act, 1887 (XVI of 1887), shall not be affected;

(ii) a land-owner desiring to recover arrears of rent from a tenant shall apply in writing to the Assistant Collector, Second Grade, having jurisdiction, who shall thereupon send a notice, in the form prescribed, to the tenant either to deposit the rent or value thereof, if payable in kind, or give proof of having paid it or of the fact that he is not liable to pay the whole or part of the rent or of the fact of the landlord's refusal to receive the same or to give a receipt, within the period specified in the notice. Where, after summary determination, as provided for in sub-section (2) of section 10 of this Act, the Assistant Collector finds that the tenant has not paid or deposited the rent, he shall eject the tenant summarily and put the landowner in possession of the land concerned;

- (iii) (a) if a landlord refuses to accept rent from his tenant or demands rent in excess of what he is entitled to under this Act, or refuses to give a receipt, the tenant may in writing inform the Assistant Collector, second Grade, having jurisdiction of the fact;
- (b) on receiving such application, the Assistant Collector shall by a written notice require the landlord to accept the rent payable in accordance with this Act, or to give a receipt, as the case may be, or both, within 60 days of the receipt of the notice.]
