(b) refuse to grant a licence, by means of a speaking order, after affording the applicant an opportunity of being heard.

(4) The licence so granted shall be valid for a period of two years, and will be renewable from time to time for a period of one year, on payment of prescribed fee :

¹[Provided that in the licensed colony permitted as a special project by the Government, the license shall be valid for a maximum period of five years and shall be renewable for a period as decided by the Government.]

(5) A separate licence shall be required for each colony.

Establishment of Fund.

²[3A. (1) Any colonizer whom a license has been given under this Act shall deposit as service charges a sum ³[at such rate as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, per square metre of the gross area and of the covered area of all the floors in case of flats proposed to be developed by him into a colony] in two equal instalments. The first instalment shall be deposited within 60 days from the date of the grant of the license and the second instalment to be deposited within six months from the date of grant of the license.

(2) The Haryana Urban Development Authority ⁴[local authorities, firms, undertakings of Government and other authorities involved in land development] shall also be liable to deposit the service

1. Inserted by Haryana Act 15 of 1984.

2. Substituted by Haryana Act 17 of 1996.

3. Inserted by Haryana Act 17 of 1996.

4. Added by Haryana Act 11 of 2003.

charges and shall be deemed to be ¹[colonizers] for this purpose only. The date of first inviting applications for sale of plots in any colony by it shall be deemed to be the date of granting of license under this Act for the purpose of deposit of service charges.

(3) The service charges shall be deposited by the colonizer with such officer or person as may be appointed by the Government in this behalf.

(4) The colonizer shall in turn be entitled to pass on the service charges paid by him to the plot holder.

(5) The amount of service charges if not paid within the prescribed period shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

(6) The amount of service charges so deposited by the colonizer shall constitute a fund called the Haryana Urban Development Fund (hereinafter referred to as the Fund) which shall vest in the State Government.

(7) The Fund shall be administered by such officers of the State Government as may be appointed by it for this purpose.

(8) The amount of services charges deposited by the colonizers and grants from the Government or the local authority shall be credited to the Fund.

(9) The Fund shall be utilized by the State Government for the benefit of the ²[urban development and for creation and improvement of urban infrastructure in the State of Haryana]. The Fund may also be utilized to meet the cost of administering the Fund.

(10) The Government shall publish annually in the Official Gazette the report of the activities financed from the fund and the statement of accounts.]

²[3B. No person shall erect or re-erect buildings in a colony save in accordance with the approved plans and subject to such restrictions and conditions as are contained in the license or as may be specified by the Government or the Director.]

Erection or re-erection of buildings in a licensed colony.

1. Substituted by Haryana Act 17 of 1996.

2. Inserted by Haryana Act 11 of 2003.

Maintenance of registers.

4. The Director shall maintain such registers as may be prescribed showing sufficient particulars of all cases in which licence is granted or refused by him and the said registers shall be available for inspection without charges by all interested persons and such persons shall be entitled to have extract therefrom.

Cost of development works.

5. (1) The colonizer shall ¹[deposit thirty per centum] of the amount realised, from time to time, by him, from the plot-holders within a period of ten days of its realisation in a separate account to be maintained in a scheduled bank. This amount shall only be utilised by him towards meeting the cost of internal development works in the colony. After the internal development works of the colony has been completed to the satisfaction of the Director, the coloniser shall be at liberty to withdraw the balance amount. The ¹[remaining seventy per centum] of the said amount shall be deemed to have been retained by the coloniser, inter-alia, to meet the cost of land and external development works.

(2) The colonizer shall maintain accounts of the amount kept in the scheduled bank, in such manner as may be prescribed :

²[Provided that where the license under section 3 is granted for setting up a colony for cyber city or cyber park purposes, the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) shall not be applicable.]

Auditing of accounts.

6. (1) The Director, or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf, shall be competent to inspect the accounts maintained by the colonizer who shall produce before him all the relevant records required for this purpose.

(2) The coloniser shall get his accounts audited, after the close of every financial year, by a chartered accountant and shall produce a statement of accounts, duly certified and signed by such chartered accountant, in the manner prescribed.

Prohibition to advertise and transfer plots.

7. Save as provided in section 9, ³[no person including a property dealer shall],—

(i) without obtaining a licence under section 3, transfer or agree to transfer in any manner plots in a colony or make an advertisement or receive any amount in respect thereof ;

(ii) erect or re-erect any building in any colony in respect of which a licence under section 3 has not been granted ;

1. Substituted by Haryana Act 11 of 2003.

2. Added by ibid.

3. Inserted by ibid.

- ¹[(iii) erect or re-erect any building other than for purposes of agriculture on the land sub-divided for agricultures as defined in clause (aa) of section 2 of this Act.]

¹[7A. Notwithstanding any thing contained in any other law for the time being in force, where any document is required to be registered under the provisions of section 17 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908, purporting to transfer by way of sale or lease any vacant land having an area of less than one hectare in an urban area as may be notified specifically by the Government from time to time for the purposes of this section, no Registration Officer appointed under the above said Act shall register any such document unless the transferor produces before such Registration Officer a no objection certificate issued by the Director or an officer authorised by him in writing in this behalf, to the effect that the said transfer does not contravene any of the provisions of this Act and its rules and such no objection certificate shall be issued within ninety days of the date of receipt of the application for the same :

Registration of certain documents.

Provided that—

- (a) if the area of vacant land, which is proposed to be transferred does not exceed one thousand square meters, the above said no objection certificate shall be issued within thirty days of the date of receipt of application by the Director, where—
 - (i) the land is situated in a colony for which a licence has been issued under section 3 of this Act, or
 - (ii) the transfer proposed is as a result of family partition, inheritance, succession or partition of joint holdings not with the motive of earning profit, or
 - (iii) the transfer is in furtherance of any scheme sanctioned under any law ;
- (b) if the above said application for grant of no objection certificate submitted to the Director or an officer authorised by him in writing in the behalf is not disposed off through an order in writing within the prescribed period of ninety days or thirty days as described in this section, the no objection certificate shall be deemed to have been granted ;

(c) all applications for grant of no objection certificates shall be accompanied by the following documents :—

- (i) title of land,
- (ii) draft copy of registration deed ;
- (iii) an affidavit to the effect that the site is covered under this section, if the area of the land does not exceed one thousand square meters.]

licence.

8. (1) A license granted under this Act, shall be liable to be cancelled by the Director if the colonizer contravenes any of the conditions of the licence or the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder; provided that before such cancellation the colonizer shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

¹[(2) After cancellation of the licence, the Director may himself, carry out or cause to be carried out, the development works in the colony and recover such charges as the Director may have to incur on the said development works from the colonizer and the plot-holders in the manner prescribed as arrears of land revenue.

(3) The liability of the colonizer for payment of such charges shall not exceed the amount the colonizer has actually recovered from the plot-holders less the amount actually spent on such development works, and that of the plot-holders shall not exceed the amount which they would have to pay to the colonizer towards the expenses of the said development works under the terms of the agreement of sale or transfer entered into between them :

Provided that the Director may, recover from the plot-holders with their consent, an amount in excess of what may be admissible under the aforesaid terms of agreement of sale or transfer.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, after the colony has been fully developed under sub-section (2), the Director may, with a view to enabling the colonizer, to transfer the possession of and the title to the land to the plot-holders within a specified time, authorise the colonizer by an order, to receive the balance amount, if any, due from the plot-holders, after adjustment of the amount which may have been recovered by the Director towards the cost of the development works and also transfer the possession of or the title to the land to the plot-holders within aforesaid time. If the colonizer fails to do so, the Director shall on behalf of the colonizer transfer the possession of and the title to the land to the plot-holders on receipt of the amount which was due from them.

1. Substituted by Haryana Act 30 of 1986.

(5) After meeting the expenses on development works under sub-section (2), the balance amount shall be payable to the colonizer.]

9. (1) The Director shall grant exemption to a person from obtaining the licence if he is satisfied that—

Exemption from obtaining licence in certain cases.

(a) the land—

(i) had been divided into plots and more than twenty per centum of the plots according to layout plan ;

(ii) is in a compact block ; and

(b) (i) the land does not exceed 4,000 square metres and is situated within the limits of a municipal area, a notified area or the Faridabad complex ;

(ii) the amenities similar to the one existing in the locality exist or such person undertakes to provide such amenities ; and

(iii) the size of the plots divided or proposed to be divided is in conformity with the general layout of the plots in the locality :

Provided that the Director may, by an order in writing giving reasons, refuse to grant the exemption if he, after hearing the applicant, is of the opinion that the application has been made with a view to evade the provisions of this Act.

(2) The application for obtaining exemption shall be in such form and manner as may be prescribed.

(3) If, within a period of three months of the date when an application under sub-section (2) has been made to the Director, no order in writing has been passed by the Director, the exemption shall be deemed to have been granted.

Explanation.— The expression "controlled area" shall have the meaning assigned to it in the Punjab Scheduled Roads and Controlled Areas Restriction of Unregulated Development Act, ¹[1963, and the Faridabad Complex (Regulation and Development) Act, 1971.]

Penalties.

²[10. (1) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or any of the conditions of a licence granted under section 3 shall be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years and shall also be liable to fine :

Provided that where any of the provisions of section 9 are contravened the punishment of imprisonment shall not exceed six months.

³[(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1) the Director or any other officer authorized in writing by him in this behalf may, by notice, served by post and if a person avoids service, or is not available for service of notice, or refuses to accept service, then by affixing a copy of it on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of such premises, or in such other manner as may be prescribed, call upon any person who has committed a breach of the provisions referred to in the said sub-section to stop further construction and to appear and show cause why he should not be ordered to restore to its original state or to bring it in conformity with the provisions of this Act or the rules framed thereunder, as the case may be, any building or land in respect of which a contravention such as is described in the said sub-section has been committed and if such person fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the Director or such authorized officer within a period of seven days, the Director or such authorized officer may pass an order requiring him to restore such land or building to its original state or to bring it in conformity with the provisions of this Act or the rules framed thereunder, as the case may be, within a further period of seven days.

1. Substituted by Haryana Act 9 of 1977.

2. Substituted by Haryana Act 11 of 1989.

3. Substituted by Haryana Act 11 of 2003.

(3) If the order made under sub-section (2) is not carried out within the specified period, the Director, or any other officer authorized in writing by him in this behalf may, himself at the expiry of the specified period, take such measures, as may appear necessary to give effect to the order and the cost of such measure shall, if effect to the order and the cost of such measure shall, if not paid on demand being made to him, be recoverable from such person as arrears of land revenue :

Provided that even before the expiry of the period mentioned in the order under sub-section (2), if the Director or such authorized officer is satisfied that instead of stopping the construction, the person continues with the contravention, the Director or such authorized officer may himself take such measures, as may appear necessary, to give effect to the order and the cost of such measures shall, if not paid on demand being made to him, be recoverable from such person as arrears of land revenue.]

[11. No prosecution for any offence punishable under this Act shall be instituted except with the previous sanction of the Director or any officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf. Prosecution.

11.A. It shall be the duty of every police officer—

Duty of police officers.

- (i) to communicate without delay to the Director or any other officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf, any information which he receives of a design to commit or of the commission of any offence against this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder ; and
- (ii) to assist the Director or any other officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf, in the lawful exercise of any power vested in the Director or any other officer authorised in writing by him in this behalf under this Act or any rule or regulation made thereunder.

11-B. (1) A police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector, shall arrest any person who commits in his view any offence against this Act or any rule made thereunder, if the name and address of such person, be unknown to him and if such person, on demand declines to give his name and address, or gives such name or address which such officer has reason to believe to be false. Power to arrest.

(2) The person so arrested shall, without unavoidable delay, be produced before the Magistrate authorised to try the offence for which the arrest has been made and no person, so arrested, shall be detained in custody for a period exceeding twenty-four hours without an order from the above mentioned Magistrate.]

Offences by companies.

12. (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, the company as well as every person incharge of, or responsible to, the company for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence, shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly :

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, Manageer, secretary or other officer of the company, such Director, Manager, Secretary or other officer shall also be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation— For the purposes of this section—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals ; and

3. Substituted by Haryana Act 11 of 2003 and further substituted by Haryana Act 5 of 2004.

Gazette, to exercise and perform all or any of the powers and functions of the Director may, within a period of thirty days of the date of communication of the order to him, prefer an appeal to the Secretary to Government, Haryana, Town and Country Planning Department, in such form and manner as may be prescribed :

Provided that the appeal may be entertained after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.]

Revision.

20. The Government may call for the record of any case pending before, or disposed of by, any subordinate authority, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any proceedings or of any order made there in and may pass such order in relation thereto as it may think fit.

Review.

21. The Director may, either of his own motion or on an application of any party interested, review, and on so reviewing modify, reverse or confirm any order passed by himself or by any of his predecessors in office :

Provided that—

- (a) When the Director proposes to review any order passed by his predecessor in office, he shall first obtain the sanction of the Government ;
- (b) no application for review of an order shall be entertained unless it is made within a period of ninety days from the date of passing of the order, or unless the applicant satisfies the Director that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period ;
- (c) no order shall be modified or reversed unless the parties concerned have been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard ;
- (d) no order against which an appeal has been preferred shall be reviewed.

Delegation.

22. The Government may, by notification, direct that the powers exercisable by it under this Act shall, in such circumstances and under such conditions as may be specified therein, be exercisable also by an officer subordinate to it.

23. If the Government is of the opinion that the operation of any of the provisions of this Act causes undue hardship or circumstances exist which render it expedient so to do, it may, subject to such terms and conditions as it may impose, by a general or special order exempt any class of persons or areas from all or any of the provisions of this Act. Power to exempt.

24. (1) The Government may, by notification, subject to the condition of previous publication, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act. Power to make rules.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

further to amend the Haryana Development and Regulation of Urban Areas Act, 1975 in its application to the State of Haryana.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Haryana in the Sixty-ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Haryana Development and Regulation of Urban Areas (Second Amendment) Act, 2018. Short title.
 2. In section 3 of the Haryana Development and Regulation of Urban Areas Act, 1975 (hereinafter called the principal Act),—
 - (i) for sub-clause (iv) of clause (a) of sub-section (3), the following clause shall be substituted and shall be deemed to have been substituted with effect from the 3rd April, 2018, namely:—
 - (iv) to construct at his own cost, or get constructed by any other institution or individual at its cost, schools, hospitals, community centres and other community buildings on the lands set apart for this purpose, within a period of five years from grant of licence or in the extended period as allowed by the Director and failing which the land shall vest with the Government after such specified period, free of cost, in which case the Government shall be at liberty to transfer such land to any person or institution including a local authority, for the said purposes, on such terms and conditions, as it may deem fit:

Provided that in case the licensee, the purchaser or the person claiming through him fails to construct and use the site for the purpose it was meant for in the prescribed period and seeks extension, the Director may, if satisfied after making such enquiry, as he may consider necessary, extend the construction period for a maximum period of five years at a time, after recovery of such extension fees, as may be prescribed on per-acre per-annum basis:

Provided further that a show cause notice shall be issued and an opportunity of hearing shall be given before vesting the land in the Government:

Provided further that the applicant shall be exempted from the provisions of this clause where compliance of clause (iv-b) is sought by the Director.
- Explanation.— In all licences issued at any date prior to the 3rd April, 2013, no extension fees shall be leviable for any extended period of construction prior to the 3rd April, 2018;
- (ii) in sub-section (4), for the words “two years”, the words “five years” shall be substituted.”.

Amendment of section 8 of Haryana Act 8
of 1975.

3. For section 8 of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:-
- “8. Cancellation of licence.- (1) A license granted under this Act, shall be liable to be cancelled by the Director if the colonizer contravenes any of the conditions of the license or the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder:
- Provided that before such cancellation the coloniser shall be given an opportunity of being heard:
- Provided further that upon issuance of such cancellation of licence the land and buildings involved in such licence, shall be deemed to vest with the Government, unless specifically relieved of this obligation by the Government.
- (2) Upon cancellation of the licence, all necessary action shall be taken by the Director, either himself or through a third party agency identified by him, to secure the assets of the colony as well as to ascertain the claims and liabilities against the licensee.
- (3) After securing the assets of the colony under sub-section (2) and without prejudice to the provisions contained in any other State law for the time being in force, the Director may, for the purposes of recovery of dues or for getting the balance development works completed for the purpose of granting completion certificate or otherwise, adopt all such measures, including alienation of the licence, or part thereof, alongwith the associated land to any third party after obtaining prior concurrence of the Government and adopting such procedure, as may be prescribed.
- (4) Notwithstanding any of the provisions as above, any excess amount received from its allottees by the colonizer, shall be recovered by the Director. The Director shall recover any excess amount from the colonizer received from its allottees and in case all attempts to recover the same directly from the colonizer fail, such recovery shall be made as arrears of land revenue from all the assets under the ownership of the colonizer.”.

Amendment of section 10A of Haryana Act 8
of 1975.

4. For section 10A of the principal Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:-
- “10A. Recovery of Dues.- (1) All dues payable to the Director under the provisions of this Act may be recovered as follows, namely:-
- (i) as arrears of land revenue upon a certificate of the amount due sent by the Director or an officer duly authorized by him in this regard to the Collector; or
- (ii) direct the bank holding the bank account of the person, company or other agency from whom the amount is due to the Director to freeze such account to the extent of the money due:
- Provided that the Director shall initiate or continue any one of the two modes specified in clause (i) or clause (ii) for recovery:
- Provided further that where the money on account of external development charges is due from the person, company or other agency granted a licence under this Act, the Director shall write to the Sub-Registrar having jurisdiction, to refuse, in exercise of the powers available under section 71 of the Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908) to register any document for sale, exchange, gift, mortgage or lease of any immovable property located in the colony for which such licence was granted:
- Provided further that the Director or any other officer duly authorized by him in this regard shall, in case the mode of recovery under clause (ii) is initiated, provide an opportunity of being heard to the person, company or other agency from whom the money is due, not later than three days, from the date on which direction is given to the bank:
- Provided further that the defaulter shall continue to be liable for action, including criminal action, for such default under any other law for the time being in force.”.
