(2) The fee structure for the 25% of the students who are domicile of Haryana shall be based on norm-curriculum and be as follows:

(i) 5% out of the 25 shall be granted full fee exemption.
37. At the beginning of each academic session and in any case not later than the 30th of August of every calendar year, the university shall prepare and publish a semester wise or annual, as the case may be, schedule of examinations for each and every course conducted by it and shall strictly adhere to the Schedule.

Explanation:— "Schedule of Examinations" means a table giving details of the time, day and date of the commencement of each paper which is a part of examinations and shall also include the details about the practical examinations:

Provided that if, for any reason whatsoever, the university has been unable to publish the Schedule, it shall, as soon as may be practicable, submit a report to the Government incorporating the detailed reasons for making a departure from the published Schedule. The Government may, on considering the report shall issue such directions to the university as it may deem fit.

38. (1) The university shall strive to declare the results of every examination conducted by it within a period of thirty days from the last date of the examination for that particular course and shall in any case declare the results within a period of forty-five days from such date:

Provided that if, for any reason whatsoever, the university is unable to declare the results of an examination within the aforesaid period of forty-five days, it shall submit a report incorporating the detailed reasons for the delay to the Government. The Government may, on considering the report, shall issue such directions to the university as it may deem fit.

(2) No examination or the results of an examination shall be held valid only if the reasons that the university has not followed the Schedule as specified in section 37 or, as the case may be, in this section.

39. The convocation of the university shall be held in every academic year in the manner as may be specified by the Statutes for conferring degrees, diplomas or for any other purpose.

40. The university shall obtain accreditation from the National Council of Assessment and Accreditation (NAAC), Bangalore within three years of its establishment and inform the Government and such other regulating bodies with whom engaged with the courses taken up by the university about the procedures provided by NAAC to the university. The university shall get renewed such accreditation at interval of every five years thereafter.
31. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the university is bound to comply with all the rules, regulations, norms etc. of the respective bodies and provide all such facilities and assistance to such bodies as are necessary by them to discharge their duties and carry out their functions.

32. (1) The annual report of the university shall be prepared by the Board of Management which shall include among other matters, the steps taken by the university towards the fulfillment of its objects and shall be approved by the Governing Body and a copy of the same shall be submitted to the sponsor body.

(2) Copies of the annual report prepared under sub-section (1), also be presented to the Visitor and the Government.

33. (1) The annual accounts including balance sheet of the university shall be prepared under the directions of the Board of Management and these accounts shall be audited at least once in every year by the auditors appointed by the university for this purpose.

(2) A copy of the annual accounts together with the audit report shall be submitted to the Governing Body;

(3) A copy of the annual accounts and audit report along with observations of the Governing Body shall be submitted to the sponsoring body;

(4) Copies of annual accounts and balance sheet prepared under sub-section (1) shall also be presented to the Visitor and the Governing Body of the university if any, among other accounts, the Governing Body of the university shall be placed before the Governing Body. The Governing Body shall issue such directions as may be deemed fit and such report shall be reported to the Visitor or the Government, as the case may be.

34. (1) For the purpose of ascertaining the standards of examination and research or any other matter relating to the university, Government may, after consultation with the Visitor, cause a committee to be made in such manner as may be specified by such person or persons as deemed fit.

(2) The Government shall communicate to the university recommendations in respect of the result of such assessment for comment. The university shall adopt such corrective measures and make efforts to ensure the compliance of the recommendations.

(3) If the university has failed to comply with the recommendations made under sub-section (2) within a period of thirty days, the Government may give such directions as it may deem fit for such compliance.

35. (1) The sponsor body may recommend to the Governing Body for the university by giving a notice to that effect in the manner prescribed to the employees and the students of the university at least one week in advance.
Provided that dissolution of the university shall have effect only after the last batch of the students of the regular courses have completed their course and have been awarded degrees, diplomas or awards, as the case may be.

Provided further that such dissolution of the university shall not have any adverse effect on the validity of degrees, diplomas or awards conferred on the students.

(12) On the dissolution of the university, all the assets and liabilities of the university shall vest in the sponsoring body.

(4) If it appears to the Government that the university has contravened any of the provisions of this Act, Statutes, Ordinances, or Rules or has violated any of the directions issued by it under this Act or has ceased to carry out any of the requirements and conditions as laid down under sub-section (1) of section 5 or is involved in financial mismanagement or maladministration, it shall issue a notice requiring the university to show cause within a period of forty-five days as to why the university should not be dissolved by an Act of State Legislature.

(2) If the Government, on receipt of reply of the university on the notice issued under sub-section (1), is satisfied that there is a prima facie case of contravention all or any of the provisions of this Act, Statutes, Ordinances or Rules or violating directions issued by it under this Act or of ceasing to carry out the requirements and conditions as laid down under sub-section (1) of section 5 or is involved in financial mismanagement or maladministration, it shall make an order of such enquiry as it may consider necessary.

(3) The Government shall, for the purpose of any enquiry under sub-section (2), appoint an inquiry officer or officers to inquire into any of the allegations and to report thereon.

(4) The inquiry officer or officers appointed under sub-section (3) shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908), while trying a suit in respect of the following matters, namely:

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) requiring the discovery and production of any document or any other material as may be producible in evidence;

(c) requisitioning any public record from any court or officer;

and any other matter which may be prescribed.

(5) The inquiry officer or officers, appointed under this Act shall be deemed to be a civil court for the purposes of section 195 and Chapter XXVI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act 5 of 1908).
(6) On receipt of the enquiry report from the officer or officer appointed under sub-section (3), if the Government is satisfied that the university has contravened all or any of the provisions of this Act, Statutes, Ordinances, Rules or has violated any of the directions issued by it under this Act or has ceased to carry out the requirements and conditions under sub-section (1) of section 5; a situation of financial mismanagement and maladministration has arisen in the university which threatens the academic standard of the university, it shall dissolve the authorities of the university and appoint an administrator.

(7) The administrator appointed under sub-section (6) shall have the powers and shall be subject to all the duties of the Governing Body and the Board of Management under this Act and shall administer the affairs of the university until the last batch of the students of the regular courses have completed the courses and have been awarded degrees, diplomas or awards, as the case may be.

(8) After having been awarded the degrees, diplomas or awards, as the case may be, to the last batch of the students of the regular courses, the administrator shall make a report to this effect to the Government.

(9) On receipt of the report under sub-section (8), the Governor shall by an Act of the State Legislature repeal the Act by which the concerned university was established and from the date of such repeal, all the assets and liabilities of the university shall vest in the sponsoring body:

Provided that the degrees, diplomas or awards awarded under sub-section (8) shall not be invalid merely on the ground that the university has been dissolved.

47. (1) The Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the manner of making a proposal to establish a university and the fee payable under sub-section (1) of section 4;

(b) other particulars to be obtained in the project report under sub-section (2) of section 4;

(c) the manner of forfeiting the endowment fund in case of contravention of the provisions of this Act, Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations or Rules under sub-section (1) of section 11;

(d) the manner, terms and conditions of appointment of a Chancellor under sub-section (1) of section 16;

(e) the manner for making a recommendation for dissolving a university under sub-section (1) of section 45; matter to be prescribed under clause (d) of sub-section (4) of section 46; and

(g) any other matter which is required to be or may be prescribed by rules under this Act.

(3) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be, before the House of the State Legislature, while it is in session, if the House agrees in making any modification in the rule or the House agrees that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

48. (1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appear to it to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

(2) Every order made under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the House of the State Legislature.

49. The provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Ordinances, Regulations, and the Rules shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, for the time being in force, made by the State Legislature relating to the universities.
