(m) to ensure that the standard of degree, diploma, certificates and other academic distinctions are not lower than those laid down by statutory regulatory authorities in India; and
(n) to pursue any other objects, as may be prescribed.

5. (1) The limits of the area within which the University shall exercise its powers, shall be such, as the Government may, from time to time, by notification, specify:

Provided that different areas may be specified for different faculties.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other State law for the time being in force, any college or institution situated within the limits of the areas specified under sub-section (1) shall, with effect from such date, as may be notified in this behalf by the Government, be deemed to be associated with, and admitted to, the privileges of the University and shall cease to be associated in any way with, or be admitted to, the privileges of any other University, and different dates may be notified for different colleges or institution:

Provided that-

(i) any student of any college or institution, associated with or admitted to, any other university before the said date, who was studying for any degree, diploma or certificate examination of that university, shall be permitted to complete his course in preparation thereof and the University shall hold for such students examinations in accordance with the curricula of study in force in that university, for such period, as may be prescribed by the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations;

(ii) any such student may, until any such examination is held by the University, be admitted to the examination of the other university and be conferred the degree, diploma, certificate or any other privilege of that university for which he qualifies on the result of such examination.
6. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other State law for the time being in force no college or institution other than the University, shall confer, grant, issue or hold himself or itself out as entitled to confer, grant or issue any degree, diploma or certificate in the specified areas of knowledge assigned to it within the territorial jurisdiction of University which is identical with or is a colourable imitation of any degree, diploma or certificate conferred, granted or issued by the University.

(2) Contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be an offence and shall be dealt with as per rules laid down by the University in this regard keeping in view the orders and guidelines issued by the competent authorities and academic bodies such as the State Government and the University Grants Commission.

(3) Where an offence under this section has been committed by an institution, every person incharge of and responsible to the institution for the conduct of its business at the time of the commission of the offence, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against as per the University rule:

Provided that such person shall not be liable for any action if he shows that such offence was committed without his knowledge and he exercised all due diligence for the prevention of such offence, on coming to know of it.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), where an offence under this section has been committed by an institution and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or that the commission of the offence is attributable to any neglect on the part of any partner, director, manager, secretary or other officer of the institution, such partner, director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanations.- For the purpose of the section ‘institution’ means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals.

7. The University shall exercise the following powers and perform the following functions, namely:

(a) to provide facilities and promote trainings, studies and research in emerging areas of skill, including new frontiers of manufacturing, textile, design, logistics and transportation, automation, maintenance, information technology, healthcare, construction, banking and finance, marketing, hospitality etc. and also to achieve excellence in enhancement in these and connected fields;

(p) to establish its own school to provide skill education, for identification and recognition of prior learning of skill;
(q) to establish and maintain such infrastructure including campuses and training centers within its territorial jurisdiction;
(r) to institute and award fellowship, scholarships, exhibitions, prizes and medals;
(s) to collaborate with any other Indian or foreign university or institution in offering joint degree programmes for bridging skill education with higher education;
(t) to promote national and international collaboration with institutions of skill education for the purpose of developing competency, knowledge and ability to global standards;
(u) to establish its own production house, incubation centre, retail house or service centre or any other centre which shall provide practical training to enhance skill level of youth; and
(v) to do all such things as may be necessary, incidental or conducive to the attainment of all or any of the objects of the University.

8. The University shall be open to all persons irrespective of sex, race, creed, caste or class and no test or condition shall be imposed as to religion, belief or profession in admitting or appointing members, students, teachers, workers, or in any other connection whatsoever and no benefactions shall be accepted which in the opinion of the authorities of the University involves conditions or obligations opposed to the spirit and objectives of this provision:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to prevent the University from making any special provisions in respect of weaker sections of the society and in particular Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

9. All teaching in the University shall be conducted by and in the name of the University in accordance with the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made in this behalf.

10. The following shall be officer of the University, namely:-

(i) the Chancellor;
(ii) the Vice-Chancellor;
(iii) the Registrar; and
(iv) such other persons in the service of the University, as may be declared by the Statutes to be officers of the University.

11. (1) The Governor of Haryana by virtue of his office shall be the Chancellor of the University.

(2) The Chancellor shall be the Head of the University.
(3) The Chancellor shall, if present, preside over the convocation of the University for conferring degrees and meetings of the Court.

(4) The Chancellor shall have the right-

(i) to cause an inspection to be made by such person or persons, as he may direct, of the University, its buildings, laboratories, libraries, and equipment and of any college or institution maintained by the University and also of the examinations, teaching and other work conducted and done by the University;

(ii) to cause an inquiry to be made in like manner in respect of any matter connected with the administration of finances of the University, colleges or institutions.

(5) The Chancellor shall, in every case, give notice to the University of his intention to cause an inspection or inquiry to be made and on receipt of such notice, the University shall have the right to make such representation to the Chancellor, as it may consider necessary.

(6) After considering the representation, if any, made by the University, the Chancellor may cause to be made such inspection or inquiry, as is referred to in sub-section (4).

(7) Where any inspection or inquiry has been caused to be made by the Chancellor, the University shall be entitled to appoint a representative who shall have the right to be present and to be heard at such inspection or inquiry.

(8) The Chancellor may, if the inspection or inquiry is made in respect of the University or any college or institution maintained by it, address the Vice-Chancellor with reference to the result of such inspection or inquiry, and the Vice-Chancellor shall communicate to the Executive Council, the views of the Chancellor and the action to be taken thereon as advised by the Chancellor.

(9) The Executive Council shall communicate through the Vice-Chancellor to the Chancellor such action, if any, as it proposes to take or has taken upon the result of such inspection or inquiry.

(10) Where the Executive Council does not, within a reasonable time, take action to the satisfaction of the Chancellor, the Chancellor may, after considering any explanation furnished or representation made by the Executive Council, issue such directions, as he may think fit and the Executive Council shall comply with such directions.

(11) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions of this section, the Chancellor may, by order in writing, annul any proceedings of the University, which are not in conformity with this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances:

Provided that before making any such order, he shall call upon the University to show cause why such an order should not be made, and if any cause is shown within a reasonable time, he shall consider the same.

(12) The Chancellor may, at any time, require or direct the University to act in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations made thereunder.

(13) The power exercised by the Chancellor under sub-section (11) and sub-section (12) shall not be called in question in any Civil Court.

(14) Any employee of the University, who is aggrieved by the decision of the Executive Council or the Vice-Chancellor in respect of any disciplinary action taken against him, may address a memorial to the Chancellor in such manner, as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the decision of the Chancellor shall be final.

(15) The Chancellor shall have such other powers, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

12. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the first Vice-Chancellor shall be appointed by the Chancellor on the advice of the State Government for such period not exceeding three years, as deemed appropriate by the State Government.

(2) The Vice-chancellor shall be appointed from the field of Technology, Sciences, Public Administration, Skill Development, Pharmacy or Management.
(3) The State Government shall constitute a Search Committee consisting of two nominees of the Chancellor and one nominee of the Executive Council, three months prior to the expiry of term of the Vice-Chancellor, which shall prepare a panel of at least three names, in alphabetical order, from which the Chancellor shall appoint the Vice-Chancellor, on the advice of the State Government. The terms and conditions of service of the Vice-Chancellor shall be determined by the Chancellor, on the advice of the State Government.

(4) The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a period of three years which may be renewed for not more than one term:

Provided that he shall cease to hold the office on attaining the age of 68 years irrespective of the fact that his term has not expired.

(5) If the Vice-Chancellor is unable to perform his duties owing to his temporary incapacity on account of illness or any other reason, or the office of the Vice-Chancellor falls vacant due to death, resignation or otherwise, the Chancellor may make arrangements for the performance of duties of the Vice-Chancellor until the existing Vice-Chancellor is able to resume his office or until a regular Vice-Chancellor is appointed, as the case may be.

(6) The Vice-Chancellor shall be the principal executive and academic officer of the University and shall exercise general supervision and control over the affairs of the University and give effect to the decisions of all the authorities of the University.

(7) The Vice-Chancellor may, if he is of the opinion that immediate action is necessary on any matter, exercise any power conferred on any authority of the University by or under this Act, except in the matters involving creation or abolition of a faculty, department or post and the matter involving appointment or removal of an employee:

Provided that the Vice-Chancellor before exercising powers under this section shall record in writing the reasons, why the matter cannot wait till the meeting of the authority concerned:

Provided further that if the authority concerned is of the opinion that such action ought not to have been taken, it may refer the matter to the Chancellor, whose decision thereon shall be final:

Provided further that any person in the service of the University who is aggrieved by the action taken by the Vice-Chancellor under this sub-section shall have the right to represent to the Executive Council within one month from the date on which decision on such action is communicated to him and thereupon the Executive Council may confirm, modify or reverse the action taken by the Vice-Chancellor. The employee shall be informed that the action has been taken under emergency powers.

(8) The Vice-Chancellor shall exercise such other powers and perform such other duties, as may be prescribed by the Statutes or Ordinances.

(9) The Chancellor may, on the advice of the State Government, cause an inquiry to be held in accordance with the principles of natural justice, and remove the Vice-Chancellor from office, if he is found on such inquiry, to be a person patently unfit to be continued in such office:

Provided that the Chancellor may curtail working powers and functions of Vice-Chancellor in case he is of the opinion that an ongoing matter in a complaint against the Vice-Chancellor is serious enough to be an impediment in discharging the duties of the Vice-Chancellor and may make arrangements for the performance of the duties of Vice-Chancellor until the existing Vice-Chancellor is able to resume his office or until a regular Vice-Chancellor is appointed, as the case may be.

13. (1) The Registrar shall be appointed by the Chancellor on the advice of the State Government.

(2) The Registrar shall be the Chief Administrative Officer of the University. He shall work directly under the superintendence, direction and control of the Vice-Chancellor.

14. The manner of appointment and powers and functions of other officers of the University shall be such, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

21. The constitution and functions of the Planning Board shall be such, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

Statutes and their scope.

22. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Statutes may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

   (a) the constitution, powers and functions of the authorities and other bodies of the University, as may be constituted from time to time;
   (b) the classification, mode of appointment, powers and duties of the teachers and the officers of the University;
   (c) the conditions of service including provision for pension or provident fund or insurance scheme for the benefit of the employees of the University;
   (d) the conferment of honorary degrees;
   (e) the establishment and abolition of faculties and departments;
the institution of fellowships, scholarships, studentships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;

(g) the maintenance of discipline among the students;

(h) the conditions under which colleges and institutions may be admitted to the privileges of the University and the withdrawal of the same;

(i) the delegation of powers vested in the authorities or officers of the University; and

(j) all other matters which by this Act are to be or may be provided for, by the Statutes.

23. (1) On the commencement of this Act, the Statutes of the University shall be those, as set out in the Schedule:

Provided that the authorities of the University constituted under the Statutes framed before the commencement of this Act, shall continue to exercise all the powers and perform all the functions under this Act, till such authorities are constituted in terms of the Statutes set out in the Schedule referred to above.

(2) The Executive Council may, from time to time make new or additional Statutes or may amend or repeal the Statutes in the manner hereinafter provided in this section:

Provided that the Executive Council shall not make, amend or repeal any Statute, affecting the status, power or constitution of any authority of the University until such authority has been given an opportunity of expressing an opinion in writing on the proposed changes and any opinion so expressed shall be considered by the Executive Council.

(3) The Skill Council may propose to the Executive Council a draft of any Statute relating to academic matters for consideration by the Executive Council.

(4) Every new Statute or addition to the Statute or any amendment or repeal of a Statute shall require the approval of the Chancellor, who may approve, disapprove or remit it for further consideration. A Statute passed by the Executive Council shall have no validity until it has been assented to by the Chancellor.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, the Chancellor either suo motu or on the advice of the State Government, may direct the Executive Council, to make, amend or repeal the Statutes in respect of any matter specified by him and if the Executive Council fails to implement such a direction within sixty days of its receipt, the Chancellor may, after considering the reasons, if any, communicated by the Executive Council or its inability to comply with such direction, make, amend or repeal the Statutes suitably.

24. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, the Ordinances shall provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:-

(a) the admission of students to the University and their enrolment as such;

(b) the courses of study to be laid down for all degrees, diplomas and certificates of the University;

(c) the conditions under which students shall be admitted to the degree or diploma courses and to the examination of the University and shall be eligible for degrees and diplomas;

(d) the fee to be charged for courses of study in the University and for admission to the examinations, degree and diplomas of the University; and further to make progressively the fee structure so flexible that the courses could become self-financing to the extent possible;

(e) the conditions of the award of fellowships, studentships, exhibitions, medals and prizes;

(f) the conduct of examinations, including the term of office and manner of appointment and the duties of examiners, moderators and assessors;

(g) the conditions of residence of students of the University; and

(h) all other matters which by this Act or the Statutes are to be made or may be provided for by the Ordinances.
Ordinances.

25. (1) The Ordinances shall be made, amended, repealed or added to by the Executive Council:

Provided that no Ordinance shall be made-

(i) affecting the admission or enrolment of students or prescribing examinations to be recognized as equivalent to the University examinations; and

(ii) affecting the conditions, mode of appointment or duties of examiners or the conduct or standard of examination or any course of study, unless the draft of such an Ordinance has been proposed by the Skill Council.

(2) The Executive Council may return to the Skill Council for reconsideration, either in whole or in part, any draft proposed by the Skill Council under sub-section (1) along with its suggestions:

Provided that the Executive Council shall not amend the draft proposed by the Skill Council itself. It may, however, reject such draft, if not found suitable when submitted to it by the Skill Council for the second time.

(3) All Ordinances made by the Executive Council shall have effect from such date, as it may direct and every Ordinance made shall be communicated, as soon as may be, to the Chancellor.

Regulations.

26. (1) The authorities of the University may make Regulations consistent with this Act, the Statutes and the Ordinances-

(a) laying down the procedure to be observed at their meetings; and

(b) providing for all matters which by this Act, the Statutes or the Ordinances are to be prescribed by Regulations.

(2) Every authority of the University shall make Regulations providing for giving of notice to the members of such authority of the dates of meetings and of the business to be considered at meetings and for keeping of a record of the proceedings of the meetings.

Annual Report.

27. The annual report of the University giving details of broad programmes, policies and finances, amendments of Statutes and Ordinances made during the year under report, shall be prepared under the directions of the Executive Council and shall be submitted to the Court on or after such date, as may be prescribed by the Statutes and the Court shall consider the report at its annual meeting.

Funds and accounts.

28. (1) The University shall have a General Fund to which shall be credited-

(a) its income from fees, grants, donations and gifts, if any;

(b) any contribution or grant made by the Central/State Government, the Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, National Skill Development Agency, National Skill Development Corporation, University Grants Commission, All India Council for Technical Education or like authority, any local authority or any corporation owned or controlled by the State Government;

(c) endowments and other receipts.

(2) The University may have such other funds, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(3) The funds and all moneys of the University shall be managed in such a manner, as may be prescribed by the Statutes.

(4) The State Government may, every year, provide grant-in-aid to facilitate and promote studies and research.

Annual Accounts.

29. (1) The annual accounts and the balance sheet of the University shall be prepared under the directions of the Executive Council and shall at least once every year and at intervals of not more than fifteen months be audited by the Director, Local Fund Accounts, Haryana or any other auditor that may be appointed by the State Government. The annual accounts when audited shall be published in the Haryana Government Gazette and a copy of the annual accounts along with the report of the Director, Local Fund Accounts or the auditor shall be submitted to the Court and the Chancellor along with the observations of the Executive Council. Any observations made by the Chancellor on the annual accounts shall be brought to the notice of the Court and observations of the Court, if any, shall after being considered by the Executive Council, be submitted to the Chancellor.
The annual accounts of the University shall also be submitted to the State Government at the time of its submission to the Chancellor.

(2) Every salaried officer and teacher, except the Vice-Chancellor and Registrar, shall be appointed under a written contract, which shall be lodged with the University and any dispute arising out of a contract between the University and officer or teacher shall, at the request of the teacher or officer concerned or at the instance of the University, be referred to a Tribunal of arbitration consisting of one member appointed by the Executive Council, one member nominated by the officer or teacher concerned and one nominee of the Chancellor. The decision of the majority of the members of the Tribunal shall be final and no suit shall lie in any Civil Court in respect of the matter decided by the Tribunal.

(2) Every such request shall be deemed to be a submission to arbitration within the meaning of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (Central Act 26 of 1996).

(1) The University shall institute, for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees, provident fund and insurance fund on the pattern of the Government employees.

(2) Where any provident fund and insurance fund have been so constituted, the provisions of the Provident Fund Act, 1925 (Central Act 19 of 1925) shall be applicable.

No act done, or proceeding taken, under this Act by any authority or other body of the University shall be invalid merely on the ground of any-

(a) vacancy or defect in the constitution of the authority or body; or
(b) defect or irregularity in election, nomination or appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or
(c) defect or irregularity in such act or proceeding, not affecting the merits of the case.

If any question arises whether any person has been duly elected or appointed as, or is entitled to be, a member of any authority or other body of the University, matter shall be referred to the Chancellor, whose decision thereon shall be final.

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order, do anything not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act which appears to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing the difficulty.
