4. Establishment of regions.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, —

- (a) declare any area in the State to be a region for the purposes of this Act ;
- (b) define the limits of such area; and
- (c) specify the name by which such region shall be known .

(2) The State Government may, by notification, alter the name of any such region and on such alteration, any reference in any law or instrument or other document to the region shall be deemed to be a reference to the region as re-named unless expressly otherwise provided or the context so requires.

(3) The State Government may, by notification, —

- (a) alter the limits of region so as to include therein or exclude therefrom such areas as may be specified in the notification;
- (b) amalgamate two or more regions so as to form one region ;
- (c) divide any region into two or more region ; or
- (d) declare that the whole or part of the area comprising a region shall cease to be a region or part thereof.

5. Director to prepare regional plan.—Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, it shall be the duty of the Director—

- (i) to carry out a survey of the regions ;
- (ii) to prepare an existing land use map ; and
- (iii) to prepare a regional plan.

6. Survey.—(1) The Director shall, with a view to prepare the existing land use map, and other maps as are necessary for the purpose of regional plan,—

- (a) carry out such surveys as may be necessary ;
- (b) obtain from any department of Government and any local authority such maps, survey reports and land records as may be necessary for the purpose.

(2) It shall be the duty of every Government department and local authority to furnish, as soon as may be possible, maps, reports and record, as may be required by the Director.

7. Contents of regional plan.—The regional plan shall indicate the manner in which land in the region should be used, the phasing of development, the network of communications and transport, the proposals for conservations and development of natural resources, and in particular—

- (a) allocation of land to such purposes as residential, industrial, agricultural or as forests or for mineral exploitation ;
- (b) reservation of open spaces for recreational purposes, gardens, tree belts, and animal sanctuaries ;
- (c) access or development of transport and communication facilities such as roads, railways, water ways, and the allocation and development of air ports ;

- (d) requirements and suggestions for development of public utilities such as water supply, drainage and electricity ;
- (e) allocation of areas to be developed as "Special areas" wherein new towns, townships, large industrial estates or any other type of large development projects may be established ;
- (f) landscaping and the preservation of areas in their natural state ;
- (g) measures relating to the prevention of erosion, including rejuvenation of forest areas ;
- (h) proposals relating to irrigation, water supply or flood control works.

8. Preparation of regional plan.—(1) After preparation of the existing land use map, the Director shall cause to be prepared a draft regional plan and published it by making a copy thereof available for inspection and publishing a notice in such form and manner as may be prescribed inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the draft plan before such date as may be specified in the notice, such date not being earlier than sixty days from the publication of the notice. Such notice shall specify in regard to the draft plan the following particulars, namely :—

- (a) the existing land use map and the narrative report thereon ;
- (b) a narrative report supported by necessary map and charts explaining the provisions of the draft plan ;
- (c) a note indicating the priorities assigned to works included in the draft plan and the phasing of the programme of development as such ;
- (d) a notice on the role being assigned to different departments of Government, the Town and Country Development Authorities, the Special Area Development Authorities, and the Local Authorities in the enforcement and implementation of draft plan.

(2) The Director shall consider all the objections and suggestions received by him within the period specified in the notice under sub-section (1) and shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity to all persons affected thereby of being heard, prepare the regional plan containing such modifications, if any, as he considers necessary and submit it to the State Government for approval together with all connected documents, plans, maps and charts.

9. Finalisation of regional plan.—(1) The State Government may approve the draft regional plan submitted under section 8 with or without modification or reject or return the same to the Director for reconsideration.

(2) Immediately after the draft regional plan is approved under sub-section (1) the State Government shall publish in such manner, as may be prescribed, a notice stating that the regional plan has been approved and mentioning a place where a copy of the plan may be inspected at all reasonable hours and shall specify therein a date on which the regional plan shall come into operation :

Provided that where the State Government approves the draft regional plan with modifications, it shall not be published, unless the State Government having published such modifications in the Official Gazette alongwith a notice inviting objections and suggestions thereon, within a period of not less than thirty days from the date of publication of such notice have considered the objections and suggestions after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to persons affected thereby.

10. Restriction on use of land of development thereof.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, on or after the date of publication of the draft regional plan, no person, authority, department of Government or any other person shall change the use of land for any purpose other than agriculture, or carry out any development in respect of any land contrary to the provisions of the draft plan, without the prior approval of the Director or any officer next to him authorised by the Director, in this behalf.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the permission referred to in sub-section (1) shall not be granted otherwise than in conformity with the provision of the draft or final plan and no permission, if granted, shall be construed to confer any legal right whatsoever on the person seeking the permission.

(3) If any work is carried out in contravention of the provisions of this section, the Municipal Corporation or Municipal Committee within its local area, and the Collector in area outside such local areas, may cause such work to be removed or demolished at the cost of the defaulter, which shall be recovered from him in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue:

Provided that no action shall be taken under this sub-section unless the person concerned is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard and a notice calling upon him to remove or demolish the work within a time specified therein.

(4) Any person aggrieved by the order of the Municipal Corporation, Municipal Committee or Collector, as the case may be, calling up to remove or demolish the work may prefer an appeal to the Director within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice under sub-section (3) and the order of the Director in such appeal shall be final.

11. Exclusion from claims of amount in certain cases.—Where the regional plan assigns a particular land use to a certain areas and any land situate therein is already put to such use, subject to substantially similar restrictions in force under any other law which was in force on the date on which restrictions were imposed by or under this Act and if amount in respect of such restrictions have already been paid under any such other law which was in force for the time being in respect of the property or any right or interest therein to the claimant, or any predecessor in interest of the claimant, the owner shall not be entitled to any further amount on account of injury or damage caused to his rights by reasons of the restrictions placed on the use of the land under the provisions of this Act.

12. Review of regional plan.—(1) The Director may, on his own motion or if so required by the State Government, at any time after a regional plan has come into operation, undertake the review and evaluation of the regional plan and make such modification in it as may be justified by the circumstances.

(2) The foregoing provisions of this Chapter shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to the modifications under sub-section (1) as these provisions apply in relation to the preparation, publication and approval of a regional plan.

CHAPTER IV

PLANNING AREA AND DEVELOPMENT PLANS

13. Planning area.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, constitute planning areas for the purposes of this Act and define the limits thereof.

(2) The State Government may, by notification,—

- (a) alter the limits of a planning area so as to include therein or exclude therefrom such area as may be specified in the notification;
- (b) amalgamate two or more planning areas so as to constitute one planning area;
- (c) divide any planning area into two or more planning areas;
- (d) declare that the whole or part of the area constituting the planning area shall cease to be planning area or part thereof.

14. Director to prepare development plans.—Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, the director shall—

- (a) prepare an existing land use map;
- (b) prepare an interim development plan;
- (c) prepare a development plan;
- (d) prepare a sectoral plan;
- (e) carry such surveys and inspections and obtain such pertinent reports from Government departments, local authorities and public institutions as may be necessary for the preparation of the plans;
- (f) perform such duties and functions as are supplemental, incidental, and consequential to any of the foregoing functions or as may be assigned by the State Government for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

15. Existing land use maps.—(1) The Director shall carry out the survey and prepare an existing land use map and, forthwith publish the same in such manner as may be prescribed together with public notice of the preparation of the map and of the place or places where the copies may be inspected, inviting objections and suggestions in writing from any person with respect thereto within thirty days from the date of publication of such notice.

(2) After the expiry of the period specified in the notice published under subsection (1), the Director may, after allowing a reasonable opportunity of being heard to all such persons who have filed the objections or suggestions, make such modifications therein as may be considered desirable.

(3) As soon as may be after the map is adopted with or without modifications the Director shall publish a public notice of the adoption of the map and the place or places where the copies of the same may be inspected.

(4) A copy of the notice shall also be published in the Official Gazette and it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the map has been duly prepared and adopted.

16. Freezing of land use.—On the publication of the existing land use map under section 15—

- (a) no person shall institute or change the use of any land or carry out any development of land for any purpose other than that indicated in the existing land use map without the permission in writing of the Director :

Provided that the Director shall not refuse permission if the change is for the purpose of agriculture ;

- (b) no local authority or any officer or other authority shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, grant permission for the change in use of land otherwise than as indicated in the existing land use map without the permission in writing of the Director.

17. Interim development plans.—As soon as may be, after the declaration of a planning area, the Director shall, within such time as may be necessary, prepare, after consultation with local authorities concerned, if any, and submit to the State Government an interim development plan for the planning area or any of its parts and such other area or areas contiguous or adjacent to the planning areas as the State Government may direct to be included in the interim development plan.

(2) The interim development plan shall—

- (a) indicate broadly the land use proposed in the planning area;
- (b) allocate broadly areas or sector of land for—
- (i) residential, industrial, commercial or agricultural purposes;
 - (ii) open spaces, parks and gardens, green belts, zoological gardens and play-grounds ;
 - (iii) public institutions and offices ;
 - (iv) such special purposes as the Director may deem fit;
- (c) lay down the pattern of National and State Highways connecting the planning area with the rest of the region, ring roads, arterial roads and the major roads within the planning areas ;

- (e) make proposals for general landscaping and preservation of natural areas ;
- (f) project the requirement of the planning area of such amenities and utilities as water, drainage, electricity and suggest their fulfilment ;
- (g) propose broad based regulations for sectoral development, by way of guide-lines, within each sector of the location, height, size of buildings and structures, open spaces, court-yards and the use to which such buildings and structures and land may be put ;
- (h) lay down the broad-based traffic circulation patterns in a city ;
- (i) suggest architectural control features, elevation and frontage of buildings and structures ;
- (j) indicate measures for flood control, prevention of air and water pollution, disposal of garbage and general environmental control.

(3) Subject to provisions of the rules made under this Act for regulating the form and contents of the interim development plan any such plan shall include such maps and such descriptive matter as may be necessary to explain and illustrate the proposals in the interim development plan.

(4) As soon as may be, after the submission of the interim development plan under sub-section (1), the State Government may either approve the interim development plan or may approve it with such modification as it may consider necessary.

(5) The State Government shall publish the interim development plan as approved under sub-section (4) in the Official Gazette. The interim development plan shall come into operation from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette and shall be binding on all local authorities functioning within the planning area.

18. Development plan.—A development plan shall—

- (a) indicate broadly the land use proposed in the planning areas;
- (b) allocate broadly areas or sector of land for,—
 - (i) residential, industrial, commercial or agricultural purposes;
 - (ii) open spaces, parks and gardens, green belts, zoological gardens and play-grounds ;
 - (iii) public institutions and offices ;
 - (iv) such special purposes as the Director may deem fit ;
- (c) lay down the pattern of National and State Highways connecting the planning area with the rest of the region, ring roads, arterial roads and the major roads within the planning area ;
- (d) provide for the location of air-ports, railway stations, bus termini and indicate the proposed extension and development of railways;
- (e) make proposals for general landscaping and preservation of natural areas ;
- (f) project the requirement of the planning area of such amenities and utilities as water, drainage, electricity and suggest their fulfilment ;
- (g) propose broad-based regulations for sectoral development, by way of guide-lines, within each sector of the location, height, size of buildings and structures, open spaces, court-yards and the use to which such buildings and structures and land may be put;
- (h) lay down the broad-based traffic circulation patterns in a city;
- (i) suggest architectural control features, elevation and frontage of buildings and structures;
- (j) indicate measures for flood control, prevention of air and water pollution, disposal of garbage and general environmental control.

19. Publication of draft development plan.—(1) The Director shall forthwith publish the draft development plan prepared under section 18 in such manner as may be prescribed together with a notice of the preparation of the draft development plan and the place or places where the copies may be inspected, inviting objections and suggestions in writing from any person with respect thereto, within thirty days from the date of publication of such notice. Such notice shall specify in regard to the draft development plan the following particulars, namely:—

- (i) the existing land use maps ;
- (ii) a narrative report, supported by maps and charts, explaining the provisions of the draft development plan ;
- (iii) the phasing of implementation of the draft development plan as suggested by the Director ;

- (iv) the provisions for enforcing the draft development plan and stating the manner in which permission to development may be obtained ;
- (v) an approximate estimate of the cost of land acquisition for public purposes and the cost of works involved in the implementation of the plan.

(2) The Director shall, not later than ninety days after the date of expiry of the notice period under sub-section (1), consider all the objections and suggestions as may be received within the period specified in the notice under sub-section (1) and shall, after giving reasonable opportunity to all persons affected thereby of being heard, make such modifications in the draft development plan as he may consider necessary, and submit, not later than six months after the publication of the draft development plan, the plan so modified, to the State Government for approval together with all connected documents, plans, maps and charts.

20. Sanction of development plans.—(1) As soon as may be after the submission of the development plan under section 19, the State Government may either approve the development plan or may approve it with such modifications as it may consider necessary or may return it to the Director to modify the same or to prepare a fresh plan in accordance with such directions as it may issue in this behalf.

(2) Where the State Government approves the development plan with modifications, the State Government shall, by a notice, published in the Official Gazette, invite objections and suggestions in respect of such modifications within a period of not less than thirty days from the date of publication of the notice in the Official Gazette.

(3) After considering objections and suggestions and after giving a hearing to the persons desirous of being heard the State Government may confirm the modification in the development plan.

(4) The State Government shall publish the development plan as approved, under the foregoing provisions in the Official Gazette and shall along with the plan publish a public notice, in such manner as may be prescribed, of the approval of the development plan and the place or places where the copies of the approved development plan may be inspected.

(5) The development plan shall come into operation from the date of publication thereof in the Official Gazette and as from such date shall be binding on all Development Authorities constituted under this Act and all Local Authorities functioning within the planning area.

(6) After the coming into operation of the development plan, the interim development plan shall stand modified or altered to the extent the proposals in the development plan are at variance with the interim development plan.

CHAPTER V

- (f) indicate and provide for areas reserved for public buildings, institutions and civic developments ;
- (g) assess, make projections for and provide for the future requirements of amenities, services, and utilities such as municipal, transport, electricity, water and drainage ;
- (h) prescribe in detail the sectoral regulations for each sector, with a view to facilitating an individual layout and regulating the location, height, number of storeys and its size of buildings, and other structures, the size of the court-yards, courts and other open spaces and the use of the buildings, structures and land ;
- (i) define areas which have been badly laid out or areas which have developed so as to form slums, and provide for their proper development and/or relocation ;
- (j) designate areas for future development and expansion ;
- (k) indicate the phasing of the programme of development.

(2) The sectoral plan may and if possible shall, indicate—

- (a) control over architectural features; elevation and frontage of buildings and structures; and
- (b) the details of development of specific areas for housing, shopping centres, industrial areas, educational and cultural institutions and civic centres.

23. Provisions of sections 19 and 20 to apply to sectoral plan.—The provisions of sections 19 and 20 shall apply for the preparation, publication, approval and operation of sectoral plan as they apply in respect of the development plan.

24. Review of development plan and sectoral plan.—The Director may on his own motion or if so required by the State Government shall, at any time after the sectoral plan has come into operation, undertake a review and evaluation of the development plan and sectoral plan.

(2) The foregoing provisions of sections 19, 20 and 23 shall, so far as may be, apply to the modification under sub-section (1) as those provisions apply in relation to the preparation, publication and approval of a development plan or a sectoral plan.

CHAPTER VI

CONTROL OF DEVELOPMENT AND USE OF LAND

25. Director to control land use.—The over all control of development and the use of land in the planning area shall, as from the date of publication in the Official Gazette of a notification by the State Government, vest in the director.

26. Conformity with development plan.—(1) After coming into force of the development plan, the use and development of land shall conform to the provisions of the development plan:

Provided that the Director may, at his discretion, permit the continued use of land for the purpose for which it was being used at the time of the coming into operation of the development plan:

Provided further that such permission shall not be granted for a period exceeding seven years from the date of coming into operation of the development plan.

27. Prohibition of development without permission.—After coming into operation of the development plan, no person shall change the use of any land or carry out any development of land without the permission in writing of the Director :

Provided that no such permission shall be necessary—

- (a) for carrying out works for the maintenance, repair or alteration of any building which does not materially alter the external appearance of the buildings ;
- (b) for carrying out work for the improvement or maintenance of a high-way, road or public street by the Union or State Government or an authority established under this Act or by a local authority having jurisdiction, provided that such maintenance or improvement does not change the road alignment contrary to the provisions of the development plan ;
- (c) for the purpose of inspecting, repairing or renewing any drain, sewers, mains, pipes, cables, telephone or other apparatus including the breaking open of any street or other land for that purpose ;
- (d) for the excavation or soil shaping in the interest of agriculture ;
- (e) for restoration of land to its normal use where land has been used temporarily for any other purposes ;
- (f) for use for any purpose incidental to the use of building for human habitation, or any other building or land attached to such buildings ;
- (g) for the construction of a road intended to give access to land solely for agricultural purposes.

28. Development undertaken on behalf of Union or State Government.—

(1) When the Union Government or the State Government intends to carry out development of any land for the purpose of its departments or offices or authorities, the officer-in-charge thereof shall inform in writing to the Director the intention of the Government to do so, giving full particulars thereof, accompanied by such documents and plans as may be prescribed at least thirty days before undertaking such development.

(2) Where the Director raises any objection to the proposed development on the ground that the development is not in conformity with the provisions of the development plan, the officer shall,—

- (i) make necessary modifications in the proposals for development to meet the objections raised by the Director; or
- (ii) submit the proposal for development together with the objections raised by the Director to the State Government for decision :

Provided that where no modification is proposed by the Director within thirty days of the receipt of the proposed plan by the Government, the plan will be presumed to have been approved.

(3) The State Government, on receipt of the proposals for development together with the objections of the Director shall, approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the officer to make such modifications in the proposals as it considers necessary in the circumstances.

(4) The decision of the State Government under sub-section (3) shall be final and binding.

29. Development by local authority or by any authority constituted under this Act.—Where a local authority or any authority specially constituted under this Act intends to carry out development on any land for the purpose of that authority, the procedure applicable to the Union or State Government under section 28 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply in respect of such authority.

30. Application for permission for development by others.—(1) Any person, not being the Union Government, State Government, a local authority or a special authority constituted under this Act intending to carry out any development on any land, shall make an application in writing to the Director for permission, in such form and containing such particulars and accompanied by such documents as may be prescribed.

(2) Such application shall also be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed.

31. Grant or refusal of permission.—(1) On receipt of an application under section 30 the Director may, subject to the provisions of this Act by order in writing—

- (a) Grant the permission unconditionally ;
- (b) Grant the permission, subject to such conditions as may be deemed necessary under the circumstances ; or
- (c) refuse the permission.

(2) Every order granting permission subject to conditions, or refusing permission shall state the grounds for imposing such conditions or for such refusal.

(3) Any permission granted under sub-section (2) with or without conditions shall be in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) Every order under sub-section (2) shall be communicated to the applicant in such manner as may be prescribed.

(5) If the Director does not communicate his decision whether to grant or refuse permission to the applicant within six months from the date of receipt of his application, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted to the applicant on the date immediately following the date of expiry of six months :

Provided that in computing the period of six months the period in between the date of requisitioning any further information or documents from the applicant and date of receipt of such information or documents from the applicant shall be excluded.

32. Appeal.—(1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order granting permission on conditions or refusing permission under section 31 may, within thirty days of the date of communication of order to him prefer an appeal to an officer not below the rank of a Commissioner, appointed by the State Government in this behalf, and such an appeal shall be made in such manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(2) The officer appointed under sub-section (1) may, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant and the Director to be heard, by order, dismiss the appeal or allow the appeal by granting permission unconditionally or subject to the conditions as modified.

(3) Subject to the provisions of section 33 the order of the appellate authority shall be final.

33. Revision.—The State Government may, at anytime, but not later than twelve months of the passing of the order, on its own motion or on an application filed by the person aggrieved by any order of the appellate authority under section 32 within thirty days of the date of communication of such order to him, call for and examine the record of any case disposed of by Director under section 31 or appellate authority under section 32 for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness of the order and as to the regularity of any proceeding of the Director or the appellate authority and may, when calling such record direct that the execution of the order be suspended. The State Government may, after examining the record, pass such order as it thinks fit and its order shall be final and no further application for revision or review thereof shall lie :

Provided that no order shall be passed unless the person affected thereby and the Director have been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

34. Lapse of permission.—Every permission granted under section 31 or section 32 or section 33 shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date of such grant and thereafter it shall lapse :

Provided that the Director may, on an application, extend such period from year to year but the total period shall, in no case exceed three years from the date on which the permission was initially granted :

Provided further that such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

35. Obligation to acquire land.—(1) Where any land is designated by a development plan as subject to compulsory acquisition,—

- (a) for development for the purpose of town expansion or town improvement, or
- (b) for development for the purpose of the Union or State Government or a local authority or a Special Area Development Authority constituted under this Act, or
- (c) for development as a highway or a public utility services and the owner of the land claims—
 - (i) the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state, or
 - (ii) the permission to develop land is given subject to conditions, that the land cannot be rendered capable of reasonably beneficial use by carrying out the permitted development in accordance with the conditions, or
 - (iii) the sale value of the land has diminished because of the designation of the land for acquisition or development, such owner may serve on the State Government within such time in such manner and together with such documents as may be prescribed, a notice requiring the appropriate authority to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) On receipt of the notice under sub-section (1) the State Government shall forthwith call from the Director and the appropriate authority such report or records, or both as may be necessary, which these authorities shall forward to the State Government as soon as possible but not later than thirty days from the date of their requisition.

(3) On receiving such records or reports the State Government may—

- (a) if it is satisfied that the conditions specified in sub-section (1) are fulfilled, and that the order of decision for permission was not duly made on the ground that the applicant did not comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, confirm the notice or direct that the permission be granted without conditions or subject to such conditions as will make the land capable of reasonably beneficial use;
- (b) in any other case, refuse to confirm the notice but in that case, the applicant shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(4) If within a period of one year from the date on which the notice is served, the State Government does not pass any final order thereon, the notice shall be deemed to have been confirmed at the expiration of that period.

(5) Upon confirmation of the notice the State Government shall, within a period of one year of such confirmation, proceed to acquire the land or that part of any land regarding which the notice has been confirmed in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

36. Deletion of reservation of designated land from draft or final development plan.—(1) The appropriate authority, if it is satisfied that the land is not or is no longer required for the public purpose for which it is designated or reserved or allocated in the draft development plan or sectoral plan, or the final development plan or sectoral plan may request,—

- (a) the Director to sanction the deletion of such designation or reservation or allocation from the draft development plan or sectoral plan; or
- (b) the State Government to sanction the deletion of such designation or reservation or allocation from the final development plan or sectoral plan.

(2) On receipt of such request from the appropriate authority, the Director or, as the case may be, the State Government may make an order sanctioning the deletion of such designation or reservation or allocation from the relevant plans :

Provided that the Director or, as the case may be, the State Government may, before making any order, make such enquiry as he/it may consider necessary and satisfy himself /itself that such reservation or designation or allocation is no longer necessary in the public interest.

(3) Upon an order under sub-section (2) being made the land shall be deemed to be released from such designation, reservation or allocation, as the case may be, and shall become available to the owner for the purpose of development as otherwise permissible in the case of adjacent land under the relevant plan.

37. Power of revocation and modification or permission to development.—

(1) If it appears to the Town and Country Development Authority or Special Area Development Authority that it is expedient, having regard to the development plan prepared or under preparation and to any other material considerations, that any permission to develop land granted under this Act or any other law, should be revoked or modified, the Town and Country Development Authority or the Special Area Development Authority may, by an order, revoke or modify the permission to such extent as appears to it to be necessary:

Provided that—

- (a) where the permission related to the carrying out or other operations, no such orders—
 - (i) shall affect such of the operations as have been previously carried out;
 - (ii) shall be passed after those operations have been completed;
- (b) where permission related to a change of use of land, no such order shall be passed at any time after the change has taken place.

(2) Where permission is revoked or modified by an order under the last foregoing section, and the owner claims from the Town and Country Development Authority or the Special Area Development Authority, within the time and in the manner prescribed, amount in lieu of the expenditure incurred in carrying out the works after the grant of permission and in accordance with such permission, which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification, the Town and Country Development Authority or the Special Area Development Authority shall, after giving the owners reasonable opportunity of being heard by the Town Planning Officer and after considering his report, assess and offer subject to provisions of section 11 such amount to the owner as it thinks fit.

(3) If the owner does not accept the amount and gives notice within such time as may be prescribed, of his refusal to accept, the Town and Country Development Authority or the Special Area Development Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the court and the decision of the court shall be final and be binding on the owner and the Town and Country Development Authority or the Special Area Development Authority.

38. Penalty for unauthorised development or for use otherwise than in conformity with development plan.—Any person who, whether at his own instance or at the instance of any other person, commences, undertakes or carries out any development or changes use of any land—

- (a) without permission required under this Act ;
- (b) in contravention of the permission granted or any condition subject to which such permission has been granted ;
- (c) after the permission for development has been duly revoked ; or
- (d) in contravention of any permission which has been duly modified ;

shall, without prejudice to any action that may be taken under section 39, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence with further fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

39. Power to require removal of unauthorised development.—(1) Where any development has been carried out as indicated in section 38 the Director may, within five years of such development, serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period being not less than one month and not exceeding three months as may be specified therein from the date of service of the notice—

- (a) in cases specified in clause (a) or (c) of section 38 to restore the land to its condition existing before the said development took place;
- (b) in cases specified in clause (b) or (d) of section 38 to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified ;

Provided that where the notice requires the discontinuance of any use of land, it shall be served on the occupier also.

(2) In particular, such notice may, for purpose of sub-section (1), require—

- (a) the demolition or alteration of any building or works,
- (b) the carrying out on land of any building or other operations, or
- (c) the discontinuance of any use of land.

(3) Any person aggrieved by such notice may, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice and in the manner prescribed, apply to the Director for permission for retention on the land of any building or works or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates and till the time the application is disposed of, the notice shall stand withdrawn.

(4) The foregoing provisions of this chapter, shall so far as may be applicable, apply to an application under sub-section (3).

(5) If the permission applied for is granted, the notice shall stand withdrawn, but if the permission applied for is not granted, the notice shall stand, or if such permission is granted for the retention only of some buildings, or works, or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall stand withdrawn as respects such buildings or works or such part of the land, but shall stand as respects other buildings or works or other parts of the land, as the case may be; and thereupon the owner shall be required to take steps specified in the notice under sub-section (1) as respects to such other buildings, works or part of the land.

(6) If within the period specified in the notice or within the same period after the disposal of the application, the notice or so much of it as stands is not complied with, the Director may,—

- (a) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and whether the notice requires the discontinuance of any use of land, any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice, and
- (b) where the notice required the demolition or any alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations itself, cause the restorations of the land to its condition before the development took place and secure compliance with the condition of the permission or with the permission as modified by taking such steps as the Director may consider necessary, including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations, and recover the amount of any expenses incurred by him in this behalf from the owner as arrears of land revenue.

(7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) of sub-section (6) shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees, or with both, and in the case of a continuing offence with further fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.

CHAPTER VII

TOWN AND COUNTRY DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

40. Establishment of Town and Country Development Authority.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, establish a Town and Country Development Authority by such name and for such area as may be specified in the notification. If the State Government considers the local authority or authorities or any other authorities like State Housing Board, the State Government may, by notification, designate such authority or authorities as the Town and Country Development Authority or Authorities for a particular area or areas to perform the functions of the Town and Country Development Authority or Authorities under this Act in addition to their own duties and functions and in such cases sections 42, 43, 44, 45, 46 and 48 of this Act will not operate.

(2) The duty of implementing the proposal in the development plan, preparing one or more town development schemes, and acquisition and development of land for the purposes of expansion or improvement of the area specified in the notification under sub-section (1) shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, vest in the Town and Country Development Authority established for the said area.

41. Incorporation of Town and Country Development Authority.—Every Town and Country Development Authority shall be a body corporate by the name specified in the notification under section 40, and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, with power to acquire and hold property, both movable and immovable, and subject to the provisions of this Act or any rules made thereunder, to transfer any property held by it, to contract and to do all other things necessary for the purposes of this Act and may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

42. Constitution of Town and Country Development Authority.—Every Town and Country Development Authority shall consist of—

(a) a Chairman;

(b) other members not exceeding six.

The Chairman and the members shall be appointed by the State Government :

Provided that the State Government may, if it considers it necessary so to do, constitute a single member Town and Country Development Authority.

43. Term of office of Chairman and other members.—(1) The names of the Chairman and the members shall be notified in the Official Gazette.

(2) The term of office of the Chairman and the members shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) The person ceasing to be a Chairman or member by reason of the expiry of his term of office, shall if otherwise qualified be eligible for reappointment.

44. Resignation of members and filling of casual vacancy.—(1) Every person becoming a member under clause (b) of section 42 may at any time resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman, and upon receipt of resignation by the Chairman, the office of the member shall become vacant.

(2) If the State Government considers that the continuance in office of any member is not in the public interest, the State Government may make an order terminating his appointment and thereupon he shall cease to be a member of the Town and Country Development Authority, notwithstanding that the term for which he was appointed has not expired.

(3) In the event of a vacancy occurring in the office of the Chairman or any member, the vacancy shall be filled by the State Government in accordance with the provisions of section 42 and the person so appointed shall hold office for remainder of the term of his predecessor.

45. Remuneration of Chairman.—(1) No member, other than the Chairman, shall receive any emoluments except such allowances as may be prescribed.

(2) The Chairman shall receive such salary and allowances and shall be subject to such terms and conditions of service as may be prescribed.

46. Leave of absence and appointment, etc. of acting Chairman.—(1) The State Government may grant leave to the Chairman subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) Whenever the Chairman is granted leave the State Government may appoint a person to act as Chairman in his place.

47. Meeting of Town and Country Development Authority.—(1) The meetings of the Town and Country Development Authority shall be held at such time and such place as may be laid down by regulations:

Provided that until regulations are made in this behalf such meeting shall be convened by the Chairman.

(2) The quorum of meeting shall, unless otherwise provided by regulations, be one-third of the total number of members of the Town and Country Development Authority.

(3) The Town and Country Development Authority shall make regulations to provide for the conduct of its business.

48. Chief Executive Officer.—(1) There shall be a Chief Executive Officer of every Town and Country Development Authority who shall also act as the Secretary of the Authority.

(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall be appointed by the State Government.

49. Other officers and servants.—(1) Every Town and Country Development Authority may appoint such other officers and servants as may be necessary and proper for the efficient discharge of its duties:

Provided that no post shall be created save with prior sanction of the State Government :

Provided further that the power of appointment shall be subject to such restrictions as the State Government may, from time to time, impose.

50. Conditions of service of Chief Executive Officer and other officers and servants.—(1) The Chief Executive Officer under section 48 and other officers and servants appointed under section 49 shall work under the superintendence and control of the Chairman.

(2) The State Government may make rules in respect of recruitment, qualifications, appointment, scale of pay, leave, leave allowance, loans, pension and other service conditions of the Chief Executive Officer and other officers and servants.

51. Town development schemes.—A town development scheme may make provision for any of the following matters:—

- (i) acquisition, development and sale or leasing of land for the purpose of town expansion;
- (ii) acquisition, relaying out of, rebuilding or relocating areas which have been badly laid out or which have developed or degenerated into a slum;
- (iii) acquisition and development of land for public purposes such as housing development, development of shopping centres, cultural centres, administrative centres;
- (iv) acquisition and development of areas for commercial and industrial purposes;
- (v) undertaking of such building or construction work as may be necessary to provide housing, shopping, commercial or other facilities;
- (vi) acquisition of land and its development for the purpose of laying out or remodelling of road and street pattern;
- (vii) acquisition and development of land for play-grounds, parks, recreation centres and stadium;
- (viii) reconstruction of plots for the purpose of buildings, roads, drains, sewerage lines and other similar amenities;
- (ix) any other work of a nature such as would be about environmental improvements which may be taken up by the authority with the prior approval of the State Government.

52. Preparation of town development scheme.—(1) The Town and Country Development Authority may, at any time, declare its intention to prepare a town development scheme.

(2) Not later than thirty days from the date of such declaration of intention to make a scheme, the Town and Country Development Authority shall publish the declaration in the Official Gazette and in such other manner as may be prescribed.

(3) Not later than two years from the date of publication of the declaration under sub-section (2), the Town and Country Development Authority shall prepare a town development scheme in draft form and publish it in such form and manner as may be prescribed together with a notice inviting objections and suggestions from any person with respect to the said draft development scheme before such date as may be specified therein, such date being not earlier than thirty days from the date of publication of such notice.

(4) The Town and Country Development Authority shall consider all the objections and suggestions as may be received within the period specified in the notice under sub-section (3) and shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity to such persons affected thereby as are desirous of being heard, or after considering the report of the committee constituted under sub-section (5), approve the draft scheme as published or make such modifications therein as it may deem fit.

(5) Where the town development scheme relates to reconstitution of plots, the Town and Country Development Authority shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), constitute a committee consisting of the Chief Executive Officer of the said authority and two other members of whom one shall be representative of the Himachal Pradesh Housing Board and the other shall be an officer of the Public Works Department not below the rank of an Executive Engineer nominated by the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department for the purpose of hearing objections and suggestions received under sub-section (3).

(6) The Committee constituted under sub-section (5) shall consider the objections and suggestions and give hearing to such persons as are desirous of being heard and shall submit its report to the Town and Country Development Authority within such time as it may fix along with proposals to—

- (i) define and demarcate the areas allotted to or reserved for public purposes;
- (ii) demarcate the reconstituted plots;
- (iii) evaluate the value of the original and the constituted plots;
- (iv) determine whether the areas reserved for public purpose are wholly or partially beneficial to the residents within the area of the scheme;
- (v) estimate and apportion the compensation to or contribution from the beneficiaries of the scheme on account of the reconstitution of the plot and reservation of portions for public purpose;
- (vi) evaluate the increment in value of each reconstituted plot and assess the development contribution leviable on the plot holder;

Provided that the contribution shall not exceed half the accrued increment in value;

- (vii) evaluate the reduction in value of any reconstituted plot and assess the amount payable therefor.

(7) Immediately after the town development scheme is approved under sub-section (4) with or without modifications, the Town and Country Development Authority shall publish in the Official Gazette and in such other manner, as may be prescribed, a final town development scheme and specify the date on which it shall come into operation.

53. Power to revise the development schemes.—The Director may, at any time, but not later than two years from the date of publication of the final town development scheme under section 52, on his own motion or on an application filed within thirty days of such publication of the final scheme by any person aggrieved by the final scheme, call for and examine the record of any scheme for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness of the order passed by the Town and Country Development Authority, or as to the regularity of any proceedings of such authority and when calling such record direct that the execution of the scheme be suspended. The Director may, after examining the record, pass such order as he thinks fit and his order shall be final.

Provided that no order shall be passed unless the person affected thereby and the Town and Country Development Authority have been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

54. Power of State Government to give directions.—(1) The State Government may, if it considers necessary in public interest so to do, give directions to the Town and Country Development Authority—

- (a) to frame a town development scheme;
- (b) to modify a town development scheme during execution;
- (c) to revoke a town development scheme, for reasons to be specified in such direction:

Provided that no direction to modify or revoke a town development scheme shall be given unless the Town and Country Development Authority is given an opportunity to present its case.

(2) The direction given by the State Government under this section shall be binding on the Town and Country Development Authority.

55. Restriction on land use and development.—As from the date of publication of declaration to prepare a town development scheme no person shall, within the area including in the scheme, institute or change the use of any land or building or carry out any development save in accordance with the development authorised by the Director in accordance with the provisions of this Act prior to the publication of such declaration.

56. Lapse of scheme.—If the Town and Country Development Authority fails to implement the town development scheme within a period of three years from the date of publication of the final scheme under section 52, it shall, on the expiration of the said period of three years, lapse.

57. Town development scheme a public purpose.—Land needed for the purpose of town development scheme shall be deemed to be a land needed for public purpose within the meaning of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894).

58. Acquisition of land for Town and Country Development Authority.—The Town and Country Development Authority may at any time after the date of publication of the final town development scheme under section 52 but not later than three years therefrom, proceed to acquire by agreement the land required for the implementation of scheme and, on its failure so to acquire, the State Government may, at the request of the Town and Country Development Authority, proceed to acquire such land under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894(1 of 1894) and on the payment of amount awarded under that Act and any other charges incurred by the State Government in connection with the acquisition, the land shall vest in the Town and Country Development Authority subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

59. Developments.—(1) The Town and Country Development Authority shall take necessary steps to develop the land vested in it under section 58 in accordance with the provisions on the town development scheme:

Provided that if the State Government or the Director has, after such enquiry as may be necessary, reason to believe that the Town and Country

Development Authority is not taking adequate steps to develop the land has deviated from the final scheme, it/he may give such directions to that authority as may be considered necessary in the circumstances.

(2) The directions given under this section shall be binding on the Town and Country Development Authority and that authority shall give effect to them forthwith.

60. Disposal of land, building and other development works.—Subject to such rules as may be made by the State Government in this behalf, the Town and Country Development Authority shall, by regulation, determine the procedure for the disposal of development lands houses, buildings and other structures.

61. Development charges.—(1) Where, as a result of the implementation of town development schemes, there is in the opinion of the Town and Country Development Authority, an appreciation in the market value of lands adjacent to and affected by a scheme the Town and Country Development Authority may, in lieu of providing for the acquisition of such land, levy development charges on owners of suchland.

(2) The development charges shall be an amount equal to not less than one-fourth and more than one-third of the difference between the value of the land on the date of publication of the intention to prepare the town development scheme and the date of completion of the scheme.

62. Mode of levy.—(1) On completion of the town development scheme, the Town and Country Development Authority, shall, by a notice in such form and published in such manner as may be prescribed, declare the fact of such completion and of its intention to levy development charges in the area covered by the scheme, calling upon owners of land liable to pay development charges to submit objection, if any, within such period which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of publication of the notice.

(2) The authority specified in the notice shall, after giving the objectors an opportunity to be heard, forward the report to the Town and Country Development Authority.

(3) On receipt of the report under sub-section (2), the Town and Country Development Authority shall pass such orders thereon as it may consider fit.

(4) The Town and Country Development Authority shall, not later than three months after the publication of a notice declaring its intention to levy development charges, issue a notice in the prescribed form, assessing the charge due from every person affected by the levy of charges.

(5) Where the assessment is accepted, it shall be final. If, however, the assessment is not accepted, the person aggrieved may, within thirty days of the publication of notice, file an application in writing before the Revenue Officer not below the rank of Sub-Divisional Officer as may be authorised by the State Government in this behalf.

(6) The Revenue Officer may, after giving the applicant and the Town and Country Development Authority an opportunity to be heard, pass such orders on the application as he may deem fit under the circumstances and orders so passed shall be final.

(7) After the final determination of the assessment the Town and Country Development Authority shall cause a notice to be served on each assessee, asking him to pay the development charges within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of the notice by him.

(8) Any payment made after the expiration of the period specified in the notice under sub-section (7) shall carry simple interest at 10 per cent per annum as from the date of the receipt of the notice by the assessee.

(9) The Town and Country Development Authority may, on an application made to it in that behalf, permit assessee to make payment of development charges in annual instalments not exceeding five and fix a date by which each instalment shall be payable.

(10) Where permission is granted to make payment in instalments the amount of development charges shall carry a simple interest at fifteen per cent per annum as from the date of the receipt of notice under sub-section (7) and the interest due shall be payable along with each instalment.

63. Fund of Town and Country Development Authority.—The Town and Country Development Authority shall have its own fund and all receipts of that authority shall be credited thereto and all payments by that authority shall be made therefrom.

64. Annual budget.—(1) The Chief Executive Officer or any other officer designated to act as the Chief Executive Officer shall cause to be prepared not later than the 10th of March every year a statement of annual income and expenditure, giving the estimates and actuals of the past year and the estimates of the next financial year.

(2) The annual statement (hereinafter called the budget) to be prepared shall be placed by the Chief Executive Officer or any other officer designated to act as the Chief Executive Officer, with the prior approval of the Chairman, before the Town and Country Development Authority.

(3) The Town and Country Development Authority shall consider the budget so submitted to it and sanction the same either unaltered, or subject to such alterations as it may think fit.

(4) A copy of the budget as sanctioned under sub-section (3) shall be submitted to the State Government and the Director.

(5) The State Government may direct the Town and Country Development Authority to make such modification in the budget as may be deemed necessary.

(6) The Town and Country Development Authority shall within thirty days of the date of receipt of such directions either accept the modification or make further submission to the State Government.

(7) The State Government, after considering the submissions of the Town and Country Development Authority, shall pass such orders thereon as may be deemed fit and from the date of such orders, the budget shall be deemed to be in force, with modifications ordered by the Government.

65. Power to borrow money.—Subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed, the Town and Country Development Authority may, with the prior sanction of the State Government, issue debentures or borrow money from Government or the open market for all or any of the purposes of this Act.

CHAPTER VIII

SPECIAL AREAS

66. Constitution of special areas.—(1) If any area, town or township is designated as a special area in the regional plan or if the State Government is otherwise satisfied that it is expedient in the public interest that any area, town or township should be developed as a special area, it may, by notification, designate the area as a special area, which shall be known by such name as may be specified therein.

(2) Such notification shall define the limits of special area.

(3) The State Government may, by notification,—

- (a) alter the limits of the special area so as to include therein or exclude therefrom such area as may be specified in the notification;
- (b) declare that the special area shall cease to be so.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Himachal Pradesh Municipal Act, 1968 (19 of 1968) and the Himachal Pradesh Panchayati Raj Act, 1968 (19 of 1970), the Municipal Corporation, Municipal Committee, Notified Area Committee or a Panchayat, as the case may be, shall, in relation to the special area and as from the date the Special Area Development Authority undertakes the functions under clause (v) or clause (vi) of section 70 cease to exercise the powers and perform the functions and duties which the Special Area Development Authority is competent to exercise and perform under this Act.

67. Special Area Development Authority.—(1) Every special area shall have a Special Area Development Authority which shall consist of—

- (a) the Chairman; and
- (b) such other members as Government may determine from time to time.

The Chairman and members shall be appointed by the State Government.

(2) The Chairman shall be a whole time salaried officer and his salary and other terms and conditions of service shall be such as the State Government may, from time to time, determine.

(3) The members shall not be entitled to any salary but shall receive such allowances as may be prescribed.

68. Incorporation of Special Area Development Authority.—Every Special Area Development Authority shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall have power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable and to contract and sue and be sued by the name specified in the notification under sub-section (1) of section 66,

69. Staff (1) Every Special Area Development Authority may appoint such officers and servants as may be necessary and proper for the efficient discharge of its duties:

Provided that no post shall be created save with the prior sanction of the State Government.

(2) The State Government may make rules in respect of recruitment, qualification, appointment, scale of pay, leave allowance and other conditions of service of the officers and servants appointed under subsection (1).

70. Functions.—The functions of the Special Area Development Authority shall be,—

- (i) to prepare, if required to do so, the development plan for the special area;
- (ii) to implement the development plan after its approval by the State Government;
- (iii) for the purpose of implementation of the plan, to acquire, hold, develop, manage and dispose of land and other property;
- (iv) to carry out construction activity and to provide such utilities and amenities as water, electricity, drainage and the like;
- (v) to provide the municipal services as specified in the Himachal Pradesh Municipal Act, 1968 (19 of 1968);
- (vi) to provide for the municipal management of the special area in the same manner as is provided in the Himachal Pradesh Municipal Act, 1968 (19 of 1968);
- (vii) to otherwise perform all such functions with regard to the special area as the State Government may, from time to time, direct:

Provided that functions specified in clauses (v) and (vi) shall not be performed unless so required by the State Government.

71. Powers.—The Special Area Development Authority shall—

- (a) for the purpose of acquisition of land, exercise the powers and follow the procedure which a Town and Country Development Authority have to follow under this Act;
- (b) for the purpose of planning, exercise the powers which the Director has under this Act; and
- (c) for this purpose the municipal administration, have the powers which a Municipal Committee has under the Himachal Pradesh Municipal Act, 1968 (19 of 1968).

72. Fund of Special Area Development Authority.—(1) Every Special Area Development Authority shall have its own fund and all receipts of that authority shall be credited thereto and all payments of that authority shall be made therefrom.

(2) The Special Area Development Authority shall levy the development charge in the manner as prescribed under sections 61 and 62 of this Act.

(3) The Special Area Development Authority may for all or any of the purposes of this Act—

- (a) accept grants from the State Government or a local authority;
- (b) raise loans, subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

73. Annual estimates.—(1) The Chairman shall lay, not later than 10th of March every year, before the Special Area Development Authority an estimate of the income and of the expenditure of that authority for the year commencing on the first day of April next ensuing in such detail and form as that authority may from time to time direct.

(2) Such estimates shall make provision for the due fulfilment of all liabilities of the Special Area Development Authority and for the efficient implementation of this Act and shall be complete and a copy thereof shall be sent to each member of that authority at least ten clear days prior to the meeting before which the estimate is to be laid.

(3) The Special Area Development Authority shall consider the estimate so submitted and shall sanction the same either unaltered or subject to such alterations as it may think fit.

(4) The estimates so sanctioned shall be submitted to the State Government who may approve the same with or without modifications.

(5) If the State Government approves the estimates with modifications, the Special Area Development Authority shall proceed to amend the same and the estimates so modified and amended shall be in force during the year.

CHAPTER IX

CONTROL

74. Power of State Government of supervision and control.—The State Government shall have power of superintendence and control over the acts and proceedings of the officers appointed under section 3 and the authorities constituted under this Act.

75. Power of State Government to give directions.—(1) In the discharge of their duties the officers appointed under section 3 and the authorities constituted under this Act shall be bound by such directions on matters of policy as may be given to them by the State Government.

(2) If any dispute arises between the State Government and any authority as to whether a question is or is not a question of policy, the decision of the State Government shall be final.

76. Power of Government to review plans etc. for ensuring conformity.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment for the time being in force, the State Government may, with a view to ascertaining that no repugnancy exists or arises with the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder, review the town improvement schemes, building plans or any permission for construction sanctioned or given by any authority under development plans, sanctioned under any enactment for the time being in force and may revoke, vary, or modify any scheme, plan, permission or sanction in conformity with the provisions of this Act:

Provided that no order under this section shall be made without giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the persons affected thereby.

77. Delegation of powers.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, delegate to any officer or authority subordinate to it all or any powers conferred on it by or under this Act, other than the power to make rules.

(2) Subject to such restrictions as may be imposed by the State Government by a general or special order, the Director, may, by an order in writing, delegate to any officer subordinate to him all or any powers exercisable by him under this Act or the rules made thereunder, other than the power to hear appeal and revision.

78. Dissolution of authorities.—(1) Whenever in the opinion of the State Government the continued existence of any authority constituted under this Act is unnecessary or undesirable, the State Government may, by notification, declare that such authority shall be dissolved from such date as may be specified therein and the authority shall stand dissolved accordingly.

(2) As from the said date—

- (a) all the properties, funds and dues which are vested in or realisable by the authority, shall vest in, or be realisable by, the State Government;
- (b) all liabilities which are enforceable against the authority shall be enforceable against the State Government;
- (c) for the purpose of realising properties, funds, and dues referred to in clause (a), the function of the authority shall be discharged by the State Government;
- (d) all powers and functions to be exercised or discharged by the authority under this Act shall be exercised and discharged by the Director and for that purpose any reference in this Act to the said authority shall be construed as a reference to the Director.

CHAPTER X

MISCELLANEOUS

79. Right of entry.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provisions of this Act the Director or any authority established under this Act may enter into or upon, or cause to be entered into or upon, any land or building for the purpose of the preparation of plan or scheme under this Act for—

- (a) making any measurement or survey or taking levels of such land or building;
- (b) setting out or marking boundaries and intended lines of development;
- (c) making such levels boundaries and lines by placing marks and cutting trenches;

- (d) examining works under construction and ascertaining the course of sewers and drains;
- (e) ascertaining whether any land is being or has been developed in contravention of any provision of this Act or the rules or the regulations made thereunder:

Provided that—

- (i) in the case of any building used as a dwelling house, or upon any enclosed part of garden attached to such a building, no such entry shall be made except between the hours of sunrise and sunset or without giving its occupier at least 24 hours' notice in writing of the intention to enter;
- (ii) sufficient opportunity shall in every instance be given to enable women (if any) to withdraw from such land or building;
- (iii) due regard shall always be had so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose for which the entry is made, to the social and religious usages of the occupants of the land or building entered.

(2) Any person who obstructs the entry of an officer empowered or duly authorised under this section to enter into or upon any land or building or molests such officer after such entry shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

80. Jurisdiction of Court.—No court inferior to that of Magistrate of the first class shall try an offence punishable under this Act.

81. Cognizance of offences.—No court shall take cognizance of any offence under this Act except on a complaint in writing made over the signature of an officer duly authorised by the Director or a Town and Country Development Authority or a Special Area Development Authority, as the case may be.

82. Member and officers to be public servants.—Every member and every officer of any authority established under this Act shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (45 of 1860).

83. Suit and other proceedings.—No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rules made thereunder.

84. Vacancy not to invalidate proceedings.—No act of a Town and Country Development Authority or a Special Area Development Authority or any of its committee shall be invalid merely by reasons of—

- (a) any vacancy in, or defect in the constitution thereof; or
- (b) any defect in the appointment of a person acting as a Chairman or member thereof; or
- (c) any irregularity in the procedure thereof not affecting the merits of the case.

85. Memes to continue till successor enters upon office.—A Chairman or a member of a Town and Country Development Authority or a Special Area Development Authority shall, notwithstanding the expiration of his term, continue to hold office till his successor enters upon office.

86. Interpretation of regional plan etc.—(1) If any question arises regarding the interpretation of any regional plan, the matter shall be referred to the Director who shall pass such order thereon as he may deem fit.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Director may prefer an appeal to the State Government within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The decision of the State Government and subject to the decision of the State Government, the decision of the Director shall be final.

CHAPTER XI

“39-A. Power to stop development.—(1) Where any development in any area being commenced in contravention of the development plan or sectoral plan or without the permission, approval or sanction referred to in sections 15-A (2), 16 or 31 or in contravention of any condition subject to which such permission, approval or sanction has been granted—

- (i) in relation to a planning area or a special planning area, the State Government or an Officer of the State Government empowered by it in this behalf.
- (ii) in relation to any other area within the local limits of a local authority, the competent authority thereof, may, in addition to any prosecution that may be instituted under this Act, make an order requiring the development to be discontinued on and from the date of the service of the order, and such order shall be complied with accordingly.

(2) Where such development is not discontinued in pursuance of the order under sub-section (1) the State Government or the officer of the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be, may require any police officer to remove the person by whom the development has been commenced and all his assistants and workmen from the place of development or to seize any construction material, tools, machinery, scaffolding or other things used in such development within such time, as may be specified in the requisition and such police officer shall comply with the requisition accordingly.

(3) Any of the things caused to be seized by the State Government or the officer of the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be, under sub-section (2) shall, unless the owner thereof turns up to take back such things and pays to the State Government or the officer of the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be the charges for the removal or storage of such things, be disposed of by it or him by public auction or in such other manner and within such time as the State Government or the officer of the State Government or the competent authority thinks fit.

(4) The charges for the removal and storage of the things sold, under sub-section (3) shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale thereof and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner of the things sold on a claim being made therefor within a period of one year from the date of sale, and if no such claim is made within the said period, shall be credited to the fund of the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be.

(5) If any development in an area other than a planning area or the special area, has been commenced in contravention of the development plan or sectoral plan or without the permission, approval or sanction referred to in sections 15-A (2), 16 or 31 or in contravention of any conditions subject to which such permission, approval or sanction has been granted and the competent authority has failed to make an order under sub-section (1) or, as the case may be, a requisition, under sub-section (2), within the time that may be specified in this behalf by the State Government, the State Government may, after observing such procedure as may be prescribed by rules made in this behalf, direct any officer to make the order or requisition, as the case may be, and that officer shall be bound to carry out such direction and the order or requisition made by him in pursuance of the direction shall be complied with accordingly.

(6) After the requisition under sub-section (2) or sub-section (5) has been complied with, the competent authority or the officer to whom the direction was issued by the State Government under sub-section (5), as the case may be, may depute by a written order a police officer or an officer or an employee of the State Government or local authority concerned to ensure that the development is not continued.

(7) Any person failing to comply with an order under sub-section (1), or as the case may be, under sub-section (5) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every day during which the non-compliance continues after the service of the order.

(8) No compensation shall be claimable by any person for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the removal of any development under section 39 or the discontinuance of the development under this section.

(9) The provisions of this section shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provision relating to stoppage of building operations contained in any other law for time being in force.

39-B. Power to seal unauthorised development.—(1) It shall be lawful for the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be, at any time, before or after making an order for the removal or discontinuance of any development under section 39 or section 39-A to make an order directing the sealing of such development in the manner prescribed by rules, for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, or for preventing any dispute as to the nature and extent of such development.

(2) Where any development has been sealed, the State Government or the competent authority, as the case may be, may, for the purpose of removing or discontinuing such development, order the seal to be removed.

(3) No person shall remove such seal except—

(a) under an order made by the State Government or the competent authority under sub-section (2) ; or

(b) under an order of the appellate authority or the State Government made in an appeal under this Act”.

(a) the particulars in the case of apartment,—

(i) the liability of promoter to construct the building according to the plans and specifications approved by the authority which is required so to do under any law for the time being in force and the statement of the use for which the apartment is intended and restrictions on its use, if any;

- (ii) the price of the apartment and date by which its possession is to be handed over to the allottee with area including area of balconies; and
 - (iii) the nature, extent and description of the common areas and facilities and the limited common areas and facilities including the proportionate price of the common areas and facilities and intervals at which the installments thereof may be paid by the allottee of the apartment. The percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities and in the limited common areas and facilities, if any, pertaining to the apartment agreed to be sold, such percentage shall be the ratio of the built-up area of the apartment to the total built-up area of all the apartments;
- (b) the particulars in the case of plots in a colony,—
- (i) the date by which the possession of the plot is to be handed over to allottee; and
 - (ii) the price and area of the plot with statement of the use for which the plot is intended and restriction on its use, if any;
- (c) the copies of documents to be attached with the agreement,—
- (i) the certificate by an Assistant Collector First Grade or Second Grade, as the case may be, referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 78n;
 - (ii) certified copy from any relevant revenue record showing the nature of the title of the promoter to the plot or the land on which the building or apartment is constructed or is to be constructed; and
 - (iii) the plans and specifications of the apartment as approved by the authority which is required so to do under any law for the time being in force.

78r. Maintenance of accounts by promoters.—The promoter shall obtain all requisite permissions and shall maintain proper account of payments received and expenses incurred and will show it to the Director as and when required.

78s. Responsibility for payment of charges till transfer.—A promoter shall, while he is in possession, and, where he collects from persons who have taken or are to take apartments or plots, sums for the payment of charges, even thereafter, pay all charges (including ground rent, municipal or other local taxes, charges for water or electricity, revenue assessment, interest on mortgages or other encumbrances, if any) until he transfers the property to the persons taking over the apartments or plots. Where any promoter fails to pay all or any of the charges collected by him from the persons who have taken over or are to take over apartments or plots, before transferring the property to the persons taking over the apartments or plots, the promoter shall continue to be liable, even after the transfer of the property, to pay such charges and penal charges, if any, to the authority or person to whom they are payable and be responsible for any legal proceedings which may be taken therefor by such authority or person.

78t. No alterations and rectification of defects.—(1) After the plans and specifications of the building as approved by the authority which is required so to do under any law are disclosed or furnished to the person who agrees to take an apartment, the promoter shall,—

- (i) not make any alterations in the structures described therein in respect of such apartment, without the previous consent of that person; or

- (ii) not make any other alterations in, or additions to the structure of the building or construct any additional structures, without the previous consent of all the persons who have agreed to take apartments in such building.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the building shall be constructed and completed in accordance with the plans and specifications aforesaid; and if any defect in the building or material used, or if any unauthorized change in the construction is brought to the notice of the promoter within a period of one year from the date of handing over possession, it shall wherever possible be rectified by the promoter without further charge to the persons who have agreed to take the apartments, and in other cases such persons shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation for such defects or change and where there is a dispute as regards any defect in the building or material used or any unauthorized change in the construction, or as to whether it is reasonably possible for the promoter to rectify any such defect or change, or as regards the amount of reasonable compensation payable in respect of any such defect or change which cannot be or is not rectified by the promoter, the matter shall, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed and within a period of three years from the date of handing over possession, be referred for decision to the Director and the Director shall, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the parties and after making further enquiry, if any, as it may deem fit, pass order, which shall be final.

78u. Refund of amount.—If the promoter,—

- (a) fails to give possession in accordance with the terms of the agreement reached with the buyers of a plot or an apartment duly completed by the date specified or any further date agreed to by the parties; or
- (b) does not give possession by the date specified or further date agreed, the promoter shall be liable on demand but without prejudice to any other penalties to which he may be liable, to refund the amounts already received by him in respect of that plot or apartments with simple interest at the rate of twelve percent per annum from the date the promoter received the sums till the date the amounts and interest thereon is refunded and the amounts and the interest shall be a charge on the land on which a plot is to be developed or a building is or was to be constructed and the construction, if any, thereon shall be subject to any prior encumbrances.

78v. No mortgage without consent.—(1) No promoter shall, after he executes an agreement to sell any apartment or plot, mortgage or create a charge on such apartment or the land or the plot, without the previous consent of the person who takes or agrees to take such apartment or plot, and if any such mortgage or charge is made or created without such previous consent, it shall not affect the right and interest of such person.

(2) If a promoter has executed an agreement of sale of an apartment or a plot with a buyer and has not yet received from him all the amounts agreed to be paid, the buyer shall not mortgage or create a charge against such apartment or plot without the previous consent of the promoter :

Provided that the promoter shall not withhold consent if the mortgage or charge is for the purpose of obtaining finance for the payment of amounts due to the promoter.

78w. Completion and occupation certificate.—(1) It shall be the responsibility of the promoter,—

- (i) in the case of apartments, to obtain from the authority required to do so under any law completion and occupation certificate for the building and if a promoter, within a reasonable time, after the construction of the building, does not apply for an occupation certificate from such authority, the allottee of an apartment may apply for an occupation certificate from the said authority; and

- (ii) in the case of a colony, to obtain completion certificate from the Director to the effect that the development works have been completed in all respects as per terms and conditions of the licence granted to him under section 78p.

(2) The authority referred to in sub-section (1) shall after satisfying itself about the agreement of sale between the promoter and the allottee, and the compliance of the building regulations and all other formalities, issue an occupation certificate.

78x. Promoter to execute documents.—After the completion or occupation certificate is obtained under section 78w, the promoter shall submit a copy thereof to the Director and thereafter he shall take all necessary steps to complete his title and convey the exclusive ownership of the apartment or plot containing such particulars as may be prescribed and the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such apartment or plot to the person in whose favour he has executed an agreement of sale of that apartment or plot, and execute a conveyance deed of apartment or plot containing such particulars as may be prescribed and all other relevant documents therefor in accordance with such agreement, within three months from the date of giving possession of the apartment or plot and also deliver all documents of title relating to the property which may be in his possession or power and the promoter shall not reserve any right in the property except to the extent of apartments or plots which he is taking up in his own name and apartments or plots which are meant for sale but are still unsold.

78y. Enforcement of registration of conveyance.—(1) If the promoter without sufficient cause fails to execute the conveyance deed of apartment or plot and other relevant documents within three months in terms of the provisions of section 78x, the person in possession of the apartment or plot in pursuance of the agreement of sale may make an application, in writing, in the prescribed form to the Director for a certificate to be produced before the concerned registering officer for enforcing the registration of the transfer and on receipt of such application and after making such enquiry as may be necessary and satisfying itself that occupation or completion certificate has been obtained from the authority required to do so under any law and the person in possession has done what he was required to do under the agreement of sale, the Director shall issue a certificate to the registering officer that it is a fit case for enforcing registration of the conveyance deed and direct the person who has taken the apartment or plot to present the conveyance deed of apartment or plot though not executed by the promoter for unilateral execution of registration.

(2) After the conveyance deed of apartment or plot alongwith the certificate issued by the Director under sub-section (1) is presented for registration, the registering officer shall cause a summons to be issued to the promoter and if the promoter fails to appear in compliance with the summons so issued, the execution of the instrument shall be deemed to be admitted by him and the registering officer shall proceed to register the instrument and if the promoter appears but denies execution of the conveyance deed, the registering officer, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, if satisfied that the promoter has failed to execute the conveyance deed without sufficient cause, shall proceed to register the same.

(3) If the promoter fails to execute a written agreement of sale as required under section 78q, or fails to execute the conveyance deed of apartments or plots and other relevant documents as specified in sub-section (1), within three months, the Director may, either on a complaint or suo moto, impose for each plot or apartment for which there is a default, a penalty upto a maximum of five percent of the price of the plot or the apartment or fifty thousand rupees, whichever is greater, and further minimum penalty of five hundred rupees for each day for which the default continues for each plot or apartment, and such penalty may be recovered against the bank draft deposited under sub-section (3) of section 78p :

Provided that the penalty if not received fully against the bank draft, the balance shall be recoverable as arrear of land revenue.

(4) The penalty imposed under sub-section (3) shall be in addition to any action taken under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, (2 of 1899) or the Registration Act, 1908(16 of 1908) and if a penalty is imposed under the provisions of any of these Acts, the promoter shall not be liable to penalty for the same offence under this Act or under any other law governing the apartment ownership.

78z. Promoter's responsibility for essential services.—(1) No promoter and no person who is responsible for the management and maintenance of a building or apartments, shall without just and sufficient cause, either by himself or through any person, cut off, withhold, curtail or reduce, any essential supply or service enjoyed in respect of such apartment or plot by the person who has taken or agreed to take an apartment or plot or by any person in occupation thereof through or under him.

(2) If there is a contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), the person who has taken or agreed to take the apartment or plot or the occupier thereof may make an application to the Director for a direction to restore such supply or service.

(3) If the Director on enquiry finds that the person referred to in sub-section (2) has been in enjoyment of the essential supply or service and that it was cut off or withheld or curtailed or reduced without just and sufficient cause, the Director shall make an order directing the restoration of such supply or service before a date to be specified in the order.

(4) If the supply or service is not restored before the date specified under sub-section (3), the promoter or the person responsible for the management and maintenance of the building or apartment or plot shall be liable, upon a further direction by the Director to that effect, to a penalty which may extend to one thousand rupees for each day during which the default continues thereafter.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the Director shall have jurisdiction to decide any application made under sub-section (2) and no other court shall have jurisdiction to entertain such application and no appeal shall lie from any order made on such application.

(6) Any promoter or person responsible for the management and maintenance of building or apartment or plot, who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine, which may extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both.

(7) The offence under sub-section (6) shall be cognizable, and shall not be triable by any court inferior to that of Judicial Magistrate of the First Class.

Explanation-I.—In this section, “essential supply or service” includes the supply of water, electricity, lights in passages and on staircase, and lifts and conservancy or sanitary service.

Explanation-II.—For the purposes of this section withholding any essential supply or service shall include acts or omissions attributable to the promoter or the person responsible for the management and maintenance of the building or apartment, on account of which the essential supply of service is cut off by the local authority or any other authority.

78za. Regulation of property.—(1) A promoter who enters into a transaction for the transfer relating to a property shall,—

- (a) make full and true disclosure of the nature of his title to the property indicating clearly that his title to property has been duly certified by an Assistant Collector First Grade or Second Grade, as the case may be, after he has examined transactions concerning it in the previous ten years;
- (b) make full and true disclosure of all encumbrances on such property, including any right, title, interest or claim of any party in or over such property;
- (c) in case the property is land held on lease, produce consent from the lessee for the transaction;
- (d) in case the property is land, subject to the provisions of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976; (33 of 1976) produce clearance from the competent authority under that Act;
- (e) make full and true disclosure of any reservations, in the development plan framed under any law for the time being in force or restrictions on the use to which the property may be put and any liability to carry out any development works;
- (f) specify, in writing, the date by which possession of the property is to be handed over;
- (g) make full and true disclosure of all charges, including ground rent, if any, municipal or other local taxes, revenue assessment, interest on any mortgage or other encumbrance, development charges or charges for maintenance and upkeep of roads, drainage, sewerage, water supply, electricity, lay out and constructed by the Government or any local authority.

(2) No person shall issue a prospectus or advertisement offering for sale any property, unless the prospectus or advertisement indicates the place and time the documents and certificates relating to the matters specified in sub-section (1) are available for inspection.

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of section 78o shall apply mutatis mutandis for mis-statements in the prospectus or advertisement issued under sub-section (2) of this section.

(4) The provisions of sections 78r, 78x and 78y shall apply mutatis-mutandis to a transaction of property made under this section.

78 zb. General liabilities of allottee.— (1) Every allottee who has executed an agreement of sale to take an apartment or a plot under section 78q or any property under section 78za shall pay at the proper time and place, the price, the proportionate share of the municipal taxes, water and electricity charges, ground rent, if any, and other charges in accordance with the agreement of sale.

(2) Any person who has executed an agreement of sale of an apartment or plot or other property and who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with or contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to one percent of the price of the apartment or plot or property, as the case may be, or one thousand rupees, whichever is higher.

78zc. Restriction on structures in a colony.—Every person, erecting or re-erecting any structure in a colony in respect whereof a licence has been obtained under sub-section (3) of section 78p, shall comply with such conditions regarding use of land, layout plan, zoning regulations, site coverage, height of building, set back lines, structural and sanitary requirements, architectural control, design of buildings and material to be used in erection thereof as may be prescribed.

78zd. Constitution of Development Fund.—(1) Every promoter to whom a licence has been granted under section 78p to develop a colony shall deposit service charges at the rate of two hundred rupees per square metre with an increase of 10% after a block of five years, of the plotted area proposed to be developed by him as residential, commercial or industrial (excluding the area used by the public for general purposes) into a colony in two equal installments, the first installment shall be deposited within sixty days from the date of grant of licence and the second installment shall be deposited within six months from the date of grant of licence and the promoter shall in turn be entitled to pass on the service charges so paid by him to the allottees.

(2) The amount of service charges levied under sub-section (1) if not paid within the stipulated period, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue or the Director may cancel his licence after giving him an opportunity of being heard.

(3) The amount of service charges deposited by the promoter under sub-section (1) or recovered under sub-section (2) shall constitute a fund to be called “the Development Fund” (hereinafter referred to as the “Fund”) and shall vest in such authority as the State Government may notify in this behalf and shall be administered by that authority.

(4) The Fund shall be utilized by the authority notified under sub-section (3) for the benefit of the allottees, for development of the colonies, to promote research and development in town and country and urban affairs and for such other similar purposes as may be prescribed.

(5) The State Government shall publish annually in the Official Gazette the report of the activities financed from the Fund and the statement of accounts.”.

15. Amendment of section 87.—In section 87 of the principal Act, in sub-section (2), for existing clause (xxiii), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

- “(xxiii) the form of application for registration of promoters and estate agents and the fee for such application, form for maintenance of registers and the form of registration certificate under sub-section (2) of section 78a;
- (xxiv) the qualifications for a promoter and for an estate agent and the amount and manner of security to be furnished under section 78b;
- (xxv) the fee for renewal of registration under section 78c;
- (xxvi) the form and manner of maintaining accounts, registers and records by a promoter or estate agent under sub-section (1) and maintenance of register by the Director under sub-section (2) of section 78h;
- (xxvii) the manner in which the accounts shall be audited and certified by a Chartered Accountant under section 78i;

- (xxviii) the periodical returns which a promoter or estate agent has to submit to the Director under section 78j;
- (xxix) the particulars in respect of the design and the materials to be used in the construction of the building and the other information and documents to be disclosed, the manner in which disclosure is to be made and the documents of which true copies shall be given by the promoter under clauses (f), (m) and (n) of sub-section(2) of section 78n;
- (xxx) the other matters to be disclosed in an advertisement or prospectus under sub-section (2) of section 78o;
- (xxxii) the form of application, the information to be attached with the application and the fee to be paid for the grant of permission under sub-section (1), the authority to be prescribed for giving opinion to the Director under sub-section (2), the form of licence to be issued and the agreement to be entered into under sub-section(3), the fee to be paid for renewal of licence under sub-section (4), the manner of earmarking developed land, residential apartments or plots for weaker sections of society and the terms and conditions subject to which the reservation is to be made under sub-section (8) and service charges to be paid under sub-section (10) of section 78p;
- (xxxiii) the form for the agreement of sale and the particulars and conditions to be contained in and the documents or copies thereof to be attached to such agreement under sub-section (1) of section 78q;
- (xxxiv) the particulars to be included in respect of conveyance deed of apartment under section 78x;
- (xxxv) the form of application under sub-section (1) of section 78y;
- (xxxvi) the conditions to be prescribed under section 78y;
- (xxxvii) the purposes to be prescribed under sub-section (4) of section 78zc;
- (xxxviii) any other matter for which Building Regulations or Bye-Laws may be made including the matters relating to the development control and natural hazard prone area; and
- (xxxviii) any other matter for which rules may be made.”.

16. Amendment of section 90.—In the principal Act, existing section 90 shall be numbered as sub-section (1) and thereafter the following sub-sections shall be inserted, namely :—

“(2) The Himachal Pradesh Apartment and Property Regulation Act, 2005 (Act No. 21 of 2005) is hereby repealed.

(3) The repeal of the Act under sub-section(2) shall not affect—

- (i) any right, privilege, delegation or liability required or incurred under the Act so repealed under sub-section(2);
- (ii) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the Act so repealed under sub-section(2);

- (iii) any investigation, legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced or any such penalty, forfeiture and punishment may be imposed as if the aforesaid Act had not been repealed.

(4) Notwithstanding such repeal anything done or any action taken under the Act so repealed under sub-section(2) including any notification, order, notice issued, application made, or permission granted, which is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act as if this Act was in force at the time such thing was done or action was taken and shall continue to be in force, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act.”
