THE CIVIL COURTS ACT, 1977 (1920 A. D.)Act No. XLVI of 1977.

[Sanctioned by His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur per Chief Minister's endorsement No. 8372, dated 11th September, 1920 read with State Council Resolution No. 1, dated 8th April, 1925. (Notification No. 14-L/81) and published in Government Gazette dated 16th Chet, 1977].

1. Short title, extent and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Jammu and Kashmir State Civil Courts Act, 1977.

(2) It extends to the whole of Jammu and Kashmir State. It shall come into force on the 1st day of Baisakh, 1978.

2. Definitions.—In this Act, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—

(i) "small cause" means a suit of the nature cognizable by a Court of small causes under the Small Cause Courts Act ;

(ii) "value" used with reference to a suit means the amount or value of the subject matter of the suit.

3. The High Court.—There shall continue to be a High Court for the Jammu and Kashmir State.

4. Civil appellate jurisdiction.—The High Court shall be deemed for the purposes of all enactments for the time being in force to be the highest Civil Court of appeal or revision. [* * *]

5. Rules for work in High Court.—The High Court shall make rules for the transaction of the work of the High Court.

6. Ministerial officers.—(1) The High Court shall have a Registrar and shall have the power to appoint such ministerial officers as may be necessary for the administration of justice by the Court and for the exercise and performance of the powers and duties conferred and imposed on it by this Act.

(2) The Registrar and the ministerial officers appointed under this section shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties of non-judicial or quasi-judicial nature as the High Court may direct.

1. Words "subject to the control of, and the judicial power exercised by His Highness the Maharaja Sahib Bahadur" deleted by Notification No. 3-L/85 published in the Government Gazette dated 8th Bhadon, 1985.

(3) Any ministerial officer may be suspended or dismissed from his office by order of the High court.

7. Superintendence and control of subordinate Courts.—(1) The general superintendence and control over all other Civil Courts shall be vested in, and all such Courts shall be subordinate to, the High Court.

(2) The High Court shall from time to time visit and inspect the proceedings of the Courts subordinate to the High Court and shall give such directions in matters not provided for by law as may be necessary to secure the due administration of justice.

8. Power to make rules.—(1) The High Court may make rules consistent with this Act and any other enactments for the time being in force—

(a) providing for the translation of any papers filed in the High Court and copying and printing any such papers or translations, and requiring from the persons at whose instance or on whose behalf they are filed payment of the expenses thereby incurred ;

(b) declaring what persons shall be permitted to practise as petition-writers in the Courts of the State, regulating the conduct of business by persons so practising, and determining the authority by which breaches of rules under this clause shall be tried ;

(c) determining in what cases legal practitioners shall be permitted to address the Court in English ;

(d) prescribing forms for seals to be used by those Courts ;

(e) regulating the procedure in cases where any person is entitled to inspect a record of any such Court or obtain a copy of the same, and prescribing the fees payable by such persons, for searches, inspections and copies ;

(f) conferring and imposing on the ministerial officers of the subordinate Courts such powers and duties of a non-judicial or quasi-judicial nature as it thinks fit, and regulating the mode in which powers and duties so conferred and imposed shall be exercised and performed ;

(g) prescribing forms for such books, entries, statistics and accounts as it thinks necessary to be kept, made or compiled in those Courts or submitted to any authority ;

(h) providing for the inspection of those Courts and the supervision of the working thereof ;

(i) regulating the exercise of the control vested in the High Court by section 35(4) of this Act ; and

(j) regulating all such matters as it may think fit, with a view to promoting the efficiency of the judicial and ministerial officers of those Courts, and maintaining proper discipline among these officers.

(2) Whoever breaks any rule made under clause (b) shall be punished with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

9. Registers, books, accounts and statements to be kept and furnished by High Court.—(1) The High Court shall keep such registers, books and accounts as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of the Court.

(2) The High Court shall comply with such requisitions as may be made by ¹[the Government] for certified copies of, or extracts from records of the Court and the Courts subordinate thereto.

10. Procedure of High Court in exercise of Civil jurisdiction.—(1) The High Court, when sitting as a Court of Civil Judicature, shall take evidence and record judgements and orders in such manner as it, by rule, directs, and may frame forms for any proceeding in the Courts in the exercise of its civil jurisdiction.

²(2) Repealed.

11. Extraordinary original jurisdiction of High Court.—The High Court has and shall have power to remove and to try and determine as a Court of extraordinary original jurisdiction any suit being or falling within the jurisdiction of any Court subject to its superintendence when the High Court shall think proper to do so, either on the agreement of the parties to that effect or for purposes of justice.

12. Probate jurisdiction of High Court.—The High Court shall have such power and authority in relation to the granting of probates of last wills and testaments and letters of administration of the goods, chattles, credits and all other effects whatsoever of persons dying intestate whether within or without the State as are or may be conferred on it by any law for the time being in force.

13. Classes of Courts.—Besides the High Court, the Courts of Small Causes established under the Small Cause Court Act, and the Courts established under any other enactment for the time being in force, there shall be the following classes of Civil Courts, namely :—

- (1) the Court of the District Judge, also called the District Court

 2. Section 34 substituted by Act XIII of 1989 S. 2.

(3) An appeal from the order of the District Judge on the appeal from the order of the Subordinate Judge or the Munsiff under sub-section (1) shall lie to the High Court if a further appeal from the order of the District Judge is allowed by the law for the time being in force.

35. Power to transfer to Subordinate Judges appeals from Munsiff.—(1) A District Judge may transfer any appeals pending before him from the decrees or orders of Munsiffs to any Subordinate Judge under his administrative control competent to dispose of them.

(2) The District Judge may withdraw any appeal so transferred and either hear and dispose of it himself or transfer it to a Court under his administrative control competent to dispose of it.

(3) Appeals transferred under this section shall be disposed of subject to the rules applicable to like appeals when disposed of by the District Judge.

(4) The powers conferred by this section shall be exercised subject to such general or special orders as may from time to time be issued in this behalf by the High Court.

¹[35-A. Except as otherwise provided by this Act any powers that may be conferred by the High Court on any person under this Act may be conferred on any such person either by name or by virtue of office.]

36. Continuance of powers of officers.—Whenever any person holding an office in the service of the State who, has been invested with any powers under this Act throughout any local area is transferred or posted at any subsequent time to an equal or higher office of the same nature within a like local area, he shall, unless ²[the High Court] otherwise directs or has otherwise directed, exercise the same powers in the local area to which he is so transferred or posted.

37. Vacations.—(1) Subject to such orders as may be made by ³[the Government] the days declared in the Jammu and Kashmir Government Gazette by ³[the Government] as public holidays shall be observed as close holidays in Civil Courts.

1. Section 35-A inserted by Notification 3-L/85 published in Government Gazette dated 8th Bhadon, 1985.
 2. Substituted for "His Highness" by Notification 3-L/85 published in Government Gazette dated 8th Bhadon, 1985.
 3. Substituted by Act X of 1996 for "His Highness".

(2) A Judicial act done by a Civil Court on a day specified as close holiday shall not be invalid by reason only of its having been done on that day.

38. Transfer of proceedings.—Subject to the provisions of any enactment for the time being in force, the High Court may of its own motion, or on the application of party, withdraw any proceeding which is pending in any Court subordinate to it, and for the withdrawal of which provision is not made in sections 24 and 141 of the Code of Civil Procedure, and may either itself dispose of the proceeding or transfer it for disposal to any other subordinate Court.

39. Continuance of proceedings on termination of jurisdiction of a Court.—(1) Where any Civil Court has from any cause ceased to have jurisdiction with respect to any case, any proceeding in relation to that case which, if that Court had not ceased to have jurisdiction, might have been had therein may be had in the Court to which the business of former Court has been transferred.

(2) Nothing in this section applies to cases for which provision is made in paragraph 17 of the second Schedule or section 37 of the Code of Civil Procedure or in any other enactment for the time being in force.

40. Bar against trial of certain suits and appeals.—(1) The presiding officer of a Civil Court shall not try any suit or other proceeding to which he is a party or in which he is personally interested.

(2) The presiding officer of an Appellate Civil Court under this Act shall not try an appeal against a decree or order passed by himself in another capacity.

(3) When any such suit, proceeding or appeal as is referred to in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) comes before any such officer, the officer shall forthwith transmit the record of the case to the Court to which he is immediately subordinate, with a report of the circumstances attending the reference.

(4) The superior Court shall thereupon dispose of the case under section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

41. Subordinate Court defined.—For the purposes of the last foregoing section the presiding officer of a Court subject to the administrative control of the District Judge shall be deemed to be immediately subordinate to the Court of the District Judge, and for the purposes of the Code of Civil Procedure, the Court of such an officer shall be deemed to be of a grade inferior to that of the Court of the District Judge.

42. Saving.—All powers conferred, local limits of jurisdiction of Courts defined and all places fixed for holding of Courts before this Act comes into Force shall be deemed to have been conferred, determined and fixed under his Act.

In every enactment for the time being in force and in every appointment, order, rule, bye-law, notification, form and document all references to the High Court or the Judge of the High Court shall be constructed when necessary and with such grammatical variations as may be required as having been made to the High Court Judicature, Jammu and Kashmir State, or a Judge thereof, as the case may be, except when the contrary intention appears from the subject, or context.
