CHAPTER II

Maintenance of Parents and Senior Citizens

4. Maintenance of Parents and Senior Citizens. —(1) A senior citizen including parent who is unable to maintain himself from his own earning or property owned by him, shall be entitled to make an application under section 5 in case of—

- (a) parent or grand-parent, against one or more of his children not being a minor ;
- (b) a childless senior citizen, against such of his relative referred to in clause (i) of section 2.

(2) The obligation of the children or relative, as the case may be, to maintain a senior citizen extends to the needs of such citizen so that senior citizen may lead a normal life.

(3) The obligation of the children to maintain his or her parent extends to the needs of such parent either father or mother or both, as the case may be, so that such parent may lead a normal life.

(4) Any person being a relative of a senior citizen and having sufficient means shall maintain such senior citizen provided he is in possession of the property of such senior citizen or he would inherit the property of such senior citizen :

Provided that where more than one relatives are entitled to inherit the property of a senior citizen, the maintenance shall be payable by such relative in the proportion in which they are in possession of, or would inherit, his property.

5. Application for maintenance. —(1) An application for maintenance under section 4, may be made—

- (a) by a senior citizen or a parent, as the case may be ; or
- (b) if he is incapable, by any other person or organisation authorised by him in this behalf ; or
- (c) the Tribunal may take cognizance suo moto.

Explanation:—For the purposes of this section “organisation” means any voluntary association registered under the Societies Registration Act, Samvat 1998, or any other law for the time being in force in the State.

(2) The Tribunal may, during the pendency of the proceeding regarding monthly allowance for the maintenance under this section, order such children or relative to make a monthly allowance for the interim maintenance of such senior citizen or parent and to pay the same to such senior citizen or parent as the Tribunal may, from time to time, direct.

(3) On receipt of an application for maintenance under sub-section (1), after giving notice of the application to the children or relative and after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard, hold an inquiry for determining the amount of maintenance.

(4) An application filed under sub-section (2) for the monthly allowance for the maintenance and expenses for proceeding shall be disposed of within ninety days from the date of the service of notice of the application to such person :

Provided that the Tribunal may extend the said period by a maximum of thirty days in exceptional circumstances for reasons to be recorded in writing.

(5) An application for maintenance under sub-section (1) may be filed against one or more persons :

Provided that such children or relative may implead the other person liable to maintain parent or the senior citizen in the application for maintenance.

(6) Where a maintenance order was made against more than one person, the death of one of them does not affect the liability of others to continue paying maintenance.

(7) Any such allowance for the maintenance and expenses for proceeding shall be payable from the date of the order, or, if so ordered, from the date of the application for maintenance or expenses of proceeding, as the case may be.

(8) If, children or relative so ordered fail, without sufficient cause to comply with the order, Tribunal may, for every breach of the order, issue a warrant for levying the amount due in the manner provided for levying fines, and may sentence such person for the whole, or any part of each month's allowance for the maintenance and expenses of proceeding, as the case may be, remaining unpaid after the execution of the warrant, to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or until payment if sooner made, whichever is earlier :

Provided that no warrant shall be issued for the recovery of any amount due under this section unless application be made to the Tribunal to levy such amount within a period of three months from the date on which it became due.

6. Jurisdiction and Procedure. —(1) The proceedings under section 5 may be taken against any children or relative in any district—

(a) where he resides or last resided, or

(b) where children or relative resides.

(2) On receipt of the application under section 5, the Tribunal shall issue a process for procuring the presence of children or relative against whom the application is filed.

(3) For securing the attendance of children or relative, the Tribunal shall have the power of a Judicial Magistrate of first class as provided under the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989.

(4) All evidence to such proceedings shall be taken in the presence of the children or relative against whom an order for payment of maintenance is proposed to be made, and shall be recorded in the manner prescribed for summons cases :

Provided that if the Tribunal is satisfied that the children or relative against whom an order for payment of maintenance is proposed to be made is wilfully avoiding service, or wilfully neglecting to attend the Tribunal, the Tribunal may proceed to hear and determine the case ex-parte.

(5) Where the children or relative is residing out of State, the summons shall be served by the Tribunal through such authority, as the Government may by notification in the Government Gazette, specify in this behalf.

(6) The Tribunal before hearing an application under section 5 may, refer the same to a Conciliation Officer and such Conciliation Officer shall submit his findings within one month and if amicable settlement is arrived at within the said period, the Tribunal shall pass an order to that effect.

*Explanation:—*For the purposes of this sub-section “Conciliation Officer” means any person or representative of an organisation referred to in Explanation to sub-section (1) of section 5 or the Maintenance Officers designated by the Government under subsection (1) of section 18 or any other person nominated by the Tribunal for this purpose.

7. Constitution of Maintenance Tribunal. —(1)The Government shall within a period of six months from the date of the commencement of this Act, by notification in the Government Gazette, constitute for each district a Tribunal for the purpose of adjudicating and deciding upon the order for maintenance under section 5.

(2) The Tribunal shall be presided over by the Assistant Commissioner Revenue or Sub-Divisional Magistrate of the concerned area.

8. Summary procedure in case of inquiry. —(1) In holding any inquiry under section 5, the Tribunal may, subject to any rules that may be prescribed by the Government in this behalf, follow such summary procedure as it deems fit.

(2) The Tribunal shall have all the powers of a Civil Court for the purpose of taking evidence on oath and of enforcing the attendance of witnesses and of compelling the discovery and production of documents and material objects and for such other purposes as may be prescribed; and the Tribunal shall be deemed to be a Civil Court for all the purposes of section 195 and Chapter XXVI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989.

(3) Subject to any rule that may be made in this behalf, the Tribunal may, for the purpose of adjudicating and deciding upon any claim for maintenance, choose one or more persons possessing special knowledge of any matter relevant to the inquiry to assist it in holding the inquiry.

9. Order for maintenance. —(1) If children or relative, as the case may be, neglect or refuse to maintain the parent or a senior citizen being unable to maintain himself, the Tribunal may, on being satisfied of such neglect or refusal, order such children or relative to make a monthly allowance for the maintenance of such parent or senior citizen, as the Tribunal may deem fit and to pay the same to such parent or senior citizen as the Tribunal may, from time to time, direct.

(2) The maintenance allowance which may be ordered by such Tribunal shall not exceed ten thousand rupees per month or such amount as may be notified by the Government from time to time.

10. Alteration in allowance. —(1) On proof of misrepresentation or mistake of fact or a change in the circumstances of any person receiving a monthly allowance under section 9, for the maintenance ordered under that section to pay a monthly allowance for the maintenance, the Tribunal may make such alteration, as it thinks fit, in the allowance for the maintenance.

(2) Where it appears to the Tribunal that, in consequence of any decision of a competent Civil Court, any order made under section 9 should be cancelled or varied, it shall cancel the order or, as the case may be, vary the same accordingly.

11. Enforcement of order of maintenance. —(1) A copy of the order of maintenance and including the order regarding expenses of proceedings, as the case may be, shall be given without payment of any fee to the senior citizen or to parent, as the case may be, in whose favour it is made and such order may be enforced by any Tribunal in any place where the person against whom it is made, such Tribunal on being satisfied as to the identity of the parties and the non-payment of the allowance, or as the case may be, expenses, due.

(2) A maintenance order made under the Act shall have the same force and effect as an order passed under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989 and shall be executed in the manner prescribed for the execution of such order by that Code.

12. Option regarding maintenance in certain cases.—Notwithstanding anything contained in Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989, where a senior citizen or a parent is entitled for maintenance under the said Chapter and also entitled for maintenance under this Act may, without prejudice to the provisions of Chapter IX of the said Code, claim such maintenance under either of those Acts but not under both.

13. Deposit of maintenance amount.—When an order is made under this Chapter, the children or relative(s) who is/are required to pay any amount in terms of such order shall, within thirty days of the date of announcing the order by the Tribunal, deposit the entire amount ordered in such manner as the Tribunal may direct.

14. Award of interest where any claim is allowed.—Where any Tribunal makes an order for maintenance made under the Act, such Tribunal may direct that in addition to the amount of maintenance, simple interest shall also be paid at such rate and from such date, not earlier than the date of making the application, as may be determined by the Tribunal which shall not be less than five per cent, and not more than eighteen per cent :

Provided that where any application for maintenance under Chapter IX of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Samvat 1989 is pending before a Court at the commencement of this Act, then the Court shall allow the withdrawal of such application on the request of the parent or the senior citizen and such parent or the senior citizen shall be entitled to file an application for maintenance before the Tribunal.

15. Constitution of Appellate Tribunal. —(1) The Government may, by notification in the Government Gazette, constitute one Appellate Tribunal for each district to hear the appeal against the order of the Tribunal.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal shall be presided over by the Deputy Commissioner of the district concerned.

16. Appeals. —(1) Any senior citizen or a parent, as the case may be, aggrieved by an order of a Tribunal may, within sixty days from the date of the order, prefer an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal :

Provided that on appeal, the children or relative who is required to pay any amount in terms of such maintenance order shall continue to pay to such parent the amount so ordered, in the manner directed by the Appellate Tribunal :

Provided further that the Appellate Tribunal may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of sixty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal in time.

(2) On receipt of an appeal, the Appellate Tribunal shall cause a notice to be served upon the respondent.

(3) The Appellate Tribunal may call for the record of proceedings from the Tribunal against whose order the appeal is preferred.

(4) The Appellate Tribunal may, after examining the appeal and the records called for, either allow or reject the appeal.

(5) The Appellate Tribunal shall adjudicate and decide upon the appeal filed against the order of the Tribunal and the order of the Appellate Tribunal shall be final :

Provided that no appeal shall be rejected unless an opportunity has been given to both the parties of being heard in person or through a duly authorised representative.

(6) The Appellate Tribunal shall make an endeavour to pronounce its order in writing within one month of the receipt of an appeal.

(7) A copy of order made under sub-section (5) shall be sent to both the parties free of cost.

17. Right to legal representation.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, no party to a proceeding before a Tribunal or Appellate Tribunal shall be represented by a legal practitioner.
