Registration of establishments.

6. (1) Every establishment to which this Act applies shall be registered in accordance with the provision of this section.

(2) Within thirty days from the date on which this Act applies to an establishment, its employer shall send to the Inspector of the area concerned a statement, in the prescribed form, together with such fees, as may be prescribed containing—

1. Omitted by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 3. (ii).

2. Subs. by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 4.

- [(a) the name of the employer, the manager and the person holding positions of management, if any;]¹
- [(b) the postal address of, and the date of starting the business by, the establishment;]²
- (c) the name, if any, of the establishment;
- (d) the category of the establishment, i.e. whether it is a shop, commercial establishment, residential hotel, restaurant, eating-house, theatre or other place of public amusement or entertainment; and
- (e) such other particulars, as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of the statement and the fees, the Inspector shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement, register the establishment in the register of establishments in such manner as may be prescribed and shall issue, in the prescribed form, a registration certificate to the employer. The registration certificate shall be prominently displayed at the establishment.

(4) In the event of any doubt or difference of opinion between an employer and the Inspector as to the category to which an establishment should belong, the Inspector shall refer the matter to the Labour Commissioner who shall, after such inquiry as he thinks proper, decide the category of such establishment and his decision shall be final for the purposes of this Act.

(5) The Government may, by notification, require renewal of registration certificates issued under this section at such intervals not being less than one year, and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

(6) The registration fee and the renewal fee shall not exceed five rupees per establishment.

7. It shall be the duty of an employer to notify to the Inspector, in the prescribed form, any change in respect of any information contained in his statement under section 6 within seven days after the change has taken place. The Inspector shall, on receiving such notice and on being satisfied about its correctness, make the change in the register of the establishments in accordance with such notice and shall amend the registration certificate or issue a fresh registration certificate if necessary.

Change to be communicated to Inspector.

8. The employer shall, within ten days of his closing the establishment, notify to the Inspector in writing accordingly. The Inspector shall, on receiving the information and being satisfied about its correctness, remove such establishment from the register of establishment and cancel the registration certificate.

CHAPTER—III

- (a) be opened earlier than such hour as may be fixed by the Government by a general or special order in this behalf;
- (b) be kept open later than such hour as may be fixed by the Government by general or special order in this behalf:

Provided that any customer who was being served or was waiting to be served at the closing hour so fixed in any shop may be served in such shop during half hour immediately following such hour.

1. Subs. by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 5.

2. Subs. by M. P. Act 10 of 1982, S. 4.

Hawking prohibited before opening and after closing hours of shops.

(2) The Government may fix different opening or closing hours for different classes of shops and commercial establishments or for different area or for different periods of the year.

10. (1) No person shall carry on in or adjacent to a street or a public place the sale of any goods before the opening and after the closing hours fixed under section 9 for the shops dealing in the same class of goods in the locality in which such street or public place is situate:

(3) The goods seized under sub-section (2) shall be returned to the person from whom they were seized on his depositing rupees [fifty]² as security for his appearance in the Court.

(4) If the person fails to make the deposit, the goods seized shall be produced without delay before a Court, who may give such directions as to their temporary custody, as it thinks fit.

(5) Where no prosecution is instituted for contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) within such period as the Court may fix in this behalf the Court shall direct their return to the person from whom they were seized.

(6) Subject to the provisions of the preceding sub-section, the provisions of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (No V of 1898)³, shall so far as they may be applicable, apply to the disposal of the goods seized under this section.]

Hours of work in shops and commercial establishments.

11. [(1) (a) No employee in any shop or commercial establishment shall be required or allowed to work for more than 48 hours in a week.

(b) Subject to clause (a) no employee shall be required to work—

(i) in any shop, for more than nine hours on any day;

(ii) in any commercial establishment, for more than ten hours on any day.]⁴

(2) Any employee may be required or allowed to work in a shop or commercial establishment for any period in excess of the limit fixed under sub-section (1) if such period does not exceed [six]⁵ hours in any week.

(3) On not more than six days in a year, which the Government may fix by rules made in this behalf, for purposes of making of accounts, stock-taking, settlements or other prescribed occasions, any employee may be required or allowed to work in a shop or commercial establishment in excess of the period fixed under sub-section (1), if such excess period does not exceed twenty-four hours.

Spread-over in shops and commercial establishments.

12. The spread—over of an employee in a shop or commercial establishment shall not exceed twelve hours on a day:

Provided that in cases where any shop or commercial establishment is on any day entirely closed for a continuous period of not less than three hours, the spread-over shall not exceed thirteen hours on that day:

1. Subs. by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 6.

2. Subs. by M. P. Act 10 of 1982, S. 5, for "fifteen".

3. See now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).

4. Subs. by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 7.

5. Subs. by M. P. Act 10 of 1982, S. 6, for "three".

Provided also that where an employee works on any day in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 11, the spread-over shall not exceed fourteen hours on any such day and where he works on any day in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of the said section, the spread-over shall not exceed sixteen hours, on any such day:

Provided further that the Government may increase the spread—over period subject to such conditions as it may think fit either generally in the case of commercial establishments or in the case of a class of commercial establishments.

13. (1) Every shop and commercial establishment, shall remain closed on one day of the week. The employer shall fix such day at the beginning of the year, notify it to the Inspector and specify it in a notice prominently displayed in a conspicuous place in the shop or commercial establishment. The employer shall not alter such day more often than once in three months, shall notify the alternation to the Inspector and make the necessary change in the notice in the shop or commercial establishment:

Holidays in a week in shops and commercial establishments.

[Provided that where any shop or commercial establishment comes after the beginning of any year within the purview of this Act, for the first time, the employer shall also fix such day of the week on which the shop or commercial establishment shall remain closed and notify it to the Inspector within one month of the date on which the shop or establishment so comes within the purview of this Act]¹

(2) If any day notified as holiday under sub-section (1) happens to be a day of public festival, the employer may keep the shop or commercial establishment open on such day but in that event he shall keep the shop or commercial establishment closed on some other day within three days before or after the date of such public festival and give notice of the change to the Inspector at least seven clear days before the day of such public festival.

(3) It shall not be lawful for an employer to call an employee at, or for any employee to go to, his shop or commercial establishment or any other place for any work in connection with the business of his shop or commercial establishment on a day on which such shop or commercial establishment remain closed.

[(3-A) Notwithstanding any thing contained in sub-section (1), the State Government or any officer authorised by it in this behalf may, if it or he thinks fit so to do in public interest, by notification, fix any day of the week to be the closed day in respect of all or any class of shops or commercial establishments in any or all the local area or part thereof, and the closed day so fixed shall be deemed to have been fixed under sub-section (1):

Provided that the employer shall have no right to alter the closed day so fixed.]²

[(4) No deduction shall be made from the wages of any employee in a shop or commercial establishment on account of any day on which it has remained closed under this section. If any employee is employed on daily wages he shall nonetheless be paid wages for the weekly holiday equal to the average of daily wages earned by him during the preceding six working days. If any employee is paid a piece rate wage, he shall nonetheless be paid his wage for the day on which the shop or commercial establishment remain closed at a rate equivalent to the daily average of his wages for the days on which he has actually worked during the six days preceding such closed day, exclusive of any earning in respect of overtime :

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to any person whose total period of continuous employment is less than six days.]³

1. Added by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 8 (i).

2. Ins. by M. P. Act 10 of 1982, S. 7.

3. Added by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 8 (ii).

CHAPTER—IV

CHAPTER—VII

Leave with Pay and Payment of Wages

Employee's right for casual and privilege leave.

26. (1) A person employed in an establishment to which this Act applies shall be entitled—

- (a) after every 12 months' continuous employment, to privilege leave for a total period of one month; and
- (b) in every year to casual leave for a total period not exceeding 14 days;

1. Ins. by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 10.

2. Ins. by S. 11, ibid.

Provided that the leave under sub-clause (a) shall not at any time accumulate for a total period exceeding ~~6~~ months :

Provided further that holidays under section 13, 18 or 23 falling during the period of such leave shall be included in the leave so granted :

Provided further that casual leave shall not be combined with privilege leave.

(2) If an employee entitled to leave under sub-section (1) is discharged by his employer before he has been allowed leave, or if, having applied for and been refused the leave, he quits his employment before he has been allowed the leave, the employer shall pay him the amount payable under section 27 in respect of the leave.

(3) If an employee entitled to leave under sub-section (1) is refused the leave, he may give intimation to the Inspector or any other officer authorised in this behalf by the Government regarding such refusal. The Inspector shall enter such information in a register kept in such form as may be prescribed.

Explanation.—An employee shall be deemed to have completed a period of twelve months' continuous service in an establishment notwithstanding any interruption in the service during those twelve months brought about by sickness, accident or authorised leave not exceeding ninety days in the aggregate for all three, or by a lockout or by a strike which is not an illegal strike, or by intermittent periods of involuntary unemployment not exceeding thirty days in the aggregate and authorised leave shall be deemed not to include any weekly holiday allowed under this Act which occurs at the beginning or end of an interruption brought about by the leave.

27. Every employee shall be paid for the period of his leave at a rate equivalent to the daily average of his wages for the days on which he actually worked during the preceding three months, exclusive of any earning in respect of overtime.

Pay during leave.

28. An employee who had been allowed leave under section 26 shall, before his leave begins, be paid half the total amount due to him for the period of such leave.

Payment when to be made.

29. Any Inspector may institute proceedings on behalf of any employee in an establishment to which this Act applies to recover any sum required to be paid under this Chapter by an employer which the employer has not paid.

Power of Inspector to act for workers.

30. [(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (No. IV of 1936), (hereinafter referred to in this section as the said Act), the State Government may, by notification, direct that subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) all or any of the provisions of the said Act shall apply to all or any establishment or to all or any class of employees to which or whom this Act for the time being applied.]¹

Application and amendment of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936.

(2) On the application of the provisions of the said Act to any establishment or to any employee under sub-section (1), the Inspector, appointed under this Act, shall be deemed to be the Inspector for the purposes of the enforcement of the provisions of the said Act within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

CHAPTER—VIII

Health and Safety

31. The premises of every establishment shall be kept clean and free from effluvia arising from any drain or privy or other nuisance and shall be cleaned at such times and by such methods as may be prescribed. These methods may include lime-washing, colour-washing, painting, varnishing, disinfecting and deodorising.

Cleanliness.

1. Subs. by M. P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 12.

Ventilation.

32. The premises of every establishment shall be ventilated in accordance with such standards and by such methods as may be prescribed.

Precautions against fire.

33. In every establishment except such establishment or class of establishment, as may be prescribed, such precautions against fire shall be taken as may be prescribed.

CHAPTER—IXEnforcement and Inspection*Powers and duties of local authorities.

34. (1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, it shall be the duty of every local authority whom the Government may by order empower in this behalf to enforce within the area subject to its jurisdiction, the provisions of this Act, subject to the control of the Government.

(2) The local authority empowered under sub-section (1) may by order delegate any of the powers and functions (other than the powers of making bye-laws under section 35), exercisable or performable by it under this Act to any of its officers.

(3) An order empowering a local authority under sub-section (1) may at any time be cancelled by the Government.

(4) To enable Government to exercise effective control over a local authority in the performance of the duties entrusted to it under this Act, Government may authorise any officer, not below the rank of a Labour Officer, to supervise the enforcement of this Act within the area subject to the jurisdiction of the local authority and for this purpose such officer shall have all the powers of an Inspector under this Chapter.

Power to make bye-laws.

35. A local authority empowered under section 34 to enforce the provisions of this Act may, with the previous sanction of the Government, make bye-laws not inconsistent with the provisions of the Act, or the rules or orders made by the Government thereunder, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Submission of annual report, etc.

36. It shall be the duty of every local authority empowered under section 34 to submit within three months after the close of the year to the Government a report on the working of the Act within the local area under its jurisdiction during such year. It shall submit to the Government from time to time such annual or periodical returns as may be prescribed.

Delegation.

37. (1) The Government may, by order, direct that any power other than the power to make rules under section 59, or any duty which is conferred or imposed on the State Government by this Act, shall in such circumstances and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in that direction be exercised or discharged by any officer or authority subordinate to it.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall derogate from the right of the Government to exercise any or all the functions delegated to any local authority or officer subordinate to it.

Power of Government to provide for performance of duties on default by local authority.

38. (1) If any local authority makes default in the performance of any duty imposed by or under this Act, the Government may appoint some person to perform it and may direct that the expense of performing it with a reasonable remuneration to the person appointed to perform it shall be paid forthwith by the local authority.

(2) If the expense and remuneration are not so paid, the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in any law relating to the municipal fund or local fund or any other law for the time being in force, make an order directing the bank in which any moneys of the local authority are deposited or the person in charge of the local Government Treasury or of any other place of security in which the moneys of the local authority are deposited, to pay such expense and remuneration from such moneys as may be standing to the credit of the local authority in such bank or may be in the hands of such person or as may from time to time be received from or on behalf of the local authority by way of deposit by such bank or person; and such bank or person shall be bound to obey such order. Every payment made pursuant to such order shall be sufficient discharge to such bank or person from all liability to the local authority in respect of any sum or sums so paid by it or him out of the moneys of the local authority so deposited with such bank or person.

39. Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment in regard to any municipal or local fund, all expenses incurred by a municipality or local authority under and for the purposes of this Act, shall be paid out of the municipal or local fund, as the case may be.

Expenses of local authority to be paid out of its fund

40. (1) Every local authority empowered under section 34 shall appoint a sufficient number of persons with the prescribed qualifications as Inspectors for the area subject to its jurisdiction, as it may deem fit, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of Inspectors.

(2) The Government may, by notification, appoint such persons having the prescribed qualifications, as it thinks fit, by name or virtue of office to be Inspector for the purposes of this Act within such local limits and for such classes of establishments, as it may assign to each such person.

41. (1) Subject to any rules made by the Government in this behalf, an Inspector may, within the local limits for which he is appointed—

Powers and duties of Inspectors.

- (a) enter, at all reasonable times and with such assistants, if any, being person in the service of the Government or of any local authority, as he thinks fit, any place which is or which he has reasons to believe is an establishment;
- (b) make such examination of the premises and of any prescribed registers, records and notices, and take on the spot or otherwise evidence of any persons, as he may deem necessary, for carrying out the purposes of this Act; and
- (c) exercise such other powers, as may be prescribed or may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act:

Provided that no one shall be required under this section to answer any question or give any evidence tending to criminate himself.

(2) For the purposes of investigation of offences under this Act, an Inspector shall have the same powers as an Officer-in-charge of a police station has under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898)¹ for investigation of the cognizable offences except that he shall not have the power of arrest.

42. Every Inspector appointed under section 40 shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860(XLV of 1860).

Inspectors to be public servants.

43. Every employer shall on demand produce for inspection of an Inspector all registers, records and notices required to be kept under and for the purposes of this Act.

Employer to produce registers, records etc. for inspection.

[53. (1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the Labour Commissioner or any officer not below the rank of Labour Officer, if so authorised by the Labour Commissioner, by notification, may accept from any person alleged to have committed an offence under section 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 16, 18-A, 21, 23-A, 25-A, 43 or 54 either before or after commencement of any proceedings against such person in respect of such offence, by way of composition for such offence, a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees for each such offence.

(2) On payment in full of such sum as may be determined by the Labour Commissioner or the Officer authorised by the Labour Commissioner under sub-section (1),—

(a) no proceedings shall be commenced against any person as aforesaid; and

(b) if any proceedings have already been commenced against any person as aforesaid, such proceedings shall not be further proceeded with.]²

CHAPTER XIMiscellaneous and Supplementary*Maintenance of registers and records and display of notices.

54. Subject to the general or special orders of the Government an employer shall maintain or cause to be maintained such registers and records and display on the establishment such notice, as may be prescribed. All such registers and records shall be kept on the premises of the establishment to which they relate.

Wages for overtime work.

55. Where an employee in any establishment is required to work in excess of the limit of hours of work, he shall be entitled, in respect of the overtime work, to wages at the rate of twice his ordinary rate of wages.

[Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, “limit of hours of work” shall mean—

(a) in respect of establishment to which sections 11, 16 or 21 apply, the limits prescribed in the respective sections; and

(b) in respect of other establishments, such number of hours of work as may be prescribed.]³

Evidence as to age.

56. (1) When an act or omission would, if a person were under or over a certain age, be an offence punishable under this Act, and such person is in the opinion of the Court apparently under or over such age, the burden shall be on the accused to prove that such person is not under or over such age.

(2) A declaration in writing by a qualified Medical Practitioner relating to an employee that he has personally examined him and believes him to be under or over the age set forth in such declaration shall, for the purposes of this Act, be admissible as evidence of the age of the employee.

[Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, a qualified Medical Practitioner shall have the same meaning as in the Factories Act, 1948 (LXIII of 1948).

57. No employee shall work in any establishment, nor shall any employer engage an employee to work in any establishment on a day on which such employee is given a holiday or is on leave in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

Notice of dismissal.

[58. (1) No employer shall dispense with the services of an employee who has been employed for a period of three months or more except for a reasonable cause, and without giving such employee at least one month's notice or wages in lieu of such notice.

1. Subs. by M.P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 17.

2. Subs. by M.P. Act 10 of 1982, S. 18.

3. Subs. by M.P. Act 19 of 1967, S. 18.

Provided that such notice shall not be necessary if the services of such employees are dispensed with on a charge of misconduct supported by satisfactory evidence recorded at an enquiry held by the employer for the purpose.

- (2) (a) The employee discharged, dismissed or retrenched may appeal to such authority and within such time as may be prescribed either on the ground that there was no reasonable cause for dispensing with his services or on the ground that he had not been guilty of misconduct as held by the employer or on the ground that such punishment of discharge or dismissal was severe.
- (b) The appellate authority may, after giving notice in the prescribed manner to the employer and the employee, dismiss the appeal or direct the reinstatement of the employee with or without wages for the period during which he was kept out of employment or direct payment of compensation without reinstatement or grant such other relief as it deems fit in the circumstances of the case.
- (3) The decision of the appellate authority shall be final and binding on both the parties and be given effect to, within such time as may be specified in the order of the appellate authority.¹

59. (1) The Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of the Act,— Rules.

- (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, such rules may be made for all or any of the following matters, namely:—
 - (a) (i) the form of submission of a statement to the Inspector, and the fees and other particulars which shall be given along with such statement under sub-section (2) of section 6;
 - (ii) the manner of registration of establishment in the register of establishments and the form in which a registration certificate shall be issued to the employer under sub-section (3) of section 6 ;
 - (iii) prescribing fee for renewal of registration certificate under sub-section (5) of section 6 ;
 - (b) the form in which a change shall be notified to the Inspector under section 7 ;
 - (c) fixing six days in a year for additional overtime and prescription of occasions under sub-section (3) of section 11;
 - (d) the form of register for entering refusal of leave to be kept under section 26;
 - (e) fixing times and methods for cleaning the establishments under section 31; fixing standards and methods for ventilation under section 32; and prescribing such establishments as are to be exempted from the provisions of, and precautions against fire to be taken under section 33;
 - (f) annual or periodical returns which shall be submitted to Government under section 36;
 - (g) the qualifications of Inspectors to be appointed under section 40 and the powers which such Inspectors shall exercise under section 41;
 - (h) the registers and records to be maintained and the notice to be displayed on the premises of the establishment under section 54;
 - (i) the limit of hours of work under clause (c) of the Explanation to section 55 ;

1. Subs. by M.P. Act 10 of 1982, S. 19.

- [(j) the authority to which and the time within which an appeal may be filed by a dismissed, discharged or retrenched employee;]¹
- (k) any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

(3) The rules made under this section shall be subject to the condition of previous publication and, when so made shall be deemed, to be part of this Act.

Protection to persons acting under this Act.

60. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

Rights and privileges under other law, etc, not affected.

61. Nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or privileges which an employee in any establishment is entitled to at the date this Act comes into force in a local area, under any other law, contract, custom or usage applicable to such establishment or any award, settlement, or agreement binding on the employer and the employee in such establishment, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

Persons employed in factory to be governed by Factories Act and not by this Act.

[62. Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to apply to any person employed in an establishment situated in or within the precincts of a factory and the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 (LXIII of 1948), shall notwithstanding anything in the said Act, apply to such person.

63. The provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923 (VIII of 1923) and of rules made thereunder shall mutatis mutandis, apply to every employee of an establishment]².

Provisions of provident fund.

64. Every employer shall, in accordance with the rules made by the Government, provide a provident fund for the benefit of every employee and shall contribute to this fund an amount equal to the amount contributed by the employee not exceeding six and a quarter percent of his wages:
