<sup>2</sup> Section 6A was inserted by Mah. 36 of 1961, s. 10. Section 14 of Mah. 36 of 1961 reads as under,—

"14. The amendments made in the principal Act by sections 3(b), 7 and 10 of this Act shall, in relation to unpaid accumulations (including those already paid to the Board before the commencement of this Act), be deemed always to have been made in the principal Act :

Provided that, nothing in section 10 shall apply to any unpaid accumulations not already paid to the Board and—

(a) in respect of which separate accounts have not been maintained, so that any unpaid claims of employees are not traceable, or

(b) which through maintained as part of a separate account, are proved to have been spent before the 7th day of July 1961."

Authority shall have the powers conferred by, and follow the procedure (in so far as it is applicable) followed in giving effect to the provisions of that Act.

(6) If the Authority aforesaid is satisfied that any such claim is valid so that the right to receive payment is established, it shall decide that the unpaid accumulation in relation to which the claim is made shall cease to be deemed to be abandoned property, and shall order the Board to pay the whole of the dues claimed, or such part thereof as the Authority decides are properly due, to the employee ; and the Board shall make payment accordingly :

Provided that, the Board shall not be liable to pay any sum in excess of that paid under sub-section (1) of section 3 to the Board as unpaid accumulations, in respect of the claim.

(7) If a claim for payment is refused, the employee shall have a right of appeal in Greater Bombay to the Court of Small Causes, and elsewhere to the District Court and the Board shall comply with any order made in appeal. An appeal shall lie, within sixty days of the decision of the Authority.

(8) The decision of the Authority, subject to appeal aforesaid, and the decision in appeal of the Court of Small Causes, or as the case may be, the District Court, shall be final and conclusive as to the right to receive payment, the liability of the Board to pay and also as to the amount, if any.

(9) If no claim is made within the time specified in sub-section (5), or a claim has been duly refused as aforesaid by the Authority, or an appeal by the Court, then the unpaid accumulations in respect of such claim shall accrue to, and vest in, the State as bona vacantia, and shall thereafter, without further assurance be deemed to be transferred to, form part of, the Fund].

<sup>1</sup>[6BB. (1) The contribution payable under this Act in respect of an employee in an establishment shall comprise contribution payable by the employer (hereinafter referred to as 'the employer's contribution'), contribution payable by such employee (hereinafter referred to as 'the employee's contribution') and the contribution payable by the State Government, and shall be paid to the Board and form part of the Fund.

<sup>2</sup>[(2) The amount of contribution payable every six months in respect of every employee and an employee for each such employee shall be at the following rates, namely :—

(a) (i) in respect of an employee drawing wages upto and inclusive of <sup>3</sup>[three thousand rupees per mensem, six rupees]; and

(ii) in respect of an employee drawing wages exceeding <sup>4</sup>[three thousand rupees per mensem, twelve rupees], only if the name of such employee stands on the register of an establishment on the 30th June and 31st December, respectively :

<sup>5</sup>[Provided that, the State Government may, on receipt of a proposal from the Board, by notification in the Official Gazette, increase once in every three years, the rate of employees's contribution so, however that, such increase shall not exceed 30 per cent. of the rates of contribution.]

<sup>2</sup> Sub-sections (2) and (3) were substituted by Mah. 10 of 1987, s. 3.

<sup>3</sup> These words were substituted for the words "one thousand rupees per mensem, one rupee" and shall be deemed to have been substituted w.e.f. 31-12-2000 by Mah. 24 of 2003, s. 4(a) (i) (A).

<sup>4</sup> These words were substiuted for the words "one thousand rupees per mensem, two rupees" and shall be deemed to have been substituted w.e.f. 31-12-2000, ibid., s. 4(a) (i) (B).

<sup>1</sup>[(b) in respect of an employer for each employee referred to in sub-clause (i) and (ii) of clause (a), thrice the amount of contribution payable by an employee.]

(3) Every employer shall pay to the Board both the employer's contribution and the employee's contribution in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) before the 15th day of July and 15th day of January, as the case may be.]

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment but subject to the provisions of this Act and any rules, the employer shall in the case of any such employee be entitled to recover from the employee that employee's contribution by deduction from his wages, and not otherwise; and such deduction shall be deemed to be a deduction authorised by or under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 : 4 of 1936.

Provided that, no such deduction shall be made in excess of the amount of the contribution payable by such employee, nor shall it be made from any wages other than the wages for the months of June and December :

Provided further that, if through inadvertance or otherwise, no deduction has been made from the wages of an employee for the months aforesaid, such deduction may be made from the wages of such employee for any subsequent month or months with the permission in writing of the Inspector appointed under this Act.

(5) Notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, no employer shall deduct the employer's contribution from any wages payable to an employee or otherwise recover it from the employee.

(6) Any sum duly deducted by an employer from the wages of an employee under this section shall be deemed to have been entrusted to him by the employee for the purpose of paying the contribution in respect of which it was deducted.

(7) An employer shall pay the employer's and the employee's contribution to the Board by cheque, money-order or in cash, and he shall bear the expenses of remitting to the Board such contributions.

(8) The Welfare Commissioner shall submit to the State Government as soon as possible after the end of July and January every year in the prescribed form a statement showing the total amount of <sup>2</sup>[the employer's contribution and the employees' contribution in respect of employees in each establishment]. On receipt of the statement from the Welfare Commissioner, the State-Government shall pay to the Board a contribution of<sup>1</sup>[an amount equal to half the employee's contribution for the period from the 31st December 2000 to the 31st March 2003 ; and an amount equal to twice the employee's contribution with effect from the 1st April 2003, in respect of every employee referred to in sub-clause (i) and (ii) of clause (a) of sub-section (2).]

<sup>2</sup>[6B. (1) If an employer does not pay to the Board any amount of unpaid accumulations, or fines realised from the employees<sup>3</sup>[or the amount of the employer's and employee's contributions under section 6BB] within the time he is required by or under the provisions of this Act to pay it, the Welfare Commissioner may cause to be served a notice on such employer to pay the amount within the period specified therein which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice.

Interest on unpaid
accumulations or fines after notice of demand.

(2) If the employer fails, without sufficient cause to pay any such amount within the period specified in the notice, he shall, in addition to that amount, pay to the Board simple interest—

<sup>4</sup>[(a) in the case of failure to pay any amount of unpaid accumulations or fines realised from the employees,—

(i) for the first three months, at<sup>5</sup>[one and a half per cent.] of the said amount for each completed months, after the last date by which he should have paid it according to the notice ; and

(ii) thereafter, at<sup>6</sup>[two per cent.] of that amount for each completed months, during the time he continue to make default in the payment of that amount ;

(b) in the case of a failure to pay any amount of the employer's and employees' contributions under section 6BB,—

(i) for the first three months, at<sup>7</sup>[one and a half percent.] of the said amount for each completed month, after the last date by which he should have paid it in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 6BB ; and
