CHAPTER II.

Gram Sabhas, Establishment and Constitution of Panchayats.

4. (1) "[Every village specified in the notification issued under clause (g) of article 243 of the Constitution of India shall be known by the name of that village specified in that notification:]

[Provided that, where a group of revenue villages or hamlets or other such administrative unit or part thereof is specified in that notification] to be a village, the village shall be known by the name of the revenue village, hamlet or, as the case may be, administrative unit or part thereof, having the largest population.]

(2) "[Where the circumstances so require to include or exclude any local area from the local area of a village or to alter the limits of a village or that a local area shall cease to be a village, then the notification issued in the like manner after consultation with the Standing Committee and the Gram Sabha and the Panchayat concerned, at any time, may provide to—]

(a) include within, or exclude from any village, any local area or otherwise alter the limits of any village; or

(b) declare that any local area shall cease to be a village;

and thereupon the local area shall be so included or excluded, or the limits of the village so altered, or, as the case may be, the local area shall cease to be a village.

5. In every village there shall be a panchayat.

6 [* * * * *] [This portion was substituted for the portion beginning with the words "After making " and ending with the words " name of ........................ village " by Mah. 21 of 1994, s. 3(1)(a).]

7. (f) There shall be held at least [four meetings] of the Gram Sabha [every financial year] on such date, at such [time and place, and in such manner], as may be prescribed [and if the Sarpanch, or in his absence the Upa-Sarpanch fails without sufficient cause, to] [any of such [four meetings] he shall be] disqualified for continuing as Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch or for being chosen as such for the remainder of the term of office of the members of the panchayat; and the Secretary of the panchayat shall also if, prima facie, found responsible of any lapse in convening such meeting, be liable to be suspended, and for being proceeded against, for such other disciplinary action as provided under the relevant rules. The decision of the Collector on the question whether or not there was such sufficient cause shall be final:

Provided that, the Sarpanch may, at any time of his own motion, and shall, on requisition of the Standing Committee, Panchayat Samiti, or Chief Executive Officer, call a meeting of the Gram Sabha within the period specified in the requisition; and, on the failure to do so, the Chief Executive Officer shall require the Block Development Officer to call the meeting within fifteen days from the date he is so required to do. The meeting shall, notwithstanding the provisions of sub-section (3), be presided over by him or any officer authorised by the Block Development Officer, in that behalf:

Provided further that, a period of not more than "four months" shall be allowed to elapse between the two meetings of the Gram Sabha:

Provided also that, if the Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, as the case may be, fails to call any such meeting within the specified period, the Secretary shall call the meeting and it shall be presumed that, such meeting has been called with the concurrence of the Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch.

Any Officer authorised in this behalf by the Standing Committee, Panchayat Samiti or Chief Executive Officer by general or special order shall have the right to speak in, and otherwise to take part in, the proceedings of a meeting of the Gram Sabha, but shall not be entitled to vote.

Unless otherwise provided in this Act, the first meeting of the Gram Sabha after each general election to a panchayat and thereafter the first meeting of every year, shall be presided over by the Sarpanch and in his absence by the Upa-Sarpanch; and all other subsequent meetings of the year of the Gram Sabha, shall be presided over by a person elected by the persons present in that meeting of the Gram Sabha.

If any dispute arises as to whether a person is entitled to attend a meeting of a Gram Sabha, such dispute shall be decided by the person presiding, regard being had to the entry in the list of voters for a whole village or ward thereof, as the case may be, and his decision shall be final.

The meeting of the women members of the Gram Sabha shall be held before every regular meeting of the Gram Sabha, convened under sub-section (1) and the proceedings of such meeting shall invariably be brought or caused to be brought before every regular meeting of the Gram Sabha by the Sarpanch, and the Gram Sabha shall consider the recommendations made in the meeting of the women members, and the panchayat shall ensure the implementation of such recommendations:

Provided that, if the Gram Sabha is not agreeable to the recommendations made in the meeting of the women members, it shall record the reasons therefor.

Every member of the panchayat representing a ward shall, before every regular meeting of the Gram Sabha and meeting of the women members of the Gram Sabha, convene a meeting of all the voters in such ward and such ward sabha may discuss issues relating to development of the ward, selection of individual beneficiaries for individual beneficiary schemes of the State, or as the case may be, of the Central Government, development projects and programmes and such other related issues as the ward sabha deems fit and which are likely to be placed before the regular meeting of the Gram Sabha for consideration and decision. The proceedings of such meeting shall be maintained by such member under his signature and a copy of the same shall invariably be sent to the panchayat which shall form part of the records of the panchayat.

The Gram Sabha shall have the disciplinary control over the Government, semi-Government and panchayat employees working in the village including the matters relating to their daily attendance in the office. The annual evaluation of such employees shall be brought to the notice of their respective higher authorities by the Gram Sabha:

Provided that, Gram Sabha may, by resolution, delegate its authority to the panchayat to exercise general supervision over the Government, semi-Government and panchayat employees including regular and timely attendance at their workplace. The mode of recording of attendance and supervision shall be such as the Government may, from time to time, specify by an order in the Official Gazette.

The Gram Sabha, or as the case may be, the panchayat shall report to the concerned Block Development Officer, the irregularities, if any, committed by any of such employees. The Block Development Officer shall consider such report within the period of three months from the date of its receipt. Such matters and the actions taken thereon shall be reviewed in the regular meetings of the Panchayat Samiti. If, the Block Development Officer fails to dispose of such reports within the specified period of three months, the same shall on the expiry of the said period,

10A. (1) The Superintendence, direction and control of the preparation of the electoral rolls for, and the conduct of, all elections to the Panchayats shall vest in the State Election Commissioner.

(2) The State Election Commissioner may, by order, delegate any of his powers and functions to any Officer of the Commission or any Officer of the State Government not below the rank of Tahsildar.

(3) All the officers and members of the staff appointed or deployed for preparation of electoral rolls and conduct of election of Panchayats under this Act or the rules shall function under the Superintendence, direction and control of the State Election Commissioner.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act and the rules, the Commission may issue such special or general orders or directions which may not be inconsistent with the provisions of the Act for fair and free elections.

11. (1) An election to constitute a panchayat shall be completed—

(a) in the case of the establishment of a panchayat for the first time, as soon as may be practicable;

(b) in the case of panchayat, existing for the time being, before the expiry of its duration of five years as prescribed in sub-section (1) of section 27;

(c) in the case of the dissolved panchayat, before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of its dissolution:

Provided that, where the remainder of the period for which the dissolved panchayat would have continued is less than six months, it shall not be necessary to hold any election under this clause for constituting the panchayat for such period:

1 Section 10A was inserted by Mah. 52 of 1994, s. 3.
2 Section 11 was substituted for the original by Mah. 21 of 1994, s. 6.
(d) in the case of an interim panchayat referred to in section 157, before the expiry of the period of one year as specified in sub-section (1) of section 158.

(2) The election of members of panchayat or election to fill any vacancy shall be held on such date as the State Election Commission may appoint in this behalf.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 10, if the vacancy of a member occurs within six months preceding the date on which the term of office of the members of the panchayat expires under section 27, the vacancy shall not be filled.

(3A) The voting at an election shall be by ballot or by electronic voting machine and no votes shall be received by proxy.

(4) Such election shall be conducted in the prescribed manner.

12. (1) The electoral roll of the [Maharashtra Legislative Assembly] prepared under the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1950, and in force on such day as [the State Election Commissioner may by order] notify in this behalf for such part of the constituency of the Assembly as is included in a ward or a village shall be the list of voters for such ward or village.

(2) An officer designated by the [State Election Commission] in this behalf shall maintain a list of voters for each such ward or village.

13. (1) Every person [who is not less than 21 years of age on the last date fixed for making nomination for every general election or bye-election and] whose name is in the list of voters shall, unless disqualified under this Act, or any other law for the time being in force, be qualified to vote at the election of a member for the ward to which such list pertains.

(2) Every person whose name is in the list of voters shall, unless disqualified under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, be qualified to be elected for any ward of the village. No person whose name is not entered in the list of voters for such village shall be qualified to be elected for any ward of the village.

(3) Subject to any disqualification incurred by a person, the list of voters shall be conclusive evidence for the purpose of determining under this section whether any person is qualified or is not qualified to vote, or as the case may be, is qualified or is not qualified to be elected, at any election.

13A. If a person is elected to more than one seat in a village panchayat, then unless, within the prescribed time he resigns all but one of the seats by notice in writing signed by him and addressed to the [State Election Commission or any officer authorised by it] in this behalf, all the seats shall become vacant.
14. [(1)] No person shall be a member of a panchayat, or continue as such, who—

(a) has, whether before or after the commencement of this Act, been convicted—

(i) of an offence under the Untouchability (Offences) Act, 1955, or under the Bombay Prohibition Act, 1949 or any law corresponding thereto in force in any part of the State, unless a period of five years, or such lesser period as the State Government may allow in any particular case, has elapsed since his conviction, or

(ii) of any other offence and been sentenced to imprisonment for not less than six months, unless a period of five years, or such lesser period as the State Government may allow in any particular case, has elapsed since his release; or

[(a-1) has been disqualified by or under any law for the time being in force for the purposes of elections to the Legislature of the Maharashtra State: Provided that, no person shall be disqualified on the ground that he is less than twenty-five years of age, if he has attained the age of twenty-one years];

4 The portion from “(a) in the Hyderabad area” to “transferred territories” was omitted by the Maharashtra Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subject) Order, 1960.
5 This portion was added by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 9(2).
(3) All applications received under sub-section (1)—

(a) in which the validity of the election of members to represent the same ward is in question, shall be heard by the same Judge; and

(b) in which the validity of the election of the same member elected to represent the same ward is in question, shall be heard together.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the Judge shall not permit (a) any application to be compromised or withdrawn or (b) any person to alter or amend any pleading unless he is satisfied that such application for compromise or withdrawal or the application for such alteration or amendment is bona fide and not collusive.

(5) (a) If on holding such enquiry the Judge finds that a candidate has for the purpose of the election committed a corrupt practice within the meaning of sub-section (6) [* * *] he shall declare the candidate disqualified for the purpose of that election and of such fresh election as may be held under [sub-section (2)] and shall set aside the election of such candidate if he has been elected.

(b) If, in any case to which clause (a) does not apply, the validity of an election is in dispute between two or more candidates, the Judge shall after a scrutiny and computation of the votes recorded in favour of each candidate, declare the candidate who is found to have the greatest number of valid votes in his favour to have been duly elected:

Provided that, for the purpose of such computation no vote shall be reckoned as valid if the Judge finds that any corrupt practice was committed by any person known or unknown, in giving or obtaining it:

Provided further that, after such computation if an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, one additional vote shall be added to total number of valid votes found to have been received in favour of such candidate or candidates, as the case may be, selected by lot drawn in the presence of the Judge in such manner as he may determine.

(6) A person shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice—

(a) who, with a view to inducing any voter to give or to refrain from giving a vote in favour of any candidate, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration, or holds out any promise of individual profit, or holds out any threat of injury to any person, or

(b) who with a view to inducing any person to stand or not to stand or to withdraw from being a candidate at an election, offers or gives any money or valuable consideration or holds out any promise of individual profit or holds out any threat of injury to any person, or

(c) who hires or procures, whether on payment or otherwise, any vehicle or vessel for the conveyance of any voter (other than the person himself, the members of his family or his agent) to and from any polling station:

Provided that, the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by a voter or by several voters at their joint cost for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power:

Provided further that, the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any tram car or railway carriage by any voter at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause.

Explanation 1.—A corrupt practice shall be deemed to have been committed by a candidate, if it has been committed with his knowledge and consent, or by a person who is acting under the general or special authority of such candidate with reference to the election.

Explanation 2.—“A promise of individual profit” does not include a promise to vote for or against any particular measure which may come before a panchayat for consideration, but subject thereto, includes a promise for the benefit of the person himself or any person in whom he is interested.

Explanation 3.—The expression “vehicle” means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise, and whether used for drawing other vehicle or otherwise.

1[(7) If the validity of any election is brought in question only on the ground of an error made by the Officer charged with carrying out the rules made in this behalf under section 176 read with sub-section (2) of section 10 and section 11, or of an irregularity or informality not corruptly caused, the Judge shall not set aside the election.]

2[15A. No election to any panchayat shall be called in question except in accordance with the provisions of section 15; and no court other than the Judge referred to in that section shall entertain any dispute in respect of such election.]
16. (1) If any member of a panchayat,—

(a) who is elected or appointed as such, was subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in section 14 at the time of his election or appointment, or

(b) during the term for which he has been elected or appointed, incurs any of the disqualifications mentioned in section 14, he shall be disabled from continuing to be a member, and his office shall become vacant.

(2) 'If any question whether a vacancy has occurred under this section is raised by the Collector suo motu or on an application made to him by any person in that behalf, the Collector shall decide the question as far as possible within sixty days from the date of receipt of such application. Until the Collector decides the question, the member shall not be disabled under sub-section (1) from continuing to be a member.' Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Collector may, within a period of fifteen days from the date of such decision, appeal to the State Government, and the orders passed by the State Government in such appeal shall be final:

Provided that, no order shall be passed under this sub-section by the Collector against any member without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

17. [Fresh election if election or appointment is invalid] Deleted by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 11.

18. (1) No person shall, on the date or dates on which a poll is taken in any polling station, commit any of the following acts within the polling station, or in any public or private place within a distance of one hundred yards of the polling station, namely:—

(a) canvassing for votes; or

(b) soliciting the vote of any voter; or

(c) persuading any voter not to vote at the election; or

(d) persuading any voter not to vote for any particular candidate; or

(e) exhibiting any notice or sign (other than an official notice) relating to the election.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

(3) An offence punishable under this section shall be cognizable.

1 This portion was substituted for the portion beginning with the words "In every case" and ending with the words "from continuing to be a member." by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 10.
19.  (1) No person shall, on the date or dates on which a poll is taken at any polling station,——

(a) use or operate, within or at the entrance of the polling station, or in any public or private place in the neighbourhood thereof, any apparatus for amplifying or reproducing the human voice, such as a megaphone or a loud-speaker, or

(b) shout, or otherwise act in a disorderly manner, within or at the entrance of the polling station or any public or private place in the neighbourhood thereof, so as to cause annoyance to any person visiting the polling station for the poll, or so as to interfere with the work of the officers and other persons on duty at the polling station.

(2) Any person who contravenes, or wilfully aids or abets the contravention of, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

(3) If the presiding officer of a polling station has reason to believe that any person is committing or has committed an offence punishable under this section he may direct any police officer to arrest such person, and thereupon the police officer shall arrest him.

(4) any police officer may take such steps and use such force, as may be reasonably necessary for preventing any contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), and may seize any apparatus used for such contravention.

20.  (1) Any person who during the hours fixed for the poll at any polling station, misconducts himself or fails to obey the lawful directions of the presiding officer may be removed from the polling station by the presiding officer or by any officer on duty or by any person authorised in this behalf by such presiding officer.

(2) The powers conferred by sub-section (1) shall not be exercised so as to prevent any voter who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that station.

(3) If any person who has been so removed from a polling station re-enters the polling station without the permission of the presiding officer, he shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (3) shall be cognizable.

21.  (1) Where an election is held by ballot, every officer, clerk, agent or other person who performs any duty in connection with the recording or counting of votes at an election shall maintain and aid in maintaining, the secrecy of the voting and shall not (except for some purpose authorised by or under any law) communicate to any person any information calculated to violate such secrecy.
(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

22. (1) No person who is a returning officer, or a presiding or polling officer at an election or an officer or a clerk appointed by the returning officer or the presiding officer to perform any duty in connection with an election shall, in the conduct or the management of the election, do any act (other than the giving of his vote) for the furtherence of the prospects of the election of a candidate.

(2) No such person as aforesaid, and no member of a Police force, shall endeavour—

(a) to persuade any person to give his vote at an election, or

(b) to dissuade any person from giving his vote at an election, or

(c) to influence the voting of any person at an election in any manner.

(3) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

23. (1) If any person to whom this section applies is without reasonable cause guilty of any act or omission in breach of his official duty, he shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(2) No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any such person for damages in respect of any such act or omission as aforesaid.

(3) The persons to whom this section applies are the returning officers, presiding officers, polling officers and any other persons appointed to perform any duty in connection with the maintenance of the list of voters, the receipt of nominations or withdrawal of candidatures, or the recording or counting of votes at an elections; and the expression “official duty” shall for the purposes of this section be construed accordingly, but shall not include duties imposed otherwise than by or under this Act.

24. (1) Any person who, at any election, fraudulently takes, or attempts to take a ballot paper out of a polling station, or wilfully aids or abets the doing of any such act, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

(2) If the presiding officer of a polling station has reason to believe that any person is committing or has committed an offence punishable under sub-section (1), such officer may, before such person leaves the polling station, arrest or direct a police officer to arrest such person and may search such person or cause him to be searched by a police officer:
Provided that, when it is necessary to cause a woman to be searched, the search shall be made by another woman with strict regard to decency.

(3) Any ballot paper found upon the person arrested on search shall be made over for safe custody to police officer by the presiding officer, or when the search is made by a police officer, shall be kept by such officer in safe custody.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (1) shall be cognizable.

25. (1) A person shall be guilty of an offence if, at any election, he—

(a) fraudulently defaces or fraudulently destroys any nomination paper ; or

(b) fraudulently defaces, destroys or removes any list, notice or other document affixed by or under the authority of a returning officer ; or

(c) fraudulently defaces or fraudulently destroys any ballot paper or the official mark on any ballot paper ; or

(d) without due authority supplies any ballot paper to any person ; or

(e) fraudulently puts into any ballot box anything other than the ballot paper which he is authorised by law to put in ; or

(f) without due authority destroys, takes, opens or otherwise interferes with any ballot box or ballot papers then in use for the purpose of the election ; or

(g) fraudulently or without due authority, as the case may be, attempts to do any of the foregoing acts or wilfully aids or abets the doing of any such act.

(2) Any person guilty of an offence under this section shall—

(a) if he is a returning officer or a presiding officer at a polling station or any other officer or clerk employed on official duty in connection with the election, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine or with both ;

(b) if he is any other person, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be on official duty if his duty is to take part in the conduct of an election or part of an election including the counting of votes or to be responsible after an election for the used ballot papers and other documents in connection with such election, but the expression “official duty” shall not include any duty imposed otherwise than by or under this Act.
An offence punishable under clause (b) of sub-section (2) shall be cognizable.

26. No Court shall take cognizance of an offence punishable under section 22 or under section 23 or under clause (a) of sub-section (3) of section 25 unless there is complaint made by an order of, or under authority from, the Collector.

27. (1) The members of a panchayat shall, save as otherwise provided in this Act, hold office for a term of five years.

[(2) The members of a panchayat constituted upon its dissolution before the expiration of its duration shall continue only for the remainder of the period for which the members of the dissolved panchayat would have continued under sub-section (1) had it not been so dissolved.]

28. (1) The term of office of the members elected at a general election or appointed under sub-section (3) of section 10 shall be deemed to commence on the date of the first meeting of the panchayat. The first meeting of the panchayat shall be held on a day fixed by the Collector as soon as may be after the publication of the names of the elected members under section 10; and such date shall not—

(i) in the case of first meeting after general election, be later than the day immediately following the day of expiry of the term of outgoing members; and

(ii) in the case of election held after the dissolution of the panchayat, later than the date of expiry of the period of six months from the date of dissolution of the panchayat.]

29. (1) Any member who is elected may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Sarpanch and the Sarpanch may resign his office of member by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti. The resignation shall be delivered in the manner prescribed.
(2) On receipt of the resignation under sub-section (1), the Sarpanch or, as the case may be, the Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti shall forward it to the Secretary who shall place it before the meeting of the panchayat next following.

(3) If any member or the Sarpanch whose resignation is placed before the meeting of the panchayat wants to dispute genuineness of the resignation, he shall refer such dispute to the Collector within seven days from the date on which his resignation is placed before the meeting of the panchayat. On the receipt of dispute, the Collector shall decide it, as far as possible within fifteen days from the date of its receipt.

(4) The member or Sarpanch aggrieved by the decision of the Collector may, within seven days from the date of receipt of the Collector’s decision, appeal to the Commissioner who shall decide it, as far as possible, within fifteen days from the date of receipt of the appeal.

(5) The decision of the Collector, subject to the decision of the Commissioner in appeal, shall be final.

(6) The resignation shall take effect,—

(a) where there is no dispute regarding the genuineness, after the expiry of seven days from the date on which it is placed before the meeting of the panchayat;

(b) where the dispute is referred to the Collector and no appeal is made to the Commissioner after the expiry of seven days from the date of rejection of the dispute by the Collector;

(c) where an appeal is made to the Commissioner, immediately after the appeal is rejected by the Commissioner.

30. (1) Every Panchayat shall be presided over by a Sarpanch who shall be elected by, and from amongst, the elected members thereof.

(2) The election of the Sarpanch shall be held in the first meeting held after every general election.

(3) No member of a Panchayat shall be eligible for being elected or for continuing, as Sarpanch if he holds the office of the President or Vice-President of any Zilla Parishad or Chairman of any Subjects Committee thereof or the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman of any Panchayat Samiti; and if a Sarpanch is elected to any of such offices, his office as Sarpanch shall become vacant from the date of such election.

(4) There shall be reservation in the offices of the Sarpanchas in the Panchayats for the members belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes, the category of Backward Class of citizens and women as follows:—

1 Section 30 was substituted by Mah. 21 of 1994, s. 14.
(a) the number of offices of Sarpanchas to be reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in the Panchayats shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of such offices in the Panchayats as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the State or of the Scheduled Tribes in the State \(^1\) [excluding the population of the Scheduled Tribes in Panchayat comprising entirely the Scheduled Areas] bears to the total population of the State:

\(^1\) [Provided that, the office of the Sarpanch of a Panchayat comprising entirely the Scheduled Areas shall be reserved only for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Tribes.]

Provided further that, the office of the Sarpancha of a Panchayat falling only partially in the Scheduled Areas shall be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with the provisions of clause (a).]

(Provided also that), \(^2\) [one-half of the total number of offices] so reserved shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes or, as the case may be, the Scheduled Tribes;

(b) the offices of Sarpanchas to be reserved for persons belonging to the category of Backward Class of Citizens shall be 27 per cent. of the total number of such offices in the Panchayats:

Provided that, \(^3\) [one-half of the offices] so reserved shall be reserved for women belonging to the category of Backward Class of Citizens;

(c) \(^4\) [one-half of the total number of offices of Sarpanchas] (including the number of offices reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes, the Scheduled Tribes and the category of Backward Class of Citizens) in the Panchayats shall be reserved for women.

(5) The number of offices reserved under this section shall be allotted by rotation to different Panchayats in the prescribed manner.

(6) The reservation of offices of Sarpanchas (other than the reservation for women) shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period specified in article 334 of the Constitution of India.]

Every person desirous of contesting election to the office of the Sarpanch reserved for the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes or, as the case may be, Backward Class of citizens, shall be required to submit along with the nomination paper, Caste Certificate issued by the Competent Authority and the Validity Certificate issued by the Scrutiny Committee in accordance with the provisions of the Maharashtra Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, De-notified Tribes (Vimukta Jatis), Nomadic Tribes, Other Backward Classes and Special Backward Category (Regulation of Issuance and Verification of) Caste Certificate Act, 2000:

Provided that, for the elections for the post of Sarpanch for which the last date of filing of nomination falls on or before the 31st December 2013, in accordance with the election programme declared, a person who has applied to the Scrutiny Committee for verification of his Caste Certificate before the date of filing of the nomination papers but who has not received the Validity Certificate on the date of filing of the nomination papers shall submit, along with the nomination papers,—

(i) a true copy of the application preferred by him to the Scrutiny Committee for issuance of the Validity Certificate or any other proof of having made such application to the Scrutiny Committee; and

(ii) an undertaking that he shall submit within a period of six months from the date on which he is declared elected, the Validity Certificate issued by the Scrutiny Committee:

Provided further that, if the person fails to produce the Validity Certificate within a period of six months from the date on which he is declared elected, his election shall be deemed to have been terminated retrospectively and he shall be disqualified for being a Sarpanch.

Every panchayat shall elect one of its elected members to be Upa-Sarpanch.

The provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3) of section 30 shall mutatis mutandis apply in the case of Upa-Sarpanch.

Save as otherwise provided in this Act, a Sarpanch and an Upa-Sarpanch shall hold office for the term of the panchayat.
32A. The members of a panchayat (including its Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch) may be paid such travelling and daily allowances for journeys undertaken in relation to any business of the Panchayat as may be prescribed.

33. (1) On the establishment of a panchayats for the first time under this Act, or on its reconstitution or establishment under sections 145 and 146, or on the expiry of the term * of a panchayat a meeting shall be called on the date fixed under sub-section (1) of section 28 by the Collector, for the election of the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch. In the case where the offices of both the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch become vacant simultaneously, a meeting shall be called on the date fixed by the Collector, for the election of the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch.

(2) The meeting called under sub-section (1) shall be presided over by such officer as the Collector may by order appoint in this behalf. The officer aforesaid shall, when presiding over such meeting, have the powers and follow the procedure prescribed, but shall not have the right to vote.

(3) No business other than the election of the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch shall be transacted at such meeting.

(4) If in the election of the Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch there is an equality of votes, the result of the election shall be decided by lot drawn in the presence of the officer presiding in such manner as he may determine.

(5) In the event of a dispute arising as to the validity of the election of a Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch under sub-section (1) the Officer presiding over such meeting or any member * may, within fifteen days from the date of the election, refer the dispute to the Collector for decision. An appeal against the decision of the Collector may, within fifteen days from the date of such decision, be filed before the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final. The Collector or Commissioner shall give his decision as far as possible within sixty days of the receipt of the reference, or as the case may be, appeal.

Subject to any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, there shall be placed at the disposal of the Sarpanch, a sum equal to two per cent. of the annual income of the panchayat or six thousand rupees per annum, whichever is less, as sumptuary allowance.

(1) The Sarpanch may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti.

(2) The Upa-Sarpanch may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the Sarpanch.

(3) The notice of resignation shall be delivered in the manner prescribed.

(4) The provisions of sub-sections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) of section 29 shall mutatis mutandis apply to the resignations tendered under sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section as they apply to the resignation tendered under sub-section (1) of that section.

A motion of no confidence may be moved by not less than one third of the total number of the members who are for the time being entitled to sit and vote at any meeting of the panchayat against the Sarpanch or the Upa-Sarpanch after giving such notice thereof to the Tahsildar as may be prescribed. Such notice once given shall not be withdrawn.

Within seven days from the date of receipt by him of the notice under sub-section (1), the Tahsildar, shall convene a special meeting of the panchayat at a time to be appointed by him and he shall preside over such meeting. At such special meeting, the Sarpanch or the Upa-Sarpanch against whom the motion of no confidence is moved shall have a right to speak or otherwise to take part in the proceedings at the meeting (including the right to vote).

If the motion is carried by a majority of not less than two-third of the total number of the members who are for the time being entitled to sit and vote at any meeting of the panchayat or the Upa-Sarpanch, as the case may be, shall forthwith stop exercising all the powers and perform all the functions and duties of the office and thereupon such powers, functions and duties shall vest in the Upa-Sarpanch in case the motion is carried out against the Sarpanch; and in case the motion is carried out against both the Sarpanch and Upa-Sarpanch, in such officer, not below the rank of Extension Officer, as may 12 These words, figure and letter were substituted for the words, figure and letter “within fifteen days from the date on which it was received by him; and any such decision shall, subject to an appeal under sub-section 3(C), be final;” by Mah. 16 of 2012, s. 3 (i).

13 Sub-sections (3C), (3D) and (4) were deleted, ibid., s. 3(iii).
36. The time and place of sitting, and the procedure at a meeting, of the panchayat shall be such as may be prescribed:

Provided that, if the Sarpanch, or in his absence the Upa-Sarpanch, fails without sufficient cause, to convene the meeting of the panchayat in any financial year according to the rules prescribed in that behalf, he shall be disqualified for continuing as Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch or for being chosen as such for the remainder of the term of office of the members of the panchayat. The decision of the Collector on the question whether or not there was sufficient cause shall be final.

37. No resolution of panchayat shall be modified, amended, varied or cancelled by a panchayat within a period of three months from the date of the passing thereof, except by a resolution supported by two-thirds of the total number of members of such panchayat.

38. (1) The executive power, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and the resolutions passed by a panchayat, vests in the Sarpanch who shall be directly responsible for the due fulfilment of the duties imposed upon the panchayat by or under this Act. In the absence of the Sarpanch, the powers and duties of the Sarpanch shall, save as may be otherwise prescribed by rules, be exercised and performed by the Upa-Sarpanch.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions—

(i) the Sarpanch shall—

(a) save where otherwise provided in this Act, preside over and regulate the meetings of the panchayat;

(c) exercise supervision and control over the acts done and action taken by all officers and servants of the panchayat including supervision over the keeping and maintenance of records and registers of the panchayat in the custody of the Secretary;
(h) cause to be prepared all statements and reports required by or under this Act;

(i) exercise such other powers and discharge such other functions as may be conferred or imposed upon him by this Act or rules made thereunder;

1[(i-a) a Sarpanch may issue under his signature and under the seal of the panchayat, income certificates which are required to be issued under any directions of Government;]

(j) call meeting of Gram Sabha as provided in section 7 and preside over them;

(ii) the Upa-Sarpanch shall,—

(a) in the absence of the Sarpanch preside over and regulate the meetings of the panchayat[except where otherwise provided in this Act];

(b) exercise such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the Sarpanch as the Sarpanch may, from time to time, delegate to him;

(c) pending the election of a Sarpanch or in case the Sarpanch has been continuously absent from the village for more than fifteen days or is incapacitated, exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Sarpanch.

(3) Every meeting of a panchayat shall, in the absence of both the Sarpanch and the Upa-Sarpanch, be presided over by such one of the members present as may be chosen by the meeting to be Chairman for the occasion.

2[(4) Save as otherwise provided by this Act, the powers, duties and functions of the Sarpanch shall, in cases where there is no person competent to exercise or perform them for any reason whatsoever, be exercised and performed by any member of the Gram Sabha nominated by the Panchayat Samiti who is qualified to be elected. The member so nominated shall when presiding over any meeting of the panchayat have power and follow the procedure prescribed, but shall not have the right to vote.]

3[(5) Nothing contained in this section shall make the Sarpanch liable for any action taken by the Secretary for which he is made solely responsible under [(sub-section (4)) of section 57.]
The Commissioner may,—

(i) remove from office any member or any Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch who has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties, or of any disgraceful conduct, or of neglect of or incapacity to perform his duty, or is persistently remiss in the discharge thereof. A Sarpanch or an Upa-Sarpanch so removed may at the discretion of the Commissioner also be removed from the panchayat; or

(ii) remove from office the member, Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch, if not less than twenty per cent. of the total number of voters in the village who have paid all dues of the panchayat regarding taxes on buildings and lands and water charges, make a complaint that the annual accounts and the report of the expenditure incurred by the panchayat on the development activities are not placed before the Gram Sabha; and the information thereof is not displayed on the notice board as required by sub-section (1) or (1A) of section 8:

Provided that, no such person shall be removed from office unless, in case of clause (i), the Chief Executive Officer or in case of clause (ii), the Deputy Chief Executive Officer as directed by the Chief Executive Officer; under the orders of the Commissioner, holds an inquiry after giving due notice to the panchayat and the person concerned; and the person concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard and thereafter the Chief Executive Officer or, as the case may be, the Deputy Chief Executive Officer concerned, submits his report to the Commissioner. The inquiry officer shall submit his report within a period of one month:

Provided further that, the Commissioner shall, after giving the person concerned a reasonable opportunity of being heard, take a decision on the report submitted by the Chief Executive Officer or, as the case may be, the Deputy Chief Executive Officer, within a period of one month from the date of receipt thereof.]

[(1A) Where a person is removed from office of the Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, he shall not be eligible for re-election as Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch during the remainder of the term of office of members of the panchayat.]

[(2) The Commissioner may subject to like condition disqualify for a period of not exceeding five years, any person who has resigned his office as a member, Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch and has been guilty of the acts and omission specified in sub-section (1).

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Commissioner under sub-section (1) or (2) may, within a period of fifteen days from the date of the receipt of such order, appeal to the State Government and the Government shall decide the appeal within a period of one month from the date of receipt thereof.]

1 This sub-section was substituted by Mah. 38 of 2006, s. 6 (a).
2 Sub-section (1A) was inserted by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 20 (2).
3 Sub-sections (2) and (3) were substituted by Mah. 38 of 2006, s. 6 (b).
39A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 39, the State Government may, \textit{suo motu} or on an application made to it against any member, Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch regarding any act or omission specified in sub-section (1) of section 39, direct the Chief Executive Officer concerned to hold an inquiry against such member, Sarpanch or, as the case may be, Upa-Sarpanch, and submit its report, within a period of one month, to the Commissioner.

(2) The Commissioner shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the panchayat and the person concerned, take a decision, within a period of one month, on the inquiry report.

(3) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Commissioner under sub-section (2), may, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of such order, appeal to the State Government and the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

40. (1) Any member of a panchayat who, during his term of office—

(a) is absent for more than four consecutive months from the village, \textit{[such absence not being on account of his being a Chairman or Deputy Chairman of a Panchayat Samiti]}, unless leave not exceeding six months so to absent himself has been granted by the panchayat, or

(b) absent himself for six consecutive months from the meetings of the panchayat, without the leave of the said panchayat, shall cease to be a member and his office shall be vacant.

(2) If any question whether a vacancy has occurred under this section is raised by the President of Zilla Parishad \textit{suo motu} or an application made to him in that behalf, the President shall as far as possible decide the question within sixty days from the date of receipt of such application. Until the President decides the question, the member shall not be disabled from continuing to be a member of the panchayat. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the President may, within fifteen days from the date of such decision, appeal to the State Government; and the decision of the State Government in appeal shall be final:

Provided that, no decision shall be given under this sub-section by the President against any member without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(3) Whenever leave is granted under sub-section (1) to a member who is an Upa-Sarpanch another member shall, subject to the conditions to which the election of the Upa-Sarpanch so absenting himself was subject, be elected to perform all the duties and exercise all the powers of an Upa-Sarpanch during the period for which such leave is granted.

Act No. III Of 1959.

THE MAHARASHTRA VILLAGE PANCHAYATS ACT.

(As modified upto the 14th August, 2014)
41. [Suspension of Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch.] Deleted by Mah. 2 of 1982, s. 2.

42. (1) A member of a Panchayat whose office has become vacant under section 16, if his disqualification or disability has ceased, or under section 40 shall be eligible for re-election.

43. (1) Any vacancy of which notice has been given to the Collector in the prescribed manner due to the disablement, death, resignation, disqualification, confirmation of no confidence motion, or absence without leave of a Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, shall be filled, by the election of a Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, who shall hold office so long only as the Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch in whose place he has been elected would have held office if the vacancy had not occurred:

[Provided that, the post of the Sarpanch or Upa-Sarpanch, as the case may be, fallen vacant under this sub-section shall be filled in within thirty days from the date of such vacancy.]

44. (1) During any vacancy in the panchayat, the continuing members may act as if no vacancy had occurred.

(2) Subject to the provision of sub-section (1A) of section 145, the panchayat shall have power to act notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership or any defect in the constitution thereof; and such proceedings of the panchayat shall be valid notwithstanding that it is discovered subsequently that some person who was not entitled to do so sat or voted or otherwise took part in the proceedings.

(3) No act or proceedings of a panchayat shall be deemed to be invalid on account of any defect or irregularity in any such act or proceeding not affecting the merits of the case or on account of any irregularity in the service of notice upon any member or for mere informality.

CHAPTER III.

ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS AND DUTIES.

45. \[ (1) \] Subject to the general control of the Zilla Parishad and the Panchayat Samiti it shall be the duty of a panchayat so far as the village fund and its disposal will allow to make reasonable provision within the village with respect to all or any of the subjects enumerated in Schedule I as amended from time to time under sub-section (2) (in this Act referred to as “the Village List”). \[ (2) \] It shall also be the duty of a panchayat, when the Zilla Parishad or the State Government undertakes and completes, through its agencies, any piped water-supply schemes (including works), at the request of the panchayat, to take over and maintain \[ (3) \] out of the Village Water-Supply Fund constituted under section 132B ] such water-supply schemes, whether completed before or after the date of commencement of the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads and Panchayat Samitis and Bombay Village Panchayats (Amendment) Act, 1981. Where any such schemes were completed and were not taken over by the panchayat before the said date, the panchayat shall take them over within thirty days from the said date, which shall be the period specified for such schemes, and where any such schemes are completed after the said date the panchayat shall take them over within such period as may be specified by the Zilla Parishad or the State Government, as the case may be.

(2) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, omit any entry from Schedule I or add any entry thereto or amend any such entry and the Schedule shall, on the issue of the notification, be deemed to be amended accordingly:

Provided that,---

(a) no such notification omitting any entry from Schedule I shall be issued without the previous approval of the State Legislature; and

(b) any other notification shall be laid before each House of the State Legislature as soon as may be after it is issued and shall be subject to such modification as the State Legislature may make, during the session in which it is so laid, and publish in the Official Gazette.

(2A) A panchayat may, with the previous sanction of the President of the Zilla Parishad, also make provision for carrying out, outside the village any work in the nature specified in Schedule I; and subject to any directions made by the State Government in that behalf, may also incur expenditure outside the village in respect of any scheme or for any purpose sponsored by the Government.

1 Sub-sections (1), (2), (2A) and (2B) were substituted for the original sub-sections (1) and (2) by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 24.
2 This portion was added by Mah. 56 of 1981, s. 7.
3 These words were inserted by Mah. 5 of 1997, s. 3.
(2B) A panchayat may, by resolution 1[(and subject to the prescribed limits, give grant-in-aid to any institution (whether situated within or outside the village but not outside the limits of the revenue taluka within which the panchayat functions) in respect of matters falling in entries 17, 18, 19, 20, 22 and 23 of that Schedule provided that the institution serves the needs of the village, and to any person in respect of matters falling in entry 23 of the said Schedule .] or contribute to any fund sponsored by the Government for the purpose referred to in entry 75 of that Schedule. If any doubts arises 2[(whether or not the institution serves the needs of the village, or] whether or not the fund is sponsored by the Government, the question shall be decided by the Collector, and his decision shall be final:

Provided that, such grant-in-aid shall not be paid out of any grant made to the panchayat by the State Government or Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti.

(3) A panchayat may also make provision for carrying out within the village any other work or measure which is likely to promote the health, safety, education, comfort, convenience, or social or economic, or cultural well being of the inhabitants of the village.

(4) A panchayat may by resolution passed at its meeting and supported by two-thirds of the whole number of its members make provision for any public reception, ceremony, or entertainment within the village or may make contribution towards an annual gathering or such other gathering of panchayats in the district or the State:

3[Provided that, no panchayat shall incur expenditure on any such reception, ceremony, entertainment or gathering exceeding such amount as the State Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, determine and that, different amounts may be determined for different class or category of panchayats, with reference to their annual income.]

(5) If it comes to the notice of a panchayat that on account of the neglect of a landholder or dispute between him and his tenant the cultivation of this estate has seriously suffered, the panchayat may bring such fact to the notice of the Collector.

(6) A panchayat shall with regard to the measures for the amelioration of the condition of Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other Backward Classes and in particular, in the removal of untouchability carry out the directions or orders given or issued in this regard from time to time by the State Government, the Collector or any officer authorised by the Collector.

2 These words were inserted, ibid, s. 14 (1)(b).
3 This proviso was substituted by Mah. 31 of 1994, s. 2.
A panchayat shall endeavour to make use of voluntary organisations [of farmers of the village], and shall encourage co-operative societies [therein] in increasing and improving agricultural production.

A panchayat established for village (being a village comprising either a group of revenue villages or hamlets or wadis or any area called by any other designation forming a revenue village or forming part of a revenue village) shall execute works and development schemes in such village so however that in each such revenue village, hamlet, wadi or area part thereof, the village fund is spent so far as may be practicable on the works and development schemes in proportion to the population of such revenue village or hamlet, wadi or area.

(6C) A panchayat shall supervise primary school situate within the area of its jurisdiction.

(6D) A panchayat shall obtain permission of the Gram Sabha for incurring any expenditure on the development schemes.

(6E) A panchayat shall be consulted by the concerned Land Acquisition Authority, before such Authority acquires any lands falling within the jurisdiction of that panchayat, for the Government purpose:

Provided that, every panchayat shall obtain and consider the views of Gram Sabha before conveying its views to the Land Acquisition Authority concerned.

A panchayat shall perform such other duties and functions as are entrusted to it by any other law for the time being in force.

[Power of Parishads and Samitis to transfer management of institution or execution or maintenance of work.]

[Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2) and sub-section (3) of section 124 of the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads and Panchayat Samitis Act, 1961, a Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti with the consent of a Panchayat may, at any time, transfer to such Panchayat the management of any institution or the execution or maintenance of any work, and it shall thereupon be lawful for such Panchayat to undertake the management of such institution or the execution or maintenance of such work:]

Provided that in every such case the funds necessary for such management, [execution or maintenance] shall be placed at the disposal of the Panchayat by the Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti.

Powers of State Government to transfer execution of other works.

The State Government with the consent of the panchayat may at any time transfer to such panchayat the execution of any work promoting directly or indirectly the welfare of the villagers and it shall thereupon be lawful for such panchayat to undertake the execution of such work:

Provided that in every such case the funds necessary for such execution shall be placed at the disposal of the panchayat by the State Government.

9 These words were substituted for the words “or execution” by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 25(2).
10 These words were substituted for the words “District Local Board” by Mah. 5 of 1962, s. 286, Tenth Schedule.
48. Subject to such conditions as the State Government may impose, with the consent of the panchayat concerned, the panchayat shall perform such other administrative duties including the distribution of irrigation water, as may after consultation with the "Panchayat Samiti" be assigned to it by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette.

49. (1) A Gram Sabha may, in consultation with the panchayat, from amongst the members of the panchayat, representatives of community based organisations working in the panchayat area, village level functionaries of panchayat, Zilla Parishad, State Government and voters, constitute one or more Village Development Committees, by whatever name called.

(2) The term of such committee shall be co-terminus with the term of the panchayat.

(3) Such committees shall exercise such powers, discharge such duties and perform such functions of the panchayat, as may be delegated or assigned to them by the Gram Sabha in consultation with the panchayat, relating to the subjects and activities enumerated in Schedule I and such other works and activities related to or associated with the panchayat as may be entrusted by the Gram Sabha, Zilla Parishad, Government or any other competent authority to the panchayat, from time to time. The Gram Sabha may, subject to the general supervision and control of panchayat, regulate the procedure of such committees.

(4) The total number of the members in a Village Development Committee shall not be less than twelve and not more than twenty four:

Provided that—

(a) not less than one-third of its members shall be from amongst the members of the panchayat;

(b) not less than one-half of its members shall be women; and

(c) such number of members, as may be specified by the Government in that behalf, shall be from the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Vimukta Jatis and Nomadic Tribes (hereinafter referred to as the "vulnerable class"): Provided further that, the strength of the women members of the vulnerable class members on the Village Development Committee shall be not less than three-fourths of the total strength of such committee members, when such committee is constituted for the purpose of an activity, scheme or utility exclusively for the benefit of women or, as the case may be, for the vulnerable class;

(d) the Gram Sabha shall ordinarily nominate such women members to the Village Development Committee as recommended by village Mahila Mandal or a Gram Sabha of the women voters specially called for the purpose, unless it has sufficient reason, to be recorded in the proceedings, to reject any such recommendation;

(e) the Gram Sabha, in its discretion, may give preference to the members of the village level institutions, if any, like Mahila Mandalas, Youth Clubs, etc.;

1 These words were substituted for the words "Panchayat Mandal" by Mah. 5 of 1962, s. 286, Tenth Schedule.

2 These sections were substituted for section 49 by Mah. 23 of 2003, s. 3.
(f) the Gram Sabha may, also invite any village level Government, semi-Government, Zilla Parishad officials or employees working in the village, such as teachers, talathis, anganwadi sevikas, village water men, village health workers, to attend any meeting or meetings of the Village Development Committee, as a special invitee for the purpose of assisting or advising it on any matter or matters. Such special invitee may take part in the deliberations in the meeting but, shall have no right to vote in such meeting.

(5) The Village Development Committee constituted under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be a committee of the panchayat and shall be under overall supervision and control of the panchayat. The administrative machinery of the panchayat shall assist such committee as it assists the panchayat.

(6) The annual statement of accounts and proceedings of the Village Development Committee shall be kept and managed separately for day-to-day convenience but shall form an integral part of the panchayat record, accounts and proceedings, and shall be presented through the panchayat in the meeting of the Gram Sabha specially called for the purposes of approving annual budget and passing of the annual accounts of the panchayat.

(7) The panchayat shall normally not exercise the powers, discharge the duties and perform the functions entrusted to the Village Development Committee by the Gram Sabha unless, so resolved by the Gram Sabha in a extra-ordinary circumstances to be mentioned and approved by the majority of not less than two-third of the members present and voting, in a meeting specially called for the purpose of withdrawing such powers, duties and functions of the Village Development Committee, and allowing the panchayat to take over the same.

(8) (a) The members of the Village Development Committee, once appointed, shall not be removed or withdrawn before the completion of their term as provided in sub-section (2) except,—

(i) by an express resolution passed by the Gram Sabha in a special meeting duly called for the purpose, or

(ii) when such member suffers from any of the disqualification specified in section 14 for the members of the panchayats;

(b) Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation, removal or withdrawal, or otherwise disqualification of a member of the Village Development Committee, shall be filled up as provided under sub-section (1) read with sub-sections (2) and (4).

(9) On constitution of a new panchayat, the Village Development Committee shall be re-constituted within forty-five days of the constitution of the new panchayat:

Provided that, there shall be no bar for the members of the previous committee to be re-appointed on the new committee, if otherwise eligible.

49A. (1) The Village Development Committee constituted under sub-section (1) of section 49 may, in consultation with the panchayat and with the prior approval of the Gram Sabha, and if deemed expedient, having regard to the geographical, geohydrological, technological, economic, social and demographic situation of the habitation within the area of the panchayat, constitute a Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee from amongst the voter beneficiaries of the existing or proposed activity, scheme or utility, exclusively serving a habitation, in a meeting held therefor, where each beneficiary household shall have one vote.

(2) The term of such committee shall be co-terminus with the term of the panchayat.

(3) The Village Development Committee may, with the approval of the panchayat, entrust its powers, authority, functions and duties as regards the specific activity, scheme or utility to the Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee.

(4) The total number of the members in the Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee shall not exceed twelve:

Provided that,—

(a) the panchayat members who are the beneficiaries of the scheme, activity or utility for which the Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee is constituted shall be the members of such Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee;

(b) not less than one-half of its members shall be women; and

(c) such number of seats on such committee, as may be specified by the Government in that behalf, shall be appointed from the vulnerable class.

(5) The Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee shall exercise the powers and authority, and discharge the duties and perform the functions in respect of the activity, scheme or utility for which it is constituted, and shall be under the overall superintendence, control and guidance of the Village Development Committee.

(6) (a) The members of the Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee once appointed, shall not be removed or withdrawn before the completion of their term as provided in sub-section (2), except,—

(i) by an express resolution passed by the Gram Sabha or the beneficiary voters of the activity, scheme or utility, as the case may be, in a special meeting duly called for the purpose, or

(ii) when such member suffers from any of the disqualification specified in section 14 for the members of the panchayats;

(b) Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation, removal or withdrawal, or otherwise disqualification of a member of the Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee, shall be filled up as provided under sub-section (1) read with sub-sections (2) and (4).

(7) On constitution of a new panchayat, the Beneficiary Level Sub-Committee shall be re-constituted within forty-five days of the constitution of the new panchayat:

Provided that, there shall be no bar for the members of the previous sub-committee to be re-appointed on the new sub-committee, if otherwise eligible.]
50. (1) A panchayat may, from time to time, concur with any other panchayat or with any municipal corporation, municipality, [Zilla Parishad, Panchayat Samiti], cantonment authority or committee appointed for a notified area or with more than one such panchayat, municipal corporation, municipality, [Zilla Parishad, Panchayat Samiti], authority or committee,—

(a) in appointing out of their respective bodies a joint committee for any purpose in which they are jointly interested and in appointing a chairman of such committee ;

(b) in delegating to any such committee power to frame terms binding on each such body as to the construction and future maintenance of any joint work and any power which might be exercised by either or any of such bodies ; and

(c) in framing and modifying rules for regulating the proceedings of any such committee and the conduct of correspondence, relating to the purpose for which the committee is appointed.

(2) A panchayat may, subject to the sanction of the State Government, from time to time, enter into an agreement with any other panchayat, or with any municipal corporation, municipality, [Zilla Parishad, Panchayat Samiti], cantonment authority or committee appointed for a notified area, or with a combination of any such bodies, for the levy of octroi duty whereby the octroi duties, respectively, leviable by the bodies so contracting may be levied together instead of separately within the limits of the area subject to the control of the said bodies.

(3) Where a panchayat has requested the concurrence of any other local authority under the provisions of sub-section (1) or (2) in respect of any matter and such other local authority has refused to concur, the Commissioner may pass such orders as he may deem fit requiring the concurrence of such other local authority (not being a cantonment authority) in the matter aforesaid, and such other local authority shall comply with such orders.

(4) If any difference of opinion arises between local bodies acting under this section, the decision thereon of the State Government, or of such officer as it appoints in this behalf, shall be final :

Provided that, where one of the local bodies is a cantonment authority, the decision of the State Government, or of the officer, shall be subject to the concurrence of the Central Government.

51. (1) For the purposes of this Chapter the State Government may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may think fit to impose, vest in a panchayat, open sites, waste, vacant or grazing lands or public roads and streets, bridges, ditches, dikes and fences, wells, river beds, tanks, streams, lakes, nallas, canals, water courses, trees or any other property in the village vesting in the Government.

3[(1A) Where the State Government is of opinion that any property vested in a panchayat under sub-section (1) is required for the purpose of any national or State Development Plan or for any other public purpose, or where any such property is not required by the panchayat for the purpose for which it was vested, the State Government may vest certain lands in panchayats.]

1 These words were substituted for the words “district local board” by Mah. 5 of 1965, s. 286, Tenth Schedule.
2 The words “district local board” were deleted, ibid.
3 These sub-sections were inserted by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 26.
Government may resume such property; and upon such resumption, the property shall cease to vest in the panchayat and shall revest in the State Government.

(1B) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or in any order vesting grazing or other lands in a panchayat, such of the grazing or other lands vested in a panchayat as were under cultivation immediately before the day on which the Bombay Village Panchayats (Amendment) Act, 1965, comes into force shall, on the commencement of that Act, cease to vest in such panchayat and revest in the State Government, subject to all limitations, conditions and right or interest of any person in force or subsisting immediately before such commencement.

(2) Subject to any conditions and restrictions imposed by the State Government under sub-section (1), and with the previous sanction of the Collector, a panchayat may discontinue or stop up any such public road or street vested in it by the State Government, but which is no longer required as a public road or street and may lease or sell any such land theretofore used for the purposes of such public road or street:

Provided that, at least one month before it is decided to stop up or discontinue such public road or street the Sarpanch shall, by notice signed by him and affixed in the part of the public road or street which it is proposed to discontinue or stop up and published in such other manner as is prescribed, inform the residents of the village of the said proposal, and consider any objections in writing made thereto. The notice shall indicate the alternative route, if any, which it is proposed to provide or which may already be in existence.

(3) Whenever any public road or street or any part thereof has been so discontinued or stopped up reasonable compensation shall be paid to every person who was entitled to use such road or street or part thereof, otherwise than as a mere member of the public, as a means of access to or from his property and has suffered damage from such discontinuance or stopping up, and the provisions in the Bombay Highways Act, 1955, in relation to the assessment, apportionment and payment of compensation shall mutatis mutandis apply thereto as they apply in relation to the closure of a highway under section 52 of that Act.

52. (1) No person shall erect or re-erect, or commence to erect or re-erect within the limits of the village, any building without the previous permission of the panchayat. [Such permission may be granted with or without conditions or may be refused.]

(2) Permission shall be presumed to have been granted if the panchayat fails to [communicate its permission] or refusal in respect thereof within two months from the date of receipt of the application for permission. [In a case of refusal or in case of permission being granted subject to conditions, the panchayat shall communicate to the applicant the reason thereof; and an appeal shall lie against any such order of refusal or of conditional permission to the Standing Committee within a period of thirty days from the date of communication of such order.]
(3) No person who becomes entitled under sub-section (1) or (2) to proceed with any intended work of erection or re-erection shall commence such work after the expiry of one year from the date on which he became entitled so to proceed therewith, unless he shall have again become so entitled by a fresh compliance with the provisions of the preceding sub-sections.

(4) Whoever erect or re-erects, or commences to erect or re-erect any building without such permission or in any manner contrary to the provisions of sub-section (1) or any by-law in force, or to any conditions imposed by the panchayat shall be punished with fine, or to any conditions imposed by the panchayat shall be punished with fine, which may extend to fifty rupees; and in the case of a continuing contravention, he shall be liable to an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for each day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

(5) Without prejudice to the penalty prescribed in sub-section (4) the panchayat may,—

(a) direct that the erection or re-erection be stopped;

(b) by written notice require such erection or re-erection to be altered or demolished as it may deem necessary;

and if the requirement under clause (b) is not complied with within the time fixed in the notice [(such time being not less than thirty days)], the panchayat may cause the alteration or demolition to be carried out by its officers and servants and all the expenses incurred by the panchayat therefore, shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter IX.

(6) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any building which is used or required for public service, or for any public purpose, and is the property of the State or Central Government or any local authority, or is to be erected or re-ereected by the State or Central Government or the local authority; but reasonable notice of the proposed construction shall be caused to be given to the panchayat, and the objections or suggestions of the panchayat, if any, shall be considered. [Nothing in this section shall also apply to any building erected or re-ereected for any industrial or commercial purpose.]

Explanation.—The expression “erect” or “re-erect” with reference to a building in this section, includes—

(a) any material alteration, or enlargement of or in any building;

(b) the conversion by structural alteration into a place for human habitation of any building not originally constructed for human habitation;

(c) such alteration of a building as would effect a change in the drainage or sanitary arrangement or materially affect its security;

(d) the addition of any rooms, buildings, outhouses or other structures to any building;

(e) the conversion by any structural alteration, into a place of religious worship or into a sacred building of any place or building not originally meant or constructed for such purpose;

2 This portion was added, ibid., s. 27(4).
(f) roofing or covering an open space between walls and buildings, as regards the structure which is formed by roofing or covering such space;

(g) conversion into a stall, shop, warehouse, or godown of any building not originally constructed for use as such or vice-versa;

(h) construction in a wall adjoining any street or land not vested in the owner of the wall, of a door opening on such street or land.

53. (1) Whoever, within the limits of the village,—

(a) builds or sets up any wall, or any fence, rail, post, stall, verandah, platform, plinth, step or structure or thing or any other encroachment or obstruction, or

(b) deposits, or causes to be placed or deposited, any box, bale, package or merchandise or any other thing, or

(c) without written permission given to the owner or occupier of a building by a panchayat, puts up, so as to protect from an upper storey thereof, any verandah, balcony, room or other structure or thing,

in or over any public street or place, or in or over upon any open drains, gutter, sewer or aqueduct in such street or place, or contravences any conditions, subject to which any permission as aforesaid is given or the provisions of any by-law made in relation to any such projections or cultivates or makes any unauthorised use of any grazing land, not being private property, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine, which may extend to fifty rupees and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which such obstruction, deposit, projection, cultivation or unauthorised use continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.

(2) The panchayat shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment and to remove any crop unauthorisedly cultivated on grazing land or any other land, not being private property, and shall have the like power to remove any unauthorised obstruction or encroachment of the like nature in any open site not being private property, whether such site is vested in the panchayat or not, provided that if the site be vested in Government the permission of the Collector or any officer authorised by him in this behalf shall have been first obtained. The expense of such removal shall be paid by the person who has caused the said obstruction or encroachment and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter IX.

3[(2A) If any panchayat fails to take action under sub-section (2) 3[* *], the Collector suo motu or on an application made in this behalf, may take action as 4[provided in that sub-section, and submit the report thereof to the Commissioner]. The expense of such removal shall be paid by the person who has caused the said obstruction or encroachment or unauthorised cultivation of the crop and shall be recoverable from such person as an arrear of land revenue.]
The power under [(3A)] may be exercised in respect of any obstruction, encroachment or [unauthorised cultivation of any crop] referred to therein whether or not such obstruction, encroachment or [unauthorised cultivation of any crop] has been made before or after the village is declared as such under this Act, or before or after the property is vested in the panchayat.

Any person aggrieved by the exercise of the powers by the panchayat under sub-section (2) or (3) may, within thirty days from the date of exercise of such powers, [(4)] after giving such person a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

Any order made by the Collector in exercise of powers conferred on him under sub-section (2A) or (3) shall be subject to appeal and revision in accordance with the provisions of the Maharashtra Land Revenue Code, 1966.

Whoever, not being duly authorised in that behalf removes earth, sand or other material from, or makes any encroachment in or upon an open site which is not private property, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and in the case of an encroachment, with further fine, which may extend to five rupees for every day on which the encroachment continues after the date of first conviction.

Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the panchayat, from allowing any temporary occupation of, or erection in, any public street on occasions of festivals and ceremonies, or the piling of fuel in by-lanes and sites for not more than seven days, and in such manner as not to inconvenience the public or any individual or from allowing any temporary erection on, or putting projection over, or temporary occupation of, any such public street or place for any other purpose in accordance with the by-laws made under this Act.

The panchayat may, from time to time, by written notice require the owner of any premises or a part thereof either to put up by means of a metal plate a number or sub-number on such premises or part thereof in such position and manner as may be specified in such notice or to signify in writing his desire that such work shall be executed under the orders of the panchayat.

Any person who destroys, pulls down or deface any such number or sub-number or puts any number or sub-number different from that put up by order of the panchayat and any owner of any premises or part thereof who does not at his own expense keep such number or sub-number in good order after it has been put up thereon, shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to twenty rupees.
(3) Where a number or sub-number is put up on any premises or part thereof under the orders of the panchayat in accordance with sub-section (f), the expenses of such work shall be payable by the owner of such premises or part thereof, as the case may be.

Explanation.—In this section “premises” means a house, out-house, stable, shed, hut or other structure whether of masonry, bricks, wood, mud, metal, or any other material whatsoever whether used as a human dwelling or otherwise.

(2) Any suit instituted in any Civil Court after the expiration of one year from the date of the communication of any order passed by the Collector under sub-section (1), or if one or more appeals have been made against such order within the period of limitation, then, from the date of the communication of any order passed by the final appellate authority, as determined according to section 204 of the Bombay Land Revenue Code, 1879* [* * ] sub-section (2) of section 158 of the Hyderabad Land Revenue Act, 1317 Fasli, or section 41 of the Madhya Pradesh Land Revenue Code, 1954, shall be dismissed (although limitation has not been set up as a defence) if the suit is brought to set aside such order or if the relief claimed is inconsistent with such order, provided that the plaintiff has received due notice of such order.

(3)(a) The powers conferred by this section on the Collector may be exercised also by an Assistant or Deputy Collector or by a Survey Officer or such other Officer appointed under any of the Acts referred to in sub-section (2).

(b) The formal inquiry referred to in this section shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions relating to such enquiry under the Acts referred to in sub-section (2).

(c) A person shall be deemed to have due notice of any inquiry or order under this section if notice thereof has been given in the prescribed manner.

CHAPTER V.

ESTABLISHMENT, BUDGET AND ACCOUNTS.

60. (1) There shall be [*one or more secretaries] for every panchayat, or a group of panchayats as the [*Chief Executive Officer] may (having regard to the extent and population of the village and income of the panchayat), by a general or special order, determine.

[*Provided that, the Secretary shall also function as Secretary to the Gram Sabha of the respective panchayat.]

1 The words "to which a survey of lands being lands not ordinarily used for the purpose only of agriculture has been or is extended under any law for the time being in force" were deleted by Mah. 34 of 1970, s. 11.
3 The words "or that section of the said Code as applied to the Saurashtra and Kutch areas of the State Bombay" were omitted by the Maharashtra Adaptation of Laws (State and concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.
4 These words were substituted for the words "a Secretary" by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 32.
5 These words were substituted for the words "State Government" by Mah. 35 of 1963, s. 80, Schedule.
6 This proviso was added by Mah. 46 of 1997, s. 6.

[(2) The Chief Executive Officer shall appoint a Secretary (who may bear such other designations as Zilla Parishad may assign to him) from District Service (Class III). The Secretary shall be posted to panchayat but his salary and allowances shall be paid from the district fund.]

[Explanation.—In this section the expressions “District Fund” and “District Service (Class III)” shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads and Panchayat Samitis Act, 1961.]

(1) In addition to any other duties cast on the Secretary, it shall be the duty of the Secretary to prepare the report of the expenditure incurred by the panchayat on the development activities to be placed before the Gram Sabha and display the information thereof on the notice board of the Panchayat as required by sub-section (1A) of section 8.

(2) If the Secretary fails to prepare the report of the expenditure incurred on the development activities to be placed before the Gram Sabha and display the information thereof on the notice board as required by sub-section (1), he shall be liable for disciplinary action under clause (v), (vi) or (vii) or rule 4 of the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads District Services (Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 1964.]

(1) A panchayat may appoint such servants as may be necessary for the proper discharge of its duties under this Act and pay their salaries from the village fund. A Sarpanch may also, in cases of emergency, engage such temporary servants as he may deem necessary. A panchayat may, from time to time, by written order, fine, suspend or dismiss any servant appointed by it; but an appeal shall lie against any such order passed by the panchayat to the Block Development Officer, within one month from the date of the communication of the order to the servant. [An application for revision may be made to the Chief Executive Officer against the decision of the Block Development Officer in such appeal:

Provided that, no such application shall be entertained if it is not made within a period of one month from the date of such decision:

7 This portion was added, ibid.
Provided further that, no such appeal or application shall be decided unless the servant of the panchayat is given an opportunity of being heard.

1 [(2) Without prejudice to the power of a panchayat under sub-section (1), the State Government may make rules to regulate recruitment and the terms and conditions of service of servants appointed under sub-section (1).]

2 [61A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, taking into consideration the population, income and potential of the panchayat and such other factors as may be prescribed, the State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that a panchayat or a group of panchayats may engage experts, technical support agencies and skilled manpower on contract or on consultancy basis for conceiving, preparing, executing, operating, managing, maintaining and supervising the panchayat Development Plan, Land Development Plan and Environmental Development Plan for planned growth of the panchayat as well as the Livelihood and Employment Development Plan, Physical and Social Infrastructure Development Plan and other related activities to develop such panchayats or group of panchayats as growth centres.

(2) The experts, technical support agencies and skilled manpower engaged under sub-section (1) shall be from a panel prepared by the officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf, and the persons so engaged shall possess such qualifications and experience and shall be engaged on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The State Government may, direct such panchayats or group of panchayats to allocate such portion of funds from any scheme, project, programme or work sponsored by the State Government or the Central Government, as permissible, or from Village Development Fund or other own sources of the panchayats or group of panchayats which shall be utilised for engaging such persons.]

62. (1) A panchayat shall determine annually and shall submit to the [Panchayat Samiti] on or before such date and in such form as may be prescribed, a statement of,—

(a) the opening balance in the fund and estimated income of the panchayat for the following [financial year];

(b) the expenditure proposed on establishment and discharge of its duties under [* * * *] section 45;

(c) the amount to be contributed to the District Village Development Fund established under section 133.

[(1A) If a panchayat fails to submit such statement as required by sub-section (1) on or before the date prescribed under that sub-section, the Secretary shall prepare such statement and submit it to the Panchayat Samiti in the form prescribed under that sub-section on or before such date as may be prescribed.]

(2) The [Panchayat Samiti ] shall within two months from the date of the receipt of such statement, either approve the same or direct that the proposed expenditure on any of the duties [*falling under section 45] shall be increased or decreased:

Provided that the [Panchayat Samiti ], shall not have power [*either to disapprove the statement or] to direct that the total proposed expenditure shall exceed the estimated income of the panchayat for the following [*financial year] and the opening balance in the fund:

[Provided further that, if a Panchayat Samiti fails either to approve such statement or to direct that the expenditure on any of the duties falling under section 45 be increased or decreased, within two months from the date of receipt of such statement, the statement shall be deemed to have been duly approved by the Panchayat Samiti.]

(3) A panchayat shall contribute every [*financial year] to the [District Village Development Fund] constituted under section 133 such percentage of its income from all sources (including contributions from the State Government) [*but not including any sums received from the State Government, Zilla Parishad Panchayat Samiti by way of grant or loans for any specific work] not exceeding 10 per cent. thereof as may be prescribed.

(4) The Secretary shall keep the accounts of the panchayat in such form as may be prescribed. He shall prepare the annual report of the administration of the panchayat and shall place the accounts and the report for approval before the panchayat. The annual statement of such accounts together with the annual report as approved shall be sent to the [Zilla Parishad] on or before such date and in such form as may be prescribed.

[(6) If at any time it appears to the State Government on complaint made or otherwise, that any tax or fee leviable by a panchayat is unfair in its incidence, or that the levy thereof, or any part thereof is obnoxious to the interest of the general public or violates any promises made or undertakings given by the State Government or adversely affects the development of the village or any part thereof, the State Government may require the said panchayat, within such period as it fixes in this behalf, to take measures for removing any objections which appears to it to exits to the said tax or fee. If, within the period so fixed, such requirement is not carried into effect to the satisfaction of the State Government may, giving the panchayat an opportunity to give an explanation, by notification in the Official Gazette, suspend the levy of such tax or fee, or such part thereof, until such time as the objection thereto is removed.]
124A. (1) Every Panchayat in a notified area shall levy and collect the Local Body Tax on entry of goods for consumption, use or sale in such notified area in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The State Government may, by general or special order, designate any authority, Secretary of the Panchayat or any other officer to be the Designated Authority.

(3) It shall be the responsibility of the Designated Authority to levy and collect the Local Body Tax on the entry of the goods into the notified area, for consumption, use or sale therein in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XIB of the Bombay Provincial Municipal Corporations Act, 1949, and the rules made thereunder to deposit or cause to be deposited into the Treasury of the Government, such Local Body Tax.

(4) The State Government shall, every year, after due Appropriation made by law in this behalf, pay to each of the Panchayats whose area falls within a notified area, a grant-in-aid approximately equal to the amount of the Local Body Tax collected from the area of that Panchayat.

(5) The sum of money required to meet the expenditure by the State Government under sub-section (4), shall be charged on the Consolidated Fund of the State.

125. (1) Subject to any rules that may be under the Act, and regard being had to the fact that a factory itself provides in the factory area all or any of the amenities which such panchayat provides, a panchayat may arrive at an agreement with any factory with the sanction of the State Government to receive lump-sum contribution in lieu of all or any of the taxes levied by the panchayat.

(2) Where no such agreement as it referred to in sub-section (1) can be reached the matter may be referred to the State Government in the manner prescribed and the State Government may after giving to the panchayat and the factory concerned an opportunity of being heard decide the amount of such contribution. The decision of the State Government shall be binding on the panchayat and the factory concerned.

126. It shall be lawful for a panchayat to lease by public auction or private contract the collecting of any fees levied by it on markets and weekly-bazars:

Provided that, the lessee shall give security for the due fulfilment of the condition of the lease.

127. (1) The State Government shall levy a cess at the rate of one hundred paisa on every rupee of every sum payable to the State Government as ordinary land revenue in the area within the jurisdiction of a panchayat and thereupon, the State Government shall (in addition to any cess leviable under the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads and Panchayat Samitis Act, 1961) levy and collect such cess in such area.

Power of Panchayat Samiti to increase taxation on panchayat.

127A. The State Government may, on the application of panchayat to which the cess is payable, suspend or remit the collection of cess or any portion thereof in any year in any area subject to the jurisdiction of such panchayat.

128. (1) If in the opinion of the [Panchayat Samiti] the income of the panchayat falls below what is necessary for the proper discharge of the duties specified in sub-section (2) of section 45, the [Panchayat Samiti] may require the panchayat to take steps within six months, to increase its income to such extent as the [Panchayat Samiti] considers necessary. If the panchayat fails to take adequate steps to increase its income to the required extent, the [Panchayat Samiti] may require it to levy any of the taxes or fees specified in section 124 or increase the rate at which any of such taxes and fees is levied:

Provided that, the [Panchayat Samiti] shall not compel the panchayat to levy any tax or fee or increase the rate thereof beyond the maximum rate prescribed in this behalf.

(2) A panchayat may appeal to the [Standing Committee] against an order made under sub-section (1) and the [Standing Committee] may stay the execution of such order until [it] has decided the appeal.

129. (1) When any tax or fee has become due, a panchayat shall, with least practicable delay, cause to be presented to the person liable for the payment thereof a bill for the amount due from him, specifying the date on or before which the amount shall be paid.

(2) If any person fails to pay any tax or fee or any other sum due from him to a panchayat under this Act or the rules on or before the specified date of payment, the panchayat shall cause a writ of demand in the prescribed form to be served on the defaulter.
1959: III ]

Maharashtra Village Panchayats Act 69

(3) The presentation of every bill under sub-section (1) and the service of every writ of demand under sub-section (2) shall be effected by an officer or servant of the panchayat in this behalf,—

(a) by giving or tendering the bill or writ to the person to whom it is addressed; or

(b) if such person is not found, by leaving the bill or writ at his last known place of abode, if within the limits of the village, or by giving or tendering the bill or writ to some adult male member or servant of his family; or

(c) If such person does not reside within the limits of the village, and his address elsewhere is known to the Sarpanch or other person directing the issue of the bill or writ, then by forwarding the bill or writ to such person by registered post, under cover bearing the said address; or

(d) if none of the means aforesaid be available then by causing the bill or writ to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land, if any, to which the bill or writ relates in the presence of at least two panchas.

(4) If the sum for which a writ of demand has been served is not paid within thirty days from the date of such service, the panchayat may levy such sum by distraint and sale of the moveable property of the defaulter in the prescribed manner.

(5) Fees for—

(a) every writ demand issued under sub-section (2),

(b) every distress made under sub-section (4),

(c) the costs of maintaining any livestock under sub-section (4), shall be chargeable at such rates as may be prescribed.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in the forgoing sub-sections, any tax or fee payable on demand in accordance with rules shall be recoverable in such manner as may be prescribed.

(7) If panchayat is unable to recover a tax or other sum due to it as aforesaid it may furnish to the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar or Naib-Tahasildar or Mahalkari, a statement of the arrears due with a request for the recover the same [[ [* [* [*] and on receipt of such statement of arrears, the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar or Naib-Tahasildar or Mahalkari shall proceed to recover the same as an arrear of land revenue.

1 The words “through the village officer” were deleted by Mah. 34 of 1970, s. 18(1).

2 The words “For the recovery of such sums, the village officers shall be remunerated by the panchayat in such manner as may be prescribed” were deleted, ibid., s. 18(2).
(8) If a panchayat fails to recover any tax, fee or any sum due to it, or neglects to take action under sub-sections (2) and (4) of this section.

The Panchayat Samiti may apply to the Collector to recover the same as an arrear of land revenue.

On receipt of such application, the Collector shall, after holding such inquiry as he think fit and after ascertaining that three years from the date when the same has become recoverable have not elapsed, proceed to recover the sum as an arrear of land revenue unless such sum is, under section 130, directed to be written off.

130. The Collector may direct—

(b) any arrears of a tax or fee or any other sum due to a panchayat and recoverable through a Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari under sub-section (7) of section 129;

(bb) any sum forming part of the village fund which has been stolen or misappropriated and any person prosecuted in that behalf has been duly acquitted;

(c) any other sum due to a panchayat whether under this Act or otherwise to be written off, if in the opinion of the Collector such sum or arrears are irrecoverable:

Provided that, no sum exceeding rupees five hundred shall be written off under (bb) or clause (c), except with the previous sanction of the Commissioner.
[131. Subjects to the provisions of this section, every panchayat shall, after a due appropriation made by law in this behalf, be entitled to receive every year [commencing on the 1st day of April 1927] a grant from the State Government of a sum equal to \[^3\] the average of the amounts of the ordinary land revenue (including non-agricultural assessment) realised during each quinquennium commencing on the 1st day of April, 1964 from lands within the limits of the village panchayats.

\[^2\] Where a panchayat has been established for any wadi or any area called by any other designation and such wadi or area forms part of a revenue village, the payment of grant of land revenue shall be in the same proportion as the population of such wadi or area bears to the population of the entire revenue village.]

[132. Notwithstanding anything contained in [\[^7\] the Maharashtra Zilla Parishads and Panchayat Samitis Act, 1961, the Zilla Parishad] may, subject to rules, grant a loan to a panchayat within the district for the purposes of this Act.

\[^9\] Where the amount of grant of land revenue payable to a panchayat under sub-section (1) of section 131 is found to be less than the amount arrived at on the basis of one rupee per capita of the population of village, then that panchayat shall be entitled to an equalisation grant equal to the difference between the amount arrived at on per capita basis and the amount payable to the panchayat under sub-section (f) of section 131; and such grant shall be made by the State Government.]

132 B. (1) There shall be in each village, a separate Fund, which shall be called the "Village Water Supply Fund".
(2) The following shall be paid into, and form a part of, the Village Water Supply Fund, namely:

(a) the amount credited to and outstanding in the Village Employment Fund, on the date of commencement of the Bombay Village Panchayats (Amendment) Act, 1996;

(b) an amount not less than thirty-five per cent. of the amount of grant received by a panchayat under sub-section (1) of section 131, with effect from the financial year 1996-97 and every year thereafter. In the case of a panchayat constituted for any Devasthan Inam Village, such amount shall be in accordance with such order as the State Government may, from time to time, make in this behalf, regard being had to the land therein which may be exempt from the payment of land revenue either wholly or partially;

(c) the proceeds of the general water rate and the special water rate under clauses (viii) and (xii) respectively, of sub-section (1) of section 124;

(d) all sums received by way of deposits, etc., in relation to domestic water supply or non-domestic use through pipes or otherwise.

(3) The amount standing to the credit of this Fund shall be utilised only for the purpose of supply of water for domestic use or for cattle or for other non-domestic uses excluding agricultural and industrial use.

(4) The State Government may make rules relating to all matters connected with the Fund and its accounts, including the manner in which the Fund shall be maintained, operated upon and expended.]

133. In each district, there shall be established out of the contributions made by panchayats under sub-section (3) of section 62, a fund to be called the District Village Development Fund. The fund shall vest in such officer or authority [(including any officer or authority of the Zilla Parishad or of Panchayat Samiti concerned)] and shall be invested in such manner as may be prescribed. The fund shall be utilised for the purpose of granting loans to panchayats and the payment of interest on contributions made by panchayats [and with the sanction of the Commissioner, for meeting expenditure on staff engaged for operating the fund and on all charges incidental thereto, such as printing, stationery, stamps and the like]. The State Government shall make rules prescribing from time to time the purposes for which such loans may be granted, the terms and conditions (including the rate of interest) on which such loans may be made, the period therefor, the manner of repayment, and all matters incidental to the grant of such loans.

CONTROL.

134. [Constitution of District Village Panchayat Mandal.] Deleted by Mah. 5 of 1962, s. 286, Tenth Schedule.

134 A. [Special provision consequent on Bombay Re-organisation Act, 1960.] Deleted by Mah. 43 of 1962, s. 26, Schedule.

135. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder it shall be the duty of the [Zilla Parishad and the Panchayat Samiti] to,—

(a) encourage the establishment and foster the development of panchayats in the [area for which they are established] ;

(b) supervise and control the administration of panchayat in the [area for which they are established] ;

(c) perform such other functions as are imposed by this Act, and as the State Government may from time to time prescribe.

136. The State Government may appoint for each district such officer working under a Zilla Parishad as it may specify to be a District Village Panchayat Officer; to discharge such functions as may be prescribed under this Act.

137. (1) The [Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti] shall have power—

(a) to call for any proceedings of a panchayat or an extract therefrom, any book or document in the possession or under the control of a panchayat, and any return, statement, account or report which the [Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti] thinks fit to require such panchayat to furnish; and

(b) to require a panchayat to take into consideration,—

(i) any objection which appears to the [Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti] to exist to the doing of anything which is about to be done, or is being done by such panchayat; or

(ii) any information which the [Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti] is able to furnish and which appears to the [Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti] to necessitate the doing of a certain thing by the panchayat, and to make a written reply to the \[ Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti \] within a reasonable time stating its reasons for not desisting from doing or for not doing such things.

\[ (2) \] All or any of the powers given to the Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti under sub-section (1) may be delegated by the Zilla Parishad to the President or any other officer of the Zilla Parishad or by the Panchayat Samiti to the Chairman or any other officer of the Panchayat Samiti.

138. (1) \[ The Zilla Parishad or the Panchayat Samiti may delegate to any of its presiding authorities or any officer, the duties of encouraging the establishment and fostering the development of panchayats and of assisting panchayats in the proper exercise of the powers and performance of the duties conferred or imposed by or under this Act. \]

(2) It shall be competent to the \[ Zilla Parishad or Panchayat Samiti \] to accept and utilise in an honorary capacity, in the performance of any of the duties which may be delegated under sub-section (1), the services of any person who in the opinion of \[ such Zilla Parishad or as the case may be, Panchayat Samiti \] is specially fitted to assist it in this behalf.

139. \[ The Zilla Parishad may authorise its President or Chief Executive Officer or the Panchayat Samiti may authorise its Chairman, Block Development Officer] to enter on and inspect, or cause to be entered on and inspected, at all reasonable time any immovable property occupied by any panchayat or any work in progress under its direction.

139A. If for the purpose of efficient and economical execution or maintenance of any works or development schemes undertaken by a panchayat, an officer or person authorised by general or special order of the Zilla Parishad considers it necessary for that purpose to give technical guidance or assistance to the panchayat then the officer or person so authorised may periodically inspect such works or development scheme, and may give such guidance, assistance or advice as he thinks necessary in relation to such works or development schemes; and shall forward to the Sarpanch through the Block Development Officer, a report on the inspection made, pointing out therein any irregularities noticed, and his suggestions for improvement.

(6) Any person aggrieved by any order of (surcharge or charge or interest thereon) made by the Chief Executive Officer under this section, may, within one month from the receipt by him of the decision of the Chief Executive Officer, apply to the District Court to modify or set aside such order, and that Court after taking such evidence as it thinks necessary, may confirm, modify or remit such (surcharge or charge or interest thereon) and make such order as to costs as it thinks proper in the circumstances.
141. (1) If, in the opinion of the [Standing Committee] the number of persons maintained by a panchayat as officers or servants, or the remuneration given or proposed to be given by the panchayat to such persons, is excessive, the panchayat shall, on being required by the [Standing Committee] reduce such number or remuneration.

(2) The panchayat may appeal to the Commissioner against any requisition made under sub-section (1), and the decision of the Commissioner shall be final.

142. (1) If, in the opinion of the [Standing Committee] the execution of any order or resolution of a panchayat or the doing of anything which is about to be done, by or on behalf of a panchayat, is causing or is likely to cause injury or annoyance to the public, or to lead to a breach of peace, or is, in the public interest, unlawful it may by order in writing suspend the execution or prohibit the doing thereof.

(2) When the [Standing Committee] makes an order under sub-section (1), it shall forthwith send to the panchayat affected thereby a copy of the order, with a statement of the reasons therefor.

(3) The [Standing Committee] shall forthwith forward to the Commissioner a report of every case occurring under this section, and the Commissioner may revise or modify any order made therein and make in respect thereof any other order which the [Standing Committee] could have made.

143. (1) In case of emergency the [Standing Committee] may provide for the execution of any work or the doing of any act which a panchayat is empowered to execute or do, and the immediate execution or doing whereof is in its opinion necessary for the health or safety of the public and may direct that the expense of executing the work or doing the act shall be forthwith paid by the panchayat.

(2) If the expense is not so paid, the [Standing Committee] may direct the person in whose custody the village fund is kept to pay such expense or so much thereof as is possible, from the balance of such fund in his hands and such person shall comply with such directions.

(3) The [Standing Committee] shall forthwith report to the Commissioner every case in which it exercises its powers under sub-section (1).
144. (1) If at any time, it appears to the Standing Committee that a panchayat has made default in the performance of any duty under section 45, it may order the duty to be performed within a specified period, and if the duty is not performed within the period specified, the Standing Committee may appoint a person to perform it, and direct that the expense of performances shall be paid by the defaulting panchayat within such period as the Standing Committee may fix.

(2) If the expenses is not so paid, the Standing Committee may direct the person in custody of the village fund to pay such expenses, or so much thereof as is possible, from the balance of such fund in his hands and such person shall pay such expense or part thereof accordingly.

(2A) If at any time it appears to the Standing Committee, that a panchayat has failed to contribute or pay in any financial year the amount as required by sub-section (3) of section 62 or has committed default in payment of any instalment towards repayment of the loan taken by the panchayat from the District Village Development Fund, in accordance with the rules made for the purpose in pursuance of the provisions of section 133, the Standing Committee may, by an order in writing direct the person in custody of the village fund to pay to the credit of the District Village Development Fund such sums as may be due to it as such intervals and in such instalments as it may, regard being had to the finances of the panchayat, direct and the panchayat shall comply with such directions.

(3) If at any time it appears to the State Government or any officer authorised by the State Government in this behalf, that a panchayat has made default in the performance of any duty under section 45 or in the payment of any amount to the credit of the District Village Development Fund under sub-section (2A) and that the Standing Committee has failed or neglected to take action under sub-section (1) or under sub-section (2A), the State Government or the officer authorised, as the case may be, may take such action as could have been taken by the Standing Committee under sub-sections (1), (2) and (2A).

CHAPTER XII.

PROVISIONS FOR CONVERSION OF A MUNICIPALITY INTO A PANCHAYAT AND FOR AMALGAMATION AND DIVISION OF PANCHAYATS.

156. For the purposes of this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression,—

(a) “municipality” includes a person or persons appointed to exercise the powers and perform the functions of a municipality under section 179 of the Bombay District Municipal Act, 1901.

1 This section was inserted by Mah. 36 of 1965, s.68.
2 This section was added by Mah. 46 of 1997, s. 7.
3 Section 154 was renumbered as sub-section (1) and sub-section (2) was inserted by Mah. 36 of 1965, s.69(i).
4 This was substituted for the original marginal note, ibid., s. 69 (i).
5 These words were substituted for the words “Panchayat Mandal” by Mah. 5 of 1962, s.286, Tenth Schedule.
6 The brackets and words “(except any proceedings of the District or the Sessions Court in judicial proceedings in revision or reference from the proceedings of a Nyaya Panchayat)” were deleted by Mah. 13 of 1975, s. 28.
7 The words “or that Act in its application to the Saurashtra area of the State of Bombay” were omitted by the Maharashtra Adaptation of Laws (State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1960.
or under section 57 of the Central Provinces and Berar Municipalities Act, 1922, or of a Town Municipality under section 254 of the Hyderabad District Municipalities Act, 1956 (the aforesaid Acts being hereafter in this Chapter referred to as "the municipal laws");

(b) "panchayat" includes a person or persons appointed to exercise the powers and to perform the functions of a panchayat under section 145.

157. When any local area ceases to be a Municipal District by virtue of, or when the whole area comprised in a municipality is withdrawn from, or when any municipality ceases to be a municipality by virtue of, any Municipal Law, and such area is [specified] to be a village under section 4 with effect from the date on which such local area is so [specified] to be a village (in this section referred to as "the said date"), the following consequences shall notwithstanding anything in the relevant Municipal Law, ensue, that is to say—

(a) the municipality of such local area shall cease to exist;

(b) there shall notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, be constituted for the village an interim panchayat consisting of persons vacating office as Councillors of the municipality or members of the Committee or members of a Town Committee of such municipality and the President and Vice-President of the Municipality or as the case may be of a Committee or Town Committee shall, respectively, be deemed to be the Sarpanch and Up-Sarpanch of the interim panchayat;

(c) the unexpended balance of the municipal fund and property including arrears of rates, taxes and fees, belonging to the municipality, and all rights and powers, which prior to such notification, vested in the municipality shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same, vest in the interim panchayat as the village fund until the new panchayat is constituted in pursuance of the provision of sub-section (1) of section 158;

CHAPTER XIII.

CATTLE POUNDS.

161. In any local area which is declared to be a village under section 4 of this Act, or deemed to be a village under sub-section (1) of section 186 the provisions of the Cattle-trespass Act, 1871, or any law corresponding to that Act in force in any part of the State shall cease to apply in relation to such local area:

Provided that—

(a) nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any person to any penalty under any law so ceasing to be in force;

(b) any appointment, notification, order, rule made or issued under any such

1 This proviso was added by Mah. 23 of 2003, s. 4.
2 Clause (f) was deleted by Mah. 13 of 1975, s. 30.
3 These words were substituted for the words “Within one year of” by Mah. 21 of 1994, s. 31 (2).
4 Sub-section (3) was deleted, ibid., 31 (3).
law in respect of any cattle pounds, within the limits of any panchayat area shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made or issued under this Act and continue in force until superseded by any notification, order or rule made under this Act;

(c) any cattle pound in the local area established under any law so ceasing to be in force shall be deemed to be vested in the panchayat within whose limits it is situate and shall be maintained and managed by the panchayats in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

162. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, every panchayat within the limits of its jurisdiction shall, from time to time, appoint such places as it thinks fit to be public pounds, and may appoint to be keepers of such pounds such persons as may be approved by the [Block Development Officer]. The duties of pound-keepers shall be such as may be prescribed.

(2) Every pound keeper so appointed shall, in the performance of his duties, be subject to the direction and control of the panchayat.

163. (1) Whoever, within the limits of a village, allows any cattle which are his property or in his charge to stray in any street or to trespass upon any private or public property shall, on conviction, be punished—

(i) for the first offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to three hundred rupees or with both;

(ii) for a second or subsequent offence, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

(2) The Magistrate trying the offence under sub-section (1) may order,—

(a) that the accused shall pay such compensation, not exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees as the Magistrate considers reasonable, to any person for any damage proved to have been caused to his property or to the produce of land, by the cattle under the control of the accused, trespassing on his land; and also,

(b) that the cattle in respect of which an offence has been committed shall be forfeited to the State Government.

(3) Any compensation awarded under sub-section (2) may be recovered as if it were a fine imposed under this section.

(4) An offence under this section shall be cognizable.

164. (1) It shall be the duty of every Police Officer and a Watch and Ward appointed by the panchayat, and it shall be lawful for any other person, to seize and take to any such public pound for confinement therein, any cattle found straying in any street or trespassing upon any private or public property within the limits of the village.

(2) Whoever forcibly opposes the seizure of cattle liable to be seized under this Act, and whoever rescues the same after seizure, either from a pound or from any person taking or about to take them to a pound, shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or with both.
165. If the owner of cattle which are impounded under section 164 or his agent appears and claims the cattle, the pound-keeper shall deliver them to him on payment of the pound-fees and expenses chargeable in respect of such cattle under section 167.

166. (1) If within ten days after any cattle has been impounded, no person appearing to be the owner of such cattle offer to pay the pound-fee and expenses chargeable under section 167 such cattle shall be forthwith sold by auction in the prescribed manner and the surplus remaining after deducting the fee and expenses aforesaid from the proceeds of the sale, shall be paid to any person who, within fifteen days after the sale, proves to the satisfaction of such officer as the panchayat authorises in this behalf, that he was the owner of such cattle and shall in any other case, form part of the village fund:

Provided that, when a complaint is made under section 168, no auction shall be held until the complaint is examined and disposed of as provided by that section.

(2) No Police Officer, or officer, member or servant of the panchayat including the pound-keeper shall, directly or indirectly, purchase any cattle at a sale under sub-section (1).

167. (1) The pound-fee chargeable shall be such as the State Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify for each kind of cattle.

(2) The expenses chargeable shall be at such rates for each day during any part of which any cattle is impounded, as shall from time to time be fixed by the panchayat with the previous approval of the 2Panchayat Samiti.

168. (1) Any person whose cattle have been seized under this Act or having been so seized, have been detained in contravention of this Act, may, at any time within ten days from the date of the seizure, make a complaint to the Magistrate of the first class.

(2) The complaint shall be made by the complainant in person, or by an agent personally acquainted with the circumstances. If the Magistrate on examining the complaint or his agent sees reason to believe the complaint to be well founded, he shall summon the person complained against, and make an enquiry into the case.

(3) If the seizure or detention be adjudged illegal, the Magistrate shall award to the complainant for the loss caused by the seizure or detention reasonable compensation not exceeding one hundred rupees to be paid by the person who made the seizure or detained the cattle, together with all fees paid and expenses incurred by the complainant in procuring the release of the cattle, and, if the cattle have not been released the Magistrate shall, besides awarding such compensation order their release, and direct that the fees and expenses leviable under this Act shall be paid by the person who made the seizure or detained the cattle.

1 This proviso was added by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 70.
2 These words were substituted for the words “Panchayat Mandal” by Mah. 5 of 1962, s. 286, Tenth Schedule.
(4) The compensation, fees, and expenses mentioned in this section may be recovered as if they were fines imposed by the Magistrate.

168A. (1) In any local area within the jurisdiction of a panchayat to which the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, apply this section, every pound-keeper shall, before releasing any impounded cattle, require the owner of the impounded cattle or his agent to make, in the prescribed form, a declaration regarding the ownership of such cattle and to deposit by way of security such sum as the State Government may, by rules, prescribe. Different scales may be prescribed for different areas or different classes of cattle.

(2) If any cattle belonging to such owner are impounded within a period of six months from the date on which the security is deposited, and if the seizure is not adjudged illegal, the amount of deposit or a part thereof, as may be directed by the State Government by rules made in this behalf, shall stand forfeited to the panchayat. If the cattle are not impounded as aforesaid, the amount of security deposit shall, on an application made by or on behalf of the depositor, be refunded to him on the expiry of that period.

(3) On every occasion on which the release of the cattle impounded under this Act is claimed, the owner of the cattle shall deposit a fresh security.

168B. (1) If a Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari is satisfied that the crops or grass standing on any agricultural land or grazing land set apart for the use of cattle of one or more villages within the jurisdiction of a panchayat are likely to be damaged by cattle belonging to any persons (whether or not residents of such village or villages) who own more than twenty head of cattle, he may, by special or general order, direct the owner of such cattle to remove or cause to be removed, within a period specified in the order, all or any of the cattle to such place or places within the State as may be specified in the order.

(2) If the owner of the cattle fails to remove the cattle as directed under sub-section (1), the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari, as the case may be, may direct a police officer not below the rank of a head constable to remove or cause to be removed such cattle to the place or places specified in the order.

(3) If the Mamlatdar, Tahsildar, Naib-Tahsildar or Mahalkari is satisfied that the order issued by him under sub-section (1) is contravened by any owner or keeper of cattle, he may impose a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees. Any fine so imposed, may, on failure of such owner or keeper to pay the same within the specified time, be recovered by sale of all or any of the cattle ordered to be removed under sub-section (1).]

(xii) for the general regulation of sanitation and conservancy and the disposal of carcasses of dead animals;

(b) under section 53 of the temporary erection on, or projections over, or temporary occupation of, any public street or place.

(3) Any by-law made under the foregoing sub-sections may provide that a contravention thereof shall be punishable—

(a) with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees;

(b) in the case of a continuing contravention with a fine, which may extend to five rupees per day after conviction for the first contravention during the period within which such contravention continues.

CHAPTER XVI.

MISCELLANEOUS.

178. (1) Every member of panchayat shall be personally liable for the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or other property of the panchayat to which he has been party, or which has been caused or facilitated by his misconduct or gross neglect of his duty as a member.

(2) If, after giving the member concerned a reasonable opportunity for showing cause to the contrary, the Collector is satisfied that the loss, waste or misapplication of any money or other property of the panchayat is a direct consequence of misconduct or gross neglect on his part, the Collector shall by order in writing direct such member to pay to the panchayat before a fixed date, the amount required to reimburse it for such loss, waste or misapplication.

(3) If the amount is not so paid the Collector shall recover it as an arrear of land revenue and credit it to the village fund.
(4) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Collector may apply to the District Court as provided in sub-section (6) of section 140, within the like time for redress of his grievance, and that court may pass any order thereon which it can pass under that section.

179. (1) Where on an application of panchayat [or otherwise] the Collector is of the opinion that any person, who in his capacity [as a Sarpanch, Upa-Sarpanch, member,] officer, servant or secretary of a panchayat had in his custody any record or money belonging to the panchayat is [on his vacating or ceasing to hold, his office for any reason whatsoever,] or suspension from office, as the case may be, not likely to deliver such record or pay such money, the Collector may by written order require that the record or money so detained be delivered or paid to the panchayat forthwith.

(2) If any such person as aforesaid shall not deliver the record or pay the money as directed, the Collector may cause him to be apprehended and may send him with a warrant in such form as may be prescribed, to be confined in a civil jail till he delivers up the record or pays the money:

Provided that, no such person shall be so detained in confinement for a period longer than one calendar month.

(3) It shall be lawful for the Collector—

(a) for recovering any such money to direct that such money be recovered as an arrear of land revenue and on such direction being given, such money shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue from such person;

(b) for recovering any such record to issue a search warrant and to exercise all such powers with respect thereto as may lawfully be exercised by a magistrate under the provisions of Chapter VII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

(4) No action under sub-sections (1), (2) or (3) shall be taken unless reasonable opportunity has been given to the person concerned to show cause why such action should not be taken against him.

1 These words were inserted by Mah. 43 of 1962, s. 26, Schedule.
2 These words were substituted for the words “as a member”, ibid.
3 These words were substituted for the words “on the expiry of his term of office or, after his removal” by Mah. 36 of 1965, s. 75.
180. (1) No action shall lie against any member, officer, servant or agent of panchayat \(^1\) acting under its direction, in respect of anything in good faith done under this Act or any rule or by-law.

(2) No action shall be brought against any panchayat \(^1\) or any member, officer, servant, or agent of such panchayat \(^1\) acting under its direction for anything done or purporting to have done by or under this Act, until the expiration of three months next after notice in writing has been left or delivered at the office of the panchayat \(^1\) and also at the residence of the member, officer, servant or agent thereof against whom the action is intended to be brought. The notice shall state the cause of action, the nature of the relief sought, the amount of compensation claimed and the name and place of abode of the person who intends to bring the action.

(3) Every such action shall be commenced within six months after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards.

(4) If any panchayat \(^1\) or person to whom a notice under sub-section (2) is given shall, before an action is brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff and pay into court, the amount so tendered, the plaintiff shall not recover more than the amount so tendered. The plaintiff shall also pay all costs incurred by the defendant after such tender.

181. (1) No suit shall be commenced against any Zilla Parishad, Standing Committee or Panchayat Samiti or against any officer or servant of any Zilla Parishad, Standing Committee or Panchayat Samiti for anything done or purporting to have been done, in pursuance of this Act, without giving to such officer, servant or persons, one month’s previous notice in writing of the intended suit and of the cause thereof, nor after three months from the date of the act complained of.

(2) In the case of any such suit for damages, if tender of sufficient amounts shall have been made before the action was brought, the plaintiff shall not recover more than the amount so tendered, and shall pay all costs incurred by the defendant after such tender.

182. (1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, authorise the Commissioner or any other officer to exercise

It shall be the duty of every panchayat to enquire and report in any of the following cases:

(a) any case where a Magistrate has directed that a previous local investigation be made by a panchayat under section 202 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898†, and the words “ such other person ” in sub-section (1) of the said section shall be deemed to include a panchayat;

(b) any case in which a Magistrate making an enquiry under section 488 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898†, may require from the panchayat in whose village either the wife or child for whose maintenance the application is made or the husband or parent respectively of such wife or child resides, report as to the amount of maintenance which, having regard to the circumstances of the parties, should be payable and such report shall be evidence in such enquiry:

Provided that no member of the panchayat shall be required to attend as a witness touching any matter on which the report is itself evidence, but the Magistrate may, in his discretion, call for a further report.

Every member of a panchayat and every officer and servant maintained by or employed under a panchayat shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal code.

Panchayat Samiti to exercise duties in respect of panchayats within its area.

184A. (1) Nothing in this Act shall be construed as empowering a Panchayat Samiti to exercise any powers or perform any functions under this Act in relation to a panchayat area of which is not within its jurisdiction.

(2) If any Block comprises only a part of a village for which a panchayat has been established, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare which Panchayat Samiti shall exercise the powers and perform the functions under this Act in respect of such panchayat.

Powers of Police Officers.

184B. It shall be the duty of every police officer to give immediate information to the panchayat of any offence committed against this Act or the rules or bye-laws made thereunder, and to assist the panchayat in the exercise of its lawful authority.

Suspension of operation of Act, rules and bye-laws.

184C. If the State Government is satisfied that circumstances have arisen by reason of earthquake or similar natural calamity rendering it necessary that certain provisions of this Act or any rules or bye-laws made thereunder, which impede or delay the rapid rehabilitation or giving of relief to persons affected thereby, should be suspended or relaxed in the public interest, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, suspend or relax for such period and in such areas as may be specified in the notification the operation of any of the provisions of this Act or any rules or bye-laws made thereunder.

Repeal.

185. The Bombay Village Panchayats Act, 1933, or that Act in its application to the Kutch area of the State of Bombay, the Saurashtra Gram Panchayat Ordinance, 1949, the Hyderabad Gram Panchayat Act, 1956 and the Central Provinces and Berar Panchayats Act, 1946 are hereby repealed.
