Govt. of Manipur, L.S.G. Deptt. Notification No. 3/20/71 Act/L dt. 17.7.71 under section 3(2) of the Manipur (Village Authorities in Hill Areas) Act, 1956.

Extract of para B of letter No. 4/47/71 dt. 19.7.71 issued by the Chief Secretary.
to all the D.Cs. of Manipur.

THE MANIPUR ( VILLAGE AUTHORITIES IN HILL AREAS ) ACT, 1956.
( 80 of 1956 )

AN

to consolidate and amend the law relating to the constitution and functions of Village Authorities in the hill areas of the Union territory of Manipur.

Be it enacted by Parliament in the Seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows :—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. (1) This Act may be called the Manipur (Village Authorities in Hill Areas) Act, 1956.

(2) It extends to the whole of the hill areas of the Union territory of Manipur.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

Short title, extent and commencement.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Chief Commissioner" means the Chief Commissioner of Manipur ;

(b) "Deputy Commissioner" means the Deputy Commissioner of Manipur and includes the Additional Deputy Commissioner thereof ;

(c) "heinous offence" means—

(i) any of the following offences punishable under the Indian Penal Code, that is to say, any offence under Chapter VI, rioting, any offence under Chapter XII murder, culpable homicide not amounting to murder, grievous hurt, kidnapping or abducting in order to subject a person to slavery, buying or disposing of any person as a slave, habitual dealing in slaves, rape, robbery, dacoity mischief by fire or explosive substance, and house breaking ;

(ii) any offence punishable under the Indian Arms Act, 1878 ;

and includes any attempt, preparation or conspiracy to commit, and abetment of, any of the offences specified in sub-clause (i) or sub-clause (ii) ;

(d) "hill areas" mean such areas in the hill tracts of the Union territory of Manipur as the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare to be hill areas ;

(e) "legal practitioner" includes a pleader, mukhtar or revenue-agent ;

(f) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act.

45 of 1860.

CHAPTER II

CONSTITUTION AND FUNCTIONS OF VILLAGE AUTHORITIES

3. (1) For every village having twenty or more tax-paying houses there shall be a Village Authority consisting of—

Constitution
of Village
Authorities.

(a) five members, where the number of tax-paying houses in the village is not less than twenty but is not more than sixty ;

(b) seven members, where the number of tax paying houses in the village is more than sixty but is not more than one hundred ;

(c) ten members, where the number of tax paying houses in the village is more than one hundred but is not more than one hundred and fifty ;

(d) twelve members, where the number of tax-paying houses in the village is more than one hundred and fifty.

(2) The Chief Commissioner may, having regard to the general interests of the people of any village as also to the demand, if any, from the people of that village for an elected Village Authority, declare, by notification in the Official Gazette, that the village shall have an elected Village Authority, and thereupon the members of the Village Authority of that village shall be elected in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(3) Where no declaration under sub-section (2) has been made in relation to any village the members of the Village Authority of that village shall be nominated by the Chief Commissioner.

(4) Where there is a Chief or Khulakpa in a village, he shall be the ex officio chairman of the Village Authority of that village; and where there is no such Chief or Khulakpa in the village, the chairman of the Village Authority of that village shall be elected by the members of the Village Authority from among themselves.

4. A person shall not be qualified to be chosen as a member of a Village Authority unless he—

of Village
Authorities.

5. A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a member of a Village Authority,—

(a) if he is a member of any other Village Authority ;

(b) if he is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent authority.

6. The term of office of members of a Village Authority shall be ~~three~~ <sup>five</sup> years from the date appointed for its first meeting.

7. The election of members of the Village Authority of a village shall be on the basis of adult suffrage, that is to say, every person who is a citizen of India and who is ordinarily resident in the village and is not less than twenty-one years of age on such date as may be fixed by rules made under this Act, shall be entitled to be registered as a voter at any such election.

Explanation.—A person shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident in a village if he ordinarily resides in that village or owns, or is in possession of a dwelling house therein.

8. (1) The Deputy Commissioner may remove any member of a Village Authority from his office—

(a) who is convicted of any non-bailable offence, or

(b) who refuses to act, or becomes incapable of acting, or is declared to be insolvent ; or

(c) who has been declared by notification to be disqualified for employment in the public service ; or

(d) who, without an excuse sufficient in the opinion of the Deputy Commissioner, absents himself from six consecutive meetings of the Village Authority ; or

(e) who has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties, or of any disgraceful conduct, if two-thirds of the total number of the members of the Village Authority at a meeting recommend his removal.

(2) No person who has been removed from his office under clause (a) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) shall be eligible for renomination or re-election except with the previous permission of the Chief Commissioner obtained by such person in the prescribed manner.

9. A member of a Village Authority may resign his office by writing under his hand addressed to the chairman of the Authority but shall continue in office until his resignation has been accepted in a meeting of the Authority.

10. When the office of a member of a Village Authority becomes vacant by his removal, resignation or death a new member shall be nominated or elected to fill the vacancy and shall hold office so long as the member whose place he fills would have been entitled to hold office if such vacancy had not occurred.

11. No election of a member of a Village Authority shall be called in question in any court, and no court shall grant an injunction,—

(a) to postpone the election of a member of a Village Authority ; or

(b) to prohibit a person, declared to have been duly elected under this Act, from taking part in the proceedings of a Village Authority of which he has been elected a member ; or

(c) to prohibit members nominated or elected for a Village Authority from entering upon their duties.

12. (1) If a dispute arises as to the election of any member of a Village Authority, the matter shall be referred to the Deputy Commissioner who shall decide the same after giving notice to the parties concerned and after taking such evidence as may be produced.

(2) The order of the Deputy Commissioner may, within thirty days from the date thereof, be revised by the Chief Commissioner whose decision shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court.

13. No act done or proceedings taken by a Village Authority under this Act shall be questioned on the ground merely of—

(a) the existence of any vacancy in, or any defect in the constitution of the Village Authority ;

(b) any defect or irregularity not affecting the merits of the case.

14. Every Village Authority shall be a body corporate by the name of the village for which it is constituted and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall by the said name sue and be sued, with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, both movable and immovable, and to contract and do all other things necessary for the purposes of this Act.

15. Subject to the general superintendence and control of the Deputy Commissioner, the sub-divisional magistrate shall have control over all the Village Authorities within the local limits of his jurisdiction.

16. (1) Every Village Authority constituted under this Act shall, within the local limits of its jurisdiction, perform the following functions, namely :

(a) it shall to the best of its ability maintain law and order and for that purpose exercise and perform the powers and duties generally conferred and imposed on the police by or under the Police Act, 1961 :

as amended by Amendment
Act, 1984

1 of 1862.
5 of 1898.

Provided that a Village Authority shall not be deemed to be a police officer within the meaning of sections 25 and 26 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 or section 162 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 ;

( Extracts of sections 25 and 26 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 and section 162 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

25. Confession to police-officer not to be proved.

No confession made to a police officer shall be proved as against a person accused of any offence.

26. Confession by accused while in custody of police not to be proved against him.

No confession made by any person whilst he is in the custody of a police-officer, unless it be made in the immediate presence of a Magistrate, shall be proved as against such person.

Explanation.—In this section "Magistrate" does not include the head of a village discharging magisterial functions in the Presidency of Fort St. George or elsewhere, unless such headman is a Magistrate exercising the powers of a Magistrate under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1882.

162. Statements to police not to be signed ; use of statements in evidence.—
(1) No statement made by any person to a police officer in the course of an investigation under this Chapter shall, if reduced into writing, be signed by the person making it ; nor shall any such statement or any record thereof, whether in a police diary or otherwise, or any part of such statement or record, be used for any purpose (save as hereinafter provided) at any enquiry or trial in respect of any offence under investigation at the time when such statement was made ;

Provided that when any witness is called for the prosecution in such inquiry or trial whose statement has been reduced into writing as aforesaid, any part of his statement, if duly proved, may be used by the accused, and with the permission of the Court, by the prosecution, to contradict such witness in the manner provided by Sec. 145 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872), and when any part of such statement is so used, any part thereof may also be used in the re-examination of such witness, but for the purpose only of explaining any matter referred to in his cross-examination.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to any statement falling within the provisions of Sec. 32, Cl. (1) of—the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) or to effect the provisions of Sec. 27 of that Act.)

(b) it shall cause to be arrested without any order from a magistrate and without a warrant—

(i) any person who is a vagrant or commits a heinous offence or who has been concerned in any such offence or against whom a reasonable complaint has been made or credible information has been received or a reasonable suspicion exists of his having been so concerned,

(ii) any person against whom a hue and cry has been raised on the ground of his having been concerned in any heinous offence, whether such offence has been or is being committed within its jurisdiction or outside it,

(iii) any person for whose arrest a requisition has been received from a police office ; provided that the requisition specifies the person to be arrested and the offence or other cause for which the arrest is to be made or it appears therefrom that the person might lawfully be arrested without a warrant by the officer who issued the requisition,

(iv) any person designing to commit any heinous offence of which the Village Authority has knowledge, if the commission of offence cannot otherwise be prevented.

(v) any person who obstructs the Village Authority in the performance of its functions under this Act or rules made thereunder or a police officer while in the execution of his duty, and

(vi) any person who has escaped or attempts to escape, from lawful custody ;

Provided that where a Village Authority is unable to arrest an offender it shall forthwith report the matter to the sub-divisional magistrate who shall provide the Village Authority with such assistance as it requires ;

Provided further that the Village Authority may pursue beyond the local limits of its jurisdiction any person who has committed a heinous offence or is a vagrant or of bad or suspicious character, and arrest such person outside the local limits of its jurisdiction with the consent of the Village Authority within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the person pursued is found ;

(c) it shall give immediate information to the sub-divisional magistrate of every unnatural, suspicious or sudden death which may occur, and of any heinous offence which may be committed, within the local limits of its jurisdiction and shall keep the sub-divisional magistrate informed of all disputes which are likely to lead to a riot or serious affray ; and

(d) it shall supply any information which any police officer or the sub-divisional magistrate or the Deputy Commissioner may require from it.

(2) No person who is arrested under this section shall be detained in custody without being informed, as soon as may be, of the grounds of such arrest.

(3) Every person who is arrested and detained in custody shall be produced before the nearest magistrate within a period of twenty hours of such arrest excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the court of the magistrate and no such person shall be detained in custody beyond the said period without the authority of a magistrate.

Obligation to assist Village
Authorities.

17. (1) Every person shall be bound to render to a Village Authority performing the functions under this Act, all the assistance which he is bound to render to a police officer under section 42 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and every person who refuses or neglects to comply with any requisition for such assistance shall be punishable with fine which may extend to—

(a) two hundred rupees, where the sentence is passed by a village court ; or

(b) five hundred rupees, where the sentence is passed by the court of a sub-divisional magistrate.

(Extract of Section 42 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

42. Public when to assist Magistrates and police.—Every person is bound to assist a Magistrate or police officer reasonably demanding his aid, whether within or without the presidency towns,—

(a) in the taking or preventing the escape of any other person whom such Magistrate or police officer is authorised to arrest ;

(b) in the prevention or suppression of a breach of the peace, or in the prevention of any injury attempted to be committed to any railway, canal, telegraph or public property.)

(2) Against an order passed under sub-section (1) an appeal shall lie—

(a) to the court of sub-divisional magistrate, where the order is passed by a village court ;

(b) to the court of session, where the order is passed by the court of the sub-divisional magistrate, within a period of thirty days from the date of such order or within a such longer period as the appellate court may allow :

Provided that no appeal shall lie in any case in which a village court passes a sentence of fine not exceeding twenty rupees or in any case in which the court of a sub-divisional magistrate passes a sentence of fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Power of
Chief Commissioner to call for records of Village Authorities,
subdivisional magistrate or Deputy Commissioner.

18. The Chief Commissioner may at any time call for and examine the record of any proceeding before a Village Authority, village court, sub-divisional magistrate or Deputy Commissioner under section 17 for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any finding, sentence or order recorded or passed and after perusing the record set aside, modify or confirm such finding, sentence or order ;

Provided that where an order has been made by the court of session in an appeal preferred under sub-section (2) of section 17, the Chief Commissioner shall not interfere with such appellate order.

CHAPTER III

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE BY VILLAGE AUTHORITIES

Constitution
of village
courts.

19. Whenever a Village Authority has been constituted for any village, the Chief Commissioner may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint any two or more of the members of the Village Authority to be a village court during their term of office as members of the Village Authority.

Jurisdiction
of village
courts in criminal cases. ]

20. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the village court shall have jurisdiction concurrent with that of the criminal court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the village is situated for the trial of all offences specified in the Schedule.

How cases may be instituted.

21. (1) A case before a village court may be instituted by a complaint, made orally or in writing to a member of the village court.

(2) If the complaint is made orally, the member shall record the name of the complainant, the name of the person against whom the complaint is made, the nature of the offence and such other particulars, if any, as may be prescribed, and shall direct the complainant to appear before the village court.

Power of village courts to dismiss or refuse to entertain complaint.

22. (1) If upon the face of the complaint, or on examining the complaint, the village court is of opinion that the complaint is frivolous, vexatious or untrue, it shall dismiss the case by order in writing.

(2) If at any time it appears to the village court—

(a) that it has no jurisdiction to try the case, or

(b) that the offence is one for which the sentence which the court is competent to pass would be inadequate, or

(c) that the case is one which should not be tried by the court, it shall direct the complainant to the proper court.

23. If in any case before a village court the complainant fails to appear on the day fixed, or if in the opinion of the court he shows negligence in prosecuting his case, the court may dismiss the case for default, and such order of dismissal shall operate as an acquittal. Dismissal of case for default.

24. (1) If the complaint is not dismissed, the village court shall, subject to the provisions of section 53, by summons or otherwise require the accused to appear and answer the complaint. Proceedings preliminary to trial.

(2) If the accused fails to appear or cannot be found, the court shall report the fact to the nearest magistrate, who may issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused and when arrested may forward him for trial to the village court or release him on bail to appear before it.

(3) The village court shall, if possible, try the case on the day on which the accused appears or is brought before it; but if that is not possible, the village court shall release him on his executing a bond for a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees to appear the court on any subsequent day to which the trial may be adjourned.

5 of 1898.

25. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, there shall be no appeal by a convicted person in any case tried by a village court: Bar to appeal from the order of village courts, but power to order retrial.

Provided that the Deputy Commissioner or the sub-divisional magistrate, if satisfied that a failure of justice has occurred, may, of his own motion or on the application of the parties concerned, cancel or modify any order of conviction or of compensation made by a village court or direct the retrial of any case by a court of competent jurisdiction subordinate to him.

26. (1) A village court shall record its decision in writing and may sentence an offender convicted by it to pay a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees or in default to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month. Power of village courts to impose fine or to award compensation.

(2) When a village court imposes a fine under sub-section (1) it may, when passing the order, direct that whole or any part of the fine recovered shall be applied in payment of compensation for any loss or injury caused by the offence.

(3) When a person has been sentenced to imprisonment under sub-section (1) in default of payment of fine, if such fine be not paid within ten days of the passing of the sentence or within such further time, if any, as the village court may allow, the court may cause him to be arrested and may commit him to the nearest jail to serve his sentence:

45 of 1860.

Provided that notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Penal Code—

(a) the fine imposed by a village court shall not be realised from any person who has served his term of imprisonment under this section;

(b) the person serving his term of imprisonment shall be forthwith released, if the fine is paid before the expiry of the term of imprisonment:

Provided further that no woman shall be sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of fine.

27. When any person is convicted by a village court of an offence punishable under section 26 and no previous conviction is proved against him, if it appears to the said court, regard being had to the age, character and antecedents of the offender and the circumstances in which the offence was committed, that it is expedient— Power of village courts to release certain offenders after admonition or on probation of good conduct.

(a) that the offender should be released after due admonition, the village court may instead of sentencing him to any punishment, release him after due admonition; or

5 of 1898.

(b) that the offender should be released on probation of good conduct, the village court may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, instead of sentencing him at once to any punishment, direct that he be released on his executing a bond for a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees to appear and receive sentence when called upon during such period not exceeding one year as the village court may direct, and in the meantime to keep the peace and be of good behaviour.

5 of 1808.

28. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, the village court may allow the parties to compound any offence tried by it. Power of village court to permit compounding of offences.

29. The Deputy Commissioner or the sub-divisional magistrate either on application made to him in this behalf, or on his own motion, may transfer any case from one village court to another or to any other court subordinate to him. Power to transfer criminal cases.

5 of 1908.

30. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, or in any other law for the time being in force but subject to the provisions of section 31 and section 32, the village court and the ordinary civil court, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the village is situated, shall have concurrent jurisdiction to try the following classes of suits, namely:— Jurisdiction of village courts in civil cases

(a) suits for money due on contracts;

(b) suits for the recovery of movable property or the value of such property;

(c) suits for compensation for wrongfully taking or injuring movable property;

and

(d) suits for damages by cattle trespass;

when the value of the suit does not exceed five hundred rupees.

Certain suits not to be tried by village courts.

31. No suit shall lie in any village court—

- (a) on a balance of partnership account,
- (b) for a share or part of a share under an intestacy or for a legacy or part of a legacy under a will,
- (c) by or against the Government or public officers in their official capacity,
- (d) by or against minors or persons of unsound mind,
- (e) for the assessment, enhancement, reduction, abatement, apportionment, or recovery of rent of immovable property,
- (f) for recovery of immovable property, or
- (g) for enforcement or redemption of a mortgage of immovable property.

Local limits of jurisdiction of village courts.

32. No suit shall lie in any village court, unless at least one of the defendants resides within the local limits of its jurisdiction at the time of the institution of the suit, and the cause of action has arisen wholly or in part within those limits.

How suits may be instituted.

33. (1) A suit before a village court may be instituted by a petition made orally or in writing, and if the petition is made orally, the court shall record such particulars as may be prescribed.

(2) The plaintiff on instituting his suit shall state the value of the claim.

Suits barred by limitation are not triable by village courts.

34. (1) If at any time the village court is of opinion that the suit is barred by limitation, the court shall, by order in writing, dismiss the suit.

(2) If at any time it appears to the village court that it has no jurisdiction to entertain the suit, the court shall direct the plaintiff to the proper court.

Dismissal of suits for default.

35. If in any suit before a village court the plaintiff fails to appear on the date fixed or if in the opinion of the court he shows negligence in prosecuting his suit, the court may dismiss the suit for default :

Provided that a village court may restore a suit dismissed for default, if within thirty days from the date of such dismissal the plaintiff satisfies the court that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed.

Summons to defendants to appear and answer.

36. If on receiving the petition the village court is satisfied that the trial of the suit may be proceeded with, it shall by summons or otherwise require the defendant to appear and answer orally or in writing the claim made in the suit.

Ex parte decision.

37. If the defendant fails to appear and the village court is satisfied that he has received notice of the date fixed for hearing, the court may decide the suit ex parte :

Provided that any defendant against whom a suit has been decided ex parte may, within thirty days from the date executing any processes for enforcement of the decision, apply orally or in writing, to the village court to set aside the order ; and the courts, if satisfied, that the defendant did not receive due notice of the date of hearing or was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed, shall set aside the decision and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

No order to be set aside without notice to opposite party.

38. No decision or order of a village court shall be set aside under section 35 or section 37 unless notice in writing has been served by the village court on the opposite party in the prescribed manner.

Power of village courts to determine necessary parties.

39. (1) Subject to the provisions of clause (c) or clause (d) of section 31 the village court may add as parties to a suit any persons whose presence as parties it considers necessary for the proper decision thereof, and shall enter the names of such parties in the register of suits, and the suit shall be tried as between the parties whose names are entered in the said register;

Provided that when any party is added, notice shall be given to him and he shall be given an opportunity of appearing before the trial of the suit is proceeded with.

(2) In all cases where a new party appears under the sub-section (1) during the trial of a suit, he may require that the trial shall begin de novo.

Certain suits not to be tried by village courts.

40. No village court shall proceed with the trial of a suit in which the matter directly and substantially in dispute is pending for decision in the same court or in any other court in a previously instituted suit between the same parties or between parties under whom they or any of them claim, or has been heard and finally decided in a suit between the same parties, or between parties under whom they or any of them claim.

Decision of village courts.

41. When the parties or their agents have been heard and the evidence on both sides considered, the village court shall, by written order, pass such decree as may seem just, equitable and according to good conscience, stating in the decree the amounts payable as fees under section 45, and the amount, if any, paid to witnesses under section 51 and the persons by whom such amounts are payable.

Instalments.

42. A village court in ordering the payment of a sum of money or the delivery of any movable property may direct that the money be paid or the movable property be delivered, by instalments.

43. The decision of a village court in any suit shall be final as between the parties to the suits.

Provided that the district judge may on application of any party to the suit made within thirty days from the date of the decree of the village court, cancel or modify the decree or order of the village court or direct a retrial of the suit by the same or any other village court or by any other court subordinate to him if he is satisfied that there has been a failure of justice.

44. If the plaintiff or defendant in any suit dies before the suit has been decided, the suit may, subject to the provisions of clause (d) of section 31, be proceeded with at the instance of or against the legal representatives of the deceased plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be. Death of parties.

45. (1) In all suits instituted in a village court a fee of one anna in the rupee shall be payable in advance by the plaintiff on the amount of the claim upto fifty rupees, and of half anna for every rupee of the claim above fifty rupees, and such fees shall not be paid to either party. Fees.

(2) If the claim in the suit is decreed in full, the amount equal to the fee shall be realised from the judgment-debtor together with the amount decreed.

(3) If the claim in a suit is decreed in part, an amount equal to a proportionate part of the fee shall be realised from the judgment-debtor together with the amount decreed.

(4) Any amount realised under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) shall be paid to the decree-holder.

46. (1) If the village court passing a decree is unable to effect satisfaction thereof, it shall grant the decree-holder a certificate to that effect stating that amount due to him on account of the decree and the amount due on account of fees under section 45. Execution of decree.

(2) Any decree-holder wishing to execute a decree of a village court may apply to the court of the munsiff within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the village is situated and shall present with his application a certified copy of the decree of the village court; but no application for execution shall be entertained by the court of the munsiff,—

(a) unless the village court has certified that it is unable to effect satisfaction of the decree, and

(b) unless the application is made after the expiry of three months from the date of the decree.

(3) In executing a decree of the village court the court of the munsiff shall have the same powers and shall follow the same procedure as if it were executing a decree passed by itself.

47. An application for execution of a decree of a village court made after the expiry of three years from the date of the decree or of any order under section 43 modifying any such decree, shall be dismissed, although limitation has not been pleaded; Limitation for execution of decree or order.

Provided that where the application is made for execution of a decree or order to enforce payment of a sum of money or delivery of any movable property which the decree or order directs to be made at a certain date, the application may be made within three years from that date.

RULES UNDER THE MANIPUR (VILLAGE AUTHORITIES IN HILL AREAS) ACT.

Imphal, the 16th December, 1957

No. J/27/54.— Under the provisions of Section 57(1) (2) of the Manipur (Village Authorities in Hill Areas) Act, 1956 (80 of 1956), the Chief Commissioner is pleased to make the following further rules for the conduct and election of members of the Village Authorities, namely :—

- 1. In these rules "the Act" means the Manipur (Village Authorities in Hill Areas) Act, 1956 (80 of 1956).
- 2. The election for Village Authorities shall be held on such date or dates and on such place or places within the village as may be announced by the S.D.O. or if there is no S.D.O., the S.D.C. in charge of the Sub-division within whose jurisdiction the village in respect of which the election shall be held lies. The place or places at which and the dates and hours between which the voters will attend for the purpose of giving their votes shall be notified by means of notice on the Notice Board of the S.D.O. or S.D.C. as the case may be, and also by beat of drum in the village, not less than 3 days before the date of election.
- 3. The election shall be held by the S.D.O. or if there is no S.D.O., the S.D.C. in charge of Sub-division, or by such other officer as may be nominated by him in the notice. Where there is no S.D.O. or S.D.C. in charge of a Sub-division, the function of the S.D.O. or S.D.C. may be performed by the S.D.O. or S.D.C. of the Head Quarters as may be appointed by the Deputy Commissioner.

The officer holding the election under these rules shall be called the Election Officer.

- 4. On the day of election, the Election Officer shall announce the election, by beat of drum and thereafter shall allow one hour's time for the electors to assemble. The proceedings of the election shall commence by the Election Officer explaining the nature and objects of the meeting to the assembled voters.

5. (1) The Electoral rolls prepared for elections to Lok Sabha shall be used for the elections to the Village Authorities

(2) The Election Officer then shall call for objection, if any, about the eligibility of any person to vote. No objection to a voter shall be entertained except on the ground that he is not a person under whose name, as entered in the electoral roll, he claims to vote. Such objection shall be summarily decided by the Election Officer whose decision shall be final.

6. After objections to the eligibility of any voter have been settled in the manner aforesaid, the Election Officer shall then ascertain the names of those present who wish to offer themselves as candidates. Each such candidate shall be supported by at least one of the electors present. The Election Officer shall suo moto or on objection taken by any voters present reject the name of any candidate whom he considers to be disqualified under section 4 of the Act and shall announce the names of the candidates whom he considers to be qualified.

7. The Election Officer shall then proceed to take poll for each candidate recording the number of votes given for each candidate in his own hand.

8. Each voter shall be entitled to vote for as many candidates as there are but shall not give more than one vote for any candidate.

9. All persons wishing to vote must be present at the election. No vote by proxy or in writing shall be received.

10. If the number of qualified candidates is equal to or less than the number of members to be elected, the Election Officer shall at once declare such candidates to be duly elected and shall take steps subsequently for the election of remaining members, if any.

11. If the qualified candidate is in excess of the number of members to be elected, then the Election Officer shall put the name of each of the qualified candidates to vote one by one and require the electors present, who may be desirous of giving their votes, to vote for them in turn by raising their hands. No elector shall raise more than one hand.

12. After the number of votes for each candidate has been recorded, the Election Officer shall then and there declare such candidates as have the largest number of votes to be duly elected. In the case of equal number of votes being recorded in two or more candidates, all of whom cannot be returned, selection shall be made from such candidate by lot in such manner as the Election Officer may deem fit. The candidates thus selected shall be declared duly elected.

13. The Election Officer shall immediately prepare, in his own hand, a list of duly returned candidates together with a return showing the following particulars and forward it to the Deputy Commissioner within a week after the election and the Deputy Commissioner shall forward a copy of the same to the Administrator :

- (a) total number of members required to be elected in the village U/s 3 of the Act.
- (b) total number of electors present, objections, if any, raised against any elector under Rule 5 above and the decision of the Election Officer ;
- (c) number of persons offering as candidates for election, any objection if raised under Rule 6 above and the decision of the Election Officer thereto ;
- (d) total number of votes secured by each candidate whose name has been put to vote ;
- (e) declaration of persons elected and result of lot if any ;
- (f) any other matter which the Election Officer may desire to include in the return.

SECRETARIAT: L.S.G. DEPARTMENT NOTIFICATIONS

Imphal, the 16th July, 1971

No. 3/20/71-Act/L.—In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 57 of the Manipur (Village Authorities in Hill Areas) Act, 1956 (80 of 1956) read with Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs Notification No. F. 1/65/69-HMT dated 26th December, 1969 the Lieutenant Governor (Administrator), Manipur is pleased to make the following rules to further amend the rules of the conduct and election of members of the Village Authorities published in the Manipur Gazette Extra-Ordinary No. 74-E-39 dated 16th December, 1957, namely—

The Manipur Village Authorities in Hill Areas (Conduct and Election of Members (First Amendment) Rules, 1971.

1. Short title and commencement—(1) These rules may be called the Manipur Village Authorities in Hill Areas (Conduct and Election of Members) (First Amendment) Rules, 1971.

(2) These rules shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of Rule 5.—For the existing Rule 5 of the Rules for Conduct and Election of Members of the Village Authorities, the following shall be substituted, namely—

“5 (1) The Electoral rolls prepared for elections to Lok Sabha shall be used for the elections to the Village Authorities.

(2) The Election Officer shall call for objection, if any, about the eligibility of any person to vote. No objection to a vote shall be entertained except on the ground that he is not a person under whose name, as entered in the electoral roll, he claims to vote. Such objection shall be summarily decided by the Election Officer whose decision shall be final”.

Imphal, the 17th July, 1971

No. 3/20/71-Act/L.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of Section 3 of the Manipur (Village Authorities in Hill Areas) Act, 1956 (80 of 1956) read with Government of India, Ministry of Home Affairs Notification No. F. 1/65/69-HMT dated 26th December, 1969, the Lieutenant Governor (Administrator), Manipur is pleased to declare that all the hill villages in Manipur having 20 or more tax paying houses shall have elected village authorities.

By order etc.,

O.P. MEHROTRA,

Secretary (Law) to the Govt. of Manipur.

Published in the Manipur Gazette Extraordinary No. 33-E-19 dt. 20.7.1971.

Extract of para 6 of letter no. 4/2/71 dated the 19th July, 1971 issued by the Chief Secretary to all the Deputy Commissioners, Manipur.

6. A further decision taken is that the Village Authorities in the Hills and the Panchayat in the valley will review all development in the village panchayat area and report to the B.D.C. The Village Authority will automatically be the managing committee for Govt. schools in the village. The Panchayats under the Chairmanship of the Pradhan will elect Managing Committee for each school in the area. These Village Authorities and Panchayats will look after the overall functioning of the schools including absenteeism amongst the staff. They will help to generate peoples' effort to supplement Governmental efforts in construction etc.”

APPENDIX—A

( See entry No. 1 of the Schedule )

Extracts of Sections 24, 26 and 27 of the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871.

24. Penalty for forcibly opposing the seizure of cattle or rescuing the same.

Whoever forcibly opposes the seizure of cattle liable to be seized under this Act, and whoever rescues the same after seizure, either from a pound, or from any person taking or about to take them to a pound, such person being near at hand and acting under the powers conferred by this Act, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months, or with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or with both.

26. Penalty for damage caused to land or crops or public roads by pigs.

Any owner or keeper of pigs who, through neglect or otherwise, damages or causes or permits to be damaged any land, or any crop or produce of land, or any public road, by allowing such pigs to trespass thereon, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be punished with fine not exceeding ten rupees.

The State Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, may from time to time, with respect to any local area specified in the notification, direct that the foregoing portion of this section shall be read as if it had reference to cattle generally, or to cattle of a kind described in the notification, instead of to pigs only, or as if the words “fifty rupees” were substituted for the words “ten rupees”, or as if there were both such reference and such substitution.

27. Penalty on pound-keeper failing to perform duties.

Any pound-keeper releasing or purchasing or delivering cattle contrary to the provisions of section 19, or failing to perform any of the other duties imposed upon him by this Act, shall, over and above any other penalty to which he may be liable, be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Such fines may be recovered by deductions from the pound-keeper's salary.
