CHAPTER—II

Prohibition of liquor.—No person shall—

- (a) transport, import or possess liquor;
- (b) manufacture liquor;
- (c) use or employ any machinery, vessel, implement or apparatus whatsoever for manufacture of liquor.

4. This chapter not to apply to certain articles :—Nothing in this chapter shall apply to—

- (a) any toilet preparation containing alcohol which is unfit for use as liquor.

- (b) any medical preparation containing alcohol which is unfit for use as liquor;
- (c) any antiseptic preparation or solution containing alcohol which is unfit for use as liquor;
- (d) any flavouring extract, essence or syrup containing alcohol which is unfit for use as liquor;
- (e) any manufacture of "Industrial" or "Potable" alcohol from industrial by-product by a duly licensed manufacturing unit where such alcohol is to be used for manufacture of items other than intoxicants or liquor or where such alcohol is for sale outside the State of Manipur.

Provided that such articles corresponds with the description and limitations mentioned in section 32.

Provided further that the purchase, possession or use of any liquor or alcohol for the manufacture of any such article shall not be made or had except under a permit granted under section 15.

Explanation:—Nothing in this section shall be construed to mean that any person may drink any toilet preparation or antiseptic preparation solution, containing alcohol and it is hereby provided that no person shall drink any such preparation.

5. Prohibition of advertisements:—No person shall print or publish in any newspaper, book, leaflet, booklet or any other single or periodical publication or otherwise display or distribute any advertisements of the matter commencing, soliciting the use of, or offering any liquor in the State.

6. Alteration of denatured spirit:—No person shall—

(a) alter or attempt to alter any denatured spirit by dilution with water or by any method whatsoever, with the intention that such spirit may be used for human consumption, whether as a beverage or internally as a medicine or in any other way whatsoever; or

Provided that, the State Government may exempt any class of persons or institutions from paying the whole or any part of the cost of such staff.

23. Commissioner entitled to require permit holder to dispose stocks:— (1) Notwithstanding the fact that the period during which any permit, pass or authorisation is to be in force has not expired, the Commissioner may require the holder thereof to dispose of his stock of liquor denatured spirit or its preparation, before such date as may be specified in the order.

(2) The Commissioner may also require the owner of the stock of any liquor, denatured spirit or its preparation, who does not hold any valid permit, pass or authorisation for such stock to dispose of the said stock before such date as may be specified in the order, and the owner shall comply with the order.

(3) No direction or order under sub-section (1) and (2) shall be made unless the person, likely to be adversely affected by such direction or order is given reasonable opportunity of being heard, and the reasons are recorded in writing by the Commissioner.

CHAPTER—III

24. Prohibition Commissioner—The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint and officer to be called the Prohibition Commissioner who subject to the control of the State Government and subject to such general or special orders as the State Government may from time to time make, shall exercise such powers and shall perform such duties and such functions as are conferred upon, by or under the provisions of this Act and shall superintend the administration and carry out generally the provisions of this Act.

25. Prohibition Officers—To aid the Commissioner in carrying out the provisions of this Act, the State Government may appoint such prohibition officers with such designation, and assign to them such powers, duties and functions under this Act, rules or regulations or orders made thereunder, as may be deemed necessary.

26. Prohibition Council and Committee—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute for the State and for such period as it may deem fit, a State Prohibition Council consisting of two or more officials and non-officials as may be prescribed by the State Government. The State Government may also, by like notification, dissolve or reconstitute any such Council.

(2) The State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, constitute for a district, or part thereof and for such period as it may deem fit, Prohibition committees consisting of two or more officials and non-officials. The Government may also, by like notification, dissolve or reconstitute such Prohibition Committees.

(3) For the purpose of the Act, the State Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint any member of a Prohibition Committee by virtue of office or otherwise to be a Prohibition Officer and the relation of the officer so appointed to the State Prohibition Council shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) The duties to be performed by the State Prohibition Council and Prohibition Committee and the relation between the Council and the Committee shall be as may be prescribed.

27. Control of Commissioner over Prohibition Officers and other officers:— In exercise of their powers and in discharge of their duties and functions under the provisions of this Act or orders made thereunder, all Prohibition Officers and all officers including the officers of the Police and other departments shall, subject to the general or special orders of the State Government be subordinate to and under the control of the Commissioner and shall be bound to follow such orders as the Commissioner may, from time to time make.

28. Delegation:—(1) The State Government may delegate any of the powers exercisable by it under this Act to the Commissioner or such other officer as it deems fit.

(2) Subject to the control and direction of the State Government the powers conferred on the Commissioner or any other officer appointed or invested with powers under this Act may be delegated by him to any of his subordinates.

29. Duty of officers of Government and local authorities to assist:—Every officer of the Government and every officer or servant of a local authority, shall be legally bound to assist any prohibition officer or police officer or person authorised in this behalf in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

31. Investment of powers of officers-in-charge of police station:—(1) The State Government may invest any Officer of the Excise Department not below the rank of Inspector with the Powers of an Officer-in-Charge of a Police Station for the investigation of offences under this Act. This shall however not be construed as limiting the power of police personnel to carry out such investigation.

(2) The State Government may, by notification in the official gazette, specify the division of powers, duties and responsibilities laid down in this Act, between personnel of Police and Excise Departments.

32. Control of manufacture of articles mentioned in section 4:—(1) No manufacture of any of the articles mentioned in section 4 shall sell, use or dispose of any liquor purchased or possessed for the purposes of such manufacture under the provisions of this Act otherwise than as an ingredient of the articles authorised to be manufactured therefrom. No more alcohol shall be used in the manufacture of any of the articles mentioned in section 4 than the quantity necessary for extraction or solution of the elements contained therein and for the preservation of the articles:

Provided that this shall not apply in case of manufacture of any industrial or potable alcohol from industrial by-product mentioned in clause (e) of section 4.

(2) No person shall—

- (a) knowingly sell any article mentioned in section 4 for being used as an intoxicating drink; or
- (b) sell any such article where he has reason to believe that the purchaser may likely use them as intoxicant.

33. Analysis of articles mentioned in section 4:—(1) Whenever the Commissioner has reason to believe that any of the articles mentioned in section 4 does not correspond with the description and limitations provided in section 32 he shall cause an analysis of the said articles to be made and if upon such analysis, it is found that the said articles does not so correspond, he shall give not less than fifteen days notice in writing to the person who is the manufacturer thereof or is known or believed to have imported or obtained such articles, to show cause why the said article should not be dealt with as liquor and such notice may be served personally or by registered post as the Commissioner may determine, and shall specify the time when, place where, and the name of the officer before whom such person is required to appear.

(2) If the person fails to show to the satisfaction of the Commissioner or any other officer so named that the said article corresponds with the description and limitations provided in section 32 the Commissioner may by notification in the State Gazette direct that the said article be dealt with as a liquor and thereupon the provisions of this Act relating to liquor shall apply to that article.

(3) Whenever the Commissioner causes an analysis of an article mentioned in section 4 to be made under sub-section (1) or gives notice thereunder, he may require the person who is the manufacturer thereof or who is known or believed to have imported or obtained such articles, not to sell, distribute or otherwise deal with such articles, or to remove it from any place without the previous permission of the Commissioner, for any period not exceeding three months from the date of such realisation or till the results of the analysis is known and communicated, to him in writing by the Commissioner, whichever is earlier, or as the case may be till such manufacturer or other person satisfies the Commissioner that the article corresponds to the description and conditions provided in Section 32 and thereupon such manufacturer or person shall comply with such requisition during the said period.

34. Issue of warrant: The District Magistrate or, Magistrate of the First Class, or an officer of the Excise or Police Department not below the rank of a Superintendent specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf, may issue a warrant for the arrest of any person whom he has reason to believe to have committed an offence punishable under this Act or the rules thereunder, or for the search whether by day or by night of any buildings, vessel or place in which he has reason to believe that any liquor, material, utensil, implement or apparatus is kept or concealed in respect of which an offence punishable under this Act has been committed.

(2) The Officer to whom a search warrant under sub-section (1) is addressed shall have all the powers of an officer under Section 36.

35. Power of entry and inspection: (1) Any Officer of the Excise Department not below the rank of Assistant Inspector of Excise and any Police Officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector of Police and any person authorised in this behalf by the State Government who has reason to believe, from personal knowledge or from information received from any person that any liquor material, utensil, implement or apparatus is kept or concealed in any building, vessel, or enclosed place, may, between sunrise and sunset,

- (a) enter into any such building, vessel or place;
- (b) when resisted, break open any door and remove any other obstacle to such entry;

- (c) seize such liquor, material, utensil, implement or apparatus, and any document or apparatus, or other articles which may furnish evidence of the commission of the offence;
- (d) detain, search and arrest any person whom he has reason to believe to have committed an offence against this Act relating to such liquor, material, utensil, implement or apparatus,

Provided that if such officer has reason to believe that a search warrant cannot be obtained without affording opportunity for the concealment of evidence or facilitate the escape of an offender, he may, after, recording the grounds of his belief, enter and search such buildings, vessel or enclosed place at any time between sunset and sunrise.

- (2) Where an officer receive any information under sub-section (1), or records grounds for his belief under the proviso thereto he shall forthwith send a copy thereof to his immediate superior officer.

- (b) where, in the case of an offence of illegal import, export or transport, the offender has attempted to import, export or transport any liquor or denatured spirit in contravention of the provisions of this Act, rule, regulation or order, or in breach of a condition of a permit, pass or authorisation, the whole quantity of such liquor or denatured spirit which he has attempted to import, export or transport,
- (c) where, in the case of an offence of illegal sale, the offender has in his lawful possession any liquor, other than that in respect of which an offence has been committed, the whole of such other liquor, shall be confiscated by the order of the Court.

(2) Any receptacle, package or covering in which any of the articles liable to confiscation under sub-section (1) is found and the other contents of such receptacle, package or covering and the animals, carts, vessels or other conveyances used in carrying any such article shall likewise be liable to confiscation by the order of the Court.

67. Return of things liable to confiscation to bona fide owners.—When during the trial of a case for an offence under this Act, the Court decides that anything is liable to confiscation under the foregoing section, the Court may, after hearing the person, if any, claiming any right thereto and the evidence if any, which he produce in support of his claim, order confiscation or in the case of any article other than liquor give the owner an option to pay fine as the court deems fit in lieu of confiscation;

Provided that no animal, cart, vessel, vehicle or other conveyance shall be confiscated if the owner thereof satisfies the court that he had exercised due care in preventing the commission of offence.

68. Proceedings in confiscation.—When an offence under this Act has been committed and the offender is not known or cannot be found or when anything liable to confiscation under this Act is found or seized, the Commissioner, or District Magistrate or any other officer authorized by the State Government in this behalf may make an inquiry and if after such inquiry he is satisfied that an offence has been committed, may order the thing found to be confiscated;

Provided that no such order shall be made before the expiry of one month from the date of seizure, or without hearing the person if any, who claim any right thereto and the evidence, if any, which he produces in support of his claim

69. ~~Power of commissioner etc. to order sale or destruction of article liable to~~ confiscation.—If the thing in question is liable to speedy and natural decay, or if the Commissioner, Court or the officer authorized by the State Government in this behalf, is of the opinion that the sale would be for the benefit of the owner, the Commissioner, Court or the officer may, at any time, direct it to be sold and the provisions of section 23 shall apply so far as may be to the net proceeds of the sale.

Provided that, where anything is liable to speedy and natural decay, or is of little value, the Court or the Officer concerned may order such thing to be destroyed if in its or his opinion such order is expedient in the circumstances

70. Prohibition of publication containing advertisement, soliciting use of force, etc. Where any newspaper, news-sheet, book, leaflet, booklet, or other publication whatsoever printed or published anywhere in the State Government to contain any advertisement soliciting the use of force or any liquor, the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that every copy of such newspaper, news-sheet, book, leaflet, booklet or other publication to be forfeited to the State Government and thereupon any Police Officer may seize the same wherever found in the State. Any Magistrate may, by warrant authorize any Police Officer or below the rank of Sub-Inspector to enter up and search for the same in any premises, where any copy of such issue or any such newspaper, news-sheet, book, leaflet, booklet or other publication may be or may be reasonably suspected to be. Every warrant issued under this section shall be executed in the manner provided for the execution of search warrants under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

(2) The declaration of the State Government under this Section shall be final and shall not be questioned in any Court.

71. Presumption to the commission of offences in certain cases:—(1) In prosecutions under any of the provisions of this Act, it shall be presumed without further evidence that the person is proved that the accused person has committed an offence under this Act in respect of his or her any still, utensil, implement or apparatus, whatsoever for the manufacture of liquor or any materials which have undergone any process, where the manufacture of any liquor has been manufactured, for the possession of which he is unable to account satisfactorily.

(2) Where in any trial for an offence of manufacture of liquor and using a still for such purpose in contravention of the provisions of this Act, it is proved that the accused person was present by the side of the still while it was working or that he was the owner or occupier having the care, wherein such still was used, that the burden of proving that the accused person had not used, or had not abetted in using the still for manufacturing liquor shall be on the accused person and the Court shall, in the absence of such proof presume to the contrary.

72. Compounding of offence:—(1) All offence under this Act may be compounded on receipt of a sum not exceeding rupees ten thousand only on the orders of the prohibition officer with such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed.

(2) No offence shall be compounded if by reason of previous conviction liable either to enhanced punishment, or to punishment of different kind for such offence.

73. Appeals:—(1) All orders passed by a prohibition officer other than the Commissioner under this Act shall be appealable to the Commissioner at any time within sixty days from the date of the order complained of.

(2) All order passed by the Commissioner shall be appealable to the State Government at any time within thirty days from the date of the order complained of:

Provided that no appeal shall lie against an order passed by the Commissioner on appeal.

(3) Subject to the foregoing provisions, the rules which the State Government may make in this behalf shall apply to appeals under this section.

74. Revision:—The State Government may call for and examine the record of any proceeding before any prohibition officer, and may, in relation to the grant or refusal of a permit or authorization for this Act, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the correctness, legality or propriety of any order passed and as to the regularity of any such proceeding, cause a copy of such record, direct that the order be not given effect, to be called for, and may, if it is of the opinion that the records in any such case are incorrect, reverse, or vary or confirm such order, or pass such other order as it may deem fit.

CHAPTER—IV

75. Savings:—All powers, rights and duties given by this Act shall be in addition to and not in derogation of any other powers, rights and duties conferred by any Act, law or other authority, and all such other powers, rights and duties may be exercised and put in force in the same manner by the same authority as if this Act has not been passed.

76. Power of the State Government to make rules:—(1) The State Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, the State Government may make rules:—

- (i) regulating the delegation of any powers by the Commissioner, or by any other prohibition officer;
- (ii) regulating the import, export, transport, collection, sale, purchase, bottling, consumption, use or possession of liquor or denatured spirit or its preparation;
