- (2) Where a Development Plan and regulations are returned to an Appropriate Authority, or, as the case may be, the authorized Officer under clause(ii) of sub-section (1), the Appropriate Authority, or, as the case may be, the authorized Officer, shall carry out the modifications therein as directed by the State Government and submit it to the State Government for sanction.

- (3) Where the State Government has published the modification in a draft Development Plan, the State Government shall, after taking into consideration the suggestions or objections, and thereafter accord sanction to the draft Development Plan and the regulations in such modified form as it may consider fit.
- (4) The sanction accorded under clause (i) or clause (ii) shall be notified by the State Government in the Official Gazette and the draft Development Plan together with the regulations so sanctioned shall be called the final Development Plan.
- (5) The final Development Plan shall come into force on such date as the State Government may specify in the notification issued under sub-section (4).
- (6) After the final Development Plan comes into force, the Appropriate Authority concerned may execute any work for developing, re-developing or improving any area within the area covered by the plan in accordance with the proposals contained in the Development Plan.

19. Acquisition of land.-

- (1) The Appropriate Authority or any other authority for whose purpose land is designated in the final Development Plan for any purpose specified in clause(b), clause(d), clause(f), clause(k), clause(n) or clause(o) of sub- section (2) of section 13, may acquire the land, -
 - (a) By way of assigning Development Rights to the owner against the area of land surrendered free of cost and free from all encumbrances;
 - (b) Under the provisions of the extant Act and rules.
- (2) If the land referred to in sub-section(1) is not acquired by agreement within a period of ten years from the date of the coming into force of the final Development Plan, the owner or any person interested in the land may serve a notice on the Authority concerned requiring it to acquire the land and if within six months from the date of service of such notice the land is not acquired or no steps are commenced for its acquisition, the designation of the land as aforesaid shall be deemed to have lapsed.

20. Review and revision of Development Plan.-

At least once in ten years from the date on which a final Development Plan comes into force, the Appropriate Authority shall carry out a review of the Development Plan and revise it, if necessary, including replacing the same with a new development plan.

Provided that till such time the new plan is notified, the current development plan shall remain in force.

Provided further that town planning schemes within the jurisdiction of the current plan shall also remain to be in force even after the new plan is notified, unless such town planning scheme itself is revised in provision with the law.

- (k) draw in the prescribed form the preliminary and the Final Scheme in accordance with the Draft Scheme:

Provided that the Town Planning Scheme Officer may make modification in the Draft Scheme, but no such modification, if it is of a substantial nature, shall be made except with the previous sanction of the State Government, and except after hearing the Appropriate Authority and any owners who may raise objections.

Explanation-

- (i) For the purpose of this provision "modification of a substantial nature" means a modification which is estimated by the Town Planning Scheme Officer to involve an increase of more than ten percent in the costs of the scheme as is described in section 72 or on account of the provisions of new works or the allotment of additional sites for public purposes included in the Preliminary Scheme drawn up by the Town Planning Scheme Officer;
- (ii) If there is any difference of opinion between the Town Planning Scheme Officer and the Appropriate Authority as to whether a modification made by the Town Planning Scheme Officer is of substantial nature or not, the matter shall be referred by the appropriate authority to the State Government whose decision shall be final

28. Development Rights.-

Development Rights" shall encompass the rights to construct a certain amount of built up area upon a given plot within a planning area. Such rights would be denoted in terms of constructed floor area and may be given to the owner of the land as consideration for encumbrance free land acquired by the Government for any purpose, whether under this Act or any other Act being in force.

Provided that such development rights may be utilized by the person being dispossessed of such land either on the balance land or transferred to another person for use within the same planning area with or without a consideration.

Provided further that the Government may prescribe rules, regulations or directions regarding the issue and utilization of such development rights from time to time.

29. Usage of development rights.-

Any right in an Original Plot which in the opinion of the Town Planning Scheme Officer is capable of being transferred wholly or in part, without prejudice to the making of a Town Planning Scheme, to a Final Plot shall be so transferred and any right in an Original Plot which in the opinion of the Town Planning Scheme Officer is not capable of being so transferred shall be extinguished:

Provided that an Agricultural Lease shall not be transferred from an Original Plot to a Final Plot without the consent of all the parties to such lease.

30. Power of State Government to sanction or refusal thereof to preliminary or final scheme.-

On receipt of the Preliminary Scheme or, as the case may be, the Final Scheme, the State Government may-

- (a) in the case of a Preliminary Scheme, within a period of two months from the date of its receipt, and
- (b) in the case of a Final Scheme, within a period of three months from the date of its receipt,

By notification, sanction the Preliminary Scheme or the Final Scheme, or refuse to give sanction, provided that in sanctioning any such scheme, the State Government may make such modifications, as may, in its opinion, be necessary for the purpose of making necessary corrections in the Town Planning Scheme.

31. Power of State Government to issue directions.-

- (1) The State Government may, if it considers necessary in public interest so to do, give direction to the Chief Town & Country Planner or Municipalities or Government agencies or any Local authority.
 - (i) To frame a development scheme;
 - (ii) To modify a development scheme for reasons to be specified in such direction;
- (2) The directions given by the State Government under this section shall be binding on the Chief Town & Country Planner or Municipalities or Government Agencies or any Local authority.

32. Imposition of restrictions in land use and development.-

As from the date of publication to prepare a development scheme, no person shall, within the area or region included in the scheme, institute or change the use of any land or building or carry out any development scheme in accordance with the development authorized by the Appropriate Authority or the Department in accordance with the provisions of this Act prior to the publication of such declaration.

33. Disposal of land, buildings and development works.-

Notwithstanding any other law in force made in this behalf, the State Government may, by regulation, determine the procedure for the disposal of land, houses, buildings and other structures.

34. Development charges.-

The development charges to be paid from time to time shall be such as may be prescribed.

35. Mode of levy of charges.-

The State Government shall, by rules, determine the method, manner, conditions, and mode of levy, collection of development charges and other fees chargeable under this Act from time to time.

Explanation - Majority means to the extent of seventy five percent of all owners in the scheme area.

48. Apportionment of costs of local area withdrawn or not sanctioned.-

In the event of a Local Area Plan being withdrawn or sanction to a Preliminary Scheme being refused by the State Government, the State Government may direct that the costs to be borne by the Appropriate Authority or be paid to the Appropriate Authority by the owners or people concerned in such proportion as the State Government may in each case determine.

49. Power to amend or alter the Local Area Plan.-

- (1) If at any time after the Local Area Plan comes into force, the Appropriate Authority is of the opinion that anything in the Local Area Plan requires to be amended or altered, the Appropriate Authority may make such a proposal of the variation, by passing a resolution.
- (2) The Appropriate Authority shall, within 21 days from the date of resolution, invite objections and suggestions by publishing the variations in the Official Gazette.
- (3) If within the period specified in sub-section (2) any person communicates in writing to the Appropriate Authority, any suggestions or objections relating to the variations, the Appropriate Authority shall consider such suggestions or objections and then shall submit the same to the State Government along with its opinion on such objections or suggestions.
- (4) In case the State Government is satisfied that the variations submitted by the Appropriate Authority are not substantial, the State Government may sanction as it is or refuse to sanction by publishing a notification in the Official Gazette, otherwise, if the State Government is of the opinion that modifications are required in the proposal of the variation sent by the Appropriate Authority, the State Government shall invite suggestions and objections, published in the Official Gazette, for the modifications it may consider fit.
- (5) The draft modifications shall be open to the inspection of the public at the head office of the Appropriate Authority and at the office of the Deputy Commissioner of the district during office hours.
- (6) Within one month of the date of publication of the draft modification under sub-section (5), any person affected thereby may communicate in writing any objections to such modification to the State Government through the Deputy Commissioner and send a copy thereof to the Appropriate Authority.
- (7) After receiving the objections under sub-section (6), the State Government may, after consulting the Appropriate Authority and after making such an inquiry as it may think fit, by notification-
 - (a) Make the variation with or without modification, or
 - (b) Refuse to make the variation.
- (8) From the date of the notification of making the variation, with or without modification, such a variation shall take effect as it was incorporated in the Local Area Plan.

- (3) The State Government, on receipt of the proposal for development together with the objections of the Department shall, approve the proposals with or without modifications or direct the Officer to make such modifications in the proposals as it considers necessary in the circumstances;
- (4) The decisions of the State Government under sub-section (3) shall be final and binding.

64. Application for permission for development by others.-

- (1) Any person, not being the Union Government, State Government, a Local Authority or any Authority constituted under this Act intending to carry out any development or sub-division on any land, shall make application in writing to the Department for permission, in such form and containing such particulars and accompanied by such documents, design etc. as may be prescribed.
- (2) Such application shall also be accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.
- (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1) or any other provisions of this Act, any person intending to execute a Township Project on any land, may make an application to the State Government, and on receipt of such application the State Government may, after making such inquiry as it may deem fit in that behalf, grant such permission and declare such project to be a Township Project by notification in the Official Gazette or, reject the application.

65. Grant or refusal of permission.-

- (1) On receipt of an application under section 64 the Appropriate Authority may, subject to the provisions of this Act by order in writing -
 - (i) Grant the permission unconditionally;
 - (ii) grant the permission, subject to such conditions as may be deemed necessary under the circumstances; or
 - (iii) refuse the permission.
- (2) Every order granting permission subject to conditions or refusing permission shall state the grounds for imposing such conditions or for such refusal;
- (3) Any permission granted under sub-section (2) shall be communicated to the applicant in such manner as may be prescribed;
- (4) Every order under sub-section (2) shall be communicated to the applicant in such manner as may be prescribed;

- (5) If the Appropriate Authority does not communicate its decision whether to grant or refuse permission to the applicant within six months from the date of receipt of his application, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted to the applicant on the date immediately following the date of expiry of six months.

Provided that in computing the period in between the date of requisitioning any further information of documents from the applicant and date of receipt of such information or documents for the applicant shall be excluded.

66. Appeal.-

- (1) Any applicant aggrieved by an order granting permission on conditions or refusing permission under section 65 may, within thirty days of the date of communication of order to him submit an appeal to Appellate Authority i.e., the Deputy Commissioner of the concerned District in this behalf, and such appeal shall be made in such manner and accompanied by such fees may be prescribed.
- (2) The Appellate Authority shall, after giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant and the Approving Authority to be heard and thereafter, decide to allow the petition made by the appellant as it is or subject to conditions thereof by an order.
- (3) Any order made in sub-section (2) shall be final.

67. Lapse of permission.-

Every permission granted under section 65 shall remain in force for a period of five year from the date of such grant and thereafter is shall lapse.

Provided that such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh permission under this Act.

Provided further that, the Appropriate Authority may, on an application, extend such period from year to year but the total period shall, in no case exceed three years from the date on which the permission was initially granted.

68. Power to revoke or modify permission for development.-

- (1) If it appears to the Appropriate Authority that it is expedient, and the development for which the permission is accorded earlier is detrimental to any of the planning interventions which are in force or under preparation and to any other material considerations or to any other law time being in force, the Appropriate Authority shall by an order specifying the reasons may, revoke or modify or suspend for a specific period, the permission to such an extent it appears to be necessary.
- (2) Where permission is revoked or modified by an order under section (1), and the owner claims before the Appropriate Authority in the expenditure incurred in carrying out the works in respect of the permission granted which has been rendered abortive by the revocation or modification. Provided that, before issuing an order in respect to any claims, the Appropriate Authority shall give the owners and the officers of the authority involved in granting the permission, a reasonable opportunity of being heard.
- (3) If the owner does not accept the amount and gives notice within such time as may be prescribed, of his refusal to accept, the Appropriate Authority shall refer the matter for the adjudication of the court and the decision of the court shall be final and be binding on the owner and the Appropriate Authority.

69. Penalty for unauthorized development or for use otherwise than in conformity with development plan.-

70. Power to require removal of unauthorized development.-

- (1) Without prejudice to any of the provisions in the Act, in respect of any unauthorized development, the Appropriate Authority may, at any time, serve on the owner a notice requiring him, within such period being not less than one month and not exceeding three months as may be specified therein from the date of serving of notice -

- (a) Restore the land to its condition existing before the said development took place;
- (b) to secure compliance with the conditions or with the permission as modified;

Provided that where the notice required the discontinuance of any use of land, it shall be served on the occupier also.

- (2) In particular, such notice may for purpose of sub-section(1) require-

- (a) The demolition or alteration of any building or works;
- (b) The carrying out on land, of any building or other operations; or
- (c) The discontinuance any use of land.

- (3) Any person aggrieved by such notice may within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice and in the manner prescribed, apply to the Appropriate Authority for permission under section 66 of this Act for retention on the land, or any building or works or for the continuance of any use of the land, to which the notice relates and till the time application is disposed off, the notice shall stand withdrawn.

- (4) The foregoing provisions of this chapter shall, so far as may be applicable, apply to an application under sub-section (3).

- (5) If the permission applied for is granted, the notice shall stand withdrawn, but if the permission applied for is not granted, the notice shall stand, or if such permission is granted or the retention only of some buildings or works, or for the continuance of use of only a part of the land, the notice shall stand withdrawn as respects of such buildings or works or other parts of the land, as the case may be; and there upon the owner shall be required to take steps specified in the notice under sub-section (1) as respects to such other buildings or works or part of the land.

- (6) If within the period specified in the notice or within the same period after the notice or so much of it as it stands is not complied with, the Appropriate Authority may -

- (i) prosecute the owner for not complying with the notice and whether the notice requires the discontinuance of any use of land, any other person also who uses the land or causes or permits the land to be used in contravention of the notice, and
 - (ii) where the notice required the demolition or any alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations, itself cause the restorations of the land to its conditions before the development took place and secure the compliance with conditions of the permission or as modified by taking such steps as the Appropriate Authority may consider necessary, including demolition or alteration of any building or works or carrying out of any building or other operations; and recover the amount of any expenses incurred by it in this regard from the owner as arrears of land revenue.
- (7) Any person prosecuted under clause (a) of sub-section (6) shall, on conviction, be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both and in the case of a continuing offence, with further fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees for every day during which the offence continues after conviction for the first commission of the offence.
- (8) the Deputy Commissioner of the concerned District shall by order in writing direct such person to remove any structure or building or work erected, or to discontinue the use of land or development made unauthorized; and any development or construction unauthorized made again, shall be summarily removed or discontinued summarily without making any order as aforesaid.
- (9) Any expenses incurred by under sub-section 8 shall be recovered or met from the person in default or the owner of the land, building or land concerned.
- (10) Any sum or fines due in relation to sub-section 8, which is not paid on demand on the day on which it becomes due or on the day fixed by the Appropriate Authority, a complaint shall be filed to the Deputy Commissioner who shall take action to realize the due or fines in favor of public demands under the Mizoram Public Demands Recoveries Act, 2001.
- (11) No compensation shall be claimed by any defaulter for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the removal of any structure or building or development, or the discontinuance of the use of land or development under sub-section 8.

CHAPTER XI FUNDS AND FINANCE

71. Funds.-

72. Costs of Town Planning Scheme or Local Area Plan.-

- (1) The costs of a Town Planning Scheme or as the case may be the Local Area Plan shall include-
 - (i) all sums payable by the appropriate authority under the provisions of this Act, which are not specifically excluded from the costs of the scheme or the Local Area Plan;
 - (ii) all sums spent or estimated to be spent by the appropriate authority in the making and execution of the scheme or the Local Area Plan:

Provided that the estimates shall be with reference to the period during which, after the sanctioned of Preliminary Scheme under section 27 or the Local Area Plan under section 44, is to be implemented;
 - (iii) all sums payable as compensation for land earmarked or designated for any public purpose or for the purposes of the appropriate authority which is solely beneficial to the owners of land or residents within the area of the scheme or the Local Area Plan;
 - (iv) such portion of the sums payable as compensation for land earmarked or designated for any public purpose or for the purpose of the appropriate authority which is beneficial partly to the owners of land or residents within the area of the scheme or the Local Area Plan from such earmark or designation;
 - (v) all legal expenses incurred by the appropriate authority in the making and in the execution of the scheme or the Local Area Plan;
 - (vi) any amount by which the total amount of the values of the Original Plots exceeds the total amount of the values of the plots included in the Final Scheme or the Local Area Plan, each of such plots being estimated at the value prescribed under the Rules at the date of the declaration of intention to make a scheme or the Local Area Plan, with all the buildings and works thereon at the said date and without reference to improvements contemplated in the scheme or the Local Area Plan other than improvements due to alteration of its boundaries;
 - (vii) twenty percent of the amount of the cost of infrastructure provided in the area adjacent to the area of the scheme, or the Local Area Plan, as is necessary for the purpose of and incidental to the scheme or the Local Area Plan.
- (2) If in any case the total amount of values of the plots included in the Final Scheme or as the case may be the Local Area Plan exceeds the total amount of the values of the Original

Plots, each of such plots being estimated in the manner provided in clause (vi) of sub-section (1), then the amount of such excess shall be deducted in arriving at the costs of the scheme or the Local Area Plan as defined in sub-section (1).

73. Certain amounts to be added to, or deducted from, contribution leviable from a person.-

The amount by which the total value of the plots included in the Final Scheme or as the case may be the Local Area Plan with all the buildings and works thereon allotted to a person falls short of or exceeds the total value of the Original Plots with all the buildings and works thereon of such person shall be deducted from, or, added to, the contribution leviable from such a person, each of such plots being estimated at its market value at the date of declaration of intention to make a scheme or the Local Area Plan or the date of the notification issued by the State Government and without reference to improvements contemplated in the Town Planning Scheme or the Local Area Plan other than improvements due to the alteration of its boundaries.

74. Exclusion of compensation in certain cases.-

- (1) No compensation shall be payable in respect of any property or private right which is alleged to be injuriously affected by reason of any provisions contained in the Town Planning Scheme or the Local Area Plan.
- (2) Any property or private right shall not be deemed to be injuriously affected by reason of any provision inserted in a Town Planning Scheme or the Local Area Plan which imposes any conditions and restrictions in regard to any of the matters specified in clause (o) of section 22 in case of Town Planning Scheme or clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 38 in case of Local Area Plan.

75. Compensation when the Town Planning Scheme or Local Area Plan is varied.-

If at any time after the date on which the scheme or as the case may be the Local Area Plan has come into force, such a scheme or the Local Area Plan is varied, any person who has incurred any expenditure for the purpose of complying with such a scheme or the Local Area Plan shall be entitled to be compensated by the appropriate authority for the expenditure, if such an expenditure is rendered abortive by reason of the modification in the scheme or as the case may be the Local Area Plan.

76. Compensation in respect of property or right injuriously affected by the Town Planning Scheme or the Local Area Plan.-

- (1) The owner of any property or right which is injuriously affected by the making of a Town Planning Scheme or as the case may be the Local Area Plan shall, if such owner makes a claim before the Town Planning Scheme Officer within the prescribed time, be entitled to be compensated in respect thereof by the appropriate authority or by any person benefited or partly by the appropriate authority and partly by such a person as the Town Planning Scheme Officer may in each case determine:
