(2) Copies of the annual report and the annual accounts shall be sent to Government and the Government shall place them before the State Legislature.

CHAPTER VI

SELECTION COMMITTEES

Constitution of Selection Committee.

34. (1) The Chancellor shall, in consultation with the Board, constitute from time to time, separate Selection Committees for the purpose of selection of candidates for recruitment to the posts of —

- (a) Professors, Associate Professors, Assistant Professors, Workshop superintendent and Readers;
- (b) Lecturers and other posts not being of non-teaching staff.

(2) The Selection Committee shall consist of such members as may be prescribed by Statutes.

(3) No person shall be directly recruited as teacher of the University, except on the recommendation of the concerned Selection Committee constituted under sub-section (1).

(4) The quorum for a meeting of a Selection Committee shall be such as may be prescribed by Statutes subject to the condition that the quorum shall include at least one subject expert and a nominee of Government.

(5) The procedure to be followed by each Selection Committee for selection of candidates shall be such as may be prescribed by Statutes.

(6) Where an oral test is proposed to be conducted by the Selection Committee, it may invite, where it is considered necessary, any person or persons with expert knowledge in particular subject to assist the Selection Committee at the interview but such person or persons shall not be entitled to award marks.

(7) The selection lists prepared by the Selection Committee shall be published in the Notice Board of the University.

(8) The selection list published under sub-section (7) shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date of such publication and all vacancies occurred prior to preparation of such selection list shall be filled up from such list.

(9) Where the Board proposes to make an appointment otherwise than in accordance with the order of merit arranged by the Selection Committee, it shall record its reasons therefor in writing and submit them to the Chancellor who may approve the proposal or return it to the Board for reconsideration.

(10) After reconsideration in pursuance of sub-section (9) if the Board desires to pursue its original proposal, it shall refer the matter again to the Chancellor for his decision and the decision of the Chancellor thereon shall be final.

(11) The Chancellor shall have the power to give directions to the Vice-Chancellor to cancel any appointment not made in accordance with the provisions of this section:

Provided that before giving a direction under this sub-section, the Chancellor shall give to the person so appointed a reasonable opportunity to show cause as to why such direction should not be given and shall consider his explanations and objections, if any.

(12) If at any time it is disclosed that a person has, while applying for appointment to any post under the University, made any false statement or declaration before the Selection Committee or in any application submitted by him or has produced any false document, his appointment shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, be cancelled by the Vice-Chancellor:

Provided that before cancelling any such appointment, the Vice-Chancellor shall give to the person, so appointed, a reasonable opportunity to show cause as to why the appointment should not be cancelled and shall consider his explanations and objections, if any.

CHAPTER VII

FILLING UP VACANCIES, REMOVAL ETC. OF MEMBERS OF THE AUTHORITIES OF THE UNIVERSITY

Vacancy not to invalidate the proceedings, etc. of authorities.

35. No act or proceedings of the Board, Academic Council or any other authorities of the University shall be invalid merely by reason of any vacancy existing in the authority performing the act or passing the proceedings.

Filling up casual vacancies.

36. All vacancies arising by reason of death, resignation or otherwise among the members of any of the authorities of the University, who were nominated or elected, shall be filled up as soon as convenient may be, by nomination or election, as the case may be, and any person so nominated or elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of his predecessor in office.

Resignation and removal of members.

37. (1) Any member of any authority of the University may resign from his office by a letter addressed to the Registrar and the resignation shall take effect from the date of receipt of the letter by the Registrar.

(2) The Vice-Chancellor may, on the recommendation of the Board, remove the name of any person, convicted by a court of law of any offence involving moral delinquency or punished by the University for malpractice connected with any University examination, from membership of any authority of the University and for the same reason may withdraw any degree or diploma conferred or granted by the University.

(3) The Vice-Chancellor may, on the recommendation of the Board, also remove any person from the membership of any authority of the University if he becomes mentally unsound or a deaf-mute or has applied to be adjudicated or has been adjudicated as insolvent.

(4) If a member of any authority of the University who is not an ex-officio member fails to attend three consecutive meetings of that authority, he shall cease to be a member of such authority, and thereupon the Registrar shall intimate him that he has ceased to be such member :

Provided that such authority may, if satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the failure of the member to attend the meetings, restore him to its membership with an intimation to the Registrar.

CHAPTER VIII

MISCELLANEOUS

Protection of acts and orders.

38. No suit or legal proceeding shall be instituted against, or damage claimed from, the University or its authorities or officers, for anything which is, in good faith, done or intended to be done, or for any order passed in good faith, in pursuance of this Act, the Statutes, Regulations or the Rules.

Question regarding interpretation and dispute regarding constitution of authority.

39. (1) If any question arises regarding the interpretation of any provision of this Act or any Statutes or as to whether a person has been duly appointed or nominated or is entitled to be a member of any authority of the University, the matter may be referred to the Chancellor.

(2) The Chancellor shall, after taking such advice as deemed necessary, decide the question and such decision thereon shall be final.

Registrar to forward copies of proceedings to Government.

40. The Registrar shall forward to the Government copies of the proceedings of every meeting of the Board and the Academic Council within two months of the meeting.

Powers of Government to cause inspection of University.

41. (1) The Government shall have the right to cause inspection, to be made by such person or persons as it may direct, of the University, its buildings, laboratories, libraries, museums, workshops and equipments or any institution maintained by the University and also of the work conducted by the University, and to cause enquiry to be made in respect of any matter connected with the University.

(2) The Government shall, before taking any action under subsection (1), give notice to the University of its intention to cause such inspection or enquiry to be made and the University shall be entitled to be represented thereat.

(3) The Government shall communicate to the Board the result of any inspection or inquiry made under sub-section (1) and may, after ascertaining the opinion of the Board thereon, convey its views to the Vice-Chancellor and to the Board.

(4) The Government may, after considering the views of the Vice-Chancellor and the Board on the result of any inspection or inquiry made under sub-section (1), advise the University upon the action to be taken in the matter.

(5) The Board shall report to Government the action, if any, which is proposed to be taken or has been taken upon the result of any inspection or inquiry made under sub-section (1).

(6) A report under sub-section (5) shall be submitted to Government with the opinion of the Board thereon within such time as the Government may direct.

(7) Where the Board does not, within a reasonable time, take any action referred to in sub-section (4) to the satisfaction of the Government, the Government may, after considering any explanation furnished by the Board in the matter, issue such directions as it may think fit and the Board shall comply with such directions.

Appointment
Commission.

42. (1) The Government may, at any time, and shall, on the expiry of five years from the commencement of this Act and thereafter at the expiration of every five years, by an order published in the Gazette, constitute a Commission which shall consist of a Chairman and such other members not exceeding five as the Government may appoint, and such order shall define the procedure to be followed by the Commission.

(2) The Commission constituted under sub-section (1) shall inquire into, and make a report on—

- (i) the working of the University with special reference to quality and relevance of courses of studies and instructions;
- (ii) the financial position of the University;
- (iii) the suitability of the provisions of this Act or the Statutes, Regulations and Rules with a view to bringing about improvements in the affairs of the University; and
- (iv) such other matters as may be referred to it by the Government and make such recommendations to the Government as it thinks fit.

(3) On receipt of the report and the recommendations of the Commission under sub-section (2), the Government shall forthwith refer such report and recommendations to the Board for consideration and report.

Pension, insurance
and
fund.

43. With the previous approval of Government, the University may make appropriate provisions for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees under its control in the matters of pension, insurance and provident fund and for such other benefits as it may deem fit, in such manner as may be prescribed by Statutes.

Removal of difficulties.

44. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the State Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made under this section after the expiry of two years from the commencement of this Act.

Exclusion of jurisdiction of Biju Pattnaik
University
of Technology, Orissa.

45. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 50 of the Biju Pattnaik University of Technology Act, 2002, the geographical area of the Veer Surendra Sai University of Technology established under this Act shall stand excluded from the jurisdiction of the Biju Pattnaik University of Technology, Orissa, from the date of issue of notification under sub-section (1) of section 3 of this Act.

Orissa Act
9 of 2002.

By order of the Governor

B. K. NAYAK

Principal Secretary to Government
