2 Section 9 as amended Punjab by Act No. 25 of 1958, substituted by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 7.
Provided that Government may allow an establishment attached to a factory to observe such opening and closing hours as the Government may direct.]

10. (1) Save as otherwise provided by this Act, every establishment shall remain closed on every Sunday:

Provided that, in the case of an establishment attached to a factory, the employer may substitute the close day of such establishment so as to correspond to the substituted close day of the factory in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as are laid down in this behalf in the Factories Act, 1948:

[Provided further that Government may by notification fix any other day to be the close day in respect of any class of establishments for the whole of the State or any part thereof].

(ii) The employer of an establishment shall in the prescribed form intimate to the prescribed authority the 2[the working hours, the day in a week referred to in clause (b) of section 11], and the period of interval of the employed persons within fifteen days of the date of registration of the establishment.

(ii) The employer of an establishment may change the working hours and the period of interval once in a quarter of the year by giving intimation in the prescribed form to the prescribed authority at least fifteen days before the change is to take place.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in subsection (1), the employer of an establishment may open his establishment on the close day if—

(a) such day happens to coincide with a festival; and

(b) employees required to work on that day are paid remuneration at double the rate of their normal wages calculated by the hour.

1 Second proviso added by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 8.
2 Substituted for the words “working hours” by ibid.
11. No employee shall be allowed or required to work—

(a) on a close day, in any establishment which is required to observe a close day; and
(b) on one day in a week, in any other establishment;

1[(c) before the opening hour of the establishment and after the closing hour of the establishment:]

Provided that a watchman may be allowed or required to work on an off day under this section if he is allowed another off day in the week.

12. Every employee in an establishment shall be allowed—

(a) a holiday with wages on the Independence Day, Republic Day and Mahatma Gandhi's Birthday; and
(b) three other holidays with wages in a year in connection with such festivals as Government may declare from time to time by notification:

Provided that an employee required to work on any such holiday shall be paid remuneration at double the rate of his normal wages calculated by the hour.

13. (1) Within the period specified in sub-section (3), the employer of every establishment shall send to the prescribed authority concerned a statement in the prescribed form containing—

(a) the name of the employer and the manager, if any;
(b) postal address of the establishment;
(c) the name, if any, of the establishment;
(d) number of persons employed;
(e) such other particulars as may be prescribed;

1 New Clause (c) added by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 9.
2 Substituted by ibid, section 10.
(2) (i) On receipt of the statement, the authority shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement, register the establishment in the register of establishments in such a manner as may be prescribed and shall issue in a prescribed form a registration certificate to the employer. The registration certificate shall, on demand by the Inspector, be shown to him by the employer.

(ii) The registration certificate shall be renewable by the 31st March every year. Thirty days' grace time shall, however, be allowed for the renewal of the certificate.

(3) Within thirty days from the date mentioned in column 2 below in respect of the establishment in column 1, the statement shall be sent to the prescribed authority under sub-section (1).

(4) It shall be the duty of the employer to notify to the prescribed authority in the prescribed form any change in respect of any information contained in his statement under this section within seven days after the change has taken place. The authority shall on receiving such notice and on being satisfied about its correctness, make the change in the register of establishments in accordance with such notice and shall amend the registration certificate, if necessary.

(5) The employer shall, within ten days of his closing the establishment, notify to the prescribed authority in writing accordingly. The authority shall, receiving the information and being satisfied about the correctness, remove the name of such establishment from the register of establishments and cancel the registration certificate.
14. (1) [(a) Every employee who has been in employment for not less than twenty days in a year shall be entitled to one day's earned leave for every such twenty days:]

Provided that a young person shall be entitled to one day's earned leave for every fifteen days of employment during the year.]

(b) If an employee is discharged or dismissed from or leaves service during the course of the year he shall be entitled to leave with wages or wage in lieu of unavailed leave at the rates laid down in clause (a).

(c) In calculating leave under this section, fraction of half a day or more shall be treated as one day's leave and fraction of less than half a day shall be ignored.

(d) If an employee does not in any one year take the whole of the leave allowed to him under clause (a), any leave not taken by him shall be added to the leave to be allowed to him in the succeeding year:

Provided that—

(i) subject to any specific agreement between the employer and the employee the total number of days of leave that may be carried forward to a succeeding year shall not exceed forty in the case of a young person or thirty in any other case;

(ii) the provisions of this section shall not operate to the prejudice of any rights to which an employee may be entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service;

(iii) where such award, agreement or contract of service provides for a longer leave with wages or weekly holidays than those provided under this section, the employee shall be entitled to only such longer leave or weekly holidays as the case may be.

1 Substituted by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 11.
2 The words "even if he has not worked for the entire period specified in the said clause entitling him to earned leave" omitted by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 11.
(2) Leave provided in clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall, when applied for, be granted except for a valid reason to be communicated in writing by the employer to the employee within fifteen days of the application:

Provided that the leave so refused shall, if applied for again be allowed during the year.

(3) (a) For the purpose of computing the period during which an employee has been in employment within the meaning of sub-section (1) (a), the period during which he was on leave [under this section and the off days in a week referred to in section 11], shall be included.

(b) The unavailed leave of an employee shall not be taken into consideration in computing the period of any notice required to be given before discharging, removal or dismissal.

[(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing sub-sections, every employee in an establishment shall be allowed with wages seven days casual leave and seven days sick leave in a year.]

15. [(1) Any person employed in or about an establishment for a period of fifteen days or more shall receive, for every off day in a week referred to in section 11, wages at the rate of not less than the average daily wages earned by him for the days on which he worked during the week immediately preceding every such off day.]

(2) For the leave allowed to him under section 14, an employee shall be paid at the rate of equal to the daily average of his total full time earnings for the days on which he worked during the month immediately preceding his leave, exclusive of any overtime and bonus but inclusive of dearness allowance and the cash equivalent of the advantage accruing through the concessional sale to the employee of foodgrains and other articles.

1 Substituted for the words "under this section" by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 11.
2 Substituted by ibid.
3 Substituted by ibid, section 12.
(3) An employee who has been allowed leave for not less than five days in the case of a young person and four days in any other case shall, on demand before his leave begins, be paid the wages due for the period of leave allowed.

16. (1) Every person responsible for the payment of wages to an employee shall fix a period in respect of which such wages shall be payable.

(2) No wage period shall exceed one month.

(3) The wages of every person employed shall be paid before the expiry of the seventh day from the date on which the wages became due.

(4) Where the employment of any person is terminated by or on behalf of the employer the wages earned by him and the remuneration in lieu of unavailed period of due leave shall be paid before the expiry of the second working day after such termination and where an employee quits his employment on or before the next pay day:

Provided that no claim under this section shall be entertained unless it is preferred within six months from the date of its accruing except under special circumstances at the discretion of the Chief Inspector of Shops and Commercial Establishments, Punjab.

17. The wages of an employee shall be paid to him without deductions of any kind except those authorised by or under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, in so far as such deductions are applicable to the employee and in such manner, to such extent and subject to such conditions as are specified in that Act.

18. (1) In case of contravention of the provisions of section 16, if a [Judicial Magistrate] is satisfied that the employee has not been paid his due wages, he shall direct the employer to pay the wages along with compensation not exceeding eight times the amount of wages withheld.

(2) The amount of wages withheld and compensation payable under this section shall for the purposes of its recovery be deemed to be a fine imposed under this Act in addition to the penalty imposed under section 26 and shall be realised as such.

19. (1) Government may, by notification, appoint such persons or such class of persons as it thinks fit to be inspecting officers for the purposes of this Act within such local limits as it may assign to them, respectively.

(2) Subject to any rules made by Government in this behalf, an inspecting officer may, within the local limits for which he is appointed —

(a) enter at all reasonable times and with such assistants, if any, being persons in the service of Government or of any local authority as he thinks fit, any place which is or which he has reason to believe to be an establishment;

(b) make such examination of the premises and of any prescribed registers, records and notices and take on the spot or otherwise evidence of any person as he may deem necessary for carrying out purposes of this Act;

(c) exercise such other powers as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of this Act:

Provided that no one shall be required under this section to answer any question or give any evidence tending to incriminate him.

(3) Every inspecting officer appointed under this section shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

20. (1) The employer of every establishment shall in the prescribed form and manner, keep exhibited in the establishment a notice setting forth the close day, the working hours and the period of interval of employed persons, if any, and such other particulars as may be prescribed.
(2) The employer of any establishment, about the business of which persons are employed, shall in the prescribed form and manner, keep a record of the working hours, rest intervals and the amount of leave taken by every person employed about the business of an establishment and particulars of all overtime employment shall be separately entered in the record. ¹ x x x

²[(2A) The employer of every establishment, about the business of which persons are employed, shall mark the attendance of every employee in the register maintained for the purpose within one hour of the start of duty and in the case of overtime every entry regarding the commencement or closure of overtime shall respectively be made before or after such commencement or closure.]

(3) The employer of every establishment shall keep a photograph of each employee who has completed three months continuous service in the establishment:

Provided that where such employee fails to supply such photograph to the employer within fifteen days of the completion of such service, his failure so to do shall be recorded by the employer under the signatures of the employee.

(4) The employer of every establishment shall for the purposes of this Act maintain such other records and registers and display such other notices as may be prescribed.

(5) In the case of any contravention of the foregoing provisions of this section, the employer of an establishment shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding five rupees for every day on which the contravention occurs or continues.

(6) If any person with intent to deceive makes or causes or allows to be made, in any such record, register or notice as aforesaid an entry which is to his knowledge false in any material particular, or wilfully omits or causes or allows to be omitted from any such record, register, or notice an entry required to be made therein, he shall be liable, on conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine which shall not be less than twenty-five rupees and may extend to two hundred rupees or both.

21. (1) It shall be the duty of every employer of an establishment to make available for inspection of such officer, as may be prescribed, all accounts or other records required to be kept for the purposes of this Act and to give to such officer any other information in connection therewith as may be required.

(2) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) or wilfully obstructs the inspecting authority in the exercise of the powers under this Act or conceals or prevents any employee in an establishment from appearing before or being examined by the authority, shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine which shall not be less than twenty-five rupees and may extend to two hundred rupees.

22. (1) No employee shall be removed from service unless and until one month’s previous notice or pay in lieu thereof has been given to him:

Provided that —

(a) no employee shall be entitled to the notice or pay in lieu thereof if he is removed on account of misconduct established on record;

(b) No employee shall be entitled to one month’s notice or notice pay unless and until he has been in the service of the employer continuously for a period of three months.

(2) In any case instituted for a contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), if a Judicial Magistrate is satisfied that an employee has been removed without reasonable cause, the Judicial Magistrate shall, for reasons to be recorded in writing, award compensation to the employee equivalent to two month’s salary:

1 Substituted for the word “Magistrate” by Punjab Act 25 of 1964.
Provided that no such claim shall be entertained unless it is preferred by the employee within six months from the date of his removal.

(3) The amount payable as compensation under this section shall be in addition to, [1]and recoverable as] fine payable under section 26.

(4) No person who has been awarded compensation under this section shall be entitled to bring a civil suit in respect of the same claim.

23. (1) No employee, who has been in the service of the employer continuously for a period of three months, shall terminate his employment unless he has given to his employer seven days’ previous notice or pay in lieu thereof.

(2) Where an employee contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), his employer may forfeit his unpaid wages for a period not exceeding seven days.

24. [  *  *  *  ]

25. Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, it shall not be lawful in any locality to carry on in any place not being an establishment, retail trade or business of any class at any time if it is unlawful in that locality to keep an establishment open for the purpose of such retail trade or business, and, if any person carries on any trade or business in contravention of this section, this Act shall apply as if he were the employer of the establishment which was being kept open in contravention of this Act.

26. Subject to the other provisions of this Act whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this Act, or the rules made thereunder and no penalty has been provided for such contravention in this Act, shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees for the first offence, and three hundred rupees for every subsequent offence:

1 Substituted for the words “or recoverable as” by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964, section 14.
2 Omitted by ibid, section 15.
Provided that the fine in respect of every subsequent offence within the same year shall not be less than one hundred rupees in any case.

27. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any public servant or any other person in the service of the Central or State Government, acting under direction of any such public servant, for anything in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or of any rule made thereunder.

28. 1[Government or any officer empowered by the Government in this behalf may], by notification in the official Gazette, exempt from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this Act for any period it considers desirable any establishment or any class thereof or any employer or employee or class of employers or employees to whom this Act applies on such condition as it may think fit.

29. No child who has not completed the age of fourteen years shall be employed in any establishment.

30. (j) No woman shall be required or allowed to work whether as an employee or otherwise in any establishment during night:

2[Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to an establishment which is engaged in the treatment or care of the sick, the infirm, the destitute or the mentally unfit.]

(2) No employer of any establishment shall knowingly employ a woman and no woman shall engage in employment in any establishment during six weeks following the day of her confinement or miscarriage.

(3) Government may prescribe further conditions in respect of employment of women employed about the business of establishments or any class of them, including if it thinks fit, conditions with respect to the daily

2 Proviso added by Punjab Act No. I of 1964, section 17.
period of employment leave and other matters and no woman shall be employed otherwise than in accordance with these conditions.

31. (1) Every woman employed in an establishment who has been continuously employed in that establishment or in establishments belonging to the employer of that establishment for a period of not less than six months preceding the date of her delivery shall be entitled to receive, and the employer shall be liable to make to her, a payment of a maternity benefit which shall be prescribed by the Government for every day during the six weeks immediately preceding and including the day of her delivery and for each day of the six weeks, following her delivery:

Provided that no such payment shall be made for any day on which she attends work and receives payment therefor during the six weeks preceding her delivery.

(2) The manner in which the maternity benefit shall be payable may be prescribed by the Government.

32. Notwithstanding anything contained in the law relating to legal practitioners for the time being in force, no legal practitioner shall be permitted to appear, plead or act for the employer or the employee in any proceedings, before a court between an employer and an employee, arising out of the contravention of any of the provisions of this Act.

33. Nothing in this Act shall affect any rights or privileges to which an employee in any establishment is entitled on the date this Act comes into force, under any other law, contract, custom or usage applicable to such establishment or any award, settlement or agreement binding on the employer and the employee in such establishment, if such rights or privileges are more favourable to him than those to which he would be entitled under this Act.

33A. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act or any rule made thereunder or of the abetment of, or attempt to commit, such offence, save on a complaint made by the employee concerned or by such officer as may be authorised in writing in this behalf by the Government.

1 New section 33-A inserted by Punjab Act No. 1 of 1964. section 18.
34. (1) Government may make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:

(a) the manner and form in which the registers and notices shall be kept;
(b) the officers who may be empowered to inspect registers and call for information as required by this Act;
(c) the agency by which and the manner in which the prosecution shall be instituted;
(d) the form of submitting a statement, the particulars under sub-section (1) of section 13, the manner in which registration of establishments is to be made and the form of registration certificate under sub-section (2) and the form for notifying a change under sub-section (4) of section 13;
(e) the authority to and the manner in which any notice required by this Act, shall be given;
(f) the conditions subject to which any exemption under this Act may be granted;
(g) the manner in which the employer of an establishment shall keep exhibited in the premises the close day, closing and opening hours and such other particulars as may be prescribed; and
(h) to safeguard health, safety, and welfare of the employees while on duty.

(3) All rules made under this section shall, as soon as possible after they are made, be laid before the State Legislature.

35. The Punjab Trade Employees Act, 1940, is hereby repealed:

2 The words "both Houses" of " omitted by Adaptation of Punjab Laws Orders 1970.
Provided that —

(a) every appointment, order, rule, bye-law, regulation, notification or notice made, issued or given under the provisions of the Act so repealed shall in so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been made, issued or given under the provisions of this Act, unless and until superseded by any other appointment, order, rule, by-laws, regulation, notification or notice made, issued or given under this Act;

(b) any proceeding relating to the trial of any offence punishable under the provisions of the Act so repealed, shall be continued and completed as if the said Act has not been repealed, but has continued in operation, and any penalty imposed in such proceeding shall be recovered under the Act so repealed.
