CHAPTER V Miscellaneous

23. Liability of Chairman, Vice-Chairman and members for removal from office.

– (1) Every Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall, after an opportunity of being heard is afforded to him, be removed from his office as such Chairman and Vice-Chairman by the Government for misconduct in the discharge of his duties or for neglect of or incapacity to perform his duties or for making persistent defaults in the discharge of his duties and the Chairman and Vice-Chairman so removed who does not cease to be a member under clause (b) of sub-section (2) shall not be eligible for re-election as Chairman and Vice-Chairman during the remainder of his term of office as member of the market committee.

(2)(a) The Government may if it thinks fit on the recommendation of the market committee or on any complaint or for other sufficient reason and after giving him an opportunity of being heard and after such enquiry as it deems necessary, remove a member of the market committee, if such member, in the opinion of the Government has been guilty of misconduct in the discharge of his duties or of any disgraceful conduct, or has become incapable of performing his duties as a member or does anything against the interest of the market committee.

(b) When under sub-section (1) any person is removed from office of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman for misconduct in the discharge of his duties, he shall, from the date of such removal cease to be a member and shall be deemed to have been removed from the membership of the market committee also.

24. Personal liability of members for loss or mis-applications. –Every member of the market committee shall be personally liable for the loss or mis-application of any portion of the fund, if he shall have been a party to such loss or misapplication or if the same shall have happened through, or been facilitated by gross neglect of his duty as such member and may be sued for the recovery of the sum of money so lost or misapplied as if such sum of money had been the property of the State Government.

25. Duty of officers and members of committee to furnish information. – When the affairs of a market committee are investigated for the proceedings of such committee are examined by the Director under section 39, all officers and members of such committee shall furnish such information in their possession in regard to the affairs of the committee as the director may require.

26. Power to enforce attendance etc. – The Director while investigating the affairs of a market committee or examining the proceedings of such committee under section 25, shall have power to summon and enforce the attendance of officers or members of the market committee and to compel them to give evidence and to produce documents by the same means and as far as possible in the same manner as is provided in the case of a civil court by the code of civil procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908)

27. Supersession of market committee. – (1) If, in the opinion of the State Government, a market committee is not competent to perform or persistently makes default in performing the duties imposed on it by or under this Act or abuses its powers, the State Government may by notification in the official gazette supersede such market committee.

Provided that, before issuing a notification under this sub-section, the State Government shall give a reasonable opportunity to the market committee for showing cause why it should not be superseded and shall consider the explanation and objections, if any, of the market committee.

(2) Upon the publication of a notification under sub-section (1) superseding a market committee, the following consequences shall ensue –

- i. All the members as well as the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the market committee shall, as from the date of such publication, be deemed to have vacated their offices;

- ii. The State Government may, in its discretion, by order either constitute a new market committee under section 7 or make such arrangements for carrying out of the functions of the market committee as it thinks fit for a period of six months in a time but not exceeding eighteen months in aggregate and before the expiry of the said period of the said period of eighteen months a new market committee shall be constituted under section 7.
- iii. All the assets vesting in the market committee shall, subject to all its liabilities, vest in the State Government.

(3) If the State Government makes an order under clause(ii) of sub-section(2), it shall transfer the assets and liabilities of the market committee, as on the date of such transfer, to the new market committee constituted under section 7 or to the person or persons ,if any, appointed for carrying out the functions of the market committee, as the case may be.

(4) If the State Government does not make such an order, it shall transfer all the assets of the market committee, which remain after the satisfaction of all its liabilities, to the local authority within whose jurisdiction the market area for which the market committee was constituted, is situated or, if there are more than one such authority to each of such authorities such portion of the assets as the State Government may determine.

(5) A local authority to which assets of market committee have been transferred under sub-section(4) shall utilise such assets for such object in the area within its jurisdiction as the State Government considers to be for the benefits of the agriculturists in that area.

27-A. Appointment of an Administrator. –(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or rules, if at any time it appears to the Government that on account of a decision or order of a competent court, a market committee has not been validly constituted under this Act or that it is disabled from functioning or the term of the market committee has expired or if the total number of vacancies exceeds one-third of the [total number of elected members] of the elected market committee or the market committee is otherwise not competent to function, the Government may by notification, cause all or any powers and duties of the market committee to be exercised and performed by such officer, in such manner and for such period and subject to such conditions as it may, by notification direct.

(2) If a market committee is unable to function on account of any of the reasons specified in sub-section(1), it shall be the duty of the secretary and the director to bring the matter to the notice of the Government as early as possible and to take effective measure to hold all the properties of the market committee in trust till Action under sub-section(1) is taken by the Government.

(3) All the powers and duties of the market committee exercised and performed bona fide till the date of the notification referred to in sub-section(1), by the persons who constituted such market committee, shall be deemed to have been validly exercised and performed by the said persons; and shall not be deemed to be invalid or called in question on the ground merely that they were not members of a validly constituted market committee.

27-B. Power of entry and search. – (1) The secretary of the market committee or any officer authorised by the Government in this behalf may-

- (a) For carrying out any of the duties imposed on the market committee under this Act, inspect at all reasonable times, all accounts, registers and other documents pertaining to the purchase and sale of notified agricultural produce and enter any shop, godown, factory or other place where such account books or registers or documents or such goods are being kept and taken and cause to be taken such copies or extracts from the account books, registers and other documents inspected as may be considered necessary;
