[TAMIL NADU] ACT No. V OF 1920. 2

[THE 1(TAMIL NADU) DISTRICT MUNICIPALITIES ACT, 1920]

(Received the assent of the Governor on the 5th May 1920, and that of the Governor-General on the 15th June 1920; the assent of the Governor-General was first published in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 19th June 1920.)

An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to District Municipalities.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to district municipalities in the [State of Tamil Nadu] and whereas the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained under section 79 of the Government of India Act, 1915, to the passing of this Act; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1 These words were substituted for the word “Madras” by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969, which came into force on the 14th January 1969.

2 For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Fort St. George Gazette, Extraordinary, dated the 3rd November 1919, pages 168-170; for Report of Select Committee, see Fort St. George Gazette, Part IV, dated the 10th February 1920, pages 87-97; for Proceedings in Council, see ibid, 1919, Part IV, dated the 23rd December 1919, pages 1370-1378; ibid, Part IV, dated the 6th January 1920, pages 2-11; ibid, Part IV, dated the 11th May 1920, pages 491-526; ibid, Part IV, dated the 18th May 1920, pages 528-606; ibid, 1920, Part IV, dated the 1st June 1920, pages 608-652; and ibid, Part IV, dated the 8th June 1920, pages 654-690.

This Act was extended to the merged State of Pudukkottai by section 3 of, and the First Schedule to, the Tamil Nadu Merged States (Laws) Act, 1949 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXV of 1949).

This Act was extended to the transferred territory comprising the Kanyakumari district and the Shencottah taluk of the Tirunelveli district with effect on and from the date of the commencement of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Extension to the Transferred Territory) Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 4 of 1959) by section 3 of the said Act.

3 This expression was substituted for the expression “Presidency of Madras” by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1970, which was deemed to have come into force on the 14th January 1969.
PART I.

CHAPTER I.—PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be called the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920.

2 [2] It extends to the whole of the [State of Tamil Nadu] except the City of Madras.

2. The enactments mentioned in Schedule I are repealed to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof.

3. In this Act unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

1 This paragraph was substituted for the first paragraph in sub-section (1) of section 8 by section 3 (i) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1968 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1968).

2 These words were substituted for the words "three years" by section 36 (1) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1971).

The term of office of the councillors of municipal councils holding office as such on the date of commencement of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1971) and those elected after the said date to any newly constituted or reconstituted municipal council was extended up to the noon of the first day of May 1974 by section 40 of the said Act. The above extension was subsequently made applicable to the councillors holding office as such, and elected after, the date of publication of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Amendment Act, 1974 (Tamil Nadu Act 11 of 1974) by section 3 of the said Act. The said term was extended up to the first day of August 1974 by the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Second Amendment Act, 1974 (Tamil Nadu Act 19 of 1974). Extension of the said term up to the first day of November 1974 was again sanctioned by the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Third Amendment Act, 1974 (Tamil Nadu Act 40 of 1974).

3 This proviso was added by section 14 (i) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1962 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1962).

4 These words were substituted for the words "three months" by section 36 (2) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1971).
Ordinary vacancies in the office of councillors shall be filled at ordinary elections which shall, subject to the approval of the State Government, be fixed by the election authority to take place on such days within three months before the occurrence of the vacancies as he thinks fit:

Provided that the State Government may, for sufficient cause, direct or permit the holding of any ordinary election after the occurrence of the vacancy.

A councillor elected at an ordinary election held after the occurrence of a vacancy shall enter upon office forthwith but shall hold office only so long as he would have been entitled to hold office if he had been elected before the occurrence of the vacancy:

Provided that no casual election shall be held to fill a vacancy occurring within six months before the date of retirement by efflux of time and that such vacancy shall be filled at the next ordinary election.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the State Government may, for sufficient cause, direct from time to time the postponement or alteration of the date of an ordinary or casual election or any stage of any such election.

1\(^{2}\) (40-A. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a motion expressing want of confidence in the chairman or in the vice-chairman may be made in accordance with the procedure laid down herein.

(2) Written notice of intention to make the motion, in such form as may be fixed by the [State Government], signed by such number of councillors as shall constitute not less than one-half of the sanctioned strength of the council, together with a copy of the motion which is proposed to be made, shall be delivered by any two of the councillors signing the notice in person together, to the Revenue Divisional Officer.

(3) The Revenue Divisional Officer shall then convene a meeting for the consideration of the motion, to be held at the municipal office, at a time appointed by him which shall not be later than thirty days from the date on which the notice under sub-section (2) was delivered to him. He shall give to the councillors notice of not less than fifteen clear days of such meeting and of the time appointed therefor.

(4) The Revenue Divisional Officer shall preside at the meeting convened under this section, and no other person shall preside thereat. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the Revenue Divisional Officer is not present to preside at the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a time to be appointed and notified to the councillors by the Revenue Divisional Officer under subsection (5).

(5) If the Revenue Divisional Officer is unable to preside at the meeting, he may, after recording his reasons in writing, adjourn the meeting to such other time as he may appoint. The date so appointed shall not be later than thirty days from the date appointed for the meeting under sub-section (3). Notice of not less than seven clear days shall be given to the councillors of the time appointed for the adjourned meeting.

(6) Save as provided in sub-sections (4) and (5), a meeting convened for the purpose of considering a motion under this section, shall not for any reason be adjourned.

(7) As soon as the meeting convened under this section has commenced, the Revenue Divisional Officer shall read to the council the motion for the consideration of which it has been convened, and declare it to be open for debate.

(8) No debate on any motion under this section shall be adjourned.

(9) Such debate shall automatically terminate on the expiry of two hours from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, if it is not concluded earlier. Upon the conclusion of the debate or upon the expiry of the said period of two hours, as the case may be, the motion shall be put to the vote of the council.

(10) The Revenue Divisional Officer shall not speak on the merits of the motion, nor shall he be entitled to vote thereon.
(11) A copy of the minutes of the meeting together with a copy of the motion and the result of the voting thereon shall forthwith on the termination of the meeting be forwarded by the Revenue Divisional Officer to the State Government.

(12) If the motion is carried with the support of not less than three-fifths of the sanctioned strength of the council, the State Government shall, by notification, remove the chairman or vice-chairman as the case may be.

(13) If the motion is not carried by such a majority as aforesaid, or if the meeting cannot be held for want of a quorum, no notice of any subsequent motion expressing want of confidence in the same chairman or vice-chairman shall be received until after the expiry of six months from the date of the meeting.

person visiting the polling station for the poll, or so as to interfere with the work of the officers and other persons on duty at the polling station.

(2) Any person who contravenes, or wilfully aids or abets the contravention of, the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months or with fine or with both.

(3) If the polling officer of a polling station has reason to believe that any person is committing or has committed an offence punishable under this section, he may direct any police officer to arrest such person, and thereupon the police officer shall arrest him.

(4) Any police officer may take such steps, and use such force, as may be reasonably necessary for preventing any contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), and may seize any apparatus used for such contravention.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression "polling officer" means the polling officer of a polling station or if there is a presiding officer at the polling station, such presiding officer.

Penalty for misconduct at the polling station.

156-1 (1) Any person who during the hours fixed for the poll at any polling station misconducts himself or fails to obey the lawful directions of the polling officer may be removed from the polling station by the polling officer or by any police officer on duty or by any person authorized in this behalf by such polling officer.

(2) The powers conferred by sub-section (1) shall not be exercised so as to prevent any elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that polling station.
(3) If any person who has been so removed from a polling station re-enters the polling station without the permission of the polling officer, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine or with both.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (3) shall be cognizable.

Explanation.—In this section, the expression ‘polling officer’ has the same meaning as in section 56-H.

56-J. (1) No candidate or his agent or any other person with the consent of a candidate or his agent shall hire or procure whether on payment or otherwise any vehicle, or vessel for the conveyance of any elector (other than the candidate himself, the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station:

Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall apply to—

(a) the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by an elector or several electors at their joint costs for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from the polling station, if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power; and

(b) the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any railway carriage by any elector at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from the polling station.

Explanation.—In this sub-section the expression ‘vehicle’ means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

1 Sections 56-A to 56-N were inserted by section 18 of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1962 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1962).
(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) at or in connection with an election shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.

56-K. (1) If any person to whom this section applies is without reasonable cause guilty of any act or omission in breach of his official duty, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(2) No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against any such person for damages in respect of any such act or omission as aforesaid.

(3) The persons to whom this section applies are the returning officers, assistant returning officers, presiding officers, polling officers and any other person appointed to perform any duty in connection with the receipt of nominations or withdrawal of candidatures, or the recording or counting of votes at an election; and the expression 'official duty' shall for the purposes of this section be construed accordingly, but shall not include duties imposed otherwise than by or under this act.

56-L. (1) Any person who at any election fraudulently takes, or attempts to take, a ballot paper out of a polling station, or wilfully aids or abets the doing of any such act, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

(2) If the presiding officer of a polling station has reason to believe that any person is committing or has committed an offence punishable under sub-section (1), such officer may, before such person leaves the polling station, arrest or direct a police officer to arrest such person and may search such person or cause him to be searched by a police officer:

Provided that when it is necessary to cause a woman to be searched, the search shall be made by another woman with strict regard to decency.

(3) Any ballot paper found upon the person arrested on search shall be made over for safe custody to a police officer by the presiding officer, or when the search is made by a police officer, shall be kept by such officer in safe custody.

(4) An offence punishable under sub-section (1) shall be cognizable.

156 -M. (1) No person at an election shall—

(a) fraudulently deface or fraudulently destroy any nomination paper; or

(b) fraudulently deface, destroy or remove any list, notice or other document affixed by or under the authority of a returning officer; or

(c) fraudulently deface or fraudulently destroy any ballot paper or the official mark on any ballot paper; or

(d) without due authority supply any ballot paper to any person or receive any ballot paper from any person or be in possession of any ballot paper; or

(e) fraudulently put into any ballot box anything other than the ballot paper which he is authorized by law to put in; or

(f) without due authority destroy, take, open or otherwise interfere with any ballot box or ballot papers then in use for the purposes of the election; or

(g) fraudulently or without due authority, as the case may be, attempt to do any of the foregoing acts or wilfully aid or abet the doing of any such acts.

1Sections 56-A to 56-N were inserted by section 11 of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1962 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1962)
(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall—

(a) if he is a returning officer or an assistant returning officer or a presiding officer at a polling station or any other officer or clerk employed on official duty in connection with the election, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine or with both;

(b) if he is any other person, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine or with both.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to be on official duty if his duty is to take part in the conduct of an election or part of an election including the counting of votes or to be responsible after an election for the used ballot papers and other documents in connection with such election, but the expression ‘official duty’ shall not include any duty imposed otherwise than by or under this Act.

(4) An offence punishable under clause (b) of sub-section (2) shall be cognizable.

156-N. No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under section 56-F or under section 56-K or under clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 56-M except on complaint in writing made by order of, or under authority from the State Government.

Every person convicted of an offence punishable under section 56, 56-A, 56-B, 56-C, 56-D, 56-E, 56-F, 56-G, 56-H, 56-I, 56-J, 56-K, 56-L or 56-M\(^1\) or under Chapter IX-A of the Indian Penal Code shall be disqualified from voting or from being elected in any election to which this Act applies or from holding the office of municipal councillor for a period of five years from the date of his conviction.\(^2\)

Provided that no vehicle, vessel or animal which is being lawfully used by a candidate or his agent for any purpose connected with the election of such candidate shall be requisitioned under this sub-section until the completion of the poll at such election.

(2) The requisition shall be effected by an order in writing addressed to the person deemed by the State Government to be the owner or person in possession of the property, and such order shall be served on the person to whom it is addressed.

(3) Whenever any property is requisitioned under sub-section (1), the period of such requisition shall not extend beyond the period for which such property is required for any of the purposes mentioned in that sub-section.

(4) In this section—

(a) "premises" means any land, building or part of a building and includes a hut, shed or other structure or any part thereof;

(b) "vehicle" means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport, whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise.

the fair rent payable for the premises under that Act;

(ii) if in consequence of the requisition of the premises the person interested is compelled to change his residence or place of business, the reasonable expenses (if any) incidental to such change:

Provided that where any person interested, being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined, makes an application to the State Government within one month from the date of service of the order determining the compensation for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government may determine:

Provided further that where there is any dispute as to the title to receive the compensation or as to the apportionment of the amount of compensation, it shall be referred by the State Government to an arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government for determination, and shall be determined in accordance with the decision of such arbitrator.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, the expression "person interested" means the person who was in actual possession of the premises requisitioned under section 60-A immediately before the requisition, or where no person was in such actual possession, the owner of such premises.

(2) Whenever in pursuance of section-60-A the State Government requisition any vehicle, vessel or animal, there shall be paid by the municipal council to the owner thereof compensation the amount of which shall be determined by the State Government on the basis of the fares or rates prevailing in the locality for the hire of such vehicle, vessel or animal:

Provided that where the owner of such vehicle, vessel or animal, being aggrieved by the amount of compensation so determined, makes an application to the State Government within one month from the date of service of the order determining the compensation for referring the matter to an arbitrator, the amount of compensation to be paid shall be such as the arbitrator appointed in this behalf by the State Government may determine:

Provided further that where immediately before the requisitioning the vehicle or vessel was by virtue of a hire purchase agreement in the possession of a person other than the owner, the amount determined under this sub-section as the total compensation payable in respect of the requisition shall be apportioned between that person and the owner in such manner as they may agree upon, and in default of agreement, in such manner as an arbitrator appointed by the State Government in this behalf may decide.

160-C. The State Government may, with a view to requisitioning any property under section 60-A or determining the compensation payable under section 60-B, by order, require any person to furnish to such authority as may be specified in the order such information in his possession relating to such property as may be so specified.

160-D. (1) Any person authorised in this behalf by the State Government may enter into and inspect such premises and any vehicle, vessel or animal therein for the purpose of determining whether, and if so in what manner, an order under section 60-A should be made in relation to such premises, vehicle, vessel or animal or with a view to securing compliance with any order made under that section.

(2) In this section, the expressions "premises" and "vehicle" have the same meanings as in section 60-A.

1 Sections 60-A to 60-H were inserted by section 20 of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1962 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1952).
160-E. (1) Any person remaining in possession of any requisitioned premises in contravention of any order made under section 60-A may be summarily evicted from the premises by any officer empowered by the State Government in this behalf.

(2) Any officer so empowered may, after giving to any woman not appearing in public reasonable warning and facility to withdraw, remove or open any lock or bolt or break open any door of any building or do any other act necessary for effecting such eviction.

160-F. (1) When any premises requisitioned under section 60-A are to be released from requisition, the possession thereof shall be delivered to the person from whom possession was taken at the time when the premises were requisitioned, or if there were no such person, to the person deemed by the State Government to be the owner of such premises, and such delivery of possession shall be a full discharge of the State Government from all liabilities in respect of such delivery, but shall not prejudice any rights in respect of the premises which any other person may be entitled by due process of law to enforce against the person to whom possession of the premises is so delivered.

(2) Where the person to whom possession of any premises requisitioned under section 60-A is to be given under sub-section (1) cannot be found or is not readily ascertainable or has no agent or any other person empowered to accept delivery on his behalf, the State Government shall cause a notice declaring that such premises are released from requisition to be affixed on some conspicuous part of such premises and publish the notice in the Official Gazette.

1 Sections 60-A to 60-H were inserted by section 20 of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1962 (Tamil Nadu Act 10 of 1962).
(3) When a notice referred to in sub-section (2) is published in the Official Gazette, the premises specified in such notice shall cease to be subject to requisition on and from the date of such publication and be deemed to have been delivered to the person entitled to possession thereof, and the State Government shall not be liable for any compensation or other claim in respect of such premises for any period after the said date.

160-G. The State Government may, by notification, direct that any powers conferred or any duty imposed on the State Government by any of the provisions of sections 60-A to 60-F shall, under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged by such officer or class of officers as may be so specified.

160-H. If any person contravenes any order made under section 60-A or section 60-C, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine or with both.

With the sanction of the council or in accordance with regulations framed by that body, the executive authority may compound, for any period not exceeding one year, with any livery-stable keeper or other person keeping carriages and animals for sale or hire, for a certain sum to be paid in lieu of the carriage and animal tax.

102. (1) The executive authority shall send to every person supposed to have become liable to the payment of the [tax on carriages and animals] a printed able to be filled up with such information respecting the carriages and animals kept [or used] by him as the executive authority considers necessary for the assessment of the tax.

(2) Such table shall be filled up with such information in writing, and signed and dated, and returned within one week of its receipt to the municipal office by the person to whom it has been sent.

(3) On the expiry of the period of one week referred to in sub-section (2), the executive authority shall cause a notice to be served on such person requiring him to pay within fifteen days of the date of such service the sum for which, in the opinion of the executive authority, such person is liable on account of the tax on carriages and animals.

Note: This section was added by section 79 (ii) of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X) of 1930.)

The proviso was omitted by section 8 (iii) of the Madras District Municipalities (Third Amendment) Act, 1942 (Madras Act XXXVIII of 1942) re-enacted permanently with specified modifications by section 3 of, and the Schedule to, the Tamil Nadu Re-enacting (No. III) Act, 1948 (Tamil Nadu Act IX of 1948).

PART IV—PUBLIC HEALTH—SAFETY AND CONVENIENCE.

CHAPTER VII.—WATER-SUPPLY, LIGHTING AND DRAINAGE.

Water-supply—Vesting of works and powers of municipal authorities.

125. (1) All public water-courses and springs and all public reservoirs, tanks, cisterns, fountains, wells, stand-pipes, and other water-works existing at the time of the coming into force of this Act or afterwards made, laid or erected, and whether made, laid or erected at the cost of the municipal council or otherwise, and also any adjacent land (not being private property) appertaining thereto shall vest in the council and be subject to its control:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to any work which is, or is connected with, a work of irrigation or to any adjacent land appertaining to any such work.

(2) The [State Government] may by notification limit or define such control or may assume the administration of any public source of water-supply and public land adjacent and appertaining thereto after consulting the municipal council and giving due regard to its objections, if any.

126. (1) The municipal council may, with the sanction of the [State Government] direct the construction of such works as it deems fit without the limits of the municipality for supplying it with water and may provide channels, tanks, reservoirs, cisterns, engines, mains, wells, fountains, stand-pipes, and other works as it may deem fit within the said limits for the use of the inhabitants.

1 This proviso was added by section 7 of the Madras District Municipalities (Second Amendment) Act, 1934 (Madras Act IV of 1935).

2 The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
(2) The council may cause existing works for the supply of water to be maintained and supplied with water, or it may close any such works and substitute other such works and may cause them to be maintained and supplied with water.

127. It shall not be lawful for any person except with permission duly given and obtained to enter upon land belonging to or vested in a municipal council along which a conduit or pipe runs, or upon any premises connected with the water-supply.

128. (1) Without the permission of the council no building, wall or other structure shall be newly erected and no street or railway shall be constructed over any municipal water mains.

(2) If any building, wall or other structure be so erected or any street or railway be so constructed, the council may cause the same to be removed or otherwise dealt with as shall appear to it fit and the expenses thereby incurred shall be paid by the persons offending.

Supply for domestic use.

129. The municipal council shall, so far as the funds at its disposal may admit, provide a sufficient supply of water fit for the domestic use of the inhabitants.

130. All house-connexions, whether within or without the premises to which they belong, with any water-supply mains which may have been constructed by a municipal council shall be under the control of the council, but shall be altered, repaired and kept in proper order, at the expense of the owner of the premises to which they belong or for the use of which they were constructed, and in conformity with by-laws and regulations framed by the council in this behalf.
131. (1) In municipalities in which there is a pipe supply of water, the [executive authority], may at his discretion on application by the owner or occupier of any building, arrange, in accordance with the by-laws, to supply water thereto for domestic consumption and use:

Provided that the [executive authority] shall not without the sanction of the council, agree to supply water to any building assessed at an annual value of less than one hundred and twenty rupees.

(2) Whenever it appears to the [executive authority] that any dwelling-house assessed at an annual value of not less than two hundred rupees is without a proper supply of water for domestic consumption and use and that such a supply can be furnished from a main not more than one hundred feet distant from any part of such building, the [executive authority] may by notice require the owner to obtain such supply and to execute all such works as may be necessary for that purpose in accordance with the by-laws and regulations.

(3) The cost of making the connexion and the cost or hire of meters shall be borne by the owner or applicant and shall be recoverable in the same manner as the property tax.

Explanation.—Supply of water for domestic consumption and use shall not be deemed to include a supply—

(a) for any trade, manufacture or business,
(b) for gardens or for purposes of irrigation,
(c) for building purposes,
(d) for fountains, swimming baths, public baths [these words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XXVII of 1933).]

2 The words "ranks in or near temples and mosques" were omitted by section 2 (a) of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1936 (Tamil Nadu Act XXIII of 1936).
(e) for animals, or for washing vehicles, where such animals or vehicles are kept for sale or hire;

but shall be deemed to include a supply—

(a) for flushing latrines,

(b) for all baths other than swimming baths or public baths,

(c) for the consumption and use of inmates of hotels, boarding-houses and the like and for baths used by such inmates.

Private water-supply for non-domestic purposes.

The [executive authority] may at his discretion supply water for any purpose other than domestic consumption and use on receiving a written application specifying the purpose for which such a supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.

Payment for water.

For all water supplied under section 131 or under section 132, payment shall be made on such basis, at such times, and on such conditions as may be laid down in the by-laws made by the council, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as the property tax.

Sub-section (4) was omitted by section 2 (b) of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1936 (Tamil Nadu Act XXIII of 1936).

Sub-section (2) of section 132 was omitted and sub-section (1) was renumbered as section 132 by section 3, ibid.

These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).

This heading and section 132-A were inserted by section 4 of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1936 (Tamil Nadu Act XXIII of 1936).
(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such by-laws may—

(a) in cases of supply for domestic consumption and use, lay down the maximum free allowance to be made and the rates of charge to be levied in respect of water supplied in excess of such allowance; and

(b) in cases of supply whether for domestic consumption and use or for other purposes, or any class of such cases, lay down that the charge for water supplied shall be based on the number of taps allowed, irrespective of the quantity of water consumed.]

Supply beyond limits of municipality.

133. The council may with the sanction of and on such terms (if any) as may be approved by the [State without the Government] supply water to a local authority or other person without the municipality.

Cutting off water-supply.

134. (1) The [executive authority] may cut off the supply of municipal water from any premises—

(a) if the premises are unoccupied;

(b) if any water-tax or any sum due for water for the cost of making a connexion or for the cost or hire of a meter or for the cost of carrying out any work or test connected with the water-supply which is chargeable to any person by or under this Act, is not paid within fifteen days after a bill for such tax or sum has been presented;

(c) if, after receipt of a notice from the [executive authority] requiring him to refrain from so doing, the owner or occupier continues to use the water or to permit it to be used in contravention of any by-law made under this Act;

1 The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

2 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(d) if the owner or occupier neglects within a period specified in any notice issued by the [executive authority] under any by-law made under this Act to put up a meter or to comply with any other lawful order or requisition;

(e) if the owner or occupier wilfully or negligently damages his meter or any pipe or tap conveying municipal water;

(f) if the occupier refuses to admit the [executive authority] into premises which he proposes to enter for the purpose of executing any work or of placing or removing any apparatus or of making any examination or inquiry in connexion with the water-supply, or prevents the [executive authority] doing such work, placing or removing such apparatus or making such examination or inquiry;

(g) if any pipes, taps, works or fittings connected with the municipal water-supply are found on examination by the [executive authority] to be out of repair to such an extent as to cause waste or contamination of water;

(h) if the owner or occupier causes pipes, taps, works or fittings connected with the municipal water-supply to be placed, removed, repaired or otherwise interfered with in violation of the by-laws:

Provided that in cases under sub-clauses (e), (f), (g) and (h) the [executive authority] shall not take action unless notice of not less than twenty-four hours has been given to the owner or occupier of the premises.

(2) The expense of cutting off the supply shall be paid by the owner or occupier of the premises.

These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(3) In cases under clause (b) as soon as any money for non-payment of which water has been cut off together with the expense of cutting off the supply, has been paid by the owner or occupier, the [executive authority] shall cause water to be supplied as before on payment of the cost (if any) of reconnecting the premises with the municipal water-works.

(4) No action taken under this section shall relieve any person from any penalties or liabilities which he may otherwise have incurred.

135. The municipal council shall not be liable to any penalty or damages for cutting off the supply of water or for not supplying water (save in the case of reduction expressed stipulation in an agreement for the supply of water for other than domestic purposes) in the case of any drought, or other unavoidable cause or cases, accident, or the necessity for relaying or repairing pipes.

Lighting.

136. The municipal council shall, so far as the funds at its disposal permit, cause the public streets to be lighted and for that purpose shall provide such lamps and works as it thinks necessary.

Public drainage.

137. The municipal council shall, so far as the funds at its disposal may admit, provide and maintain a sufficient system of public drains.

Private drainage.

138. All house-drains whether within or without the control premises to which they belong and all private latrines and cess-pools within the municipality shall be under the control of the municipal council but shall be altered, repaired, cleansed, and kept in proper order.

at the expense of the owner of the premises to which the same belong or for the use of which they were constructed, and in conformity with by-laws and regulations framed by the council in this behalf.

139. (1) The 1[executive authority] shall on application by the owner or occupier of any premises or the owner of a private street arranged, in accordance with the by-laws, for the connexion of the applicant's drain with any public drain at a distance not exceeding three hundred feet therefore at the applicant's expense.

(2) If there is a public drain or outfall within a distance not exceeding one hundred feet of the nearest point on any premises 2[or if within such distance a public drain or outfall is about to be provided or is in the process of construction] the 1[executive authority] may by notice direct the owner of the said premises to construct a drain leading therefrom to such drain or place of outfall, and to execute all such works as may be necessary in accordance with the by-laws and regulations at such owner's expense.

(3) If any premises are in the opinion of the 1[executive authority] without sufficient means of effective drainage, but no part thereof is situated within one hundred feet of a public drain or its place of outfall, the 1[executive authority] may by notice direct the owner of the said premises to construct a cess-pool or septic tank or filters of such material, dimensions and description, in such position and at such level as the [executive authority] thinks necessary, and to construct a drain or drains emptying into such cess-pool, tank or filters and to execute all such works as may be necessary in accordance with the by-laws and regulations:

Provided that—

(a) no requisition shall be made under this section on any person who has been exempted from payment of the property tax under \(^1\) [sub-section (5) of section 83];

(b) no person shall be required under this section to expend a sum exceeding five times the property tax on any such building, with the land assessed with it as part of the same premises, or in the case of buildings exempted under section 83, five times the property tax which would be payable on such building with the land which would be assessed with it to the property tax if such building were not exempt and if any amount exceeding the said sum is expended, the excess shall be borne by the council.

140. (1) Where a drain connecting any premises with a public drain or other place set apart by the municipal council for the discharge of drainage is sufficient for the effectual drainage thereof and is otherwise unobjectionable, but is not, in the opinion of the \(^2\) [executive authority] adapted to the general drainage system of the municipality or of the part of the municipality in which such drain is situated, the \(^2\) [executive authority] with the approval of the council may—

(a) subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) close, discontinue or destroy the said drain and do any work necessary for that purpose; or

(b) direct that such drain shall, from such date as he specifies in this behalf, be used for sullage and sewage only, or for water unpolluted with sullage or sewage only, and by notice require the owner of the premises to make, at his own expense, an entirely distinct drain for water unpolluted with sullage or sewage, or for sullage and sewage.

141. (1) When the "[executive authority]" is of opinion that any group or block of premises, any part of which is situated within one hundred feet of a municipal drain already existing, or "[about to be provided or in the process of construction]" may be drained more economically or advantageously in combination than separately, the "[executive authority]" may, with the approval of the council, cause such group or block of premises to be drained by such method as appears to the "[executive authority]" to be best suited therefor and the expenses incurred by the "[executive authority]" in so doing shall be paid by the owners in such proportions as the council may decide.

(2) Not less than fifteen days before any work under this section is commenced, the "[executive authority]" shall give notice to the owners of—

(a) the nature of the intended work,
(b) the estimated expenses thereof, and
(c) the proportion of such expenses payable by each owner.

(3) The owners for the time being of the several premises constituting a group or block drained under sub-section (1) shall be the joint owners of every drain.

constructed, erected or fixed, or continued for the special use and benefit only of such premises and shall in the proportion in which it is determined that they are to contribute to the expenses incurred by the [executive authority] under sub-section (1), be responsible for the expense of maintaining every such drain in good repair and efficient condition.

142. (1) Without the permission of the council Building, no person shall place or construct any fence, building, culvert, drain-covering, drain or other structure or any street, railway or cable over, under, in or across any public drain, or stop up, divert, obstruct or in any way interfere with any public drain, whether it passes through public or private ground.

(2) The [executive authority] may remove or otherwise deal with anything placed or constructed in contravention of sub-section (1) as he shall think fit and the cost of so doing shall be recoverable from the owner thereof in the manner provided in section 344.

143. (1) The [executive authority] may by notice require the owner or occupier of any building or land adjoining a public street to construct culverts or drain-coverings over the side-channels or ditches at the entrances to the said building or land.

(2) All culverts or drain-coverings or pials maintained over side-channels or ditches by the owners or occupiers of adjacent buildings or lands shall be of such form and size and consist of such materials and be provided with such means of ventilation as the [executive authority] may by notice require and shall be maintained and kept free from all obstructions at the expense of the said owners or occupiers.

same owner from the construction or improvement of any other public street at or about the same time that the public street, on account of which the compensation is paid, is closed.

165. (1) The council may acquire—

(a) any land required for the purpose of opening, widening, extending, or otherwise improving any public street, or of making any new public street, and the buildings, if any, standing upon such land; and

(b) any land outside the proposed street alignment, with the buildings, if any, standing thereupon:

Provided that, in any case in which it is decided to acquire any land under clause (b) of this sub-section, the owner of such land may retain it by paying to the municipal council an annual sum to be fixed by the council in that behalf, or a lump sum to be fixed by the council, not being less than twenty-five times such annual sum and subject to such conditions as the council thinks fit as to the removal of the existing building, if any, the description of the new building (if any) to be erected, the period within which the new building (if any) shall be completed and any other similar matters.

(2) If any sum payable in pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (1) in respect of any land be not duly paid, it shall be recoverable in the manner provided by this Act for the collection of taxes, and if not so recovered, the executive authority may enter upon the land, and sell it, with any erections standing thereon, by public auction subject to the conditions, if any, imposed under sub-section (1) above and may deduct the said sum and the expenses of the sale from the proceeds of the sale and shall pay the balance (if any) to the defendant.

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(3) Any sum paid in pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (1) or recovered under sub-section (2) in respect of any land shall be left out of account in determining the annual value of such land for the purpose of assessing it to the property tax.

(4) Any land or building acquired under sub-section (1), clause (b), may be sold, leased or otherwise disposed of after public advertisement, and any conveyance made for that purpose may comprise such conditions as the council thinks fit as to the removal of the existing building, if any, the description of the new building (if any) to be erected, the period within which the new building (if any) shall be completed and any other similar matters.

(5) The council may require any person to whom any land or building is transferred under sub-section (4) to comply with any conditions comprised in the said conveyance before it places him in possession of the land or building.

166. The council may—

(a) prescribe for any public street a building line or a street alignment or both;

(b) from time to time define a fresh line in substitution for any line so defined or for any part thereof:

Provided that in either case—

(i) at least one month before the meeting of the council at which the matter is decided, public notice of the proposal has been given and special notice thereof has also been put up in the street or part of the street for which such line is proposed to be defined; and

(ii) the council consider all objections to the said proposal made in writing and delivered at the municipal office not less than three clear days before the day of such meeting.
167. (1) No person shall construct any portion of any building within a street alignment defined under section 166.

(2) No person shall erect or add to any building between a street alignment and a building line defined under section 166 except with [the] permission of the [executive authority] who may when granting [the] permission impose such conditions as the council may lay down for such cases.

168. (1) When any building or part thereof abutting on a public street is within a street alignment defined under section 166, the [executive authority] may, whenever it is proposed—

(a) to rebuild such building or take it down to an extent exceeding one-half thereof above the ground level, such half to be measured in cubic feet, or

(b) to remove, reconstruct or make any addition to any portion of such building which is within the street alignment, in any order which he issues concerning the rebuilding, alteration or repair of such building, require such building, to be set back to the street alignment.

(2) When any building or any part thereof within the street alignment falls down or is burnt down or is, whether by order of the [executive authority] or otherwise, taken down, or when any private land without any building thereon lies within the street alignment, the [executive authority] may forthwith take possession on behalf of the council of the portion of land within the street alignment and, if necessary, clear it.

(3) Land acquired under this section shall be deemed a part of the public street and shall vest in the municipal council.

(4) When any building is set back in pursuance of any requisition made under sub-section (1), or when the [executive authority] takes possession of any land under sub-section (2), the council shall forthwith make full compensation to the owner for any direct damage which he may sustain thereby.

Explanation.—The expression ‘direct damage’ as used in sub-section (4) with reference to land means the market value of the land taken and the depreciation, if any, in the ordinary market value of the rest of the land resulting from the area being reduced in size; but does not include damage due to the prospective loss of any particular use to which the owner may allege that he intended to put the land, although such use may be injuriously affected by the reduction of the site.

169. The council may, upon such terms as it thinks fit, allow any building to be set forward for the purpose of improving the line of a public street and may, by notice, require any building to be so set forward in the case of reconstruction thereof or of a new construction.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section a wall separating any premises from a public street shall be deemed to be a building: and it shall be deemed a sufficient compliance with permission or requisition to set forward a building to the street alignment if a wall of such material and dimensions as are approved by the [executive authority] is erected along the said line.

170. (1) The council may prepare schemes and plans of proposed public streets, showing the direction of such streets, the street alignment and building line on each side of them, their intended width and such other details as may appear desirable.

1 These words were substituted for the word “chairman” by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(2) The width of such proposed streets shall not ordinarily be less than forty feet, or in any area covered by huts, twenty feet.

(3) It shall be the duty of the council to lay out public streets in areas covered by huts, so far as may be practicable, both for the purpose of securing proper ventilation for huts in such areas, and in view to the contingency of buildings being erected therein.

(4) When any plan has been prepared under sub-section (1), the street to which it refers shall be deemed to be a projected public street, and the provisions of section 168 shall apply to all buildings, so far as they stand across the street alignment or building line of the projected street.

171. The council shall, so far as it considers it requisite for the public convenience, and so far as funds permit, cause the chief public streets to be watered, and for that purpose may provide such water-carts, animals and apparatus as it thinks necessary.

172. The (executive authority) may by an order in writing temporarily close any street to traffic for repair, or in order to carry out any work connected with drainage, water-supply or lighting or any of the purposes of this Act:

Provided that such work shall be completed and such street reopened to traffic with all reasonable speed.

173. It shall not be lawful for any person, without the permission of the (executive authority), to displace, take up, or make any alteration in the fences, posts, pavement, flags or other materials of any public street.

2 The proviso to sub-section (2) was omitted by section 98 (ii), ibid.
3 These words were substituted for the word “chairman” by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
174. When by a certificate of an officer of the Government Public Works Department of a rank not below that of Executive Engineer it appears to the council that, having regard to the average expense of repairing roads in the neighbourhood, extraordinary expenses have been incurred by the municipal council in repairing a street by reason of the damage caused by excessive weight passing along the street, or extraordinary traffic thereon, the council may recover in the civil court having jurisdiction from any person by or in consequence of whose order such weight or traffic has been conducted the amount of such expenses as may be proved to the satisfaction of such court to have been incurred by such council by reason of the damage arising from such weight or traffic as aforesaid:

Provided that any person against whom expenses are or may be recoverable under this section may enter into an agreement with the council for the payment to it of a composition in respect of such weight or traffic and thereupon the persons so paying shall not be subject to any proceedings under this section.

Private Streets.

175. The owner of any land utilizes, sells, leases or otherwise disposes of such land or any portion or portions of the same as sites for the construction of buildings, he shall, save in such cases as the site or sites may abut on an existing public or private street, lay down and make a street or streets or road or roads giving access to the site or sites and connecting with an existing public or private street.

176. (1) Any person intending to make or lay out a new private street shall send to the municipal office a written application with plans and sections showing the following particulars, namely,—

(a) the intended level, direction and width of the street,

* Section 174-A was omitted by section 6 (i) of the Tamil Nadu Traffic Control Act, 1938 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1938).
(b) the street alignment and the building line, and

c) the arrangements to be made for levelling, paving, metalling, flagging, channelling, sewering, draining, conserving and lighting the street.

(2) The provisions of this Act and of any rules or by-laws made under this Act as to the level and width of public streets and the height of buildings abutting thereon shall apply also in the case of streets referred to in sub-section (1); and all the particulars referred to in that sub-section shall be subject to approval by the council.

(3) Within sixty days after the receipt of any application under sub-section (1) the council shall either sanction the making of the street on such conditions as it may think fit, or disallow it, or ask for further information with respect to it.

(4) Such sanction may be refused—

(i) if the proposed street would conflict with any arrangements which have been made, or which are in the opinion of the council likely to be made for carrying out any general scheme for the laying out of streets,

(ii) if the proposed street does not conform to the provisions of the Act, rules and by-laws referred to in sub-section (2), or

(iii) if the proposed street is not designed so as to connect at one end with a street which is already open.

(5) No person shall make or lay out any new private street without or otherwise than in conformity with the orders of the council. If further information is asked for no steps shall be taken to make or lay out the street until orders have been passed upon receipt of such information:

Provided that the passing of such order shall not in any case be delayed for more than sixty days after the council has received all the information which it considers necessary to enable it to deal finally with the said application. Any application not disallowed within a period of one hundred and twenty days from the date of receipt in the municipal office shall be deemed to have been sanctioned.

177. (1) If any person makes or lays out any street referred to in section 176 without or otherwise than in conformity with the orders of the council, the \(^1\) [executive authority] may, whether or not the offender be prosecuted under this Act, by notice—

(a) require the offender to show sufficient cause, by a written statement signed by him and sent to the \(^1\) [executive authority] on or before such day as may be specified in the notice, why such street should not be altered to the satisfaction of the \(^1\) [executive authority] or if such alteration be impracticable, why such street should not be demolished, or

(b) require the offender to appear before the \(^1\) [executive authority] either personally or by a duly authorized agent on such day and at such time and place as may be specified in the notice, and show cause as aforesaid.

(2) If any person on whom such notice is served fails to show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the \(^1\) [executive authority] why such street should not be so altered or demolished, the \(^1\) [executive authority] may pass an order directing the alteration or demolition of such street.

178. (1) If any private street or part thereof is not levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, drained, conserved or lighted to the satisfaction of the \(^1\) [executive authority], he may by notice require the owners or occupiers of buildings or lands fronting or abutting on such street or part thereof to carry out any work which in his opinion may be necessary and within such time as may be specified in such notice.

(2) If such work is not carried out within the time specified in the notice, the [executive authority] may, if he thinks fit, execute it and the expenses incurred shall be paid by the owners or occupiers in default according to the frontage of their respective buildings or lands and in such proportion as may be settled by the [executive authority].

179. If any street has been levelled, paved, metalled, flagged, channelled, drained, conserved and lighted under the provisions of section 178, such street shall, on the requisition of not less than three-fourths of the public owners thereof, be declared a public street.

Encroachment on streets.

180. No one shall build any wall or erect any fence or other obstruction, or projection, or make any encroachment in or over any street except as herein after provided.

180-A. All streets vested in or to be vested in or maintained by a municipal council shall be open to persons of whatever caste or creed.

181. (1) No door, gate, bar or ground-floor window shall without a licence from the [executive authority] be hung or placed so as to open outwards upon any street.

(2) The [executive authority] may by notice require the owner of such door, gate, bar or window to alter it so that no part thereof when open shall project over the street.

1 These words were substituted for the word “chairman” by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).

2 This section was inserted by section 2 of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1929 (Madras Act XVII of 1929).
182. (1) The [executive authority] may by notice require the owner or occupier of any premises to remove or alter any projection, encroachment or obstruction (other than a door, gate, bar or ground-floor window) situated against or in front of such premises and in or over any street.

(2) If the owner or occupier of the premises proves that any such projection, encroachment or obstruction has existed for a period sufficient under the law of limitation to give any person a prescriptive title thereto or that it was erected or made with the permission or licence of any municipal authority duly empowered in that behalf, and that the period, if any, for which the permission or licence is valid has not expired, the municipal council shall make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by the removal or alteration of the same.

183. (1) The council may grant a licence, subject to such conditions and restrictions as it may think fit, to the owner or occupier of any premises to put up verandas, balconies, sun-shades, weather-frames and the like, to project over a street, or in streets in which the construction of arcades has been sanctioned by the council, to put up an arcade; or to construct any step or drain-covering necessary for access to the premises.

2[(2) The [executive authority] may grant a licence, subject to such conditions and restrictions as he may think fit, for the temporary erection of pandals and other structures in a public street vested in the council or in any other public place the control of which is vested in the council.]

2[(3) The council shall have power to lease road sides and street margins vested in it for occupation on such terms and conditions and for such period as the council may fix.]

1[(4) But neither a licence under sub-section (1) nor a lease under sub-section (3) shall be granted if the projection, construction or occupation is likely to be injurious to health or cause public inconvenience or otherwise materially interfere with the use of the road as such.]

1[(5) The (State Government) may, by notification, restrict and place under such control as they may think fit, the exercise by municipal councils in general or by any municipal council in particular, of the powers under sub-sections (1) and (3).]

1[(6) On the expiry of any period for which a licence has been granted under this section, the (executive authority) may, without notice, cause any projection or construction put up under sub-section (1) or (2) to be removed, and the cost of so doing shall be recoverable in the manner provided in section 344 from the person to whom the licence was granted.]

184. (1) The (executive authority) shall, during the construction or repair of any street, drain or premises vested in the municipal council—

(a) cause the same to be fenced and guarded,

(b) take proper precautions against accident by shoring up and protecting the adjoining buildings, and

(c) cause such bars, chains or posts to be fixed across or in any street in which any such work is under execution as are necessary in order to prevent the passage of vehicles or animals and avert danger.

3 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
District Municipalities

(2) The [executive authority] shall cause such drain, street or premises to be sufficiently lighted or guarded during the night while under construction or repair.

(3) The [executive authority] shall, with all reasonable speed, complete the said work, fill in the ground, and repair the said drain, street, or premises and remove the rubbish occasioned thereby.

185. No person shall without lawful authority remove any bar, chain, post or shoring timber or remove or extinguish any light set up under section 184.

186. (1) No person shall make a hole or cause any obstruction in any street, unless, he previously obtains the permission of the [executive authority] and complies with such conditions as that officer may impose.

(2) When such permission is granted, such person shall, at his own expense, cause such hole or obstruction to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until the hole or obstruction is filled up or removed and shall cause such hole or obstruction to be sufficiently lighted during the night.

187. If any person intends to construct or demolish any building or to alter or repair the outward part thereof, and if any street or footway is likely to be obstructed or rendered inconvenient by means of such work, he shall first obtain a licence from the [executive authority] in that behalf and shall also—

(a) cause the said building to be fenced and guarded,

(b) sufficiently light it during the night, and

(c) take proper precautions against accidents during such times as the public safety or convenience requires.

1 These words were substituted for the word “chairman” by section 17(1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
188. If any obstruction is caused in any street by the fall of trees, structures or fences, the owner or occupier of the premises concerned shall within twelve hours of the occurrence of such fall, or within such further period as the [executive authority] may by notice allow, clear the street of such obstruction.

Namining of streets.

189. (1) The council shall give names to new public streets and may alter the name of any public street.

(2) The [executive authority] shall cause to be put up or painted in English and in at least one vernacular language on a conspicuous part of some building, wall or place, at or near each end, corner or entrance the name of every public street.

(3) No person shall without lawful authority destroy, pull down, or deface any such name or put up any name different from that put up by order of the [executive authority].

Numbers on buildings.

190. (1) The [executive authority] may cause a number to be affixed to the side or outer door of any building or to some place at the entrance of the premises.

(2) No person shall without lawful authority destroy, pull down or deface any such number.

(3) When a number has been affixed under subsection (1), the owner of the building shall be bound to maintain such number and to replace it if removed or defaced; and if he fails to do so, the [executive authority] may by notice require him to replace it.

These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
Building Rules. 191. (1) The [State Government] may make rules—

(a) for the regulation or restriction of the use of sites for building, and

(b) for the regulation or restriction of building.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by sub-section (1), clause (a), rules made under that clause may provide—

(a) that no insanitary or dangerous site shall be used for building, and

(b) that no site shall be used for the construction of a building intended for public worship, if the construction of the building thereon will wound the religious feelings of any class of persons.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the power conferred by sub-section (1), clause (b), rules made under that clause may provide for the following matters:—

(a) information and plans to be submitted together with applications for permission to build;

(b) height of buildings, whether absolute or relative to the width of streets;

(c) level and width of foundation, level of lowest floor, and stability of structure;

(d) number and height of storeys composing a building and height of rooms.
(g) provision of secondary means of access for the removal of filth;

(h) materials and methods of construction of external and party walls, roofs and floors;

(i) position, materials and methods of construction of hearths, smoke-escapes, chimneys, staircases, latrines, drains, cess-pools;

(j) paving of yards;

(k) restrictions on the use of inflammable materials in building; and

(l) in the case of wells, the dimensions of the well, the manner of enclosing it, and if the well is intended for drinking purposes, the means which shall be used to prevent pollution of the water.

192. No piece of land shall be used as a site for the construction of a building and no building shall be constructed or reconstructed otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Part and of any rules or by-laws, made under this Act relating to the use of building-sites or the construction or reconstruction of buildings:

Provided that the [State Government] may in respect of all municipalities or with the consent of the municipal council, in respect of any particular municipality or portion thereof, exempt all buildings or any class of buildings from all or any of the provisions of this chapter or the said rules.

1 The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
193. (1) The council may give public notice of its intention to declare—

(a) that in any streets or portions of streets specified in the notice—

(i) continuous building will be allowed,

(ii) the elevation and construction of the frontage of all buildings thereafter constructed or reconstructed shall, in respect of their architectural features, be such as the council may consider suitable to the locality, or

(b) that in any localities specified in the notice, the construction of only detached buildings will be allowed, or

(c) that in any streets, portions of streets or localities specified in the notice, the construction of shops, warehouses, factories, huts, or buildings of a specified architectural character or buildings destined for particular uses will not be allowed, without the special permission of the council.

(2) No objections to any such declaration shall be received after a period of three months from the publication of such notice.

(3) The council shall consider all objections received within the said period and may then confirm the declaration, and before doing so, may modify it but not so as to extend its effect.

(4) The "executive authority" shall publish any declaration so confirmed and it shall take effect from the date of publication.

(5) No person shall, after the date of publication of such declaration, construct or reconstruct any building in contravention of any such declaration.

¹These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17(1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
For any land so acquired the municipal council shall pay compensation.

(3) In determining such compensation allowance shall be made for any benefit accruing to the same premises from the improvement of the streets.

195. No external roof, veranda, pandal or wall of a building shall be constructed or reconstructed of grass, leaves, mats, or other inflammable material except with the permission of the [executive authority].

196. No door, gate, bar, or ground-floor window which opens on any public streets shall be constructed or reconstructed so as to open outwards except with the [licence of the executive authority] under section 181.

3 Buildings other than huts.

197. (1) If any person intends to construct or reconstruct a building other than a hut, he shall send to the [executive authority]—

(a) an application in writing for the approval of the site, together with a site plan of the land, and

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).

2 These words were substituted for the words "chairman's licence" by section 17 (2), ibid.

3 Under section 5 A (1) of the Tamil Nadu Cinemas Regulation Act, 1955 (Tamil Nadu Act IX of 1955), the provisions of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920), shall not apply to any application made under that section by any person who intends to use any site for constructing a building thereon for the exhibition of cinematograph films, or to construct or reconstruct any building for such exhibition, or to install any machinery in any place where cinematograph exhibitions are proposed to be given.
(b) an application in writing for permission to execute the work together with a ground-plan, elevations and sections of the building, and a specification of the work.

1[Explanation.—'Building' in this sub-section shall include a wall or fence of whatever height bounding or abutting on any public street.]

(2) Every document furnished under sub-section (1) shall contain such particulars and be prepared in such manner as may be required under rules or by-laws.

198. The 2[executive authority] shall not grant permission to construct or reconstruct a building unless and until he has approved of the site on an application made under section 197.

199. The construction or reconstruction of a building shall not be begun unless and until the 2[executive authority] has granted permission for the execution of the work.

200. Within thirty days after the receipt of any application made under section 197 for approval of a site or of any information or further information required under rules or by-laws, the 2[executive authority] shall by written order either approve the site or refuse on one or more of the grounds mentioned in section 203 to approve the site.

201. Within thirty days after the receipt of any application made under section 197 for permission to execute any work or of any information or of documents or further information or documents required under rules or by-laws, the 2[executive authority] shall by written order either grant such permission or refuse on one or more of the grounds mentioned in section 203 to grant it:

1 This Explanation was added by section 101 of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1930).

2 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
Provided that the said period of thirty days shall not begin to run until the site has been approved under section 200.

202. (1) If, within the period prescribed by section 200 or section 201, as the case may be, the [executive authority] has neither given nor refused his approval of a building site, or his permission to execute any work, as the case may be, the council shall be bound on the written request of the applicant, to determine by written order whether such approval or permission should be given or not.

(2) If the council does not, within one month from the receipt of such written request, determine whether such approval or permission should be given or not, such approval or permission shall be deemed to have been given; and the applicant may proceed to execute the work, but not so as to contravene any of the provisions of this Act or any rules or by-laws made under this Act.

203. The only grounds on which approval of a site for the construction or reconstruction of a building or permission to construct or reconstruct a building may be refused are the following, namely:

(1) that the work, or use of the site for the work or any of the particulars comprised in the site plan, ground plan, elevations, sections or specification would contravene some specified provision of any law, or some specified order, rule, declaration or by-law made under any law;

(2) that the application for such permission does not contain the particulars or is not prepared in the manner required under rules or by-laws:

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(3) that any of the documents referred to in section 197 have not been signed as required under rules or by-laws;

(4) that any information or documents required by the [executive authority] under rules or by-laws has or have not been duly furnished;

(5) that streets or roads have not been made as required by section 175; or

(6) that the proposed building would be an encroachment upon [Government or municipal land.]

Whenever the [executive authority] or the council refuses to approve a building-site for a building or to grant permission to construct or reconstruct a building, the reasons for such refusal shall be specifically stated in the order or resolution.

204. If the construction or reconstruction of any building is not completed within the period specified, the permission shall lapse and a fresh application shall be made before the work is continued.

205. (1) If the [executive authority] finds that the work—

(a) is otherwise than in accordance with the plans or specifications which have been approved, or

(b) contravenes any of the provisions of this Act or any by-law, rule, order or declaration made thereunder, he may by notice require the owner of the building within a period stated either—

(i) to make such alterations as may be specified in the said notice with the object of bringing the work into conformity with the said plans or provisions, or

(ii) to show cause why such alterations should not be made.

(2) If the owner does not show cause as aforesaid, he shall be bound to make the alterations specified in such notice.

(3) If the owner shows cause as aforesaid, the [executive authority] shall by an order cancel the notice issued under sub-section (1), or confirm the same subject to such modifications as he may think fit.

206. Notwithstanding anything contained in any of the preceding sections, the [executive authority] may at any time stop the construction or reconstruction of any building if in his opinion the work in progress endangers human life.

Wells.

207. The provisions of section 197, section 198, section 199, section 204, section 205 and section 206 shall, so far as may be, apply to a well.

Huts.

208. (1) Every person who intends to construct or reconstruct a hut shall send to the [executive authority]—

(a) an application for permission to execute the work, and

(b) a site-plan of the land.

(2) Every such application and plan shall contain the particulars and be prepared in the manner required by rule or by-law.

209. The construction or reconstruction of a hut shall not be begun unless and until the [executive authority] has granted permission for the execution of the work on an application sent to him under section 208.

2 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17(1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
210. Within fourteen days after the receipt of any application made under section 208 for permission to construct or reconstruct a hut or of any information or plan or further information or fresh plan required under rules or by-laws, the [executive authority] shall by written order either grant such permission or refuse on one or more of the grounds mentioned in section 212 to grant it.

211. (1) If, within the period prescribed by section 210, the [executive authority] has neither granted nor refused to grant permission to construct or reconstruct a hut, the council shall be bound, on the written request of the applicant, to determine by written order whether such permission should be granted or not.

(2) If the council does not, within thirty days from the receipt of such written request, determine whether such permission should be granted or not, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted; and the applicant may proceed to execute the work but not so as to contravene any of the provisions of this Act or any rules or by-laws made under this Act.

212. The only grounds on which permission to construct or reconstruct a hut may be refused are the following, namely:—

(1) that the work or use of the site for the work would contravene some specified provision of any law or some specified order, rule, by-law or declaration made under any law;

(2) that the application for permission does not contain the particulars or is not prepared in the manner required under rules or by-laws;

1 These wdc. were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17(1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(3) that any information or plan required by the [executive authority] under rules or by-laws has not been duly furnished;

(4) that streets or roads have not been made as required by section 175; or

(5) that the proposed building would be an encroachment upon [Government or municipal land.]

Whenever the [executive authority] or the council refuses to grant permission to construct or reconstruct a hut the reasons for such refusal shall be specifically stated in the order or resolution.

213. If the construction or reconstruction of any hut is not completed within the period specified the permission shall lapse and a fresh application shall be made before the work is continued.

External walls, alterations and additions.

214. The owner or occupier of any building adjoining a public street shall keep the external part thereof in proper repair with lime-plaster or other material to the satisfaction of the [executive authority].

215. (1) The provisions of this chapter and of any rules or by-laws made under this Act relating to construction and reconstruction of buildings shall also be applicable to any alteration thereof or addition thereto:

Provided that works of necessary repair which do not affect the position or dimension of a building or any room therein shall not be deemed an alteration or addition for the purposes of this section.

(2) If any question arises as to whether any addition or alteration is a necessary repair not affecting the position or dimensions of a building or room such question shall be referred to the council whose decision shall be final.

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).

2 The words "Crown or municipal land" were substituted for the words "Government or municipal land" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "Government" was substituted for "Crown" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
Powers of the [executive authority].

216. (1) If the [executive authority] is satisfied

(i) that the construction or reconstruction of any building or well—

(a) has been commenced without obtaining the permission of the [executive authority] or (where an appeal or reference has been made to the council) in contravention of any order passed by the council, or

(b) is being carried on, or has been completed otherwise than in accordance with the plans or particulars on which such permission or order was based, or

(c) is being carried on, or has been completed in breach of any of the provisions of this Act or of any rule or by-law made under this Act or of any direction or requisition lawfully given or made under this Act or such rules or by-laws, or

(ii) that any alterations required by any notice issued under section 205 have not been duly made, or

(iii) that any alteration of or addition to any building or any other work made or done for any purpose, in, to or upon any building, has been commenced or is being carried on or has been completed in breach of section 215.

Section 216 of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933). and may also direct that until the said order is complied with the owner or builder shall refrain from proceeding with the building or well.

(2) The [executive authority] shall serve a copy of the provisional order made under sub-section (1) on the owner of the building or well together with a notice requiring him to show cause within a reasonable time to be named in such notice why the order should not be confirmed.

(3) If the owner fails to show cause to the satisfaction of the [executive authority], the [executive authority] may confirm the order with any modification he may think fit to make, and such order shall then be binding on the owner.

Exemptions.

217. (1) Any building constructed and used, or intended to be constructed and used, exclusively for the purpose of a plant-house, summer-house (not being a dwelling-house), poultry-house or aviary, shall be exempted from the provisions of this chapter other than section 196 provided the building be wholly detached from, and situated at a distance of at least ten feet from, the nearest adjacent building.

(2) The [executive authority] may grant permission at his discretion on such terms as he may decide in each case to erect for a specified period temporary huts or sheds for stabling, for watching crops, for storing tools or materials, or for other similar purposes. On expiry of the period specified, the [executive authority] may by notice require the owner of such hut or shed to demolish it.

Chapter XI.—Nuisances.

Dangerous structures, trees and places.

218. (1) If any structure appears to the [executive authority] to be in a ruinous state and dangerous to the passers-by or to the occupiers of neighbouring structures the [executive authority] may by notice require the owner or occupier to fence off, take down, secure or repair such structure so as to prevent any danger therefrom.

(2) If immediate action is necessary the [executive authority] shall himself before giving such notice or before the period of such notice expires, fence off, take down, secure or repair such structure or fence off a part of any street or take such temporary measures as he thinks fit to prevent danger and the cost of doing so shall be recoverable from the owner or occupier in the manner provided in section 344.

(3) If in the [opinion of the executive authority] the said structure is imminently dangerous to the inmates thereof, the [executive authority] shall order the immediate evacuation thereof and any person disobeying may be removed by any police officer.

219. (1) If any tree or any branch of a tree or the fruit of any tree appears to the [executive authority] to be likely to fall and thereby endanger any person or any structure, the [executive authority] may by notice require the owner of the said tree to secure, lop or cut down the said tree so as to prevent any danger therefrom.
(2) If immediate action is necessary the 'executive authority' shall himself before giving such notice or before the period of such notice expires, secure, lop or cut down the said tree or remove the fruit thereof or fence off a part of any street or take such other temporary measures as he thinks fit to prevent danger, and the cost of so doing shall be recoverable from the owner of the tree in the manner provided in section 344.

220. (1) If any tank, pond, well, hole, stream, dam, bank or other place appears to the 'executive authority' to be in want of sufficient repair, protection or enclosure dangerous to the passers-by or to persons living in the neighbourhood, the 'executive authority' may by notice require the owner to fill in, remove, repair, protect or enclose the same as to prevent any danger therefrom.

(2) If immediate action is necessary he shall before giving such notice or before the period of notice expires, himself take such temporary measures as he thinks fit to prevent danger and the cost of so doing shall be recoverable from the owner in the manner provided in section 344.

221. If in the opinion of the 'executive authority' the working of any quarry or the removal of stone, earth or other material from any place is dangerous to persons residing in or having legal access to the neighbourhood thereof or creates or is likely to create a nuisance the 'executive authority' may require the owner or person having control of the said quarry or place to discontinue working the same or to discontinue removing stone, earth or other material from such place or to take such order with such quarry or place as he shall deem necessary for the purpose of preventing danger or of abating the nuisance arising or likely to arise therefrom.

* These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
222. (1) The 'executive authority' may by notice require the owner of any structure, booth or tent partly or entirely composed of, or having any external roof, verandah, pandal or wall partly or entirely composed of cloth, grass, leaves, mats, or other highly inflammable materials to remove or alter such tent, booth, structure, roof, verandah, pandal or wall, or may grant him permission to retain the same on such conditions as the 'executive authority' may think necessary to prevent danger from fire.

(2) The 'executive authority' may by notice require any person using any place for the storage for private use of timber, firewood, or other combustible things to take special steps to guard against danger from fire.

(3) Where the 'executive authority' is of opinion that the means of egress from any building are insufficient to allow of safe exit in the event of fire, he may with the sanction of the council by notice require the owner or occupier of the building to alter or reconstruct any staircase in such manner or to provide such additional or emergency staircases as he may direct; and when any building, booth or tent is used for purposes of public entertainment he may require, subject to such sanction as aforesaid, that it shall be provided with an adequate number of clearly indicated exits so placed and maintained as readily to afford the audience ample means of safe egress, that the seating be so arranged as not to interfere with free access to the exits and that gangways, passages, and staircases leading to the exits shall during the presence of the public be kept clear of obstructions.

Control over waters, etc.

223. (1) No new well, tank, pond, cistern, fountain or the like shall be dug or constructed without the permission of the 'executive authority'.

These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 19 of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1913 (Act X VI of 1913).
(2) The [executive authority] may grant permission subject to such conditions as he may deem necessary, or may, for reasons to be recorded by him, refuse it.

(3) If any such work is begun or completed without such permission, the [executive authority] may either—

(a) by notice require the owner or other person who has done such work to fill up or demolish such work in such manner as the [executive authority] shall direct, or

(b) grant permission to retain such work, but such permission shall not exempt such owner from proceedings for contravening the provisions of subsection (1).

224. (1) If in the opinion of the [executive authority]—

(a) any pool, ditch, tank, well, pond, bog, swamp, quarry-hole, drain, cesspool, pit, watercourse, or any collection of water, or

(b) any land on which water may at any time accumulate is or is likely to become a breeding-place of mosquitoes or in any other respect a nuisance, the [executive authority] may by notice require the owner or person having control thereof to fill up, cover over, weed and stock with larvicidal fish, petrolize, drain or drain off the same in such manner and with such materials as the [executive authority] shall direct or to take such order with the same for removing or abating the nuisance as the [executive authority] shall direct.

(2) If a person on whom a requisition is made under sub-section (1) to fill up, cover over, or drain off a well, delivers to the [executive authority] within the time specified for compliance therewith written objections to such requisition, the [executive authority] shall report such objections to the council, and shall make further inquiry into the case, and he shall not institute any prosecution for failure to comply with such requisition except with the approval of the council, but the [executive authority] may nevertheless, if he deems the execution of the work called for by such requisition to be of urgent importance, proceed in accordance with section 339 and, pending the council’s disposal of the question whether the said well shall be permanently filled up, covered over, or otherwise dealt with, may cause such well to be securely covered over so as to prevent the ingress of mosquitoes, and in every such case, the [executive authority] shall determine with the approval of the council whether the expenses of any work already done as aforesaid shall be paid by such owner or by the [executive authority] out of the municipal fund or shall be shared, and, if so, in what proportions.

225. The council on the report of the [Director of Public Health], the Health Officer or the Local Medical Officer that the cultivation of any description of crop, or the use of any kind of manure, or the irrigation of land in any place within the limits of the municipality is injurious to the public health may, with the previous sanction of the [State Government] by public notice regulate or prohibit the cultivation, use of manure, or irrigation so reported to be injurious:

Provided that when such cultivation or irrigation has been practised during the five years preceding the date of such public notice with such continuity as the ordinary course of husbandry admits of, compensation shall be paid from the municipal fund to all persons interested for any damage caused to them by absolute prohibition.

226. (1) The [executive authority] may by notice require the owner of or person having control over any private water-course, spring, tank, well or other place, the water of which is used for drinking, bathing or washing clothes to keep the same in good repair and to cleanse it of silt, refuse or vegetation and to protect it from pollution by surface drainage in such manner as the [executive authority] may think fit.

(2) If the water of any place which is used for drinking, bathing or washing clothes, as the case may be, is proved to the satisfaction of the [executive authority] to be unfit for the purpose, the [executive authority] may by notice require the owner or person having control thereof to—

(a) refrain from using or permitting the use of such water, or

(b) close or fill up such place or enclose it with a substantial wall or fence.

227. The municipal council shall maintain in a cleanly condition all wells, tanks and reservoirs which are not private property, and may fill them up or drain them when it appears necessary to do so.

227-A. All such wells, tanks and reservoirs when maintained by the municipal council shall be open to use and enjoyment by persons of whatever caste or creed.

228. The council may, in the interests of the public health, regulate or prohibit the washing of animals, clothes or other things, or fishing in any public spring, tank, well, public water-course or part thereof within the municipality and may set apart any such place for drinking or for bathing or for washing clothes, or animals, respectively, or for any other specified purpose.

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).

2 This section was inserted by section 3 of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1929 (Madras Act XVII of 1929).
229. (1) The council may construct or provide and maintain public wash-houses or places for the washing of clothes, and may require the payment of such rents and fees for the use of any such wash-house or place as it may determine.

(2) The council may farm out the collection of such rents and fees for any period not exceeding three years at a time on such terms and conditions as it may think fit.

(3) If a sufficient number of public wash-houses or places be not maintained under sub-section (1), the council may without making any charge therefor appoint suitable places for the exercise by washermen of their calling.

230. (1) The council may by public notice prohibit the washing of clothes by washermen in the exercise of their calling, either within the municipality or outside the municipality within three miles of the boundary thereof, except at—

(a) public wash-houses or places maintained or provided under section 229, or

(b) such other places as it may appoint for the purpose.

(2) When any such prohibition has been made no person who is by calling a washerman shall, in contravention of such prohibition, wash clothes, except for himself or for personal and family service or for hire on and within the premises of the hirer, at any place within or without municipal limits other than a public wash-house or a place maintained or appointed under this Act:

Provided that this section shall apply only to clothes washed within or to be brought within the 231. It shall not be lawful for any person to—

(a) bathe in or in any manner defile the water in any place set apart by the council or by the owner thereof for drinking purposes; or

(b) deposit any offensive or deleterious matter in the dry bed of any place set apart as aforesaid for drinking purposes; or

(c) wash clothes in any place set apart as aforesaid for drinking or bathing; or

(d) wash any animal or any cooking utensil or wool, skins or other foul or offensive substance or deposit any offensive or deleterious matter in any place set apart as aforesaid for bathing or washing clothes; or

(e) cause or suffer to drain into or upon any place set apart as aforesaid for drinking, bathing or washing clothes, or cause or suffer anything to be brought thereinto or do anything whereby the water may be fouled or corrupted.

Control over abandoned lands, untrimmed hedges, etc.

232. If any building or land, by reason of abandonment, disputed ownership or other cause remains untenanted, and thereby becomes a resort of idle and disorderly persons or in the opinion of the executive authority becomes a nuisance, the executive authority may after due inquiry by notice require the owner or person claiming to be the owner to secure, enclose, clear or cleanse the same.

233. The executive authority may by notice require the owner or occupier of any building or land which appears to him to be in a filthy or unwholesome state, or overgrown with any thick or noxious vegetation, trees or undergrowth injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood, to clear, cleanse or otherwise put the land in proper state or to clear away and remove such vegetation, trees or undergrowth within twenty-four hours or such longer period and in such manner as may be specified in the notice.

234. The [executive authority] may by notice require the owner or occupier of any building or land near a public street to—

(a) fence the same to the satisfaction of the [executive authority]; or

(b) trim or prune any hedges bordering on the said street so that they may not exceed such height from the level of the adjoining roadway as the [executive authority] may determine; or

(c) cut and trim any hedges or trees overhanging the said street and obstructing it or the view of traffic or causing it damage; or

(d) lower an enclosing wall or fence which by reason of its height and situation obstructs the view of traffic so as to cause danger.

Control over insanitary buildings.

235. The [executive authority] if it appears to him necessary for sanitary purposes so to do, may by notice require the owner or occupier of any building to limewash or otherwise cleanse the building inside and outside in the manner and within a period to be specified in the [notice].

2 This word was substituted for the word "order" by section 103 of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1930).
236. (1) Whenever the [executive authority] considers—

(a) that any building or portion thereof is, by reason of its having no plinth, or having a plinth of insufficient height, or by reason of the want of proper drainage or ventilation or by reason of the impracticability of cleansing, attended with danger of disease to the occupants thereof or to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood, or is, for any reason, likely to endanger the public health or safety, or

(b) that a block or group of buildings is, for any of the said reasons, or by reason of the manner in which the buildings are crowded together, attended with such risk as aforesaid, he may by notice require the owners or occupiers of such buildings or portions of buildings or at his option, the owners of the land occupied by such buildings or portions of buildings, to execute such works or to take such measures as he may deem necessary for the prevention of such danger.

(2) No person shall be entitled to compensation for damages sustained by reason of any action taken under or in pursuance of this section save when a building is demolished in pursuance of an order made hereunder, or so far demolished as to require re-construction, in which cases the municipal council shall make compensation to the owner thereof.

(3) When any building is entirely demolished under this section and the demolition thereof adds to the value of other buildings in the immediate vicinity, the owners of such other buildings shall be bound to contribute towards the compensation payable to the owner of the first-named building in proportion to the increased value acquired by their own property.

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17(1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(4) When any building is so far demolished under this section as to require reconstruction, allowance shall be made in determining the compensation for the benefit accruing to the premises from the improvement thereof.

237. (1) If any building or portion thereof intended for or used as a dwelling-place appears to the \textsuperscript{1}[executive authority] to be unfit for human habitation, he may apply to the council to prohibit further use of such structure for such purpose; and the council may, after giving the owner and occupier of the structure a reasonable opportunity of showing cause why such order should not be made, make a prohibitory order as aforesaid.

(2) When any such prohibitory order has been made, the \textsuperscript{1}[executive authority] shall communicate the purport thereof to the owner and occupier of the structure and on expiry of such period as is specified in the notice, not being less than thirty days after the service of the notice, no owner or occupier of such structure shall use or suffer it to be used for human habitation until the \textsuperscript{1}[executive authority] certifies in writing that the causes rendering it unfit for human habitation have been removed to his satisfaction, or the council withdraws the prohibition.

(3) When such prohibitory order has remained in operation for three months the \textsuperscript{1}[executive authority] shall report the case to the council, which shall thereupon consider whether the structure should not be demolished. The council shall give the owner not less than thirty days' notice of the time and place at which the question will be considered and the owner shall be entitled to be heard when the question is taken into consideration.

\textsuperscript{1}These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(4) If upon such consideration the council is of opinion that the structure has not been rendered fit for human habitation and that steps are not being taken with due diligence to render it so fit and that the continuance of the structure is a nuisance or dangerous or injurious to the health of the public or to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood, it shall record a decision to that effect, with the grounds of the decision, and the executive authority shall in pursuance of the said decision by notice require the owner to demolish the structure.

(5) If the owner undertakes to execute forthwith the works necessary to render the structure fit for human habitation and the executive authority considers that it can be so made fit, the executive authority may postpone the execution of the decision of the council for such time not exceeding six months as he thinks sufficient for the purpose of giving the owner an opportunity of executing the necessary works.

238. (1) If it appears to the executive authority that any dwelling-house or other building which is used as a dwelling-place, or any room in such dwelling-house or building, is so overcrowded as to endanger the health of the inmates thereof, he may apply to a magistrate, to abate such overcrowding; and the magistrate after such inquiry as he thinks fit to make, may, by written order, require the owner of the building, or room, within a reasonable time not exceeding four weeks to be specified in the said order, to abate such overcrowding by reducing the number of lodgers, tenants or other inmates of the building or room, or may pass such other order as he may deem just and proper.

(2) The council may, by written order, declare what amount of superficial and cubic space shall be deemed for the purposes of sub-section (1) to be necessary for each occupant of a building or room.
(3) If any building or room referred to in subsection (1) has been sublet, the landlord of the lodgers, tenants, or other actual inmates of the same, shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the owner of the building or room.

(4) It shall be incumbent on every tenant, lodger or other inmate of a building or room to vacate on being required by the owner so to do, in pursuance of any requisition made under subsection (1).

Control over certain animals.

239. No person shall feed or permit any animal, which is kept for dairy purpose or may be used for food, to be fed on filth.

240. No person shall keep any animal on his premises so as to be a nuisance or so as to be dangerous.

241. (1) The council may, and, if so directed by the district magistrate, shall, give public notice that unlicensed pigs or dogs straying within specified limits will be destroyed.

(2) When such notice has been given any person may destroy, in any manner not inconsistent with the terms of the notice, any unlicensed pig or dog (as the case may be) found straying within such limits.
242. (1) When the \[executive authority\] takes down any structure or part thereof or cuts down any tree or hedge or shrub or part thereof or removes any fruit in virtue of his powers under this chapter, the \[executive authority\] may sell the materials or things taken down, cut down or removed, and apply the proceeds in or towards payment of the expenses incurred.

(2) If after reasonable inquiry it appears to the \[executive authority\] that there is no owner or occupier to whom notice can be given under any section in this chapter he may himself take such order with the property mentioned in such section as may appear to him to be necessary and may recover the expense incurred by the sale of such property (not being land) or of any portion thereof.

243. No person shall be entitled save as provided in sections 224, 225 and 236 to compensation for any damages sustained by reason of any action taken by the municipal authorities in pursuance of their powers under this chapter.

CHAPTER XII.—LICENCES AND FEES.

thereof suspend or cancel any licence which has been granted under this section. The council may also modify the conditions of the licence to take effect from a specified date.

(4) When a licence is granted, refused, suspended, cancelled or modified under this section, the council shall cause a notice of such grant, refusal, suspension, cancellation or modification, in English and a vernacular language of the district to be posted in some conspicuous place at or near the entrance to the place in respect of which the licence was sought or had been obtained.

(5) The council may levy for every licence granted under this section a fee not exceeding three hundred rupees per annum.

(6) Every licence granted under this section shall expire at the end of the year.

Inspection of places for sale, etc.

271. It shall be the duty of the [executive authority] to make provision for the constant and vigilant inspection of animals, carcasses, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, fruit, vegetables, corn, bread, flour, milk, ghee, butter, oil and any other articles exposed or hawked about for sale or deposited in or brought to any place for the purpose of sale or preparation for sale.

272. (1) The [executive authority] or any person authorized by him in writing for the purpose may without notice enter any slaughter-house or any place where animals, poultry or fish intended for food are exposed for sale or where articles of food are being manufactured or exposed for sale at any time by day or night, when the slaughter, exposure for sale or manufacture is being carried on and inspect the same and any utensil or vessel used for manufacturing, preparing or containing any such articles.

1 These words were substituted for the word “chairman” by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(2) If the \[executive authority\] or any person so authorized by him has reason to believe that in any place any animal intended for human food is being slaughtered or any carcass is being skinned or cut up or that any food is being manufactured, stored, prepared, packed, cleansed, kept or exposed for sale, or sold without, or otherwise than in conformity with a licence, he may enter any such place without notice, at any time by day or night for the purpose of satisfying himself whether any provision of laws, by-laws, or regulations or any condition of a licence is being contravened.

(3) No claim shall lie against \[an \(executive authority\)] or any person acting under his authority or the council for any damage or inconvenience necessarily caused by the exercise of powers under this section or by the use of any force necessary for effecting an entry into any place under this section.

(4) In any legal proceedings in respect of powers exercised under this section in which it is alleged that any animals, poultry, fish or articles of food were not kept, exposed, hawked about, manufactured, prepared, stored, packed, or cleansed for sale, or were not intended for human food, the burden of proof shall lie on the party so alleging.

273. No person shall in any manner whatsoever prevent the \[executive authority\] or person duly authorized by him exercising his powers under the last preceding section.

274. If any animal, poultry or fish intended for food appears to the \[executive authority\] or to a person duly authorized by him, to be diseased, or... any food appears to him to be noxious, or if any vessel or utensil used in manufacturing, preparing or containing such article appears to be of such kind or in such state as to render the article noxious, he may seize or carry away or secure such animal, article, utensil, or vessel, in order that the same may be dealt with as hereinafter provided.

Explanation.—Meat subject to the process of blowing shall be deemed to be noxious.

275. No person shall remove or in any way interfere with an animal or article secured under the last preceding section.

276. (1) When any animal or article of food is seized under section 274 it may, with the consent of the owner or person in whose possession it was found, be forthwith destroyed in such manner as to prevent its being used for human food or exposed for sale, and if the article is perishable, without such consent.

(2) Any expenses incurred in destroying any animal or article under sub-section (1) shall be paid by the owner or person in whose possession it was at the time of its seizure.

277. (1) Articles of food, animals, poultry, fish, utensils, vessels, etc., seized under section 274 and not destroyed under section 274 shall as soon as possible be produced before a magistrate.

(2) Whether or not complaint is laid before a magistrate of any offence under the Indian Penal Code or under this Act, it appears to the magistrate, on taking such evidence as he thinks necessary that any such animal, poultry or fish is diseased, or any such article is noxious or any such utensil or vessel is of such kind or in such state as is described in section 274 he may order the same—

(a) to be forfeited to the council;
(b) to be destroyed at the charge of the owner or person in whose possession it was at the time of seizure, in such manner as to prevent the same being again exposed or hawked about for sale, or used for human food or for the manufacture or preparation of, or for containing, any such article as aforesaid.

Disposal of the dead.

278. (1) Every owner or person having the control of any place used or intended to be used or to form or be a part of this Act, as a place for burying, burning, or otherwise disposing of the dead shall, if such place disposed of be not already registered, apply to the council to have such place registered.

(2) If it appears to the council that there is no owner or person having the control of such place it shall assume such control and register such place, or may, with the sanction of the [State Government], close it.

279. (1) No new place for the disposal of the dead, whether public or private, shall be opened, formed, constructed, or used unless a licence has been obtained from the council on application.

(2) Such application for a licence shall be accompanied by a plan of the place to be registered, showing the locality, boundary and extent thereof, the name of the owner or person or community interested therein, the system of management and such further particulars as the council may require.

(3) The council may—

(a) grant or refuse a licence, or any food appears to him to be noxious, or if any vessel or utensil used in manufacturing, preparing or containing such article appears to be of such kind or in such state as to render the article noxious, he may seize or carry away or secure such animal, article, utensil, or vessel, in order that the same may be dealt with as hereinafter provided.

Explanation.—Meat subject to the process of blowing shall be deemed to be noxious.

275. No person shall remove or in any way interfere with an animal or article secured under the last preceding section.

276. (1) When any animal or article of food is seized under section 274 it may, with the consent of the owner or person in whose possession it was found, be forthwith destroyed in such manner as to prevent its being used for human food or exposed for sale, and if the article is perishable, without such consent.

(2) Any expenses incurred in destroying any animal or article under sub-section (1) shall be paid by the owner or person in whose possession it was at the time of its seizure.

277. (1) Articles of food, animals, poultry, fish, utensils, vessels, etc., seized under section 274 and not destroyed under section 276 shall as soon as possible be produced before a magistrate.

(2) Whether or not complaint is laid before a magistrate of any offence under the Indian Penal Code or under this Act, if it appears to the magistrate on taking such evidence as he thinks necessary that any such animal, poultry or fish is diseased, or any such article is noxious or any such utensil or vessel is of such kind or in such state as is described in section 274 he may order the same—

(a) to be forfeited to the council;
place to any person appointed by the [executive authority] in that behalf.

283. (1) If the council is satisfied—

(a) that any registered or licensed place for the disposal of the dead is in such a state or situation as to be, or to be likely to become, dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, or

(b) that any burial ground is overcrowded with graves, and if in the case of a public burial or burning ground or other place as aforesaid another convenient place duly authorized for the disposal of the dead exists or has been provided for the persons who would ordinarily make use of such place, it may with the previous sanction of the [State Government], give notice that it shall not be lawful after a period to be named in such notice to bury, burn or otherwise dispose of any corpse at such place.

(2) Every notice given under sub-section (1) shall be published in the district gazette and by beat of drum.

(3) After the expiry of the period named in such notice it shall not be lawful to bury, burn or otherwise dispose of a corpse at such place.

284. No person shall—

(a) bury or cause to be buried any corpse or part thereof in a grave whether dug, or constructed of masonry or otherwise, in such manner that

CHAPTER XIII.—VITAL STATISTICS AND THE PREVENTION OF DISEASE.

Vital statistics.

286. (1) The municipal council shall register all births and deaths occurring in the municipality.

(2) Information of births and deaths shall be given and their registration shall be made and enforced in the prescribed manner.

Dangerous diseases.

287. "Dangerous disease" means a disease specified in Schedule VI.

288. (1) If any medical practitioner becomes cognizant of the existence of any dangerous disease in any private or public dwelling (not being a public hospital) in the municipality, he shall inform the executive authority with the least practicable delay.

(2) The information shall be communicated in such form and with such details as the executive authority may require. The executive authority may pay a fee not exceeding one rupee for each intimation by a private medical practitioner of a case occurring in his practice.

(3) This section shall apply to a hakem or a vaidyan.

(4) With the previous approval in all cases of the Collector of the district the executive authority may direct the compulsory notification by the owner or occupier of every house within the municipal Power of entry into suspected places.

Disinfection of buildings and article.

289. The [executive authority] [or health officer] may at any time by day or by night without notice, or after giving such notice as may appear to him reasonable, inspect any place in which any dangerous disease is reputed or suspected to exist, and take such measures as he may think fit to prevent the spread of such disease beyond such place.

290. (1) If the [executive authority] [or health officer] is of opinion that the cleansing or disinfecting of any premises or part thereof, or of any article therein which is likely to retain infection, will tend to prevent or check the spread of any dangerous disease, he may by notice require the occupier to cleanse or disinfect the same in the manner and within the time specified in such notice.

(2) If the [executive authority] [or health officer] considers that immediate action is necessary, or that the occupier is, by reason of poverty or otherwise unable effectually to comply with his requisition, the [executive authority] [or health officer] may himself, without notice, cause [such premises or article] to be cleansed or disinfected and for this purpose may cause such article to be removed from the premises; and the expenses incurred by the [executive authority] [or health officer] shall be recoverable from the said occupier in cases in which he is, in the opinion of the [executive authority] [or health officer], not unable by reason of poverty effectually to comply with such requisition.

3 These words were substituted for the words "such building or article" by section 121 (ii), ibid.
291. (1) The [executive authority] shall from time to time notify places at which conveyances, clothing, bedding, or other articles, which have been exposed to infection from any dangerous disease shall be washed or disinfected.

(2) The [executive authority] may direct any clothing, bedding or other articles likely to retain such infection to be disinfected or destroyed and shall, on demand, give compensation for any article destroyed under this sub-section.

(3) No person shall wash such clothing or bedding or other articles in any places other than those set apart for such purposes under sub-section (1).

292. No person shall, without previously disinfecting it, give, lend, let, hire, sell, transmit or otherwise dispose of any articles which he knows or has reason to know has been exposed to infection from any dangerous disease:

Provided that nothing in this [section] shall apply to a person who transmits with proper precautions any article for the purpose of having it disinfected.

293. If the chief medical officer of the district, the health officer or the local medical officer certifies that the water in any well, tank or other place within the limits of the municipality is likely, if used for drinking, to engender or cause the spread of any dangerous disease, the council may, by public notice, prohibit the removal or use of such water for drinking and domestic purposes during a specified period.

(c) failing to comply with any direction lawfully given to him or any requisition lawfully made upon him under or in pursuance of any of the said sections or rules, continues to contravene the said provision or to neglect to comply with the said direction or requisition, as the case may be, shall on conviction be punished, for each day after the previous date of conviction during which he continues so to offend, with fine which may extend to the amount mentioned in that behalf in the fourth column of the said schedule.

Explanation.—The entries in the third column of Schedules VII and VIII headed "subject" are not intended as definitions of the offences described in the sections, sub-sections, or clauses mentioned in the first and second columns or even as abstractions. of those sections, sub-sections or clauses, but are inserted merely as references to the subject of the sections, sub-sections or clauses as the case may be.

1[314. (1) Whoever acts as a member of a municipal council knowing that under this Act or the rules made thereunder he is not entitled or has ceased to be entitled to hold such office shall, on conviction, be punished with fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

(2) Whoever acts as or exercises the functions of the chairman or vice-chairman of a municipal council knowing that under this Act or the rules made thereunder he is not entitled or has ceased to be entitled to hold such office or to exercise such functions shall, on conviction, be punished with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees for every such offence.

(3) If the chairman or vice-chairman of a municipal council fails to hand over any documents of, or any moneys or other properties vested in, or belonging to, the municipal council which are in or have come into his possession or control, to his successor in office or other prescribed authority, in every case as soon as his term of office as chairman or vice-chairman expires and in the case of the vice-chairman also on demand by the chairman, such chairman or vice-chairman shall, on conviction, be punished with fine not exceeding one thousand rupees for every such offence.]

315. If any municipal officer or servant knowingly acquires, directly or indirectly, by himself or by a partner or employer or servant, any personal share or interest in any contract or employment with, by, or on behalf of the municipal council, he shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 168 of the Indian Penal Code:

Provided that no person shall, by reason of being a shareholder in, or member of, any company, be held to be interested in any contract entered into between such company and the council, unless he is a director of such company:

Provided further that nothing in this section shall apply to a teacher employed by a municipal council who, with the sanction of the [State Government], enters into a contract with the municipal council with regard to the utilization for the purpose of a school of any land or building owned by him or in which he has a share or interest.

316. (1) Every owner or person in charge of any vehicle or animal liable to tax under section 98 who omits to obtain a licence shall on conviction be punished with fine not exceeding fifty rupees and shall also pay the amount of the tax payable by him in respect of such vehicle or animal.

(2) On payment of such fine and tax and of such costs as may be awarded, such owner or person shall receive a licence for the vehicle or animal in respect of which he has been fined and for the period during which he has been found to be in default.

(3) The provisions of this section shall apply to any person who, having compounded for the payment of a certain sum under section 101, fails to pay such sum, and the amount due for a licence shall in such case be taken as the amount so compounded for.

1 This proviso was added by section 129 of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1930).

2 The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
317. If the construction or re-construction of any building or well—

(a) is commenced without the permission of the [executive authority], or

(b) is carried on or completed otherwise than in accordance with the particulars on which such permission was based, or

(c) is carried on or completed in contravention of any lawful order or in breach of any provision contained in this Act or in any rule or by-law made hereunder or of any direction or requisition lawfully given or made, or if any alterations or additions required by any notice issued under section 205 or section 215 are not duly made, or if any person to whom a direction is given by the [executive authority] to alter or demolish a building or well under section 216 fails to obey such direction, the owner of the building or well or the said person, as the case may be, shall be liable on conviction to a fine which may extend in the case of a building to five hundred rupees and in the case of a well or hut to fifty rupees, and to a further fine which may extend in the case of a building to one hundred rupees, and in the case of a well or hut to ten rupees, for each day during which the offence is proved to have continued after the first day.

318. (1) In the absence of a written contract to the contrary, every scavenger employed by the municipal council shall be entitled to one month’s notice before discharge or to one month’s wages in lieu thereof, unless he is discharged for misconduct or was engaged for a specified term and discharged at the end of it.

(2) Should any scavenger employed by the council, in the absence of a written contract authorizing him so to do, and without reasonable cause, resign his employment or absent himself from his duties without giving one month's notice to the council, or neglect or refuse to perform his duties, or any of them, he shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees or to imprisonment of either description which may extend to two months.

(3) The State Government may, by notification, direct that, on and from a date to be specified in the notification, the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) with respect to scavengers shall apply also to any specified class of municipal servants whose functions intimately concern the public health or safety.

319. Every person who prevents the executive authority or any person to whom the executive authority has lawfully delegated his powers of entering into or on any land or building, from exercising his lawful power of entering thereinto or thereon shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 341 of the Indian Penal Code.

320. If any person who is required by the provisions of this Act or by any notice or other proceedings issued under this Act to furnish any information—

(a) omits to furnish it, or

(b) knowingly or negligently furnishes false information, such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 100.

PART VI.

CHAPTER XVI.—PROCEDURE AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Licences and permissions.

321. (1) Every licence and permission granted under this Act or any rule or by-law made under this Act shall specify the period, if any, for which, and the restrictions, limitations and conditions, subject to which the same is granted, and shall be signed by the *[executive authority].

[2] (2) Save as otherwise expressly provided in or may be prescribed under this Act, for every such licence or permission, fees may be charged on such units and at such rates as may be fixed by the municipal council.

*[3] (3) The council may—

(a) place the collection of such fees under the management of such persons as may appear to it proper; or

(b) farm out such collection for any period not exceeding three years at a time and on such terms and conditions as it may think fit.]

[3-A] (3-A) Every order of a municipal authority granting or refusing a licence or permission shall be published on the notice board of the municipal council.
(4) Every order of a municipal authority refusing, suspending, cancelling or modifying a licence or permission shall be in writing and shall state the grounds on which it proceeds.

(5) Subject to the special provisions in chapters X and XII regarding buildings and private markets, and subject to such sanction as may be required for the refusal of a licence or permission, \(^1\) any licence or permission granted under this Act or any rule or by-law made under it may at any time be suspended or revoked by the \(^2\)[executive authority] if any of its restrictions, limitations or conditions is evaded or infringed by the grantee, or if the grantee is convicted of a breach of any of the provisions of this Act, or of any rule, by-law or regulation made under it in any matter to which such licence or permission relates, or if the grantee has obtained the same by misrepresentation or fraud.

(6) It shall be the duty of the \(^3\)[executive authority] to inspect places in respect of which a licence or permission is required by or under this Act, and he may enter any such place between sunrise and sunset and also between sunset and sunrise if it is open to the public or any industry is being carried on in it at the time; and if he has reason to believe that anything is being done in any place without a licence or permission where the same is required by or under this Act, or otherwise than in conformity with the same, he may at any time by day or night without notice enter such place for the purpose of satisfying himself whether any provision of law, rules, by-laws or regulations, any condition of a licence or permission or any lawful direction or prohibition is being contravened and no claim shall lie against any person for any damage or inconvenience.

\(^1\) The words "and to such appeal as may be provided in case of refusal" were omitted by section 130 (iii) of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1930).

\(^2\) These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
necessarily caused by the exercise of powers under this sub-section, by the [execution authority] or any person to whom he has lawfully delegated his powers, or by any force necessary for effecting an entrance under this sub-section.

(7) When any licence or permission is suspended or revoked, or when the period for which it was granted, or within which application for renewal should be made, has expired, whichever expires later, the grantee shall for all purposes of this Act or any rule or by-law made under this Act be deemed to be without a licence or permission until the order suspending or revoking the licence or permission is cancelled or, subject to sub-section (11), until the licence or permission is renewed, as the case may be.

(8) Every grantee of any licence or permission shall at all reasonable times, while such licence or permission remains in force, produce the same at the request of the [execution authority].

(9) Whenever any person is convicted of an offence in respect of the failure to obtain a licence or permission or to make a registration required by the provisions of this Act or any rule or by-law made under this Act, the magistrate shall, in addition to any fine which may be imposed, recover summarily and pay over to the municipal council the amount of the fee chargeable for the licence or permission or for registration; [and may in his discretion also recover summarily and pay over to the council such amount, if any, as he may fix as the costs of the prosecution].

2 These words were added by section 130 (iv) of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1930).
(9-A) Save as otherwise expressly provided in or may be prescribed under this Act, every application for a licence or permission or for registration or the renewal of a licence or permission or registration, shall be made not less than thirty and not more than ninety days before the commencement of the year or of such less period as is mentioned in the application.]

(10) Such recovery of the fee under sub-section (9) shall not entitle the person convicted to a licence or permission or to registration as aforesaid.

(11) The acceptance by the municipal council of the pre-payment of the fee for a licence or permission or for registration shall not entitle the person making such pre-payment to the licence or permission or to registration, as the case may be, but only to refund of the fee in case of refusal of the licence or permission or of registration; but an applicant for the renewal of a licence or permission or registration shall until communication of orders on his application be entitled to act as if the licence or permission or registration had been renewed; and save as otherwise specially provided in this Act, if orders on an application for licence or permission or for registration are not [received by the applicant within sixty days after the receipt of the application] by the [executive authority], the application shall be deemed to have been allowed for the year or for such less period as is mentioned in the application, and subject to the law, rules, by-laws, regulations and all conditions ordinarily imposed.

of the district in which the municipality is situated both in English and in a vernacular language of the district:

1 [Provided that the "(State) Government shall have power to direct that any such notification—

(i) shall be published in the said gazette either in English or in a vernacular language of the district;

(ii) shall, instead of being published in the said gazette, be published in any other manner specified by them.]

329. Every by-law, order, notice or other document directed to be published under this Act shall, unless a different method be prescribed by this Act, or by the council, be written in, or translated into, the vernacular of the district and deposited at the municipal office, and a copy shall be posted up in a conspicuous position at such office and such other places as the council may direct. And a public proclamation shall be made throughout the municipality by beat of drum that such copy has been so posted up and that the original is open to inspection at the municipal office.

330. Whenever the municipal council shall have set apart any place for any purpose authorized by this Act or shall have prohibited the doing of anything in any place, the [executive authority] shall forthwith cause to be put up a notice in English and in a vernacular language of the district at or near such place. Such notice shall specify the purpose for which such place has been set apart or the act prohibited in such place.

331. (1) When any notice or other document is required by this Act, or by any rule, by-law, regulation or order made under it, to be served on, or sent to any person, the service or sending thereof may be effected—

(a) by giving or tendering the said document to such person; or

(b) if such person is not found, by leaving such document at his last known place of abode or business or by giving or tendering the same to some adult member or servant of his family; or

(c) if such person does not reside in the municipality and his address elsewhere is known to the [executive authority] by sending the same to him by post registered; or

(d) if none of the means aforesaid be available, by [affixing the same on some conspicuous part] of such place of abode or business.

(2) When the person is an owner or occupier of any building or land, it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier in the document, and in the case of joint owners and occupiers it shall be sufficient to serve it on, or send it to, one of such owners or occupiers.

(3) Whenever in any bill, notice [form or other document] served or sent under this Act a period is fixed within which any tax or other sum is to be paid or any work executed, or anything provided, such period shall, in the absence from this Act of any distinct provision to the contrary, be calculated from the date of such service or sending.

Relation of occupier to owner.

333. (1) If the occupier of any building or land prevent the owner from carrying into effect in respect thereof any of the provisions of this Act, the [executive author-] may by an order require the said occupier to permit the owner, within eight days from the date of service of such order, to execute all such works as may be necessary.

(2) Such owner shall, for the period during which he is prevented as aforesaid, be exempt from any fine or penalty to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of default in executing such works.

334. If the owner of any building or land fails to execute any work which he is required to execute under the provisions of this Act or of any rule, by-law, regulation or order made under it, the occupier of such building or land may, with the approval of the [executive authority], execute the said work, and shall be entitled to recover from the owner the reasonable expenses incurred in the execution thereof, and may deduct the amount thereof from the rent then or thereafter due by him to the owner.

335. The [executive authority] or any person authorized by him in this behalf may enter into or on any building or land with or without assistants or survey or execute any work.

workmen in order to make any inquiry, inspection, test, examination, survey, measurement or valuation or for the purpose of lawfully placing or removing pipes or meters, or to execute any other work which is authorized by the provisions of this Act or of any rule, by-law, regulation or order made under it, or which it is necessary for any of the purposes of this Act or in pursuance of any of the said provisions, to make or execute:

Provided that—

(a) except when it is in this Act otherwise expressly provided, no such entry shall be made between sunset and sunrise;

(b) except when it is in this Act otherwise expressly provided, no dwelling house and no part of a public building used as a dwelling place, shall be so entered without the consent of the occupier thereof, unless the said occupier has received at least six hours' previous notice of the intention to make such entry;

(c) sufficient notice shall be given in every case even when any premises may otherwise be entered without notice, to enable the inmates of any apartment appropriated to women to remove to some part of the premises where their privacy may be preserved;

(d) due regard shall be paid, so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose of the entry, to the social and religious usages of the occupants of the premises.

336. (1) The [executive authority] or any person authorized by him in this behalf may with or without assistants or workmen enter on any land adjoining or within fifty yards of any work authorized by this Act or by any rule, by-law, regulation or order made under it, for the purpose of depositing on such land any soil, gravel, stone, or other materials, or of obtaining access to such work, or for any other purpose connected with the carrying on thereof.

*These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17 (1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
(2) The '[executive authority]' or person authorized by him as aforesaid, shall, before entering on any land under sub-section (1), give the owner or occupier three days' previous notice of the intention to make such entry, and state the purpose thereof, and shall, if so required by the owner or occupier fence off so much of the land as may be required for such purpose.

(3) The '[executive authority]' shall not be bound to make any payment, tender or deposit before entering on any land under sub-section (1), but as little damage as may be shall be done and the '[executive authority]' shall pay compensation to the owner or occupier of the land for such entry and for any temporary or permanent damage that may result therefrom.

(4) If such owner or occupier is dissatisfied with the amount of compensation paid to him by the '[executive authority]' he may appeal to the council.

337. The '[executive authority]' or any person authorized by him in this behalf may examine and test the weights and measures used in markets and shops in the municipality with a view to the prevention and punishment of offences relating to such weights and measures under Chapter XIII of the Indian Penal Code.

Power to enforce licensing provisions, orders, etc.

338. If, under this Act, or any rule, by-law or regulation made under it, the licence or permission of the council or '[executive authority]' or registration in the municipal office is necessary for the doing of any act, and if such act is done without such licence or registration or if the licence or permission is not obtained or the registration is not made, then the '[executive authority]' or any person authorized by him in this behalf may seize and retain the goods and effects, and may cause the goods and effects to be stamped, with such description as may be prescribed, or may cause a notice to be pasted on any goods, and may cause the goods to be marked, branded or otherwise distinguished in a manner prescribed.

or permission or registration, or in a manner inconsistent with the terms of any such licence or permission, then—

(a) the (executive authority) may by notice require the person so doing such act to alter, remove, or, as far as practicable, restore to its original state the whole or any part of any property, movable or immovable, public or private, affected thereby, within a time to be specified in the notice and further,

(b) if no penalty has been specially provided in this Act for so doing such act, the person so doing it shall be liable on conviction before a magistrate to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every such offence.

339. (1) Whenever by any notice, requisition, or order under this Act, or under any rule, by-law or regulation made under it, any person is required to execute any work or to take any measures or do anything a reasonable time shall be named in such notice, requisition or order within which the work shall be executed, the measures taken, or the thing done.

(2) If such notice, requisition, or order is not complied with within the time so named the (executive authority) may cause such work to be executed or may take any measures or do anything which may, in his opinion, be necessary for giving due effect to the notice, requisition or order as aforesaid; and further,

(3) if no penalty has been specially provided in this Act for failure to comply with such notice, the said person shall be liable on conviction before a magistrate to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every such offence.

340. (1) The (executive authority) may, subject to the provisions of [section 139], recover any reasonable expenses incurred under section 339 from the person or any one of the persons to whom the notice, requisition or order was addressed, and may,

In executing work or taking measures under section 339, utilize any materials found on the property concerned or may sell them and apply the sale-proceeds in or towards the payment of the expenses incurred.

(2) If the person to whom notice is given is the owner of the property in respect of which it is given, the \[executive authority\] may (whether any action or other proceeding has been brought or taken against such owner or not) require the person, if any, who occupies such property, or any part thereof, under the owner, to pay to the municipal council instead of to the owner, the rent payable by him in respect of such property, as it falls due, up to the amount recoverable from the owner under sub-section (1) or to such smaller amount as the \[executive authority\] may think proper; and any amount so paid shall be deducted from the amount payable by the owner.

(3) For the purpose of deciding whether action should be taken under sub-section (2), the \[executive authority\] may require any occupier of property to furnish information as to the sum paid by him as rent on account of such property and as to the name and address of the person to whom it is payable; and such occupier shall be bound to furnish such information.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not affect any contract made between any owner and occupier respecting the payment of any such expenses.

341. (1) When any person by reason of his receiving the rent of immovable property as agent, trustee, guardian, manager or receiver, or of being agent, trustee, guardian, manager or receiver for the person who would receive the rent if the property were let to a tenant, would, under this Act, be bound to discharge any obligation imposed by this Act, or any rule, by-law, regulation or order made under it on the proprietor of the property and for the discharge of which money is required, he shall not be bound to discharge the obligation unless he has, or, but for his own improper act or default, might have had, in his hands funds belonging to the proprietor sufficient for the purpose.

(2) The burden of proving the facts entitling a person to relief under this section shall lie on him.

(3) When any person has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the [executive authority] may give him notice to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first moneys which shall come to his hands on behalf or for the use of the proprietor; and should he fail to comply with such notice he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge such obligation.

342. Instead of recovering any such expenses as aforesaid in the manner provided under section 344, the [executive authority] may, if he thinks fit, take an agreement from the person liable for the payment thereof, to pay the same in instalments of such amounts and at such intervals as will secure the payment of the whole amount due, with interest thereon at the rate of nine per cent per annum, within a period of not more than five years.

Payment of compensation, etc., by and to the municipality.

343. In any case not otherwise expressly provided for in this Act, the [executive authority] may, with the approval of the council, pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by reason of the exercise by any municipal authority, officer or servant of any of the powers vested in them by this Act or any other law, or by any rule, by-law or regulation made under it.

1 These words were substituted for the word "chairman" by section 17(1) of the Madras District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1933 (Madras Act XV of 1933).
344. All costs, damages, \[penalties\], compensation, charges, fees (other than school fees), expenses, rents (not being rents for lands and buildings demised by the municipal council), contributions and other sums which under this Act or any other law or rules or by-laws made thereunder, or under any contract in respect of water-supply \[or drainage\] made in accordance with this Act, the rules or by-laws are due by any person to the council, may, if there is no \[special provision in this Act for their recovery\] be demanded by bill as provided in the rules in Schedule IV and recovered in the manner provided \[therein\].

345. No distressant shall be made, no suit shall be instituted and no prosecution shall be commenced in respect of any sum due to the municipal council under this Act after the expiration of a period of three years from the date on which distressant might first have been made, a suit might first have been instituted, or prosecution might first have been commenced, as the case may be, in respect of such sum.

346. If any property, movable or immovable, is sold under the provisions of this Act, and if there is a surplus after the sum due to the municipal council and the costs have been deducted from the sale-proceeds, such surplus shall, if the owner of the property sold claims it within six months from the date of the sale, be paid to him by the \[executive authority\], but if no such claim is preferred within such time, the said surplus shall be credited to the municipal fund, and no suit shall lie for the recovery of any sum so credited.

to any tax, or that there is any clerical or arithmetical error in the said books, it may direct the (executive authority) to amend the said books in such manner as it deems just or necessary:

Provided that no such direction shall be given where it involves an increase in the assessment, unless the person concerned shall have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to show cause to the council why the assessment books should not be amended as proposed.

(2) Such amendment shall be deemed to have taken effect on the earliest date, either in the current half-year or in the two half-years immediately preceding it, on which the circumstances justifying the amendment existed.

5. (1) The (executive authority) shall give to every person making payment of a tax a receipt therefor signed by him or by some person duly authorized by him in that behalf.

(2) Such receipt shall specify—

(a) the date of the grant thereof;
(b) the name of the person to whom it is granted;
(c) the tax in respect of which the payment has been made;
(d) the period for which payment has been made; and
(e) the amount paid.

Assessment of the property tax.

46. The value of any land or building for purposes of the property tax shall be determined by the (executive authority):

Provided that the value of any land or building for which is payable by the (executive authority) shall be determined by the revenue divisional officer or if the revenue divisional officer is also the (executive authority), by the council.

1[7. The \(^2\)(executive authority) shall enter the annual or capital value of all lands and buildings determined by him and the tax payable thereon in assessment books to be kept for the purpose at the municipal office. Such books shall record the following particulars, in so far as they can be ascertained, with regard to each assessable item:

(a) the name of the owner;
(b) the name of the occupier;
(c) the designation, if any, of the item;
(d) the name of the ward and street, if any, in which it is situated, and any survey or other number which it bears;
(e) the annual or capital value, as the case may be; and
(f) the amount of the tax payable.]

4[8. (1) The assessment books shall be completely revised by the \(^2\)(executive authority) once in every five years.

3[(1-A) (a) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1), the State Government may for sufficient cause, from time to time by order:

(i) postpone the general revision of assessment of books, or

(ii) stay any proceedings relating to the general revision of assessment books, for a period of one or more half-years at a time but not exceeding in any case seven half-years:

Provided that such postponement or stay shall not affect any subsequent general revision of assessment books.

(b) Where the stay is vacated or the period of stay expires, the State Government may direct that proceedings for the general revision of assessment books shall be either commenced \textit{de novo} or continued from the stage at which such proceedings were stayed.]
(2) The 1(executive authority) may amend the assessment books at any time between one general revision and another by inserting therein or removing therefrom any property or by altering the valuation of any property or the amount of tax 2[for subject to any rules which the 3(State) Government may make in this behalf by substituting therein for the name of the owner of any property the name of any other person who has succeeded by transfer or otherwise to the ownership of the property. ] Such amendment shall be deemed to have taken effect on the first day of the half-year in which it is made:

Provided that when the amendment is made in any half-year after the demand notice for that half-year has been issued, it shall have effect only from the succeeding half-year 2[except where the fair rent of a building together with land appurtenant to it has been determined by the 4[Controller under the Madras Buildings (Lease and Rent Control) Act, 1946].]

4[Provided further that the decision of the executive authority in any disputed case of transfer of ownership of a property shall not give the transferee a legal title to the property.]]

When assessment books have been prepared for the first time and whenever a general revision of such books has been completed, the (executive authority) shall give public notice stating that revision petitions will be considered if they reach the municipal office within a period of sixty days from the date of such notice in the case of the Government, a railway administration or a company, and of thirty days from the said date in other cases. The notice shall be affixed to the notice board of the municipal office and on the same day be published in the municipality by beat of drum:

Provided that in every case where there is an enhancement in the assessment, the executive authority shall also cause intimation thereof to be given by a special notice to be served on the owner or occupier of the property concerned:

Provided further that, in every case where a special notice is required to be served on the owner or occupier under the first proviso, the period of sixty days and thirty days referred to in this rule shall be calculated from the date of service of such special notice.

In every case in which between one general revision and another, the (executive authority) assesses any property for the first time or increases the assessment on any property otherwise than in consequence of a general enhancement of the rate at which the property tax is leviable, the (executive authority) shall intimate by a special notice to the owner or occupier of such property that a petition for revising the assessment will be considered if it reaches the municipal office within sixty days from the date of service of such notice in the case of the Government, a railway administration or a company, and within thirty days from the said date in other cases.

Any person may, at any time, not being less than thirty days before the end of a half-year, move the (executive authority) by revision petition to reduce the tax to which he is liable for the forthcoming half-year on the ground that the annual or capital value of the property in respect of which the tax is imposed has decreased since the assessment of the property was last made or revised.

Appeals.

4[23. An appeal shall lie to the council in respect of the assessment and imposition of the following taxes and of no others:—

(a) assessments made by the revenue divisional officer under rule 3;

(b) the proceedings of the executive authority under rule 19;

[(c) the order of the executive authority under rule 13 upon a revision petition; and]

(d) the imposition by the executive authority of any tax or any carriage, animal, or cart, or of the tax on servants.]
24. The council may of its own motion or otherwise cancel the decision or order of the committee or committee of the council, if it considers it necessary to do so.

25. An appeal shall be made in writing and shall set forth concisely and under distinct heads the grounds of objection to the decision or other proceedings appealed against.

26. No appeal to the council shall be heard—

(a) (unless it reaches the municipal office)—

(i) within fifteen days from the service of the notice referred to in sections 95 and 102; or

(ii) within fifteen days from the date upon which the tax becomes payable under section 86 or 105; or

(iii) within three days from the service of the notice referred to in section 103:

Provided that the council may admit an appeal within fifteen days after the time prescribed in this rule, if cause be shown to its satisfaction for not preferring it within the prescribed time; and

The Council shall provide and maintain more than one such hospital or dispensary, if the ²[State Government] so direct provided that the ¹[State Government] shall not so direct until the council shall have had an opportunity of submitting its views on the subject to the ²[State Government]:

Provided further that the council shall not be bound to provide or maintain such hospitals or dispensaries when in the opinion of the ²[State Government] sufficient provision has otherwise been made for the treatment free of charge of the sick poor and the treatment of patients suffering from infectious diseases in the municipality.

¹ Original clause (p) was re-lettered as clause (g) and a new clause (p) was inserted by Local Administration Department Notification No. 1165, dated the 11th November 1941, published at page 866 of Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 25th November 1941, re-enacted permanently by Local Administration Department Notification, dated the 26th April 1948, published at pages 39 to 58 of the Rules Supplement to Part I-A of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 27th April 1948.

² The words “Provincial Government” were substituted for the words “Local Government” by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word “State” was substituted for “Provincial” by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
(2) Any inhabitant of the municipality, who is not a fit object of public charity, may, subject to such regulations as the council with the approval of the [State Government], may from time to time frame, obtain medical or surgical advice and treatment from any hospital or dispensary maintained by the council from endowments or from the municipal fund; provided that any charges incurred by the council in medical or surgical relief of persons other than the sick poor of the municipality or those unable to pay a medical attendant shall be reimbursed by such persons.

(3) The council may also permit the treatment in the hospitals or dispensaries maintained by it from endowments or from the municipal fund of any person not resident in the municipality.

45. The council shall provide every hospital or dispensary provided or maintained by it with all necessary drugs, instruments, apparatus, furniture and appliances on a scale approved by the [State Government], and when, in the opinion of the council, provision for in-patients may be necessary, it shall also provide a sufficient number of cots, bedding, clothing, furniture and diet for such in-patients.

46. The council shall employ a medical officer for any hospital or dispensary maintained by it from endowments or from the municipal fund.

Obligatory educational expenditure.

47. The council shall, so far as the funds at its disposal may admit, make provision for the instruction in schools of all children of school-going age resident within the limits of the municipality, for whose instruction provision shall not otherwise have been made.

48. The council may provide instruction—

(i) either by schools maintained wholly from the municipal fund, or

(ii) by means of grants-in-aid to private schools from the said fund in accordance with such rules as may from time to time be prescribed by the [State Government].

1 The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
(iii) by contributing towards the cost of Government schools, or
(iv) by more than one of such means.

49. The council may, with the previous sanction of the 1[State Government], maintain either wholly from the municipal fund, or by grants-in-aid therefrom, elementary schools to which admission may be wholly or partly free for any class of the inhabitants which, in the opinion of the council, is by reason of poverty unable to pay the fees leviable in schools maintained by the council whether wholly from the municipal fund or by grants-in-aid therefrom.

50. (1) If at any time it seems advisable to the 1[State Government] that a grant-in-aid should be made to any school maintained solely for the instruction of the children of any particular class of the inhabitants of any municipality 2[they may direct] the municipal council to make such grant to such school; and the council shall make it accordingly; provided that the 1[State Government] shall not so direct until the council shall have had an opportunity of submitting its views on the subject to the 1[State Government].

(2) The instruction to be provided by the council shall be of such standards as may from time to time be determined by the 1[State Government].

51. (1) The council shall, unless otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, or in the case of elementary schools exempted by the 1[State Government] on such conditions as it may prescribe from time to time, levy in every school maintained by it, fees as may from time to time be determined by the 1[State Government]:

Provided that if the council is satisfied that the parent or guardian of any child, resident in the municipality, is by reason of poverty unable to pay for the elementary education of such child,

1 The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.

2 These words were substituted for the words "he may direct" by the Schedule to the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1930 (Tamil Nadu Act X of 1930).
it may remit the whole or part of the fees, but it shall not compel the parent or guardian of such child in consideration of the said relief to send such child to any particular municipal school:

Provided further that the council may, in any secondary school, in accordance with a scheme framed by it and approved by the Director of Public Instruction, remit the whole or part of the fees of poor pupils, subject to the condition that the fee income thus foregone shall not exceed 10 per cent of the total fees realizable from all pupils of the school at the rates determined by the ¹[State Government].

(2) The proceeds of all fees levied by the council as aforesaid shall be expended by the council for the provision of instruction by means of schools.

Discretionary educational expenditure.

52. The council may also provide wholly from the municipal fund, or by means of grants-in-aid therefrom,

(i) for the inspection of schools maintained by it whether wholly from the municipal fund or by grants-in-aid therefrom;

(ii) for the training of teachers for schools aided or maintained from the municipal fund;

(iii) for the instruction and training of persons for the practice of medicine, or of vaccination, or of any technical or industrial calling; and

(iv) for the maintenance of public libraries, reading rooms, gymnasium or any other institutions connected with the diffusion of education, which may be approved by the ¹[State Government].

Extraordinary expenditure.

53. A municipal council may, with the sanction of the ¹[State Government],

(1) contribute towards the expenses of any public exhibition, ceremony or entertainment in the municipality;

¹ The words "Provincial Government" were substituted for the words "Local Government" by the Adaptation Order of 1937 and the word "State" was substituted for "Provincial" by the Adaptation Order of 1950.
(2) defray the cost of the preparation and presentation of addresses to persons of distinction visiting the municipality;

(3) contribute to any charitable fund or to a fund for the defence of the municipality [or India] or to the funds of any institution for the relief of the poor or the treatment of disease or infirmity or the reception of diseased or infirm persons or the investigation of the causes of disease:

(4) pay a conveyance allowance to the chairman or vice-chairman;

(5) pay the expenses of the chairman, members of the council and municipal officers and servants travelling on municipal business; and

(6) defray any other extraordinary charges.

Receipts and payments.

54. All moneys received by the council shall be lodged in the nearest Government treasury or, with the sanction of the [State Government], in a bank:

Provided that the municipal council may, with the sanction of the [State Government], invest any sums not required for immediate use either in a Government savings bank or in Government securities, or in any other security which may be approved by the [State Government].

55. (1) All orders or cheques against the municipal fund shall be signed by the [executive authority], or by some person duly authorized in this behalf by him.] The treasury or bank in which the fund is lodged shall, so far as the funds to the credit of the council admit, pay all orders or cheques against the fund which are so signed.

(2) If the council shall have given previous authority in writing such treasury or bank may at once pay out of the municipal fund without such order or cheque any expense which the [State Government] [have incurred] on behalf of the council.

Audit, surcharge and disallowance.

56. The [executive authority] shall submit all accounts to auditors as required by them.

57. The auditors may—

[(a) by summons in writing, require the production of any book, deed, contract, account, voucher, receipt or other document the perusal or examination of which they consider necessary];

(b) by summons in writing require any person having the custody or control of any such document or accountable for it to appear in person before them;

(c) require any person so appearing to make and sign a declaration with respect to such document or to answer any question or to prepare and furnish any statement relating thereto.

58. The auditors shall—

(a) report to the council any material impropriety or irregularity which they may observe in the expenditure, or in the recovery of moneys due to the council or in the municipal accounts;

(b) furnish to the council such information as it may require concerning the progress of their audit;

(c) report to the council any loss or waste of money or other property owned by or vested in the council caused by neglect or misconduct, with the names of persons, directly or indirectly, responsible for such loss or waste; and

(d) submit to the council a final statement of the audit and a duplicate copy thereof to the [State Government] within a period of three months from the end of the financial year, or within such other period as the [State Government] may notify.

59. The executive authority shall forthwith remedy any defects or irregularities that may be pointed out by the auditors and report the same to the council.

60. (1) The auditors may disallow every item contrary to law and surcharge the same on the person making, or authorizing the making of, the illegal payment; and may charge against such person responsible therefor the amount of any deficiency, loss, or any table outlay incurred by the negligence or misconduct of that person or of any sum which ought to have been but is not brought into account by that person and shall, in every such case, certify the amount due from such person.

[Explanation.—It shall not be open to any person whose negligence or misconduct has caused or contributed to any such deficiency or loss, to contend that notwithstanding his negligence or misconduct the deficiency or loss would not have occurred but for the negligence or misconduct of some other person.]

(2) The auditors shall state in writing the reasons for their decision in respect of every disallowance, surcharge or charge and furnish by registered post a copy thereof to the person against whom it is made.
If the person to whom a copy of the auditor’s decision is so furnished refuses to receive it, he shall nevertheless be deemed to have been duly furnished with a copy of such decision within the meaning of sub-rule (2). The period of fourteen days fixed in rules 61 and 62 shall be calculated from the date of such refusal.

1[61. (1)] Any person aggrieved by disallowance, surcharge or charge made may, within fourteen days after he has received or been served with the decision of the auditor, either—

(a) apply to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction to set aside such disallowance, surcharge or charge and the court, after taking such evidence as is necessary, may confirm, modify or remit such disallowance, surcharge or charge with such orders as to costs as it may think proper in the circumstances; or

(b) in lieu of such application may appeal to the 2[State Government] who shall pass such orders as they think fit.

3[Where an application is made to the court under clause (a), the auditor shall be the sole respondent thereto, and the applicant shall not be entitled to make either the *(State Government) or any other person a party to the proceedings.]

1[(2) From any decision of the court under clause (a) of sub-rule (1), an appeal shall lie to the High Court.]

62. Every sum certified to be due from any person by auditors under this Act shall be paid by such person to the 5[executive authority], within fourteen days after the intimation to him of the decision of the auditors unless within that time such person has appealed to the court or to the 2[State Government] against the

[THE [TAMIL NADU] DISTRICT MUNICIPALITIES (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1950]

(Received the assent of the Governor on the 25th October 1950; first published in the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary on the 25th October 1950.)

An Act further to amend the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920, for the purposes hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1950.

2. It shall come into force at once:

Provided that in respect of any municipal council which is in existence at the commencement of this Act, section 2 shall not come into force—

(a) until the date of the next ordinary elections thereto; or

(b) if the council is dissolved or superseded before the date aforesaid, until the date of the first elections to the council after such dissolution or supersession.

2. [Amendments made by this section have been incorporated in [Tamil Nadu] Act V of 1920.]

3. (1) The State Government shall have power to direct that the term of office of the councillors of any municipality constituted under the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920, which under the law now in force extends up to noon on the first day of November 1950 or on the first day of November 1951 shall extend instead up to noon on such date as may be fixed by them.

(2) The State Government may, from time to time, advance or postpone any date fixed under sub-section (1) and fix another date instead.

These words were substituted for the word "Madras" by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.

For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 19th September 1950, Part IV-A, page 369.
4. Where any date other than the first day of November of any year is fixed under section 3, the provisions of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, shall have effect, subject to the following modifications, namely:

(a) The State Government shall cause elections to be held to every municipality concerned, so that the newly elected members may come into office on the date fixed as aforesaid.

(b) The term of office of the newly elected councillors of any municipality concerned shall, subject to the provisions of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, and the Madras District Municipalities and Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1921, expire at noon on the first day of November immediately succeeding the expiry of three years from the date referred to in clause (a).

5. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, or of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, as amended by this Act, the State Government may, as occasion may require, by order, do anything which appears to them necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

An Act further to amend the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920 (1[Tamil Nadu] Act V of 1920), for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

Be it enacted in the Ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the "[Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1958".

2. (1) The State Government shall have power to direct that the term of office of the councillors of every municipality constituted under the [Tamil Nadu] District Municipalities Act, 1920 ([Tamil Nadu] Act V of 1920) (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), which extends up to noon on the first day of November 1958 shall extend instead up to noon on such date as may be fixed by the State Government.

(2) The State Government may, from time to time, advance or postpone the date fixed under sub-section (1) and fix another date instead.

(3) No date fixed under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be later than the thirtieth day of April 1959.

1 These words were substituted for the word "Madras" by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.

2 For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 30th August 1958, Part IV-A, page 278.
3. The provisions of the said Act shall have effect, subject to the following modifications, namely:

(a) The State Government shall cause elections to be held to every municipality concerned, so that the newly elected members may come into office on the date fixed as aforesaid.

(b) The term of office of the newly elected councillors shall expire at noon on the first day of November immediately succeeding the expiry of three years from the date referred to in clause (a).

4. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, or of the said Act as amended by this Act, the State Government may, as occasion may require, by order, do anything which appears to them necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.
THE MADRAS CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION AND TAMIL NADU DISTRICT MUNICIPALITIES
(AMENDMENT AND EXTENSION OF TERM OF OFFICE) ACT, 1971.

[Received the assent of the Governor on the 4th September 1971, and published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary on the 6th September 1971 (Bhadra 15, 1893).]

An Act further to amend the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 and the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1929 and to extend the term of office of municipal councillors.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Twenty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities commencement, (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Act, 1971.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification, appoint and different dates may be appointed for different provisions of this Act:

Provided that any reference in section 35, section 39, [*] and Schedule II to the commencement of this Act shall be construed as a reference to the coming into force of the relevant provision.

*For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary dated the 18th July 1971, Part IV—Section 3, page 881.

1 The expression “section 40” was omitted by section 2 of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) (Amendment) Act, 1974 (Tamil Nadu Act 11 of 1974).
PART II.

AMENDMENTS OF THE MADRAS CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1919.

2-34. [The amendments made by these sections have already been incorporated in the principal Act, namely, the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919).]

35. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in the 1919 Act, in regard to the first constitution of any standing committee or the additional standing committee in accordance with the provisions of the 1919 Act as amended by this Act and otherwise in first giving effect to the said provisions, they shall be read subject to the rules in Schedule II.

(2) The State Government shall have power, by notification, to amend, add to, or repeal, the rules in the said Schedule.

(3) If any difficulty arises in first giving effect to the provisions of this Act or of the 1919 Act as amended by this Act or as to the first constitution of any standing committee, or any additional standing committee after the commencement of this Act, the State Government may, as occasion may require, by order, do anything which appears to them necessary for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

(4) Every notification issued under sub-section (2) and every order made under sub-section (3) shall as soon as possible after it is issued or made, be placed on the table of both Houses of the Legislature, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, both Houses agree in making any modification in any notification or order or both Houses agree that the notification or order should not be issued or made, the notification or order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notification or order.

PART III.

36-37. [The amendments made by these sections have already been incorporated in the principal Act, namely, the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920).]

PART IV.

EXTENSION OF TERM OF OFFICE OF COUNCILLORS.

38. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(1) "councillor" means a councillor of a municipal authority;
39. Notwithstanding anything contained in the 1919 Act, as amended by this Act, the term of office of the councillors of the Municipal Corporation of Madras holding office as such on the date of commencement of this Act shall extend up to [the thirtieth day of November 1973] [* * * * *]:

Provided that the Government may, by notification, for sufficient cause direct that the term so extended be reduced by such periods as may be specified in the notification and the Government may, in the like manner, cancel or modify any such notification.

1 This expression was substituted for the expression "the first day of November 1973" by section 4(i) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1973 (Tamil Nadu Act 34 of 1973), which was deemed to have come into force on the 6th October 1973.

2 The expression "and thereafter the provisions of sections 55 and 55-A of the said 1919 Act as amended by this Act shall so far as may be, apply to the next ordinary election to be held" was omitted by section 4(ii) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation Laws (Amendment) Act, 1973 (Tamil Nadu Act 34 of 1973).
40. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the 1920 Act, as amended by this Act, the term of office of—

(i) [the councillors of any municipal council (other than the Coimbatore Municipal Council) holding office as such on [the date of publication of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Act, 1974 in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette,] and

(ii) the councillors (other than the councillors of the Coimbatore Municipal Council) elected] after [the date of publication of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of term of office) Act, 1974 in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette,] to any newly constituted or reconstituted municipal council, [shall, extend up to the noon on the first day of July 1976: ]
1 [Provided that the Government may, by notification, for sufficient cause direct, that the term so extended be further extended for such period not exceeding two months or be reduced by such period as may be specified in the notification and the Government, may, in the like manner, cancel or modify any such notification.]

(2) In regard to the next ordinary election to be held thereafter to the [municipal councils (other than the Coimbatore Municipal Council)] referred to in sub-section (1), the provisions of section 8 of the said 1920 Act, as amended by this Act, shall, so far as may be, apply.

41. Every notification issued under section 39 or section 40, shall, as soon as possible after it is issued, be placed on the table of both Houses of the Legislature and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, both Houses agree in making any modification in any such notification or both Houses agree that the notification should not be issued, the notification shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that notification.

1 This proviso was substituted for the following proviso by section 2(ii) of the Madras City Municipal Corporation and Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment and Extension of Term of office) Act, 1974 (Tamil Nadu Act 40 of 1974):

"Provided that the Government may, by notification, for sufficient cause direct, that the term so extended be reduced by such period as may be specified in the notification, and the Government may, in the like manner, cancel or modify any such notification."

2 These words and brackets were substituted for the words "municipal councils" by section 2(2) of the Tamil Nadu District Municipal Councillors (Extension of Term of office) Act, 1975 (Tamil Nadu Act 38 of 1975), which was deemed to have come into force on the 30th June 1975.
SCHEDULE I.

(See section 34.)

[The amendments made in Schedule I have already been incorporated in the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919).]

SCHEDULE II.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS.

(See section 35.)

1. The central committee, the corporation accounts committee, the contracts committee, the licence appeals committee and all circle committees constituted under the provisions of the 1919 Act are hereby abolished with effect from the commencement of this Act; and the council shall, within a period of fifteen days from the date of the commencement of this Act, elect the members to the standing committees in accordance with such procedure as the State Government may, by order, specify in this behalf; and the standing committees constituted in accordance with the provisions of the 1919 Act, as amended by this Act, shall elect their chairmen, as soon as may be, after the election of the members of the standing committees, in accordance with such procedure as the State Government may, by order, specify in this behalf.

2. Any reference to a central committee, a corporation accounts committee, a contracts committee, a licence appeals committee and the circle committees, constituted or established under the 1919 Act or the chairman or member of such committee, contained in any enactment in force in the State of Tamil Nadu or in any notification, order, scheme, rule, form or by-law made under any such enactment and in force in the said State, shall, after the commencement of this Act, be construed as a reference to the standing committee or the chairman, or member of such committee as the circumstances of the case may require:
Provided that it shall be open to the council to direct that any such reference shall be construed as a reference to itself or to such other authority or person as may be specified by it by resolution.

3. All proceedings pending before any such central committee, the corporation accounts committee, the contracts committee, the licence appeals committee and all the circle committees at the commencement of this Act may, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of the 1919 Act, as amended by this Act, be continued under the 1919 Act as so amended, by the standing committee to which the subject-matter of the proceedings relate to or if the council so directs in any case or class of cases by the council.

4. Any order passed, action taken or thing done by a central committee, a corporation accounts committee, a contracts committee, a licence appeals committee, or the circle committees before the commencement of this Act shall, subject to the provisions of the 1919 Act, as amended by this Act and to such directions as the council may, by general or special order, give in this behalf, be deemed to have been passed, taken or done by the council, or the concerned standing committee as the circumstances may require unless and until the same is superseded by such council, or the concerned standing committee.

PRESIDENT'S ACT NO. 23 OF 1976.*

THE TAMIL NADU LOCAL AUTHORITIES' LAWS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1976.

[Received the assent of the President on the 31st May 1976, first published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary on the 1st June 1976 (Vaikasi 19, Nala (2007—Tiruvalluvar Andu)).]

Enacted by the President in the Twenty-seventh Year of the Republic of India.

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu Local Authorities' Laws.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Tamil Nadu State Legislature (Delegation of Powers) Act, 1976 (41 of 1976), the President is pleased to enact as follows:

1. (1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu Local Authorities' Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification, appoint.

2. In the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919),—

(i) in section 111, after sub-section (3), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:

"(4) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any person subject to the Army Act, 1950 (40 of 1950), the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957) or the Air Force Act, 1950 (45 of 1950) who is compelled by the exigencies of military, naval or air force duty to reside within the limits of the City."

(ii) after section 115, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"115-A. Deduction of profession tax from salary or wages or other sum.—(1) Every employer shall, on receipt of a requisition from the commissioner, deduct from the salary or wages of any person employed by the employer as an officer or a servant or from any sum payable by the employer to any person employed by the employer as dubash, agent, supplier or contractor, such amount of profession tax, as may be specified in such requisition, as being due from such employed person.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, "employer" includes the head or secretary or manager of any public or private office, hotel, boarding house, club, firm or company.

(2) Every person responsible for making any deduction under sub-section (1) may, at the time of making the deduction, increase or reduce the amount to be deducted under sub-section (1) for the purpose of adjusting any excess or deficiency arising out of any previous deduction or failure to deduct during the half-year.

(3) Any deduction made in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) and paid to the corporation shall be treated as a payment of profession tax on behalf of the person from whose salary or wages the deduction was made or on behalf of the person to whom the sum from which the deduction was made is payable, and credit shall be given to him for the amount so deducted on the production of the certificate furnished under sub-section (5) in respect of the profession tax, if any, due from that person for the relevant half-year under this Act.

(4) Any sum deducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be paid within the prescribed time to the credit of the corporation.

(5) Every person making the deduction under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall, at the time of payment of the salary or wages or sum, furnish to the persons to whom such payment is made a certificate to the effect that profession tax has been deducted, and specifying the amount so deducted and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(6) Where profession tax due from any employed person is deducted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the person from whose salary or wages the
(7) Every person making the deduction under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall prepare and, within such period as may be prescribed after the expiry of the half-year, deliver or cause to be delivered to the commissioner in the prescribed form and verified in the prescribed manner, a return in writing showing the name and residential address of every person from whose salary or wages deduction was made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), and of every person to whom the sum from which such deduction was made is payable, the amount so deducted, and the half-year to which the deduction relates.

(8) If any person responsible for making any deduction under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to the Central Government or any State Government or any officer of any such Government.

(9) The provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding any law to the contrary for the time being in force.

3. In the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920),—

(i) in section 93, after sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(5) Nothing contained in this section shall apply to any person subject to the Army Act, 1950 (46 of 1950), the Navy Act, 1957 (62 of 1957) or the Air Force Act, 1950 (45 of 1950) who is compelled by the exigencies of military, naval or air force duty to reside within the limits of the municipality.”;
(ii) after section 97, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"97-A. Deduction of profession tax from salary or wages or other sum.—(1) Every employer shall, on receipt of a requisition from the executive authority, deduct from the salary or wages of any person employed by the employer as an officer or a servant or from any sum payable by the employer to any person employed by the employer as dubash, agent, supplier or contractor, such amount of profession tax, as may be specified in such requisition, as being due from such employed person.

Explanation.—In this sub-section, "employer" includes the head or secretary or manager of any public or private office, hotel, boarding-house, club, firm or company.

(2) Every person responsible for making any deduction under sub-section (1) may, at the time of making the deduction, increase or reduce the amount to be deducted under sub-section (1) for the purpose of adjusting any excess or deficiency arising out of any previous deduction or failure to deduct during the half-year.

(3) Any deduction made in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) and paid to the municipality shall be treated as a payment of profession tax on behalf of the person from whose salary or wages the deduction was made or on behalf of the person to whom the sum from which the deduction was made is payable, and credit shall be given to him for the amount so deducted on the production of the certificate furnished under sub-section (5) in respect of the profession tax, if any, due from that person for the relevant half-year under this Act.

(4) Any sum deducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be paid within the prescribed time to the credit of the municipality.

(5) Every person making the deduction under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall, at the time of payment of the salary or wages or sum, furnish to the person to whom such payment is made a certificate to the effect that profession tax has been deducted, and specifying the amount so deducted and such other particulars as may be prescribed.

Tamil Nadu Act No. 32 of 1980.*

The Tamil Nadu Local Authorities' Laws (Amendment) Act, 1980.

[Received the assent of the Governor on the 8th September 1980, first published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary on the 11th September 1980 (Aavani 26, Rowthiri-2011-Thiruvalluvar Aandu].]

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu Local Authorities' Laws.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Thirty-first Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

PART I.

Preliminary

1. (1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu Local Authorities’ Laws (Amendment) Act, 1980.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

PART II.

Amendments of the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919.

2. In the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919) (hereinafter in this Tamil Nadu Part referred to as the 1919 Act), for section 47, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"47. Electoral rolls for divisional seats and qualification for inclusion therein.—(1) For each of the territorial divisions referred to in section 45, there shall be an electoral roll which shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act and such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as the State Government may, from time to time, issue in this behalf.

(2) A person shall be disqualified for registration in an electoral roll if he—

(a) is not a citizen of India; or

(b) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or

(c) is for the time being disqualified from voting under the provisions of section 71 or any law relating to corrupt practices and other offences in connection with elections.

(3) No person shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for more than one territorial division or in the electoral roll for any territorial division in more than one place.

(4) No person registered in the electoral roll for a territorial division shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for any other territorial division or ward, as the case may be, of any City (other than the City of Madras), municipality or panchayat.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expressions 'City', 'municipality' and 'panchayat' shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 15 of 1971) or in any other law for the time being in force, the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920) and the Tamil Nadu Panchayats Act, 1958 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXV of 1958).
(5) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (1) to (4), every person who—

(a) is not less than eighteen years of age on the qualifying date; and

(b) is ordinarily resident in the City, shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for any one of the territorial divisions referred to in section 45.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, "qualifying date" in relation to the preparation or revision of an electoral roll under this Act, means the first day of January of the year in which it is so prepared or revised.

(6) (a) A person shall not be deemed to be ordinarily resident in the City on the ground only that he owns, or is in possession of, a dwelling house therein.

(b) A person absenting himself temporarily from his place of ordinary residence shall not by reason thereof cease to be ordinarily resident therein.

(c) A person who is a patient in any establishment maintained wholly or mainly for the reception and treatment of persons suffering from mental illness or mental defectiveness, or who is detained in prison or other legal custody at any place, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be ordinarily resident therein.

(d) If in any case a question arises as to whether a person is ordinarily resident in the City at any relevant time, the question shall be determined by the State Government in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.”.

3. In section 48 of the 1919 Act, in sub-section (1) for the Explanation, the following shall be substituted, namely :

"Explanation.—The power conferred by this subsection on the person so authorised, shall include the power to omit, in the manner and at the times aforesaid from the electoral roll for any such division published under this sub-section, the name of any person who is dead or who incurs any of the disqualifications specified in sub-section (2) of section 47:

125-12—6
Provided that the name of any person omitted from the electoral roll for the territorial division by reason of a disqualification under clause (c) of sub-section (2) of section 47 shall forthwith be reinstated in that roll if such disqualification is, during the period such roll is in force removed under any law authorising such removal.

4. After section 48 of the 1919 Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:

"48-A. Jurisdiction of civil courts barred.—No civil court shall have jurisdiction,

(a) to entertain or adjudicate upon any question whether any person is or is not entitled to be registered in an electoral roll for the territorial divisions referred to in section 45; or

(b) to question the legality of any action taken by any authority under section 47 or section 48.

48-B. Making false declaration.—If any person makes in connection with—

(a) the preparation, revision or correction of an electoral roll for the territorial division, or

(b) the inclusion or exclusion of any entry in or from an electoral roll for the territorial division, a statement or declaration in writing which is false and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both."

5. For section 50 of the 1919 Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:

"50. Disqualification of voters.—No person who is of unsound mind and declared so by the competent court shall be qualified to vote and no person who is disqualified under section 71 shall be qualified to vote so long as the disqualification subsists.”.

6. For sub-section (1) of section 51 of the 1919 Act, the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) No person shall be qualified for election or co-option as a councillor unless—

(a) his name is included in the electoral roll of any one of the territorial divisions of the City;

(b) he has completed his twenty-first year of age; and

(c) in the case of co-option under section 5, such person is a member of the Scheduled Caste or the Scheduled Tribe or a woman, as the case may be.”.

PART III.

7. In the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920) (hereinafter in this section Part referred to as the 1920 Act), in section 44,—

(i) for sub-section (1), including the proviso and Explanations (1) and (?i) thereto, the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

“(1) For every municipality there shall be an electoral roll which shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act and such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as the State Government may, from time to time, issue in this behalf.
(1-A) A person shall be disqualified for registration in an electoral roll if he—

(a) is not a citizen of India; or

(b) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or

(c) is for the time being disqualified from voting under the provisions of section 60 or any law relating to corrupt practices and other offences in connection with elections.

(1-B) No person shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for any municipality more than once.

(1-C) No person registered in the electoral roll for a municipality shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for another municipality, panchayat or City.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expressions 'panchayat' and 'City' shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Tamil Nadu Panchayats Act, 1958 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXV of 1958), the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919) or the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 15 of 1971) or in any other law for the time being in force.

(1-D) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (1), (1-A), (1-B) and (1-C), every person who—

(a) is not less than eighteen years of age on the qualifying date; and

(b) is ordinarily resident in a municipality, shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for that municipality.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section "qualifying date" in relation to the preparation or revision of an electoral roll under this Act, means the first day of January of the year in which it is so prepared or revised.
(1-E) (a) A person shall not be deemed to be ordinarily resident in a municipality on the ground only that he owns, or is in possession of, a dwelling house therein.

(b) A person, absencing himself temporarily from his place of ordinary residence shall not by reason thereof cease to be ordinarily resident therein.

(c) A person who is a patient in any establishment maintained wholly or mainly for the reception and treatment of persons suffering from mental illness or mental defectiveness or who is detained in prison or other legal custody at any place, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be ordinarily resident therein.

(d) If in any case a question arises as to whether a person is ordinarily resident in a municipality at any relevant time, the question shall be determined by the State Government in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed."

(ii) in sub-section (2), for the Explanation, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"Explanation.—The power conferred by this sub-section on the person so authorised shall include the power to omit, in the manner and at the times aforesaid, from the electoral roll for the municipality published under this sub-section, the name of any person who is dead or who incurs any of the disqualifications specified in sub-section (1-A):

Provided that the name of any person omitted from the electoral roll for the municipality by reason of a disqualification under clause (c) of sub-section (1-A) shall forthwith be reinstated in that roll if such disqualification is, during the period such roll is in force, removed under any law authorising such removal."
(iii) the Explanation, occurring at the end, shall be omitted.

8. After section 44 of the 1920 Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:

"44-A. Jurisdiction of civil courts barred.—No civil court shall have jurisdiction—

(a) to entertain or adjudicate upon any question whether any person is or is not entitled to be registered in an electoral roll for a municipality; or

(b) the inclusion or exclusion of any entry in or from an authority under section 44.

44-B. Making false declaration.—If any person makes in connection with—

(a) the preparation, revision or correction of an electoral roll, or

(b) the inclusion or exclusion of any entry in or from an electoral roll, a statement or declaration in writing which is false and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both."

9. For section 47 of the 1920 Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:

"47. Disqualification of voters.—Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6) of section 44, no person who is of unsound mind and declared so by the competent court shall be qualified to vote and no person who is disqualified under section 60 shall be qualified to vote so long as the disqualification subsists."

10. For sub-section (1) of section 48 of the 1920 Act, the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:

"(1) No person shall be qualified for election as a chairman or as a councillor, unless—

(a) his name is included in the electoral roll of the municipality; and

(b) he has completed his twenty-first year of age."
PART IV.

AMENDMENTS OF THE TAMIL NADU
PANCHAYATS ACT, 1958.

11. In sub-section (1) of section 12 of the Tamil Nadu Panchayats Act, 1958 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXV of 1958) (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the 1958 Act), after the proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that no person shall be co-opted under this sub-section unless he has completed his twenty-first year of age.”.

12. In sub-section (4) of section 15 of the 1958 Act, for the words “whose name appears in the electoral roll for the panchayat”, the words “whose name appears in the electoral roll for the panchayat and who has completed her twenty-first year of age” shall be substituted.

13. In section 2C of the 1958 Act,—

(i) for sub-section (1) including the proviso and the Explanation thereto, the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely :—

“(1) For every panchayat there shall be an electoral roll which shall be prepared in accordance with the provisions of this Act and such directions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as the Government may, from time to time, issue in this behalf.

(1-A) A person shall be disqualified for registration in an electoral roll if he—

(a) is not a citizen of India; or

(b) is of unsound mind and stands so declared by a competent court; or

(c) is for the time being disqualified from voting under the provisions of section 24 or any law relating to corrupt practices and other offences in connection with elections.

(1-B) No person shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for any panchayat more than once.

(1-C) No person registered in the electoral roll for a panchayat shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for another panchayat, municipality or City.
Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expressions ‘municipality’ and ‘City’ shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920), the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919), or the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 15 of 1971), or in any other law for the time being in force.

(1-D) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (1), (1-A), (1-B) and (1-C), every person who—

(a) is not less than eighteen years of age on the qualifying date; and

(b) is ordinarily resident in a panchayat village or panchayat town or township, shall be entitled to be registered in the electoral roll for that panchayat.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section; “qualifying date” in relation to the preparation or revision of an electoral roll under this Act, means the first day of January of the year in which it is so prepared or revised.

(1-E) (a) A person shall not be deemed to be ordinarily resident in a panchayat village or panchayat town or township, on the ground only that he owns, or is in possession of a dwelling house therein.

(b) A person absenting himself temporarily from his place or ordinary residence shall not by reason thereof cease to be ordinarily resident therein.

(c) A person who is a patient in any establishment maintained wholly or mainly for the reception and treatment of persons suffering from mental illness or mental defectiveness, or who is detained in prison or other legal custody at any place, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be ordinarily resident therein.

(d) If in any case a question arises as to whether a person is ordinarily resident in a panchayat village or panchayat town or township at any relevant time, the question shall be determined by the Government in accordance with such rules as may be prescribed.

(ii) in sub-section (2), for the Explanation, the following shall be substituted, namely:

“Explanation.—The power conferred by this sub-section on the person so authorised, shall include the power to omit, in the manner and at the times aforesaid, from the electoral roll for the panchayat published under this sub-section, the name of any person who is dead or who incurs any of the disqualifications specified in sub-section (1-A):

Provided that the name of any person omitted from the electoral roll for the panchayat by reason of a disqualification under clause (c) of sub-section (1-A) shall forthwith be reinstated in that roll if such disqualification is, during the period such roll is in force, removed under any law authorising such removal;"

(iii) the Explanation occurring at the end shall be omitted.

14. After section 20 of the 1958 Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"20-A. Jurisdiction of civil courts barred.—No civil court shall have jurisdiction—

(a) to entertain or adjudicate upon any question whether any person is or is not entitled to be registered in an electoral roll for a panchayat; or

(b) to question the legality of any action taken by any authority under section 20.

20-B. Making false declaration.—If any person makes in connection with—

(a) the preparation, revision or correction of an electoral roll, or

(b) the inclusion or exclusion of any entry in or from an electoral roll, a statement or declaration in writing which is false and which he either knows or believes to be false or does not believe to be true, he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year, or with fine, or with both.”.

15. For section 22 of the 1958 Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"22. Qualification of candidates.—No person shall be qualified for election as—

(a) a member or president of a panchayat unless—

(i) his name appears on the electoral roll for the panchayat; and
(ii) he has completed his twenty-first year of age; or
(b) chairman of a panchayat union council unless—
(i) his name appears on the electoral roll for any one of the panchayats or townships comprised in the panchayat union; and
(ii) he has completed his twenty-first year of age.”.

16. After section 24 of the 1958 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

“24-A. Disqualification of voters.—No person who is of unsound mind and declared so by the competent court shall be qualified to vote and no person who is disqualified under section 24 shall be qualified to vote so long as the disqualification subsists.”.

17. In section 36-A of the 1958 Act, in sub-section (1), in clause (b), in the third proviso, item (i) shall be re-numbered as item (i-A), and before the item (i-A) as so renumbered, the following item shall be inserted, namely:

“(i) unable to read and write in Tamil ; or”.

PART V.

18-21. [The amendments made by these sections have already been incorporated in the principal Act, namely, the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 15 of 1971).]
The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislature received the assent of the Governor on the 7th May 1985 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 25 OF 1985.

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920.

Whereas a policy decision of the State Government that elections to all the municipal councils will be held in August-September 1985 has been announced in both Houses of the Legislature;

And whereas the elections to the municipal councils on the basis of division of wards and reservation of seats for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and women under the provisions of law as they now stand could not be held because of legal difficulties;

And whereas it has become necessary to hold elections to the municipal councils under the provisions of law as they stood in the year 1979;

And whereas under the provisions of law as they stood in 1979, division of wards and reservation of seats shall be made on the basis of the last census which will now be the 1981 census;

And whereas any fresh division of wards and reservation of seats under the law as it stood in 1979 on the basis of 1981 census after following the prescribed procedure cannot be completed in time to hold the elections in August-September 1985;

And whereas in order to complete the process of elections to all the municipal councils, there is no other alternative except to hold the elections on the basis of the division of wards and reservation of seats made in accordance with the 1971 census;

And whereas it is considered necessary to make suitable provision in this regard and for certain other connected matters;

BE it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Thirty-sixth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1985.
(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of section 7, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In section 7 of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act),—
   (i) for sub-sections (3) and (4), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

   "(3) In any municipality, the State Government may, by notification, from time to time, reserve wards for—
   (a) members of the Scheduled Castes,
   (b) members of the Scheduled Tribes, or
   (c) women and determine the number of such wards:

   Provided that no such ward shall be reserved for any of the communities mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) if at the last preceding census of which the relevant figures have been published, such community constituted more than one-half of the total population of the municipality.

   (3-A) The total number of wards reserved under sub-section (3) shall not exceed one-fourth of the strength of the municipal council as notified under sub-section (1).

   (4) In reserving wards for the communities mentioned in clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (3) the State Government shall have due regard to their number;”.

   (ii) in sub-section (5),—
   (a) for the words "the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes", the words "any community" shall be substituted;
   (b) the Explanation shall be omitted.

3. Repeal of sections 7-B, 7-C, 7-D, 7-E and 7-F, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—Sections 7-B, 7-C, 7-D, 7-E and 7-F of the principal Act are hereby repealed.

4. Amendment of section 8, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In section 8 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), for the expression "five years", the expression "four years" shall be substituted.

5. Amendment of section 43, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In section 43 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), after clause (a), the following clauses shall be inserted, namely:—

   "(b) determine the wards that shall be reserved under sub-section (3) of section 7; and"
(c) declare for whom such wards are reserved.”.

6. Amendment of section 368, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In section 368 of the principal Act, in sub-section (5), for the expression “five years”, the expression “four years” shall be substituted.

7. Pending proceedings to abate, etc.—(1) Section 8 of the Tamil Nadu General Clauses Act, 1891 (Tamil Nadu Act I of 1891) shall not apply to the repeal of sections 7-B, 7-C, 7-D, 7-E and 7-F of the principal Act by this Act.

(2) Every proceeding made or taken under any of the sections of the principal Act referred to in sub-section (1) and pending before the date of the publication of this Act in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette shall abate.

(3) No legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any of the sections of the principal Act referred to in sub-section (1) shall be instituted, continued or enforced under any of the said sections.

8. Notifications specified in the First Schedule to cease to have effect.—The former Rural Development and Local Administration Department notifications specified in the First Schedule shall, with effect on and from the date of the publication of this Act in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, cease to have effect.

9. Revival of certain notifications.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Act as amended by this Act or in the Tamil Nadu General Clauses Act, 1891 (Tamil Nadu Act I of 1891) or in any other law for the time being in force, the former Rural Development and Local Administration Department notifications specified in column (3) of the Second Schedule relating to the municipalities specified in the corresponding entries in column (1) of the said Schedule issued with the Government order specified in the corresponding entries in column (2) thereof shall with effect on and from the date of publication of this Act in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, revive and shall have full force and effect in law and such notifications shall not be liable to be questioned in any court of law and the first election to the municipal councils after the date of publication of this Act in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette shall be held on the basis of such notifications.

(By order of the Governor)

S. VADIVELU,
Commissioner and Secretary to Government, Law Department.

ACT No. 32 OF 1986.

An Act further to amend the laws relating to Municipal Corporation and Municipalities.

BE it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Thirty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

PART I.

Preliminary.

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu Municipal Laws (Amendment) Act, 1986.

   (2) It shall come into force at once.

PART II.

Amendment to the Tamil Nadu District Municipal Corporation Act, 1919.

2. Amendment of section 44-A, Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919.—

In section 44-A of the Madras City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (Tamil Nadu Act IV of 1919), after sub-section (5), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(5-A) (a) Where a person is appointed under clause (b) of sub-section (5), the State Government may appoint an advisory board to advise such person in the exercise of his powers and performance of his functions under the said clause (b) and the advisory board shall consist of the following members, namely:—

   (1) Members of the State Legislative Assembly and Members of the House of the People chosen to represent the constituencies comprising any part of the City;

   2. Members of the State Legislative Council and Members of the Council of States who are ordinarily resident in the City;

   (3) Such number of persons not exceeding fifteen as the State Government may nominate.

(A Group) IV-2 Ex. (252)—2
(b) The State Government shall publish in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette the names of all the members of the advisory board.

(c) The meetings of the advisory board and procedure to be followed therein shall be regulated in such manner as may be prescribed.

(d) The term of office of the members of the advisory board shall be such as may be prescribed.

PART III.

AMENDMENT TO THE TAMIL NADU DIRECT MUNICIPALITIES ACT, 1920.

3. Amendment of section 7, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920), in section 7, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:

"(2-A) Every member of the State Legislative Assembly representing a constituency comprising the whole or any part of the municipality and every member of the State Legislative Council who is ordinarily resident in the municipality shall be entitled to take part in the proceedings of the council but shall not be entitled to vote therein:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall be deemed to disentitle a member of the State Legislative Assembly representing a constituency comprising the whole or any part of a municipality or any member of the State Legislative Council who is ordinarily resident in a municipality, who has been elected as a councillor or chairman, of his right to vote."

(By order of the Governor)

S. VADIVELU,
Commissioner and Secretary to Government,
Law Department.
The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly received the assent of the Governor on the 25th May 1987 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 15 OF 1987.

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Second Amendment) Act, 1987.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Amendment of section 23, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920:—To section 23 of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920) (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:—

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to the Taxation Appeals Committee referred to in section 23-A."

3. Insertion of new section 23-A in Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—After section 23 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"23-A. Taxation Appeals Committee.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,—

(i) for every municipality, there shall be a Taxation Appeals Committee which shall consist of the following persons, namely:—

(a) in the case of any special grade or selection grade municipality, the District Revenue Officer having jurisdiction over such municipality and in the case of any other municipality, the Revenue Divisional Officer having jurisdiction over such municipality;

(b) the Assistant Executive Engineer of the Public Works Department having jurisdiction over the municipality;

(c) the chairman of the municipality; and

(d) two councillors elected by the council;
(ii) the District Revenue Officer or the Revenue Divisional Officer referred to in sub-clause (a) of clause (i) shall be the Chairman of the Taxation Appeals Committee;

(iii) the business of the Taxation Appeals Committee shall be transacted in accordance with the rules made by the State Government in this behalf.

4. Amendment of section 24, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—To section 24 of the principal Act, the following proviso shall be added at the end, namely:

"Provided that nothing contained in this section shall apply to the Taxation Appeals Committee referred to in section 23-A."

5. Amendment of section 41, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In section 41 of the principal Act, in sub-section (1), after the words “exceeds or abuses its powers”, the words “or if in their opinion the financial stability of the municipality is threatened” shall be inserted.

6. Amendment of Schedule IV, Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—In Schedule IV to the principal Act,—

(a) in rule 3, for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:

"Provided that in the case of taxes payable by the executive authority, the original assessment shall be made by the Regional Director of Municipal Administration."

(b) in rule 4, in sub-rule (1)—

(i) for the word "council", the words "executive authority" shall be substituted;

(ii) for the words "it may direct the executive authority to amend", the words "the executive authority may amend" shall be substituted;

(iii) for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:

"Provided that no such amendment in the said books shall be made where it involves an increase in the assessment, unless the person concerned shall have been afforded a reasonable opportunity to show cause to the executive authority why the assessment books should not be amended."

(c) in rule 6, for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:

"Provided that the value of any land or building the tax for which is payable by the executive authority shall be determined by the Regional Director of Municipal Administration."

(d) in rule 23,—

(i) in the opening portion, for the words "the council", the words "the Taxation Appeals Committee" shall be substituted;

(ii) for item (a), the following items shall be substituted, namely:

The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly received the assent of the Governor on the 25th May 1987 and hereby published for general information:

ACT No. 16 OF 1987.

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920.

BE it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Thirty-eighth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Third Amendment) Act, 1987.

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification, appoint.

2. Insertion of new section 40-C in Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920.—After section 40-B of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920), the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"40-C. Special provision for recall of chairman or councillor by voters in a referendum to be held.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, if a representation in writing signed by not less than one-fourth of the voters in any municipality in the case of a chairman, and one-fourth of the voters in the ward of such municipality in the case of any councillor, alleging that the chairman or, as the case may be, the councillor is corrupt or has otherwise abused his position as chairman or councillor, and that he should be recalled, is presented to the election authority, such election authority shall verify the genuineness of the signatures in the said representation within such time as may be prescribed. The said representation shall contain the grounds on the basis of which the allegation as aforesaid is made and shall be in such form as may be prescribed:

Provided that the verification of the genuineness of the signatures shall not be less than one per cent of the total signatures in the representation:"
Provided further that no such representation shall be entertained if it is made either within six months from the commencement of, or within six months before the expiry of, the term of office of such chairman or councillor.

Explanation I.—For the purpose of this section, the expression “voters” shall mean those persons who were under sub-section (6) of section 44 entitled to vote on the date of the election in which the chairman or the councillor aforesaid was declared elected.

Explanation II.—For the purpose of this section, the election authority shall mean an officer of the Municipal Administration Department, not below the rank of Regional Director of Municipal Administration, specially empowered by the State Government in this behalf.

2) On receipt of the representation and after verification of the signatures under sub-section (1), the election authority shall make an enquiry in such manner as may be prescribed. If on such enquiry the election authority is satisfied that the allegation is substantially true, the election authority shall hold a referendum for decision whether such chairman or councillor should be recalled or not, from his office:

Provided that in such enquiry the chairman or, as the case may be, the councillor, shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

3) If in such referendum the majority of the voters who have actually exercised their votes, favours the recall of chairman or, as the case may be, the councillor, the election authority shall declare that the chairman or, as the case may be, the councillor stands recalled and thereupon the office of the chairman or, as the case may be, the councillor, shall become vacant. If the majority of the voters who have actually exercised their votes does not favour the recall of the chairman or, as the case may be, the councillor, then, the chairman or the councillor shall continue in office and the election authority shall make a declaration accordingly.

4) The referendum held in respect of such chairman or councillor, shall be final and no further referendum in respect of such chairman or councillor shall be held during the remainder of
(5) The declaration made under sub-section (3) shall be final. Such declaration shall be liable to be questioned in any court and no court shall grant any permanent or temporary injunction or make any order restraining any proceeding which is about to be taken under this section.

(6) The chairman or the councillor who stands recalled under this section shall not be eligible for election to the office of such chairman or councillor for a period of six years from the date of such declaration under sub-section (3).

(7) The State Government may make rules for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of this section including the manner of holding the referendum.”.

Part IV—Section 2
Tamil Nadu Acts and Ordinances.

The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly received the assent of the President on the 5th December 1992 and is hereby published for general information:

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is considered necessary that urgent steps should be taken to preserve the scenic beauty and environment of hill stations in the State of Tamil Nadu by preventing unplanned and mushroom growth of buildings;

AND WHEREAS it has become necessary to improve the architectural planning of the buildings and structures in the hill stations so as to harmonize them with the environment and ecosystem of such hill stations;

AND WHEREAS it has become necessary to control and regulate the construction and reconstruction of buildings in the hill stations more effectively;

AND WHEREAS it is considered that such construction and reconstruction of buildings in the hill stations can be effectively regulated by the State Government;

AND WHEREAS to achieve the above objects it has been decided that licence for construction or reconstruction of buildings and the use of the land, etc., in the hill stations shall hereafter be granted only by the State Government;

AND WHEREAS it is considered necessary to make suitable provisions in the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1920), for the regulation of the construction or reconstruction of buildings and for the use of lands, etc., in the hill stations and for other matters connected therewith or incidental thereto;
BE it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Forty-third Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1992.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. In the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), after Chapter X, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:—

"CHAPTER X-A.

Building Regulations in Hill Stations.

217-A. Application of Chapter.—This Chapter shall apply only to hill stations.

217-B. Prohibition of construction or reconstruction of buildings, etc., without licence.—(1) No person other than the Central or State Government or local authority, shall—

(a) construct or reconstruct a building on any land; or

(b) put to use any agricultural land to any non-agricultural purpose; or

(c) carry out any engineering, mining or other allied operations on any land, within the area of the hill station without a licence granted by the State Government and except in accordance with the terms and conditions specified in such licence.

Explanation.—For the purpose of the provisions of this Chapter, "agriculture" includes, horticulture, fruit growing, seed growing, animal husbandry (including breeding of livestock), apiculture, pisciculture and sericulture and "agricultural" shall be construed accordingly.

(2) (a) When any department of the Central Government or State Government or any local authority proposes to carry out any construction or reconstruction of building on any land or put to use any agricultural land to non-agricultural purpose or carry out any engineering, mining or other allied operations on any land within the area of the hill station, the officer-in-charge thereof shall inform, in writing, the Committee for Architectural and Aesthetic Aspects constituted under section 217-C (hereinafter in this Chapter referred to as the Committee) the intention to do so, giving full particulars thereof, and accompanied by such plans and documents at least three months before commencing such activities.

(b) Where the Committee raises any objection to the proposed construction or reconstruction or putting to use any agricultural land to non-agricultural purpose or the carrying out any engineering, mining or other allied operations, on the ground that such proposal is not in conformity with the provisions of this Chapter or the rules made thereunder or for any other material consideration, the officers of Central Government or the State Government or any local authority, as the case may be, shall—

(i) either make necessary modifications in the proposed construction or reconstruction of building or putting to use any agricultural land to non-agricultural purpose or the carrying out any engineering, mining or other allied operations to meet the objection raised by the Committee; or

(ii) submit such proposal together with the objections raised by the Committee to the State Government for approval.

(c) The State Government on receipt of such proposal together with the objections of the Committee, shall in consultation with the Committee, either approve the proposal with or without modification or direct the officer to make such modification in the proposal as they consider necessary in the circumstances and the officer concerned shall be bound to make such modifications as proposed by the State Government.
217-C. Application for licence.—(1) Every application for a licence under section 217-B shall be in such form, contain such particulars and be accompanied by such plans and fee as may be prescribed and shall be submitted to the executive authority.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1), the executive authority shall, within such time as may be prescribed, examine the application with reference to such building rules as may be prescribed for the purpose of this Chapter and forward the same to the Committee.

(3) (a) For the purpose of this Chapter, the State Government may constitute a Committee called the Committee for Architectural and Aesthetic Aspects for all the hill stations in the State of Tamil Nadu, with such number of officials and non-officials and having such qualifications as may be prescribed.

(b) The term of office of the non-official members of the Committee and other matters relating to the conduct of the meeting of the said Committee including the allowances payable to the non-official members shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) The Committee shall examine every application received from the executive authority in all aspects and forward the same to the State Government with its remarks.

(5) The Committee shall while examining the applications under sub-section (4), shall have regard to the following matters, namely:

(a) the application for grant of a licence complies with the provisions of this Chapter and rules made thereunder;

(b) the proposed construction or reconstruction of the building or the purpose for which the land is proposed to be used will not be detrimental to the scenic beauty and natural environment of the hill station;

(c) the proposed construction or reconstruction of a building will aesthetically and architecturally harmonize with the landscape of the hill station;

(d) the possibility of the construction or reconstruction of building, the non-agricultural purpose for which the land is to be used or the carrying out of any engineering, mining, or other allied operations—

(i) creating unfavourable conditions upon the scenic beauty and natural environment of the hill station; or

(ii) resulting in concentration of population in and around the hill station;

(e) that the proposed use of land will not lead to deforestation and soil erosion;

(f) that the proposed use of land will preserve the special characteristics of the hill station as regards landscape, vegetative cover and climate of the hill station;

(g) the free passage or way to be left in front of the building as may be prescribed;

(h) the open space to be left about the building to secure free circulation of air and the prevention of fire and to facilitate sweeping;

(i) the ventilation of the building, the minimum cubic area of the rooms and the number and height of the storeys of which the building may consist;

(j) the provision and position of drains, latrines, urinals and cesspools or other receptacles for rubbish or filth;

(k) the level and width of the foundation, the level of the lowest floor and the stability of the structure;
(1) the line of frontage, with neighbouring buildings if the building abuts on a street;

(m) the means of escape from the building in case of fire;

(n) the materials to be used for, and the method of construction of, external and partition walls, rooms, floors, fireplaces and chimneys;

(o) the height and slope of the roof above the upper-most floor on which human beings are to live or cooking is to be done;

(p) any other matter affecting the ventilation and sanitation of the building; and

(q) such other matters as may be prescribed.

217-D. Grant of licence.—On receipt of an application from the Committee with its remarks, the State Government if satisfied that the grant of a licence will not result in the deterioration of scenic beauty or destruction of the environment and ecosystem of the hill station, may, grant a licence subject to such terms and conditions as they may think fit to impose, or refuse to grant a licence:

Provided that a licence shall not be refused unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of making his representation.

217-E. Power to cancel or suspend licence.—(1) The State Government may at any time, cancel or suspend any licence granted under section 217-D if—

(a) such licence has been obtained by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of material particulars; or

(b) the holder of the licence has contravened any of the provisions of this Act and in particular the provisions of this Chapter or any rules made thereunder or any of the terms and conditions subject to which the licence was granted.

(2) Before cancelling or suspending a licence under sub-section (1), the State Government shall give the holder of the licence an opportunity of making his representation.

217-F. Period of licence.—Every licence granted under section 217-D shall be valid for a period of one year from the date on which it is granted and if the construction or reconstruction of a building or the user of agricultural land for non-agricultural purposes, or the engineering, mining or other allied operations for which the licence is granted, is not commenced within the said period, it shall not be commenced thereafter unless the State Government on application made therefor has extended the period of licence.

217-G. Penalties.—(1) Whoever within the area of a hill station begins, continues or completes the construction or reconstruction of a building, or puts to use any agricultural land to non-agricultural purpose or carries out any engineering, mining or other allied operations—

(a) without a licence; or

(b) without complying with any of the terms and conditions of a licence; or

(c) when a licence has been refused; or

(d) after the expiry of the licence granted under section 217-D, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

(2) Whoever within the area of a hill station—

(a) uses any building constructed or reconstructed for a purpose other than that specified in the licence;
(b) puts to use any agricultural land to non-agricultural purpose other than the purpose for which the use of the land was permitted under the licence, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees.

217-H. Penalty for subsequent offence.—Whoever, after having been convicted of an offence under this Chapter, continues to commit such offence, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to three hundred rupees for each day after the previous date of conviction during which the offence continues.

217-I. Offences by companies.—(1) If the person committing an offence under this Chapter is a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, and was responsible to, the company for the conduct of the business of the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided in this Chapter, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Chapter has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section,—

(a) "company" means any body corporate and includes a firm, society or other association of individuals; and

(b) "director" in relation to—

(i) a firm means a partner in the firm;

(ii) a society or other association of individuals, means the person who is entrusted, under the rules of the society or other association, with the management of the affairs of the society or other association, as the case may be.

217-J. Power to stop work.—(1) The State Government may, at any time by notice in writing, direct the owner, lessee or occupier of any land in a hill station—

(a) to stop the construction or reconstruction of any building on such land: or

(b) to stop the use of any building or land for any purpose: or

(c) to alter or demolish, within such time as may be specified in the notice, any building or any part thereof: or

(d) to stop the use of any agricultural land for non-agricultural purpose: or

(e) to stop the building, engineering, mining or other allied operations, if in the opinion of the State Government the construction or reconstruction of the building or part thereof, the user of the building or land, or the user of any agricultural land for non-agricultural purpose or the carrying out of the building, engineering, mining or other allied operations is in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act and in particular, the provisions of this Chapter or the rules made thereunder or any of the terms and conditions subject to which a licence is granted under this Chapter.

217-K. Review.—(1) The State Government may, on application, review any order, decision or direction made by them including the grant or refusal of a licence, if it appears to them that any such order, decision or direction or the terms and conditions of the licence should be modified, annulled or reversed and pass orders accordingly.

(2) No order under this section adversely affecting a person shall be made unless that person has had a reasonable opportunity of making his representation.

(3) The State Government may stay the operation of any order, decision or direction made by them including the grant of licence pending the exercise of their power under sub-section (1) in respect thereof.

(4) Every application to the State Government for the exercise of their power under this section shall be made within two months from the date on which the order, decision or direction made by the State Government including the grant of a licence to which the application relates was communicated to the applicant:

Provided that the State Government may entertain an application made after the expiration of the said period of two months if they are satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not making such application in time.

217-L. Revision by High Court.—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the State Government under section 217-K may within a period of sixty days from the date on which a copy of the order was communicated to him, file an application for revision of such order to the High Court:

Provided that the High Court may within a further period of thirty days entertain an application made after the said period of sixty days, if it is satisfied that the petitioner had sufficient cause for not making the application within the said period of sixty days.

(2) The application shall be in the prescribed form, shall be verified in the prescribed manner and shall be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) In disposing the application for revision, the High Court may confirm, cancel or vary such order:

Provided that no order prejudicial to any party shall be passed unless such party has been given an opportunity of being heard.

(4) Every order passed under this section shall be final.

3. After Chapter I of the principal Act, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:

"CHAPTER I-A.

TOWN PANCHAYATS.

3-A. Application of Chapter.—This Chapter shall apply only to the town panchayats.

3-B. Formation of town panchayats.—(1) The Governor,—

(a) may, having regard to the revenue generated for local administration, the percentage of employment in non-agricultural activities, the economic importance or such other factors as he deems fit, by notification, classify and declare every local area comprising a revenue village or villages or any portion of a revenue village or contiguous portions of two or more revenue villages and having a population estimated at not less than five thousand and an annual income of not less than one lakh of rupees as a panchayat town for the purposes of this Act; and

(b) shall, by notification, specify the name of such panchayat town:

(2) In every panchayat town declared as such under sub-section (1), there shall be established a town panchayat.

(3) (a) The Governor may, by notification, exclude from a panchayat town any area comprised therein, provided that the population of the panchayat town after such exclusion, is not less than five thousand.

(b) In regard to any area excluded under clause (a), the Governor shall, by notification under sub-section (1), declare it to be a panchayat town if it has a population of not less than five thousand or if its population is less than five thousand, include it in any contiguous panchayat town under clause (c)(i).

(c) The Governor may, by notification,—

(i) include in a panchayat town any local area contiguous thereto; or

(ii) cancel or modify a notification issued under sub-section (1); or

(iii) alter the name of the panchayat town specified under clause (b) of sub-section (1).

(d) Before issuing a notification under clause (a) or under clause (b) read with sub-section (1) or under clause (c), the Governor shall give the town panchayat or town panchayats which will be affected by the issue of such notification, a reasonable opportunity for showing cause against the proposal and shall consider the explanations and objections, if any, of such town panchayat or town panchayats.

(4) Any rate-payer or inhabitant of such area or any town panchayat concerned, may, if he or it objects to any notification under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), appeal to the High Court within such period as may be prescribed.

3-C. Constitution of town panchayats.—(1) Save as provided under sub-section (2), every town panchayat shall consist of the elected members as determined under section 3-J.

(2) The following persons shall also be represented in the town panchayat, namely:

(a) not more than two persons who are not less than twenty-five years of age and who have special knowledge or experience in municipal administration, to be nominated by the State Government:

Provided that the person nominated under this clause shall not have the right to vote in the meetings of the municipal council;

Group LIV-2 Ex. (270)- 1a
(b) the members of the House of the People and the members of the State Legislative Assembly representing a constituency comprising the whole or any part of the town panchayat; and

(c) the members of the Council of States who are registered as electors within the area of the town panchayat.

(3) The members of the House of the People, the State Legislative Assembly and the Council of States referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) shall be entitled to take part in the proceedings, and vote at the meetings, of the town panchayat.

3-D. Incorporation of town panchayats.—(1) A town panchayat shall be constituted for each panchayat town consisting of such number of elected members, with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification issued in that behalf by the Governor.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the administration of the panchayat town shall vest in the town panchayat, but the town panchayat shall not be entitled to exercise functions expressly assigned by or under this Act or any other law to its Chairman or to any other authority.

(3) Every town panchayat shall be a body corporate by the name of the panchayat town specified in the notification issued under section 3-B, shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and, subject to any restrictions or qualifications imposed by or under this Act or any other law, shall be vested with the capacity of suing or being sued in its corporate name, of acquiring, holding and transferring property, movable or immovable, of entering into contracts, and of doing all things necessary, proper or expedient for the purpose for which it is constituted.

3-E. Alteration of classification of panchayat towns.—(1) The Governor may alter any classification, notified under sub-section (1) of section 3-B, if in his opinion the panchayat town satisfies or ceases to satisfy the conditions referred to in that sub-section.

(2) Any decision made by the Governor under this section shall not be questioned in a court of law.

3-F. Strength of a town panchayat.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the total number of members of a town panchayat (exclusive of its Chairman) shall be notified by the Inspector in accordance with such scale as may be prescribed with reference to the population as ascertained at the last preceding census of which the relevant figures have been published:

Provided that for the first election to the town panchayat to be held immediately after the commencement of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1994, the provisional population figures of the town panchayat, as published in relation to 1991 census shall be deemed to be the population of the town panchayat as ascertained in that census.

(2) The Inspector may, from time to time, by notification, alter the total number of members of a town panchayat notified under sub-section (1).

3-G. Duration of town panchayat.—(1) Every town panchayat, unless sooner dissolved, shall continue for five years beginning from the date appointed for its first meeting after each ordinary election and no longer and the expiration of the said period of five years shall operate as a dissolution of the town panchayat.

(2) An election to constitute a town panchayat shall be completed—

(a) before the expiry of its duration specified in sub-section (1); or

(b) before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of its dissolution.

Provided that where the remainder of the period for which the dissolved town panchayat would have continued is less than six months, it shall not be necessary to hold any election for constituting the town panchayat for such period.
ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE OF MEMBERS.

3-H. Election of members to town panchayat.—The members of town panchayat referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3-C shall be elected in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that no person shall be eligible to be elected under this Act as a member of more than one town panchayat.

3-I. Reservation of seats.—(1) Seats shall be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in every town panchayat and the number of seats so reserved, shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in that town panchayat as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the town panchayat area or of the Scheduled Tribes in that town panchayat bears to the total population of that area.

(2) Seats shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes from among the seats reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes which shall not be less than one-third of the total number of seats reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes.

(3) Seats shall be reserved for women in the town panchayat and the number of seats reserved for women shall not be less than one-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of seats in the town panchayat.

(4) (a) The offices of the Chairpersons of the town panchayats shall be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and the number of offices so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of offices in the State as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the State or the Scheduled Tribes in all the town panchayats in the State, bears to the total population of all the town panchayats in the State.

(b) The offices of Chairpersons of the town panchayats shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes from among the offices reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes which shall not be less than one-third of the total number of offices reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes.

(5) The offices of the Chairpersons of the town panchayats shall be reserved for women and the number of offices reserved for women shall not be less than one-third (including the number of offices reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of offices of the Chairpersons of the town panchayats in the State:

Provided that the offices reserved under this sub-section and under sub-section (4) shall be allotted by rotation to different town panchayats in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) The reservation of seats under sub-sections (1) and (2) and the reservation of offices of Chairpersons under sub-section (4) shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period specified in Article 334 of the Constitution.

3-J. Division of town panchayats into wards.—(1) For the purpose of election of councillors to a town panchayat, the Inspector shall, after consulting the town panchayat, by notification, divide the panchayat town into wards and determine the number of members to be elected in accordance with such scale as may be prescribed.

(2) Only one member shall be elected from each ward.

3-K. Term of office of members.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, members of every town panchayat elected at an ordinary election, shall hold office for a term of five years.

(2) The term of office of the members elected at ordinary election shall commence on the date appointed for the first meeting of the town panchayat after such ordinary election.

(3) The member of a town panchayat elected in a casual vacancy shall enter upon the office forthwith but shall hold office only so long as the member in whose place he was elected would have been entitled to hold office, if the vacancy had not occurred.
3-L. Electoral roll.—(1) The electoral roll of a town panchayat shall be the same as the electoral roll of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly prepared and revised in accordance with the provisions of law for the time being in force in a panchayat town and shall be deemed to be the electoral roll for such town panchayat for the purposes of this Act.

(2) No amendment, transposition or deletion of any entry in the electoral roll of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly made after the last date for making nominations for elections in any town panchayat and before the notification of the result of such election, shall form part of the electoral roll for such election, for the purposes of this section.

3-M. Application of the Act to town panchayats.—The State Government may, by notification, direct that any of the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder or of any other enactment for the time being in force elsewhere in the State of Tamil Nadu but not in the panchayat town shall apply to that town panchayat to such extent and subject to such modifications, additions and restrictions as may be specified in the notification.

3-N. Chapter to override other laws.—(1) The provisions of this Chapter shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in this Act or any other law.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (1), the provisions of this Chapter shall be, in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provisions of this Act.

(2) in sub-section (2), the expression "sub-section (1) of section 48, section 49" shall be omitted.

24. After section 51 of the principal Act, the following headings and new sections shall be inserted, namely:

"DISPUTES REGARDING ELECTIONS.

51-A. Election petitions.—(1) No election of a chairman or a councillor shall be called in question except by an election petition presented to the District Judge of the district in which the municipality is situated within fifteen days from the date of the publication of the result of the election under section 27.

(2) An election petition calling in question any election may be presented on one or more of the grounds specified in section 51-B by any candidate at such election, by any elector of the ward concerned, or by any councillor.

(3) A petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition all the candidates at the election.

(4) An election petition—
   (a) shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;

   (b) shall, with sufficient particulars, set forth the ground or grounds on which the election is called in question; and

   (c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) for the verification of pleadings.

51-B. Grounds for declaring elections to be void.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), if the District Judge is of opinion—

   (a) that on the date of his election a returned candidate was not qualified or was disqualified, to be chosen as councillor under this Act, or

   (b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by a returned candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a returned candidate or his agent, or

   (c) that any nomination paper has been improperly rejected, or

   (d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected—

      (i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination, or

      (ii) by any corrupt practice committed in the interests of the returned candidate by a person other than that candidate or his agent or a person acting with the consent of such candidate or agent, or

      (iii) by the improper acceptance or refusal of any vote or reception of any vote which is void, or

      (iv) by the non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of any rules or orders made thereunder, the District Judge shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(2) If in the opinion of the District Judge a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent, of any corrupt practice, but the Judge is satisfied—

   (a) that no such corrupt practice was committed at the election by the candidate, and every such corrupt practice was committed contrary to the orders, and without the consent of the candidate:
(b) that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practices at the election; and

(c) that in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agents, then the District Judge may decide that the election of the returned candidate is not void.

CORRUPT PRACTICES.

51-C. Corrupt practices.—The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purposes of this Act:

(1) Bribery as defined in clause (1) of section 123 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (Central Act XLIII of 1951).

(2) Undue influence as defined in clause (2) of the said section.

(3) The systematic appeal by a candidate or his agent or by any other person to vote or refrain from voting on grounds of caste, race, community or religion or the use of or appeal to, religious symbols, or, the use of or appeal to, national symbols such as the national flag or the national emblem, for the furtherance of the prospects of that candidate's election.

(4) The publication by a candidate or his agent or by any other person of any statement of fact which is false, and which he either believes to be false or does not believe to be true, in relation to the personal character or conduct of any candidate, or in relation to the candidature, or withdrawal from contest of any candidate being a statement reasonably calculated to prejudice the prospects of that candidate's election.

(5) The hiring or procuring whether on payment or otherwise of any vehicle or vessel by a candidate or his agent or by any other person for conveyance of any elector (other than the candidate himself, and the members of his family or his agent) to or from any polling station provided in accordance with the rules made under this Act:

Provided that the hiring of a vehicle or vessel by an elector or by several electors at their joint costs for the purpose of conveying him or them to or from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be a corrupt practice under this clause if the vehicle or vessel so hired is a vehicle or vessel not propelled by mechanical power:

Provided further that the use of any public transport vehicle or vessel or any car or railway carriage by an elector at his own cost for the purpose of going to or coming from any such polling station shall not be deemed to be corrupt practice under this clause.

Explanation.—In this clause, the expression "vehicle" means any vehicle used or capable of being used for the purpose of road transport whether propelled by mechanical power or otherwise and whether used for drawing other vehicles or otherwise.

(6) The holding of any meeting in which intoxicating liquors are served.

(7) The issuing of any circular, placard or poster having a reference to election which does not bear the name and address of the printer and publisher thereof.

(8) Any other practice which the State Government may by rules specify to be a corrupt practice."

25. In section 60 of the principal Act, the words "or from being co-opted as a councillor" shall be omitted.
26. After section 124-A of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"124-B Finance Commission.—(1) The Finance Commission referred to in Article 243—I of the Constitution shall review the financial position of the municipalities and town panchayats and make recommendations to the Governor as to—

(a) the principles which should govern,—

(i) the distribution between the State Government and the municipalities and the town panchayats of the net proceeds of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees leviable by the State Government which may be divided between them and the allocation between the municipalities and the town panchayats of their respective shares of such proceeds;

(ii) the determination of the taxes, duties, tolls and fees which may be assigned to or appropriated by the municipalities and the town panchayats;

(iii) the grants-in-aid to the municipalities and the town panchayats from the Consolidated Fund of the State;

(b) the measures needed to improve the financial position of the municipalities and the town panchayats;

(c) any other matter referred to the Finance Commission by the Governor in the interest of sound finance of the municipalities and the town panchayats.

(2) The Governor shall cause every recommendation made by the Commission under this section together with an explanatory memorandum as to the action taken thereon to be laid before the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly."

27. In the principal Act, section 351-A shall be omitted.

28. In section 368 of the principal Act, in sub-section (5), the proviso shall be omitted.

29. In section 370 of the principal Act, after sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be added, namely:

"(3) Any reference to the town panchayat contained in any enactment in force in the State of Tamil Nadu or in any notification, order, scheme, rules, form or bye-law made under any such enactment and in force in the said State shall be construed as a reference to the town panchayat constituted under this Act."

30. After section 370 of the principal Act, the following sections shall be added, namely:

"371. Power to remove difficulties.—(1) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, as amended by the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1994, the State Government may, by an order published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as amended by the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1994 as appear to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty.

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1994.

(2) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall, as soon as possible, after it is made, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly and it before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, the Assembly makes any modification in any such order or the Assembly decides that the order should not be issued, the order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that order.

372. The Mettur Township Act, 1940, the Courtallam Township Act, 1954 and the Bhavanisagar Township Act, 1954 are hereby repealed.

373. Conversion of a township into a municipality or town panchayat.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the State Government may, by notification, direct that the local area constituting any township shall from such date as may be specified therein (hereinafter referred to as the specified date), be a municipal area or a town panchayat and in respect thereof, on and from such specified date, the following consequences shall ensue, namely:

(a) the township committee of such area shall cease to exist or to function;

(b) there shall be constituted for the municipal area a municipality, or, as the case may be, for the panchayat area a town panchayat under the provisions of this Act, as amended by the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 1994;

(c) the unexpended balance of the fund and the property (including arrears of rates, taxes and fees) belonging to the township committee and all rights and powers which, prior to such notification, vested in the township committee shall, subject to all charges and liabilities affecting the same vest in the fund constituted for the municipality, or as the case may be, the town panchayat;

(d) any appointment, notification, notice, tax, order, scheme, licence, permission, rule, by-law, or form made, issued, imposed or granted under any law governing such township before the specified date in respect of such local area shall continue in force and be deemed to have been made, issued, imposed or granted in respect of the municipal area or town panchayat area until it is superseded or modified by any appointment, notification, notice, tax, order, scheme, licence, by-law, or form made, issued, imposed or granted under this Act;

(e) all budget estimates, assessments, assessment lists, valuation or measurements made, or authenticated under any law governing such townships immediately before the specified date in respect of such local area shall be deemed to have been made or authenticated under this Act;

(f) all debts and obligations incurred and all contracts made by or on behalf of the township committee before the specified date and subsisting on the specified date shall be deemed to have been incurred and made by the municipality, or as the case may be, the town panchayat, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by this Act;

(g) all officers and servants in the employment of the township committee immediately before the specified date shall be officers and servants of the municipality, or as the case may be, the town panchayat, under this Act, and shall until other provision is made in accordance with the provisions of this Act, receive salaries and allowances and subject to the conditions of service to which they were entitled or subject immediately before such date:

Provided that it shall be competent to the municipality or town panchayat subject to the previous sanction of the State Government to discontinue the services of any officer or servant who, in its opinion, is not necessary or suitable to the requirements of the municipality or town panchayat service after giving such officer or servant such notice as is required to be given by the terms of his employment and every officer or servant whose services are discontinued, shall be entitled to such leave, pension, provident fund and gratuity as he would have been entitled to take or receive on being invalidated out of service as if the township committee in the employment of which he was, had not ceased to exist;
31. In the principal Act, after Schedule IX, the following Schedule shall be added, namely:

"SCHEDULE X

(4) If any owner or occupier of any building or land fails to furnish a return as required under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) or furnishes an incomplete or incorrect return the executive authority or any person authorised by him in this behalf shall cause an inspection to be made and also to make such local enquiries as may be considered necessary, and based on such inspection and information collected, shall prepare a return and a copy of the return shall be furnished to the owner or occupier of the building or land.

(5) On receipt of a return under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) or on the basis of the return prepared by the executive authority under sub-section (4) and after considering the objections if any received the executive authority shall determine the tax payable in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall send an intimation to that effect to the person concerned.

(6) For the purpose of assessment of property tax for any building or land in the Municipality the executive authority or any officer authorised by him in this behalf may enter, inspect, survey and measure any building or land, after giving due notice to the owner or occupier before such inspection and the owner or occupier shall be bound to furnish necessary information required for this purpose.

(7) The property tax on building and land shall, subject to the prior payment of the land revenue, if any, due to the State Government thereon, be a first charge upon the said building or land and upon the movable property if any found within or upon such building or land and belonging to the person liable to pay tax.

82. Minimum and maximum basic property tax, additional basic property tax, etc.—The State Government shall prescribe the minimum and the maximum rates of—

(a) basic property tax the building or land having regard to—

(i) the existing property tax;

(ii) the value of the building and land; and

(iii) the use of the building;
Provided that nothing contained in clauses (a), (c) and (e) shall be deemed to exempt any building or land from property tax for which rent or service charge is payable by the person using the same for the purposes referred to in the said clauses.

87. Power to rectify error apparent on the face of the record.—

(1) The executive authority may, on his own motion or on an application made at any time within six months from the date of any order passed by him rectify any error apparent on the face of the record:

Provided that no such rectification which has the effect of enhancing an assessment shall be made unless such authority has given notice to the assessee and has allowed him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) Where such rectification has the effect of reducing an assessment, the excess amount if any paid by the assessee shall be adjusted towards any tax that may accrue in future.

88. Levy of fine.—(1) Where a person fails to pay the property tax within the time specified, the executive authority shall impose upon him, by way of fine a sum as fixed by the municipal council in this behalf in accordance with such rates as may be prescribed.

(2) On verification of the return filed by the owner or occupier of the building or land after the issue of the property tax bill, the executive authority may, if he is satisfied that the owner or occupier willfully filed false return, the executive authority may cause reassessment of such property and direct the owner or occupier to pay, in addition to the tax assessed, by way of fine, a sum which shall be one hundred per cent of the difference in the tax due:

Provided that no fine under this sub-section shall be imposed unless the owner or occupier affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such imposition.

89. Taxation Appeals Committee.—(1) There shall be a Taxation Appeals Committee for hearing and disposing of an appeal preferred by any person who is not satisfied with an assessment order made by the executive authority under this Act either than the orders relating to the duty on transfer of property,—

(i) for every town panchayat consisting of the Chairman of the municipal council who shall be the Chairman of the Taxation Appeals Committee and such number of members as may be notified by the State Government from among the members of the town panchayat;

(ii) for every municipality, consisting of the Chairman of the municipal council who shall also be the Chairman of the Taxation Appeals Committee and four Councillors elected by the council.

(2) The business of the Taxation Appeals Committee shall be transacted in accordance with the rules made by the State Government in this behalf.

(3) An appeal against the decision of the Taxation Appeals Committee may be filed within thirty days from the date of the order to the District Judge.

(4) No appeal shall be entertained by the District Judge, unless the appellant deposits with the town panchayat or municipality, as the case may be, the entire amount of tax as decided by the Taxation Appeals Committee.

(5) Where as a result of any order passed in an appeal any amount already deposited is in excess of the tax due, the difference, after deducting the tax due, shall be adjusted towards the tax, and fine due, in respect of any other period, by the municipality.

6. In Schedule IV to the 1920 Act,—

(a) the heading "Assessment of the property tax" and the rules 6 to 15 thereunder shall be omitted;

(b) the heading "Appeals" and the rules 23 to 28-A thereunder shall be omitted.
PART IV.

MENDMENETS TO THE MADURAI CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1971.

7. In the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (hereafter in this Act referred to as the 1971 Act), for sections 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130 and 131, the following sections shall be substituted, namely:

120. Levy of property tax.—(1) The property tax shall be levied on all buildings and lands within the City.

(2) (a) In relation to any building newly constructed or where any addition or alteration has been made to any existing building, the owner or occupier of such buildings;

(b) where the title of any building or land is transferred, such transferee;

(c) in relation to any building or land, in the event of death of the person primarily liable to the payment of property tax, the person on whom the property is transferred;

shall furnish to the Commissioner within such date as may be prescribed, a return for such building or land containing such details as may be prescribed for the assessment or reassessment of the property tax to the said building or land.

(3) In the case of reassessment or general revision of any property tax leviable under this Act, the owner or occupier of any building or land shall furnish to the Commissioner within such time as may be prescribed, a return in such form containing such details as may be prescribed for the assessment of property to such building or land.

(4) If any owner or occupier of any building or land fails to furnish a return as required under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) or furnishes an incomplete or incorrect return, the Commissioner or any person authorised by him in this behalf, shall cause an inspection to be made and also to make such local enquiries as may be considered necessary, and based on such inspection and information collected, shall prepare a return and a copy of the return shall be furnished to the owner or occupier of the building or land.

(5) On receipt of a return under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) or on the basis of the return prepared by the Commissioner under sub-section (4) and after considering the objections, if any, received, the Commissioner shall determine the tax payable in accordance with the provisions of this Act and shall send an intimation to that effect to the person concerned.

(6) For the purpose of assessment of property tax for any building or land in the City, the Commissioner or any officer authorised by him in this behalf may enter, inspect, survey and measure any building or land, after giving due notice to the owner or occupier before such inspection and the owner or occupier shall be bound to furnish necessary information required for this purpose.

(7) The property tax on building and land shall, subject to the prior payment of the land revenue, if any, due to the Government thereon, be a first charge upon the said building or land and upon the movable property if any found within or upon such building or land and belonging to the person liable to pay tax.

121. Minimum and maximum basic property tax, additional basic property tax, etc.—The Government shall prescribe the minimum and the maximum rates of:

(a) basic property tax for the building or land having regard to—

(i) the existing property tax;

(ii) the value of the building and land; and

(iii) the use of the building;
(b) additional basic property tax for every building having regard to—

(i) the location of the building;

(ii) the type of construction of the building;

(c) the concession with regard to age of the building.

122. Determination of basic property tax, additional basic property tax, etc., by council.—(1) The basic property tax, the additional basic property tax and the concession, if any, with regard to the age, for every building or land shall be determined by the council subject to the minimum and maximum rates prescribed by the Government under section 121.

(2) The council shall notify the rates determined under sub-section (1) and such other particulars and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) (i) (a) The basic property tax for every building shall relate to the carpet area of the building and its usage:

Provided that the carpet area of any building shall not include the open verandah, open courtyard or any other open space which is not enclosed.

(b) The classification of the building for the purpose of deciding the usage of any building shall be residential, commercial, industrial or any other classification as may be prescribed.

(i) (a) The additional basic property tax for every building shall relate to location and type of construction of the building.

(b) For the purpose of this clause, the location of the building shall be classified as follows:—

(A) arterial roads, bus-route roads leading to arterial roads and main roads;

(iii) A concession on the basic property tax shall be allowed in calculating the property tax having regard to the age of the building, in such manner as may be prescribed.

123. Assessment and calculation of property tax.—(1) For the purpose of levy of property tax, every building shall be assessed together with its site and other adjacent premises occupied as an appurtenance thereto:

Provided that no building which has been constructed in contravention of the building rules made under this Act shall be assessed to property tax.

(2) The property tax shall be calculated as follows:—

(a) Firstly, the basic property tax for a building shall be calculated at the rate fixed by the council:

(b) Secondly, the additional basic property tax for such building shall be calculated at the rate fixed by the council and added to the basic property tax so determined under clause (a):
(c) Thirdly, on the quantum of amount arrived at under clauses (a) and (b), the concession having regard to the age of the building at a rate not exceeding the maximum of guideline value shall be reduced and the amount so arrived at shall be the property tax payable in respect of any building for every half-year and shall be paid by the owner or occupier of such building within the half-year period.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-section, the expression "half-year" shall be from the 1st day of April to the 30th day of September and from the 1st day of October to the 31st day of March of a year:

Provided that in the case of any Government or railway building a concession shall be allowed in calculating the property tax in such manner as may be prescribed.

(3) The Commissioner shall issue a property tax book containing all the details of the building or land and the property tax payable in relation to such building or land in such form as may be prescribed.

(4) Where there is any vacant land without any building situated within the City limit, the Commissioner shall determine the property tax payable for such vacant land at the rate fixed by the council not exceeding the maximum of guideline value.

124. General revision of property tax.—The general revision of the assessment of property tax in relation to the building and land situated within the City limit shall be made from such date as the Government may, by notification, appoint. The Commissioner may revise the property tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder:

Provided that there shall be an interval of five years between one general revision and another general revision.

125. General exemptions.—The following buildings and lands shall be exempted from the property tax:

(a) places set apart for public worship and either actually so used or used for no other purpose;

(b) choultries for the occupation of which no rent is charged and the choultries rent charged for the occupation of which is used exclusively for charitable purposes;

(d) such ancient monuments protected under the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, 1904 (Central Act VII of 1904) and such ancient and historical monuments declared by or under the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 (Central Act 24 of 1958) to be of national importance and also such ancient monuments and archaeological sites and remains protected under the Tamil Nadu Ancient and Historical Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1966 (Tamil Nadu Act 25 of 1966) or parts thereof as or not used as residential quarters or public offices;

(e) charitable hospitals [and dispensaries but not including residential quarters attached thereto];

(f) such hospitals and dispensaries maintained by railway administration as may, from time to time, be notified by the Government, but not including residential quarters attached thereto;

(g) burial and burning grounds included in the book kept in the municipal office under section 404;

(h) the bed of any river or canal or any river or canal belonging to Government and which do not provide any income to Government or any Government lands set apart for recreation purposes or any Government property being neither building nor land from which in the opinion of the Government any income could not be derived as may, from time to time, be notified by the Government:
Provided that nothing contained in clauses (a), (c) and (e) shall be deemed to exempt any building or land from property tax for which rent or service charge is payable by the person or persons using the same for the purposes referred to in the said clauses.

126. Power to rectify error apparent on the face of the record.— (1) The Commissioner may, on his own motion or on an application made at any time within six months from the date of any order passed by him, rectify any error apparent on the face of the record.

Provided that no such rectification which has the effect of enhancing an assessment, shall be made unless such authority has given notice to the assessee and has allowed him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(2) Where such rectification has the effect of reducing an assessment, the excess amount if any paid by the assessee shall be adjusted towards any tax that may accrue in future.

127. Levy of fine.— (1) Where a person fails to pay the property tax within the time specified, the Commissioner shall impose upon him, by way of fine a sum as fixed by the council in this behalf in accordance with such rates as may be prescribed.

(2) On verification of the return filed by the owner or occupier of the building or land after the issue of the property tax book, the Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that the owner or occupier wilfully filed false return, the Commissioner may cause reassessment of such property and direct the owner or occupier to pay, in addition to the tax assessed, by way of fine, a sum which shall be one hundred per cent of the difference in the tax due:

Provided that no fine under this sub-section shall be imposed unless the owner or occupier affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such imposition.

128. Taxation Appeals Tribunal.— (1) There shall be one or more Taxation Appeals Tribunals (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the Tribunal") for the corporation for hearing and disposing of an appeal preferred by any person who is not satisfied with the assessment order made by the Commissioner under this Act other than the orders relating to the transfer duty.

(2) The Tribunal shall consist of a Judicial Officer who is or has been a Civil Judge (Senior Division/Chief Judicial Magistrate).

(3) The terms and conditions of the Tribunal shall be such as may be determined by the Government.

(4) The salary and other allowances payable to the Tribunal shall be borne from the funds of the corporation.

(5) No appeal shall be entertained by the Tribunal unless the appellant deposits with the corporation the entire amount as assessed by the Commissioner in the revision.

(6) (i) Every appeal filed under this section shall be entered in a register maintained for this purpose by the Tribunal.

(ii) The Tribunal shall give to person filing an appeal a written notice specifying the place, date and time of hearing the appeal.

(iii) The Tribunal shall dispose of the appeal within five months from the date of filing of the appeal.

(iv) Any person preferring an appeal may either appear in person or through an authorized agent before the Tribunal.

(v) The gist of the order passed in an appeal shall be recorded in the register which shall be duly attested by the Tribunal and a copy of the order shall be supplied within ten days from the date of passing of the order to the appellant.

(vi) The excess amount of tax if available in view of the orders of the Tribunal will be adjusted by the Commissioner for the property tax to be collected in future.
(7) An appeal against the decision of the Taxation Appeals Tribunal may be filed within 14 days from the date of the order to the District Judge.

(8) No appeal shall be entertained by the District Judge unless the appellant deposits with the corporation the entire amount of tax as decided by the Tribunal.

(9) Whereas a result of any order passed in appeal, any amount already deposited is in excess of the tax due, the difference after deducting the tax due shall be adjusted towards the tax and fine due, in respect of any other period, to the corporation.

Amendment of Schedule II.

8. In Schedule II of the 1971 Act, Parts II and V shall be omitted.

2. In the Chennai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (hereafter in this Part referred to as the 1919 Act), in section 129-A, namely:

(a) for the expression "a tax calculated at such rates" the expression "a tax calculated at such rates having regard to the location, size, reach and nature of the advertisement" shall be substituted;

(b) in the first proviso, the following shall be added at the end, namely:

"and in any case such rate of tax shall not exceed rupees five hundred per square metre per half-year".

3. After Chapter XII of the 1919 Act, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:

"CHAPTER— XII A.

326-A. Definition.—In this Chapter, "hoarding" means any screen of boards at any place, whether public or private, used or intended to be used for exhibiting advertisement, including the framework or other support, erected, wholly or in part upon or over any land, building, wall or structure, visible to public wholly or partly.

326-B. Prohibition for erection of hoardings.—(1) No hoarding shall be erected at any place, on or after the 23rd day of July 1998 (hereafter in this section referred to as the said date) by any person without obtaining a licence from the Commissioner;

(2) Every person who has erected any hoarding without obtaining a licence and which is in existence immediately before the said date shall apply for a licence in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter within thirty days from the said date.

326-C. Application for licence.—(1) Every application for licence under this Chapter shall be made to the Commissioner in such form, containing such particulars and with such fee, as may be prescribed.

(2) The Commissioner may, after local inspection, grant a licence with such conditions or directions, subject to such rules as may be prescribed.

(3) The Commissioner may refuse to grant licence for reasons to be recorded in writing:
Provided that a licence shall not be refused unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of making his representation.

(4) Every licence granted under sub-section (2) shall be valid for such period as may be prescribed and may be renewed from time to time.

326-D. Power to cancel or suspend licence.—(1) Without prejudice to any other penalty to which the licensee may be liable under this Chapter, the Commissioner may, at any time, by order in writing, cancel or suspend any licence granted or renewed under section 326-C, if—

(a) such licence has been obtained by fraud, mis-representation or suppression of material particulars; or

(b) the licensee has contravened any of the provisions of this Chapter or the rules made thereunder or any of the conditions subject to which the licence was granted.

(2) Before cancelling or suspending a licence under sub-section (1), the Commissioner shall give the licensee an opportunity of making his representation.

326-E. Removal of unauthorised hoarding.—Any hoarding erected without a licence shall be confiscated and removed by the Commissioner, without giving any notice.

326-F. Removal of hoarding in certain other cases.—(1) Where any hoarding is retained after the expiry of the licence or erected contrary to the conditions of licence, the Commissioner may, by notice in writing, require the licensee to remove such hoarding within such time as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the hoarding is not removed within the time specified in the notice the Commissioner shall, without further notice, remove such hoarding and recover the expenditure for such removal as an arrear of land revenue.

326-G. Exemption.—Nothing contained in this Chapter shall apply to any hoarding on which is exhibited any advertisement which relates to—

(i) the trade or business carried on within the land or building, upon or over, which such hoarding is erected or to any sale or letting of such land or building or any effects therein or to any sale, entertainment or meeting to be held upon or in such land or building; or

(ii) the name of the land or building, upon or over which the hoarding is erected or to the name of the owner or occupier of such land or building:

Provided that the exemption under this section shall be subject to such size and nature of hoarding as may be prescribed.

326-H. Appeal.—(1) An appeal shall lie to the Standing Committee from an order of refusal to grant or renew a licence or cancelling or suspending a licence by the Commissioner under this Chapter within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order.

(2) The appeal shall be in such form and in such manner and shall accompany with such fee, as may be prescribed.

(3) On receipt of such appeal, the Standing Committee may, after making such inquiry as may be necessary and giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant to be heard, pass such orders as it deems fit.

326-I. Penalty.—Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this Chapter or any rule or order made thereunder or obstructs lawful exercise of any power conferred by or under this Chapter shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both.
PART III.

AMENDMENTS TO THE TAMIL NADU DISTRICT MUNICIPALITIES ACT 1920.

4. In the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the 1920 Act) in section 78, in sub-section (1) after clause (d), the following clause shall be inserted, namely:

“(dd) a tax on advertisements other than advertisements published in the news papers and advertisements broadcast by radio or television.”.

5. After section 107 of the 1920 Act, the following shall be inserted, namely:

TAX ON ADVERTISEMENTS.

107-A. Tax on advertisements.—Every person who erects, exhibits, fixes or retains upon or over any land, building, wall, hoarding or structure any advertisement, or who displays any advertisement to public view in any manner whatsoever, in any place whether public or private shall pay on every advertisement which is so erected, exhibited, fixed, retained or displayed to public view, a tax calculated at such rates having regard to the location, size, reach and nature of the advertisement and in such manner and subject to such exemptions as the municipal Council may, with the approval of the State Government, by resolution determine:

Provided that the rates shall be subject to the maxima and minima laid down by the State Government in this behalf and in any case such rate of tax shall not exceed rupees five hundred per square metre per half-year:

Provided further that no tax shall be levied under this section on any advertisement or a notice—

(a) of a public meeting; or
(b) of an election to any legislative body or the municipal council; or
(c) of a candidature in respect of such an election:

Provided also that no such tax shall be levied on advertisement which is not a sky-sign and which—

(a) is exhibited within the window of any building; or
(b) relates to the trade or business carried on, within the land or building upon or over which such advertisement is exhibited, or to any sale or letting of such land or building or to any effects therein or to any sale, entertainment or meeting to be held upon or in the same; or
(c) relates to the name of the land or building upon or over which the advertisement is exhibited, or to the name of the owner or occupier of such land or building; or
(d) relates to the business of any railway administration; or
(e) is exhibited within any railway station or upon any wall or other property of a railway administration except any portion of the surface of such wall or property fronting any street.

Explanation I.—The word “structure” in this section shall include any movable board on wheels used as an advertisement or an advertisement medium.

Explanation II.—The expression “sky-sign” shall, in this section, mean any advertisement supported on or attached to any post, pole, standard frame-work or other support wholly or in part upon or over any land, building, wall or structure which, or any part of which sky-sign shall be visible against the sky from some point in any public place and includes all and every part of any such post, pole, standard
The expression "sky-sign" shall also include any balloon, parachute or other similar device employed wholly or in part for the purposes of any advertisement upon or over any land, building or structure or upon or over any public place but shall not include—

(a) any flag staff, pole, vane or weather-cock, unless adopted or used wholly or in part for the purpose of any advertisement;

(b) any sign, or any board, frame or other contrivance securely fixed to or on the top of the wall or parapet of any building or on the cornice or blocking course of any wall, or to the bridge of a roof:

Provided that such board, frame or other contrivance shall be of one continuous face and not open work, and does not extend in height more than one metre above any part of the wall, or parapet, or ridge to, against or on, which it is fixed or supported; or

(c) any advertisement relating to the name of the land or building, upon or over which the advertisement is exhibited, or to the name of the owner or occupier of such land or building; or

(d) any advertisement relating exclusively to the business of a railway administration and placed wholly upon or over any railway, railway station, yard, platform or station approach belonging to a railway administration, and so placed that it cannot fall into any street or public place; or

(e) any notice of land or building to be sold, or let, placed upon such land or building.

Explanation III.—"Public place" shall for the purposes of this section, mean any place which is open to the use and enjoyment of the public, whether it is actually used or enjoyed by the public or not.

Explanation IV.—In this Chapter, the expression "advertisement" shall not include any advertisement published in any newspaper and advertisement broadcast by radio or television.

107-B. Prohibition of advertisements without written permission of executive authority.—(1) No advertisement shall, after the levy of the tax under section 107-A has been determined upon in the municipal council, be erected, exhibited, fixed or retained upon or over any land, building, wall, hoarding or structure within the municipality or shall be displayed in any manner whatsoever in any place without the written permission of the executive authority.

(2) The executive authority shall not grant such permission if—

(i) the advertisement contravenes any by-law made by the municipal council under clause (26) of section 306; or

(ii) the tax, if any, due in respect of the advertisement, has not been paid; or

(iii) the erection, exhibition, fixation or retention of the advertisement is an offence under the Tamil Nadu Open Places (Prevention of Disfigurement) Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 2 of 1959).

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) in the case of an advertisement liable to the advertisement tax, the executive authority shall grant permission for the period to which the payment of the tax relates and no fee shall be charged in respect of such permission.

Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to any advertisement, erected, exhibited, fixed or retained on the premises of a railway administration relating to the business of a railway administration.
107-C. Permission of the executive authority to become void in certain cases.—The permission granted under section 107-B shall become void in the following cases, namely:

(a) if the advertisement contravenes any by-law made by the municipal council under clause (25) of section 306 or the Tamil Nadu Open Places (Preservation of Disfigurement) Act, 1959 (Tamil Nadu Act 2 of 1959);

(b) if any addition to the advertisement be made except for the purposes of making it secure under the direction of the engineer for general purposes;

(c) if any material change be made in the advertisement or any part thereof;

(d) if the advertisement or any part thereof falls otherwise than through accident;

(e) if any addition or alteration be made to, or in the building, wall or structure upon or over which the advertisement is erected, exhibited, fixed or retained if such addition or alteration involves the disturbance of the advertisement or any part thereof; and

(f) if the building, wall or structure upon or over which the advertisement is erected, exhibited, fixed or retained be demolished or destroyed.

107-D. Owner or person in occupation to be deemed responsible.—Where any advertisement shall be erected, exhibited, fixed or retained upon or over any land, building, wall, hoarding or structure in contravention of the provisions of section 107-A or section 107-B or after the written permission for the erection, exhibition, fixation or retention thereof for any period shall have expired or become void, the owner or person in occupation of such land, building, wall, hoarding or structure shall be deemed to be the person who has erected, exhibited, fixed or retained such advertisement in such contravention unless he proves that such contravention was committed by a person not in his employment or under his control or was committed without his connivance.

107-E. Removal of unauthorised advertisement.—If any advertisement be erected, exhibited, fixed or retained contrary to the provisions of sections 107-A or 107-B or after the written permission for the erection, exhibition, fixation or retention thereof for any period shall have expired or become void, the executive authority may, by notice in writing, require the owner or occupier of the land, building, wall, hoarding or structure upon or over which the same is erected, exhibited, fixed or retained to take down or remove such advertisement or may enter any building, land or property and have the advertisement removed.

107-F. Collection of tax on advertisement.—The executive authority may farm out the collection of any tax on advertisements leviable under section 107-A for any period not exceeding one year at a time on such terms and conditions as may be provided for by by-laws made under section 306.

6. After Chapter XII of the 1920 Act, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:

CHAPTER XII-A.

285-A. Definition.—In this Chapter, “hoarding” means any screen of boards at any place whether public or private used or intended to be used for exhibiting advertisement including the frame work or other support, erected, wholly or in part upon or over any land, building, wall or structure, visible to the public wholly or partly.

285-B. Prohibition for erection of hoardings.—(1) No hoarding shall be erected at any place, on or after the 23rd day of July 1998 (hereafter in this section referred to as the said date), by any person without obtaining a licence from the executive authority.

(2) Every person who has erected any hoarding without obtaining a licence and which is in existence immediately before the said date, shall apply for a licence in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter within thirty days from the said date.
285-C. Application for licence.—(1) Every application for licence under this Chapter shall be made to the executive authority in such form, containing such particulars and with such fee, as may be prescribed.

(2) The executive authority may, after local inspection, grant a licence with such conditions or directions, subject to such rules as may be prescribed.

(3) The executive authority may refuse to grant licence for reasons to be recorded in writing:

Provided that a licence shall not be refused unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of making his representation.

(4) Every licence granted under sub-section (2) shall be valid for such period as may be prescribed and may be renewed from time to time.

285-D. Power to cancel or suspend licence.—(1) Without prejudice to any other penalty to which the licensee may be liable under this Chapter, the executive authority may, at any time, by order in writing, cancel or suspend any licence granted or renewed under section 285-C, if—

(a) such licence has been obtained by fraud, misrepresentation or suppression of material particulars; or

(b) the licensee has contravened any of the provisions of this Chapter or the rules made thereunder or any of the conditions subject to which the licence was granted.

(2) Before cancelling or suspending a licence under sub-section (1), the executive authority shall give the licensee an opportunity of making his representation.

285-E. Removal of unauthorised hoardings.—Any hoarding erected without a licence shall be confiscated and removed by the executive authority, without giving any notice.

285-F. Removal of hoarding in certain other cases.—(1) Where any hoarding is retained after the expiry of the licence or erected contrary to the conditions of licence, the executive authority may by notice in writing, require the licensee to remove such hoarding within such time as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the hoarding is not removed within the time specified in the notice, the executive authority shall, without further notice, remove such hoarding and recover the expenditure for such removal as an arrear of land revenue.

285-G. Exemptions.—Nothing contained in this Chapter shall apply to any hoarding on which is exhibited any advertisement which relates to—

(i) the trade or business carried on within the land or building, upon or over, which such hoarding is erected or to any sale or letting of such land or building or any effects therein or to any sale, entertainment or meeting, to be held upon or in such land or building; or

(ii) the name of the land or building, upon or over which the hoarding is erected or to the name of the owner or occupier of such land or building;

Provided that the exemption under this section shall be subject to such size and nature of the hoarding as may be prescribed.

285-H. Appeal.—(1) An appeal shall lie to the Taxation Appeals Committee from an order of refusal to grant or renew a licence or cancelling or suspending a licence by the executive authority under this Chapter within thirty days from the date of receipt of the order.

(2) The appeal shall be in such form and in such manner and shall accompany with such fee, as may be prescribed.
(3) On receipt of such appeal, the Taxation Appeals Committee may, after making such inquiry as may be necessary and giving a reasonable opportunity to the appellant to be heard, pass such orders as it deems fit.

285-Penalty.—Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this Chapter or any rule or order made thereunder or obstructs lawful exercise of any power conferred by or under this Chapter shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both”.

(3) The rate of tax payable under sub-section (2) shall be published by the Commissioner in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) Where a company or person proves that it or he has paid the sum due on account of the tax levied under this Chapter or any tax of the nature of a profession tax imposed under the Cantonments Act, 1924 for the same half-year to any local authority or cantonment authority in the State of Tamil Nadu, such company or person shall not be liable, by reason merely of change of place of business, exercise of profession, trade, calling or employment, or residence, to pay the tax to any other local authority or cantonment authority.

Group IV-2 Ex. (758)—1A.
(5) The tax leviable from a firm, association or Hindu undivided family may be levied on any adult member of the firm, association or family.

(6) Where a person doing the same business in the same name in one or more places within the city, the income of such business in all places within the city shall be computed for the purpose of levy of tax and such person shall pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(7) Where any company, corporate body, society, firm, body of persons or association pays the tax under this Chapter, any director, partner or member, as the case may be, of such company, corporate body, society, firm, body of persons or association shall not be liable to pay tax under this Chapter for the income derived by such director, partner or member from such company, corporate body, society, firm, body of persons or association:

Provided that such director, partner or member shall be liable to pay tax under this Chapter for the income derived from other sources.

(8) Every person who is liable to pay tax, other than a person earning salary or wage shall furnish to the Commissioner a return in such form, for such period and within such date and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that subject to the provisions of sub-sections (10) and (11), such person may make a self-assessment on the basis of average half-yearly income of the previous financial year and the return filed by him shall be accepted without calling for the accounts and without any inspection.

(9) Every such return shall accompany with the proof of payment of the full amount of tax due according to the return and a return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly filed.

(10) Notwithstanding anything contained in the proviso to sub-section (8), the Commissioner may select ten per cent of the total number of such assessments in such manner as may be prescribed for the purpose of detailed scrutiny regarding the correctness of the return submitted by a person in this connection and in such cases, final assessment order shall be passed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(11) If no return is submitted by any person under sub-section (8) within the prescribed period or if the return submitted by him appears to the Commissioner to be incomplete or incorrect, the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he may consider necessary, assess such person to the best of his judgment:

Provided that before taking action under this sub-section, the person shall be given a reasonable opportunity of proving the correctness or completeness of any return submitted by him.

(12) Every person who is liable to pay tax under this section, other than a person earning salary or wage —

(a) shall be issued with a pass book containing such details relating to such payment of tax as may be prescribed and if the pass book is lost or accidentally destroyed, the Commissioner may, on an application made by the person accompanied by such fee as may be fixed by the Council, issue to such person a duplicate of the pass book;

(b) shall be allotted a permanent account number and such person shall —

(i) quote such number in all his returns to, or correspondence with the Commissioner;
(ii) quote such number in all challans for the payment of any sum due under this Chapter.

(13) The rate of tax specified under sub-section (2) shall be revised by the Council once in every five years and such revision of tax shall be increased not less than twenty-five per cent and not more than thirty-five per cent of the tax levied immediately before the date of revision.

138-C. Employers liability to deduct and pay tax on behalf of the employees.—The tax payable by any person earning a salary or wage shall be deducted by his employer from the salary payable to such person, before such salary or wage is paid to him in such manner as may be prescribed and such employer shall, irrespective of whether such deduction has been made or not when the salary or wage is paid to such person be liable to pay tax on behalf of such person.

Provided that if the employer is an officer of the State or Central Government, the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, prescribe the manner in which such employer shall discharge the said liability.

138-D. Filing of returns by employer.—(1) Every employer liable to pay tax under this Chapter shall file a return to the Commissioner, in such form, for such period and by such date as may be prescribed, showing therein the salaries paid by him to the employees and the amount of tax deducted by him in respect of such employees.

(2) Every such return shall accompany with the proof of payment of the full amount of tax due according to the return and a return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly filed.

138-E. Assessment of the employer.—(1) The Commissioner, if satisfied that any return filed by any employer under sub-section (1) of section 138-D is correct and complete, shall accept the return.

(2) Where an employer has failed to file any return under sub-section (1) of section 138-D within the time or if the return filed by him appears to the Commissioner to be incorrect or incomplete, the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he considers necessary, determine the tax due and assess the employer to the best of his judgment and issue a notice of demand for the tax so assessed:

Provided that before assessing the tax due, the Commissioner shall give the employer a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

138-F. Penalty and interest.—(1) In addition to the tax assessed under subsection (1) of section 138-B or sub-section (2) of section 138-E in the case of submission of incorrect or incomplete return, the Commissioner shall direct the person or employer to pay by way of penalty of one hundred per cent of the difference of the tax assessed and the tax paid as per return:

Provided that no penalty under this sub-section shall be imposed after the period of three years from the date of the order of the assessment under this Chapter and unless the person affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such imposition.

(2) On any amount remaining unpaid after the dates specified for its payment, the person or employer shall pay, in addition to the amount due, interest at such rate not exceeding one per cent per mensem of such amount for the entire period of default, as may be prescribed.

138-G. Appeal.—(1) Any person or employer aggrieved by any order or decision of the Commissioner in relation to the payment of tax (including penalty, fine and interest) may, within such time as may be prescribed, appeal to the Taxation Appeals Tribunal.
(2) The decision of the Taxation Appeals Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law:

Provided that no such decision shall be made except after giving the person affected a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

138-B. Exception.—Nothing contained in this Chapter shall apply to—

(a) the members of the Armed Forces of the Union serving in any part of this State, to whom the provisions of the Army Act, 1950, the Air Force Act, 1950 or the Navy Act, 1957 apply; or

(b) the members of the Central Reserve Police Force to whom the Central Reserve Police Force Act, 1949 applies and serving in any part of this State;

(c) physically disabled persons with total disability in one or both hands or legs, spastics, totally dumb or deaf persons or totally blind persons:

Provided that such physical disability shall be duly certified by a Registered Medical Practitioner in the service of the Government not below the rank of Civil Surgeon.

138-I. Repeal and savings.—(1) The Tamil Nadu Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1992 (hereafter in this section referred to as the 1992 Act) in its application to the city, is hereby repealed.

(2) The repeal of the 1992 Act under sub-section (1) shall not affect,—

(i) the previous operation of the said Act or anything done or duly suffered thereunder; or

(ii) any right, privileges, obligations or liabilities acquired, accrued or incurred under the said Act; or

(iii) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of the 1992 Act, the rates of tax on professions, trades, callings and employments specified in the Schedule to the said Act shall continue to apply for the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 1992 and ending with the 30th day of September 1998 for the levy and collection of such tax for the said period, where the tax due under that Act has not been paid for the said period.

(4) The provisions of this Chapter, other than the rates of tax specified in sub-section (2) of section 138-B and the provisions relating to penalty and interest, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the levy and collection of tax for the period mentioned in sub-section (3).

(5) The arrears of tax under the 1992 Act shall be paid in six equal half-yearly instalments in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed."

(8) Every person who is liable to pay tax, other than a person earning salary or wage shall furnish to the Commissioner a return in such form, for such period and within such date and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that subject to the provisions of sub-sections (10) and (11), such person may make a self-assessment on the basis of average half-yearly income of the previous financial year and the return filed by him shall be accepted without calling for the accounts and without any inspection.

(9) Every such return shall accompany with the proof of payment of the full amount of tax due according to the return and a return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly filed.

(10) Notwithstanding anything contained in the proviso to sub-section (8), the Commissioner may select ten per cent of the total number of such assessment in such manner as may be prescribed for the purpose of detailed scrutiny regarding the correctness of the return submitted by a person in this connection and in such cases final assessment order shall be passed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(11) If no return is submitted by any person under sub-section (8) within the prescribed period or if the return submitted by him appears to the Commissioner to be incomplete or incorrect, the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he may consider necessary, assess such person to the best of his judgment:

Provided that before taking action under this sub-section, the person shall be given a reasonable opportunity of proving the correctness or completeness of any return submitted by him.

(12) Every person who is liable to pay tax under this section, other than a person earning salary or wage,—

(a) shall be issued with a pass book containing such details relating to such payment of tax as may be prescribed and if the pass book is lost or accidentally destroyed, the Commissioner may, on an application made by the person accompanied by such fee as may be fixed by the Council, issue to such person a... duplicate of the pass book,

(b) shall be allotted a permanent account number and such person shall,—

(i) quote such number in all his returns to, or correspondence with, the Commissioner;

(ii) quote such number in all claims for the payment of any sum due under this Chapter.

(13) The rate of tax specified under sub-section (2) shall be revised by the Council once in every five years and such revision of tax shall be increased not less than twenty-five per cent and not more than thirty-five per cent of the tax levied immediately before the date of revision.

169-C. Employers liability to deduct and pay tax on behalf of the employee.— The tax payable by any person earning a salary or wage shall be deducted by his employer from the salary payable to such person, before such salary or wage is paid to him in such manner as may be prescribed and such employer shall, irrespective of whether such deduction has been made or not when the salary or wage is paid to such person, be liable to pay tax on behalf of such person:

Provided that if the employer is an officer of the State or Central Government, the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, prescribe the manner in which such employer shall discharge the said liability.

169-D. Filing of returns by employer.—(1) Every employer liable to pay tax under this Chapter shall file a return to the Commissioner, in such form, for such period and by such rate as may be prescribed, showing therein the salaries paid by him to the employees and the amount of tax deducted by him in respect of such employees.

(2) Every such return shall accompany with the proof of payment of the full amount of tax due according to the return and a return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly filed.

169-E. Assessment of the employer.—(1) The Commissioner is satisfied that any return filed by any employer under sub-section (1) of section 169-D is correct and complete, shall accept the return.

(2) Where an employer has failed to file any return under sub-section (1) of section 169-D within the time or if the return filed by him appears to the Commissioner to be incorrect or incomplete, the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he considers necessary, determine the tax due and assess the employer to the best of his judgement and issue a notice of demand for the tax so assessed:

Provided that before assessing the tax due, the Commissioner shall give the employer a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

169-F. Penalty and interest.—(1) In addition to the tax assessed under sub-section (11) of section 169-B or sub-section (2) of section 169-E in the case of submission of incorrect or incomplete return, the Commissioner shall direct the person or employer to pay by way of penalty of one hundred per cent of the difference of the tax assessed and the tax paid as per return:

Provided that no penalty under this sub-section shall be imposed after the period of three years from the date of the order of the assessment under this Chapter and unless the person affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such imposition.

(2) On any amount remaining unpaid after the dates specified for its payment the person or employer shall pay, in addition to the amount due, interest at such rate not exceeding one per cent per mensem of such amount for the entire period of default, as may be prescribed.

169-G. Appeal.— (1) Any person or employer aggrieved by any order or decision of the Commissioner in relation to the payment of tax (including penalty, fee and interest) may, within such time as may be prescribed, appeal to the Taxation Appeals Tribunal.
(2) The decision of the Taxation Appeal Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law:

Provided that no such decision shall be made except after giving the person affected a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

169-H. Exemptions.—Nothing contained in this Chapter shall apply to,—

(a) the members of the Armed Forces of the Union serving in any part of this State, to whom the provisions of the Army Act, 1950, the Air Force Act, 1950 or the Navy Act, 1957 applies;

(b) the members of the Central Reserve Police Force to whom the Central Reserve Police Force Act, 1949 applies and serving in any part of this State;

(c) physically disabled persons with total disability in one or both the hands or legs, spastics, totally dumb or deaf persons or totally blind persons:

Provided that such physical disability shall be duly certified by a Registered Medical Practitioner in the service of the Government not below the rank of a Civil Surgeon.

169-I. Regulations. —(1) The Tamil Nadu Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1992 (hereafter in this section referred to as the 1992 Act), in its application to the City, is hereby repealed.

(2) The repeal of the 1992 Act under sub-section (1) shall not affect,—

(i) the previous operation of the said Act or anything done or duly suffered thereunder; or

(ii) any right, privileges, obligations or liabilities acquired, accrued or incurred under the said Act; or

(iii) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of the 1992 Act, the rates of tax on professions, trades, callings and employments specified in the Schedule to the said Act shall continue to apply for the period commencing on the 1st day of April 1992 and ending with the 30th day of September 1998 for the levy and collection of such tax for the said period where the tax due under that Act has not been paid for the said period,

(4) The provisions of this Chapter, other than the rates of tax specified in sub-section (2) of section 169-B and the provisions relating to penalty and interest, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the levy and collection of tax for the period mentioned in sub-section (3).

(5) The arrears of tax under the 1992 Act shall be paid in six equal half yearly instalments in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed.”.

(3) The rates of tax payable under sub-section (2) shall be published by the Commissioner in such manner as may be prescribed.
(4) Where a company or person proves that it or he has paid the sum due on account of the tax levied under this Chapter or any tax of the nature of a profession tax imposed under the Cantonments Act, 1924 for the same half-year to any local authority or cantonment authority in the State of Tamil Nadu such company or person shall not be liable by reason merely of change of place of business, exercise of profession, trade, calling or employment or residence, to pay the tax to any other local authority or cantonment authority.

(5) The tax leviable from a firm, association or Hindu undivided family may be levied on any adult member of the firm, association or family.

(6) Where a person doing the same business in the same name in one or more places within the city the income of such business in all places within the city shall be computed for the purpose of levy of tax and such person shall pay the tax in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(7) Where any company, corporate body, society, firm, body of persons or association pays the tax under this Chapter any director, partner or member, as the case may be, of such company, corporate body, society, firm, body of persons or association shall not be liable to pay tax under this Chapter for the income derived by such director, partner or member from such company, corporate body, society, firm, body of persons or associations:

Provided that such director, partner or member shall be liable to pay tax under this Chapter for the income derived from other sources.

(8) Every person who is liable to pay tax, other than a person earning salary or wage shall furnish to the Commissioner a return in such form, for such period and within such date and in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that subject to the provisions of sub-sections (10) and (11) such person may make a self-assessment on the basis of average half-yearly income of the previous financial year and the return filed by him shall be accepted without calling for the accounts and without any inspection.

(9) Every such return shall accompany with the proof of payment of the full amount of tax due according to the return and a return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly filed.

(10) Notwithstanding anything contained in the proviso to sub-section (6), the Commissioners may select ten per cent of the total number of such assessment in such manner as may be prescribed for the purpose of detailed scrutiny regarding the correctness of the return submitted by a person in this connection and in such cases final assessment order shall be passed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

(11) If no return is submitted by any person under sub-section (6) within the prescribed period or if the return submitted by him appears to the Commissioner to be incomplete or incorrect, the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he may consider necessary, assess such person to the best of his judgement:

Provided that before taking action under this sub-section the person shall be given a reasonable opportunity of proving the correctness or completeness of any return submitted by him.

(12) Every person who is liable to pay tax under this section, other than a person earning salary or wage,—

(a) shall be issued with a pass book containing such details relating to such payment of tax as may be prescribed and if the pass book is lost or accidentally destroyed the Commissioner may on an application made by the person accompanied by such fee as may be fixed by the Council, issue to such person a duplicate of the pass book.
(b) shall be allotted a permanent account number and such person shall—

(i) quote such number in all his returns to, or correspondence with, the Commissioner;

(ii) quote such number in all cheques for the payment of any sum due under this Chapter.

(3) The rate of tax specified under sub-section (2) shall be revised by the Council once in every five years and such revision of tax shall be increased not less than twenty-five per cent and not more than thirty-five per cent of the tax levied immediately before the date of revision.

169-C. Employer's liability to deduct and pay tax on behalf of the employees.—The tax payable by any person earning a salary or wage shall be deducted by his employer from the salary payable to such person, before such salary or wage is paid to him in such manner as may be prescribed and such employer shall irrespective of whether such deduction has been made or not when the salary or wage is paid to such person, be liable to pay tax on behalf of such person:

Provided that if the employer is an officer of the State or Central Government, the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter, prescribe the manner in which such employer shall discharge the said liability.

169-D. Filing of returns by employer.—(1) Every employer liable to pay tax under this Chapter shall file a return to the Commissioner, in such form for such period and by such date as may be prescribed, showing therein the salaries paid by him to the employees and the amount of tax deducted by him in respect of such employees.

(2) Every such return shall accompany with the proof of payment of the full amount of tax due according to the return and a return without such proof of payment shall not be deemed to have been duly filed.

169-E. Assessment of the employer.—(1) The Commissioner, if satisfied that any return filed by any employer under sub-section (1) of section 169-D is correct and complete, shall accept the return.

(2) Where an employer has failed to file any return under sub-section (1) of section 169-D within the time or if the return filed by him appears to the Commissioner to be incorrect or incomplete, the Commissioner shall, after making such enquiry as he considers necessary, determine the tax due and assess the employer to the best of his judgement and issue a notice of demand for the tax so assessed:

Provided that before assessing the tax due, the Commissioner shall give the employer a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

169-F. Penalty and interest.—(1) In addition to the tax assessed under sub-section (1) of section 169-B or sub-section (2) of section 169-E. in the case of submission of incorrect or incomplete return, the Commissioner shall direct the person or employer to pay by way of penalty of one hundred per cent of the difference of the tax assessed and the tax paid as per return:

Provided that no penalty under this sub-section shall be imposed after the period of three years from the date of the order of the assessment under this Chapter and unless the person affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such imposition.

(2) On any amount remaining unpaid after the dates specified for its payment the person or employer shall pay in addition to the amount due, interest at such rate not exceeding one per cent per mensem of such amount for the entire period of default, as may be prescribed.

169-G. Appeal.—(1) Any person or employer aggrieved by any order or decision of the Commissioner in relation to the payment of tax (including penalty, fee and interest) may, within such time as may be prescribed, appeal to the Taxation Appeals Tribunal.
(2) The decision of the Taxation Appeals Tribunal shall be final and shall not be questioned in any court of law:

Provided that no such decision shall be made except after giving the person affected a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

169-H. Exemptions.—Nothing contained in this Chapter shall apply to—

(a) the members of the Armed Forces of the Union serving in any part of this State, to whom the provisions of the Army Act, 1950, the Air Force Act, 1950 or the Navy Act, 1957 applies;

(b) the members of the Central Reserve Police Force to whom the Central Reserve Police Force Act, 1949 applies and serving in any part of this State;

(c) physically disabled persons with total disability in one or both the hands or legs, spastics, totally dumb or deaf persons or totally blind persons:

Provided that such physical disability shall be duly certified by a Registered Medical Practitioner in the service of the Government not below the rank of a Civil Surgeon.

169-I. Repeal and Savings.—(1) The Tamil Nadu Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1992 (hereafter in this section referred to as the 1992 Act), in its application to the City, is hereby repealed.

(2) The repeal of the 1992 Act under sub-section (1) shall not affect,—

(i) the previous operation of the said Act or anything done or duty suffered thereunder; or

(ii) any right, privileges, obligations or liabilities acquired accrued or incurred under the said Act; or

(iii) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of the 1992 Act, the rates of tax on professions, trades, callings and employments specified in the Schedule to the said Act shall continue to apply for the period commencing on the 1st day of April 1992 and ending with the 30th day of September 1998 for the levy and collection of such tax for the said period where the tax due under that Act has not been paid for the said period.

(4) The provisions of this Chapter, other than the rates of tax specified in sub-section (2) of section 169-B and the provisions relating to penalty and interest, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the levy and collection of tax for the period mentioned in sub-section (3).

(5) The arrears of tax under the 1992 Act shall be paid in six equal half-yearly instalments in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed.

"43-D. Voting machine at elections.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this act or the rules made thereunder, the giving and recording of votes by voting machines may be adopted in such ward or wards of a Municipality as the State Election Commission may, having regard to the circumstances of each case, specify.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, "voting machine" means any machine or apparatus whether operated electronically or otherwise used for giving or recording of votes and any reference to a ballot box or ballot paper in this Act or the rules made thereunder shall, save as otherwise provided, be construed as including a reference to such voting machine wherever such voting machine is used at any election.”.

PART-IV.

AMENDMENTS TO THE MADURAI CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1971.

Section 60-A of the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (hereafter in this Part referred to as the 1971 Act), after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be added, namely:—

“(5) The trial of an election petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interest of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day until its conclusion, unless the District Judge finds the adjournment of the trial beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.
(6) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date on which the election petition is presented to the District Judge for trial.

7. After section 66 of the 1971 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"66-A. Voting machine at elections. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, the giving and recording of votes by voting machines may be adopted in such ward or wards of the Corporation as the State Election Commission may, having regard to the circumstances of each case, specify.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, "voting machine" means any machine or apparatus whether operated electronically or otherwise used for giving or recording of votes and any reference to a ballot box or ballot paper in this Act or the rules made thereunder shall, save as otherwise provided, be construed as including a reference to such voting machine wherever such voting machine is used at any election."

PART-V.

AMENDMENTS TO THE COIMBATORE CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1981.

8. In section 62-A of the Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation Act, 1981 (hereafter in this Part referred to as the 1981 Act), after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be added, namely:

"(5) The trial of an election petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interest of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day until its conclusion, unless the District Judge finds the adjournment of the trial beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

(6) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date on which the election petition is presented to the District Judge for trial."

9. After section 68 of the 1981 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"68-A. Voting machine at elections. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, the giving and recording of votes by voting machines may be adopted in such ward or wards of the Corporation as the State Election Commission may, having regard to the circumstances of each case, specify.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section, "voting machine" means any machine or apparatus whether operated electronically or otherwise used for giving or recording of votes and any reference to a ballot box or ballot paper in this Act or the rules made thereunder shall, save as otherwise provided, be construed as including a reference to such voting machine wherever such voting machine is used at any election."

PART-VI.

AMENDMENTS TO THE TAMIL NADU URBAN LOCAL BODIES ACT, 1998.

10. In section 9 of the Tamil Nadu Urban Local Bodies Act, 1998 (hereafter in this Part referred to as the 1998 Act), in sub-section (1), for the expression commencing with the words "any amendment, by way of inclusion" and ending with the words "Tamil Nadu State Election Commission", the following expression shall be substituted, namely:

"any amendment, transposition or deletion of any entry in the electoral roll of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly made after the last date for making nominations for election in any municipality."
11. After section 10 of the 1998 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"10-A. Voting machine at elections.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made thereunder, the giving and recording of votes by voting machines may be adopted in such ward or wards of a Municipality as the Tamil Nadu State Election Commission may, having regard to the circumstances of each case, specify.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this section,"voting machine" means any machine or apparatus whether operated electronically or otherwise used for giving or recording of votes and any reference to a ballot box or ballot paper in this Act or the rules made thereunder shall, save as otherwise provided, be construed as including a reference to such voting machine wherever such voting machine is used at any election.

12. In section 30 of the 1998 Act, after sub-section (4), the following sub-sections shall be added, namely:—

"(5) The trial of an election petition shall, so far as is practicable consistently with the interest of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day until its conclusion, unless the Principal District Judge finds the adjournment of the trial beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

(6) Every election petition shall be tried as expeditiously as possible and endeavour shall be made to conclude the trial within six months from the date on which the election petition is presented to the Principal District Judge for trial."

The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly received the assent of the Governor on the 1st September 2006 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 18 OF 2006.

An Act further to amend the laws relating to the Municipal Corporations and the Municipalities in the State of Tamil Nadu.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu Municipal Laws (Amendment) Act, 2006.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 14th day of July 2006.

PART II.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CHENNAI CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1919.

2. For Sections 28 and 29 of the Chennai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1919 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the 1919 Act), the following sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"28 Election of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.—(1) The council shall, at its first meeting after each ordinary election to the council,—

(i) elect one of its councillors to be the Mayor; and,

(ii) elect one of its councillors other than the Mayor to be the Deputy Mayor.

(2) A Deputy Mayor on being elected as Mayor shall cease to be the Deputy Mayor.

29. Term of Office of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.—(1) The Mayor or Deputy Mayor shall be entitled to hold office for a period of five years from the date of his election provided that in the meantime he does not cease to be the councillor.

(2) On the occurrence of any vacancy in the Office of Mayor or Deputy Mayor, the council shall, within such time as may be prescribed, elect a successor, who shall be entitled to hold office so long as the person in whose place he is elected would have been entitled to hold it if the vacancy had not occurred.

(3) A Mayor or a Deputy Mayor shall be deemed to have vacated his office on his becoming disqualified for holding the office or on his removal from office on the expiry of his term of office or on his otherwise ceasing to be the Mayor or Deputy Mayor, as the case may be.”.

3. After Section 44-AA of the 1919 Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"44-AB. State Government to remove Mayor or Deputy Mayor.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, remove a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor, who in their opinion wilfully omits or refuses to carry out or disobeys the provisions of this Act or any rules, by-laws, regulations or lawful orders issued under this Act or abuses the powers vested in him.
(2) The State Government shall, when they propose to take action under sub-section (1), give the Mayor or Deputy Mayor concerned an opportunity for explanation, and the notification issued under the said sub-section shall contain a statement of the reasons of the State Government for the action taken.

(3) Any person removed under sub-section (1) from the Office of the Mayor or Deputy Mayor shall not be eligible for election to the said office until the date on which notice of the next ordinary elections to the council is published in the prescribed manner, or the expiry of one year from the date specified in such notification.

44-AC. Motion of no-confidence in Mayor or Deputy Mayor.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a motion expressing want of confidence in the Mayor or Deputy Mayor may be made in accordance with the procedure laid down herein.

(2) Written notice of intention to make the motion, in such form as may be fixed by the State Government, signed by such number of councillors as shall constitute not less than one half of the sanctioned strength of the council, together with a copy of the motion which is proposed to be made, shall be delivered in person to the commissioner by any two of the councillors signing the notice.

(3) The commissioner shall then convene a meeting for the consideration of the motion, to be held at the Municipal Office, at a time appointed by him which shall not be later than thirty days from the date on which the notice under sub-section (2) was delivered to him. He shall give to the councillors notice of not less than fifteen clear days of such meeting and of the time appointed therefor.

(4) The commissioner shall preside at the meeting convened under this section, and no other person shall preside thereat. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the commissioner is not present to preside at the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a time to be appointed and notified to the councillors by the commissioner under sub-section (5).

(5) If the commissioner is unable to preside at the meeting, he may, after recording his reasons in writing, adjourn the meeting to such other time as he may appoint. The date so appointed shall not be later than thirty days from the date appointed for the meeting under sub-section (3). Notice of not less than seven clear days shall be given to the councillors of the time appointed for the adjourned meeting.

(6) Save as provided in sub-sections (4) and (5), a meeting convened for the purpose of considering a motion under this section shall not for any reason be adjourned.

(7) As soon as the meeting convened under this section has commenced, the commissioner shall read to the council the motion for the consideration of which it has been convened and declare it to be open for debate.

(8) No debate on any motion under this section shall be adjourned.

(9) Such debate shall automatically terminate on the expiry of two hours from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting; if it is not concluded earlier. Upon the conclusion of the debate or upon the expiry of the said period of two hours, as the case may be, the motion shall be put to the vote of the council.

(10) The commissioner shall not speak on the merits of the motion, nor shall he be entitled to vote thereon.

(11) A copy of the minutes of the meeting together with a copy of the motion and the result of the voting thereon shall forthwith on the termination of the meeting be forwarded by the commissioner to the State Government.
(12) If the motion is carried with the support of not less than three-fifth of the sanctioned strength of the council, the State Government shall, by notification, remove the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor, as the case may be.

(13) If the motion is not carried by such a majority as aforesaid, or if the meeting cannot be held for want of a quorum, no notice of any subsequent motion expressing want of confidence in the same Mayor or the Deputy Mayor shall be received until after the expiry of six months from the date of the meeting.

(14) No notice of a motion under this section shall be received within six months of the assumption of office by a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor.

4. After section 46-A of the 1919 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"46-AA. Special provision relating to election.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made or orders issued under this Act, for the first election to the council to be held immediately after the 14th day of July 2006, the territorial area of the divisions of the city, the total number of divisions and the total number of councillors to be returned from such divisions shall be the same as they exist on the 14th day of July 2006."

5. In section 59 of the 1919 Act, in sub-section (2), in clause (c), for the words "councillor or Mayor", the word "councillor" shall be substituted.

6. In section 348 of the 1919 Act, clauses (a) and (b) shall be omitted.

AMENDMENTS TO THE MADURAI CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1971.

7. For sections 29 and 30 of the Madurai City Municipal Corporation Act, 1971 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the 1971 Act), the following sections shall be substituted, namely:

"29. Election of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.—(1) The council shall, at its first meeting after each ordinary election to the council,—

(i) elect one of its councillors to be the Mayor; and

(ii) elect one of its councillors other than the Mayor to be the Deputy Mayor.

(2) A Deputy Mayor on being elected as Mayor shall cease to be the Deputy Mayor.

30. Term of office of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.—(1) The Mayor or Deputy Mayor shall be entitled to hold office for a period of five years from the date of his election provided that in the meantime he does not cease to be the councillor.

(2) On the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of Mayor or Deputy Mayor, the council shall, within such time as may be prescribed, elect a successor, who shall be entitled to hold office so long as the person in whose place he is elected would have been entitled to hold it if the vacancy had not occurred.

(3) A Mayor or a Deputy Mayor shall be deemed to have vacated his office on his becoming disqualified for holding the office or on his removal from office or on the expiry of his term of office or on his otherwise ceasing to be the Mayor or Deputy Mayor, as the case may be."
8. After section 48-A of the 1971 Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely—

"48-AA. State Government to remove Mayor or Deputy Mayor.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, remove a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor, who in their opinion wilfully omits or refuses to carry out or disobeys the provisions of this Act or any rules, by-laws, regulations made or lawful orders issued under this Act or abuses the powers vested in him.

(2) The State Government shall, when they propose to take action under sub-section (1), give the Mayor or Deputy Mayor concerned an opportunity for explanation, and the notification issued under the said sub-section shall contain a statement of the reasons of the State Government for the action taken.

(3) Any person removed under sub-section (1) from the office of the Mayor or Deputy Mayor shall not be eligible for election to the said office until the date on which notice of the next ordinary elections to the council is published in the prescribed manner, or expiry of one year from the date specified in such notification.

48-AB. Motion of no-confidence in Mayor or Deputy Mayor.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a motion expressing want of confidence in the Mayor or Deputy Mayor may be made in accordance with the procedure laid down herein.

(2) Written notice of intention to make the motion, in such form as may be fixed by the State Government, signed by such number of councillors as shall constitute not less than one half of the sanctioned strength of the council, together with a copy of the motion which is proposed to be made, shall be delivered in person to the commissioner by any two of the councillors signing the notice.

(3) The commissioner shall then convene a meeting for the consideration of the motion, to be held at the municipal office, at a time appointed by him which shall not be later than thirty days from the date on which the notice under sub-section (2) was delivered to him. He shall give to the councillors notice of not less than fifteen clear days of such meeting and of the time appointed therefor.

(4) The commissioner shall preside at the meeting convened under this section, and no other person shall preside thereat. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the commissioner is not present to preside at the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a time to be appointed and notified to the councillors by the commissioner under sub-section (5).

(5) If the commissioner is unable to preside at the meeting, he may, after recording his reasons in writing, adjourn the meeting to such other time as he may appoint. The date so appointed shall not be later than thirty days from the date appointed for the meeting under sub-section (3). Notice of not less than seven clear days shall be given to the councillors of the time appointed for the adjourned meeting.

(6) Save as provided in sub-sections (4) and (5), a meeting convened for the purpose of considering a motion under this section shall not for any reason be adjourned.

(7) As soon as the meeting convened under this section has commenced, the commissioner shall read to the council the motion for the consideration of which it has been convened and declare it to be open for debate.

(8) No debate on any motion under this section shall be adjourned.

(9) Such debate shall automatically terminate on the expiry of two hours from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting. if it is not concluded earlier. Upon the conclusion of the debate or upon the expiry of the said period of two hours, as the case may be, the motion shall be put to the vote of the council.
(10) The commissioner shall not speak on the merits of the motion, nor shall he be entitled to vote thereon.

(11) A copy of the minutes of the meeting together with a copy of the motion and the result of the voting thereon shall forthwith on the termination of the meeting be forwarded by the commissioner to the State Government.

(12) If the motion is carried with the support of not less than three-fifth of the sanctioned strength of the council, the State Government shall, by notification, remove the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor, as the case may be.

(13) If the motion is not carried by such a majority as aforesaid, or if the meeting cannot be held for want of a quorum, no notice of any subsequent motion expressing want of confidence in the same Mayor or the Deputy Mayor shall be received until after the expiry of six months from the date of the meeting.

(14) No notice of a motion under this section shall be received within six months of the assumption of office by a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor.

9. After section 50 of the 1971 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"50-A. Special provision relating to election.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made or orders issued under this Act, for the first election to the council to be held immediately after the 14th day of July 2006, the territorial area of the wards of the city, the total number of wards and the total number of councillors to be returned from such wards shall be the same as they exist on the 14th day of July 2006."

10. In section 66 of the 1971 Act, in sub-section (2), in clause (b), for the words "councillor or Mayor", the word "councillor" shall be substituted.

PART-IV.

AMENDMENTS TO THE COIMBATORE CITY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION ACT, 1981.

11. For sections 29 and 30 of the Coimbatore City Municipal Corporation Act, 1981 (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the 1981 Act), the following sections shall be substituted, namely:

"29. Election of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.—(1) The council shall, at its first meeting after each ordinary election to the council,—

(i) elect one of its councillors to be the Mayor; and

(ii) elect one of its councillors other than the Mayor to be the Deputy Mayor.

(2) A Deputy Mayor on being elected as Mayor shall cease to be the Deputy Mayor.

30. Term of office of Mayor and Deputy Mayor.—(1) The Mayor or Deputy Mayor shall be entitled to hold office for a period of five years from the date of his election provided that in the meantime he does not cease to be the councillor.

(2) On the occurrence of any vacancy in the office of Mayor or Deputy Mayor, the council shall, within such time as may be prescribed, elect a successor, who shall be entitled to hold office so long as the person in whose place he is elected would have been entitled to hold it if the vacancy had not occurred.
(3) A Mayor or a Deputy Mayor shall be deemed to have vacated his office on his becoming disqualified for holding the office or on his removal from office or on the expiry of his term of office or on his otherwise ceasing to be the Mayor or Deputy Mayor, as the case may be.

12. After section 50-A of the 1981 Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:

"50-B. State Government to remove Mayor or Deputy Mayor.—(1) The State Government may, by notification, remove a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor, who in their opinion wilfully omits or refuses to carry out or disobey the provisions of this Act or any rules, by-laws, regulations made or lawful orders issued under this Act or abuses the powers vested in him.

(2) The State Government shall, when they propose to take action under sub-section (1), give the Mayor or Deputy Mayor concerned an opportunity for explanation, and the notification issued under the said sub-section shall contain a statement of the reasons of the State Government for the action taken.

(3) Any person removed under sub-section (1) from the office of the Mayor or Deputy Mayor shall not be eligible for election to the said office until the date on which notice of the next ordinary elections to the council is published in the prescribed manner, or the expiry of one year from the date specified in such notification.

50-C. Motion of no-confidence in Mayor or Deputy Mayor.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a motion expressing want of confidence in the Mayor or Deputy Mayor may be made in accordance with the procedure laid down herein.

(2) Written notice of intention to make the motion, in such form as may be fixed by the State Government, signed by such number of councillors as shall constitute not less than one half of the sanctioned strength of the council, together with a copy of the motion which is proposed to be made, shall be delivered in person to the commissioner by any two of the councillors signing the notice.

(3) The commissioner shall then convene a meeting for the consideration of the motion, to be held at the Municipal Office, at a time appointed by him which shall not be later than thirty days from the date on which the notice under sub-section (2) was delivered to him. He shall give to the councillors notice of not less than fifteen clear days of such meeting and of the time appointed therefor.

(4) The commissioner shall preside at the meeting convened under this section, and no other person shall preside thereat. If within half an hour after the time appointed for the meeting the commissioner is not present to preside at the meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a time to be appointed and notified to the councillors by the commissioner under sub-section (5).

(5) If the commissioner is unable to preside at the meeting, he may, after recording his reasons in writing, adjourn the meeting to such other time as he may appoint. The date so appointed shall not be later than thirty days from the date appointed for the meeting under sub-section (3). Notice of not less than seven clear days shall be given to the councillors of the time appointed for the adjourned meeting.

(6) Save as provided in sub-sections (4) and (5), a meeting convened for the purpose of considering a motion under this section shall not for any reason be adjourned.

(7) As soon as the meeting convened under this section has commenced, the commissioner shall read to the council the motion for the consideration of which it has been convened and declare it to be open for debate.
(8) No debate on any motion under this section shall be adjourned.

(9) Such debate shall automatically terminate on the expiry of two hours from the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, if it is not concluded earlier. Upon the conclusion of the debate or upon the expiry of the said period of two hours, as the case may be, the motion shall be put to the vote of the council.

(10) The commissioner shall not speak on the merits of the motion, nor shall he be entitled to vote thereon.

(11) A copy of the minutes of the meeting together with a copy of the motion and the result of the voting thereon shall forthwith on the termination of the meeting be forwarded by the commissioner to the State Government.

(12) If the motion is carried with the support of not less than three-fifths of the sanctioned strength of the council, the State Government shall, by notification, remove the Mayor or the Deputy Mayor, as the case may be.

(13) If the motion is not carried by such a majority as aforesaid, or if the meeting cannot be held for want of a quorum, no notice of any subsequent motion expressing want of confidence in the same Mayor or the Deputy Mayor shall be received until after the expiry of six months from the date of the meeting.

(14) No notice of a motion under this section shall be received within six months of the assumption of office by a Mayor or a Deputy Mayor.

13. After section 52 of the 1981 Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:

"52-A. Special provision relating to election.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or the rules made or orders issued under this Act for the first election to the council to be held immediately after the 14th day of July 2006, the territorial area of the divisions of the city, the total number of divisions and the total number of councillors to be returned from such divisions shall be the same as they exist on the 14th day of July 2006."

14. In section 68 of the 1981 Act, in sub-section (2), in clause (b), for the words “councillor or Mayor”, the word “councillor” shall be substituted.

(4) in clause (29-A), for the expression “Third Grade municipality”, the expression “Third Grade municipality or town panchayat” shall be substituted;

(5) after clause (29-A), the following clause shall be inserted, namely—

"(29-AA) “transitional area” means an area in transition from a rural area to an urban area classified as transitional area under section 3-B;".
16. In section 3-F of the 1920 Act, in sub-section (1), the expression "(exclusive of its chairman)" shall be omitted;

17. After Chapter I-A of the 1920 Act, the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:—

"CHAPTER I-B.

TOWN PANCHAYATS.

3-O. Application of Chapter.—This Chapter shall apply only to the town panchayats.

3-P. Formation of town panchayats.—(1) The Governor—

(a) may, having regard to the revenue generated for local administration, the percentage of employment in non-agricultural activities, the economic importance or such other factors as he deems fit, by notification, classify and declare every local area comprising a revenue village or villages or any portion of a revenue village or contiguous portions of two or more revenue villages and having a population estimated at less than thirty thousand as a panchayat town for the purposes of this Act; and

(b) shall, by notification, specify the name of such panchayat town.

(2) In every panchayat town declared as such under sub-section (1), there shall be established a town panchayat.

(3) (a) The Governor may, by notification, exclude from a panchayat town any area comprised therein.

(b) In regard to any area excluded under clause (a), the Governor may, by notification under sub-section (1), declare it to be a panchayat town or include it in any contiguous panchayat town under clause (c) (i).

(c) The Governor may, by notification,—

(i) include in a panchayat town any local area contiguous thereto; or

(ii) cancel or modify a notification issued under sub-section (1); or

(iii) alter the name of the panchayat town specified under clause (b) of sub-section (1).

(d) Before issuing a notification under clause (a) or under clause (b) read with sub-section (1) or under clause (c), the Governor shall give the town panchayat or town panchayats which will be affected by the issue of such notification, a reasonable opportunity for showing cause against the proposal and shall consider the explanations and objections, if any, of such town panchayat or town panchayats.

(4) Any rate-payer or inhabitant of such area or any town panchayat concerned may, if he or it objects to any notification under sub-section (1) or sub-section (3), appeal to the High Court within such period as may be prescribed.

3-Q. Constitution of town panchayats.—(1) Save as provided under sub-section (2), every town panchayat shall consist of the elected members as determined under section 3-X.

(2) The following persons shall be represented in the town panchayat, namely:—

(a) the members of the House of the People and the members of the State Legislative Assembly representing a constituency comprising the whole or any part of the town panchayat; and
(b) the members of the Council of States who are registered as electors within the area of the town panchayat.

(3) The members of the House of the People, the State Legislative Assembly and the Council of States referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of subsection (2) shall be entitled to take part in the proceedings, but shall not have the right to vote in the meetings of the town panchayat.

3-R. Incorporation of town panchayats.—(1) A town panchayat shall be constituted for each panchayat town consisting of such number of elected members, with effect from such date as may be specified in the notification issued in that behalf by the Governor.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the administration of the panchayat town shall vest in the town panchayat, but the town panchayat shall not be entitled to exercise functions expressly assigned by or under this Act or any other law to its chairman or to any other authority.

(3) Every town panchayat shall be a body corporate by the name of the panchayat town specified in the notification issued under section 3-P, shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and subject to any restrictions or qualifications imposed by or under this Act or any other law, shall be vested with the capacity of suing or being sued in its corporate name, or acquiring, holding and transferring property, movable or immovable or entering into contracts and of doing all things necessary, proper or expedient for the purpose for which it is constituted.

3-S. Alteration of classification of panchayat towns.—(1) The Governor may alter any classification, notified under sub-section (1) of section 3-P, if in his opinion, the panchayat town satisfies or ceases to satisfy the conditions referred to in that sub-section.

(2) Any decision made by the Governor under this section shall not be questioned in a court of law.

3-T. Strength of a town panchayat.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the total number of members of a town panchayat shall be notified by the Inspector in accordance with such scale as may be prescribed with reference to the population as ascertained at the last preceding census of which the relevant figures have been published.

(2) The Inspector may, from time to time, by notification, alter the total number of members of a town panchayat notified under sub-section (1).

3-U. Duration of town panchayat.—(1) Every town panchayat, unless sooner dissolved, shall continue for five years beginning from the date appointed for its first meeting after each ordinary election and no longer and the expiration of the said period of five years shall operate as a dissolution of the town panchayat.

(2) An election to constitute a town panchayat shall be completed.—

(a) before the expiry of its duration specified in sub-section (1); or

(b) before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of its dissolution:

Provided that where the remainder of the period for which the dissolved town panchayat would have continued is less than six months, it shall not be necessary to hold any election for constituting the town panchayat for such period.
ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE OF MEMBERS.

3-V. Election of members to town panchayat.—The members of town panchayat referred to in sub-section (1) of section 3-Q shall be elected in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that no person shall be eligible to be elected under this Act as a member of more than one town panchayat.

3-W. Reservation of seats.—(1) Seats shall be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in every town panchayat and the number of seats so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of seats to be filled by direct election in that town panchayat as the population of the Scheduled Castes in the town panchayat area, or of the Scheduled Tribes in that town panchayat area, bears to the total population of that area.

(2) Seats shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes from among the seats reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes which shall not be less than one-third of the total number of seats reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes.

(3) Seats shall be reserved for women in the town panchayat and the number of seats reserved for women shall not be less than one-third (including the number of seats reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of seats in the town panchayat.

(4) (a) The offices of the chairmen of the town panchayats shall be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and the number of offices so reserved shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion to the total number of offices in the State as the population of the Scheduled Castes in all the town panchayats in the State or the Scheduled Tribes in all the town panchayats in the State, bears to the total population of all the town panchayats in the State.

(b) The offices of the chairmen of the town panchayats shall be reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes from among the offices reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes which shall not be less than one-third of the total number of offices reserved for the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes.

(5) The offices of the chairmen of the town panchayats shall be reserved for women and the number of offices reserved for women shall not be less than one-third (including the number of offices reserved for women belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes) of the total number of offices of the chairmen of the town panchayats in the State:

Provided that the offices reserved under this sub-section and under sub-section (4) shall be allotted by rotation to different town panchayats in such manner as may be prescribed.

(6) The reservation of seats under sub-sections (1) and (2) and the reservation of offices of chairmen under sub-section (4) shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period specified in Article 334 of the Constitution.

3-X. Division of town panchayats into wards.—(1) For the purpose of election of members to a town panchayat, the Inspector shall, after consulting the town panchayat, by notification, divide the panchayat town into wards and determine the number of members to be elected in accordance with such scales as may be prescribed.
(2) Only one member shall be elected from each ward.

3-Y. Term of office of members.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, members of every town panchayat elected at an ordinary election shall hold office for a term of five years.

(2) The term of office of the members elected at ordinary election shall commence on the date appointed for the first meeting of the town panchayat after such ordinary election.

(3) The member of a town panchayat elected in a casual vacancy shall enter upon the office forthwith but shall hold office only so long as the member in whose place he is elected would have been entitled to hold office, if the vacancy had not occurred.

3-Z. Electoral roll.—(1) The electoral roll of a town panchayat shall be the same as the electoral roll of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly prepared and revised in accordance with the provisions of law for the time being in force in a panchayat town and shall be deemed to be the electoral roll for such town panchayat for the purposes of this Act.

(2) No amendment, transposition or deletion of any entry in the electoral roll of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly made after the last date for making nominations for elections in any town panchayat and before the notification of the result of such election shall form part of the electoral roll for such election, for the purposes of this section.

3-AA. Application of the Act to town panchayats.—The State Government may, by notification, direct that any of the provisions of this Act and the rules made under this Act or of any other enactment for the time being in force elsewhere in the State of Tamil Nadu but not in the panchayat town shall apply to that town panchayat to such extent and subject to such modifications, additions and restrictions as may be specified in the notification.

3-BB. Chapter to override other laws.—(1) The provisions of this Chapter shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in this Act or any other law.

(2) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (1), the provisions of this Chapter shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other provisions of this Act.

3-CC. Special provisions relating to village panchayat constituted as town panchayat.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act,—

(a) the president and members of a village panchayat, who are elected or deemed to have been elected and holding office as such immediately before the date of constitution of such village panchayat as town panchayat under this Act, shall be deemed to be the chairman and members of such town panchayat elected under this Act and such chairman and members shall continue to hold office up to such date as the State Government may, by notification, fix in this behalf or, in case no such date is fixed, up to the date on which their term of office would expire under the Tamil Nadu Panchayats Act, 1994 (Tamil Nadu Act 21 of 1994) and such chairman and members shall exercise all powers and perform all duties conferred on the chairman and members by or under this Act;

(b) all the employees, other than the provincialised employees of the village panchayat immediately before its constitution as town panchayat shall be the employees of such town panchayat under this Act. The provincialised employees shall continue to serve under the town panchayat.
(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder shall apply to the town panchayat referred to in sub-section (1)."

(By Order of the Governor.)

S. DHEENADHAYALAN,
Secretary to Government-in-charge,
Law Department.
The following Act of the Tamil Nadu Legislative Assembly received the assent of the Governor on the 16th December 2006 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. 35 OF 2006.

An Act further to amend the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Tamil Nadu in the Fifty-seventh Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Act, 2006.

(2) It shall be deemed to have come into force on the 25th day of October 2006.

2. After section 3-GG of the Tamil Nadu District Municipalities Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Act), the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

3-GGG. Appointment of Special Officer in certain circumstances.—

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or in any other law for the time being in force, in respect of Koothappar town panchayat in Tiruchirappalli District, which could not be constituted on the 25th day of October 2006, even after resorting to election process, the Government may, by notification, appoint Special Officer to exercise the powers and discharge the functions of the said town panchayat, until the day on which the first meeting of the said town panchayat is held after election to the said town panchayat.

(2) The Special Officer appointed under sub-section (1) shall hold office only for six months from the date of his appointment or for such shorter period as the Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf.

3. (1) The Tamil Nadu District Municipalities (Amendment) Ordinance, 2006 is hereby repealed.

4. (a) Section 27 of the Stamp Act, shall be read as if it specifically required the particulars to be set forth separately in respect of property situated within the limits of a municipal area and outside such limits;

(b) Section 64 of the Stamp Act shall be read as if it referred to the municipality concerned as well as the Government.

5. Fifty per cent of the duty on transfers of property collected under this Act in respect of any property situated in a municipal area, shall be credited to the municipal fund, within whose territorial area such property is situated and the balance of fifty per cent shall be credited to the Tamil Nadu Urban Road Infrastructure Fund (hereinafter referred to as the Fund), in such manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that the duty on transfers of property collected under this Act in respect of any property situated in a panchayat town shall be credited to the fund of the town panchayat within whose territorial area such property is situated.

6. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order, published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as appear to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

7. The Government may, from time to time, issue such directions to the municipalities or any other authorities as it may deem fit, for giving effect to the provisions of this Act, and it shall be the duty of the municipalities or the other authorities to comply with such directions.

8. (1) The Government may make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for,—

(a) regulating the collection of duty on transfers of property;

(b) deduction of the expenses incurred by the Government in the collection of duty on transfers of property;

(c) the distribution of the Fund among the municipalities;

(d) any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed.

(3) All rules made under this Act shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette and unless they are expressed to come into force on a particular day, shall come into force on the day on which they are so published.

(4) Every rule made or order or notification issued under this Act shall, as soon as possible after it is so made or issued, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in any such rule or order or notification or the Legislative Assembly decides that the rule or order or notification should not be made or issued, the rule, order or notification shall, thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule or notification or order.
9. On and from the date of commencement of this Act, the relevant provisions in the enactments mentioned in the Schedule to this Act shall stand repealed.
