4. (1) With effect from such date as the Government may, by notification, appoint in this behalf, there shall be established a Board by the name "Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Board".

Establishment of Board.

(2) The Board shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall, by the said name, sue and be sued.

¹ This expression was added by section 3 (2) of the Tamil Nadu Labour Welfare Fund (Amendment) Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 37 of 1982).

Constitution of the Board. 5. The Board shall consist of a Chairman who shall be the Minister-in-charge of Labour and of the following members appointed by the Government, namely :—

(a) such number of representatives of employers and employees as may be prescribed :

Provided that both employers and employees shall have equal representation on the Board ;

(b) such number of members of the State Legislature as may be prescribed ; and

(c) such number of officials and non-officials as may be prescribed.

Appointment of the Chairman and the members to be notified. 6. The appointment of the Chairman and the members shall be notified in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette.

Term of office of the members. 7. The term of office of the members of the Board other than the official members shall be three years from the date of their appointment and they shall be eligible for reappointment. They shall continue as such members until the appointment of the successors :

Provided that a Member of the State Legislature shall cease to be a member of the Board from the date on which he ceases to be a Member of the State Legislature.

Disqualifications and removal. 8. (1) No person shall be chosen as, or continue to be, a member of the Board, if he—

(a) is an officer or servant under the Board ; or

(b) is an undischarged insolvent ; or

(c) is of unsound mind ; or

(d) has been convicted by a criminal court for an offence involving moral turpitude, unless such conviction has been set aside ; or

(e) is in arrears of any sum due to the Board.

(2) The Government may remove from office any member who—

(a) is or has become subject to any of the disqualifications mentioned in sub-section (1) ; or

(b) is absent without leave of the Board for more than three consecutive meetings of the Board.

9. (1) Any representative of employer or employee or Member of the State Legislature, or non-official member may resign his office by giving notice thereof in writing, to the Government, and on such resignation being accepted, shall be deemed to have vacated his office. Resignation of office by member and filling up of casual vacancies.

(2) A casual vacancy in the office of member may be filled up as soon as may be and a member so appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the term.

10. For the purpose of advising the Board in the discharge of its functions and in particular for carrying into effect any of the matters specified in sub-section (2) of section 17, the Board may constitute one or more committees consisting of at least one member of the Board and equal number of representatives of employees and employers. Power to appoint committees.

11. No act done or proceeding taken under this Act by the Board or any committee shall be invalidated merely on the ground— Acts of the Board or committee not to be invalidated by informality, vacancy, etc.

(a) of any vacancy or defect in the constitution of the Board or the committee; or

(b) of any defect or irregularity in the appointment of a person acting as a member thereof; or

(c) of any defect or irregularity in such act or proceeding not affecting the merits of the case.

12. The functions of the Board shall be the administration of the Fund and such other functions as may be assigned by or under this Act. Functions of the Board.

13. (1) All unpaid accumulations shall be deemed to be abandoned property. Unpaid accumulations and claims thereto.

(2) Any unpaid accumulation paid to the Board in accordance with the provisions of section 3 shall on such payment, discharge an employer of his liability to make payment to an employee in respect thereof, but to the extent only of the amount paid to the Board, and the liability to make payment to the employee to the extent aforesaid shall, subject to the succeeding provisions of this section, be deemed to be transferred to the Board.

¹[(3) As soon as possible after the payment of any unpaid accumulation is made to the Board, the Board shall—

(a) exhibit on the notice board of the establishment in which the unpaid accumulation was earned ; and

(b) publish in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, and in such other manner as may be prescribed, a notice inviting claims by employees, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns for any payment due to them.]

(4) If any question arises whether the notice referred to in sub-section (3) was given as required by that sub-section, a certificate of the Board that it was so given, shall be conclusive.

(5) ²[If a claim is received whether in response to the notice or otherwise, within a period of six months from the date of the publication of the notice in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette in respect of such claim] the Board shall transfer such claim to the Authority appointed under section 15 of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936), having jurisdiction over the area in which the establishment is situate, and that Authority shall proceed to adjudicate upon and decide, such claim. In hearing such claim such Authority shall have the powers conferred by that Act and follow the procedure (in so far as it is applicable), specified therein.

“(3) As soon as possible after the payment of any unpaid accumulations is made to the Board, the Board shall by notice—

(a) exhibit on the notice-board of the establishment in which the unpaid accumulation was earned ; and

(b) publish in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, and in such other manner as may be prescribed, regard being had to the amount of the unpaid accumulations ; invite claims by employees, their heirs, legal representatives or assigns for any payment due to them. The notice shall be given in the manner aforesaid in June and December of every year, for a period of three years from the date of the payment of the unpaid accumulation to the Board”.

²These words were substituted for the following words by section 4 (ii), ibid:—

“If a claim is received whether in response to the notices or otherwise, within a period of four years from the date of first publication of the notice in respect of such claim”.

(6) If the Authority aforesaid is satisfied that any such claim is valid so that the right to receive payment is established, it shall decide that the unpaid accumulation in relation to which the claim is made shall cease to be deemed to be abandoned property, and shall order the Board to pay the whole of the dues claimed, or such part thereof as the Authority decides are properly due, to the employee; and the Board shall make payment accordingly :

Provided that the Board shall not be liable to pay any sum in excess of that paid under sub-section (1) of section 3 to the Board as unpaid accumulations, in respect of the claim.

(7) If a claim for payment is refused, the employee or his heirs, legal representatives or assigns, as the case may be, may, within sixty days from the date of receipt of the order of the Authority, prefer an appeal in the City of Madras to the Madras City Civil Court, and elsewhere to the District Court.

(8) The decision of the Authority, subject to appeal aforesaid, and the decision in appeal of the Madras City Civil Court, or as the case may be, the District Court, shall be final and conclusive as to the right to receive payment, the liability of the Board to pay and also as to the amount, if any.

(9) If no claim is received within the period specified in sub-section (5), or a claim has been refused by the Authority, or on appeal by the Madras City Civil Court or the District Court, then the unpaid accumulations in respect of such claim shall accrue to, and vest in, the State as bona vacantia, and shall thereafter be deemed to have been transferred to, and form part of, the Fund.

14. (1) If an employer does not pay to the Board any amount of unpaid accumulations, or fines realised from the employees, within the time specified by or under this Act, the Secretary may serve or cause to be served a notice on such employer to pay the amount within the period specified therein which shall not be less than thirty days from the date of service of such notice. Interest on unpaid accumulations or fines after notice of demand.

(2) If the employer fails, without sufficient cause, to pay any such amount within the period specified in the notice, he shall, in addition to the amount, pay by way of penalty to the Board simple interest—

(a) for the first three months at one per cent of the said amount for each complete month or part thereof after the last date by which he should have paid it according to the notice; and

(b) for each complete month or part thereof thereafter at one and a half per cent of that amount during the time he continues to make default in the payment of that amount :

Provided that, the Secretary may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, remit the whole or any part of the penalty in respect of any period.

Contribution to the Fund by employee and employer.

15. ¹[(1) Every employee shall contribute two rupees per year to the Fund and every employer shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute four rupees per year to the Fund and the Government shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute two rupees per year to the Fund.]

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force the employer shall be entitled to recover from the employees the employee's contribution by deduction from his wages in such manner as may be prescribed and such deduction shall be deemed to be a deduction authorised by or under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Central Act IV of 1936) ²[or the Tamil Nadu Shops and Establishments Act, 1947 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXVI of 1947).]

“(1) Every employee shall contribute one rupee per year to the Fund and every employer shall, in respect of each such employee, contribute two rupees per year to the Fund.”

² This expression was added by section 5 (ii), ibid.

16. The Government may, from time to time, make Grants and grants or advance loans to the Board for the purposes advances by the of this Act on such terms and conditions as the Govern- Government. ment may, in each case, determine.

17. (1) The Fund shall vest in, and be held and applied Vesting and by, the Board as trustees subject to the provisions, and for application of the purposes, of this Act. The moneys therein shall be Fund. utilized by the Board to defray the cost of carrying out measures which may be specified by the Government from time to time to promote the welfare of employees and of their dependents.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of sub-section (1), the moneys in the Fund may be utilised by the Board to defray expenditure on the following, namely:—
