CHAPTER V.

REPOSSESSION OF THE PREMISES BY THE LANDLORD.

Repossession
of the premises by the landlord.

21. (1) A tenant shall not be evicted during the continuance of tenancy agreement except in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2).

(2) The Rent Court may, on an application made to it in the manner as may be prescribed, make an order for the recovery of possession of the premises on one or more of the following grounds, namely:—

(a) that the landlord and tenant have failed to agree to the rent payable under section 8;

(b) that the tenant has not paid the arrears in full of rent payable and other charges payable as specified in sub-section (1) of section 13 for two months, including interest for delayed payment as may be specified for in the tenancy agreement or as prescribed, as the case may be, within one month of notice of demand for the arrears of such rent and all charges payable being served on him by the landlord in the manner provided in sub-section (4) of section 106 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882:

Central Act
IV of 1882.

Provided that no order for eviction of the tenant on account of default of payment of rent shall be passed, if the tenant makes payment to the landlord or deposits with the Rent Court all arrears of rent including interest within one month of notice being served on him:

Provided further that this relief shall not be available again, if the tenant defaults in payments of rent consecutively for two months in any one year subsequent to getting relief once;

(c) that the tenant has, after the commencement of this Act, parted with the possession of whole or any part of the premises without obtaining the written consent of the landlord;

(d) that the tenant has continued misuse of the premises even after receipt of notice from the landlord to stop such misuse.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this clause, “misuse of premises” means encroachment of additional space by the tenant or use of premises which causes public nuisance or causes damage to the property or is detrimental to the interest of the landlord or for an immoral or illegal purposes;

(e) that the premises or any part thereof are required by the landlord for carrying out any repairs or building or rebuilding or additions or alterations or demolition, which cannot be carried out without the premises being vacated:

Provided that the re-entry of the tenant after such repairs, building, rebuilding, addition, alteration or demolition shall be allowed only when it has been mutually agreed to between the landlord and the tenant and the new tenancy agreement has been submitted with the Rent Authority:

Provided further that re-entry of the tenant shall not be allowed in the absence of such mutual agreement submitted with the Rent Authority and also in cases where the tenant has been evicted under the orders of the Rent Court;

(f) that the premises or any part thereof are required by the landlord for carrying out any repairs, building, rebuilding, additions, alterations or demolition, for change of its use as a consequence of change of land use by the competent authority;

(g) that the premises let for residential or non-residential purpose are required by the landlord for occupation for residential or non-residential purposes for himself or for any member of his family or for any person for whose benefit the premises were held and the landlord or such person is not in possession of any suitable accommodation within the same urban area;

(h) that the tenant has given written notice to quit and in consequence of that notice, the landlord has contracted to sell the accommodation or has taken any other step, as a result of which his interests would seriously suffer if he is not put in possession of that accommodation.

(3) In any proceedings for eviction under clause (e) of sub-section (2), the Rent Court may allow eviction from only a part of the premises, if the landlord is agreeable to the same.

22. (1) Where an order for recovery of possession of any premises is made on the ground specified in clause (g) of sub-section (2) of section 21, the landlord shall be entitled to obtain possession thereof within a period of one month in the case of residential premises and two months in the case of non-residential premises from the date of passing of eviction order:

Recovery of possession for occupation.

Provided that in case of premises let by category of landlords specified in the Third Schedule or by their spouse or dependent children (including dependents of pre-deceased personnel in armed forces), the landlord shall be entitled to obtain possession immediately after passing of the eviction order.

(2) Where a landlord recovers possession of any premises from the tenant under clause (g) of sub-section (2) of section 21, the landlord shall not, except with the permission of the Rent Court obtained in the manner as may be prescribed, re-let whole or part of the premises within three years from the date of obtaining such possession, and if the landlord re-lets his premises without permission of the Rent Court, the Rent Court may levy a penalty on the landlord which may extend to ten thousand rupees.

23. A landlord is entitled to compensation of double the monthly rent for the use and occupation of a premises by a tenant who does not vacate the unit after his tenancy has been terminated by order, notice or agreement, as the case may be.

Compensation in case of non vacancy.

24. (1) Where a landlord exercises the right of recovery of possession under sub-section (2) of section 21, and he had received any rent or any other payment in advance from the tenant, he shall, before recovery of possession, refund to the tenant such an amount after deducting the rent and other charges due to him.

Refund of advance rent by the landlord.

(2) If any default is made in making any refund, the landlord shall be liable to pay simple interest at such rate as may be prescribed from time to time on the amount which he has omitted or failed to refund.

25. In any proceedings for recovery of possession on any ground other than that referred to in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 21, the tenant contests the claim for eviction, the landlord may, at any stage of proceedings, apply to the Rent Court to direct the tenant to pay to the landlord rent payable as under section 8 and the Rent Court may order the tenant to make such payment as agreed regularly to the landlord by the tenth of the month and all other charges due from the tenant along with penal charges, if any, due to delay in the same manner as provided in sub-section (1) of section 13.

Payment of rent during eviction proceedings.

26. Where the landlord proposes to make any improvement in or construct any additional structure on any building which has been let to a tenant and the tenant refuses to allow the landlord to make such improvement or construct such additional structure and the Rent Court on an application made to it in this behalf by the landlord is satisfied that the landlord is ready and willing to commence the work, the Rent Court may permit the landlord to do such work and may make such other order as it may think fit.

Permission to build additional structures.

Special provision regarding vacant sites.

27. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 21, where any premises which have been let comprising of vacant land, upon which it is permissible under the municipal laws, for the time being in force, to erect any building, whether for residence or for any other purpose, and the landlord proposing to erect such building is unable to obtain possession of the same from the tenant by agreement with him and the Rent Court, on an application made to it in this behalf by the landlord, is satisfied that the landlord is ready and willing to commence the work and that the severance of the vacant land from the rest of the premises shall not cause undue hardship to the tenant, the Rent Court may—

- (a) direct such severance;
- (b) place the landlord in possession of the vacant land;
- (c) determine the rent payable by the tenant in respect of the rest of the premises; and
- (d) make such other orders as it thinks fit in the circumstances of the case.

Vacant possession to landlord.

28. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, where the interest of a landlord in any premises is determined for any reason whatsoever and any order is made by the Rent Court under this Act for the recovery of possession of such premises, the order shall, subject to the provision of sub-section (3) of section 21, be binding on all occupants who may be in occupation of the premises and vacant possession thereof shall be given to the landlord by evicting all such occupants therefrom.

Provision regarding notice of giving up possession by the tenant.

29. (1) Every tenant who is in possession of any premises to which this Act applies shall observe all the terms and conditions of the tenancy agreement and shall be entitled to the benefits thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, the tenant may give up possession of the premises on giving such notice as is required under the tenancy agreement and in the absence of any stipulation relating to such notice, the tenant shall give notice to the landlord of at least one month before giving up possession of the premises.

CHAPTER VI.

RENT COURTS AND RENT TRIBUNALS.

Appeals.

30. (1) An appeal shall lie against the order of the Rent Authority made under this Act to the Rent Court having territorial jurisdiction.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be preferred within thirty days from the date of the order made by the Rent Authority.

Constitution of Rent Court.

31. (1) The Government may, by notification, constitute such number of Rent Court in as many urban areas as may be deemed necessary by it.

(2) Where two or more Rent Courts are constituted for any urban area, the Government may, by general or special order, regulate the distribution of business among them.

(3) A Rent Court may consist of one or more members (hereinafter referred to as the Presiding Officer) to be appointed by the Government in consultation with the High Court.

(4) No person shall be eligible to be appointed as Presiding Officer of the Rent Court unless he is a District Judge of the Tamil Nadu State Judicial Service.

(5) The Government may, in consultation with the High Court, authorize the Presiding Officer of one Rent Court to discharge the functions of the Presiding Officer of another Rent Court also.

Constitution of Rent Tribunals.

32. (1) The Government may, by notification, constitute such number of Rent Tribunals at such places as may be deemed necessary by it and notify a Rent Tribunal as Principal Rent Tribunal, where more than one Tribunal is constituted.

(2) The Rent Tribunal shall be a multi-member Tribunal headed by a Principal Appellate Member, and the senior most judge shall function as Principal Appellate Member and shall have the power to transfer appeal cases from one member of the Appellate Tribunal to another member whenever deemed necessary, and similarly the Principal Appellate Tribunal may, on an application or suo motu, transfer a suit from one Rent Court to other Rent Court, and all the members of Rent Tribunal shall be appointed by the Government in consultation with the High Court.

(3) No person shall be eligible to be appointed as Principal Member of the Rent Tribunal unless he has been a Judge of the High Court.

33. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, in the areas to which this Act extends, only the Rent Court and no Civil Court shall have jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction of Rent Authority under section 39, to hear and decide the applications relating to disputes between landlord and tenant and matters connected with and ancillary thereto covered under this Act:

Jurisdiction of Rent Court.

Provided that the Rent Court shall, in deciding such applications relating to tenancies and premises, give due regard to the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, the Indian Contract Act, 1872 or any other substantive law applicable to such matter in the same manner, in which such law would have been applied had the dispute been brought before a Civil Court by way of suit.

31. Power and procedure of Rent Authority.— The Rent Authority shall have the same powers as are vested in Rent Court under this Act, in any proceeding under sections 9, 10, 14, 15 and 20 of the Act. The procedure as laid down in section 36 and 39 of the Act shall be followed in disposal of such applications.

CHAPTER - VII.RENT COURTS AND RENT TRIBUNALS.

32. Constitution of Rent Court.— (1) The Government may, by notification, constitute such number of Rent Courts in as many urban areas as may be deemed necessary by it:

Provided that where there already exists a Rent Court, the Government may designate the same as the Rent Court under this Act:

Provided further that where there does not exist any Rent Court, the Government may designate any other Court established under any other law as the Rent Court under this Act.

(2) Where two or more Rent Courts are constituted for any urban area, the Government may, by general or special order, regulate the distribution of business among them.

(3) A Rent Court shall be headed by a Presiding Officer to be appointed by the Government in consultation with the High Court.

(4) No person shall be eligible to be appointed as Presiding Officer of the Rent Court unless he is a member of the State Judicial Service.

(5) The Government may, in consultation with the High Court, authorize the Presiding Officer of one Rent Court to discharge the functions of the Presiding Officer of another Rent Court also.

33. Appeals.— (1) An appeal shall lie against the order of the Rent Authority made under this Act to the Rent Court having territorial jurisdiction.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall be preferred within thirty days from the date of the order made by the Rent Authority.

34. Jurisdiction of Rent Court.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, in the areas to which this Act extends, only the Rent Court and no Civil Court shall have jurisdiction, except the jurisdiction of Rent Authority under section 31, to hear and decide the applications relating to disputes between landlord and tenant and matters connected therewith and ancillary thereto under this Act:

Central Act IV of 1882.
Central Act IX of 1872.

Provided that the Rent Court shall, in deciding such applications relating to tenancies and premises, give due regard to the provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882, the Indian Contract Act, 1872 or any other substantive law applicable to such matter in the same manner, in which such law would have been applied had the dispute been brought before a Civil Court by way of suit.

35. Constitution of Rent Tribunals.— (1) The Government may, by notification, constitute such number of Rent Tribunals at such places as may be deemed necessary by it and notify a Rent Tribunal as Principal Rent Tribunal, where more than one Tribunal is constituted:

Provided that where there already exists a Rent Tribunal, the Government may designate the same as the Rent Tribunal under this Act:

Provided further that where there does not exist a Rent Tribunal, the Government may designate any other Tribunal established under any other law as the Rent Tribunal under this Act.

(2) The Rent Tribunal may consist of one or more benches, with each bench being headed by an Appellate Member. The senior most Appellate Member of the Rent Tribunal shall function as the Principal Appellate Member. The Principal Appellate Member may, on application, transfer appeal cases from one bench of the Rent Tribunal to another. Similarly, the Principal Rent Tribunal may, on an application, transfer appeal from one Rent Tribunal to another Rent Tribunal, and all the members of Rent Tribunal shall be appointed by the Government in consultation with the High Court.
