STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Andhra Pradesh Non Agricultural Lands Assessment Act, 1963 (Act No. 14 of 1963) was enacted to establish a legal framework for the levy of assessment on lands that are not used for agricultural purposes within the State of Andhra Pradesh.

The Andhra Pradesh Non Agricultural Lands Assessment Act, 1963 (Act No. 14 of 1963) was repealed and the Andhra Pradesh Agricultural Land (Conversion for Non Agricultural Purposes) Act, 2006 (Act No. 3 of 2006) was enacted to regulate the conversion of agricultural land to non agricultural purposes and for matters connected therewith.

However, with the passage of time and in light of the present circumstances, it has been observed that the regulatory framework for land development, including the development of agricultural land, is substantially addressed by various local authorities and urban development authorities under their respective statutes, such as the Andhra Pradesh Metropolitan Region and Urban Development Authorities Act, 2016. These authorities are already empowered to regulate land use and levy development charges, leading to a redundancy in the simultaneous regulation of agricultural land conversion under the said Act, 2006.

In line with the Government's policy to promote 'speed of Doing Business', the process of seeking conversion under the said Act, 2006 has been perceived as cumbersome and involving unnecessary procedural complexities. The prevailing administrative processes and the need for a more citizen-centric approach necessitate the simplification of regulatory mechanisms.

Considering the above, the Government has decided that the continuation of the Andhra Pradesh Agricultural Land (Conversion for Non Agricultural Purposes) Act, 2006 is no longer relevant or necessary and that its repeal is a crucial step towards promoting good governance. This repeal will avoid duplication of regulatory functions and facilitate a more efficient and simplified process for land development within the framework of other existing laws while ensuring the protection of actions already taken and pending matters, and also making certain transitory provisions for pending matters and unauthorized layout.

Accordingly, it has been decided to repeal the Andhra Pradesh Agricultural Land (Conversion for Non Agricultural Purposes) Act, 2006 (Act No. 3 of 2006)

As the Legislature of the State of Andhra Pradesh is not therein session, having been prorogued, and it has been decided to give effect to the above decision immediately, the Andhra Pradesh Agricultural Land (Conversion for Non Agricultural Purposes) (Repeal) Ordinance, 2025 [Ordinance No.5 of 2025] was promulgated by the Governor on 1st September, 2025, which was published in Andhra Pradesh Gazette dated 3rd September, 2025.

The Bill seeks to replace the said Ordinance and to give effect to the above decision.
