 - (v) If the soldier, airman or mariner has written instructions for the preparation of her/his Will, but has died before it could be prepared and executed, such instructions shall be considered to constitute her/his Will.
 - (vi) If the soldier, airman or mariner has, in the presence of two witnesses, given verbal instructions for the preparation of her/his Will, and they have been reduced into writing in her/his lifetime, but she/he has died before the instrument could be prepared and executed, such instructions shall be considered to constitute her/his Will, although they may not have been reduced into writing in her/his presence, nor read over to her/him.
 - (vii) The soldier, airman or mariner may make a Will by word of mouth by declaring her/his intentions before two witnesses present at the same time.
 - (viii) A Will made by word of mouth shall be null at the expiration of one month after the testator, being still alive, has ceased to be entitled to make a privileged Will.

71. If a testator, in a Will or codicil duly attested, refers to any other document then actually written as expressing any part of her/his intentions, such document shall be deemed to form a part of the Will or codicil in which it is referred to.

Incorporation of papers by reference.

Attestation, Revocation, Alteration and Revival of Wills

72. No person, by reason of interest in, or of her/his being an executor of, a Will, shall be disqualified as a witness to prove the execution of the Will or to prove the validity or invalidity thereof.
73. (1) Revocation of unprivileged Will or codicil - No unprivileged Will or codicil, nor any part thereof, shall be revoked otherwise than by another Will or codicil, or by some writing declaring an intention to revoke the same and executed in the manner in which an unprivileged Will is hereinbefore required to be executed, or by the burning, tearing, or otherwise destroying the same by the testator with the intention of revoking the same.

Witness not disqualified by interest or by being executor.

Revocation of Will or codicil.

Illustrations

- (i) A has made an unprivileged Will. Afterwards, A makes another unprivileged Will which purports to revoke the first. This is a revocation.
- (ii) A has made an unprivileged Will. Afterwards, A, being entitled to make a privileged Will, makes a privileged Will, which purports to revoke his unprivileged Will. This is a revocation.

- (2) Revocation of privileged Will or codicil - A privileged Will or codicil, may be revoked by the testator by an unprivileged Will or codicil, or by any act expressing an intention to revoke it and accompanied by such formalities as would be sufficient to give validity to a privileged Will, or by the burning, tearing or otherwise destroying the same by the testator, or by some person in her/his presence and by her/his direction, with the intention of revoking the same.

Explanation - In order to the revocation of a privileged Will or codicil by an act accompanied by such formalities as would be sufficient to give validity to a privileged Will, it is not necessary that the testator should at the time of doing that act be in a situation which entitles her/him to make a privileged Will.

Effect of obliteration, interlineation or alteration of unprivileged Will.

74. No obliteration, interlineation or other alteration made in any unprivileged Will after the execution thereof shall have any effect, except so far as the words or meaning of the Will have been thereby rendered illegible or undiscernible, unless such alteration has been executed in like manner as hereinbefore is required for the execution of the Will:

Provided that the Will, as so altered, shall be deemed to be duly executed if the signature of the testator and the subscription of the witnesses is made in the margin or on some other part of the Will opposite or near to such alteration, or at the foot or end of or opposite to a memorandum referring to such alteration, and written at the end or some other part of the Will.

Revival of unprivileged Will.

75. (1) No unprivileged Will or codicil, nor any part thereof, which has been revoked in any manner, shall be revived otherwise than by the re-execution thereof, or by a codicil executed in manner hereinbefore required, and showing an intention to revive the same.
- (2) When any Will or codicil, which has been partly revoked and afterwards wholly revoked, is revived, such revival shall not extend to so much thereof as has been revoked before the revocation of the whole thereof, unless an intention to the contrary is shown by the Will or codicil.

Construction of Wills

Wording of Wills.

76. It is not necessary that any technical words or terms of art be used in a Will, but only that the wording be such that the intentions of the testator can be known therefrom.

Inquiries to determine questions as to object or subject of Will.

77. For the purpose of determining questions as to what person or what estate is denoted by any words used in a Will, a court shall inquire into every material fact relating to the persons who claim to be interested under such Will, the estate which is claimed as the subject of disposition, the circumstances of the testator and of her/his family, and into every fact knowledge of which may conduce to the right application of the words which the testator has used.

Illustrations

- (i) A, by his Will, bequeaths 100,000 rupees to his eldest son or to his youngest grandchild, or to his cousin, Divya. A court may make inquiry in order to ascertain to what person the description in the Will applies.
 - (ii) A, by his Will, leaves to B “my estate called Maha Farms”. It may be necessary to take evidence in order to ascertain what the subject-matter of the bequest is; that is to say, what estate of the testator is called Maha Farms.
 - (iii) A, by his Will, leaves to B “the estate which I purchased of C”. It may be necessary to take evidence in order to ascertain what estate the testator purchased of C.
- 78. (1) Where the words used in a Will to designate or describe a legatee or a class of legatees sufficiently show what is meant, an error in the name or description shall not prevent the legacy from taking effect.
- (2) A mistake in the name of a legatee may be corrected by a description of her/him, and a mistake in the description of a legatee may be corrected by the name.

Misnamer or mis-description of object.

Illustrations

- (i) A bequeaths a legacy to “Sanjay, the second son of my brother Mohan”. The testator has an only brother named Mohan, who has no son named Sanjay, but has a second son whose name is Mahesh. Mahesh will have the legacy.
 - (ii) A bequeaths a legacy to “Sanjay, the second son of my brother Mohan”. The testator has an only brother, named Mohan, whose first son is named Sanjay and whose second son is named Mahesh. Sanjay will have the legacy.
 - (iii) The testator gives his residuary estate to be divided among “my seven children” and, proceeding to enumerate them, mentions six names only. This omission will not prevent the seventh child from taking a share with the others.
 - (iv) The testator, having six grandchildren, makes a bequest to “my six grandchildren” and, proceeding to mention them by their names, mentions one twice over omitting another altogether. The one whose name is not mentioned will take a share with the others.
 - (v) The testator bequeaths “100,000 rupees to each of the three children of A”. At the date of the Will, A has four children. Each of these four children will, if she/he survives the testator, receive a legacy of 100,000 rupees.
- 79. Where any word material to the full expression of the meaning has been omitted, it may be supplied by the context.

When words may be supplied.

Illustration

The testator gives a legacy of “50,000” to his daughter A and a legacy of “50,000 rupees” to his daughter B. A will take a legacy of 50,000 rupees.

- 80. If the thing which the testator intended to bequeath can be sufficiently identified from the description of it given in the Will, but some parts of the description do not apply, such parts of the description shall be rejected as erroneous, and the bequest shall take effect.

Rejection of erroneous particulars in description of subject.

Illustration

A bequeaths to B “my marsh-lands lying in L and in the occupation of X”. The testator had marsh-lands lying in L but had no marsh-lands in the occupation of X. The words “in the occupation of X” shall be rejected as erroneous, and the marsh-lands of the testator lying in L will pass by the bequest.

When part of description may not be rejected as erroneous.

- 81. If a Will mentions several circumstances as descriptive of the thing which the testator intends to bequeath, and there is any estate of her/his in respect of which all those circumstances exist, the bequest shall be considered as limited to such estate, and it shall not be lawful to reject any part of the description as erroneous, because the testator had other estate to which such part of the description does not apply.

Explanation - In judging whether a case falls within the meaning of this section, any words which would be liable to rejection under section 80 shall be deemed to have been struck out of the Will.

Illustrations

- (i) A bequeaths to B “my marsh-lands lying in L and in the occupation of X”. The testator had marsh-lands lying in L, some of which were in the occupation of X, and some not in the occupation of X. The bequest will be considered as limited to such of the testator’s marsh-lands in L as were in the occupation of X.
- (ii) A bequeaths to B “my marsh-lands lying in L and in the occupation of X, comprising 1,000 bighas of lands”. The testator had marsh-lands lying in L some of which were in the occupation of X and some not in the occupation of X. The measurement is wholly inapplicable to the marsh-lands of either class, or to the whole taken together. The measurement will be considered as struck out of the Will, and such of the testator’s marsh-lands lying in L as were in the occupation of X shall alone pass by the bequest.

Extrinsic evidence admissible in cases of patent ambiguity.

- 82. Where the words of a Will are unambiguous, but it is found by extrinsic evidence that they admit of applications, one only of which can have been intended by the testator, extrinsic evidence may be taken to show which of these applications was intended.

Illustrations

- (i) A man, having two cousins of the name of Geeta, bequeaths a sum of money to “my cousin Geeta”. It appears that there are two persons, each answering the description in the Will. That description, therefore, admits of two applications, only one of which can have been intended by the testator. Evidence is admissible to show which of the two applications was intended.
- (ii) A, by his Will, leaves to B “my estate called Gir Farmhouse”. It turns out that he had two estates called Gir Farmhouse. Evidence is admissible to show which estate was intended.

Extrinsic evidence inadmissible in case of patent ambiguity or deficiency.

- 83. Where there is an ambiguity or deficiency on the face of a Will, no extrinsic evidence as to the intentions of the testator shall be admitted.

Illustrations

- (i) A man has an aunt, Geeta, and a cousin, Radha, and has no aunt of the name of Radha. By his Will, he bequeaths 100,000 rupees to “my aunt, Geeta” and 100,000 rupees to “my cousin, Radha” and afterwards bequeaths 200,000 rupees to “my before-mentioned aunt, Radha”. There is no person to whom the description given in the Will can apply, and evidence is not admissible to show who was meant by “my before-mentioned aunt, Radha”. The bequest is, therefore, void for uncertainty under section 91.
- (ii) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to leaving a blank for the name of the legatee. Evidence is not admissible to show what name the testator intended to insert.
- (iii) A bequeaths to B rupees, or “my estate of”. Evidence is not admissible to show what sum or what estate the testator intended to insert.

- 84. The meaning of any clause in a Will is to be collected from the entire instrument, and all its parts are to be construed with reference to each other.

Meaning of clause to be collected from entire Will.

Illustrations

- (i) The testator gives to B a specific fund or estate at the death of A, and by a subsequent clause gives the whole of his estate to A. The effect of the several clauses taken together is to vest the specific fund or estate in A for life, and after his decease in B; it appearing from the bequest to B that the testator meant to use in a restricted sense the words in which he describes what he gives to A.
- (ii) Where a testator having an estate, one part of which is called Gir Farm, bequeaths the whole of his estate to A, and in another part of his Will bequeaths Gir Farm to B, the latter bequest is to be read as an exception out of the first as if he had said "I give Gir Farm to B, and all the rest of my estate to A".

- 85. General words may be understood in a restricted sense where it may be collected from the Will that the testator meant to use them in a restricted sense; and words may be understood in a wider sense than that which they usually bear, where it may be collected from the other words of the Will that the testator meant to use them in such wider sense.

When words may be understood in restricted sense, and when in sense wider than usual.

Illustrations

- (i) A testator gives to A "my farm in the occupation of B", and to C "all my marsh-lands in L". Part of the farm in the occupation of B consists of marsh-lands in L, and the testator also has other marsh-lands in L. The general words, "all my marsh-lands in L", are restricted by the gift to A. A takes the whole of the farm in the occupation of B, including that portion of the farm which consists of marsh-lands in L.
- (ii) The testator (a sailor on ship-board) bequeathed to his mother his gold ring, buttons and chest of clothes, and to his friend, A (a shipmate) his red box, clasp-knife and all things not before bequeathed. The testator's share in a house does not pass to A under this bequest.
- (iii) A, by his Will, bequeathed to B all his household furniture, plate, linen, books, pictures and all other goods of whatever kind; and afterwards bequeathed to B a specified part of his estate. Under the first bequest B is entitled only to such articles of the testator's as are of the same nature with the articles therein enumerated.

- 86. Where a clause is susceptible of two meanings according to one of which it has some effect, and according to the other of which it can have none, the former shall be preferred.

Which of two possible construction preferred.

- 87. No part of a Will shall be rejected as destitute of meaning if it is possible to put a reasonable construction upon it.

No part rejected, if it can be reasonably construed.

- 88. If the same words occur in different parts of the same Will, they shall be taken to have been used everywhere in the same sense, unless a contrary intention appears.

Interpretation of words repeated in different parts of Will.

Testator's intention to be effectuated as far as possible.

89. The intention of the testator shall not be set aside because it cannot take effect to the full extent, but effect is to be given to it as far as possible.

The last two inconsistent clauses prevails.

90. Where two clauses of gifts in a Will are irreconcilable, so that they cannot possibly stand together, the last shall prevail.

Illustrations

(i) The testator by the first clause of his Will leaves his estate of Surat "to A", and by the last clause of his Will leaves it "to B and not to A". B will have it.

(ii) If a man, at the commencement of his Will gives his house to A, and at the close of it directs that his house shall be sold and the proceeds invested for the benefit of B, the latter disposition will prevail.

Will or bequest void for uncertainty.

91. A Will or bequest not expressive of any definite intention is void for uncertainty.

Illustration

If a testator says "I bequeath goods to A", or "I bequeath to A", or "I leave to A all the goods mentioned in the Schedule" and no Schedule is found, or "I bequeath 'money', 'wheat', 'oil'" or the like, without saying how much, this is void.

Words describing subject refer to estate answering description at testator's death.

92. The description contained in a Will of estate, the subject of gift, shall, unless a contrary intention appears by the Will, be deemed to refer to and comprise the estate answering that description at the death of the testator.

Power of appointment executed by general bequest.

93. Unless a contrary intention appears by the Will, a bequest of the estate of the testator shall be construed to include any estate which she/he may have power to appoint by Will to any object she/he may think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power; and a bequest of estate described in a general manner shall be construed to include any estate to which such description may extend, which she/he may have power to appoint by Will to any object she/he may think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power.

Implied gift to objects of power in default of appointment.

94. Where estate is bequeathed to or for the benefit of certain objects as a specified person may appoint or for the benefit of certain objects in such proportions as a specified person may appoint, and the Will does not provide for the event of no appointment being made; if the power given by the Will is not exercised, the estate belongs to all the objects of the power in equal shares.

Illustration

A, by his Will bequeaths a fund to his wife, for her life, and directs that at her death it shall be divided among his children in such proportions as she shall appoint. The widow dies without having made any appointment. The fund will be divided equally among the children.

Bequest to heirs, etc. of particular person without qualifying terms.

95. Where a bequest is made to the "heirs" "own heirs" or "relatives" or "nearest relatives" or "family" or "kindred" or "nearest of kin" or "next-of-kin" of a particular person without any qualifying terms, and the class so designated forms the direct and independent object of the bequest, the estate bequeathed shall be distributed as if it had belonged to such person and she/he had died intestate in respect of it, leaving assets for the payment of her/his debts independently of such estate.

Illustrations

- (i) A leaves his estate “to my own nearest relatives”. The estate goes to those who would be entitled to it if A had died intestate, leaving assets for the payment of his debts independently of such estate.
- (ii) A bequeaths 10,000 rupees “to B for his life, and, after the death of B, to my own heirs”. The legacy after B’s death belongs to those who would be entitled to it if it had formed part of A’s unbequeathed estate.
- (iii) A leaves his estate to B; but if B dies before him, to B’s next-of kin; B dies before A; the estate devolves as if it had belonged to B, and he had died intestate, leaving assets for the payment of his debts independently of such estate.
- (iv) A leaves 10,000 rupees “to B for his life, and after his death to the heirs of C”. The legacy goes as if it had belonged to C, and he had died intestate, leaving assets for the payment of his debt independently of the legacy.

96. Where a bequest is made to the “representatives” or “legal representatives” or “personal representatives” or “executors or administrators” of a particular person, and the class so designated forms the direct and independent object of the bequest, the estate bequeathed shall be distributed as if it had belonged to such person and she/he had died intestate in respect of it.

Bequest to ‘representatives’
etc. of particular person.

Illustration

A bequest is made to the “legal representatives” of A. A has died intestate and insolvent. B is his administrator. B is entitled to receive the legacy, and will apply it in the first place to the discharge of such part of A’s debt as may remain unpaid. If there be any surplus, B will pay it to those persons who at A’s death would have been entitled to receive any estate of A’s which might remain after payment of his debts, or to the representatives of such persons.

97. Where estate is bequeathed to any person, she/he is entitled to the whole interest of the testator therein, unless it appears from the Will that only a restricted interest was intended for her/him.
98. Where an estate is bequeathed to a person with a bequest in the alternative to another person or to a class of persons, then, if a contrary intention does not appear by the Will, the legatee first named shall be entitled to the legacy if she/he is alive at the time when it takes effect; but if she/he is then dead, the person or class of persons named in the second branch of the alternative shall take the legacy.

Bequest without words of limitation.

Bequest in alternative.

- (i) A bequest is made to A or to B. A survives the testator. B takes nothing.
- (ii) A bequest is made to A or to B. A dies after the date of the Will, and before the testator. The legacy goes to B.
- (iii) A bequest is made to A or to B. A is dead at the date of the Will. The legacy goes to B.
- (iv) Estate is bequeathed to A or his heirs. A survives the testator. A takes the estate absolutely.
- (v) Estate is bequeathed to A or his nearest of kin. A dies in the lifetime of the testator. Upon the death of the testator, the bequest to A’s nearest of kin takes effect.

- (vi) Estate is bequeathed to A for life, and after his death to B or his heirs. A and B survive the testator. B dies in A's lifetime. Upon A's death the bequest to the heirs of B takes effect.
- (vii) Estate is bequeathed to A for life, and after his death to B or his heirs. B dies in the testator's lifetime. A survives the testator. Upon A's death, the bequest to the heirs of B takes effect.

Effect of words describing a class added to person.

- 99. Where estate is bequeathed to a person, and words are added which describe a class of persons but do not denote them as direct objects of a distinct and independent gift, such person is entitled to the whole interest of the testator therein, unless a contrary intention appears by the Will.

Illustrations

- (i) A bequest is made –
- to A and his children,
 - to A and his children by his present wife,
 - to A and his heirs,
 - to A and the heirs of his body,

 - to A and his issue,
 - to A and his family,
 - to A and his descendants,
 - to A and his representatives,
 - to A and his personal representatives,
 - to A, his executors and administrators.
- In each of these cases, A takes the whole interest which the testator had in the estate.
- (ii) A bequest is made to A and his brothers. A and his brothers are jointly entitled to the legacy.
- (iii) A bequest is made to A for life and after his death to his issue. At the death of A, the estate belongs in equal shares to all persons who then answer the description of issue of A.

Bequest to class of persons under general description only.

- 100. Where a bequest is made to a class of persons under a general description only, no one to whom the words of the description are not in their ordinary sense applicable shall take the legacy.

Construction of terms.

- 101. In a Will-
- (1) the word "children" applies only to lineal descendants in the first degree of the person whose "children" are spoken of;
 - (2) the word "grandchildren" applies only to lineal descendants in the second degree of the person whose "grandchildren" are spoken of;
 - (3) the words "nephews" and "nieces" apply only to children of brothers or sisters;

- (4) the word “descendants” applies to all lineal descendants whatever of the person whose “descendants” are spoken of;
- (5) words expressive of collateral relationship apply alike to relatives of full and of half-blood; and
- (6) all words expressive of relationship apply to a child in the womb who is afterwards born alive.

102. Where a Will purports to make two bequests to the same person, and a question arises whether the testator intended to make the second bequest instead of or in addition to the first; if there is nothing in the Will to show what she/he intended, the following rules shall have effect in determining the construction to be put upon the Will –

- (1) If the same specific thing is bequeathed twice to the same legatee in the same Will or in the Will and again in the codicil, she/he is entitled to receive that specific thing only.
- (2) Where one and the same Will or one and the same codicil purports to make, in two places, a bequest to the same person of the same quantity or amount of anything, she/he shall be entitled to one such legacy only.
- (3) Where two legacies of unequal amount are given to the same person in the same Will, or in the same codicil, the legatee is entitled to both.
- (4) Where two legacies, whether equal or unequal in amount, are given to the same legatee, one by a Will and the other by a codicil, or each by a different codicil, the legatee is entitled to both legacies.

Explanation- In clauses (1) to (4) of this section, the word “Will” does not include a codicil.

Illustrations

- (i) A, having ten shares, and no more, in the State Bank of India, made his Will, which contains near its commencement the words “I bequeath my ten shares in the State Bank of India to B”. After other bequests, the Will concludes with the words “and I bequeath my ten shares in the State Bank of India to B”. B is entitled simply to receive A’s ten shares in the State Bank of India.
- (ii) A, having one diamond ring, which was given to him by B, bequeaths to C the diamond ring which was given by B. A afterwards made a codicil to his Will, and thereby, after giving other legacies, he bequeathed to C the diamond ring which was given to him by B. C can claim nothing except the diamond ring which was given to A by B.

Rules of construction where Will purports to make bequests to same person.

Constitution of residuary legatee.

- 103. A residuary legatee may be constituted by any words that show an intention on the part of the testator that the person designated shall take the surplus or residue of her/his estate.

Illustrations

- (i) A makes her Will, consisting of several testamentary papers, in one of which are contained the following words: - "I think there will be something left, after all funeral expenses, etc., to give to B, now at school, towards equipping him to any profession he may hereafter be appointed to." - (iii) A bequeaths all his estate to B, except certain stock and funds, which he bequeaths to C. B is the residuary legatee.

Estate to which residuary legatee entitled.

- 104. Under a residuary bequest, the legatee is entitled to all estate belonging to the testator at the time of her/his death, of which she/he has not made any other testamentary disposition which is capable of taking effect.

Illustration

A by his Will bequeaths certain legacies, of which one is void and another lapses by the death of the legatee. He bequeaths the residue of his estate to B. After the date of his Will, A purchases a house, which belongs to him at the time of his death. B is entitled to the two legacies and the house as part of the residue.

Time of vesting legacy in general terms.

- 105. If a legacy is given in general terms, without specifying the time when it is to be paid, the legatee has a vested interest in it from the day of the death of the testator, and, if she/he dies without having received it, it shall pass to her/his representatives.

In what case legacy lapses.

- 106. (1) If the legatee does not survive the testator, the legacy cannot take effect, but shall lapse and form part of the residue of the testator's estate, unless it appears by the Will that the testator intended that it should go to some other person.
- (2) In order to entitle the representatives of the legatee to receive the legacy, it must be proved that she/he survived the testator.

Illustrations

- (i) The testator bequeaths to B "50,000 rupees which B owes me". B dies before the testator; the legacy lapses.
- (ii) A bequest is made to A and his children. A dies before the testator, or happens to be dead when the Will is made. The legacy to A and his children lapses.

- (vi) The testator and the legatee perished in the same ship-wreck. There is no evidence to show who died first. The legacy lapses.

- 107. If a legacy is given to two persons jointly, and one of them dies before the testator, the other legatee takes the whole.

Legacy does not lapse if one of two joint legatees dies before testator.

Illustration

The legacy is simply to A and B. A dies before the testator. B takes the legacy.

- 108. If a legacy is given to legatees in words which show that the testator intended to give them distinct shares of it, then, if any legatee dies before the testator, so much of the legacy as was intended for her/him shall fall into the residue of the testator's estate.

Effect of words showing testator's intention to give distinct shares.

Illustration

A sum of money is bequeathed to A, B and C, to be equally divided among them. A dies before the testator, B and C will only take so much as they would have had if A had survived the testator.

- 109. Where a share which lapses is a part of the general residue bequeathed by the Will, that share shall go as undisposed of.

When lapsed share goes as undisposed of.

Illustration

The testator bequeaths the residue of his estate to A, B and C, to be equally divided between them. A dies before the testator. His one-third of the residue goes as undisposed of.

- 110. Where a bequest has been made to any child or other lineal descendant of the testator, and the legatee dies in the lifetime of the testator, but any lineal descendant of her/his survives the testator, the bequest shall not lapse, but shall take effect as if the death of the legatee had happened immediately after the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention appears by the Will.

When bequest to testator's child or lineal descendant does not lapse on his death in testator's lifetime.

A makes his Will, by which he bequeaths a sum of money to his son, B, for his own absolute use and benefit. B dies before A, leaving a son, C, who survives A, and having made his Will whereby he bequeaths all his estate to his widow, D. The money goes to D.

- 111. Where a bequest is made to one person, for the benefit of another, the legacy does not lapse by the death, in the testator's lifetime, of the person to whom the bequest is made.

Bequest to A for benefit of B does not lapse by A's death.

- 112. Where a bequest is made simply to a described class of persons, the thing bequeathed shall go only to such as are alive at the testator's death.

Survivorship in case of bequest to described class.

Exception - If estate is bequeathed to a class of persons described as standing in a particular degree of kindred to a specified individual, but their possession of it is deferred until a time later than the death of the testator by reason of a prior bequest or otherwise, the estate shall at that time go to such of them as are then alive, and to the representatives of any of them who have died since the death of the testator.

Illustrations

- (i) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to “the children of B” without saying when it is to be distributed among them. B had died previous to the date of the Will, leaving three children, C, D and E. E died after the date of the Will, but before the death of A. C and D survive A. The legacy will belong to C and D, to the exclusion of the representatives of E.
- (ii) A lease for years of a house, was bequeathed to A for his life, and after his decease to the children of B. At the death of the testator, B had two children living, C and D, and he never had any other child. Afterwards, during the lifetime of A, C died, leaving E, his executor. D has survived A. D and E are jointly entitled to so much of the leasehold term as remains unexpired.
- (iii) A sum of money was bequeathed to A for her life, and after her decease to the children of B. At the death of the testator, B had two children living, C and D, and, after that event, two children, E and F, were born to B. C and E died in the lifetime of A, C having made a Will, E having made no Will. A has died, leaving D and F surviving her. The legacy is to be divided into four equal parts, one of which is to be paid to the executor of C, one to D, one to the administrator of E and one to F.
- (iv) A bequeaths one-third of his lands to B for his life, and after his decease to the sisters of B. At the death of the testator, B had two sisters living, C and D, and after that event another sister E was born. C died during the life of B. D and E have survived B. One-third of A's land belong to D, E and the representatives of C, in equal shares.
- (v) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to B for life and after his death equally among the children of C. Up to the death of B, C had not had any child. The bequest after the death of B is void.
- (vi) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to “all the children born or to be born” of B to be divided among them at the death of C. At the death of the testator, B has two children living, D and E. After the death of the testator, but in the lifetime of C, two other children, F and G, are born to B. After the death of C, another child is born to B. The legacy belongs to D, E, F and G, to the exclusion of the after-born child of B.
- (vii) A bequeaths a fund to the children of B, to be divided among them when the eldest shall attain majority. At the testator's death, B had one child living, named C. He afterwards had two other children, named D and E. E died, but C and D were living when C attained majority. The fund belongs to C, D and the representatives of E, to the exclusion of any child who may be born to B after C's attaining majority.

Void Bequests

Bequest to person by particular description, who is not in existence at testator's death.

- 113. Where a bequest is made to a person by a particular description, and there is no person in existence at the testator's death who answers the description, the bequest is void.

Exception - If estate is bequeathed to a person described as standing in a particular degree of kindred to a specified individual, but her/his possession of it is deferred until a time later than the death of the testator, by reason of a prior bequest or otherwise; and if a person answering the description is alive at the death of the testator, or comes into existence between that event and such later time, the estate shall, at such later time, go to that person, or, if she/he is dead, to her/his representatives.

Illustrations

- (i) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to the eldest son of B. At the death of the testator, B has no son. The bequest is void.

- (ii) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to B for life, and after his death to the eldest son of C. At the death of the testator, C had no son. Afterwards, during the life of B, a son is born to C. Upon B's death the legacy goes to C's son.
- (iii) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to B for life, and after his death to the eldest son of C. At the death of the testator, C had no son. Afterwards, during the life of B, a son, named D, is born to C. D dies, then B dies. The legacy goes to the representative of D.
- (iv) A bequeaths his estate of Surat Farms to B for life, and at his decease, to the eldest son of C. Up to the death of B, C has had no son. The bequest to C's eldest son is void.
- (v) A bequeaths 100,000 rupees to the eldest son of C, to be paid to him after the death of B. At the death of the testator C has no son, but a son is afterwards born to him during the life of B and is alive at B's death. C's son is entitled to the 100,000 rupees.

114. Where a bequest is made to a person not in existence at the time of the testator's death, subject to a prior bequest contained in the Will, the later bequest shall be void, unless it comprises the whole of the remaining interest of the testator in the thing bequeathed.

Bequest to person not in existence at testator's death subject to prior bequest.

Illustrations

- (i) Estate is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to his eldest son for life, and after the death of the latter to his eldest son. At the time of the testator's death, A has no son. Here the bequest to A's eldest son is a bequest to a person not in existence at the testator's death. It is not a bequest of the whole interest that remains to the testator. The bequest to A's eldest son for his life is void.
- (ii) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to his daughters. A survives the testator. A has daughters some of whom were not in existence at the testator's death. The bequest to A's daughters comprises the whole interest that remains to the testator in the thing bequeathed. The bequest to A's daughters is valid.
- (iii) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to his daughters, with a direction that, if any of them marries under the age of eighteen, her portion shall be settled so that it may belong, to herself for life and may be divisible among her children after her death. A has no daughters living at the time of the testator's death, but has daughters born afterwards who survive him. Here the direction for a settlement has the effect in the case of each daughter who marries under eighteen of substituting for the absolute bequest to her a bequest to her merely for her life; that is to say, a bequest to a person not in existence at the time of the testator's death of something which is less than the whole interest that remains to the testator in the thing bequeathed. The direction to settle the fund is void.
- (iv) A bequeaths a sum of money to B for life, and directs that upon the death of B the fund shall be settled upon his daughters, so that the portion of each daughter may belong to herself for life, and may be divided among her children after her death. B has no daughter living at the time of the testator's death. In this case the only bequest to the daughters of B is contained in the direction to settle the fund, and this direction amounts to a bequest to persons not yet born, of a life-interest in the fund, that is to say, of something which is less than the whole interest that remains to the testator in the thing bequeathed. The direction to settle the fund upon the daughters of B is void.

Rule against perpetuity.

115. No bequest is valid whereby the vesting of the thing bequeathed may be delayed beyond the life-time of one or more persons living at the testator's death and the minority of some person who shall be in existence at the expiration of that period, and to whom, if she/he attains full age, the thing bequeathed is to belong.

Illustrations

- (i) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life and after his death to B for his life; and after B's death to such of the sons of B as shall first attain the age of 25. A and B survive the testator. Here the son of B who shall first attain the age of 25 may be a son born after the death of the testator; such son may not attain 25 until more than 18 years have elapsed from the death of the longer liver of A and B; and the vesting of the fund may thus be delayed beyond the lifetime of A and B and the minority of the sons of B. The bequest after B's death is void.
- (ii) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to B for his life, and after B's death to such of B's sons as shall first attain the age of 25. B dies in the lifetime of the testator, leaving one or more sons. In this case the sons of B are persons living at the time of the testator's decease, and the time as when either of them will attain 25 necessarily falls within his own lifetime. The bequest is valid.
- (iii) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to B for his life, with a direction that after B's death it shall be divided amongst such of B's children as shall attain the age of 18, but that, if no child of B shall attain that age, the fund shall go to C. Here the time for the division of the fund must arrive at the latest at the expiration of 18 years from the death of B, a person living at the testator's decease. All the bequests are valid.
- (iv) A fund is bequeathed to trustees for the benefit of the testator's daughters, with a direction that, if any of them marry under age, her share of the fund shall be settled so as to devolve after her death upon such of her children as shall attain the age of 18. Any daughter of the testator to whom the direction applies must be in existence at his decease, and any portion of the fund which may eventually be settled as directed must vest not later than 18 years from the death of the daughters whose share it was. All these provisions are valid.

whom may come under rules in sections 114 and 115.

116. If a bequest is made to a class of persons with regard to some of whom it is inoperative by reason of the provisions of section 114 or section 115, such bequest shall be void in regard to those persons only, and not in regard to the whole class.

Illustrations

- (i) A fund is bequeathed to A for life, and after his death to all his children who shall attain the age of 25. A survives the testator, and has some children living at the testator's death. Each child of A's living at the testator's death must attain the age of 25 (if at all) within the limits allowed for a bequest. But A may have children after the testator's decease, some of whom may not attain the age of 25 until more than 18 years have elapsed after the decease of A. The bequest to A's children, therefore, is inoperative as to any child born after the testator's death; and in regard to those who do not attain the age of 25 within 18 years after A's death, but is operative in regard to the other children of A.
- (ii) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to B, C, D and all other children of A who shall attain the age of 25. B, C, D are children of A living at the testator's decease. In all other respects the case is the same as that supposed in illustration (i). Although the mention of B, C and D does not prevent the bequest from being regarded as a bequest to a class, it is not wholly void. It is operative as regards any of the children B, C or D, who attain the age of 25 within 18 years after A's death.

- 117. Where by reason of any of the rules contained in sections 114 and 115, any bequest in favour of a person or of a class of persons is void in regard to such person or the whole of such class, any bequest contained in the same Will and intended to take effect after or upon failure of such prior bequest is also void.

A and B survive the testator. The bequest to B is intended to take effect after the bequest to such of the sons of A as shall first attain the age of 25, which bequest is void under section 115. The bequest to B is void.
- (ii) A fund is bequeathed to A for his life, and after his death to such of his sons as shall first attain the age of 25, and, if no son of A shall attain that age, to B. A and B survive the testator. The bequest to B is intended to take effect upon failure of the bequest to such of A's sons as shall first attain the age of 25, which bequest is void under section 115. The bequest to B is void.
- 118. (1) Where the terms of a Will direct that the income arising from any estate shall be accumulated either wholly or in part during any period longer than a period of eighteen years from the death of the testator, such direction shall, save as hereinafter provided, be void to the extent to which the period during which the accumulation is directed exceeds the aforesaid period, and at the end of such period of eighteen years the estate and the income thereof shall be disposed of as if the period during which the accumulation has been directed to be made had elapsed.
- (2) This section shall not affect any direction for accumulation for the purpose of-
- (a) the payment of the debts of the testator or any other person taking any interest under the Will, or
- (b) the provision of portions for children or remoter issue of the testator or of any other person taking any interest under the Will, or
- (c) the preservation or maintenance of any estate bequeathed;
- and such direction may be made accordingly.

Effect of direction for accumulation.

Vesting of Legacies

- 119. Where by the terms of a bequest the legatee is not entitled to immediate possession of the thing bequeathed, a right to receive it at the proper time shall, unless a contrary intention appears by the Will, become vested in the legatee on the testator's death, and shall pass to the legatee's representatives if she/he dies before that time and without having received the legacy, and in such cases the legacy is from the testator's death said to be vested in interest.

Date of vesting of legacy when payment or possession postponed.

Explanation - An intention that a legacy to any person shall not become vested in interest in her/him is not to be inferred merely from a provision whereby the payment or possession of the thing bequeathed is postponed, or whereby a prior interest therein is bequeathed to some other person, or whereby the income arising from the fund bequeathed is directed to be accumulated until the time of payment arrives, or from a provision that, if a particular event shall happen, the legacy shall go over to another person.

- (iii) A fund is bequeathed to A for life, and after his death to B. On the testator's death the legacy to B becomes vested in interest in B.
- (iv) A fund is bequeathed to A until B attains the age of 18 and then to B. The legacy to B is vested in interest from the testator's death.
- (v) A bequeaths the whole of his estate to B upon trust to pay certain debts out of the income, and then to make over the fund to C. At A's death the gift to C becomes vested in interest in him.
- (vi) A fund is bequeathed to A, B and C in equal shares to be paid to them on their attaining the age of 18, respectively, with a proviso that, if all of them die under the age of 18, the legacy shall devolve upon D. On the death of the testator, the shares vested in interest in A, B and C, subject to be divested in case A, B and C shall all die under 18, and, upon the death of any of them (except the last survivor) under the age of 18, his vested interest passes, so subject, to his representatives.

Date of vesting when legacy contingent upon specified uncertain event.

- 120. (1) A legacy bequeathed in case a specified uncertain event shall happen does not vest until that event happens.
- (2) A legacy bequeathed in case a specified uncertain event shall not happen does not vest until the happening of that event becomes impossible.
- (3) In either case, until the condition has been fulfilled, the interest of the legatee is called contingent.

Exception - Where a fund is bequeathed to any person upon her/his attaining a particular age, and the Will also gives to her/him absolutely the income to arise from the fund before she/he reaches that age, or directs the income, or so much of it as may be necessary, to be applied for her/his benefit, the bequest of the fund is not contingent.

- (iii) An estate is bequeathed to A for life, and after his death to B if B shall then be living; but if B shall not be then living to C. A, B and C survive the testator. B and C each take a contingent interest in the estate until the event which is to vest it in one, or in the other has happened.
- (iv) An estate is bequeathed as in the case last supposed. B dies in the lifetime of A and C. Upon the death of B, C acquires a vested right to obtain possession of the estate upon A's death.
- (v) A legacy is bequeathed to A when she shall attain the age of 18 with a proviso that if she does not attain the age of 18, the legacy shall go to C. A and C each take a contingent interest in the legacy. A attains the age of 18. A becomes absolutely entitled to the legacy.
- (vi) An estate is bequeathed to A until he shall marry and after that event to B. B's interest in the bequest is contingent until the condition is fulfilled by A's marrying.
- (vii) An estate is bequeathed to A until he shall take advantage of any law for the relief of insolvent debtors, and after that event to B. B's interest in the bequest is contingent until A takes advantage of such a law.

- (viii) An estate is bequeathed to A if he shall pay 50,000 rupees to B. A's interest in the bequest is contingent until he has paid 50,000 rupees to B.
- (ix) A leaves his farm of Saputara to B, if B shall convey his own farm of Junagadh to C. B's interest in the bequest is contingent until he has conveyed the latter farm to C.
- (x) A fund is bequeathed to A if B shall not marry C within five years after the testator's death. A's interest in the legacy is contingent until the condition is fulfilled by the expiration of the five years without B's having married C, or by the occurrence within that period of an event which makes the marriage of B and C impossible.
- (xi) A fund is bequeathed to A if B shall not make any provision for him by Will. The legacy is contingent until B's death.
- (xii) A bequeaths to B 50,000 rupees a year upon his attaining the age of 18, and directs that the interest, or a competent part thereof, shall be applied for his benefit until he reaches that age. The legacy is vested.
- (xiii) A bequeaths to B 50,000 rupees when he shall attain the age of 18 and directs that a certain sum, out of another fund, shall be applied for his maintenance until he arrives at that age. The legacy is contingent.

- 121. Where a bequest is made only to such members of a class as shall have attained a particular age, a person who has not attained that age cannot have a vested interest in the legacy.

No child of A who is under the age of 18 has a vested interest in the bequest.

Onerous Bequests

Onerous bequests.

- 123. Where a Will contains two separate and independent bequests to the same person, the legatee is at liberty to accept one of them and refuse the other, although the former may be beneficial and the latter onerous.

One of two separate and independent bequests to same person may be accepted and other refused.

B refuses to accept the lease. He will not by this refusal forfeit the money.

Contingent Bequests

- 124. Where a legacy is given if a specified uncertain event shall happen and no time is mentioned in the Will for the occurrence of that event, the legacy cannot take effect, unless such event happens before the period when the fund bequeathed is payable or distributable.

Bequest contingent upon specified uncertain event, no time being mentioned for its occurrence.

- 131. (1) A bequest may be made to any person with the condition super-added, that, in case a specified uncertain event shall happen, the thing bequeathed shall go to another person, or that in case a specified uncertain event shall not happen, the thing bequeathed shall go over to another person.
- (2) In each case the ulterior bequest is subject to the rules contained in sections 120, 121, 122, 123, 124, 125, 126, 127, 129 and 130.

Succession Certificates

Court having jurisdiction to grant certificate.

365. The District Judge within whose jurisdiction the deceased ordinarily resided at the time of her/his death, or, if at that time she/he had no fixed place of residence, the District Judge, within whose jurisdiction any part of the estate of the deceased may be found, may grant a certificate under this Chapter.

Application for certificate.

366. (1) Application for such a certificate shall be made to the District Judge by a petition signed and verified by or on behalf of the applicant in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the signing and verification of a plaint by or on behalf of a plaintiff, and setting forth the following particulars, namely-

5 of 1908.

- (a) the time of the death of the deceased;

- (a) to be served on any person to whom, in the opinion of the Judge, special notice of the application should be given, and
- (b) to be posted on some conspicuous part of the court-house and published in such other manner, if any, as the Judge, subject to any rules made by the High Court in this behalf, thinks fit, and upon the day fixed, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, shall proceed to decide in a summary manner the right to the certificate.

- (2) When the Judge decides the right thereto to belong to the applicant, the Judge shall make an order for the grant of the certificate to her/him.
- (3) If the Judge cannot decide the right to the certificate without determining questions of law or fact which seem to be too intricate and difficult for determination in a summary proceeding, she/he may nevertheless grant a certificate to the applicant if she/he appears to be the person having prima facie the best title thereto.
- (4) When there are more applicants than one for a certificate, and it appears to the Judge that more than one of such applicants are interested in the estate of the deceased, the Judge may, in deciding to whom the certificate is to be granted, have regard to the extent of interest and the fitness in other respects of the applicants.
- 368. When the District Judge grants a certificate, she/he shall therein specify the debts and securities set forth in the application for the certificate, and may thereby empower the person to whom the certificate is granted-

 - (2) to negotiate or transfer, or
 - (3) both to receive interest or dividends on, and to negotiate or transfer, the securities or any of them.
- 369. (1) The District Judge shall in any case in which she/he proposes to proceed under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 367, and may, in any other case, require, as a condition precedent to the granting of a certificate, that the person to whom she/he proposes to make the grant shall give to the Judge a bond with one or more surety or sureties, or other sufficient security, for rendering an account of debts and securities received by her/him and for indemnity of persons who may be entitled to the whole or any part of those debts and securities.
- (2) The Judge may, on application made by petitioner and on cause shown to her/his satisfaction, and upon such terms as to security, or providing that the money received be paid into court, or otherwise, as she/he thinks fit, assign the bond or other security to some proper person, and that person shall thereupon be entitled to sue thereon in her/his own name as if it had been originally given to her/him instead of to the Judge of the court, and to recover, as trustee for all persons interested, such amount as may be recoverable thereunder.
- 370. (1) A District Judge may, on the application of the holder of a certificate under this Chapter, extend the certificate to any debt or security not originally specified therein, and every such extension shall have the same effect as if the debt or security to which the certificate is extended had been originally specified therein.

- 371. Certificates shall be granted and extensions of certificates shall be made, as nearly as circumstances admit, in the forms set forth in Schedule-7.
- 372. Where a District Judge has not conferred on the holder of a certificate any power with respect to a security specified in the certificate, or has only empowered her/him to receive interest or dividends on, or to negotiate or transfer the security, the Judge may, on application made by petitioner and on cause shown to her/his satisfaction, amend the certificate by conferring any of the powers mentioned in section 368 or by substituting any one for any other of those powers.

- Appeal. 377. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this Chapter, an appeal shall lie to the High Court from an order of a District Judge granting, refusing or revoking a certificate under this Chapter, and the High Court may, if it thinks fit, by its order on the appeal, declare the person to whom the certificate should be granted and direct the District Judge, on application being made therefor, to grant it accordingly, in supersession of the certificate, if any, already granted.

- Effect on certificate of previous certificate, probate or letters of administration. 378. Save as provided by this Part, a certificate granted thereunder in respect of any of the effects of a deceased person shall be invalid if there has been a previous grant of such a certificate or of probate or letters of administration in respect of the estate of the deceased person and if such previous grant is in force.

- 380. No decision under this Chapter upon any question of right between any parties shall be held to bar the trial of the same question in any suit or in any other proceeding between the same parties, and nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of any debt or security, or any interest or dividend on any security, to account therefor to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In pursuance of the constitutional mandate enshrined under Article 44 of the Directive Principles of State Policy, which calls upon the State to endeavor to secure for its citizens a Uniform Civil Code throughout the territory, the Government of Gujarat has constituted a committee under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Justice (R.), Ranjana Prakash Desai, to assess the need for implementing Uniform Civil Code in Gujarat and then, based on the assessed need, suggest the contours of such a law.
