The Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970 (Mah. XV of 1971) has been enacted to provide for the ownership of an individual apartment in a building and to make such apartment heritable and transferable property and to provide for matters connected therewith.

2. While implementing the provisions of the said Act, it has been observed that, certain buildings covered by the said Act, though require re-construction or re-development, it is not possible to undertake such re-construction or re-development as the consent of all the members of Association of Apartment Owners is required. It has been also noticed that, if such buildings are not re-constructed or re-developed in time, there is a likelihood of risk of life to the residents therein. With a view to overcome such problems and difficulties, it is considered expedient to amend the said Act, suitably.

3. The salient features of the proposed amendments are as under,—

(a) the definition of “apartment” is proposed to modify on the lines of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (16 of 2016);

(b) to provide for repair or re-construction or re-development of the dilapidated buildings, after obtaining the consent of majority of apartment owners ;

(c) to make the consequential amendments in view of the proposed amendments.

4. The Bill seeks to achieve the about objectives.
