STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Sections 326A, 326B, 354, 354A, 354B, 354C, 354D, 376, 376A, 376AB, 376B, 376C, 376D, 376DA, 376DB and 376E of the Indian Penal Code, (45 of 1860) provides for offences against women regarding heinous and sexual offences. The Parliament has enacted the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 (32 of 2012) to protect the children from offences of sexual assault, sexual harassment and pornography and for establishment of Special Courts for trial of such offences. The offences against women and children, specially sexual offences have been increased many fold in the State. The perpetrators continue their inhuman acts on innocent and helpless women and children despite the penal provisions in the said Acts. Recently, such numerous inhuman acts have been taken place in the State where the women were subjected to rape, burning alive and murder. Such incidents are shocking to the social conscience.

2. In order to effectively control the heinous and sexual offence against women and children, the Government had appointed a Committee to make suggestions for stringent punishment and other related matters to amend the said Acts. The Committee has submitted its report to the Government. The Committee suggested amendments in the Indian Penal Code, the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 and Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974) to provide for heavy fines and penalty upto death to the accused and speedy investigation and speedy trials of the said offences.

The Government has considered the said report and decided to make more stringent punishment for such heinous and sexual crimes against women and children and therefore, proposes to make suitable amendments in sections relating to heinous and sexual offences against women and children in the Indian Penal Code, the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

3. The salient features of the proposed law are as follows :

(1) Amendments are proposed in the Indian Penal Code,—

(i) to provide for life imprisonment for the remainder of natural life of such person and heavy fines for heinous and sexual offences ;

(ii) to provide for death punishment for such grave offences ;

(iii) to provide for punishment for failure to share any data with investigating officer relating to such offences by social media platform, internet or mobile telephony data providers, etc.;

(iv) to provide for punishment for not furnishing information or assistance for investigation of offences ;

(v) to provide for punishment for intimidating women by any mode of communication ;
(vi) to provide for punishment for false complaints or false information.

(2) Amendments are proposed in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973,—

(i) to make compulsory for media platform, internet or mobile telephony data providers, etc, to share data including any document or electronic record relating to such offences to the investigation officer;

(ii) to call public servant or two social workers while making search of places by investigation officer;

(iii) to complete the investigation within the period of fifteen working days from the date on which the information was recorded by the officer incharge of police station;

(iv) to complete the inquiry and trial within the period of thirty working days from the date of filing of charge sheet;

(v) to held in camera proceedings in the chamber of Presiding Officer for recording of evidence of victims and witnesses;

(vi) to reduce the period for disposal of appeal by any person or by the State Government from six months to forty-five days;

(vii) to make stringent provisions for anticipatory bail to the accused persons for the said offences.

(3) Amendments are proposed in the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012,

(i) to provide for life imprisonment for the remainder of natural life of such person and heavy fines for the offences under sections 4, 8 and 10 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2010;

(ii) to provide for death punishment for certain grave offences.

4. The Bill is intended to achieve the above objectives.

Mumbai,

ANIL DESHMUKH,
dated the 13th December 2020.  Minister for Home.
MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION.

The Bill involves the following proposal for delegation of legislative power, namely.

Clause 1(2).—Under this clause, power is taken to the State Government to bring the Act into force on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

2. The above-mentioned proposal for delegation of legislative power is of a normal character.
