THE MIZORAM COMPULSORY REGISTRATION OF MARRIAGES (AMENDMENT) BILL, 2023
STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

1. The existing Mizoram Compulsory Registration of Marriages Act, 2007 (in short MCRM Act, 2007) has been amended once vide Mizoram Compulsory Registration of Marriages (Amendment) Act, 2015 (Act No.7 of 2015). However, in compliance with the Central Government’s Decriminalization policy on minor civil offenses, an amendment is still needed for the same.

2. The Present proposal aims to reduce imprisonment on conviction in minor civil offences under this Act which will have a positive result in reducing the prison population and thereby reduce the financial burden of the prison administration. The other aim is to prevent citizens who commit minor civil offence from going to jail with hardened criminals who committed a serious offence against the State.

3. The proposal, being in the interest of both the Government and the people may, there, be kindly considered favourably by the Hon’ble Council of Ministers.
