STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Sikkim Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 was enacted and implemented from July 2017. The Act was amended in 2018; 2020, 2022 and 2023 for making the tax administration effective and for making tax compliance easy.

It is found necessary to amend certain provisions of the Act for improvement of tax administration and mainly for:

- (a) Making the return to be filed by deducting authority mandatory for every calendar month whether or not any deductions have been made during the said month and
- (b) to consolidate the provisions of Sections 73 and 74 by introducing new Section 74A to establish clear time frames for issuing demand notice and to provide relief in penalty for cases where no intentional fraud or wilful misrepresentation is involved.

The Goods and Services Council constituted under Article 279A of the Constitution of India has approved and recommended the amendments. Accordingly, the amendments have been incorporated in the Central Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 by enactment of the Finance Act, 2024 (No. 8 of 2024) and by enactment of the Finance (No. 2) Act, 2024 (No. 15 of 2024).

In view of the above, it has become necessary to have the Sikkim Goods and Services Tax Act, 2017 amended. The proposed amendments aim to strengthen the tax administration and simplify compliance process.

With these objectives in view, this bill has been framed.
